

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 1731 – 1735

Chapter 1731

Hearing this voice, Tenglin Qingtian's liver and gallbladder were cracked!

This really confirmed the scariest assumption in his heart!

That man has been here all the time and never left!

And from the beginning to the end, he didn't hear this person's breathing or heartbeat. How did he do it? !

Moreover, he slapped his shoulder twice, which proved that he was close to his body at least twice, but he didn't even hear anything, not even his footsteps!

At this moment, he subconsciously wanted to turn around and throw out the shuriken, but he was a little worried deep in his heart.

After all, he only has six swords in his hand. Four of them have been thrown out just now, and now the two in his hand are the last two!

What if these two are also on the empty target?

The opponent is right in front of him, and he will never give himself a chance to dig out other weapons. In other words, the sword in these two hands is his last chance.

If you use it rashly, you may put yourself in a situation where you can never recover!

Tenglin Qingtian didn't dare to act rashly, so he could only swallow his saliva nervously, and said with some humility: "You gentleman, you may have misunderstood. I am not a ninja, just a shuriken fan."

“Oh?” Charlie smiled playfully and asked him: “You are not a ninja, so what are you doing with me?”

Tenglin Qingtian hurriedly said: “I didn’t follow you, I just finished my dinner at night, come here to practice my shuriken...”

Charlie sneered and said, “Do you think I will believe such a bad reason?”

Tenglin Qingtian said innocently, “I...I...I’m telling the truth...”

Charlie sneered: “If I guessed correctly, you should be a member of the Takahashi family? I now give you a chance to survive and tell me everything exactly. If what you say satisfies me, then I can consider letting you go.”

Hearing this, Tenglin Qingtian knew in his heart that denying was no longer useful, and blindly denying it was likely to be a disaster.

Therefore, he can only cower and say: “Sir, I say! I say everything! I was indeed sent by the Takahashi family, and they asked me to follow you all the way from Tokyo to here...”

Charlie asked again: “What is the plan of the Takahashi family? Do they want you to follow me like this?”

Tenglin Qingtian hurriedly said: “No, Mr. Takahashi Machi meant that we should follow you first, and wait for his instructions. He is now negotiating cooperation with a big family from China, so he doesn’t want to be out of the question, but wants to wait until after the cooperation is finished. , Let us kill you then.”

Charlie nodded and asked, “What is the origin of you four ninjas?”

Tenglin Qingtian said truthfully: “We are all members of the Tenglin family, and the Tenglin family is one of the major ninjutsu families in Japan.”

Charlie asked him with interest: “Since your family is a relatively large ninjutsu family in Japan, why should you follow the Takahashi family as running dogs?”

Tenglin Qingtian hurriedly said: “This...actually, the main reason is that in the postwar years, ninjas and samurai have become less and less important. At the same time, the underworld is also rapidly rising, and they are equipped with very powerful heat. Weapon, so our living space is even smaller. In addition to being good at ninjutsu, the entire family has no other skills. It is not good at doing business and Making money, so it can only survive by attaching to the big family...”

Speaking of this, Tenglin Qingtian begged: “Sir, what I told you is all the truth, can you let me go?”

Charlie smiled and said: “Don’t worry, I still have questions to ask, you can leave after answering all of my questions.”

Tenglin Qingtian’s mind turned slightly, and he asked: “Sir, I...can I turn around and talk? I’m so nervous with my back facing you like this...”

Charlie said calmly: “Yes, turn around.”

Tenglin Qingtian turned around slowly, and when he turned around, the shuriken in his hand had not been put down.

At the same time, his toes slid gently on the ground, seemingly nothing unusual, but Charlie still noticed the other’s intentions.

Tenglin Qingtian’s shoes are special ninja shoes, which are not only light and quiet, but more importantly, they hide a short-edged dagger in the sole.

The short-edged switch is a slider with a special pattern on the sole.

Normal walking and running will not trigger the shoe sole slider to eject the short blade. Only after the slider completes the S-shaped movement, will the short blade eject mechanism be triggered.

This kind of weapon is very common in the era of cold weapons. Even in China a hundred years ago, it was also a necessary hidden weapon for many people to walk the rivers and lakes.

In many film and television works, this hidden weapon has also been shown, but the principle is not revealed. In fact, this s-shaped slider is equivalent to the simplest mechanical code. Others don't know how to trigger it, but the user himself knows it. Obviously, you can be surprised at any time.

