

The Protector Novel Levi Garrison Chapter 1931- 1932

Chapter 1931

The gambling king suddenly laughed.

He Zongtang and others also showed smiles.

“I thought you were a descendant or family member of that guy, you didn’t even know you!”

He Zongtang smiled.

Levi didn’t understand what they meant.

At the beginning, when he said half-immortal and half-ghost, the gambling king thought they had something to do with half-immortal and half-ghost.

Thus fear.

Fear that his purpose is to save people or get revenge.

Now that they understand that they are here to find a half-immortal and half a ghost, they are not afraid.

Kill it!

The news that the half-immortal and half-ghost were locked up by the gambling king family must not be spread.

Therefore, Levi must die.

The gambling king was about to order Levi to be killed, but he was the first to say: "I advise you to hand over the people obediently! Don't force me to do it myself!"

For his wife, Levi will do it no matter what the difficulties are.

"Ok?"

As soon as Levi said this, everyone in the audience was taken aback.

When was the gambling king's family threatened?

"You have a kind of brat! You even threaten us!"

"Then I tell you clearly! He, I won't hand it over! You are dead! For the sake of your patience, kowtow and admit your mistakes, I'll consider letting you go!"

Said the gambler.

It's not that he is kind and kind.

Existences at his level are all profit first, and life is not worth mentioning.

It's just that during this period of time, he didn't say anything about eating and reciting the Buddha.

A friend of his high monk told him-don't see blood these days.

Based on this, the gambling king will let Levi live a life.

Otherwise, Levi would definitely die if he knew such a big secret.

"What are you waiting for? My grandfather is merciful and let you go! Don't kneel down and kowtow to apologize!"

He Qingxue urged.

All the people present shouted for the kindness of the gambling king!

Levi was happy.

Want to kill yourself?

Do they have this ability?

“Well, I’ll give you a chance! Obediently hand over the half fairy and half ghost by this time tomorrow, and I will assume that nothing has happened.”

“If I don’t see anyone, I will be at my own risk. I will overthrow the Longteng Villa, and I will find the person myself!”

Levi said solemnly.

“This...”

Hearing Levi’s words, everyone present was stunned for dozens of seconds.

For decades, no one has provoke the gambling clan, and no one dared to threaten the gambling clan so much!

An unprecedented first experience!

Still a threat of public time execution!

shame!

What a shame!

Everyone in the Gambling King’s family turned red and was extremely angry!

Provocation to Tai Sui’s head!

How can this be tolerated?

“kill him!”

“kill him!”

...

Everyone shouted.

He Zongtang waved his hand and shouted: “Kill! Provoking the He family, kill without mercy!!!”

Just as the Lords were about to start, the gambling king’s voice sounded: “Hold on!”

“Let him go today! I want to see if I don’t pay someone tomorrow, what are the consequences?”

The gambling king was all smiles.

In fact, in his opinion, Levi is just like an ant.

Although he has some skill, he can kill him at will in front of the giant family of gambling kings.

But this matter became interesting.

He Jianfeng has never been threatened like this before!

Absolutely the first time!

He was very interested and wanted to know what Levi said at his own risk.

That’s why he wanted to let Levi go.

Waiting to see what will happen to Levi if he doesn’t hand over him tomorrow?

Will it really come to overthrow Longteng Villa?

I am looking forward to it!

Over the years, the gambling family and even Golden Harbor Island have been too quiet.

Especially after Kyushu Xuanzun was in retreat, nothing happened.

The gambler also wants to find something to do.

He Zongtang and others immediately understood what the gambling king meant.

“Okay, let him go!”

Before Levi left, he left a sentence: “I only give you one day, you can show all your hole cards and wait for me!”

Chapter 1932

“Hahaha...”

Not only did no one pay attention to Levi’s words, but it drew waves of ridicule.

No one takes this as the same thing.

They are just a joke!

“I’m afraid this kid is not a slow-down strategy, right? I think most of them want to escape! Only to give us a day!”

“I think it’s very possible! I can’t wait for him tomorrow, he will leave Golden Harbor Island when he leaves!”

...

Everyone just thought it was Levi who wanted to run.

“Come here, stare at him! Never let him leave Golden Harbor Island! I still want to see the consequences?”

The gambling king ordered, and several super powers immediately followed.

He Zongtang leaned forward and smiled: “Father, tomorrow is a good day!”

“OK?”

“First, the young boss of the Heishui Company will come; second, the day when Xuanzun of Kyushu will leave the customs; third, the boy has agreed on a date.”

