

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 1516 – 1520

Chapter 1516

However, there was a burst of ecstasy in the heart of the God of War.

This is because he has always been wearing a gun next to him.

Although he is a martial artist and doesn't like to use guns, guns are also a life-saving support. He serves as a bodyguard for Yanzheng. Most of the time, there is no danger, but he still saves one more hand.

It's just that when Charlie was rubbing against him, he didn't have the opportunity to use the gun at all, and he couldn't even think about it.

But things are different now.

Charlie's attention was no longer on his body.

Therefore, he couldn't help but think to himself, if Charlie's attention was all on Yanzheng and Yangang, then he might have a chance to attack him!

No matter how strong they are, they are afraid of bullets. If one shot is hit, the opponent should immediately lose their combat effectiveness. When the time comes to make up two more shots, even the martial arts master will definitely die!

At that time, not only will he have avenged himself, but he will also get a 100 million bonus from the boss! Then he doesn't have to work for the rest of his life, and can retire directly to enjoy the glory and wealth!

Thinking of this, he immediately raised his arm, trying to sneak behind him to get a gun.

However, at this time, he suddenly realized that his arm was so soft that he could hardly use any strength.

The arm had been slumped before, and he was afraid that Charlie would get angry, so he didn't dare to move, and he didn't realize that his arm had some symptoms of muscle weakness.

He was surprised in his heart, and said: "What the h*ll is going on? Is it because I was so scared just now and my body was scared?"

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and wanted to use a bit more strength to drive his arm, but the power on his arm almost dissipated!

"This...what the h*ll is going on?!"

He was shocked in his heart, but for the 100 million, he still worked hard to suckle, trying to put his right hand behind him, what is usually easy, and now he has worked hard for a few minutes, tired and sweating, but he has not succeeded.

At the moment when he felt that his strength was almost exhausted, he finally put his hands behind his back with great effort, and touched his gun through his clothes.

However, trying to grab a gun is as difficult as reaching the sky.

At this moment, he only felt that his five fingers were like others, completely unable to drive.

Charlie hadn't looked at him, but he could feel that this kid was doing his best to resist the aura that he had left in his body, so he looked up at him and sneered: "What's wrong with the god of war? ?"

The God of War hurriedly said, "No, no, absolutely nothing..."

Charlie smiled and said, "If you want to get a gun, you have to get it out!"

After the God of War heard this, his whole body trembled: "How could he know that he couldn't take it out? Could it be...could it be that he did something to him?!"

Charlie took a deep look and said coldly: "I advise you to be honest. You can at least control your sphincter now. If you dare to do it again, I will let you not even control your sphincter. If you urinate and urinate anytime, anywhere like a one-year-old, don't blame me for not giving you a chance!"

As soon as the person heard this, his soul was frightened!

What supernatural power does this guy have?

What method did he use to make himself almost a useless person? !

Chapter 1517

Yanzheng trembled in shock at this time.

What the h*ll is this?

The God of War and Realm Master he hired with a high salary were choked by Charlie and knelt down to call him father. That's fine, the key is that he can't even get the gun out?

You know this group of people are simply the ancestors of playing guns!

They can't hold a gun, which is as ridiculous as a barber can't hold scissors!

However, no matter how unthinkable the fact is, it is also a fact.

Yanzheng saw that the god of war was scared like a dead dog, and he didn't dare to say a word, knowing that it was absolutely useless to count on them today.

In this way, isn't that slap in the face just now for nothing?

Thinking of this, he was even more resentful.

However, he did not dare to yell with Charlie too much at this time.

So, he could only say angrily: "Okay! Kid, I remember you! Let's just wait and see!"

After speaking, he immediately said to his son Weiliang next to him: "Let's go!"

Charlie, who had been smiling all the time, suddenly sneered, "Go? Who let you go?"

Yanzheng covered his face and took a step back, and asked tremblingly, "You...what do you mean!"

