

Chapter 2533

Next, Zhang Jue looked around, and his vision landed on Susan. "Madam Carter, I have good news to share with all of you. I have news about Darry."

What?

The main hall was in an uproar when everyone heard that. Everyone was so excited.

"What? Where is he?"

"I knew Darryl would be fine."

"Mister Zhang, tell us quickly."

At that point, everyone still did not know that it was Zhang Jue's trick. They did not also know that Zhang Jue was the one who formed the Yellow Sky Trading that was all across the Nine Mainland. Not only that, he even controlled the Endless Sky Organization completely. Zhang Jue's power at that time was stronger than any single sect.

Zhang Jue laughed at their questions. "For the past three years, I have been venturing all over the world. I met Darryl when I passed by the Chaotic Mountain Range a day ago. He was walking out of the Wild Deserted Secret Region at that time. He was gravely hurt, though, as a result of the vicious beasts' attack."

"Due to the severity of his injury, I dare not rescue and cure him recklessly. Hence I can only come here to inform you of the situation."

Zhang Jue's face looked grave when he said that.

That was right; Zhang Jue was lying. He did that to lure the Carter family into heading to the trap that he had set. He would be able to force Darryl to appear and follow his orders once he had captured them.

At that moment, Susan and the rest were incredibly excited and worried. They were utterly unaware that Zhang Jue had tricked them.

"Where is he?"

"Bring us there quickly."

Everyone started to speak. All of their eyes were filled with desperation.

"I have arranged for Darryl to stay in a safe place. Follow me, all of you. His injury can not afford any delay." Zhang Jue smiled.

A few minutes later, Susan and others followed Zhang Jue and left the Carter mansion.

Two hours later, everyone stopped for a rest when they arrived in the woods near the World Universe border.

Zhang Jue, who stood at the side, smiled when he saw that. His eyes looked cold and dangerous.

Just as the wind blew, Zhang Jue retrieved a pack of things secretly. He stood in the direction of the wind and splashed some powder into the air. Soon the wind carried the powder, and everyone inhaled it.

Susan, who was nearest to him, felt something was not right. Her body shook.

'What is going on?'

At that moment, Susan's beautiful face turned pale. She was shocked, and she had a doubt in her mind. 'That's weird. I was fine just now. Why do I suddenly feel weak all over my body, and my internal energy seems to be sealed? I can't activate it at all!'

'This is the sign of being poisoned!'

As she thought about it, Susan was about to stand up. However, her body legs were frail and sore; she could not use a single bit of her energy at all.

Zhang Jue chuckled.

He was so delighted when he saw that. He smiled and looked at Susan. "Madam Carter, what's wrong?" His voice sounded concerned, but he was teasing her.

"Mister Zhang, I—" Susan's beautiful brows were in a frown. After only a few words, she was cut off by Zhang Jue.

Zhang Jue teased her. "Madam Carter, are you feeling as if your entire body is weak and sore? An indescribable energy source suppresses your abdomen, and your internal energy can't be activated at all?"

What?

Susan's body trembled as she locked her vision onto Zhang Jue. She was shocked.

"You! How did you know?"

Zhang Jue smiled and said, "Of course I know. I released the Ecstasy Elixir into the air." He laughed.

What?

After he spoke, everyone's facial expression changed. All of them stared at Zhang Jue furiously.

'That Zhang Jue is so wicked. He ambushed us!'

At that moment, Eira stood up as she looked at Zhang Jue in disbelief. She said softly, "Master, why did you do that?"

Chapter 2534

At that point, Yvette's facial expression and the rest of the group changed. Their bodies trembled.

"I... I think I can't use my internal energy..."

"Me too..."

Everyone's bodies began to weaken as they sat motionless on the ground before they could continue speaking.

Zhang Jue chuckled.

A smile appeared on Zhang Jue's face when he saw that. He clapped his hand, and at that instant, dozens of men dressed in black ran out; they were the Endless Sky Organization disciples.

In the blink of an eye, the men in black had tied up Yvette and the rest. Susan also did not escape from the bad luck; her hands and legs were bound securely.

"Master, why?" Eira's body trembled. She did not expect Zhang Jue would be such a deviant.

Zhang Jue laughed coldly. "My good disciple, I have no choice but to do that."

"No choice?!"

Dax glared at Zhang Jue and scolded him.

"Stop pretending. You are such a despicable person. Darryl should have killed you three years ago."

"That person is a deviant; we should not have believed him."

Sh*t!

Zhang Jue's face darkened when he heard that. He glared at Dax. "You are the one who deserves to die. You are still so stubborn when you are a prisoner. You will be the first I will kill once I capture Darryl."

