

Chapter 831

Darryl remembered it clearly; Donoghue had escaped during the chaos that surrounded the Dixon family's destruction. He did not expect the man to survive it, let alone find the Grand Weapon.

Zoran continued to say, "Darryl, we have missed the Sky Breaking Axe. Its reappearance had caused a great quake; the Incredible Sky Mountain had collapsed because of it, and a lava-full volcano crater was formed instead. Other than the crater, the mountain is now left with only a piece of wasteland. Not even the Grand Weapon's shadow is there."

Then, Sara quickly added, "The volcano crater has so much lava in it, and it scared me!"

Darryl sighed as he nodded. "Godfather, I am not here for the Grand Weapon. My main duty is to rescue Yvonne and Monica."

He squeezed his fist tightly as he said, "Both of them must be trapped in the palace, so, I must rescue them."

Zoran replied quickly, "Please don't act so impulsively, Darryl. You cannot rush their rescue. The palace has very tight security so you won't be able to break in so easily. I can help you, but we need to plan for it."

"Yes."

Darryl nodded; he felt grateful. He served his godfather with a drink and asked, "Oh, yes, how are my parents?"

Ever since the battle at the Wishing Star Tower, his parents had been sent to live with the Carters family; he did not know how they had fared.

Zoran laughed as he reassured him. "Don't worry, your father and mother are fine. You don't have to worry about them. Yes, Darryl, there is another serious matter that we have to discuss when you're back in the World Universe. We'll need a good date for you and Rachel to get married."

What?

Darryl felt embarrassed when he heard that.

"Father!"

At that moment, Rachel was worried and furious as she stood up. "How many times do I need to say it, I don't want to marry Darryl. Why must you force me?"

Rachel's eyes were all red; she turned and ran out of the inn.

Susan stood up immediately. "Rachel—"

She was about to chase after Rachel in her stilettos.

However, Zoran stopped Susan and said coldly, "Let her be. Let her leave to calm down; she will be back soon. This is the New World; it is not our territory. She will not run away.

Susan nodded and sat down.

Darryl's face was full of embarrassment as he smiled bitterly. "Godfather, about my marriage with Rachel, I think, perhaps we can forget about it—"

Darryl had no feelings for Rachel at all. He felt terrible when his godfather forced them to be together.

"How can we do that?" Zoran furrowed his brows and replied firmly, "Your father and I had agreed to this marriage, and as children, both of you need to follow our arrangement. How can we cancel it?"

Darryl smiled as he scratched his head. He could not say anything else when he saw how his godfather had reacted.

Meanwhile...

Rachel ran toward the Royal City' suburbs. It was late at night, and there was no one in that area. She looked around and lit a firework that she pulled out from her clothes.

Soon, the firework shone beautifully in the air.

Not long after that, a shadow rushed toward her—it was Ewan White.

Previously, Ewan had impersonated the Indomitable Darby at the Carters' residence and asked for Rachel's hand in marriage. After he was exposed as a fake, Zoran was so furious that he forbade Rachel from seeing him anymore.

However, that encouraged Rachel to be more rebellious.

Rachel had dated Ewan secretly, even after they had arrived at the New World.

There was no mobile signal at the New World, so it was difficult for them to communicate, but they found a way to do that. The fireworks were their signal to meet.

Ewan walked toward her. When he saw the redness in Rachel's eyes, he hugged her. "Rachel, what's wrong?"

Rachel felt bullied, so she complained, "Darryl is here. My father insists on marrying me to him—"

What?

Darryl was in Royal City?

Chapter 832

Ewan was stunned, and he asked curiously, "Wasn't he missing?"

"He is not missing!" Rachel stomped her feet and snarled, "I am so annoyed to see him. I don't understand it. He already has a girlfriend, why would Father still want to marry me to him? What can I do, Ewan? Perhaps, we can run away—"

Run away?

As he heard those words, Ewan immediately paled. "Rachel, we cannot act so impulsively."

They had run away multiple times, but the Carters always found them.

Zoran had been furious over those incidents; he even complained to his master about it.

Rachel stomped her feet. "Then, what do you think we should do?"

"Don't worry, Rachel." Ewan panicked; he scratched his ears as his face blushed. Suddenly, he had a thought, "Got it!"

Ewan smiled wickedly as he said, "My master and I saw Dax and Chester at a restaurant outside the city earlier today. They had a fight with an elder from the Incandescent Sect and were seriously injured. Why don't we use this news and lure Darryl there?"

