

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 121-126

Chapter 121

Ana Shen was speaking very seriously, and she had a sincere face.

After finishing speaking, he found that Walter was staring at her. The burning eyes made Ana Shen come back to her senses. After realizing what she had just said to Walter, Ana Shen's face became hot and he spoke in a flustered manner: "Okay, you can do your own activities now, I have something to do today, I have to go first."

After that, Ana Shen also fled the room.

After going downstairs, I just ran into the old man.

As soon as the old man saw her, he frowned and asked, "Erika Shen, did you tell me about the thing that I asked you to mention to Han's girl?"

bad!

Ana Shen's expression changed. She almost forgot about this, and could only say: "Grandpa, I have rarely seen Karla recently. I will ask for you when I see her another day."

The old man nodded with a smile, and a glint flashed in his eyes: "The opportunity to cooperate with the way can't be messed up."

Hearing this, Ana Shen tightened her head a bit, and nodded: "This is natural."

After leaving Yejia, Ana Shen thought that she had to hurry up today to help contact the way group.

Yeshi Group

After Ana Shen went to work, she called people from the Fang Group.

Upon hearing this, the other party readily agreed, saying that he would meet first to discuss the details.

Ana Shen waited for Walter to mention it to him after he went to work. Walter frowned, "Are you really going to take care of this matter?"

Hearing, Ana Shen was taken aback for a moment, then blinked her eyes and said: "I was your assistant, so it's normal to help talk about this."

"Understood?"

Ana Shen paused and nodded: "Yes."

"Heh." Walter looked at her straightly: "After understanding, do you know what kind of people are always in the Fang Group?"

"...Ok."

The office was quiet, only the sound of the shutters being blown by the wind and the sudden drop in temperature all over the body.

"It seems that what happened last time didn't make you mind."

Before she could answer, Walter said coldly: "If you want to go, go by yourself."

A look of surprise flashed in Ana Shen's eyes: "But, are you not going? The other party asked to talk to you."

"Heh, when did I say that I want to cooperate with Manner?"

Ana Shen: "..."

So, she misunderstood, right? She opened her lips and said weakly, "The old man..."

"Since you listened to the old man's order, then you can go and talk about it, or... go and invite the old man to go in person." Walter's eyes and smile were very mocking, and Ana Shen's face brushed as if she was watching a clown. It was white, she bit her lower lip: "So you never thought about working with Fang at first?"

"Have I said it?" Walter's eyes were cold, as if looking at a dead person: "I mentioned Fang's half a word?"

Ana Shen finally couldn't help but shudder, her lips trembled and said, "No, no."

Indeed, she was talking to the old man the other day, and he didn't speak at the side, and now she thinks it's ridiculous. At that time, he was afraid that she felt her own opinion in his heart, annoying, right?

Thinking of this, Ana Shen lowered her eyes, her small palm-sized hand gradually lost its color, and her voice gradually became low: "I see."

"Even if you're done talking, I won't sign, understand?" He said again.

Ana Shen nodded, "Since you don't want to talk, then I won't talk about it again, but the old man..."

“Nothing to do with you.”

A sentence that has nothing to do with you, completely blocked the remaining words of Ana Shen on his lips.

“I know.”

She dropped a word, then turned and went out.

Ana Shen went back to her desk and looked at the densely memorized pages of information. These were collected in the past two days for the purpose of cooperating with the Fang family, but Walter did not expect that at all. Thought about it.

She reached out her hand to rest her chin and stared at the computer screen.

It seems that Walter has been playing against the old man Ye from the beginning, and the relationship between his grandson and grandpa is particularly poor. It seemed that Walter didn't like it or didn't want to cooperate, but Old Man Ye wanted to cooperate very much.

Last time I heard Curtis Ye say that Walter did not live with them when he was young.

Suddenly, Ana Shen became curious about Walter's life. When she recovered, she had opened the search engine and entered Beich Yejia.

For the next time, Ana Shen's eyes have been scanning Yejia's materials.

Yejia has a lot of information, but they are all common news.

For example, after Walter took over the Ye Clan, the Ye Clan began to flourish. For example, the Walter was a handicapped person. There were really many news about the Walter, but Ana Shen could see it all.

Finally, when Ana Shen looked tired, a special article came into her eyes.

Walter is actually an illegitimate son of those things about the rich man's original match and the mistress?

Of course, the title and content are completely different.

At the beginning, she asked the question, making everyone think that Walter was the illegitimate child of the Ye family, and then suddenly turned around. Suddenly, it was pointed out that Walter's mother was the original partner, and Curtis Ye's mother was the hateful mistress.

The original match was squeezed out of the Ye Family by Xiao San, and many years later, she returned to the Ye Family and moved into the main seat of the Ye Family in order to fight back.

