

Chapter 2844

Darryl was still in shock, and his heart pounded. He knew that Natalie was a strong and honest person. She was a friend of his; they were not life partners. He had no idea Natalie would break the agreement they made three years ago when she learned that he was in peril and had led her people into the Nine Mainland.

However, Natalie's action would enrage the entire Nine Mainland.

"Master!"

Melody was concerned when she noticed Darryl's face was dark and sorrowful, so she called out to him.

Sigh!

Darryl took a long breath and solemnly stated as he regained his composure. "Can you bring some trustworthy people with you to the New World? Find my son Ambrose; he will assist you in rescuing the Carters."

Then, he continued to say, "I'll go to the Raksasa Tribe!"

Melody nodded when she heard that. She gathered her people immediately and left.

Then, Darryl left his room immediately and left Black Water Town with Yennie.

"Yennie, the Oracle!"

When they were on Black Water Town's main road, Darryl smiled and said, "I was planning to help you to look for the other Oracles, but I have more important things to attend to now. I'm sorry!"

"Who asked for your help?!"

Yennie replied impatiently, "Let's just go our own ways when we reach the junction."

Darryl had taken advantage of her as the Nine Saint Oracle a few times. How could she possibly stay with him?

He chuckled inwardly.

His face brightened as he heard that. 'This Yennie is very intriguing. I merely requested her to call me good brother, and she is still angry about that.'

Darryl was ready to open his mouth to speak.

What?

However, at that moment, Darryl furrowed his brows. He could feel dangerous auras not far ahead of them.

At the same time, Yennie's beautiful brows furrowed tightly too. Her face looked troubled. "Such strong Evil Spirit Energy; could it be a King of the Dead's follower?"

Yennie walked forward quickly.

Darryl did not hesitate; he followed behind her.

That...

Once they entered the woods, Darryl was stunned when he saw what was in front of him.

More than ten men in black robes had surrounded a person. That person was also in a black robe, but his robe had a special logo.

Due to the dark lighting, Darryl could not see the face of that person. However, for unknown reasons, he felt a sense of familiarity when he saw them.

That was right! Those people were the King of the Dead's underworld army and Chester.

Chester had faked the King of the Dead's order, and so the King was furious. He ordered the underworld army to capture Chester immediately. Finally, they found Chester around Black Water Town.

"The underworld army?"

Yennie's eyes blinked, and she said, "That's unusual. The one surrounded looks like King of the Dead's envoy. Why are they after him?"

Yennie was the Nine Saint Oracle; she was very familiar with the Ghost World. She knew quickly from Chester's clothing that he was the King of the Dead's envoy.

The King of the Dead's envoy?

Darryl was stunned when he heard that. He smiled and said, "Since they are fighting against their own, let's not act recklessly. Let's sit down and observe."

He still did not notice that the person surrounded was his brother.

Yennie snorted when she saw Darryl's relaxed posture. She ignored him but at the same time agreed with his suggestion. She stood there quietly to observe.

Meanwhile, at Chester's end...

Whoosh!

The ten underworld soldiers had surrounded him. The leader shouted, "Chester, His Majesty had treated you so well. How can you betray him and send a fake order to release the people from the major sects? Are you trying to escape?"

"Your life belongs to His Majesty. Do you think you can run? Be smart and surrender; come back with us for your punishment!"

When he heard that, Chester laughed coldly as he said without fear, "Treated me well? The King of the Dead is only using me. You want me to go back with you? Dream on!"

"You're asking for death!"

The ten underworld warriors were furious;
they charged toward Chester immediately.

Chapter 2845

Bang!

The ten underworld soldiers exploded with a powerful killing aura, causing an eerie wind to sweep about them. It almost froze the air.

Brother Chester?

Darryl, who had been attempting to keep out of the situation, was taken aback when he witnessed that. His entire body shook.

'That person surrounded by the soldiers is Chester?'

Under the influence of his emotions, Darryl thought he saw that incorrectly. He rubbed his eyes immediately.

'I'm right! It's Brother Chester. He didn't die!

' Darryl chuckled.