Rachel raised her brows as she said, "What good is that? You are not his match."

Cough! Cough!

Ewan coughed awkwardly as a bitter smile appeared on his face. "Of course, I can't fight him. We'll lure Darryl to the volcano crater, and when he is not paying attention, we can—"

Ewan did not finish his last sentence, but he made a 'push' action.

"Great! This is a good idea..."

Rachel laughed when she heard that plan. Then, she clapped in agreement.

...

On the other hand, at the inn.

Darryl and Zoran had a long chat before they went back into their respective rooms.

Darryl took two rooms—one for him and Jewel, and another for Debra.

Even though Debra had decided to follow Darryl, she insisted not to get intimate with him before their wedding.

In their room, Jewel helped Darryl clean up, and then she sat by the window as she looked at the Royal City's night view outside. She was so excited that she could not sleep.

At that moment, some food steps were heard from the corridor outside. Sara's voice then followed. "Sister, you are back."

"Yes."

Rachel appeared calm as she spoke to Sara. "I went out for a stroll. It is so late now, of course, I'm back."

As she spoke, Rachel glared at Darryl's room intentionally.

When she realized that her sister's mood was better, Sara said, "Sister, I think that Brother Darryl is a good man. Why won't you accept him?"

"What do you know, Silly Girl?!" Rachel's face looked awkward as she shouted at Sara. Then, she changed her tone and said, "I think that Darryl is good too, and I shall try to accept him."

"Really?"

Sara got emotional when she heard that. "You'll agree to marry Brother Darryl, Sister? That is great! I shall tell this good news to Father and Mother; they must be so happy."

Then, Sara turned to leave so that she could inform everyone else.

Rachel was worried; she quickly pulled Sara's arms. "Sister, be quiet! How can we spread this news? I feel so embarrassed."

Rachel cleared her throat and said seriously, "Oh, yes! There is one thing you need to inform Darryl. Tell him that his godbrothers, Dax and Chester, had a fight with the Incandescent Sect and were seriously injured."

Sara was stunned; she did not understand it. "Why don't you tell him yourself?"

Rachel looked embarrassed. "I told him that I wouldn't marry him, Silly! It would be too embarrassing for me if I were to find him now..."

Rachel intentionally raised her voice so that Darryl could hear her from his room.

Slam!

Darryl opened the door and rushed out of it as she had expected. He stared closely at Rachel and asked, "What did you say? Dax and Brother Chester are injured?"

Chapter 833

"Where are Dax and Brother Chester? How are they?" he asked loudly. Darryl was so worried that he started to sweat.

"Their conditions are critical," Rachel said softly; she was shy and dared not look at Darryl. "I know where they are; I can bring you there."

"Great, we'll leave now." Darryl nodded.

"Mister, I will go with you..."

"Darryl, I am coming too."

Two voices echoed from behind him—they were Debra and Jewel.

Darryl nodded but did not say a word. So, Rachel led the way, and she took them to the volcano crater.

Along the journey, Darryl was distraught. He continued to rush Rachel to move faster.

Rachel was furious when he rushed her, but she appeared agreeable.

Finally, they arrived at the crater's entrance.

As Darryl stood there, he was amazed by the scene in front of him.

The volcano crater was huge—its diameter was more than ten-kilometer wide! The depth was beyond one's imagination. He could also see the boiling lava in the crater.

"Where are Dax and Chester?" Darryl asked impatiently.

Rachel pointed toward the volcano crater in front of her. "Right there."

Darryl rushed toward the edge of the crater without any hesitation. He looked around with furrowed brows, but there was no sign of Dax and Chester.

"Where are they?" Darryl turned and asked hurriedly.

Then, a shadow appeared and charged toward him quickly.

"Die, Darryl!"

It was Ewan. He had hidden at the place for quite some time. Then he appeared and hit Darryl's back with his fist!

That happened too suddenly, so Darryl had no time to react.

Even though Ewan was not very powerful, Darryl still took a few steps backward from the hit and dropped straight into the crater!

'Rachel, Ewan! That despicable couple! Sh*t, they fooled me!'

Darryl was shocked and furious; he was upset too. However, he could not stop his body from plunging into the crater.

He almost hit the lava, so he had no time to think. Darryl called for his Blood Drinking Sword and used the Celestial Swordsmanship to hit the volcano's walls.

Bang!

Darryl relied on the energy from the reflection to rise!