He Zongtang explained.

The gambling king laughed a few times: “This is so! What a good day! Tomorrow Xuanzun Kyushu will be invited too! Everyone see a good show!”

“Hahaha...”

Everyone laughed.

He Qingxue’s father, He Zongwen, laughed and said: “If, I said, if this kid has the ability to reach the sky!

But tomorrow the gambling king family, Kyushu Xuanzun, Heishui Company, and the dignitaries of the entire Golden Harbor Island are all there! He too is dead! What’s more, what I’m talking about is if, it’s just a brat! “

The gambling king was also happy: “It was he who told us to take out all the hole cards! I took it out!”

The gambler just took this matter as fun.

But he never thought that Levi was really worthy of all his hole cards.

...

At this moment, Levi returned to the place arranged by the Western Heavenly King.

“Wang, why don’t you just punch in and bring people out?”

Xi Tian Wang asked puzzledly.

“Anyone may fall short!

First, only a few people know about the detention of the half-immortal and half-ghost. It seems that he is regarded as a taboo terror, so the place of detention is very mysterious, and I may not find it! Even if you overturn the gambling king family, it is not necessarily useful!

Second, if I act and push them in a hurry, I might kill half a fairy and half a ghost!

Levi explained.

After listening to the Western Heavenly King, he suddenly realized.

“So you give them one day to relax their vigilance, and even the gambling king might go to see half-immortals and half ghosts, thereby exposing the places where half-immortals and half ghosts are closed?”

Levi nodded: “Yes, that’s right! I have sent someone to lurk in Longteng Villa! As long as the gambling king visits him, I will know the place!”

“As expected to be the king! Admire it!”

The Western Heavenly King exclaimed.

Levi did not expect it.

The gambling king went to see the half fairy and half ghost.

Longteng Mountain Villa actually has a different cave underground, but the entrance is extremely difficult to find.

Within the gambling king family, no more than three people know people.

Even He Zongtang and He Zong didn't even know where the entrance was when he asked them.

Only the gambler and his personal guards and butler know.

The three came to the entrance and entered the underground world.

Little did they know that someone witnessed all this in secret.

In the underground world, there is a secret room.

The door of the secret room is made of special alloy, and cannons and missiles cannot penetrate it.

Unless the biometrics of the gambler is scanned, it will not open at all.

Even the strongest cannot open this door.

So the half fairy and half ghost are locked here, don't try to rescue everyone.

“Boom...”

After the gambler's biometric scan and identification, the door slowly opened.

The scent of moisture and rancid smell rushed to the face.

Can make people vomit!

In the small space in front of him, there was a person tied up with a few chains.

The ground is full of dead rats and the like.

The gambling king sneered: “How’s it going? Is it okay to eat and live?”

The so-called food, the gambling king only throws dead mice and the like every day.

“Kakka...”

The chain trembled, and the man slowly raised his head.

The Protector Novel Levi Garrison Chapter 1933 – 1934

Chapter 1933

A ghost face full of ugly scars appeared in front of him, one eye was blind, and the other was blood red.

The half-immortal and half-ghost were physically disabled, and they were even more embarrassed after being locked up by the gambling king for such a long time.

But the terrifying aura on him made people tremble.

“Are you here? Eleven years!”

The half fairy and half ghost made a hoarse voice.

It has been eleven years since the gambling king locked him up, and he has not been seen.

“Say something interesting! Someone came to me to find you today, and there is a day limit for me to hand over you! Don’t be conceited! Hahaha...”

The Gambler couldn't help laughing.

When the half fairy and half ghost heard it, the corners of his mouth rose, but he didn't say a word.

"I didn't expect that there are still people in this world who remember you!"

"Don't worry! You can only die here, no one will save you!"

...

the next day.

It is a big day for Golden Harbor Island!

There are two big sensations!

First, it is naturally the day when Xuanzun Kyushu leaves the customs!

Second, the young boss of Heishui Company is coming!

As the island with the strongest economy in Brandon Island, Jingang Island is naturally rich in wealthy and celebrities.

After all, Golden Harbor Island has the same name as his.

It was named Golden Harbor Island because it was too rich.

They attach great importance to the issue of the young owner of the Blackwater Company.

The airport was greeted early.

Even many celebrities from Golden Harbor Island went to the gambling family to help out.

Around ten o'clock in the morning.

With a sound of earth-shaking rumbling on Golden Harbor Island.

Kyushu Xuanzun is out!!!

Once the third in the sky list, such as the fourth in today's list, the Lord of spells is out!

