

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 1721 – 1725

Chapter 1721

Father Su's thinking was deeply influenced by his father.

The Old Master's father fought a war back then. The battlefield is different from the business world. The battlefield is always desperate, so his business philosophy is also very simple. As long as he is his opponent, he must go to death.

Choose one between the Ito family and the Takahashi family, and then kill the other. In the eyes of Mr. Su, it is like going to sea. There are two boats on the shore, but only one is needed. Then what should I do at this time??

Ordinary people randomly choose one that is pleasing to the eye, and then board the ship and set sail;

After detailed research, smart people choose a ship with the strongest overall performance;

The clever ruthless man will choose the one with the strongest overall performance, and then scuttle the other before sailing.

The reason for this is that if you simply choose one ship to ride, the remaining ship will become a huge hidden danger.

Competitors may ride that ship to catch up, and finally may leave you behind.

Therefore, if you choose one to ride and scuttle the other, you don't have to worry about your opponent being able to catch up with you.

When the time comes, the opponent can only sigh on the beach, being left behind by you.

This routine is simple and rude, but also very effective.

Zynn, and even Zhifei and Zhiyu, were born in peaceful times. After living in peaceful times for too long, gradually, they lost the bloodiness of the older generation.

However, when Zynn said the father's decision, Zhiyu was the first to react.

She said with some enlightenment: "Dad, grandpa's strategy is wonderful! This will not only break the road of the Wade family, but also increase our influence in Japan. I was still worried before, the Takahashi family and the Ito family Each has its own strengths and weaknesses. No matter which one you choose, it is a pity to give up the other. If you win over one of them and then work together to swallow the other, it would be perfect!"

Zynn said, "Zhifei and Zhiyu, you two must remember that the biggest enemy of the Su family in the past, present, and the next ten years is the Wade family!"

"Therefore, no matter what field we are involved in in the future, we must also call the same principle: if the Wade family is also in this field, then the first priority is to kill the Wade family; if the Wade family has not entered this field yet, then we must do our best to prevent them from coming in!"

"Although the anti-wade Alliance of the year is gone, we still have to beat the Wade Family to death. Only in this way can we prevent the Wade Family from taking the lead and forming an Anti-Su Alliance to deal with us. Understand?"

The two, brother and sister said at the same time: "Understand!"

Zynn nodded and continued: "You have to think more, not only about your grandfather's strategic layout, but also about his tactical arrangements. The older generations said that business world is like battlefields. At that time, businesses were based on the degree of cruelty. , Not lost to the battlefield. But the world has been at peace for decades since World War II. People have been at ease for too long, and their bloodiness has become weaker and weaker. The gap between the market and the battlefield has become larger and larger... .."

Zhiyu said earnestly: “Dad, you are right. Brother and I will try to make up for blood and wolf nature!”

The Zynn in the video nodded and said admiringly: “The future of the Su family will ultimately belong to your generation. If the two of you can find the bloody nature of your ancestors, the Su family will no longer has to worry about the future and hope for more glory!”

Let the Su Family stand on top of the world, this sentence has been lingering in Zhiyu and Zhifei’s ears from this moment on.

However, Zhifei didn’t know, at this moment, on the wall outside his room, like a gecko, clinging to it was a dark figure.

This figure was holding a special sound amplifier for spies, and recorded all the voices of the video conferences.

Chapter 1722

And this figure is the ninjutsu master of the Takahashi family, Tenglin.

Machi Takahashi learned that he happened to be at the Aman Hotel, so he asked him to monitor Zhifei. As Party A and Party B who are about to start negotiations on cooperation, if they can know the other party’s cards and low prices in advance, it is absolutely no disadvantage.

The most feared thing in business negotiations is to miss the cards.

This is the same as the poker table.

When you are playing gold with someone, if you can know the opponent’s card, then you will never lose, even if the card you hold is not better than the opponent, you can get out early.

If you can know your opponent’s cards, then you will never be scammed by the opponent. If the opponent holds a small hand that pretends to be pretentious and delusional, you can also see through it at a glance.

Many times, you obviously have the biggest card in the game, but you can't make any money. The reason is that you can't guess the opponent's hole cards and your psychological quality is not strong enough, so you are scared by the opponent's bluff and leave the game early.

Therefore, Takahashi is very eager to see Su's hole cards.

However, when Tenglin sent him the recording, he was scared into a cold sweat by the recording!

It turns out that Su's hole card is not just a good card, it is a killing card!

Especially the strategy of Mr. Su. If they choose Takahashi, they will kill Ito; if they choose Ito, they will kill Takahashi...

Machi Takahashi felt a bit cold in his back, and sat down on a chair alone, slandering in his heart: "That Old Master from the Su family is like a f*cking old beast!"

"Frankly speaking, I have been fighting with the Ito family for so many years, and I have never thought of destroying the other party. It is enough to step on him and beat him..."

"But this Old Master Su is so cruel that he has to kill his my family, or the Ito family, just to cut off his competitors' retreat?!"

