

Medical Genius's Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 147

As soon as Penny heard that Zachary was a Platinum Card member, she was overjoyed.

“Young Master Jackson, I didn't know that you're a Platinum Card member of Shanghai Nights! There aren't many Platinum members in Eastcliff. Sasha, I heard that even your grandfather is not a Platinum member, right?”

Zachary smiled triumphantly after he heard this because being a Platinum member was already very high class. The membership level above the Platinum level was the diamond level. Only masters of the Ten Greatest Families of Eastcliff and members of these families who were extra capable could attain the diamond level.

As for Platinum members, even though they were slightly inferior to diamond members, it was also not something ordinary people could get.

There were very few people who had a Platinum membership card at Zachary's age and the majority of them were heirs of the Ten Greatest Families of Eastcliff, which was why Zachary believed that he could use his membership status to threaten Matthew. At that instant, Penny seemed really excited, as if the Platinum membership belonged to her.

“Matthew, how dare you try to explain the rules of Shanghai Nights to Young Master Jackson? Do you know how you even entered this place? If I didn't invite you, you wouldn't even be able to enter such a high-end restaurant! However, you still have the face to treat a Platinum member rudely. Young Master Jackson, kick him out. A man like him is not worthy to stay in such a high-end place like this!”

Sasha started to panic. “Penny...”

However, Penny directly interrupted her and said, “Sasha, don't speak. I'm doing this for your own good! Matthew is not worthy to sit with you! Matthew, if you can read the room, hurry up and leave. Otherwise, you might get thrown out of here and be humiliated!”

Sasha still wanted to speak but Matthew spoke before her. “Young Master Jackson, are you sure you want to create trouble at Shanghai Nights?”

With an arrogant stance, Young Master Jackson replied, “I'm not causing trouble, I'm getting rid of trouble. However, you seem reluctant to follow my orders. Well then, I'll show you how different the both of us are!”

With that, Young Master Jackson waved his arm and yelled, “Go and call the waiters. Tell them that I want to clear the room!”

A few of his subordinates immediately walked away and not long after, they returned with a waiter.

“Do you see that man over there? Get him out of here! Young Master Jackson wants him gone. It's best you do it fast so that he won't affect Young Master Jackson's appetite!” a subordinate shouted at the waiter.

Penny also pointed at Matthew and laughed as she said, “He’s right! Get rid of this loser! He uses chopsticks to eat Western food, what an embarrassment! Throw him out quickly. Don’t let him dirty this high-class restaurant!”

However, the waiter looked slightly embarrassed and he whispered, “Young Master Jackson, everyone is just here to have a meal. There’s no need to create a commotion.”

Young Master Jackson was furious. “What do you mean? I’m a Platinum member of Shanghai Nights and I’m kicking out a man without a membership card. Is that wrong? Doesn’t Shanghai Nights have membership levels? Can’t a high-level member like me chase away low-level members?”

Infuriated, Young Master Jackson roared, “Stop blabbering and get this man out of here immediately! Otherwise, I’ll talk to your manager and ask him to handle this!”

With a helpless expression, the waiter said, “Young Master Jackson, if you insist on making such a request, I’m sorry but I-I can only ask you to leave!”

Young Master Jackson was stunned by his words. “What do you mean?”

Penny’s eyes widened in shock as well and she yelled, “Have you f*cking lost your mind? Young Master Jackson is a Platinum member of Shanghai Night. How dare you ask him to leave? Are you crazy?!”

Young Master Jackson’s subordinates also chimed in and shouted angrily at the waiter. “We’ll give you a chance to make things right! Hurry up and apologize to Young Master Jackson or we’ll tear down Shanghai Nights!”