"What do I mean?" Charlie said coldly: "You took a few dogs and ran to someone else's house to bite and disturb others, and you want to turn your head and leave?"

Yanzheng didn't expect that Charlie slapped him in the face and didn't want to give up, so he trembled and asked, "What do you want?"

Charlie said: "My demands are very simple. If you mess with me, you must satisfy me, otherwise none of you will leave."

Weiliang scolded angrily, "Boy, don't overdo it! Otherwise, you don't know how to die!"

Charlie frowned and asked, "Who gave you the courage? You dare to talk to me like this at this time?"

Weiliang had no bottom in his heart, but still gritted his teeth and threatened: "Provoke my family, beware of my family's order to pursue killings across the country, offering a reward of one billion hidden flowers for your head!"

Charlie nodded: "Good boy, it's interesting, are you married yet?"

Weiliang was stunned for a moment. What the h*ll is this? Why did he suddenly ask about this?

Seeing that he didn't speak, Charlie immediately stretched out his hands and condensed his ears. As soon as he came up, he twisted it nearly one hundred and eighty degrees, and said coldly: "What the h*ll, are you deaf?"

Weiliang felt a sharp pain in his ears, and felt like he was about to be pulled off by his life. He cried out in pain, "Ouch! It hurts to death! Release me!"

Charlie used his hand again: "If your ears don't work well, don't ask for it at all!"

Weiliang was afraid that Charlie would really pull his ears off, so he immediately pleaded, "Please don't screw it up. If you screw it up, it will fall out!"

Charlie said coldly: "Answer the question!"

Weiliang said hurriedly: "I'm not married, I'm not married!"

Charlie nodded and said, "You're not married, and there are no children outside, right?"

"No, no!" Weiliang shook his head repeatedly.

Charlie asked him again: "Then how many children did your dad have?"

"Three..."

"How many men and women?"

"I have two older sisters..."

"Oh..." Charlie nodded and said, "Then you are your father's only son, right?"

"Yes, yes yes yes..."

Chapter 1518

Charlie looked at Yanzheng again, smiled and asked him: "I heard what you meant just now, as if you are very patriarchal, and ridiculed that others have no sons. It seems that your son is your lifeblood. Right?"

Yanzheng heard Charlie's words, with a full threat, and asked nervously: "You...what do you want to do? I warn you, if you dare to hurt my son, I will fight with you!"

Charlie smiled and said, "How can I hurt your son? I will only hurt your grandson."

"Grandson?" Yanzheng was even more puzzled: "I don't have a grandson...what does this guy mean?"

Charlie asked him: “By the way, do you know Fredmen, the chairman of Eastcliff Future Company Group?”

Yanzheng frowned and asked suspiciously, “Yes, what’s wrong?”

Charlie asked again: “He has a hidden illness, he just got it some time ago, do you know?”

Yanzheng shook his head: “Don’t fool around, just tell me if you have anything!”

Charlie smiled and said: “Fredmen’s hidden illness is just that the thing can’t be used, but he still has fertility, that is, if he still wants a child, he can use artificial insemination... .”

Everyone was at a loss.

What is this guy going to say?

At this time, Charlie sneered and said: “However, your son is not so lucky. From now on, he will be infertile.”

With that, a spirit energy entered Weiliang’s body.

When dealing with Fredmen, he also used infuriating energy to seal the roots, making him lose the ability to find pleasure, but he did not seal his ability to pass on from generation to generation, and Fredmen had children, so this ability was also optional for him.

However, for Weiliang, fertility is still very important. After all, he is still young and the family is still waiting for him to pass on his lineage.

At this time, Weiliang was angry, and said angrily: “You said I am not fertile, so I am not fertile? Is your mouth open or something?”

Charlie smiled and said: “Hey, I really made you right. you just opened this mouth and said everything is good. I said that if you have no fertility, you have no fertility. If you don’t believe it, go back and try.”