Darryl was extremely excited at that moment; he was shocked too.

However, Darryl noticed that Chester was pale, and his entire body was surrounded by a dark and evil aura, just like the transformed Black Sand Python.

'What happened? How did Brother Chester become like that?'

'Besides, Yennie said he is the King of the Dead's envoy. Is he serving the underworld king now?'

"Brother Chester, let me help you!"

Soon, Darryl snapped back to his senses. He shouted and charged forward. 'No matter what, Brother Chester is in danger. I can't just sit here and do nothing.'

"Hey!"

Yennie wanted to stop him when she saw that, but Darryl had already charged forward. She was so worried that she stomped her feet.

Even though Darryl was powerful, those people were the King of the Dead's followers. In other words, no man could defeat them. How would he be able to beat them?

Bang!

Darryl charged into the battleground in the blink of an eye. When he used his internal energy, the air around him twisted.

However, Darryl was surprised; his attack did not harm the underworld soldiers.

Then, Darryl understood. The underworld warriors did not belong to the Nine Mainland. He had used the techniques from the Nine Mainland, so it had no impact on them.

"Darryl?"

Chester was ecstatic and overjoyed when he realized the person who raced to his aid was Darryl. He laughed. "My brother! I was afraid something had happened to you."

Darryl laughed as he heard Chester's voice. "Brother Chester, I thought you were dead!" As he smiled, his eyes shone with tears.

Although Chester and Darryl were only sworn brothers, they were closer than biological brothers. Darryl cried happily when he realized Chester was still alive.

However, Darryl did not know that Chester was, in fact, not alive, even though he looked fine.

Chester smiled bitterly as he shouted, "Darryl, although you are powerful, you will not be able to harm them. Retreat immediately."

Darryl shook his head determinedly and said, "No!"

'No matter who they are, I must help Brother Chester.'

Bang!

At that moment, the ten underworld soldiers were furious with Darryl's disturbance.

"Where did that guy come from?"

"He's asking for death!"

Ten underworld soldiers growled as they gathered. Then, a gust of strong evil wind exploded and charged toward Darryl.

Bang!

Darryl did not manage to avoid that attack; he felt icy cold energy hit his bones. Then, his body flew backward from the impact and landed heavily on the ground.

Argh!

Darryl struggled to stand up; he was incredibly stunned.

'Sh*t! How should I handle that group of underworld soldiers?'

Darryl looked at Yennie and said, "Yennie the Oracle, please help us. Please help my big brother?!"

When he said that, Darryl's eyes were filled with anticipation.

Yennie was the Nine Saint Oracle from the Godly region; she would definitely have a way to deal with the underworld army. She had even saved Darryl from Jack's clutches.

However, Yennie looked calm. "Why should I help you? Also, your big brother is the King of the Dead's envoy. It's one more reason why I shouldn't help you."

Chapter 2846

Yennie smiled when she said that.

'That disgusting Darryl, he preyed on me previously. He even caused his apprentice to mistake me for his wife. Most significantly, I am enraged because he continued to tease me. Now he wants my help? Not so easy.'

Sh*t!

Darryl was frustrated when he noticed Yennie's icy grin at the corner of her mouth.

Chester could not stop himself when he saw that. He yelled at Darryl as he fought to protect himself against the underworld army's attack. "Darryl, why are you pleading with her? They are all the Ghost World's underworld army, and you will not be able to defeat them."

"Leave immediately; just ignore me."

Chester was worried. 'I am already in such a bad situation. I don't have a choice, but I must not drag Darryl into this.'

At the moment, Chester still did not know the woman had a unique identity. She was the Nine Saint Oracles from the Godly region.

Darryl shook his head; he was determined.

Yennie teased him; she smiled at Darryl. "Did you hear that? Your big brother does not need my help."

"This is a life and death situation; I am begging you!" Darryl was distraught.

Yennie could not reject him further when she saw how sincere Darryl had looked. She said, "Fine, I shall agree to save him, but you must promise me three things."

Even though Darryl was a little cheeky, he was well-known in the Nine Mainland. She would require his help to look for the other Oracles.

