

Chapter 350

Elena felt helpless. Frieda had too much prejudice against Chuck. What should she do? Elena regretted it. When Chuck had transferred his money to Aaron, she should have pulled Frieda along with her to witness it. Then, Frieda would probably be shocked as she was at that time too.

Frieda's reaction might even be bigger than hers. After all, those who could afford to compensate so much money were rich. They could easily purchase a five million dollars sports car or even afford to buy a plane, right?

Chuck would definitely meet Frieda's standards!

Elena wanted Frieda to give Chuck a chance to add her on WhatsApp and then they might end up being together.

Yet now, Frieda had such a deep misunderstanding on Chuck. How could she possibly give Chuck a chance to add her on WhatsApp?

"Frieda, you can go in and ask him. I really didn't lie to you," Elena insisted. She was helpless and had no choice but to hold onto Frieda's hand to stop her from leaving.

"Let me go, do you hear me? If you ever mention his name in front of me again, I'll never talk to you," Frieda said furiously. She couldn't understand why Elena, her best friend, would say that. Was she trying to push her into the depths of H*ll?

To tell the truth, when Frieda found out today that Chuck was in this classroom, she had already made up her mind that she would never go this way from now on.

It was because Chuck had utterly disgusted her. She loathed him so much that she found him repulsive whenever she saw him, just like right now.

"Hey, Chuck, come out!" Elena shouted at Chuck who was in the classroom, disregarding Frieda's earlier warning.

Concurrently, the class had yet to begin. Therefore, the whole class turned to them when Elena suddenly yelled at Chuck.

They turned to see that there were two beauties at the door, especially Frieda!

Everyone made a ruckus at the sight of them, mainly the boys who were staring at her tentatively.

"Hey, that is Frieda, the new campus belle!" someone exclaimed.

"My God, her legs are so long. She must be more than 1.7 meters tall," another student said.

"Why is she here? Why is she looking for Chuck? Did I hear it wrongly?" someone else asked.

"You didn't hear it wrongly. They are really here for Chuck," a classmate replied.

A student said with jealousy, "Oh my God, why is the campus belle looking for that loser Chuck? It must be because Chuck treated all the students to coffee a few days ago. Hence, he became popular overnight. And so the campus belle came to see a clown like him."

"I think so too. I'm sure of it! If it weren't for that, why would the campus belle find Chuck?" another chipped in. The whole class was very jealous. Previously, Yolanda had come to find Chuck and this time, the new campus belle was also here for him. What did that mean? Did the school run out of men?

Seeing the scene, Lara curled her lips and wondered what was going on.

Why was the new campus belle here?

Queenie was also taken aback. She was surprised that Chuck knew this new campus belle.

Chuck glanced at Elena. Then, Elena continued, "Come out. I have a question for you. Come out now!"

Chuck did not bother to pay attention to her. Seeing his attitude, Elena was anxious as she said to Frieda, "Frieda, wait a minute."

Elena then ran into the classroom, pulled Chuck's arm and wanted to drag him out. Chuck was at a loss of words. His hand seemed to have touched something. It was then he discovered that Elena seemed to have a good figure, too.

The whole class was shocked. What? How could Elena take the initiative to drag Chuck out? Chuck's hand had even touched her breast! Was this woman a fool? The boys in the class were all envious, jealous and resentful.

Elena was not as pretty as Frieda but she was also a beautiful woman. Besides, her figure was very good. She was just letting the loser Chuck take advantage of her when she tugged at him!

"What are you doing? What's the matter?" Chuck asked as he was dragged out helplessly.

Elena was surprised when she felt his arm under her touch and asked, "Wow, your arm is very muscular. Do you exercise often?"

Elena felt that Chuck must have been training his arms. She could feel that it was full of strength when she was tugging him just now.

Hearing this, Frieda felt disgusted as she stared at Elena. Had Elena not seen a man before?

"What's the matter?" Chuck repeated as he had no recollection of the two women. Nonetheless, Chuck was still a little surprised. After all, he had slapped Elena twice and he completely did not expect her to drag him out in public.

"Let me ask you, did you transfer 2.5 billion dollars to Aaron by installment?" Elena was nervous as she asked. Of course, she knew that Chuck did. She asked this question only so that Frieda would know the truth.