Everyone at the scene looked at each other.

They were all afraid of Charlie's strength, so they didn't dare to scold him, let alone do anything with him.

However, they also felt that Charlie's words were too d*mn bad.

Cursing people's infertility, is this the f*cking thing not done by the elders?

Yanzheng gritted his teeth and asked, "Okay, what you say is what you say. Are you satisfied now? Can we leave?"

"Not yet."

Charlie waved his hand at Yangang's son Weiguang: "Come kid, come here."

Weiguang took a step back in shock: "What do you want to do?!"

Charlie said: "I plan to do a ligation for you too."

Weiguang's face turned green, and he stepped back behind his father in two steps. He didn't dare to talk back or step forward.

Charlie shook his head helplessly, and said, "Look at you, fortunately that I am better at it. Cloud ligation is fine."

After speaking, another trace of aura came out.

After getting the two of them, Charlie suddenly wanted to understand one thing and blurted out: "Oh, I forgot one thing, you two old things, shouldn't be too old, there must be fertility?"

Yanzheng and Yangang were almost mad.

How come they are old things?

Both of them are in their forties and not yet 50, and they are rich in family and well maintained. It can be said that they are old and strong, and their physical strength is not inferior to ordinary young people.

However, the two of them didn't know what medicine Charlie sold in the gourd.

But Charlie snapped his fingers twice and said to them: "Okay, you can get out. I will be in Eastcliff for these two days. If you want to seek revenge, you can come to me at any time, but if you have something to do. Kneel at the door of Uncle's villa. If you are sincere, I might consider it."

Chapter 1519

Yanzheng waited for the group of people to look at each other for a while, not knowing what to do.

Although Charlie let them go, they really wanted to escape quickly, but listening to what Charlie didn't seem to finish, they didn't dare to leave.

Because they didn't understand what Charlie meant.

He was not going to let them figure it out.

Just like Fredmen, this kind of thing must be experienced by them.

Therefore, Charlie and these people are still there, look at me, I see you stupidly, and directly said to the crowd: "Within three seconds, you can stay if you don't roll!"

Just as he was announcing amnesty, Philip waved: "Leave!"

They turned around to leave, leaving a war god and a realm master still kneeling.

The two wanted to go too, but their legs really didn't work well.

There was still a little remaining strength on his legs, at least he could barely stand up and stagger forward.

But because the kneeling time was so long and his legs were too numb, there was no way to stand up at this time.

Seeing that everyone was gone, the two were so anxious that they shed tears, and the God of War choked up: "Second Lord, please take us away, Second Lord!"

Yanzheng angrily cursed: "You two rubbish! You are of no use to us?"

The God of War choked up and said: "Second Lord, this leg really doesn't work anymore...As long as I can stand up, I dare not ask you to help..."

"I wipe..." Yanzheng took a breath.

Then he couldn't help but glanced at Charlie, and thought to himself, "What the h*ll is going on today? What is this kid? How can he make these two masters like this ghost?"

You know, these two are usually killers who do not blink their eyes. They move their hands with their palms as a knife, and the thick steel bars of their thumbs can be cut with one palm. Why can't they even stand up now?

However, he didn't dare to think too much about it at this time. The immediate task at hand was to escape from here quickly and discuss the long-term plan after returning.

So he irritably said to Weiliang and Weiguang: "Weiliang, Weiguang, you two give them a hand!"

The two had no choice but to follow suit, walked to the God of War and the realm master, helped them up, and they limped out.

Yanzheng didn't dare to threaten Charlie again, but he had already figured it out in his heart. There is absolutely no end to this matter today. He must find a way to chop him off, and then ask his eldest brother's family for the property.

The eldest brother alone holds nearly trillions of assets. If it really falls into the hands of his wife and daughter, the Gu family will lose out!

Therefore, he deliberately said to Philip with a dark face: "Big brother, tomorrow the group will hold a board of directors. As the chairman, you will participate in any way.