"Fine!" Darryl nodded without any hesitation.

As long as he could save Chester, he would agree to 300 conditions, let alone a mere three. Even though he was not familiar with Yennie, he knew that she was the Nine Saint Oracle, so she would not ask him to do something terrible.

Yennie nodded when Darryl agreed instantly. "Since you are so sincere, I can tell you the way to defeat the underworld army!"

What?

Darryl was stunned when he heard that; he felt as if he was tricked.

'Tell me the way? Does that mean Yennie will not take action herself?'

"If I guess correctly..." Yennie said slowly, not noticing Darryl's facial expression. "Not only do you have the enchanted beast dragon, but you also have quite a number of inner cores with you."

"A dragon is the strongest enchanted beast. It has abilities from the sky and earth, and it is also filled with heaven's spiritual aura. Form the Universe Demon Destruction Formation with the inner cores, and you will be able to control the Evil Spirit Energy of the underworld army."

Wow!

Darryl was delighted when he heard that.

However, the next second, Darryl felt challenged. He said, "I understand what you said, but I have never heard of that Universe Demon Destruction Formation that you mentioned." The Bai Qi Formation scripture recorded many high-level formations. However, it never mentioned the Universe Demon Destruction Formation. Darryl had never heard about it at all.

The Universe Demon Destruction Formation was a formation from the Godly region; it did not belong to the Nine Mainland. It was expected that Darryl did not know about it.

"That's fine." Yennie smiled; she looked confident. "Just follow my instructions later. First, take out the inner cores from your body and put them around the woods following the positions of the Five Elements Bagua."

Darryl did not hesitate at all; he took out more than ten inner cores from his body when he heard that. Then, he put them around the woods.

Darryl had stayed at the Wild Deserted Secret Region at the Valley of Death for three years. During that time, Darryl had killed many enchanted beasts. That was why he had so many inner cores with him. Although he had sold some of them, he still had quite a number of them with him.

After he arranged the inner cores, Darryl released the young dragon under Yennie's instruction.

"Little Dragon."

At that moment, Darryl could not help but mumble to himself, "It depends on you to rescue Brother Chester now!"

Roar!

When he said the last sentence, an earth-shaking roar was heard. Then, the young dragon dashed forward. Although it had not reached its maturity, the enchanted beast's strong aura still covered the entire woods.

That...

At that moment, all the underworld soldiers, who focused on attacking Chester, felt incredibly terrified when they saw the dragon. All of them were stunned.

Chester was in shock too. He was stunned when he looked at the young dragon that floated in mid-air.

Chapter 2847

'What is going on?'

'When did Darryl get a dragon?'

Roar!

Darryl ordered the young dragon to focus on the underground soldiers. It roared again, and the faces of the underground army changed abruptly!

When they realized it was only a young dragon, most of them regained their confidence.

"Sh*t! It is only an immature dragon!"

"That's right, don't panic! A young dragon can't harm us."

The underground army broke into two groups as the roar became louder; one group continued to fight Chester while the other surged toward the young dragon.

What?

However, the underground army sensed that something was wrong. They were not sure as several inner cores had been placed around the woods. The arrangement appeared haphazard, but it concealed a secret formation.

They also noticed that the young dragon was positioned in the center of those cores.

The underground army had no idea that the formation in front of them was the Universe Demon Destruction Formation. The formation was designed to control the Evil Spirit Energy in their bodies.

Whoosh!

The Evil Spirit Energy that surrounded the woods vanished instantly as the formation was completely formed, following the explosion of the enchanted beast's aura.

Chester no longer felt the pressure; he felt relieved.

"Charge! Kill the young dragon!"

The underworld army regained its composure at that point, and they were enraged. They roared, unleashed their Evil Spirit Energy, and were poised to charge toward the young dragon.

Whoosh, whoosh!

The underworld army blasted the Evil Spirit Energy, generating energy that resembled dark clouds in the sky and covered the young dragon.

Darryl was worried when he saw that. He wiped his cold sweat as he felt anxious for the little dragon.

However, Yennie was extremely calm, and she stood beside him.