However, the lava's temperature was extremely high, so Darryl consumed his internal energy really quickly.

"Darryl!"

"Mister—"

Debra and Jewel shouted as they rushed to the edge of the crater.

"You—" Jewel glared at Rachel as she shouted and cried. "How could you be so vicious! He is your godbrother; how can you set him up to die?"

Jewel's face was full of tears.

Rachel smiled coldly and said, "I have no other choice. My father forced me to marry him. I will lose my happiness if he doesn't die."

Rachel got very emotional; she fell into Ewan's arms. Both of them smiled happily.

A few moments later, their smiles diminished.

They saw Darryl waved his Blood Drinking Sword as he flew upward from the crater.

What? How could that be possible?

"Mister!"

Chapter 834

Jewel was surprised and happy when she realized Darryl was not dead. Her tears turned into those of joy.

'Luckily Master Ford had taught him the swordsmanship so that he could fly.'

Sigh!

Daryl climbed up and dropped to a seat on the ground. He was so tired that he could not say a single word. He glared at Ewan and Rachel!

The couple were terrified when they saw him fly upward from the crater.

Then, they heard a clear voice nearby.

"Darryl."

They followed the voice's direction and saw an attractive figure as they approached them. Her face was exquisite, but with a strong hint of coldness.

It was Aurora, the Emei Sect's Sect Master.

A few Emei sect disciples trailed behind her.

Jean had argued with a few other sects, so Aurora was there to help clear the conflict. Once she had done that, she accidentally saw someone fall into the volcano crater; she went there to check it out. It was then she saw Darryl fly from inside the crater.

"Where is my sister, Abbess Mother Serendipity, Darryl?" Aurora asked coldly.

Sh*t!

Her again?

Darryl was stunned, he furrowed his brows unconsciously.

He wanted to reply to Aurora, but he was too weak; he could not even speak!

Debra and Jewel tried to protect Darryl when they saw Aurora barged toward them fiercely.

Aurora was furious when Darryl did not reply to her, so she walked toward him and said coldly, "I shall ask you one last time. Where is my sister, Abbess Mother Serendipity?"

"You—" Darryl wanted to speak, but when he said one word, he almost fainted. He decided not to speak; he closed his eyes and tried to recover his internal energy.

Rachel had an idea when she saw the situation. She walked forward and said to Aurora, "Sect Master Hansen, from what I know, he had killed Abbess Mother Serendipity."

Rachel was so worried when they had failed to attack Darryl successfully.

So, when she saw Aurora appeared, Rachel had a change of mind. She thought of a new evil plan, which was to blame Darryl and let Aurora kill him.

What?

As expected, when the sect master heard that, her eyes shone and she stared sharply at Rachel. "How do you know that?"

Aurora's body released a strong, angry aura.

Sigh!

Rachel's body shivered, and she started to speak nonsense. "Of course, I know! Darryl told my father—"

Darryl was so angry that he almost exploded when he heard that. He was anxious, he wanted to speak to defend himself, but he also needed to recover his internal energy. If he were to talk, he would release more internal energy, and he would have to start all over again.

Jewel could not stand it anymore, she retorted against Rachel. "He had never said those words before, don't you slander him!"

Debra also furrowed her brows and growled, "Miss Carter, please mind your words and not say nonsense."

She did not know who Abbess Mother Serendipity was, nor what had happened between Darryl and her, so she did not know how to defend him.

"I am not speaking nonsense." Rachel stood up straight and looked at Aurora as she said, "Sect Master Hansen, Darryl did kill Abbess Mother Serendipity!"

"Darryl!" Aurora's face was cold as she raised her hand and released a strong vibration from her internal energy.

A white, icy dragon appeared and circled Aurora. Its loud, clear roar was heard all around the place!

"Icy Dragon Punch," Aurora muttered as she pushed her fist forward.

Roar!

The icy dragon cried as he flew straight at Darryl!

Chapter 835

"You bastard! You killed my sister, so you must die!" Aurora shouted with clenched teeth.

Bang!

Her Icy Dragon Punch reached Darryl in the blink of an eye; it was about to land on Darryl's body!

Rachel and Ewan looked at each other and smiled. Darryl would definitely die, for sure. He was so weak then; he would not be able to sustain the punch!

Bang!

Suddenly, Debra raised her beautiful hands, and a layer of protective shield froze in the air!