Then began the conspiracy theories about Walter's disability.

He said he was not born with a disability, so why did he become a waste person who can only sit in a wheelchair? Although the person who posted the article did not say it clearly, the following words have the meaning of guidance.

Seeing this, Ana Shen felt a little cold all over her body.

Although the person who published the article didn't say it clearly, she could also feel the grievances between the rich and powerful. Thinking of the words that Old Man Ye had called him to the study before, it could be seen that Walter's current situation at Yejia was an enemy.

Think again about Curtis Ye's gentle and jade look.

Curtis, maybe... not that kind of person, right?

As she was thinking, a cold question suddenly came from the left side, making Ana Shen tremble in fright.

"Do you just watch this during working hours?"

Ana Shen suddenly turned her head and saw Walter beside her.

Although he is sitting in a wheelchair, he is much taller than her. He is looking at Ana Shen condescendingly now. His eyes are like hooks, his thin lips are tightened, and a cold breath exudes from all over his body.

She was caught!

Ana Shen blinked her eyes and looked at Walter with an innocent expression.

How should she explain to him?

"Um... I just look around."

It was indeed her fault, she shouldn't have watched this kind of stuff when she was at work.

When the words were over, Ana Shen held the mouse again in her hand, and when she was about to close the page, a pair of big hands covered her little hands faster than she could move, and the gentle big palms covered her little hands.

Ana Shen was caught off guard.

She raised her eyes, slammed into Walter's slightly deep eyes, and then heard his low voice and asked:

"You care about me so much?"

Chapter 122

The dull voice flowed like neon light, and like sweet wine sliding down the throat into the stomach, after a while, it slowly burned.

Ana Shen withdrew her hand like an electric shock.

The corners of Walter's lips twitched slightly, and under the warm light, this smile seemed to have passed a layer of brilliance.

Boom!

Ana Shen heard her heartbeat increase several times.

"I didn't care about you!"

After she withdrew her hand, she said in a panic.

But this look is obviously no different from covering one's ears and stealing a bell.

Walter stared at her interestingly: "Really? Don't care about me. What are you staring at my profile for? Or, do you want to inquire about Ye's affairs?"

He stretched his hand back slowly, and Ana Shen didn't dare to press the mouse again for a while, and could only change the subject: "Aren't you in the office? Why are you suddenly here? Did you change your mind to cooperate with the method?"

Closer to home, Walter's eyes changed back to cold.

"If you want to cooperate with Ye Clan, Fang Clan has no qualifications yet."

"But as far as I know, are you really not planning to cooperate with the Fang family, which can replace the Lu Group?" Ana Shen frowned, "Because you am going to be against the old man, do you have to do this?"

"Shit." Walter said with a sneer, "Who told you that I was trying to disagree with the old man? Second married woman, you are more and more pretentious now."

Ana Shen: "..."

Snapped!

Walter suddenly threw a bag of materials to her: "Watch it well."

Ana Shen hadn't reacted yet, so she could only reach out quickly to catch it. She turned it over and found it strange that when she first wanted to ask him, Walter had already rolled his wheelchair and left.

wack!

Ana Shen spit out in her heart, then spread out the information.

What he gave her was information from the Han Group.

How could Ana Shen be unfamiliar with the Han Group?

After Karla Han was claimed by the Han family, she heard a few words about the Han family, but then Karla Han didn't reveal too much to her. She looked mysterious, and Ana Shen didn't have much interest in knowing, so she didn't go. Hold accountable.

Now Walter suddenly took Han's information to her, is it planning to...cooperate with Han's?

Thinking of this, Ana Shen's face became serious.

Even though she had slept with Walter, she still could not forget the words Walter said to herself the other night.

He won't refuse a woman who comes to the door.

Karla often came to him before, and Walter seemed quite satisfied with her.

Suddenly thinking of something, Ana Shen got up quickly, took the documents and entered the office without even knocking on the door.

Walter frowned unhappily: "I forgot what I told you before?"

Ana Shen knew what he was referring to, but she was angry in her heart. She stepped forward and put the information in front of him, calling her name: "Walter, what do you mean by giving me the information from Han?"

Hearing, Walter's eyes were cold and authentic: "Cooperation."

"Didn't you always want to contribute? Now that I give you Han's information, you don't want to do it?"

"With so many groups, you don't cooperate with Lu's, and you refuse to do so. Why do you only want to cooperate with Han's?"

Walter frowned, staring at her sharply.

Ana Shen took a deep breath and said directly what was in her heart: “Do you really want to cooperate with Han, or have no purpose?”

She still didn’t speak, but the coldness in her eyes grew stronger and stronger.

Ana Shen bit her scalp: “You told me before to Karla...”

