

Chapter 155

'Ta....Tanks!'

'What the f*ck! Am I hallucinating? What is this?'

The crowd burst into an uproar.

The crowd was in chaos. Everyone was stunned.

They stared at the tanks in front of their of eyes.

The atmosphere was extremely tense.

Not a single one of them dared to breathe.

This was something that could only be seen in movies. Why was it happening here?

'What's going on? Is it the back-up of the Azure Dragon Society? It's overkill. These are tanks!'

'Wrong! These are Merkava IV tanks. They're Israel's main tanks. It weighs sixty five tons and can travel at a top speed of seventy kilometers per hour. It's also one of the most advanced tanks in the world. One tank costs about twenty three million USD. That's about 1.75 billion yuan!'

Those in the crowd who were interested in tanks quickly took out their phones to search about them.

'What the f*ck! So these four tanks cost about six billion yuan?'

Everyone was stunned by what was happening in front of them.

The insane amount of money aside, the tanks had cannons!

Everyone mistakenly thought that these were the back-up of Silas's Azure Dragon Society, but as time went by, they found that something was amiss.

The four barrels adjusted their angles and aimed at Silas and his gang.

It seemed that Silas was trembling. Cold sweat dropped from his forehead.

Xamira's face had already turned pale with fear. She fell on the ground, trembling.

But that wasn't all.

Just when everyone getting over their shock, there was a rumbling sound coming from the sky in the distance.

'Look at the sky!'

The crowd looked up and saw three black spots flying towards them quickly.

'Holy sh*t! Helicopters! They're armed helicopters!'

Someone shouted in surprise.

Everyone panicked.

Three armed helicopters hovered in the air above the pharmaceutical factory. The strong wind force driven by the high-speed propeller made the people in the square unable to stand firmly. They covered their ears and they bent their backs to find a place to hide!

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

When three ropes were thrown down, the helicopter's door was opened and someone rappelled down.

'F*ck! They are armed soldiers!'

'They're special forces!'

Everyone was shocked.

Their horizons were certainly expanded.

There were eighteen people coming down from the three armed helicopters. They were fully armed. They were dressed in camouflage, bulletproof vests, explosion-proof boots, green helmets, tactical goggles, and equipped with guns and ammunition.

It was an explosively dramatic entrance.

It was like a scene from Wolf Warrior!

It was powerful. It was awesome.

Meanwhile, the thugs of the Azure Dragon Society led by Silas were dumbfounded.

Thump! Thump!

The moment these special forces landed on the ground, they holstered their guns and rushed to those armed thugs. In just three minutes, all the thugs were all disarmed and subdued!

The fifteen special forces soldiers were like tigers, tearing their prey into pieces.

Boom!

'Ah!'

Screams continuously broke out.

They were Shang Jiang City's imperial guards. They had superb fighting skills and were the blades of the nation. They were well trained.

The moment they landed on the ground, three of the guards made a triangular formation. They guarded Jason and stared at the restless crowd with hostility!

If there was a slight movement, they would pull the trigger!

They were real bullets.

'Team one, control!'

'Team two, control!'

'Team three, control!'

'Report, the danger has been removed. The situation is under control!'

The announcements of the scary reports were heard.

There was no one within twenty meters of Jason, except the stunned Silas, Xamira, Rhett, the special forces guards, and the subdued thugs on the ground

In less than three minutes, everything had changed!

Now everyone knew that these people had been called by this man.

Everyone gasped. They knew that the Azure Dragon Society and Lyu family had been defeated today!

They remembered that the man had said that he was going to destroy the Lyu family.

This was not a joke!

He's so powerful that he can call the tanks and the special forces!

Silas was completely dumbfounded. He was the head of the Azure Dragon Society, one of the four major forces in the capital city. He was also Old Master Lyu's favorite foster son!

In all these years, he had seen all kinds of situations and met all kind of people.

But now, he was in a panic. A complete panic. His legs couldn't help trembling!

Not even the people from the party is this terrifying!

This guy is beyond my wildest imagination! He has the power possessed only by the highest elders! Silas thought.

It's horrifying.

The young man in front of Silas was powerful beyond his wildest imagination. Silas couldn't afford to offend him. Nor could the Azure Dragon Society and the Lyu Family.

It's over!

Who on Earth is he?

Silas tried to remember if he had seen this man. But throughout the many years of his life, he had never seen Jason Smith.