"More importantly, I have no choice at all! If I am selected by the Su family and the Su family asked me to join them to kill the Takahashi family, can I refuse? If I refuse, he will turn his head and go to the Ito family. Kill me together..."

Thinking of this, Takahashi wiped his sweat while matching up his mind. In any case, he must reach cooperation with the Su family! Never let the Su family and the Ito family come together, otherwise, he will be responsible for himself and his fate!

The main reason why Takahashi is so scared is mainly that the strength of the Takahashi family is still too far behind the Su family.

In recent years, the form of international economic development has almost been the rapid growth of China, while other countries have either stagnated or retreated without advancing.

Japan is the one that does not advance or retreat.

In recent years, Japan's gpd has not increased but declined. In 2011, it was still able to reach 6 trillion USD. As a result, when it bottomed out in 2018, it was only more than 4 trillion USD.

With the receding of Japan's economic development, these families in Japan have also suffered heavy losses. The current strength has been left behind by China's top families. It is almost impossible to compete with China's top families.

So, Takahashi has an idea in his heart.

He decided that he would do everything possible to attack the Ito family, just like the Su family attacked the Wade family!

If the Su family wants to scuttle the Wade family's boat, they must scuttle the Ito family's boat!

Chapter 1723

When Machi Takahashi made a decision in his heart, the operation of his son Eiki had also been completed.

Seeing his son, who had his arms in cast, was pushed out of the operating room by the doctor, Takahashi's heart twitched.

He wished to smash the body of the b@stard who injured his son immediately.

But thinking about it carefully, the most important thing now is to settle down the cooperation with the Su family, otherwise, if the Su family cooperates with the Ito family, it will be yourself that is unlucky.

So he didn't dare to cause any trouble at this time, so he could only choose to bear it temporarily.

Fortunately, Tenglin has found the trace of the other party and is keeping a close eye on the other party. Therefore, he believes that this person has already pierced his wings and cannot escape. When will he die? It is a matter of time.

Eiki had a local anesthesia in his arms, so his brain consciousness was still clear. Seeing his father waiting outside the operating room, he was moved and aggrieved, and tears immediately shed.

“Father, Eiki is not filial, which is causing you trouble!”

Machi Takahashi waved his hand and sighed: “You can’t be blamed for this matter. You can take a good rest these two days. When your condition stabilizes, I will take you home for a good rest.”

Eiki nodded quickly.

Children always realize the warmth of home after being injured outside.

Now Eiki just wants to go home and lick the wound.

At this moment, someone rushed over and respectfully said to Takahashi Machi: “Chairman, Takehiko sent flowers and fruit baskets to express condolences...”

“Takehiko?!” When Machi Takahashi heard these four words, his brows instantly frowned.

Immediately, he yelled coldly: “Humph! With my knowledge of Takehiko, the b@stard, he is sending flowers and fruit baskets now. He must have come to mock me and watch me as a joke! Last time his daughter was seriously injured after the game in China. When she returned from China and was treated in Tokyo, I also gave him flowers and a fruit basket to laugh at him. I didn’t expect that he would find me back so soon!”

Eiki, with his arms in plaster, said angrily, “Dad! Takehiko, that b@stard, is a must-have guy himself! The flowers and fruit baskets you sent to the hospital last time were all said to have been thrown into a rubbish can, this time we do exactly what he did, showing that he had deliberately slapped my face! This time I lost such a big face, don’t know how this b@stard will humiliate me in the future!”

Machi Takahashi smiled awkwardly and comforted: “Son, you don’t have to be so angry. Maybe Takehiko doesn’t mean anything else, just want to express condolences?”

Eiki asked him back: “Dad, do you believe this? His daughter was injured. What kind of mentality did you send flowers and fruit baskets? Isn’t it for mocking and watching a good show?”

Machi Takahashi sneered: “You are right, I was indeed trying to mock him...”

Eiki said with a sad face: “The video of Nanako’s injury was spread all over Japan, but the people respect her and loved her very much. Numerous fans are still launching activities to protect her and pray for her online. But I was injured this time, and all the country is laughing at me. I am embarrassed this time...”

With that, Eiki couldn’t think about it, and cried uncontrollably.

It’s no wonder that he is too fragile. After all, he was a Japanese national man before, and countless women are crazy about him and call him their crush on the Internet.

Unexpectedly, in a blink of an eye, he would be beaten to death in front of the people of the whole country.

Through this incident it can be said that he has lost face for a lifetime.

Moreover, it is almost impossible to get the face back again.

Chapter 1724

Even if he really killed Charlie, it was useless. After all, the horror of his beating was already well known to the Japanese, and it was deeply rooted in the hearts of the people.

Machi Takahashi’s expression was also ugly, and when he was thinking about how to comfort his son, his cell phone rang suddenly.

Machi Takahashi took out his cell phone and saw that it was an unfamiliar number, so he pressed it to answer.

Immediately afterwards, Takehiko’s voice came over the phone.

“Oh, Brother Takahashi, I heard that Lord Eiki was beaten in Tokyo today?”