"Don't bully him!" Debra's face looked ghastly; her body shook. "I don't have the habit of killing, but I don't mind killing all of you for Darryl."

Bang!

The Icy Dragon Punch landed on the protective shield and created a loud bang. Then, it disappeared almost immediately.

Wow!

Ewan and Rachel were in shock; they stared blankly at Debra.

'This woman is so scary. Just a simple protective shield and it can block the Icy Dragon Punch!'

"Don't you dare to hurt Darryl with me here!" Debra looked quietly at Aurora as she opened her red lips and spoke in a cold voice.

Her voice was not loud, but it was undeniably stern. Everyone there could hear her clearly.

Sigh!

Darryl took a deep breath; he felt so lucky.

He was lucky that Debra was there. Otherwise, the Icy Dragon Punch would have ended his life!

Jewel also seemed very emotional; she looked admirably at Debra.

'When can I be as strong as her? Then I can protect Mister well.'

Aurora was surprised and furious; she was also very shocked.

'This woman is a Martial Emperor? With her around, I probably can't do anything to Darryl. However, I must seek revenge for sister Abbess Mother Serendipity!

Aurora bit her lips, and her body trembled. The next second, a long purple sword appeared in her hand.

The long sword was purple, and the Big Dipper Formation was engraved on its handle. The blade shone, and it looked extremely sharp.

It was Emei Sect's treasure—the Purple Sword!

It was a blue level armor, and it was the symbol of Emei Sect's Sect Master. It had been passed down for almost a thousand years!

"Take this!" Aurora shouted as she pierced her sword toward Debra!

Debra was impatient too; she went to match her!

The Emei Sect disciples were worried; they knew that their sect master was not a match for Debra!

"Die!" Jean could not help herself; she drew her long sword and charged at Darryl. She seized the opportunity to kill Darryl when he was still weak, and so he would not be able to defend himself.

Jewel's expression changed; she immediately moved in front of Darryl. She opened her arms and shouted, "Don't harm Mister."

Jewel looked determined; she did not show any sign of weakness or fear!

Jean paused and shouted at Jewel. "Stay away, Little Girl!"

Jean wanted to push Jewel away. However, the girl had no internal energy, so Jean was reluctant to harm her.

Suddenly, a shadow charged forward.

It was Rachel.

Slap!

Rachel lifted her hand, and without any warning, she slapped Jewel's face.

She used all the energy on that slap!

Jewel did not expect that; she flew a few feet backward and landed heavily on the ground. Her little face was pale, and she vomited a mouthful of blood.

"Stupid girl! You are just a slave; you have no right to speak here," Rachel scolded her; she could not hide her contempt.

As she spoke, Jean's long sword pierced Darryl's chest!

Bang!

A loud metal sound echoed! Jean was stunned; the sword did not pierce through his armor. Then she remembered that Darryl wore the Celestial Silkworm Armor on his body.

"Die!" Jean clenched her teeth and raised her sword to pierce Darryl's neck!

Darryl was surprised, but he used all his energy to avoid the attack. However, the sword still pierced through his shoulder.

"Die!" Jean pulled her sword out and kicked Darryl's body.

Darryl spouted a mouthful of blood as his body dropped backward. He started to fall into the volcano crater.

He had no internal energy left; there was no way he could fly up again.

Jewel's tears flowed uncontrollably; she shouted, "Mister!"

"You all are evil; you killed Mister! None of you will have a good ending!" Jewel's tears flowed uncontrollably as she screamed at the top of her lungs; she was devastated!

"Shut up!" Rachel walked forward and slapped Jewel again. She continued to hit the young lady until her face was red. The impact was so strong that Jewel flew backward again!

"Both of you are evil; you will not have a good ending—" Jewel was devastated as she shouted at Rachel and Jean.

"You must not die, Mister! Can you hear me?" Jewel was so sad; her voice turned softer and softer. She stood up slowly and gradually walked toward the edge of the volcano crater. "Mister, I shall accompany you!"

Then, Jewel leapt forward and jumped into the volcano crater.

'Mister, you are dead. What is the purpose for me to stay alive?'

'Mister, you are dead. Who else in this world would care for me? Who would treat me nice? I would rather die with you, Mister. I would still want to be your servant in my next life.'

Chapter 836

"Darryl! Jewel!" Debra called softly; her expression changed.

She never thought that Darryl and Jewel would have fallen into the volcano crater in just a short moment.

Bang!

Debra's anger burned; she raised her fist and punched Aurora's shoulder.