Chapter 1732

However, as the thermal weapon became more and more mature, this weapon gradually withdrew from the stage of history.

But unexpectedly, Japanese ninjas are still in use.

The moment he moved the sole of his shoe, he realized that this guy was preparing to unlock the short blade in the ninja shoe.

Even, his toes have completed 80% of the entire S-shape, as long as they move one centimeter in the correct direction at the end, the short blade hidden in the sole will suddenly pierce from the toe!

At this time, Tenglin Qingtian has made up his mind. Once he finds the right opportunity, he first uses the sword in his two hands to attract the other's attention. When Charlie's all attention is on the shuriken, he immediately uses the ninja shoes. The short blade launched an attack.

At that time, the upper and lower sides and the four sharp blades will come out, as long as one of them stabs Charlie, Charlie will undoubtedly die!

Although he explained that he should not kill him for the time being, he felt that Charlie had already threatened his life, and he did not care about Zhenzhi's instructions. The most important thing was to kill Charlie first!

After Maching up his mind, he began to attract Charlie's attention and said, "Sir, if you have any questions, just ask, I will answer truthfully!"

Charlie nodded and asked, "Are you four of you the strongest under Machi Takahashi?"

"Yes."

Charlie frowned, and said with a bit of contempt: "I don't think the four of you are really good at it. Isn't your skill just throwing knives? And you're dying. If you have this skill, In China, no one looks at performing arts on the streets, and you can't keep up with the heat if you eat sh!t."

Feeling humiliated, Tenglin Qingtian blurted out: "Nonsense! My shuriken has always been accurate. Within 100 meters, the wings of flying flies can be cut off!"

Charlie smiled and said, "So powerful?"

Tenglin Qingtian said sternly: "Of course! If you don't believe me, I can show you something!"

Charlie smiled contemptuously: "Come on, start your performance."

Tenglin Qingtian gritted his teeth, realizing that the opportunity is coming, and sneered: "Okay! Then you are optimistic!"

After that, both hands suddenly shook, and the sword in both hands instantly pierced the air and dashed towards Charlie!

Immediately afterwards, he rubbed his feet on the ground slightly, and the two short blades of his toes popped out instantly!

Tenglin Qingtian didn't dare to delay half a minute, and immediately raised his foot and kicked Charlie!

Charlie had already guarded his hand, a trace of contempt flashed between his brows.

Immediately afterwards, he did not move. He just snapped two fingers with both hands, and then separated two invisible vigor, and slightly pushed the two shurikens that came straight to his door.

Immediately afterwards, the sword in the two hands was like a Chinese character "eight", swiping and flicking it, just passing Charlie!

Tenglin Qingtian was so scared that his face was pale by this strange scene. At this time, he could only hope for the short blade of his toes!

A strong wind blew, and his feet kicked in front of Charlie.

Charlie's expression was indifferent, and he quickly attacked with one hand, and grabbed his ankle tightly.

Tenglin Qingtian looked at the short blade of the toe, and was only a few strands away from Charlie, but Charlie's hand was too strong, and he was completely unable to enter even half a minute!

At this time, Charlie sneered and said contemptuously: "Since you like to hurt people with short blades so much, then I will fulfill you and arrange a happy ending for your life!"

Tenglin Qingtian was frightened and collapsed, and he blurted out and pleaded: "No! Please..."

As soon as the voice fell, he felt a sudden pain in his ankle and knee!

With a crisp click, Tenglin Qingtian saw his calf bend forward from the knee!

It turned out that Charlie completely broke his calf from his knee with one hand!

He was tortured to collapse by the severe pain, opened his mouth and yelled hysterically: "Ah!!!"

The next moment, his voice stopped abruptly.

The short blade on the toe of his shoe had already pierced into his mouth at this time, and the bloody blade tip came out directly from the back of his neck!

Chapter 1733

The moment Tenglin Qingtian pierced the sharp blade, he felt pain and numbness at the wound, and a sense of weakness spread from the wound to his whole body.

The pain comes from the wound of a sharp blade;

The sense of powerlessness originates from the poison on the blade.

He was already unable to breathe, his face became more and more bruised, staring at Charlie with an expression of horror, and sobbing in his mouth.

Charlie looked at him and asked with interest: "Did you follow me first, how did I do it?"

Tenglin Qingtian nodded desperately.

