

Chapter 797

Libby suddenly felt uneasy upon coming to her senses. She did not know how to express it. For the first time in her life, she stammered in front of a person. "Chuck, just now..."

Suddenly, she thought of a question. If she was not Quinn's mother, would she have to kneel for three days, just like Sergio?

She was terrified!

"It's fine." Chuck shrugged.

She was Quinn's mother, and therefore Chuck would definitely not do anything to her.

"Chuck..." Quinn was very grateful to Chuck.

"It's okay. Let's go for dinner!"

All of a sudden, Libby felt perplexed.

She had made a mistake. She did not know that Chuck was stronger than the cowardice Sergio who was kneeling in front of them!

When the three of them were leaving, Sergio lowered his head and was too embarrassed to face Quinn.

The person he liked was leaving with another man. But he could do nothing about it!

Chuck glanced at Sergio and thought to himself, "Serves you right!"

Otherwise, Chuck would have already ordered Spencer to bring his men to pay the Felton family a visit. Seeing that Sergio had been so obedient, Chuck decided to let him go.

However, if he did not kneel for three days as promised, Chuck would deal with him!

It was up to Sergio.

His life was in his own hands!

"Mr. Felton, he's gone. You can get up now. He will not know..." Someone in the crowd said.

Sergio wanted to stand up and leave too.

His legs were already numb.

But he did not dare to!

"All of you, go away. I will kneel for three days!" Sergio said while enduring the pain.

He had no choice. After all, a pair of crippled legs was still better than death.

He knew which to choose and which to sacrifice!

"You'll kneel for three days? Mr. Felton, who on earth is he?" The onlookers were all shocked.

"A person that I could not afford to offend..." Sergio said regretfully.

Everyone was stunned!

After the dinner...

Chuck set them home mainly because he still wanted to help Quinn. Quinn was in so much debt, how would she repay the debts herself?

After they had slept together, Chuck could not bear to see her suffer.

"Chuck, you can sleep in this room with Quinn tonight."

Libby still could not let go, even though she realized Chuck was very easy-going and friendly during the dinner earlier.

However, as soon as she thought of Chuck as a super rich person, she was still afraid of him. She was afraid that if Chuck broke up with Quinn one day, he would take revenge on her.

Quinn felt a little embarrassed.

Although she had slept with Chuck twice, but...

"Thank you," Chuck said with a smile.

Libby returned to her room. She did not dare to look at Chuck as he had an overpowering vibe.

"Sister Miller, come in please!" Chuck smiled.

Quinn walked in sheepishly.

She thought about the courage she had when they first slept together. Quinn took a deep breath and rushed toward Chuck.

"I'll lend you the money to repay your debts." Chuck held Quinn.

The woman was strong-willed.

When Chuck thought back to the time when they first met, he could not help but laugh out loud.

Quinn wanted to refuse, but she could not resist Chuck's gentle tone. "Okay, I'll borrow your money, but I will definitely pay you back!"

Quinn made a solemn vow!

She was not joking. She would definitely pay him back!

What Chuck said was meant as an excuse. How could he ask Quinn to pay him back? Quinn was his woman.

"Why don't you pay the interest now?" Chuck asked with a slight smile.

"Chuck, you are naughty, but I like it." Quinn's face was red.

Nancy was in a state of shock. What was she doing?

She could not think reasonably. Chuck actually took over a jewelry chain store of more than a hundred outlets!

When she received Chuck's call, she found it hard to believe!

Everything happened too fast. Chuck actually bought more than a hundred stores?

When Matteo made the arrangements the next day, Chuck asked Betty to estimate the value. After that, Chuck offered 10% higher than the market price and transfer the amount into Matteo's account.

Matteo certainly would not say a word since he would receive so much money.

It was in the afternoon when Nancy finally asked, "Chuck, why did you buy them?"

She was just too curious!

It was extremely easy for Chuck to buy anything he wanted. In two days, he had spent over 10 billion to buy over 100 stores!

Chuck did not elaborate much. His brief explanation caused Nancy to be even more shocked!