“Heh.” Walter sneered, his eyes were already stained with hostility: “In your eyes, I’m cooperating with Han for this?”

“Otherwise, why did you choose Han?”

The air calmed down, and after a while, the corner of Walter’s lips suddenly evoked a teasing smile, and his stern eyes shot at her.

“Second married woman, you suspect that my purpose is not pure, and you have no selfishness? You are afraid that what happens to my good friend, you will become an abandoned woman again, right?”

After being turned over in the past, Ana Shen’s face gradually paled.

“You really have confidence in yourself, I don’t want people like you to meddle with my good friends!”

“Interesting? Are you sure it’s not your friend who wants to intervene on me?”

Ana Shen’s lips trembled with anger: “Karla is not that kind of person!”

“Then we will block it?”

Ana Shen didn’t speak.

Walter lowered his eyebrows and sneered, and an undercurrent surged in the dark eyes: “If you lose, you have to stay obediently and be Walter’s lifelong woman.”

Hearing, Ana Shen couldn’t help her eyes widening in amazement.

“If you win, I can warm your bed.”

Ana Shen: “...”

“If it’s okay, just go out. I want to have a video conference.”

Before she could react, Walter quickly issued an eviction order. Before Ana Shen could figure out what was going on, she turned around and walked out mechanically. When she returned to her seat, she was still in her mind. Those few words of Walter echoed loudly.

“If you lose, stay obediently and stay with Walter for a lifetime. If you win, I can warm your bed.”

Is it her illusion?

Why does she think these two sentences...they seem to have the same meaning.

It seemed like they wanted them to be together, but why did Walter say such things to her?

Ana Shen’s mind was messed up, and her heart was completely influenced by Walter’s words.

For a long time, she stretched out her hand blankly to open the front document.

It took fifteen minutes to quickly browse through the information. The information Walter gave her was the essence version, which gathered all kinds of useful information, so it didn't take long.

After reading Han's introduction, Ana Shen suddenly realized that Walter was not as bohemian as it seemed on the surface.

He has his own thoughts in all his actions, which seems to be a sudden decision, but when you react, this decision seems to be the most clear.

Ana Shen squeezed the corner of the document and blinked a few times.

Had he already calculated it? In the beginning, the Lu family was just a cover, and the Ye family really wanted to cooperate with the Han family.

Ana Shen quickly contacted the person in charge of the Han family. After hearing her self-report, the other party was not surprised and calmly said that they would tell her for her. After waiting for nearly half an hour, they returned the call and said She interviewed.

Ana Shen nodded: "This is natural, then you see when the interview is appropriate?"

"That's Miss Shen. Our Han family has always wanted to cooperate with Ye's family, but we didn't find a chance before. I have conveyed your intentions to our President Han. But President Han is currently abroad, maybe temporarily. There is no way to meet you."

Hearing, Ana Shen paused, yes, Karla Han told her that her brother had already flown abroad, just to find someone for Ana Shen.

Thinking of this, Ana Shen's face was a little hot, and she said awkwardly: "It's okay, then wait until she has time."

“Thank you very much for your understanding. Our President Han’s plane will return home the day after tomorrow. It will be available for half an hour at noon. Miss Shen, can you see it?”

“No problem!” Ana Shen quickly agreed.

Chapter 123

After making an appointment with Han, Ana Shen was refreshed.

I said before that I would invite Victor Han to dinner, but I never had a chance. Karla said that her eldest brother is very busy, so it seems... really busy, only half an hour, and at that time he still had food.

Ana Shen followed the time to check Victor Han’s eating habits, and then ordered a restaurant.

Ana Shen was worried again when submitting the order, she didn’t have enough money...

It stands to reason that work should be reimbursed by the company, but she still cares a little about her previous affairs with Lu, so she dare not seek reimbursement from the company at all, just thinking about paying for it out of her own pocket.

There is no money now, how can she invite Victor Han to dinner?

After thinking for a long time, Ana Shen called her sister Erika Shen.

Since the last time she left from Shen’s house, she has not contacted her family again, and her family has never contacted her like the world has evaporated, nor has she ever asked her how well she was at Yeja.

So when Erika Shen received Ana Shen's call, she hung up without hesitation.

Because of a guilty conscience, she was afraid that Ana Shen would ask her to get back the last money.

A sneer flashed across Ana Shen's lips when she saw the other party hanging up on her phone.

Do you think she can't do anything by hanging up? Ana Shen went directly to the school gate to block people after get off work.

Originally, there should be no one in school at this time, but Erika Shen is different from other girls. She will go to dance practice after class, so it's just time when the dance practice is over.

Ana Shen saw Erika Shen from afar, she was coming out with some of her classmates who were dancing with her.

"Erika Shen!" Ana Shen called out her name.