He didn't want to understand until he was on the verge of dying, why Charlie had such a strong strength, why he could hide everything in front of him in an instant, and why he could make his two-handed sword deviate from the original trajectory.

Charlie smiled slightly at this time and said: "Did you learn physics when you were a child? The transmission of sound depends on vibration. As long as you can control vibration, you can control any sound. No matter how sensitive your ears are, you won't feel it."

Tenglin Qingtian's eyes were full of shock!

Sound transmission depends on vibration, he knows this, but how can people control the vibration of sound? !

Immediately, he looked at Charlie with eager eyes, Maching a um ah ah ah sound in his mouth.

Charlie smiled and asked, "Do you want to ask, how did I make your two swords deviate?"

Tenglin Qingtian nodded uncontrollably.

Charlie smiled indifferently: "This is the same principle as how I control the vibration, but this ability is a profound heritage, far from your ninjutsu, so you don't think too much, go on the road."

Tenglin Qingtian's expression was full of shock and regret.

What is shocking is that this man actually has such an inheritance of heavenly skills. Regrettably, he has come to an end in this life, and it is impossible to learn such a heavenly skill.

At this moment, Tenglin Qingtian's face had begun to turn black and purple, and his eyes were staring, almost shooting out of his eye sockets.

And his whole person couldn't stop convulsing suddenly, and his whole person was shaking violently.

The reason for this is also because he himself smeared cyanide on his short blade. This highly toxic substance killed him very quickly and in a tragic manner.

This state continued for about ten seconds, and Tenglin Qingtian lost his vitality and turned into a stiff corpse.

Charlie didn't have any sympathy for the tragic death of Tenglin Qingtian. This man carried so many poisonous weapons with him. God knows how many people he killed with these weapons before. Now, it is best for him to let him eat the consequences.

In other words, this is also his best destination.

Otherwise, if the crime is in the hands of other enemies someday, you may not even be able to keep a whole body.

At this moment, there was a short and slight vibration in Tenglin Qingtian's pocket.

If it weren't for Charlie's extremely keen senses, it would be impossible to detect it.

Astonished, he reached out to touch the inner pocket of Tenglin Qingtian's shirt, and he found a mobile phone.

This mobile phone seems to have specially modified the vibration motor, which greatly shortens the period of vibration and greatly reduces the force of vibration. It is estimated that it is to prevent the mobile phone from revealing its whereabouts when it is hidden.

At this time, a message was displayed on the screen of the phone. After Charlie unlocked the phone with Tenglin Qingtian's finger, he saw a text message with the title Tenglin. The text message contained only two numbers: "07."

Charlie couldn't help frowning, scrolling up the text messages of the two and found that they were all communicating with two digits. Tenglin sent a 03, and Tenglin Qingtian responded with an 11.

Chapter 1734

Charlie speculated that this should be some kind of agreed code between them. Only they themselves know what the different numbers mean, so that they can realize basic communication encryption, even if he has Tenglin Qingtian's mobile phone, There is no idea what the two are passing on.

However, Charlie felt that the 07 sent by Tenglin should really mean to ask Tenglin Qingtian about his situation.

Thinking of this, he gently bends the phone with both hands, and when the phone is powered off, he put the phone back into Tenglin Qingtian's pocket.

Immediately afterwards, he took out his mobile phone and called Issac.

As soon as the phone was connected, he ordered: "Old man, let your hands prepare a light refrigerated car, and then drive to the park on the outskirts of the river."

Issac asked in surprise: "Master what do you want to freeze the car for?"

Charlie said lightly: "A big popsicle of personal flesh."

When Issac heard this, he immediately became nervous, and blurted out, "Master have you been attacked?! Are you okay?"

"Of course okay." Charlie said: "You quickly do as I told you to find a car first, and I will send you the address in a moment."

"OK, Master!"

At this moment, inside a hotel in downtown Nagoya.

Tenglin was about to install a bug in Charlie's room. Just to be cautious, he sent Tenglin Qingtian a message to ask him about his tracking, such as where Charlie went and how long it will take to return.

If Charlie can't come back for a while, then he can safely sneak into his room.

However, when the message was sent, Tenglin Qingtian never responded, which made him feel a little uneasy.

The other two juniors were also in his room. Seeing Tenglin Qingtian not responding to messages, everyone looked a little worried.