Zhang Jue had wanted to kill Dax immediately. Chester, Dax, and Darryl were brothers; all of them were powerful. He would have less to worry about if he were to get rid of them.

However, Zhang Jue still controlled himself to lure Darryl to appear.

"Zhang Jue!"

Yvette controlled her anger and said coldly to Zhang Jue, "You have been a remarkable person for a long time. Aren't you worried that everyone would despise you if you use such despicable means to trick us?"

"Auntie!" Ambrose, who was beside her, shouted, "Don't waste time speaking to such a despicable person."

"Bastard!"

Zhang Jue's face darkened when he heard those words. Anger started to boil in his heart. He took a step forward, raised his hand, and slapped Ambrose!

Slap!

Zhang Jue used all his might in that slap. Ambrose's internal energy was sealed; there was no way for him to hide. A loud, clear sound was heard, and Ambrose moaned as he fell onto the ground from the slap. The corner of his mouth had started to bleed!

"Young Man, who are you to think that you can criticize me?" Zhang Jue said coldly, "Don't forget how I took care of you when you were serving Yang Jian!"

Wow!

Everyone was extremely furious when they saw that.

Zhang Jue was too cruel. He took action immediately when he heard something he disliked. Even though Ambrose was already an adult, he was still a child in everyone's mind.

"Come! Take Ambrose and chop off both his hands." Zhang Jue's eyes were filled with evilness as he ordered his followers beside him. 'Ambrose is Darryl's son. Darryl's heart would break if I chop off both his hands; he would appear in an instant.'

After he spoke, a few men in black were about to surround Ambrose.

"Stop! Stop it..."

At that moment, a weak figure shouted and dashed forward to stand in front of Ambrose. Her beautiful face looked worried and determined.

It was Heather.

That was right. Three years ago, after the Nine Mainland had signed a treaty with the Raksasa Tribe, Heather had stayed with them. For the past three years, she had always been by Ambrose's side.

They had a profound relationship.

Heather did not hesitate to fight; she used her life to stop Zhang Jue when she saw that they were about to hack Ambrose's hands.

What?

Chapter 2535

Zhang Jue was stunned. Then, he stared at Heather. It had been three years, and Heather looked more attractive and sexier than before.

A few seconds later, Zhang Jue said coldly, "Get lost!"

Zhang Jue knew that girl was the Sea Mackie Clan's princess. Her position was unique. Even though she was in his hand, he did not pity her.

Heather shook her head; her face looked determined. "Don't you dare hurt brother Ambrose; not with me around."

"Heather!" Ambrose was worried; he shouted, "Ignore me. I want to see if he has the guts to chop off my hands."

Heather shook her head firmly. "Brother Ambrose, you've always protected me; it is now my turn to protect you."

Next, Heather glared at Zhang Jue. "You are such an evil person. Three years ago, Sect Master Darby let you go due to his kindness. Not only are you not grateful for that, but you've turned around and wanted to harm his family. You are such a loser; you will die a terrible death!"

Slap!

Zhang Jue was furious; he slapped Heather's face before she could finish her words.

"B*tch, how dare you speak to me like that. Do you know who I am? Who are you to comment about me? You are seeking death!" Zhang Jue said coldly. He raised his hand and slapped Heather about eight times, each time stronger than the other one!

Slap! Slap! Slap!

They could hear the crisp sound continuously!

Heather was incredibly weak and gentle; how could she suffer that? Fresh blood flowed from the corner of her mouth; her knees nearly buckled. However, she continued to shout, "Bad guy, devil! You will die a terrible death! A terrible death!"

'Such a bad guy! He cheated everyone and still wants to hack Brother Ambrose's hands. No one in the world is more deviant than him!'

When he heard that, Zhang Jue's anger continued to burn. He had been a famous figure for a few thousand years. He was the leader of the Yellow Turban Rebellion that conquered the world. How could he let a girl scold him in such a manner?

Zhang Jue's slap got stronger and stronger under his anger.

"Heather!"

"Zhang Jue, you are an elder in the community, and yet you are bullying a little girl. Are you still a man?"

"Sh*t, come to me if you dare!"

When they saw that, Dax, Yvette, Ambrose, and the rest were enraged. They did not stop shouting at Zhang Jue, especially Ambrose. His eyes were blood-red; they looked as if they were about to explode.

Heather was gentle and kind, but Zhang Jue had tortured her in such a terrible way. He felt his heart break into pieces when he saw that.

Zhang Jue laughed.

When he heard how Ambrose and the others shouted and scolded him, he grinned evilly. "Just a few slaps, and you can't handle it? Not only will I hit her, but I also want her life!"

