

BOOOM!

The things that the shop owner's son said struck them like a bolt of thunder.

The fat shop owner was instantly stunned by the rumble, and his mind kept buzzing nonstop.

"What...what did you say? Are...are they all soldiers? Thousands....thousands of soldiers?"

Everyone in the jewelry shop went insane with fear.

Their faces turned ghastly pale in terror as all eyes stared hard.

The fat boss and the others seemed to realize something. All eyes turned and fell on Ye Fan in unison.

All of them turned to look Ye Fan with horror in their eyes like they had seen a ghost as he stood there composedly.

"Are...are you the one who...who called them over?"

The fat shop owner was completely stunned.

It raised a tsunami in his heart.

Heavens, did they offend a military king or something?

“Mr Xue, the first unit is here!”

“The second unit is here!”

“The third unit is here!”

“The fourth unit is here!”

It was pitch-black outside the Yanqi Jewelry Shop from the sheer number of people. The shop was entirely sealed off in an instant as though tides had submerged it.

After all their units were in place, their captains went over to Xue Ren-Yang and saluted him before reporting their status.

Their energetic shouts could be heard within a hundred meters.

After all, there was plenty of retired military personnel among the Xue family's guards.

Also, the Xue family kept up military traditions and managed their men like soldiers to maintain their combat power.

They even wore military green outfits that only lacked actual military ranks on them.

But they were as ferocious as a regular army.

Every one of them was far more imposing than an average citizen.

So even though there were only a few hundred of them, the fat shop owner's son mistook them for their numbers for thousands.

"Well done! Keep your eyes peeled! No one, not even a fly can leave the shop!" shouted Xue Ren-Yang deeply.

Then Xue Ren-Yang walked into the shop with some men.

The moment they opened the door, Xue Ren-Yang and his burly men charged in right away.

When they caught sight of Ye Fan, they swiftly paid respects to him, “Mr Chu, so sorry about the shock you suffered!”

“Mr Chu, sorry about the shock!”

Their low greeting exploded in the shop in unison.

Xue Ren-Yang was leading them and even bowed in embarrassment as he apologized, “Dragon Master, my apologies for being careless!”

HUUUU...

In an instant, the shop fell into a deathly silence.

Cold wind rapidly gusted into the shop from outside.

Hordes of people were outside the shop, and the pressure felt so intense that the fat shop owner and his friends were starting to go breathless.

The fat shop owner slumped onto the ground like a dog in silence.

The moment his friends caught sight of them, they became so frightened that they felt like their souls had left their bodies.

They were staring at the fat shop owner and dying to kick him to death.

“Zheng Cheng-Biao, you asshole!”

“Who the hell did you offend?”

“You damned bugger!”

“You are going to get us all killed!”

The dozen men who came to help back the fat shop owner up were all on the brink of tears.

They merely occasionally partied with Zheng Cheng-Biao and weren't considered close acquaintances.

But now they had offended some big shot along with Zheng Cheng-Biao, so they were terrified that they might die because of him.

“What do you think, Mr Zheng? Do you still want to fight me with brute force now? Are you still going to corner me now? Are you still going to sleep with my woman?” said

Ye Fan as he laughed coldly. His voice sounded like a shocking thunderclap as it exploded loudly by their ears.

Ye Fan even bellowed in anger right at the end.

Zheng Cheng-Biao was so petrified that he felt as though his soul had departed from his body. He lunged onto the ground and begged for mercy.

Zheng Cheng-Biao had lost all confidence and boldness now.

Zheng Cheng-Biao knew that he was done for the moment he saw the swarms of people outside. He had really offended someone important this time.

“Are you begging for mercy?” said Ye Fan as he smiled and shook his face maliciously with a cold air exuding from him.

“Only now do you fear and beg for mercy? Don’t you think it’s too late? When I gave you a chance, you didn’t treasure it. In that case, you have only yourself to blame,” said Ye Fan calmly as though he was relating something mundane.

But his words felt hefty when they fell upon Zheng Cheng-Biao's ears.

Those few simple words undoubtedly sentenced Zheng Cheng-Biao to death!

The fat shop owner's eyes were filled with hopelessness.

It was as though he was completely sapped of energy.

"You'd better carefully think before you do anything. Are you able to suffer the consequences?"

Ye Fan's words from earlier rang by Zheng Cheng-Biao's ears.

Zheng Cheng-Biao assumed Ye Fan was simply young and arrogant previously.

But from the looks of it now, Ye Fan wasn't being arrogant or pulling empty threats.

It was a real warning to Zheng Cheng-Biao that his life was at stake.