Erika Shen froze for a moment and looked at her, her face changed slightly after seeing her.

"Xiaoyue, isn't that your sister?"

"Your sister has come to see you, do you still go out to dinner with us today?"

Ana Shen stood aside calmly and waited, Erika Shen was a little impatient, "You go to the nearby milk tea shop and wait for me first, I will come to you after a few words with my sister."

"it is good."

After a few people left in groups, Erika Shen looked at her dissatisfiedly and said: "Sister, why don't you come to me and tell me in advance? Suddenly appeared at the school gate like this, making it difficult for me to do it, okay? My friends are waiting for me."

Ana Shen's face was still expressionless, her eyes looked at her coldly: "I want to tell you in advance, but can you answer the phone?"

While talking, Ana Shen took out the phone, buried Erika Shen and raised, "I made several calls to you, did you answer?"

Hearing that, Erika Shen's eyes were a little evasive: "That's because I was practicing dancing, and my phone was muted, so I didn't hear it. Sister, didn't you always know that I was going to practice dancing? You still call me! "

"Mute it, don't you look at your phone after dancing?" Ana Shen's face was still cold and cold, and her tone was low: "I didn't bother to care about you about the last time you took my passbook. I put a few in it. Ten thousand yuan, you now pay me ten thousand yuan."

Erika Shen couldn't help her eyes widening: "Returning you 10,000 yuan? Sister, are you amnesia? Didn't Mom tell you, did she use the money? You should also go to Mom if you are looking for it? Why are you looking for me?"

Ana Shen sneered: "You know who took the money."

"Anyway, I didn't take it, and I won't give you ten thousand yuan."

"Really?" Ana Shen raised her lips: "Actually, our sisters, I have never wanted to do things too terribly. I have given you up since I was a child. I have never given you what you want? But you actually used it this time. By stealing, as your sister, I have an obligation to educate you."

At the end of the sentence, Ana Shen directly grabbed Erika Shen's sleeves, "Follow me to the police station, or, let's go to your teacher to see what you have learned during your time in school."

She didn't have much strength, but she was on par with Erika Shen. Erika Shen had a guilty conscience. When she heard that she was going to take her to the police station or see the teacher, her pretty pale face was panicked.

"Sister, don't do this, sister. I didn't take your money. I really didn't spend your tens of thousands of dollars."

"It doesn't matter, we will talk to the teacher or the police." Ana Shen said coldly.

Erika Shen: "Sister, you have loved me the most since you were a child. You have been letting me go. Forgive me. If you take me to find the teacher, then I will be embarrassed in the future. My boyfriend knows that he will not want me too. Yes, sister... you are the best, let me go this time."

"Finally, are you willing to tell the truth?" Ana Shen stopped, "Where did the money go?"

"Last time on my birthday, I said I would invite everyone to a party. I said everything, but everyone came. To save face, you took your money and spent it. You know, if I ask my parents to take that much They would definitely not give me money, and if Mom knew that I spent so much money on a party, she would definitely kill me. But sister, I just said casually at the time. I didn't expect that they would come to so many people, and I have invited so many friends over. You are also an elder sister who has no choice but to forgive me! We are sisters, this time...I really didn't mean it, and otherwise, how could I take my sister's hard-earned money!"

Shen Yuesheng burst into tears, and cried aggrievedly while holding Ana Shen's arm.

Ana Shen: "..."

She seemed to feel softened again.

In other words, they are all her own sisters. She came here only for an attitude. Now Erika Shen bowed her head to admit her mistake, and after telling her the story, Ana Shen found that she really couldn't get angry anymore.

"Sister, are you not angry with me? Sorry, I really didn't mean it."

"What can I do if I am angry with you? Is it possible that I can chop you off?" Ana Shen was really angry. She saved the money for a long, long time, but was spent by her with such a breath. Now she No need to rush.

"I'm really sorry, sister, I still have two thousand yuan, I will give it to you now." After that, Erika Shen quickly drew out the wallet and gave the two thousand yuan in it to Ana Shen: "This is the remaining money, I always I wanted to give it back to my sister, but when my sister asked me last time, I was a little scared and didn't dare to admit it."

Looking at the red two thousand dollars, Ana Shen felt a little uncomfortable again, "Give it to me, then what do you do?"

Erika Shen wiped away the tears from the corners of her eyes, and smiled: "It's okay, my classmates have a meal card. I will just rub their meals at that time. Otherwise, I will leave a hundred yuan and I will buy bread. Originally, this matter was my fault, and I should be punished."

Originally they were sisters, and they had a very good relationship when they were young. They have been in a good relationship for so many years now...Where is Ana Shen willing to let her suffer? At this moment, she took the initiative to persuade her, and Ana Shen also softened her heart.