Even though there were quite a few of those underworld soldiers, they were only the King of the Dead's lackeys. They would not be able to harm the dragon. No matter what, the dragon was the strongest enchanted beast.

"Roar!

The young dragon did not panic at all when it saw the underworld soldiers charged toward it. After it roared, it opened its huge mouth.

The next second, a strong aura locked those soldiers before the young dragon swallowed them.

Sh*t!

Darryl was in shock when he saw that; he was incredibly emotional.

He had never imagined that the dragon could swallow the underworld soldiers.

When the young dragon swallowed the underground soldiers, it also absorbed their Evil Spirit Energy and turned it into its power.

"Swallowed?"

Yennie's body trembled, too; her face was filled with surprise.

"What's wrong?" Darryl questioned subconsciously.

Yennie looked at the young dragon closely. She could not hide her shock as her voice trembled when he said, "A dragon is the strongest enchanted beast. Their energy and techniques include water, fire, and lightning. Some of the dragons have other special abilities too. However, that situation would only appear once every thousand or ten thousand years."

Yennie took a deep breath and continued to speak, "I never imagined that your dragon could swallow the enemies even when it has not reached a mature age. That is quite unbelievable."

Yennie was emotional when she said the last sentence.

That was right. The dragon species' inherited talents include water, fire, and lightning. So, the Nine Mainland's myths include fire dragon, water dragon, and lightning dragon. There were also other Divine Dragons that had different abilities due to their inherited talents. However, just like what Yennie had mentioned, that situation was very rare.

Chapter 2848

At that moment, Yennie did not know the young dragon had hidden in the Deserted Sea Region for more than three thousand years under the protection of the Sea Mackie Clan. Later, due to some special circumstances, it had absorbed Jewel's spirit. Perhaps the young dragon was unique because it had Jewel's spirit.

Sigh!

Darryl's heart swelled with emotion when he heard that. He chuckled inwardly. "It looks like I have a special enchanted beast."

Darryl did not know that Jewel was part of the young dragon's spirit. However, when he knew it had a unique ability, Darryl felt incredibly delighted.

That...

The rest of the underground army was scared when they watched their members devoured alive by the young dragon. They almost lost their souls.

"Run!"

"Run quickly!"

No one knew who shouted, but the underground soldiers were terrified. They dispersed and disappeared without a trace in the blink of an eye.

Who would dare to stay if being consumed by the young dragon meant instant death?

Sigh!

Chester sighed in relief as he sat down weakly. He rested against a tree as he reveled in his luck. 'Thank goodness Darryl has the dragon, or I would not be able to escape today.'

Then, Chester smiled and said to Darryl, "Wow, since when did you have an enchanted beast dragon?"

Chester glanced at Yennie as he asked, "Also, I have never met your woman here. Darryl, don't you want to introduce her to me?"

Chester had been unimpressed when Darryl begged Yennie. However, he remembered Darryl and his women always like to tease each other. Most importantly, the lady was willing to help Darryl. That demonstrated that their relationship was out of the ordinary. As a result, he considered Yennie to be Darryl's woman.

'His woman?

When she heard that, Yennie's calm face turned furious. Her eyes shone with a killing aura as she glared at Chester.

'That envoy! How dare he speak nonsense in front of me?!'

That...

Darryl felt awkward when he heard that. He explained to Chester immediately. "Brother Chester, please don't speak nonsense. This is the Nine Saint Oracle; how can I be her man?"

The Nine Saint Oracle?

Chester was stunned. 'What is that?'

Darryl could feel Chester's aura. He was shocked, so he asked, "Brother Chester, what happened to you?"

Darryl noticed that Chester's face was pale, and his entire body was icy. There was no sense of life in him at all. He was just like a dead person.

Chester's face appeared sorrowful.

"As the King of the Dead's envoy, he is no longer a living person," Yennie said.

What?

Darryl's heart trembled; he felt his mind was in a buzz.

'Brother Chester is not a living person?'

Sigh!

At that moment, Chester sighed and explained everything in detail.

