

Chapter 687

"Yes, of course I am. What do you think? Don't hide it anymore. You want to be the head of the Yeager family, right?"

"Yes, I do want to, but will you let me? Don't think that I don't know what you're trying to do," Loomis was no fool.

As soon as Chuck finished speaking, Loomis understood what he meant.

He was trying to use him to create chaos for the Yeager family!

"So what? You can't refuse me anyway. Be careful for maybe I'll give you a surprise."

"You...?!" Loomis had an angry expression on his face, but he was secretly overjoyed.

How delightful was it for Chuck to make such a request to his liking!

Loomis had always wanted to be the head of the family. However, he was not presented with the opportunity. Now that he was forced by Chuck, he could only openly compete for the position of the family head.

This was exactly what Loomis wanted!

As soon as he became the head of the family, Chuck would not be able to use his dark secrets against him anymore.

"Chuck, you'd better not test my limits!" Loomis roared, faking his anger.

"Go on, keep on acting! I'll give you three seconds, do you agree or not?"

"One!"

"Two!!"

"Three!"

"I agree!" Loomis' face was ferocious!

"Great. Then how do you plan to take over the family? Can you tell me? I will offer you my utmost cooperation!" Chuck offered.

Loomis was silent for a while. Then, he said, "Currently, my grandfather is seriously ill. When he passes away in a few days, my father will secure the position for me, so..."

"So you don't need me?"

"It's not that! You don't know what's going on inside my family. I was just one of the candidates for the position of the family head in the past. In other words, I have other opponents!" In his head, Loomis was laughing sinisterly.

There would definitely be other opponents. Among the descendants of the Yeager family, there were quite a number of outstandingly strong people. In the Whitlock family, only Adriana was extremely powerful. Loomis, on the other hand, had some rivals on his plate.

If Loomis was as strong as Adriana, he would be the true heir to the throne!

"Do you mean that you want me to help you deal with these opponents?"

"It depends on how you understand it. As long as you help me deal with my strongest opponent, the chances of me procuring the position of family head will be even greater!"

"Who are you talking about?"

"One of my cousin sisters!" Loomis said.

"Other than that?"

"There's no one else. As long as you take care of her for me, I won't need your help in the future!" Loomis reminded him. He did not want Chuck to interfere too much for the matter would be very serious otherwise.

"It's not up to you to decide. You have to know that I'm the one who made you the head of the family," Chuck declared coldly.

"Got it," Loomis replied hatefully.

Fine, he'd allow Chuck a few days to gloat, but he would surely torture him afterwards!"

"Send all the information about your cousin to me in detail. I'll help you solve this problem!"

"No problem! But you have to be careful. We are not on good terms. She didn't show up when I got married last time, so you should know..." However, Chuck interrupted Loomis before he could finish his words, "Stop your blabbering. Send me a detailed report!"

With that, the phone was hung up!

Loomis was enraged, but he soon calmed down and smirked coldly. He found some detailed information about his cousin. In the documents, he prepared for Chuck was a picture of her. She was a beautiful woman as well.

"Sabina, don't blame me. You have only yourself to blame. Why are you so smart? You competed with me for the position of family head. Your cleverness is the harbinger of your doom," Loomis sent Sabina's information to Chuck.

Loomis didn't expect Chuck to kill Sabina in any way that would include fighting since Sabina was also a master in combat. He only hoped that Chuck would approach Sabina secretly and pull out a bomb.

If that happened, even if Sabina was a combat master, it would still be useless. She would definitely die!!

Thinking of this, Loomis laughed hysterically, "Chuck Cannon, are you helping me? While you're trying to set me up, you're also growing closer to your demise. When I become the family head, I'll make sure you die a terrible death!"

Meanwhile.

Chuck saw the message, and so did Karen, Willa and Betty.

Karen stared at the information and thought for a while. She said, "I've never heard of this Sabina Yeager."

Indeed, when Karen saw the girl in the photo, it was an unfamiliar face. It seemed that a hidden family like the Yeager family also had the habit of letting their children thrive outside in order to improve their children's abilities!