“Forget it, half for one person, you can leave a thousand for your own food. My sister really has no choice. I need money urgently. After I pay my salary, your sister will give you some more.”

Hearing, Erika Shen’s smile was a little condensed: “Sister, after you married to Yejia... Did you have a good time?”

Chapter 124

Having a bad time?

Ana Shen didn’t know how to describe it.

Saying that she had a bad life, Walter sometimes treated her very well. Although he looked evil on the surface, he was really helping her.

She said she had a good life, but she was penniless and could not do many things.

“sister?”

Ana Shen came back to her senses and smiled: “Don’t ask so much, isn’t your friend still waiting for you? Go ahead and work.”

Only then did Erika Shen blink her eyes: “Well, sister...I’m going to find my friend first.” Erika Shen took the remaining 1,000 yuan into her wallet and said carefully.

“Go, sister is back too.”

After the two separated, Erika Shen waited for her to leave and took out a bank card from her purse, and looked at her back with a mocking smile.

“It’s so stupid.”

She held the bank card to her mouth and kissed, then smiled.

“Two thousand yuan touched you, you are really an idiot!”

After that, Erika Shen put away the bank card, and then turned and left.

Ana Shen returned home with a thousand yuan, still frowning. The other party is the president of a group. The president she ordered, the starting price of 1,000 yuan is not enough to pay, how can she have the money to invite others to eat?

But the task that Walter gave her...

Ana Shen took off her shoes and lay on her quilt, feeling very depressed.

After thinking about it, she couldn’t help texting Karla Han in the end, but after editing the text message, Ana Shen stopped when she arrived.

Karla is already very busy looking for someone for her. If she asks her to borrow money now... wouldn’t it bother her more?

Even if she is a good friend, she can’t ask others for help over and over again.

Thinking of this, Ana Shen locked the phone on the screen and buried her face in the pillow.

“The mission failed?”

The quiet male voice rang out coldly behind the back, and Ana Shen stiffened and turned her head abruptly.

Walter appeared silently behind her again, and Ana Shen's expression changed slightly: "You... why do you always show up without making a sound?"

Walter knocked on his wheelchair: "No sound?"

Ana Shen: "..."

Indeed, there was a sound when his wheelchair rolled. She was too absorbed in thinking about things. "What did you just ask me?"

"How is the task given to you?"

Ana Shen had a meal. He was referring to the cooperation with Han, right? Ana Shen looked at Walter inquiringly, or... tell him about the reimbursement this time? Then deduct it from her salary?

"That... I want to borrow some money from you first!"

Ana Shen said suddenly.

Walter narrowed his eyes and raised his eyebrows: "Borrowing money?"

He lifted his lips slowly, and sarcasm flashed under his eyes.

After lurking for so long, are you finally showing your true colors?

"Yes." Ana Shen nodded heavily, probably because she was embarrassed, so she hesitated when she spoke: "I contacted the people on Han's side, and they said that they would give time to talk at noon the day after tomorrow, but...I have to invite the other party to dinner, but I have no money anymore..."

Speaking of this, Ana Shen timidly raised her eyes to look into Walter's bottomless eyes, and asked cautiously: "I'll borrow five thousand, and I will pay you back when I get my salary, okay???"

Walter: "..."

This woman... is always so unexpected.

Never follow her ideas.

He thought she would speak loudly. Who knew she was only borrowing five thousand, and what did the look and expression mean? It seems to be afraid that he won't borrow the same.

Probably the long silence gave Ana Shen the illusion that Walter didn't want to borrow. Ana Shen anxiously said: "I'm sorry, I know that this cooperation messed up is my pot, I know I shouldn't ask you to borrow money, but I really have no choice, I really have no money..."

At the end, Ana Shen lowered her head in embarrassment.

"If you don't want to borrow, I'll try to figure it out by myself."

After speaking, Ana Shen leaned back on her pillow, buried her entire face in the soft pillow, and there was no sound.

Inexplicably, Walter felt that such Ana Shen was distressing.

Obviously desperate, she opened her mouth to him cautiously, but she was afraid that he would be angry and would not agree, so she rejected herself before he could speak.

What a stupid woman who is hopelessly stupid.

Walter's eyes gradually darkened for a few minutes, and he said in a cold voice: "This is a public account, won't you go to the financial office to declare it?"

Hearing that, Ana Shen sat up quickly: "You, what did you say? Can I report to the financial office? Can I go in advance?"

She thought that she would be able to reimburse her after receiving the bill, but she did not expect to apply in advance.

Walter originally wanted to say that there was no such thing, but seeing her pitiful little eyes and expressions, suddenly felt that it was not impossible to give her a special case, otherwise... she was really desperate.

"Of course." He said in a low voice.