Finally, Chester smiled bitterly and said, "I thought that once I become the King of the Dead's envoy, it would be more convenient for me to do anything for the Nine Mainland. I did not expect the King to be so aggressive; he is scarier than Zhang Jue."

Chester looked at Darryl and said, "I faked a n order from the King of the Dead, requesting Jack to release captives from the Nine Mainland's various sects. He will never forgive me now. Your dragon may be able to defeat the underworld army, but it will not be able to conquer the King of the Dead. You should leave me alone."

Darryl felt really emotional at that moment; he shouted, "Brother Chester, what are you talking about? The three of us are brothers, and we will live and die together. I will never leave you behind."

"Darryl!" Chester was touched. Still, he said, "You don't understand! The King of the Dead and I have a Soul Contract. He could locate me at any time. How would you help me?"

That...

Darryl remained silent; he felt frustrated.

Chapter 2849

'Sh*t! A Soul Contract? How do I get him out of it? I know about the Geomancy of Yin and Yang, but I know nothing about that.

At that same time, Yennie opened her mouth and said softly, "There is a way out of King of the Dead's Soul Contract. Among our Nine Saint Oracles, Xenia is the best at it, but we must find her first."

'That's great!'

Darryl was delighted; he immediately said, "If that's the case, please let Brother Chester search for the other Nine Saint Oracles with you. Once you locate Oracle Xenia, please ask for her help to save Brother Chester."

"Very well!"

Yennie hesitated for a while, but she nodded in agreement. "I can bring him with me, but you must not forget about your three promises. You must do it if I were to request it!"

"Most definitely!" Darryl smiled and said, "I have promised you. Why would your brother forget about that?"

"You—"

Yennie stomped her feet in anger; she was embarrassed and angry. 'Darryl is so cheeky; he still wants to take advantage of me!'

Sigh!

Chester shook his head and smiled bitterly when he saw that. 'Darryl had stayed at the Wild Deserted Secret Region for three years, yet he did not change at all. He would flirt with any beautiful woman.'

Then, Darryl said, "Brother Chester, I wish I could go with you, but Natalie had led the Raksasa Tribe's grand army to the Nine Mainland. I must rush to meet her. Otherwise, there would be a big problem."

"Very well. Go quickly then. Don't worry about me for the time being." Chester looked serious as he nodded.

Chester was an understanding person. Even though he was reluctant, he understood that the matters in the Nine Mainland were more critical.

Soon, Darryl left Chester and Yennie as he headed quickly toward the directions of the North Moana continent.

Meanwhile, at the borders of the North Moana continent.

The battle raged on amid the desolate wasteland. The Raksasa Tribe warriors continued to fall, one by one, into pools of blood as the allied army attacked them. Their blood stained the earth crimson.

Both parties had been in an intense battle for two days and two nights!

Just two days ago, the tens of thousands of Raksasa Tribe warriors that Natalie led had reduced significantly to less than 10,000 men.

Even though the Raksasa Tribe was brilliant at battles, and their average skills were far stronger than the Nine Mainland soldiers, they could hardly hold on when faced with such a significant difference in manpower in the battle.

As for the joint army, they had started with almost 600,000 men, and they had lost more than 100,000 soldiers. That meant they had about 400,000 people left.

It was nearly impossible for an army of fewer than 10,000 people to defend against an army of 400,000 men.

However, under Natalie's leadership, the Raksasa Tribe's grand army continued with their defense. Those warriors knew that the Raksasa Tribe would be destroyed if they were to lose that battle.

Natalie was fighting alone in the air against ten generals led by Jaxon. All generals were level five Martial Emperors, and the power that erupted from their joined forces was genuinely terrifying.

Meanwhile, a large crowd also surrounded Clarice.

Bang!

Finally, Jax spotted an opening. He dashed forward and landed a solid punch on Natalie's back. Natalie moaned as her face paled. Then, she fell from the sky as she clutched her chest and vomited a mouthful of fresh blood!

Jax laughed loudly and humiliated Natalie. "That is Queen Raksasa's power? That's it? Given the situation now, you should stop struggling and surrender immediately."

Surrender?

Natalie bit her lips; her gorgeous face did not look fearful. "The Raksasa Tribe would rather die than surrender!"