Sabina might appear ordinary on the surface, but once the time was up, she would return to the family and regain her glorious identity!

Once such a test ended, she would definitely emerge with terrifying abilities!

"I don't know her either," Willa shook her head.

Betty was the same. If they didn't know about it, how could Chuck figure her out?

However, according to Loomis' information, Sabina Yeager was now the headmaster of a school. She really managed to mask her identity well.

The specific location of the school was also uncovered. Therefore, what they needed to do now was to find a way to take care of Sabina.

Now, the question was, how?

Sabina was also a combat expert!

"Let me do it," Willa suggested.

She had recovered and was ready to fight with Sabina.

"You don't have to go. Let Chucky go!" Karen looked at Chuck seriously.

In fact, Chuck was thinking the same too. He needed practical experience to improve his strength, and this was a good chance for him!

Not to mention that Black Rose was secretly protecting him!

Hence, he was in greater need of this opportunity.

"Chucky, are you up for it?" Karen asked.

Willa was worried, but Chuck shrugged and replied, "I'm willing to kill this Sabina Yeager!"

"Great!" Karen nodded, assured by her son's decisiveness.

She had a feeling he wouldn't turn this opportunity down since she knew her son like the back of her hand.

Willa had something to say, but she eventually chose not to.

Her concern for him was eating away at her.

"Then go and prepare for it, Chucky! It's best to kill her in three days!" Karen said.

"Got it," Chuck immediately went to pack up his things.

"This Sabina doesn't seem to be a simple woman. I am worried for Chucky..." Willa shook her head with an apprehensive look.

"This is the process of his training. You can't help him, and neither can I. In the end, he'll still have to walk his own path, won't he?" Karen did not want Chuck to become pampered.

What was the use if she tried to shield him from everything?

What Chuck needed now was a quick improvement.

Willa was speechless. Karen was right, but she still couldn't help but worry.

After being with Chuck for one night, she was really worried beyond words.

"Don't worry, Chucky will do well," Karen was confident. Chuck was extremely talented in fighting, and he was now a true expert in fighting!

Willa did not say anything, but her worry was not reduced. On the contrary, it grew even larger.

Chuck had already made preparations and informed Yvette on the phone. Yvette was about to come back soon, but Chuck rejected her and assured her that she didn't have to worry about it.

How could Yvette not be worried?

Chuck said a few words to her to finally ease her worries. With that, he hung up the phone and boarded the plane to Sabina's school.

Sabina was not in the United States, but her school was near the border. Karen had already prepared a private plane for Chuck and Black Rose.

Chuck carefully flipped through Sabina's information in order to study her weakness so that he could kill her. After all, she was someone who was going under trials from the Yeager family, so her strength would be pretty great.

Black Rose was silent.

The journey on the plane didn't take long. When Chuck finished studying the documents, it was almost time for him to get off the plane after he arrived at the private airport.

Then, he drove to the school.

No matter how one looked at her, Sabina seemed like a beautiful school headmistress. When Chuck arrived at the school, he found a place to hide and started observing the school premises through some binoculars. He found that the school was quite shabby, just like a village primary school.

It was truly unique to choose such a place to test out the abilities of the Yeager family descendants.

Suddenly, he caught a glimpse of a woman writing down something in an office. She was wearing thick glasses, but she looked like she had a good figure. Even though she was dressed ordinarily, it couldn't hide her beautiful features and the noble temperament that she brought with her that was representative of the hidden family.

Long story short, Chuck found her. He commented, "She looks very normal. Most people probably won't figure out her true identity. It seems that she has been released by the Yeager family since she was a child and has fended for herself until now..."

"Normal? This kind of person can't be normal!" Black Rose said coldly.

"I know," Chuck kept his binoculars away. This woman was wearing thick glasses. She seemed like a good teacher, just like Yvette back then.

It was a pity that Sabin was someone from a hidden family. She was also Loomis's rival, hence her death was inevitable!