Zhang Jue looked at Ambrose. "Young Man, you like this princess from the Sea Mackie Clan, right? Today, I shall let you experience the feeling of losing someone you love."

Zhang Jue's internal energy rushed forward; he punched at Heather's chest!

Dax, Yvette, and the others' expressions changed at that instant. Their hearts were on the verge of bursting.

'Brother Ambrose, we shall meet again in our next life.'

Heather continued to cry; as Zhang Jue attacked her, she shut her eyes hopelessly.

Ambrose's eyes were filled with blood; he tried to struggle with all his might. However, he could not activate his internal energy; there was nothing he could do at all.

"Master!" A desperate shout was heard at the most vital moment. A beautiful face pleaded with Zhang Jue.

It was Eira.

Zhang Jue furrowed his brows when he saw Eira; he pulled back his punch forcefully!

Bang!

Eira bent her knees and kneeled in front of Zhang Jue. She begged, "I am begging you; please forgive Heather. Please consider our relationship as master and apprentice, I beg you, please forgive her..."

Eira was about to cry when she said that.

'Heather and Brother love each other deeply; how can I let her die? Brother will be heartbroken if she dies.'

Chapter 2536

"Our master-apprentice relationship?"

Zhang Jue looked as if he was smiling, but he was not. He looked at Eira, nodded, and said, "Fine, I can agree with you."

"Thank you, Master..." Eira was delighted and was about to speak further.

However, she was halted by Zhang Jue just as she was about to say a few words.

"Don't be too happy yet. I can spare Heather's life; I can also let your brother off temporarily." The corner of Zhang Jue's mouth twitched with an ugly grin as he said, "However, you must agree to one condition."

What?

Eira's body trembled, and her heart shook. 'Master is deviant and hideous. Whatever condition he has, it is definitely nothing good.'

"Little Sister, don't agree with him."
Ambrose shouted, "That person is too despicable. It will not be anything good. I would rather die than let him get what he wants."

Eira flushed and hesitated when she heard that.

Zhang Jue was too lazy to speak further. He said, "It is simple. You shall stay at the Carter family and figure out a way to send the news to your father. Tell him to find me."

When she heard that, Eira was stunned. 'Sent the news to Father? He only wanted Father?'

Wow!

At that moment, everyone around them was incredibly nervous.

'It seems like Zhang Jue wanted to lure Darryl to appear.'

Yvette and the rest were shocked and delighted when they thought of that; there should be some news about Darryl from the look of it.

"Fine!"

Finally, Eira regained her thoughts. She nodded as she looked at Zhang Jue. "I agree with your condition."

Eira knew Zhang Jue wanted to attack her father, but she had no choice. If she disagreed with him, he would hack her brother's hands and kill Heather.

Zhang Jue chuckled.

A smile appeared on Zhang Jue's face as she agreed. He felt gratified as he said, "Good! You are my good apprentice, indeed."

Zhang Jue waved his hand. "Take them away."

The men in black brought Yvette and the rest away.

"Master!"

Just after they left, a few men with a massive stone chest walked forward quickly. The leader spoke respectfully, "We found this."

When Zhang Jue tricked Susan, Yvette, and the rest to leave the Carter mansion, his disciple searched the area. The aim was to look for the treasure chest that Emperor Xuan Yuan had left.

Zhang Jue was an intelligent person. He knew that even though he had control over the Endless Sky Organization, it was still difficult for him to conquer the Nine Mainland. Emperor Xuan Yuan's treasure box could restrain the Raksasa Tribe. Once he obtained the treasure in the chest, he would be able to control the Raksasa Tribe.

Once he could control the Raksasa Tribe, he would have the power and ability to conquer the Nine Mainland. When the Raksasa Tribe crossed the Chaotic Mountain Range, the Nine Mainland almost did not manage to defend against them, even after they joined forces.

Zhang Jue chuckled.

He walked forward quickly as he looked in the stone chest. He was delighted. "That's right, that's right..."

Zhang Jue already had the treasure chest. He only needed to locate the keys to open it.

Of course, Zhang Jue knew that the dragon ball was the key to opening the treasure chest. Three years ago, Darryl obtained the dragon ball by coincidence. However, Donoghue had tricked Darryl and took the dragon ball. In the final battle, Darryl attacked Donoghue as they entered the Wild Deserted Secret Region. Then, both of them disappeared without a trace.

Darryl had been missing for three years and had not returned. He must have taken the dragon ball.

Meanwhile, in the Purgatory Secret Tunnel at the Saint Fire Palace's main hall.

Crack, crack...

As the walls on both sides closed gradually, the gap in the middle of the tunnel was less than 1 meter.

Darryl was nervous as he sweated profusely. 'Sh*t, if this continues, I will be roasted meat.'