"We'd rather die than surrender!"

The other Raksasa Tribe warriors around her spoke unanimously. Even though most of them were severely injured, their voices still shook the sky.

Jaxon laughed.

"What a bunch of fools! I gave you a chance, but you did not want it!" Jaxon's face darkened as he activated his internal energy and waved his long blade as he dashed toward Natalie.

"Don't you dare harm Her Majesty!" Just at that moment, a beautiful figure, as light as a swan, stood in front of Natalie. It was Clarice.

Chapter 2850

"Stay away, Clarice! Just leave me!" Natalie trembled as she shouted.

'This is all my fault—the Raksasa Tribe is surrounded and attacked by the joint army. I will pay the price. It is different with Clarice. She has the inheritance from Kuafu; she is the future of the Raksasa Tribe. I can't let anything happen to her!'

However, Clarice was determined; she did not intend to avoid the attack.

'My brothers had followed Jack and betrayed the Raksasa Tribe. I am their sister, and I can't even stop them.'" Clarice had always felt guilty about that. She wanted to redeem her brothers' sin by defending the Queen from the attack.

"Another one to ask for death; I shall grant i t to you!"

Jaxon's eyes looked crazy when he saw that. He increased his speed the same time he aimed for Clarice's chest with his long blade.

At that moment, Jaxon felt very emotional. He would be the Nine Mainland's hero if he could kill Queen Raksasa; he would be famous worldwide.

Sigh!

When she saw the long blade inched closer toward her, Clarice did not dodge it at all. A smile appeared on her face.

The truth was that, given Clarice's power, Jaxon would have a terrible time killing her. However, after a long and arduous battle, Clarice's internal energy was nearly depleted, and she had no power to defend at all. She would not be able to evade the sword even if she tried.

Natalie wanted to push Clarice away at that point, but it was too late. Her eyes were red from worry, tears began to pour, and she felt hopeless.

"Stop! Sh*t, stop!"

A thunderous scream could be heard from afar at that very moment, shocking both the sky and the earth!

The roar astonished both groups, who were still fighting. They all turned to gaze in the direction of the voice!

Wow!

Everyone was stunned by what they saw, whether the Raksasa Tribe warriors or the allied army!

They noticed a dragon flying toward them in the distance!

Even though it was only three to four meters long, the dragon's entire body exuded an enchanted beast's aura. Its eyes were as bright as lightning, and the scales on its body shone brightly.

A man stood on the back of the dragon; he had a stern look on his face!

It was Darryl!

That was right. The young dragon had grown significantly after it absorbed the Evil Spirit Energy of two underworld soldiers, and its power had increased as well.

That...

Everyone on the battlefield fell silent as they stared at Darryl in shock.

Roar!

Darryl had appeared in front of them atop the dragon. The young dragon opened its mouth and roared again, shocking the skies!

That roar startled both parties' war horses on the vacant terrain. The horses were in shock; they crept on the ground and dared not move a muscle.

That was the strongest enchanted beast; it intimidated the entire world!

The Divine Dragon had appeared; all the enchanted beast in the world must surrender to it!

At that moment, the entire place was in complete silence; even the fall of a needle could be heard clearly.

"A dragon?"

"That is a Divine Dragon! Isn't Darryl's enchanted beast a Rocky? When did it change to be a dragon?"

"It is the strongest enchanted beast; its aura is too powerful."

Finally, after a long silence, no one knew who shouted first. At that moment, everyone was in an uproar.

Dragons had been extinct on the Nine Mainland for several thousand years. The Divine Dragon was only known to the majority of the cultivators through myths. Nobody could have predicted that they would be able to see it with their own eyes in that lifetime.

However, they did not expect Darryl to be the one with a dragon!

Wow!

Darryl took a deep breath and looked around him. "Everyone, please stop. The Raksasa Tribe army's presence in the Nine Mainland was only a misunderstanding. Please stop, everyone, before the situation gets worse."

Darryl's eyes landed on Natalie. He noticed that her face was pale, and she looked incredibly weak. He felt emotional and relieved.