It was true that a super rich person would be so straightforward when it came to business! Ten billion dollars worth of investment was just a piece of cake!

The world of the extremely wealthy was so casual. Wasn't it boring?

"We need to speed up the production line. As for the stores, I'll get someone to manage it," Chuck said.

There was no problem with the sales. Now that the stock supply was settled, it would not take too long to start and take over the jewelry market in the country.

"Yes, I will work hard! Chuck, please give me a chance!"

Nancy worked hard. She wanted to be someone like Yolanda, who had gained Chuck's trust!

"I will give you the chance! It depends whether or not you can seize it." Chuck admired employees who were strong-willed.

Nancy had a determined look in her eyes.

"I will!"

Nancy was pleasantly surprised! She would not let Chuck down!

Yolanda accelerated the refurbishing of the pharmaceutical factory. Chuck was pleased with Yolanda's efficiency. He believed that the production line could be completed in a few days. It would be easy to make money then.

He needed to build and strengthen his business empire quickly!

"President Lee, Young Master Cannon just bought a store chain with more than a hundred outlets. The stone production line is in progress and very much in order for the future jewelry retail stores. There is also a pharmaceutical factory..." Betty reported to Karen.

Karen felt gratified. Chuck did not disappoint her. He had made great progress!

He needed to act fast. She found out that the Yeager family had made great progress in recent days too!

It meant that Sabina could no longer hold back. It was a signal of danger.

"Tell Chuck to be cautious! Also, let him invest freely. To become the richest person, investments must be diversified. "

"I understand."

Karen and Willa were talking to each other. Willa had not returned to the home country as she was still waiting.

"Willa, I think you can go home," Karen said.

The situation seemed urgent.

"Okay." In fact, Willa could not wait any longer. She was eager to meet Chuck.

Willa went to pack up. Karen paused for a few seconds, "Willa..."

"Yes, Auntie Karen?" Willa had never seen Karen so solemn.

It was as if she had encountered a formidable enemy!

"The Yeager family has always been the hidden family. Furthermore, they are now controlled by Sabina who has unlimited potential. Which is why it is even more difficult to predict their next move? Therefore... if I die one day, tell Chuck to proceed with whatever he wants." Karen was extremely calm.

To deal with the Yeager family, one had to be prepared to die!

But would Karen die?

Chapter 798

Karen was not sure herself!

She knew she would eventually die, because it was the law of nature.

However, it was a matter of whether she would die in the hands of the Yeager family or the Whitlock family!

For the first time, Karen was uncertain!

Sabina had grown so much. She was almost the same as Karen was back then. Karen knew how terrifying it was!

On top of that, the super smart Adriana was keeping an eye on her like a tiger eyeing on its prey. She was emotionally unstable and also a threat to her.

Could this matter be resolved? Karen, who always had a good sixth sense, was not sure at that moment.

She only wanted to make sure of one thing, and that was for Chuck, her only son, to die of old age naturally and not by being murdered.

"Auntie Karen?"

Willa was shocked!

She knew Karen had always been confident, but she did not underestimate her enemies. How could she be so hesitant at that moment?

Willa also understood that the strength of the hidden family was unimaginable!

The hidden family had over thousands of years of history and had been passed on for many generations. However, Karen had only been established for over 20 years. There seemed to be a huge difference in comparison.

The difference was obvious to all!

If Karen's family had been passed on for thousands of years and many generations, would the hidden family still exist?

Time waited for no man.

How could Karen have enough time to grow and expand?

"Yes, I know what I'm doing. You should go back to the home country first!" Karen said calmly.

Willa was silent for a moment. She felt powerless as she went to pack her things and left.

She knew that it was the best to listen to Karen at that moment.

Willa knew that Karen was trying to buy more time for Chuck's expansion, as Sabrina and Adriana would be targeting Chuck!

After Willa left, Karen calmed herself and then called Betty, "Betty. go to my room in Hotel Luna and take out a box under my bed! Hand the things in the box to Chuck!"

"President Lee?" Betty did not know that Karen had placed something underneath the bed.