The punch that made Aurora step dozens of steps backward! Then, without any hesitation, she jumped into the volcano crater as well!

"Jewel!" Debra called out the moment she jumped into the crater. Her body fell at high speed, but she managed to grab onto Jewel. She immediately transferred her internal energy to Jewel.

Jewel was not a cultivator, and the temperature in the volcano was extremely high. If Debra did not transfer her internal energy to her, she would definitely die.

Debra had given up; she held onto Jewel's hands as they continued to fall into the crater. Even though Debra was a Martial Emperor, she would not last if she fell into the lava.

The lava's temperature was over a few thousand degree Celsius!

"Sister Debra! Why are you so silly? Why did you jump?" Jewel's eyes were red as she asked that question. They continued to fall.

"The three of us shall live and die together." Debra clenched her teeth.

She had decided to be with Darryl. If he were to die from the fall, then she would not want to live alone either!

Meanwhile, Aurora walked toward the volcano crater's edge and looked down into it.

She realized that the volcano crater was more than a hundred thousand meters deep, and it was full of lava. Darryl and the two women would not have survived the fall. Aurora sighed and thought, 'I have avenged you, Sister Abbess Mother Serendipity.'

Aurora's body trembled, and her face paled. Then, she vomited a mouthful of blood.

It was obvious; she had suffered internal injuries!

Debra's punch might have looked quite normal, but it was quite powerful!

"Master!"

"Sect Master!"

Jean and the others quickly gathered around her; they looked apprehensive.

Sigh.

Aurora sighed softly as she waved her hand and said, "I am fine. Darryl and the two women would have died from that fall. I have avenged Sister Abbess Mother Serendipity; my injuries do not matter."

As she spoke, the Emei Sect disciples nodded their heads unanimously.

Jean looked at the volcano carter again; she was so delighted. "Sect Master, I guess the three of them have already burned into ashes."

"He deserved to die," Aurora said coldly. Then she waved her hands. "Let's go."

The Emei Sect disciples trailed behind her as they left the Incredible Sky Mountain.

Rachel and Ewan were ecstatic. Their faces were filled with excitement!

"Ewan!" Rachel called excitedly, as she fell into Ewan's arms.

Darryl was finally dead!

She and Ewan could finally forget all about their worries; they can finally be together!

More people had gathered there. The intense battle between Aurora and Debra had attracted a crowd. However, most of them were from the New World.

"Let's leave, Rachel." Ewan was excited too. He hugged Rachel as they turned and started to leave.

A few familiar figures stood nearby. The group leader seemed to be a lady in a pair of dark blue jeans; she looked incredibly sexy. It was Ophelia and a few of her disciples.

They were there because Ophelia was in search of some medicine. They learned that they could find many good ingredients at the Incredible Sky Mountain for elixirs.

Who knew that she would meet Ewan there?

Chapter 837

"Ewan, what happened? Why are you here?" Ophelia asked softly.

"Master, I am here on a date with Rachel." Ewan looked confused. He started to speak nonsense; he looked down and dared not look at Ophelia.

"The Emei Sect's Sect Master just killed Darryl. He fell into the volcano; his body had vanished."

What?

Ophelia trembled when she heard that; she did not expect her heart to ache.

She considered Darryl as her disciple, so she could not accept that terrible news. She immediately asked, "Why did Emei Sect's Sect Master want to kill Darryl?"

Rachel interrupted their conversation. "Darryl killed Abbess Mother Serendipity, so Sect Master Hansen wanted to avenge her. That's the whole story."

Rachel continued to speak pretentiously. "Ewan and I wanted to help Darryl, but we were too weak. We don't have the ability to do that."

Ophelia sighed. She stared at the volcano crater for a long while, but she did not say anything.

In the volcano crater.

Darryl's body fell fast, but the volcano was quite deep. It was probably a hundred thousand meters deep. Darryl had not recovered much of his internal energy, and the wound from Jean's sword had weakened him. He was filled with disappointment as he continued to fall.

'That's it...'

'Am I going to die just like this...'

'I am not willing! I don't want to die!'

Darryl took a long sigh as he shut his eyes slowly; he waited for death's arrival.

What?

Suddenly, Darryl's body trembled!

He should have fallen into the lava by then, but the speed had suddenly slowed.

Darryl could feel the spiritual energy from the bottom of the volcano crater. It seemed like that was what had supported Darryl and slowed his descent.