Thousands of disciples knelt to greet!

Massive!

After the retreat, Xuanzun Kyushu's complexion was stiff, and there was no sign of happiness.

"Congratulations, Lord's cultivation base is diligent again!"

The disciples congratulated.

Just listen to Kyushu Xuanzun sneered: "So what? I stepped back one place on the top of the list!"

"Lord, now you are out of the customs, you can find that Levi to fight! Take back the number one in the sky list! You are the number one in the sky list!"

"Yes, Lord, you are the number one in the top ranking!"

The disciples flattered the Tao.

Kyushu Xuanzun's expression immediately changed: "Don't talk nonsense! If you let other people hear it, it will be troublesome."

"Don't look at me in retreat all the time! But I know what happened outside! I succeeded in retreating, and my strength has increased. That's right! But I may only be the same as the commoner killing god holding the godsword in the sky!

Compared to Levi, I am not Opponent! I have to admit this!”

“hiss!”

Everyone gasped.

“Levi is so strong?”

“Of course! Otherwise, how could he reach the top of the ranking list? When I meet him, I can only surrender! I don’t need to say the same thing just now!”

Kyushu Xuanzun is extremely majestic.

“Lord, the king of gambling, please come over!”

“Okay, go!”

Xuanzun from Kyushu soon came to Longteng Villa.

After another period of time, a lot of luxury cars gathered, and even helicopters came.

Jimson, the young owner of the Blackwater Company, is here.

They were accompanied by representatives of super consortia from several major countries near Golden Harbor Island.

For example, Xingguo Sanxing Group, East Island’s Matsushita Group...

Followed by a large number of powerful and powerful in Golden Harbor Island.

After Jimson arrived, the atmosphere of Longteng Villa reached its climax.

The gambling king, Kyushu Xuanzun and Jimson sat in the upper seat.

Sitting below are all super powerful.

Almost the gangsters of the entire Golden Harbor Island gathered.

“Thank you for coming to this little banquet! First of all, we congratulate Xuanzun Kyushu for leaving the customs! Secondly, we welcome Jimson to come!”

...

After some courtesy, the gambling king smiled and said: “It’s true! I made an agreement with one person! He should be there soon! Please support me!”

The gambling king is waiting for Levi...

Chapter 1934

“what’s up?”

Xuanzun Kyushu asked.

This is also the question of others.

The king of gamblers briefly talked about what happened.

Everyone laughed.

“The king of gambling, you are really a childlike heart, take this to heart! The hairy boy is lying to you!”

Kyushu Xuanzun smiled and said.

Other people think the same way.

The gambling king smiled and said: “Not necessarily, what if this kid has a background and ability to reach the sky? Hahaha...”

“Okay, then we will wait for him!”

“I just left the customs! I just want to find someone to practice hand skills! I hope this kid is stronger! Haha...”

...

Kyushu Xuanzun smiled.

The others laughed too.

Everyone just takes it for fun.

Jimson sneered: “Once the two of us get married! Blackwater will always stand behind He’s family! Who do I think dares to move them?”

This sentence is extremely domineering!

Even the implied meaning is more domineering!

It means that the Gods Laboratory stands behind the Gambling King family, who dares to mess with it?

“Father, I think that kid is talking nonsense. Will he dare to come? Impossible!”

He Zongtang smiled.

“The person I sent out came back saying that he hadn’t left Golden Harbor Island! He hasn’t left yet! He should come!”

Gambling is king.

“If you can come, that would be great!”

Everyone is looking forward to it.

“Come, Qingxue, meet Jimson!”

The gambling king called He Qingxue to the front.

Jimson has always liked oriental women, and when he saw He Qingxue, his eyes were shining.

He Qingxue glanced at him, her face full of displeasure.

Compared with Levi, Jimson is nothing!

If you have seen the posture of a dragon, how can you see a wild dog?

She has no affection for Jimson at all!

But for the sake of the laboratory of the gods behind the Blackwater Company, she endured it.

She did this marriage contract as a transaction.

“Well, not bad! I agree!”

Jimson nodded.

Although it was a marriage between the two sides, but He Qingxue was so beautiful and outstanding, of course Jimson was willing.

“Well, that’s good! A handsome and beautiful girl, a perfect couple!”

Everyone began to tout.

Even Xuanzun Kyushu also handed his hands: “Congratulations, brother gambling, for getting such an excellent grandson-in-law! In the future, we will join with Heishui Company, and we will have a boundless future! Don’t forget me, brother!”