In the next second, Walter saw Ana Shen's eyes light up, just like the sky without stars and moons, suddenly the clouds opened to see the moon, and then the stars next to them also shone brightly.

Walter felt his heart hit.

Ana Shen suddenly got up, "Then I will apply tomorrow, Walter, your company's benefits are really good, the small company I used to stay can only be reimbursed."

Probably the problem was solved, so Ana Shen's mood became better. She suddenly reached out and grabbed Walter's sleeves, "I will do well this time, and I will definitely not cause you any more trouble."

Her little hands were soft, Walter lowered his head and glanced down. It was obvious that he was just holding her sorrow, but Walter had a feeling like her hand was holding his heart, making his breathing somewhat involuntary. .

After a long time, Walter spoke again, and his voice had become hoarse and low.

“Let go.”

Hearing that, Ana Shen was stunned for a moment, and realized that he was grabbing the corner of his clothes, and then he slammed her hand back, but his lips pursed slightly.

The petty guy, just pulling the corner of his clothes will not work.

“Go to work tomorrow, remember to declare yourself.” Walter threw off these words, turning the wheelchair and slowly changing hands.

“Oh, I got it~” Ana Shen was happy, the problem was solved, and she didn’t have to worry about this matter being messed up.

“Don’t get smug too early, Victor Han can’t handle it.”

Walter’s voice was lost and smashed on top of Ana Shen’s head to prevent her from getting overwhelmed.

Ana Shen heard it and thought it made sense.

But she was still happy. At least she solved a tricky thing. The next thing she had to do was to convince Victor Han to cooperate with Ye Shi.

Victor Han is a staid and serious person. This time to talk about cooperation, it should be her first project in the true sense of Jin Yeshe?

Chapter 125

Time passed quietly, and the first thing Ana Shen did when she arrived at the company the next day was to apply for funds from the Finance Department.

The people in the finance department didn't wait to see her at first, seeing her still look impatient.

"How can I apply for you if there is no form to submit? Besides, this still needs process and time."

Ana Shen blankly said, "Didn't you say you don't use it?"

The person in the finance department rolled her eyes directly: "Who told you not to use it? Didn't you know the rules when you first joined the company? Or do you think you can be unscrupulous if you have a background?"

Hearing, Ana Shen's face paled a bit, and she bit her lower lip.

Walter clearly told her that she can come here to declare, but now the people in the finance department have another way of saying it. What is going on? Was it because the people in the finance department saw her not pleasing her, or did Walter lie to her?

Thinking of this, Ana Shen thought for a while before asking again: "Um, do you think you made a mistake? Is it really not possible to apply in advance?"

The man smiled coldly, looking at Ana Shen like an idiot: "It's the same to ask ten times, no!"

Ana Shen could only return to the roof in a desperate manner, she thought for a long time or went to Walter.

Walter couldn't help frowning when he knew this.

bad.

He originally planned to let Phillip and the Finance Department notify him in advance, but he forgot about it, and now she went to touch the dust.

“The company...isn't it allowed to apply first? Then should I...”

“I can do it, do you believe her or me?”

Ana Shen: “...you.”

Subconsciously, she answered like this. Walter curled his lips slightly: “Then you will go again.”

“Huh? Go?” Ana Shen twisted her fingers together and poked in a bit embarrassed. She seemed to be kicked out after she went. She was particularly embarrassed and asked her to go back again. Ana Shen felt that she couldn't do it.

“Go.” Walter said firmly.

“...Ok.”

Who made her really short of money? Ana Shen could only go out again to take the elevator, and then went to the fifth floor.

Walter quickly took out his mobile phone and called Phillip: “Notify the Finance Department and apply for work funding to Assistant Shen in advance.”

Although Phillip didn't understand what was going on, it was the first time that such a special case was opened, but it's no surprise that the object was Assistant Shen Phillip. After all, Walter's behavior to Ana Shen during these days Phillip saw everything he did.

“I know, I’ll notify you immediately.”

Ana Shen was outside for a long time without entering the finance department. She wondered if she wanted to go back and talk to Walter. The sister paper of the finance department told her to have the documents and go through the process. Staying in the president’s office, people who are aloof may not know the reason for this?

After thinking about it, when Ana Shen decided to go back, a bald middle-aged man in the finance department suddenly walked out. He hurriedly stopped her when he saw her: “Assistant Shen.”

Hearing, Ana Shen stopped and gave him a puzzled look: “You call me?”

The middle-aged man smiled: “Assistant Shen is you, right? Why don’t you stand at the door? Come in quickly.”

Ana Shen was puzzled, but he was too enthusiastic, so Ana Shen followed him in.

“I heard Jessica say that you just came to apply for reimbursement funds, right?”

Ana Shen nodded awkwardly: “But your people said that you have to go through the process, and you need a bill, I...”