Chuck felt a little strange as he wondered why she was asking him this.

Elena looked at Chuck who remained silent. She was uneasy and she quickly whispered in Chuck's ear, "Come on, I've seen Aaron's text message. You must have transferred 2.5 billion dollars to Aaron. As long as you tell us, Frieda will give you a chance."

"Chance? What chance?" Chuck was confused. What chance could Frieda possibly give him? Why did he need her to give him a chance?

"Come on, Frieda has a standard, that is she would only add those who own a five million dollars sports cars on her WhatsApp. This is your opportunity!" Elena replied impatiently.

Chuck finally understood the situation. It turned out to be such an opportunity.

Chuck looked at Frieda and said faintly, "No, I didn't transfer 2.5 billion dollars to Aaron."

Elena was stunned and she yelled, "Why did you say that? You've obviously transferred it to him. Why did you lie? Tell us the truth!"

Frieda's beautiful eyes were filled with extreme abhorrence. Chuck's words made her feel nauseous and she felt like vomiting.

"What do you want me to say? I'm telling you the truth," Chuck replied with a shrug.

"You did, I saw it with my own eyes!" Elena said sharply.

"No, I didn't," Chuck insisted.

Elena was caught off guard as she thought, "What's going on? Frieda is the campus belle. She has fair skin, beautiful face and long legs that every man would die for. Does it mean that Chuck lied because he is not interested in Frieda?"

It was true. Chuck did not fancy Frieda. It was undeniable that she was beautiful like Yolanda and had a good figure like Zelda with those captivating slender legs of hers. She was sexy and men would easily fall into her beauty trap.

However, she was obviously a gold-digger and Chuck did not want to talk to her. What kind of chance would he even need? To be honest, even if Frieda took the initiative to add Chuck on WhatsApp, he would not accept it.

Why would he need her WhatsApp?

What was the use of it?

Frieda narrowed her eyes and finally spoke, "Elena, how can he transfer the money when he doesn't have any?"

"No, Frieda, he really has..." Elena desperately tried to explain.

"Shut up! Elena, do you think I'm stupid? How can such a person withdraw so much money? Do you think it's possible?" Frieda bellowed as she was loathing and hating the stupid lie. This was simply impossible!

Chuck glanced at her. He shrugged and did not refute her. There was no need to. If she said that he had no money, then he had no money. On the contrary, he felt pretty good that it made her feel superior.

Elena was agitated and she tried to explain, "It's possible. Frieda, ask him again, he..."

"Shut up, Elena. You really disappoint me. How can I have a friend like you?" Frieda interrupted her at once, feeling very disappointed.

Elena was so anxious that she was at a loss of words. She tugged Chuck and wanted him to tell her the truth. However, Chuck ignored her and he didn't have the mood to explain.

"I'm going back to class," Chuck simply said.

After that, he shrugged and turned to enter the classroom. Elena was rendered in a state of confusion.

"Elena, don't follow with me anymore," Frieda said coldly.

Then, she strode away left. Frieda felt ridiculed. Why would she even give Chuck some time to explain himself? She felt that she had wasted her time listening to Chuck.

She laughed. If someone like Chuck could transfer 2.5 billion dollars to Aaron, she would kneel immediately and apologize to Chuck!

But was it possible? No! He even needed to owe the cafe some money when he was treating the whole school to coffee. He was merely just a loser trying to look cool.

He was so disgusting that he should just die!

Frieda walked away in fury and Elena was rooted to the spot. What did she do? Meanwhile, the people in the class felt much better after spotting Frieda leaving angrily. They knew why the campus belle came to find Chuck. She was here to vent her anger on him.

Now that she was done venting her anger, of course, she would kick Chuck away. They looked at Chuck disdainfully. How could he expect that he could hook up with the campus belle? He was just a punching bag to her and a shame to all the men!

Elena ran into the classroom again and pulled Chuck's arm, yelling, "Get up and explain it to Frieda. Why are you lying? Get up!"

"Haha, Pretty, what lie did Chuck tell? Come on, tell it to all of us!" The students sneered. Chuck was just a piece of trash, how could he even lie in front of the campus belle? Look, he was just kicked away by Frieda!