Although Xuanzun Kyushu is a Lord of magic arts, he is not bad at all in terms of humanity and sophistication.

“Haha, of course!”

“Qingxue, do you have any objections?”

The gambling king looked at He Qingxue again.

“I...”

He Qingxue hesitated, but in fact she was totally unwilling.

But among the wealthy of this level, the true love of marriage is the most extravagant.

For the laboratory of the gods, she agreed.

“Grandpa, I am willing!”

He Qingxue nodded.

Jimson laughed immediately.

“The king of gambling, I will tell my father about them next! Soon we will start the engagement party! Set the wedding date!”

Jimson said.

The sooner you get married, the better.

Jimson didn't want such a beauty to slip away.

The gambler also wants to get married soon.

The two sides hit it off.

Quickly reach a unified opinion!

This matter was resolved, and then the gambling king looked at Kyushu Xuanzun again.

“Now Great Xia is turbulent, the power of the evil god is rampant, and the forces of all parties are mixed! Only I, Golden Pot Island, is a pure land! In the future, Kyushu Xuanzun needs to guard!

The gambling king laughed.

They developed quietly for a long time, and naturally they didn't want outsiders to bother them.

“Don't worry, with me, who would dare to run wild on Golden Harbor Island? What's more, there are you, the gambling king! Even the Blackwater Company is on our side!”

Kyushu Xuanzun said with a smile.

“Haha, then we can rest assured!”

The dignitaries of Golden Harbor Island breathed a sigh of relief.

They are afraid of someone coming to grab it.

“Right, where's that kid? Isn't it here yet?”

Someone suddenly thought of Levi.

“Am I coming here?”

The Protector Novel Levi Garrison Chapter 1935 – 1936

Chapter 1935

“I don’t think he dare...”

He Zongtang just wanted to say that Levi didn’t dare to come.

Unexpectedly, before he spoke, a voice sounded like a thunderbolt, bursting the audience.

Everyone present was attracted and all looked over.

A figure appeared in the distance, it was Levi!

The eyes of the audience focused on Levi.

“Does this kid really dare to come?”

Guo Yifei said cursingly.

Everyone’s first reaction was surprise!

Too young and too ordinary!

“Huh? Who the hell is this kid? How dare you come to gamble on the royal family?”

“I’m so knowledgeable! I know Morendam’s hundreds of arrogances! I even know the younger generation who are more famous! But this kid has a strange face, I don’t even know him!”

“Yeah, this kid doesn’t know him at all! I don’t know where the stunned green came from, so he dared to bet on the king’s family to make trouble!”

...

Everyone was talking about it.

No one knew Levi at all.

They’re all saying that Levi is looking for death!

Jimson was also stunned for a long time, and he was surprised: “He is the one who dares to trouble him?”

Jimson Morendam can only understand seven or eighty-eight. At first, he thought that there was a big power coming to trouble the King Gambling Family.

I didn’t expect to be alone.

“Yes! Just one person!”

Jimson looked icy: “Just one person dare to provoke He’s family? Looking for death!”

“stop!”

The guard at the door stopped Levi.

“Let him in!”

The gambler waved his hand and the guard moved away.

Levi carried his hands on his back and stepped into Longteng Villa.

Looking at the surrounding posture, Levi smiled and said, “I am quite concerned about what I said! Have you found all the people you should be looking for?”

“Haha, that must be! I just want to see how you overturn me?”

The Gambler sneered.

Levi didn't treat Levi as the same thing at all.

It's just a show for everyone.

Guo Yifei sneered and said, “Boy, you must die today. You were spared once on the ship, but it only allowed you to live a few more days.”

No matter how strong Levi is, facing the strongest dignitaries on Golden Harbor Island and the Blackwater Company, there will be no scum left.

He Qingxue looked at Levi and couldn't help but sigh: “He dares to come to the banquet alone! It's also commendable courage!”

“Yes, don't say anything else, it's really awesome to dare to come!”

...

Levi walked to the front step by step, glanced around, and landed on the gambling king.

“He Jianfeng's time is up, do you want to meet people?”

Levi asked.

“The psychological quality of this child is terrifying! Facing all the big bosses on Golden Harbor Island is not afraid of danger! Much better than my apprentices!”

Kyushu Xuanzun couldn't help but sigh.

The gambling king spread his hands: “The result is obvious, I won't hand it over! You have the ability to find it yourself!”

“Hahahaha...”

Everyone in the Gambling King family laughed.

It's naive and ridiculous!

Threatening the gambling king family?

Isn't this sick?