“No need, that’s because she remembered it wrong!” The middle-aged man hurriedly waved his hand: “There is no such thing, Assistant Shen will see how much you have to apply for, and I will give you a report directly.”

Ana Shen: “...is it really possible?”

She glanced inside, and she saw the girl named Jessica standing there. She was puffing upright, staring at her with unkind eyes.

“Of course, why not? Come in.”

The middle-aged man called to Jessica: “Hurry up and report to Assistant Shen, what are you doing while standing stupid? Don’t you want to do it?”

Jessica turned around and fetched the information angrily, and handed it to Ana Shen: “You fill in this, and write down the amount of application.”

“Thank you.” Ana Shen stretched out her hands and took it politely, and it took five minutes to carefully fill out the form.

Jessica stared at her sadly, and when she saw her writing so seriously, she muttered angrily: “Don’t you just go through the back door? Why give her a special case?”

Ana Shen didn’t hear clearly, raised her eyes and glanced at her. Don’t mention how innocent the look is. Jessica only glanced at her, and suddenly felt that what she had just said was full of guilt, and said to her in a vicious voice: “What are you doing? Did I still make a mistake for you?”

Ana Shen didn’t say a word, just handed up the information he filled out: “I can apply for five thousand first, can I?”

“So many, why don’t you grab it?” Jessica still murmured.

The middle-aged man patted Jessica’s head, the smile on his face was about to collapse: “How do you say you really don’t want a job, don’t you? Would you like to pack your things and go home now?”

Jessica snorted and looked at the middle-aged man sadly while holding his head. Ana Shen noticed that although the middle-aged man looked at her fiercely, he was a little bit spoiled and helpless. She felt like a pair of... father and daughter.

“Assistant Shen, would five thousand yuan be too little? After all, you are an assistant at the nightclub. Five thousand yuan may not be enough, or... I will add another 20,000 yuan to you?”

When Ana Shen heard this, her face changed slightly: “Twenty, twenty thousand? Shouldn’t that many be used?”

“Dad, are you crazy?”

Sure enough, Jessica exclaimed: “This is the company’s finance department. You gave her 20,000 yuan. What should the nightclub blame us then?”

“Who is your dad? Get out of here, little bunny.” The middle-aged man waved her to get out, then smiled and said to Ana Shen: “I will directly increase the amount to 20,000 for you, Jessica, hurry up and handle this matter. Don’t let Assistant Shen wait for a long time.”

Ana Shen stood there waiting for them to deal with it, wondering why his attitude had changed so much after he came this time, could it be that Jessica was targeting him? While thinking about it, the man’s voice rang again: “I’m really sorry, Jessica is a bit big-tempered, but she’s definitely not bad at Assistant Shen. Can Assistant Shen be based on the fact that Jessica is young in our family. Don’t care about her?”

“You are polite. Thank you very much for letting me apply first.” Ana Shen smiled slightly.

She could see that the middle-aged man was very trembling when facing her, as if he was afraid of offending her, and looked as if he was under pressure, for example...when he was talking to her, he was sweating on his forehead. .

After listening to her, he sighed again obviously.

So Ana Shen couldn't help saying: "Jessica said that he would go through the process before, but bb20b429 suddenly stopped going through the process. Did someone call you?"

Chapter 126

This question made the man embarrassed. He reached out and wiped the sweat from his forehead.

"What did Assistant Shen say? This has always been the company's regulations. Moreover, Assistant Shen is a person around the nightclub. If you apply for funds in advance, it must be very important. Our Finance Department must not make mistakes."

"But before..."

Ana Shen is still entangled, Jessica has already finished the things, "I will give you things."

Ana Shen reached out and took it, "Thank you."

"Don't think that if you say thank you, I won't hate you!" Jessica added: "Although I also came through the back door, your way of going through the back door is more annoying than mine."

Ana Shen: "..."

Someone actually said that she walked through the back door so grandly, Ana Shen didn't find it annoying to see her straightforward, but she just raised her lips and smiled: "Thank you both of you today, then I will go now."

After everyone left, Jessica looked at her father dissatisfied.

“Dad, why did you suddenly give her so much money? What if the nightclub blames us? Twenty thousand yuan is enough for me to do a long job.”

Hearingly, the man glared at her with a stern voice: “Don’t be so impulsive again next time. This is the assistant Xiao who is next to the nightclub called and confessed to me. Fortunately, you didn’t say too much. I don’t care about you.”

“Cut, she’s magnanimous just like she was. She fought with others in the cafeteria, and even poured food on others. She thought she was a nightclub person and she was great.

“Don’t mess around about that, and don’t listen to other people’s side words. Do you think she looks like that kind of fierce person? Do you know what the company’s people are like?”