At first glance, Takehiko’s voice seemed to be somewhat concerned, but anyone with a little brain could hear it. This voice was simply sarcasm.

Takahashi Machi said with a black face: “Ito, I remember I saved your phone number, why? You changed it?”

“No.” Ito said with a smile: “My mobile phone number is still the same as before. I am using my assistant’s mobile phone. I am afraid to call you with my own mobile phone. You see my name you will never pick it Hahaha!”

Machi Takahashi’s expression went dark immediately.

Takehiko was right. If he knew it was his call, he would not answer if he died.

Unexpectedly, this dog was so damaged, so he changed his mobile phone number and called, just to mock him on the phone?

Seeing that Takahashi really didn’t speak, Takehiko immediately smiled and said, “Oh, Takahashi, why don’t you speak anymore? Do you feel that your son is so humiliated at the door of the house that he really is a bit embarrassed?”

Takahashi was a little bit intolerable, and asked, “Ito, what’s the matter with you? If it’s okay, I’m going to hang”

“Don’t!” Ito said with a smile, “Takahashi, I called, mainly because you and your son felt worthless! You see, he was also injured. When my daughter was injured, all of Japan was there to comfort her and encourage her, but after your son is injured, all Japan laughed at him. Netizens also really damned him. How can you make such a difference, right?”

Takahashi gritted his teeth angrily, and said coldly: “Takehiko, how far are you f*cking for me! Don’t let me see you again!”

When he heard Takahashi’s swearing, he smiled a little, and said happily: “Takahashi, there is an idiom in China to describe you now. It is perfect. Do you know what it is?”

Machi Takahashi scolded, "I don't want to know, you go to hell!"

After speaking, Machi Takahashi hung up the phone!

However, not long after the call was hung up, he received a message on his cell phone.

The content of the message is: "Brother Takahashi, don't blame the brother for not reminding you, you really have to change your temper in the future, otherwise, you will easily suffer the loss your son just suffered! Eiki is young, he has broken two arms it is nothing, but if you are older, if you break both arms, you may not be able to recover in your life!"

Seeing this, Takahashi was really furious.

At this time, the phone received another text message.

It was sent by Takehiko Ito: "Oh, yes, the Chinese idiom used to describe you can't be more appropriate is: Sh!t jumps over the wall!"

Takahashi was so angry that he had nowhere to vent. He slammed the phone to the ground and fell to pieces. He cursed hysterically, "Ito Yuuhiko, you d*mn b@stard! You really know that Takahashi will not avenge this revenge."

At this moment, in Takahashi's heart, for the first time, he was murderous against Takehiko!

Chapter 1725

For so many years, Takahashi Machi and Takehiko have been fighting over and under.

It can be said that over the years, the two have regarded each other as biggest competitors.

However, Takahashi and Takehiko are only in their fifties this year. They were both born in the most desolate and least self-confident years in post-war Japan, and they have been growing up peacefully. Therefore, they are not in the past blood and wolf nature of the older generation.

Therefore, the two sides have been fighting for so many years, and they are only competing in the commercial field. No one has ever thought about killing the other party to death.

This is like the boss of Alibaba and the boss of Tencent. Although they compete fiercely in different fields all day long, everyone still abides by laws and regulations very much.

Even if they are upset with each other in their hearts, the minimum politeness and rules can be guaranteed by everyone.

This is the phrase often said on the Internet: "He is grinning on his face, and I am in my heart."

However, after eavesdropping on the video conference of Su's family, Machi Takahashi was shocked, but also felt the vigilance of Daigo's enlightenment!

At that moment, his whole person suddenly opened

Now he doesn't want to use the previous law-abiding model to compete with Takehiko.

He now hopes that Takehiko will disappear from this world!

To be more precise, he hopes that the entire Ito family will disappear from this world!

In that way, the Takahashi family would have no obstacles or stumbling blocks in Japan!

In Takahashi's mind, a death list has been placed.

The first on this list of deaths is Takehiko Ito;

The second place was Charlie, who has abolished his son's arms.

He thought it was easy to kill Charlie, but it was difficult to kill Takehiko.

Because Charlie is just a martial arts master from China, and has been locked by the ninjutsu master sent by him, he can kill him at any time.

However, it is not so easy to kill Takehiko.

After all, the Ito family has also been cultivating in Japan for many years, and the strength is comparable to that of the Takahashi family. They also have complete security personnel at ordinary times. More importantly, he has a high social status in Japan. Want to kill him. , never directly use force, otherwise it is very likely to cause trouble for himself.

Therefore, the best solution is to join forces with a more powerful family to continuously suppress the strength of the Ito family, first knock him out of the position of the top family in Japan, and when he becomes a second-rate or third-rate family, everyone will treat his life and death. He doesn't care so much, and his overall strength will drop sharply.

It is easy to take his life at that time.

Therefore, if you want to kill Takehiko, you must join forces with the Su family.

In the final analysis, this cooperation with the Su family, in his view, can only succeed and not fail.

.....

Tenglin and his three junior brothers lurked all night in their respective locations.