No one knew how regretful Zheng Cheng-Biao was in his heart now.

If he had quit while he was ahead and didn't extort them, Zheng Cheng-Biao wouldn't have ended up like this.

With a single phone call, thousands of people came to pay respects to Ye Fan!

Zheng Cheng-Biao couldn't imagine what kind of big shot Ye Fan was. How could Ye Fan command so much power?

"Longyang, handle it. I don't want to see them the next time I come to Yanjing," said Ye Fan coldly with his back facing everyone.

Then Ye Fan took Xu Lei and left the shop without lingering.

Ye Fan didn't even glance at Zheng Cheng-Biao and the rest when he exited the shop.

Zheng Cheng-Biao was nothing but an ant to someone standing at the zenith of power like Ye Fan.

Even if Ye Fan didn't involve the Xue family today, he could have easily trampled them to death on his own.

But since Zheng Cheng-Biao wanted to play, Ye Fan entertained him.

Sometimes, the impact was the greatest when Ye Fan attacked them using what they were best at!

“Mr Xue, what’s going to happen to Zheng Cheng-Biao?”

After Ye Fan left, Xue Ren-Yang’s subordinates raised a question.

Xue Ren-Yang glanced at them calmly. Then he said coldly, “What else? Mr Chu already gave his orders, so we have to take over Zheng Cheng-Biao’s assets and exile him from Yanjing. From now on, Yanqi Jewelry Shop will cease to exist in Yanjing!”

A cold voice echoed for a long time.

Many passersby had surrounded the shop to watch in terror.

“There...there are so many soldiers here!”

“Heavens!”

“What trouble did the jewelry shop owner stir?”

“Did he offend a general of some sort?”

“Zheng Cheng-Biao is dead meat this time.”

“He deserved it. Zheng Cheng-Biao always committed wicked deeds just because he was well-connected.”

“This is retribution for his evil deeds!”

“Haha!”

News that Yanqi Jewelry Shop was surrounded by soldiers spread quickly and caused an uproar in the small-town.

Many people came running over to look when they caught wind of the news. They wanted to see the powerful man whom Zheng Cheng-Biao offended!

But no one knew that the culprit, Ye Fan, had already left the shop with Xu Lei in tow as they circled outside and watched on.

The Yanjing fighting match was about to commence.

Chapter 493 Did They Offend a Military King?

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

At the banks of Yanqi Lake.

Yanqi Lake was already completely sealed off because of the fighting match.

Only a small group of rich and powerful people managed to purchase tickets and had the chance to board the cruise ship and watch the match.

The fighting match was about to begin, so many people had already gathered here to board the ship.

“Please queue up, everyone!”

“Please board the ship in an orderly manner!”

“If anyone flouts the rules, their tickets will be invalidated, and they will get chased off the ship!”

Hundreds of people formed two long queues by Yanqi Lake and waited to board the cruise ship.

“Oh my, there are so many people here! How long do we have to queue for?”

Guo Ya-Wen, Lei Dong-Bao, and Meng Han stood in the cold wind and obediently queued up to board the ship.

Meng Han promised to come back for Xu Lei, but she clearly didn't mean it.

Although Meng Han's friendship with Xu Lei was important, Meng Han cared more about today's fighting match.

She heard that many important people would gather today at the fighting match.

All major powers had gathered at Yanqi Lake to split the territory and settle feuds through the match results.

The match today was not solely about the various powers settling feuds. More importantly, it was about where these powers stood in Yanjing in the future.

So it naturally drew a lot of attention.

Hence small-time tycoons like Lei Dong-Bao, with up to billions worth of assets, were willing to brave the cold and queue in the wind to see the match. They were clearly there to see how the various powers of Yanjing would carve up the territory in the future. Then they could ingratiate themselves to the right people.

And Meng Han turned up at the match with the hope of finding her prince charming.

Any random man here was wealthy and influential.

It was already the month of December, and Yanjing was known for its harsh winters to begin with.

Also, the place was open and spacious, so the icy wind from the north kept gusting across the lake harshly. Guo Ya-Wen, Lei Dong-Bao, and Meng Han felt as though their hands were about to get frostbite.

Guo Ya-Wen couldn't help complaining as she looked at the long queues.

"Hubby, is there anyone you know here who can help us board the ship first?"

"Wenwen, don't gripe. All of the men here have more money than I do. That guy in front of us is worth tens of billions, and even he is obediently queuing up, so be patient. Once we get onto the cruise ship by speed boat, it will get warmer," consoled Lei Dong-Bao.