Jessica pouted, “Anyway, I just think it’s wrong for her to spill food on others! All three of them have been made like that. Is this thing still false?”

After speaking, Jessica turned and left.

After Ana Shen resolved the trouble, she returned to her seat but couldn’t help but remember the little face of the Finance Department just now. She said she came in by the back door, so now in everyone’s eyes, she is relying on Ana Shen Come in with Walter’s relationship.

Forget it, why should she bother about this? Just do your own job well.

Time flies, and soon the day passes.

Karla Han got the news of Victor Han’s return to China today, and the whole person became excited and called Victor Han before he got on the plane.

“What’s the matter?” Victor Han’s voice was as cold as ever.

Karla Han didn't care, because she was very excited today, and she could find the father of her baby on behalf of Ana Shen.

"Brother, are you going back to China today?"

"Well, board the plane in fifteen minutes."

"Big Brother, has the matter that I asked you to check have come to light?"

Victor Han's deep eyes narrowed slightly as he watched the people coming and going at the airport, his thin lips tightened.

"Yes."

"Really?" Karla Han laughed on the other end: "Thank you, big brother, I know that big brother is great! Can you advance..."

"Go back to show you the information, hang up first."

After speaking, Victor Han hung up his mobile phone with a batter, and a well-dressed female secretary stood beside him. After seeing him hang up the phone, he reminded: "Mr. Victor, the flight will arrive in North City in five hours. Ye's Assistant Shen has already booked the restaurant, and we can rush over after we get off the flight."

Victor Han nodded, stretched out his hand to pull the tie of the suit, and under his sharp eyes was a faint stern color. It can be seen how busy he has been recently. Secretary Su Jiu couldn't help saying: "Mr. Victor, or else Go back and rest first? You have been exhausted and rushed recently, already..."

"No need."

Since he refused, Su Jiu did not speak any more, just handed over the information in his hand: "Mr. Victor, this is the information of Walter of the Ye Family Group."

Victor Han took a look and said, "It's an opponent."

He commented.

Su Jiu took the information back: "Yes, since he was stationed in the Ye Family, the news of the Ye Family has been overwhelming. Now the limelight in Beich has overwhelmed our Han group. He has always shown his arrogant face, so everyone dare not dare. It is unexpected that they will come to the door to cooperate with the demon king of Ye's this time. By the way, President Han, this is Ye's new assistant. I simply did a survey."

Su Jiu handed in another piece of information.

Victor Han glanced, the widowed eyes were filled with strange emotions, and the expression in his eyes was fixed on Ana Shen's face.

This woman's face...how does it look familiar?

"Mr. Victor, is there any problem?" Su Jiu asked.

Victor Han frowned slightly and covered the woman's eyes with his rough fingers. Although the woman in the photo was smiling, her eyes were cold and cold, like an endless sea, without unnecessary desires and emotions.

It was calm.

Such eyes... he has only seen it in one person.

“Oh, by the way, President Han, according to the investigation, this Assistant Shen and Miss Karla are still classmates.”

Victor Han: “Classmates?”

“Yes.”

Victor Han stared at the photo for a long time, without looking away for a long time. Su Jiu has been following Victor Han for so long and has never seen him like this. He couldn't help but wonder: “Han always looks at this woman?”

Victor Han: “...” He glanced at her coldly, and Su Jiu immediately lowered his eyes: “Su Jiu said something wrong.”

Victor Han put away the piece of information with the photo, folded it into a square and put it in his suit pocket, “This is the one I want to see today?”

“Yes.”

“Let's go.”

Five hours later, Victor Han's flight formally arrived in Beich.

Ana Shen got him out on this flight, so she came to the airport in advance and waited. She still understands that she should be sincere when discussing cooperation. She has taken chances from many people before and sent them off.

The airport was crowded with people. Ana Shen stared at the flight displayed on the big screen, and finally saw that the plane Victor Han was taking has landed. She asked Victor Han's assistant, and Victor Han would leave the airport through the VIP passage.

After landing, Su Jiu's assistant turned on Victor Han's mobile phone for the first time, and when he was about to contact Ana Shen, her mobile phone rang.

Su Jiu picked it up blankly, and then a hint of surprise flashed across his face: "What did you say? You came... to pick up the plane?"

Victor Han glanced at her, and Su Jiu lightly coughed: "Mr. Victor, Assistant Shen has come to pick up our machine, she is right outside."

Originally, Su Jiu thought Victor Han would frown, but he just said with a cold face, "It's still sincere, let's go."

"Yes." Su Jiu quickly followed.

This is the first time Victor Han has recognized a woman in the crowd.

Although Victor Han didn't feel that way when he first recognized Karla Han.

But this time, with his sharp eyes like a falcon, he saw Ana Shen standing in the crowd at the exit.