“Well, the time is up, I didn't hand it over! Didn't you say that you are at your own risk? We are eager to know what the consequences are!”

The gambler can't wait to see the consequences of what Levi said.

Others also want to see the consequences.

Levi was in their eyes, just like a clown playing acrobatics.

They all want to see what tricks the clown can play!

The corner of Levi's mouth raised: “Okay, very good, I must be forced to do it!”

“Don't regret it!”

Levi also reminded.

It's just voices.

“Don't regret it! Just come on! Hurry up!”

“Let us see what consequences we cannot bear?”

“Hurry up, what are you rubbing against? Hurry up, hahaha...”

...

Guo Yifei and others were still actively urging, for fear that Levi would not do it.

Levi's complexion changed abruptly, and his body burst out with an aura of destruction!

Chapter 1936

“boom!!!”

Levi kicked out.

A terrible air current swept across.

“Crack!”

“Crack!”

...

Wherever he went, all kinds of equipment in various buildings burst open.

The whole banquet scene was in a mess!

The air flow forcibly created a trace of black scorched earth tens of meters long...

“Crack!”

“Boom!”

A building not far away collapsed suddenly.

Billowing smoke filled the audience.

Everyone was stunned.

No one thought that Levi would suddenly get into trouble.

The power of one foot is as horrible as it is.

The people in front were urging, in fact they wanted to see Levi's jokes.

I didn't expect him to come for real!

"This..."

"So he is still a Lord!"

Levi's hand shocked the audience.

Including Kyushu Xuanzun and his ilk.

Was also surprised.

too strong!

There is definitely a place among the younger generation!

No wonder he was so daring to bet against the king's family, it turns out that he really has two brushes!

"Take it down"

The gambling king family can no longer stand it.

He Zongtang waved his hand, and a large number of Lords killed Levi.

Repeatedly provoking the gambling king family will end in death!

"It's just like watching a good show!"

The gambling king smiled and said.

Kyushu Xuanzun and they all laughed too.

Levi didn't care about it at all.

“boom!”

“boom!”

“boom!”

...

But Levi is like playing football, one kick one by one.

One after another, the figures flew into the audience.

It looked like a human-shaped cannonball, blasting a mess everywhere in the villa.

Gradually, the smile on the gambling king's face disappeared, and the expressions of Kyushu Xuanzun and others solidified.

“boom!”

“boom!”

...

Levi showed great power, and the Lords of the gambling king family were like chickens.

In front of Levi, there was no fighting power at all.

Soon, hundreds of Lords scattered all over the villa, falling to the ground groaning and rolling, and the scene was chaotic.

“Unbearable!”

Levi sneered.

At this moment, everyone present could not laugh out loud.

Levi is much stronger than they thought!

Especially He Qingxue and Guo Yifei were the most shocked.

They first met Levi!

Now Guo Yifei understands Levi's confidence in provoking them.

He also understood why Levi disembarked quietly.

Is this ordinary person so strong?

He didn't want to take another look at the beginning, but now He Qingxue has to pay attention to it.

"Trash! A bunch of trash!"

"Come on, take him down for me!"

He Zongtang He Zongwen became angry and sent more and stronger Lords to kill Levi.

The corner of Levi's mouth evoked an arc of disdain, and he fought with hundreds of Lords.

"boom!"

"Crack!"

"Uh!"

...

Levi fisted to the flesh, blood spattered, and screamed hysterically.

Powerful as a god!

Levi, with an invincible posture, crushes the gambling king family!

“puff!”

“puff!”

...

Where Levi passed, countless people fell, blood stained the earth, and the entire manor was in a mess.

The faces of the gambling king family and the guests who came were ugly to the extreme.

It's the same as eating flies.

shame!

Great shame!

I was alone in the gambling king family, but the gambling king family couldn't stop it!

Seven or eight hundred Lords were sent out for a while, and they couldn't stop it at all.

The gambling king family is not afraid of what Levi can do?

Not to mention that their real hole cards have not yet been played.

Kyushu Xuanzun and the young boss of Heishui Company are still here...

Levi allows him to pass the sky, can he beat the fourth-ranked Kyushu Xuanzun?

impossible things!

It's just that this scene is a bit embarrassing now, and it makes the gambling king family lose face!

It's just a matter of face to get mixed up in the upper class!

Now, Levi has lost the face of the gambling king's family!

The gambling king couldn't get off the stage in front of Kyushu Xuanzun.

“Does the gambling man need me to take action?”

Kyushu Xuanzun joked.

“To kill a rat, why do you need to take action?”
