

Chapter 130

Hearing Henry addressed William as Director Lu, Lincon's mind went blank!

Director Lu?

What was going on!

Who was this kid? How could an experienced doctor like Henry address William so politely? Even more so as a director!

Vinson pondered for a while and whispered to Lincon, "William is the son-in-law of the Bai family from Qena City. His wife seems to have become a company director recently."

Zhao Yue was stunned. The Bai family?

Was this William really the famous useless son-in-law of the Bai family in Qena city?

Henry scoffed at William. "I see. Henry was addressing him as a director because his wife is one."

F*ck!

William was indeed a shameless man. How could he live off a woman? He was indeed a disgrace for every man on this planet!

William nodded at Henry and said indifferently, "You came just in time. You'll handle the rest. I still have some other matters to tend to."

After finishing his words, William left the hotel room.

Lincon tried to prevent William from leaving but was immediately stopped by Henry.

Lincon's face turned pale as he uttered. "Mr. He, how could you let a murderer escape?"

Henry looked at Lincon with a hostile look.

"Murderer?" Henry asked.

"It's my utmost honor to work alongside Junior Divine Doctor Lu, and here you're accusing him as a murderer!"

Henry hissed inwardly, "Have you been in the dark your whole life? You're humiliating yourself!"

"We can't let him go! We must send him to jail no matter what!" Lincon squealed as he tried to speed out of the room.

Henry replied in a sarcastic tone, "You don't have to chase after him. I'm here. Aren't you trying to hold someone accountable? Fine, I'll bet my life! My name! I will bear all the consequences if anything goes wrong."

Lincon was stupefied. "Mr. He, you..."

Henry glanced at Frank, who seemed to be in a miserable demise. He had complete trust in William.

Junior Divine Doctor Lu must have performed his 'magic' again, the secret technique from the Scripture of Tranquility.

It was impossible for Frank to die!

Plus, that pool of blood, despite looking hideous and releasing an unpleasant stench was the evidence of William's exceptional medical skills. At first glance, one could quickly tell it was just filthy discharge from a person's body.

Frank had vomited all the filth in his system. How could his life be in danger?

"Vinson Zhang, I'll just ask you one question! Did you check Director Chien's body just now?" Henry questioned.

Vinson's face froze, but he replied honestly, "I have not..."

"You haven't. Yet you were quick to jump to conclusions. I guess people in Qena City have overexaggerated your fame, Vinson!" Henry's face was written with disgust!

A doctor should perform the four principles in physical examination by inspection, auscultation, taking history, and palpating the pulse before he drew a conclusion!

Vinson, who was an acclaimed expert, messed up the most basis of medicine!

After hearing that, Vinson's face turned red.

When he saw Frank in such a dreadful state, he lost all his calm and composure.

Besides, Lincon was babbling beside him, clouding his judgement.

Hence, he had forgotten the basic code of conduct of a doctor.

What was the use of the four principles of medicine if a doctor were to diagnose a patient by just a mere look at the patient's condition with his naked eyes?

At the thought of this, Vinson felt guilty and apologetic.

However, Lincon immediately chimed in, "Mr. He, You're here to cure Director Chien. Why are you siding with an outsider?"

Henry looked at Lincon coldly. "There's no need. I don't need to do anything."

"Why? Are you in the opinion that there's no chance for Director Chien to survive too? Otherwise, you wouldn't have said something like this!" Lincon remarked rudely, his anger growing in him.

"Why? Alright! I'll tell you why!" Henry was emitting a prideful aura of a reputable doctor as he strode towards Henry!

He felt about to burst from rage!

"If William declares himself as a doctor, there would be no need for other doctors in this world!"

He looked at Lincon and continued, "And, when he prescribes medicine, all illnesses will be cured!"

"I don't have the right to interfere with his treatment! Are you satisfied with this explanation?"

After saying that, Henry marched out of the room.

The two of them stared at each other blankly.

Lincon didn't even have the time to process what Henry was trying to convey. When he saw Henry walking away, he only had one thought in his mind!

F*ck!

He had spent two million dollars to get Henry to come and treat Frank!

Yet, Henry was spurring nonsense!

His service clearly did not worth Lincon's money!

At the thought of this, Lincon immediately caught up with Henry.

Vinson, on the side, was completely shocked by Henry's words.

"If William declares himself as a doctor, there would be no need for other doctors in this world!"

"And, when he prescribes medicine, all illnesses will be cured!"

How confident Henry was!

He was regarding William so highly!

What made William worthy of every bit of praise from a famous doctor like Henry?

Henry even put his life and reputation on the line to side with William!

Who was William?

When Vinson was still in a state of stupefaction, he heard a cough from the bed.

Frank, who had been in a coma, suddenly sat up and spat out a few more chunks of dark blood clots.

After that, Frank lifted up his head, his eyes met Vinson. Immediately, Frank's eyes lit up in joy.

Vinson walked over hurriedly and held Frank.

Frank was beaming with happiness. If he had the strength, he would have knelt to Vinson.

Frank said excitedly, "Elder Zhang, you've contributed a lot in saving my life. If you have any wish in the future, I'll fulfill every one of it!"

Vinson was at a loss for words. "Director Chien, what are you saying? I didn't help you with anything, even just now..."

However, all of a sudden, he held his tongue; he didn't want to tell him that Henry had just left.

Frank let out a sigh. "Elder Zhang, please don't say that! If you hadn't introduced Dr. Lu to me, I wouldn't have survived this illness! What you said was true. Divine Doctor Lu is indeed the best doctor in this world! I'm extremely guilty and blameworthy for treating him with disdain previously. I'm such a disgrace."

After that, he slapped himself on the face.

Then he continued, "Fortunately, Elder Zhang, you have a pair of discerning eyes that can tell great talents."

Vinson's felt his face flushing hot!

Discerning eyes that can tell great talents...

This line shocked Vinson more than the slap Frank hit himself with a while ago!

Vinson's heart was filled with guilt!

While Frank was talking with him, Vinson was palpating Frank's pulse.

Although Frank's pulse was weak, it was surprisingly stable.

It meant that Frank was really recovering.

Divine Doctor Lu...

All of this was done by Divine Doctor Lu who was so forgiving!

Besides, he came up with a miraculous cure, bringing Frank who was on the edge of death to life!

But what about Vinson himself?

He was a widely acclaimed expert in medicine!

But he was so narrow-minded!

He did not even have the slightest faith in William!
A pair of discerning eyes... he was unworthy of this compliment!

William was indeed a hero, but Vinson found himself just a hypocrite!

Vinson was lost in his thoughts. After a while, he bowed deeply towards the door although William had long left.

It was his expression of gratitude toward William...

But also a way to apologize to William...

William, at this moment, was racing to Yasmine's villa.

The reason why he was in such a rush was that he had received news from Felicity.

Felicity asked him to go to Yasmine's house immediately as there was a family meeting.

When he arrived at Yasmine's place, Felicity pulled William over and sat at a side. She mumbled gloomily softly, "That b*stard, Steven, has learned about my plan to purchase the Heption Herb. He'll definitely make a fuss out of it."