He had seen a lot of people from the invincible families like the Yuns, the Sus, and the Zhaos, but he didn't know this young man.

No one could do this. No one dared to do this.

But someone had done it this time.

And he was standing right in front of Silas. Silas was terrified to his core.

Just as he was about to take a step forward, the barrel near his forehead started to tremble. Then, he heard the sound of a bullet filling the chamber.

Crack!

That instant.

Silas was so scared that his face turned pale and he fell to his knees.

As soon as he knelt down, so did Xamira and Rhett.

He had no choice but to kneel down. He couldn't stand still.

His legs were shaking.

There was also a slight smell of urine.

Xamira and Rhett pissed themselves.

Xamira's previous elegance and arrogance had disappeared without a trace. She was like a broken old woman, kneeling there feebly, trembling and pale.

'What the f*ck! Holy f*ck!'

'Who on Earth is this guy? These are special guards. Not everyone could order them around!'

'F*ck! I'm fired up. It's just like a scene from a Hollywood movie!'

Everyone held their breath and waited. The exciting turn of events had shocked them too much.

It wasn't over.

The thing that happened next was even more shocking!

'Shang Jiang City's special forces Team Four is here. All eighteen of us are here, reporting in. We have arrived after receiving the family's order. We shall follow the young master's command!'

Snap!

The eighteen soldiers stood in front of Jason and saluted him!

The square fell into deathly silence.

Everyone was desensitized to the shocking turn of events

The powerful Azure Dragon Society was subdued in an instant.

Even Silas was kneeling on the ground.

It was incredible.

This was soul shaking.

This young man is the scariest existence out there. Is he the successor of some top family? They thought.

Jason looked at this silently. He held the weak Cindy tightly in his arms. Cindy was breathing weakly and trembling all over. She leaned tightly in Jason's arms to feel that sense of security.

She struggled to open her eyes and looked at Jason tearfully

Jason lowered his head and smiled gently. 'Don't worry. No one can bully you. I'll take you back right now.'

Before Jason gave them any command, the special forces did nothing else.

After that, under the watchful eyes of the public, Jason held Cindy in his arms and walked toward Xamira slowly. All the special guards made way for him. They of course protected Jason closely.

Jason held Cindy in his arms and walked up to Xamira, who was already as frightened as a mouse.

Facing the ordinary man in front of him, Xamira was trembling all over.

'Do you think the Lyu Family is so great?'

Jason stared at her. His voice and his gaze were cold.

He took the cellphone of special forces guard who stood behind him and threw it to Xamira. He said coldly, 'Look.'

Xamira didn't dare to refuse. Her hand was shaking and she picked up the phone on the ground.

Then, she saw a video.

A large number of policemen had surrounded the Lyu family at this moment, and had even dispatched the special guards from the capital city. It was a mess!

Old Master Lyu was being taken away by the chief police.

And the Lyu family was being searched.

There were a lot of people snapping photos in that video. Reporters and news station clamored to make the report.

The Lyu Family was one of the eight big families in the capital city. Yet it was destroyed in an instant.

This incident caused a stir in the capital city. Everyone was shocked.

That was the Lyu family, helmed by Old Master Lyu!

But all of them were subjected to a search within the span of a day.

The rest of the big families were all trembling with fear. They sent people to inquire about what the Lyu family had done.

They could not find out the answer for that question. The only answer they got was this: Those who tried to ask about this would experience the same thing as the Lyu Family did.

Xamira sat weakly on the ground. Tears streamed down her face. She cried and held Jason's thigh as she slammed her head on the ground, begging for mercy!

Jason turned around coldly and walked to Silas. 'You know what to do, right?'

Silas's face was as pale as death. He gritted his teeth and picked up a sharp blade on the ground.

He swung the blade down.

With a sickening sound, one of his arms fell to the ground. He was bleeding profusely.

He chopped off his own arm!

'From today onwards, Azure Dragon Society will not longer exist in this world. I, Silas, will retire from this and will never show my face again!'

His announcement silenced everyone.

Jason didn't say anything. He turned around and left with Cindy in his arms.

Everyone was as silent as the dead, not daring to breathe.

Jason's aura was too strong.

Meanwhile, Cindy leaned in Jason's arms. She opened her eyes by a millimeter and whispered, 'Ja, Jason... Tell me, is this the real you?'