The four of them have worked closely for so many years and are very familiar with each other. There is no lag in the communication between them under any circumstances. The information is basically returned within seconds, and there has never been a situation where there is no reply for a few minutes.

Tenglin couldn't help muttering: "Could it be that Qingtian was discovered by the other party?"

The second junior brother said: "No, senior brother! The fourth child has the strongest concealment ability. If he gets serious, the three of us together may not be able to find him. How can the subject detect his trace?"

Tenglin waved his hand and said solemnly: "Qingtian hasn't responded to the message for so long. This is obviously very abnormal. Therefore, it is no longer meaningful to discuss his strength. The key is to find him!"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly sent another message to Tenglin Qingtian. The content of this message was the number 10, which means one hundred thousand in a hurry, and he responded quickly!

However, when the message was sent, it still fell to the ground!

He waited anxiously for another minute, but there was still no response.

The expressions of all three people became very ugly.

The Third Junior Brother couldn't sit still, and stood up and said, "Big Brother, go out and look for it!"

"Looking for?" Tenglin smacked his lips: "Where to find? Qingtian has not communicated with us since he separated from us, we don't even know which direction to choose when we leave the hotel!"

The second younger brother blurted out: "What if there is an accident with Qingtian?"

Tenglin said with a black face: "I think with Qingtian's strength, even if it is discovered by the opponent, he can still fight. It may not really be an accident. Maybe it has already started with the opponent!"

After that, he blurted out: "Second, give Qingtian a call!"

Chapter 1735

Tenglin's last hope is to pray that the reason why Tenglin Qingtian didn't reply was that he was following Charlie or was fighting Charlie fiercely.

In short, as long as he is still alive.

The second child picked up the phone and immediately called Tenglin Qingtian.

As a result, a series of prompts appeared on the phone, telling him that the other party's mobile phone might not be able to connect temporarily because of no signal.

The cold sweat of the second child shed at once.

He hurriedly said to Tenglin: "Brother, Qingtian's phone cannot be connected..."

"How come..." Tenglin stood up immediately and blurted out: "Qingtian's mobile phone is always on standby all the time, why can't it be connected suddenly..."

The old third looked panicked and said, "Brother, has Qingtian already encountered an accident?"

The second child said with certainty: "There must be a big problem! Otherwise, Qingtian will never be so abnormal!"

After that, he looked at Tenglin: "Brother, we have to find him!"

"Look?" Tenglin's expression was extremely ugly, and he said: "We don't know where to look. If Qingtian really encounters an accident, even if we find him, he may become a corpse. We risk it. If you look for it, you might expose yourself..."

"Then what to do?!" The third asked: "Brother, we can't just sit and wait for death, right?"

Tenglin gritted his teeth and said, "Of course you can't sit and wait! So, you two will go downstairs and watch. I will install a bug in the room. If they come back, tell me immediately."

The second child asked eagerly: "Brother, what is the point of installing a bug now? What we are looking for now is the whereabouts of Qingtian!"

Tenglin said coldly: "If Qingtian really encounters an accident, then only the subject will know his whereabouts. Only by closely monitoring him can we know the whereabouts of Qingtian!"

With that, Tenglin sighed and said: "Second, third, you two must be mentally prepared that Qingtian is not alive..."

The expressions of the two suddenly became indescribable pain.

They are all senior brothers. Although they are not real brothers, they are also members of the Tenglin family. They are distant relatives. They have grown up together, learned ninjutsu together, and have the same siblings. Suddenly they were prepared for this. The two of them were naturally very sad.

However, Tenglin's words are indeed correct.

Nagoya is not very big, but it is definitely not a small city. With the capabilities of the three of them, it is impossible to find a missing person in this city.

The only clue is the Subject they are following. Therefore, all clues and truth must wait for him to return before they can surface.

As a result, the three immediately divided the work and cooperated. The two watched in the entrance hall downstairs of the hotel, and Tenglin sneaked into Charlie's room and installed multiple bugs in the secret location of the room.

Ten minutes later, Issac, one of his subordinates, and the three of them, including Orvel, drove a refrigerated truck to the park where he was.

After the car stopped outside the park, Issac and Mr. Orvel ran all the way to see Charlie standing in front of a black and purple corpse, and the corpse even swallowed his own toes with his mouth wide open, and he was shocked!

Orvel couldn't help asking: "Master, this...who is this person?!"

Charlie said lightly: "A ninja, a member of the Takahashi family."