The massive cruise ship sat horizontally at the center of Yanqi Lake, like a monolith.

All the people on the lakeside would get ferried to the cruise ship one by one by the staff.

Only seven to eight passengers could board the speed boat each time, so they would have to queue for a long time.

“Hubby, isn’t that an empty speed boat with very few passengers on it? Why don’t we queue over there instead?” said Guo Ya-Wen when she noticed a small speed boat docked at the lakeside nearby with staff in charge of ferrying passengers over on it.

“You can forget about it. That’s reserved for the richest and most powerful people in Yanjing. Only giants who control hundreds of billions in assets can take the boat, so we can only look on in envy,” replied Lei Dong-Bao. He knew that he could only brag in front of the likes of Xu Lei and Ye Fan, who were earthworms from small towns. Lei Dong-Bao was nothing but small fry in comparison to the giants in Yanjing.

Of course, he wouldn't recklessly run over to their private speed boat to disgrace himself.

Guo Ya-Wen immediately gave up all hope when she heard her husband's words.

But she was secretly jealous. If she married someone as wealthy and influential as that, she wouldn't have to queue up with the commoners to get onto the cruise liner and suffer in the cold.

"Wenwen, hurry up and look. Isn't that Xu Lei and her boyfriend?" shouted Meng Han in surprise very quickly as she pointed at the dock for private speed boats.

The moment Guo Ya-Wen heard Meng Han, she instantly laughed and said, "That's impossible! Hanhan, you must be confused! Lei and her loser of a boyfriend are probably still in the jewelry shop begging their relatives to lend them money to pay for the jade bracelet. How could they be here? Moreover, how could an insignificant employee and a stingy pauper from a third-rate city like them get to use those private speed boats? You must be dreaming!”

Guo Ya-Wen sneered without even bothering to look.

Meng Han nodded. “You’re right. They don’t even have a ticket, so they probably can’t even get to the lakeside. But they sure resemble them,” Meng Han spoke softly.

Ye Fan and Xu Lei had already boarded a private speed boat while Guo Ya-Wen and the others were mocking them.

“Mr Chu, sit tight. I’m starting the boat.”

“Okay!” said Ye Fan as he nodded.

Then everyone looked in envy as Ye Fan and Xu Lei boarded a private speed boat and headed to the cruise ship at the heart of the lake.

“Sigh! Just look at them! They have such a good life! I don’t think we will ever live to enjoy such treatment!” said Guo Ya-Wen enviously as she stood by the lake and looked at the private speed boat going off in the distance.

She kept wishing that she could be the wife of the big shot sitting on the speed boat.

Guo Ya-Wen was willing even if she had to be his mistress.

But Guo Ya-Wen would never guess that the man sitting in the speed boat was Ye Fan, whom she despised.

“Dragon Master, I’m sorry, but you’ll have to make do. I couldn’t get my hands on the VIP front row tickets, so you and Miss Xu will need to sit in the last row for now.” Ye Fan had boarded the cruise ship.

A huge square open-air fighting ring stood on the enormous cruise ship.

All around them were spectator seats.

Xue Ren-Yang looked at Ye Fan with a bitter smile on his face as he apologized to him.

“You couldn’t even get your hands on front row tickets? It looks like the Xue family is in grave danger,” said Ye Fan. He had a keen grasp of the situation and hit the nail on its head about the Xue family being in dire straits.

“Sigh! Dragon Master, you know that the Xue, Lin, and Zhao families signed up for the match under Longyang Martial Arts Academy. Since I withdrew halfway, I lost many privileges. Also, Lin Feng and the others are out to get the Xue family, so you will have to bear with it,” said Xue Ren-Yang quickly with sadness brimming from his face.

Ye Fan waved his hand and said, “It’s okay. The back row it is then. It doesn’t matter where I watch it from. You can go over first. When it’s my turn, I will show up.”

“Okay. The Xue family is counting on the Dragon Master for its survival!” said Xue Ren-Yang before leaving.

Since the Xue family sponsored the fighting match, they could still take their sponsors’ seats regardless of their family’s state.

More and more passengers boarded the cruise ship as time went on, and the large open-air arena bustled with activity.

Chapter 494 They Must Have Snuck In

One man and two ladies quietly appeared and next to Ye Fan and Xu Lei 30 minutes later.

The moment they spotted Ye Fan and Xu Lei, the three of them were instantly stunned.

“Heavens!!”

“What is this loser doing here?”

“Lei, did you board the cruise ship too?”

“Do you have tickets?”

“You must have snuck in, right?”

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!