There will be media attendance at that time. The details of the board of directors must be reported to the Securities Regulatory Commission and The issue issued by investors is of great importance. Don't forget about this matter!"

There are countless companies and groups under the Gu family. There are just a few listed companies. Some are listed in the Mainland, some are listed in Hong Kong, and some are listed in the United States.

However, the parent company behind these companies is the Gu Group.

The total market value of the Gu Group is at least 2 trillion. However, the shares of the Gu Group are not unique to the Gu family. Some of the shares are in the hands of other shareholders, and some of the shares are issued by listed companies as well.

The Gu family owns 51% of the shares of the Gu Group, which is about one trillion.

Among these 51%, 50% are in the name of Philip, and Yanzheng and Yangang each account for 25%.

Chapter 1520

It stands to reason that the three brothers hold exactly 51% of the shares, which is just in line with the absolute holding ratio. As long as the three of them are one mind, the Gu Group is completely under the control of the Gu family.

But now that the second and third, seeing that the boss Philip is dying, they are desperate to grab his share.

Now that Yanzheng sees that today's strategy of asking for shares has not succeeded, he is ready to continue to put pressure on his eldest brother through the board of directors tomorrow.

Even with the share issue, he would not agree for a while, he must be forced to give himself the position of chairman tomorrow!

As the saying goes, a country cannot be without a king for a day, and a dragon cannot be without a leader for a day.

With such a huge industrial matrix of the Gu Group, the chairman cannot be eliminated.

Although Philip is still alive now, he is now very sick. If he is treated, he will definitely not have the energy to manage the group. If he is not treated, he will definitely not live long.

So now is a good time to force the palace.

In any case, he must first hand over the position and power of the chairman.

And then slowly plan the part of his shares.

If it doesn't work, then use the most extreme trick to kill the whole family after the elder brother's death.

In this way, the shares of their family of three naturally will fall into the hands of himself and his third brother.

It's just that he dare not use such an extreme method, because after all, Eastcliff hides the dragon and the tiger. Many bigwigs know the situation of the major families well. If he does it secretly, even if he does it perfectly, he can't escape the eyes of these people.

At that time, the people in the top society of Eastcliff will know that they have murdered the eldest brother's family.

That way, the impact on Gu's family would be too great.

After all, every circle has its own rules. In the circle of Eastcliff giants, whoever dares to kill each other will become the object of rejection by everyone.

At that time, Gu's assets, connections, status, and prestige will shrink significantly.

Therefore, he still tends to outsmart.

When Philip heard him mention the board of directors, he knew that he wanted to use the board to put pressure on himself.

Now that the new year is approaching, many listed companies have begun to make annual summaries, release annual financial reports, and announce to the people of the whole country that a group company such as the Gu Group is naturally attracting attention.

And now he's dying. If he participates in the board of directors and be seen as such by the people of the whole country, the people's confidence in the Gu Group will be greatly reduced. By then, the stocks will definitely fall and shareholders will face greater losses.

Therefore, when the time comes, the board of directors will definitely put pressure on him, forcing him to give up the position of chairmanship.

Before that, the three Gu family owned 51% of the shares, and they had absolute say in the board of directors. Other shareholders did not have the ability to force them to do things.

But things are different now.

The two younger brothers are at odds with him. He has only 25.5% of the shares, and the other 25.5% is in the hands of the two younger brothers.

If the two of them don't agree with him, and instead unite with other board members to exclude him, then their 25.5% of the shares are no match for them.

As long as their combined shares exceed 51%, they can reasonably and legally impeach him and force him to cede the chairmanship.

Thinking of this, he said with a sullen expression: "Yanzheng, I know what your wishful thinking is, but you can rest assured, as long as I Philip still has a breath, I will be there for the board of directors tomorrow! No matter what your plan is. I won't let you succeed!"
