

“I don’t care about that,” said Fang Yin. “Someone else is after this woman’s life, and I’m just carrying out instructions.”

He looked at Lin Yuzhen as her face slowly paled more and more.

“It’s too bad that there’s no antidote for this poison, or at least nobody in this world can possibly treat it. You can die with your child! MUAHAHAHA!” Fang Yin laughed maniacally like a nutcase, then disappeared quickly into the distance.

Lin Yuzhen opened her mouth to say something, but before she could speak, she collapsed onto the floor.

“Help! Get her to safety!” Brother Gou’s throat was dry and he was trembling all over. He tried his best to make sure that Lin Yuzhen faced the oncoming wind and wasn’t in the path of the poisonous powder.

The rest also tried their best to open all the doors and windows and moved Lin Yuzhen to an airy place, but Lin Yuzhen had already lost consciousness and all their eyes reddened.

They had failed to protect Lin Yuzhen!

Fang Yin was a bastard!

Nobody would have thought that Mr Hei on the outside of the house would turn out to be nothing but bait. Their real motive was to allow Fang Yin to come inside and poison Lin Yuzhen.

“Boss Yuzhen! Boss Yuzhen!” Brother Gou felt that he was losing consciousness, but he couldn’t think about himself at all.

He nearly broke down when he saw Lin Yuzhen collapse.

Jiang Ning told them to protect Lin Yuzhen well, but they...

“Boss Yuzhen!” cried all of them, but Lin Yuzhen couldn’t hear them at all.

KABOOM!

The resounding thunder pierced through the sky.

Mr Hei saw a figure flash past the wall of the bungalow estate and his lips curled up slightly under his mask.

BAM!

BAM!

He threw two punches and forced Ye Shan and Tan Xing to retreat, but did not continue attacking them.

“You want to escape?!” There was blood dribbling out of Ye Shan’s mouth, but he continued to fight valiantly.

Mr Hei looked at him. “Not bad, you managed to understand this much under such circumstances. You're not bad at all."

With that, Mr Hei turned and left without doing or saying anymore.

Ye Shan and Tan Xing were both stunned. They didn't expect this intruder to suddenly leave.

He could have killed everyone and barged into the bungalow, so why...

"Boss Yuzhen!"

That furious shout made everyone outside stiffen up.

Had they been fooled?

Ye Shan and Tan Xing ran into the house immediately.

But all they saw was that Lin Yuzhen was unconscious next to the door with a pale face and didn't react to anything at all. It was as if her soul had left her.

"Yuzhen! Ye Shan ran over anxiously while disregarding his own injuries to check on Lin Yuzhen.

"It's that bloody Fang Yin!" Brother Gou's eyes were losing focus and he was really exhausted now. the poison was taking effect and it caused blood to flow from his nose and mouth. "He poisoned..."

Then he fainted.

“Help! Call the doctors here NOW!” yelled Tan Xing.

None of them thought that they had been tricked into leaving the inside of the house alone. That frighteningly powerful fighter turned out to be nothing but a distraction, and Fang Yin took this chance to sneak into the house.

Tan Xing immediately called for every single doctor possible to come over, including anyone in Donghai, or the state of Tianhai or even Jiang Ning’s folks in the north.

In less than half a day, every famous doctor had been called into Donghai.

But not a single person could tell what poison was in Lin Yuzhen’s body.

The atmosphere in the bungalow was extremely gloomy.

Lin Yuzhen’s parents sat expressionlessly to one side. They looked like their lives had been sucked out of them, so they couldn’t see nor hear anything now.

“This is a very strange poison, and it’s sealed off all her nerves and arteries. If this goes on, I’m afraid both mother and child...”

The Jiang family was a family of doctors, and even though Jiang Daoran wasn’t the best in medicine, he knew that such a poison was difficult to treat without the actual antidote meant for it. Everyone went into a panic upon hearing these words.

“How...how are we going to account to Jiang Ning for this?”

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

There were so many of them around, but they failed to protect Lin Yuzhen and her child. All of them felt like they had been slapped in the face!

They couldn't even find a place to hide themselves!

They were all panicky and worried as they looked at the unconscious Lin Yuzhen and didn't know what to do.

So many famous doctors had taken a look at her but there was nothing they could do. They didn't even know if she would live until Jiang Ning came back.

This really caught them completely off guard.

Even though all of them were people who had seen many things in life, fought great battles and possessed tremendous fighting ability, their faces were now covered with fury, indignation and much guilt.

"What do we do now?" Ye Shan's face was pale from his own internal injuries, but he wasn't worried about himself right now.

"Is Jiang Ning back yet?"

"He's on the way."

Tan Xing looked at Lin Yuzhen and sighed.

This was a very strange poison that sealed off important channels in Lin Yuzhen's body, causing her to become unconscious and nearly stopped her blood from circulating even. Was that bastard hoping to kill the child as well?

Several experts came together and managed to unblock two of her main arteries, so at least she could keep the child.

But if this went on, she might not hold on for long.

“We have to think of something,” Jiang Daoran’s voice was hoarse.

He knew how important Lin Yuzhen was to Jiang Ning. She was his entire world.

Furthermore, she was now with child.

He looked at Yan Chinan and He Linbei. “I’ll go back to the Jiang house to have a look, perhaps there’s some record of this poison in the older books I have. I must find a way to get this poison out of her body!”

“You two, stay in Donghai and protect this mother and child.” Jiang Daoran’s eyes were a little red.

Was it already too late?

He knew that even if these two fighters remained behind, nothing would change. It was hard to guard against the enemy’s scheming and despicable ways.

He didn't waste any time and quickly returned to the Jiang house to hunt those old records down. He felt like he had seen something like this before somewhere.

Everyone else remained in the Lin house.

Huang Yuming remained outside the house.

When Ye Shan walked out, he ran up to him and asked, "How is she?"

"It doesn't look good," sighed Ye Shan before coughing twice. Huang Yuming quickly helped to pat him on the back. "I'm fine, my injuries are nothing. The problem is the poison inside Yuzhen's body. This poison..."

"It's really a very strange one."

Both the best fighters of the academy and all the best doctors had never seen such a poison before.

It seemed like this poison didn't exist in this world and was brought in from a completely different place.

"How are Gou and the rest?"

"They're all still unconscious," Huang Yuming's voice cracked a little.

Besides Lin Yuzhen, the wolves had all been poisoned as well, and they were still in a coma.

Nobody knew if they would pull through either.

But these were all the brothers who had worked hard with him all this time!

Ye Shan pursed his lips and fell silent for a moment. "They'll be fine. Once Jiang Ning comes back, he'll think of something. He'll definitely find a way."

He started coughing again and Huang Yuming opened his mouth to ask after him, but Ye Shan put a hand up and didn't allow him to speak.

Ye Shan was quite badly injured.

"You keep an eye on this side, let me know if anything happens."

"Got it."

Ye Shan had to attend to his wounds, so Huang Yuming quickly nodded.

He stood at the main gate and suddenly felt like he had aged by a lot.

This was the worst crisis that Donghai had faced since it became a full-fledged forbidden territory. Their loss was so great that it made Huang Yuming's heart ache and filled with fury.

Huang Yuming didn't go anywhere and just stood at the gate to wait for Jiang Ning to come back.

The wind was very strong and it was difficult to see through the wind. The torrential rain from the night before had stopped but it was still extremely gloomy now. The dreary skies made one feel very stuffy inside.

“Jiang Ning is back!” a voice suddenly called out from outside.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!