"I have a hunch that something bad is about to happen, therefore I'm sending Chuck to the place where I learned my battle skills..." Karen said.

"Can he endure it?"

"He needs to endure it no matter what! Up until today, the Whitlock family has yet to have a truly powerful person! If the most powerful person has been discovered by the Whitlock family, then..."

Last time, she had dealt with Adriana's bodyguard. The man was no match for Karen, but the Whitlock family was the top family in the world. There must be some hidden masters who had not showed up yet!

Karen had never met such a master before, therefore she was not sure!

It was time to retaliate!

If those people were to look for Karen, what would Karen be afraid of?

To be honest, Karen was even a little excited because she had not used her true strength in over so many years.

But what if they targeted Chuck?

How could Chuck be able to resist them with his existing skills?

Although Adriana was very good to Chuck, a woman like Adriana had a strong desire to control others. Once Chuck pushed her past her limits, he would need to deal with the Whitlock family's crazy revenge!

How long would it take for Adriana to lose her patience? Karen was not sure at all!

But Karen knew it would happen soon!

"I understand. I will give it to him immediately!" Betty went to retrieve the box right away.

"Tell Chuck that I used to be there for training for 15 days. Since he's my son, I hope he will use the same amount of time as I did. He can decide on the date, but the sooner the better!" Karen had high expectations of him.

Karen's strength was not just because of her own talent, but also from her continuous practice.

Chuck had learned the skills before, but it was just the basics!

The place where Karen wanted Chuck to go would involve intense training!

It was challenging to make it out of that place alive.

As long as he could make it out, he would become a superb battle master!

In the real world of battle, he would definitely emerge at the top!

Once that happened, Karen would not be worried for Chuck anymore!

"Chuck, there are things that I cannot help you with. It's up to you. Don't let me down. I've always trusted you! If you can defeat them, then..." Karen's eyes were filled with anticipation and gratification...

"President Lee wanted me to give this to you." Betty found the box that Karen mentioned. There was a piece of jade inside.

There was the word 'Battle' imprinted on it!

Chuck was taken aback, "What on earth is this?"

"It is similar to the school that you have gone to last time, but it's much better. President Lee stayed there before for a few days!" Betty did not know much.

Chuck suddenly realized that it was almost the same as his current school.

Chuck had basic battle skills. If he went to that school, he would be able to improve his battle skills in a short period of time!

"I did not know that my mother had been there before." Chuck shrugged, "Where is it?"

"Please decide on the date. After you've decided, I'll bring you there!" Betty said.

She knew that Chuck had his own plans recently.

When Chuck was free from distractions, his progress would even be faster.

Chuck was silent for a moment. "Okay, I got it."

"I'll go there a few days later. Once I've returned, my strength will be almost the same like Mom's, wouldn't it?" He thought.

Chuck looked forward to it!

Among all the people that Chuck had come into contact with, his mother was the best in terms of combat skills!

Even the strongest bodyguard of the Yeager family was not a match for his mother!

However, when he met Adriana for the first time, she said that if the bodyguards of the Whitlock family were to be ranked, his mother would not even make it into the top 100. How exaggerated was that?

Chuck was not clear at that stage.

However, Chuck knew that since the Whitlock family was the top family, there must be many battle masters among them. Where would his mother rank among them?

Would he be qualified to be placed in the ranking?

Chuck was unsure.

The only thing he knew was that no matter how powerful the others were, it was useless to him. After all, only by improving one's own strength could that person become the champion!

Therefore, wherever his mother wanted him to go, he would definitely oblige!

"Then, you can decide on the date. Just tell me when!" Betty then left.

Chuck put the jade away. An average person would definitely not be able to enter that place, as they needed to be recommended by someone. Was that place in that ravine?

After all, it was in the forest previously!

While Chuck thought about that, Yolanda suddenly called him, and he answered in surprise.

"Chuck, where are you?"

"At Quinn's place." Chuck had been with Quinn the previous night, but Quinn left to run her errands that morning.

"Something happened!" Yolanda said.