Darryl did not know that the volcano initially did not have any lava, and that cave was where the Sky Breaking Axe had rested. The axe had laid there for countless years, so that place had powerful spiritual energy!

When Donoghue took the Sky Breaking Axe, it had caused the sky and earth to tremble, and that was when the lava emerged. However, even with the lava, the cave was still filled with very strong spiritual energy.

Darryl's body had gradually slowed in its descent. Suddenly, he saw a reflection, and he was immediately on alert!

Darryl could see his surrounding area clearly; there was boiling lava everywhere. However, there was also a white jade platform nearby, and it stood in the middle of the lava.

It was the platform where the Sky Breaking Axe had rested. That was right; the Sky Breaking Axe had landed on the white jade platform!

Darryl was so excited that he laughed; his desperation and hopelessness had immediately disappeared. He controlled his body and landed steadily on the white jade platform.

He never expected that he would survive that incident!

Darryl was thrilled. Before Darryl could breathe easily, he saw two shadows that seemed to be falling at high speed!

They were Jewel and Debra!

Even though Debra was a Martial Emperor, she had to carry Jewel. With the heat from her surroundings, she could neither balance nor control her body.

Darryl did not hesitate; he leapt forward, and with all his strength, he flew upward. He used his left hand to catch Debra's tiny waist and his right hand to grab Jewel's waist. He brought both of them onto the white jade platform.

Bang!

The moment his feet landed, Darryl felt extremely weak. He immediately sat with his legs crossed and vomited a mouthful of fresh blood!

Darryl's internal energy had not recovered much before he used it again, so his blood energy had risen. He was remarkably weak.

Chapter 838

"Mister, we did not die! We did not die!"

Jewel was shocked and happy; she hugged Darryl's arm, and her tears turned into laughter. She might have looked emotional, but she was happy.

Debra smiled too; she held Darryl's hand sweetly.

Darryl had to regulate his internal energy. He looked at the two ladies and asked, "Why did you two come down here?"

Jewel's eyes were red as she said softly, "I thought you are dead. I felt terrible, and I do not want to live any more, so I jumped down here."

Darryl patted Jewel's head when he heard those words.

Debra smiled and said, "I told you that I would follow you for all my life. We shall live and die together; that will never change."

Wow!

Darryl was stunned, but warmth filled his heart. He almost cried as he held the ladies' hands tightly.

"Mister!" Jewel shouted in shock. "Mister, what is this white jade platform?"

"I don't know. It did not melt in the lava, so it must be a treasure." Darryl furrowed his brows as he answered her.

Darryl reached out and touched the platform. The platform was warm to touch, and it was smooth and shiny, too; the material was unique.

After he looked at it for a while, Darryl could not figure out the platform's origin. He decided not to continue to think about the white jade platform.

Jewel's face felt hot; she looked flushed. She said, "Mister, this place is so hot."

Darryl wiped the sweat on his forehead.

Sh*t!

They were surrounded by lava. Even if they were not burned to death, they would still die of the heat if they stayed there too long.

"Don't be afraid, Jewel." Debra smiled. She raised her hand and used her internal energy to form a protective shield; it covered the entire white jade platform.

The protective layer shielded them from the high temperature, and their surrounding area immediately cooled.

"Sister Debra, you are so powerful!" Jewel clapped her hands in excitement as she looked at Debra with admiration.

Darryl smiled; he was still weak, so he did not wish to speak. He sat with his legs crossed and started to recover his internal energy.

Debra sat beside Darryl, too; she shut her eyes as she tried to recoup her energy.

Even though she was the martial emperor, she had consumed most of his internal energy when she jumped down after Jewel and created a protective shield to keep them safe from the heat.

Jewel decided not to say anything when she realized they were in cultivation. She sat beside them to guard them.

When Darryl dropped into the volcano, the two ladies had jumped in after him too. The news had spread like wildfire amongst the World Universe society. It was what everyone talked about. Many felt that it was a significant loss since he was the Elysium Gate's Sect Master. The hero of their generation had died; what a loss!

The next day, in a room in the inn.

Zoran sat there; his face was dark and scary!

Rachel stood in front of him as her body shook. It was apparent that she was worried.

Susan and Sara were there too, and they looked devastated. Sara did not believe that Darryl had died; her tears flowed uncontrollably.

Bang!

Zoran lifted his hand and slammed it on the table. The solid wooden table was immediately smashed into pieces!
