

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 163-168

Chapter 163

Ana Shen walked in, still a little unnatural, and asked awkwardly.

“How is business here recently?”

The clerk nodded: “It’s okay, Miss Shen, you will be our boss in the future, because the mall changed the boss, and you have not come over, so our salary is still in arrears.”

Hearing, Ana Shen had a meal, but because of a change of boss, he has been in arrears and has not paid?

The clerk was tearful: “It has been more than a week since I have been paid my salary, Miss Shen, I am still waiting for my salary to pay the rent.”

Ana coughed slightly, “How do I pay the salary? I send you?”

“No, no, you go to the top floor of the mall.”

Is it on the top floor of the mall? Ana nodded: “Then I will go to take a look.”

Ana took the elevator and went directly to the top floor. Unlike the environment downstairs, the top floor was very quiet, giving her the feeling of standing outside the world.

After entering, she could see that a lot of staff were busy, everyone looked at her strangely, and then looked away again.

Ana Shen didn't know what to say or do when she came here, so she could only find someone to ask about the situation.

After listening to her description, the man took her to an office.

"You can just go in and find someone."

Ana knocked on the door, and a familiar female voice rang.

"come in."

Ana pushed the door open and stuck out a head: "Hello?"

Then she directly met the eyes of the person inside, her expression a little surprised.

Before Ana could speak, the woman sitting at the desk smiled and said, "Ye, Walter's assistant?"

That's right, the person in front of her was the sister Jing who had put on her makeup before.

She got up and walked towards her around the office, leaning against the door with her arms around her chest, "You really made me wait. It took you so long to show up."

Ana: "Wait for me?"

"Yes, this mall changed its owner somehow. As an employee, of course, I desperately want to meet our new owner. I didn't expect it to be you."

Ana: "...how did you know?"

“Secret.”

Sister Jing turned around and walked inside, “Are you looking at the accounts? I have sorted out the latest accounts, send your email?”

“No, no need.” Ana hesitated, “I’m just saying for the employees downstairs. The salary has been extended for a week, and they all seem to be anxious.”

“Tsk, not only are they anxious, sister Jing is also anxious, okay? My salary is also late since last we.”

“Why, how?”

“Waiting for your signature, new boss~”

Sister Jing put the salary list in front of her: “Look at it. If there is no problem, sign it.”

Ana took the form blankly, looking a little dazzled.

“That one...”

“By the way, this is the income and expenditure card, new boss, the password is your birthday.”

Ana: “...”

She took the bank card and blinked blankly.

what happened? Give her an income and expenditure card for some reason?

“Inside is the profit of the mall this month.”

Ana went to a nearby bank to check, and found that the card actually had a profit of nearly tens of millions, and she almost threw the card away in fright.

So she went back to find sister Jing.

“Sister Jing, did you give the wrong card? There are tens of millions in there...”

Sister Jing glanced at her strangely, “Why? Such a big shopping mall, and under the name of Ye’s, earns tens of millions in a month... It’s not that small this month.”

Ana breathed, and quickly put the bank card back on the table.

Holding these tens of millions of cards in her hand was like a hot potato, she couldn’t hold it at all.

“What happened?”

“There is too much money here, I can’t take it.”

“You are the boss here now, who can take it if you don’t want to take it?”

Ana: “But...”

“Although I don’t know how Walter suddenly transferred the mall to you, he must have his own reason for transferring it to you. The mall’s profit this month has dropped a bit from the previous month. Can you bring her back to life? It’s not easy to manage such a big shopping mall.”

what? Ana’s eyes widened when she heard the words and brought the mall back to life? She had never studied business before and didn’t know much about it.

Thinking of this, Ana pursed her lips, took the bank card back and held it in her hand again.

“I will give you an answer to this matter.”

After Ana left the mall, she went straight back to Yejia. Walter was not found in the room. After hearing the maid said that he had gone to the study, she went directly to the study to find him.

She stepped forward and put the bank card on the table.

A white contract was pressed under the bank card.

“This is the contract transfer of the mall, and the profit this month.”

Walter ignored her and didn't speak at all. Ana Shen stood for ten seconds, and saw that he still had no response, so she turned around and planned to leave.

“The things I sent out by Walter, even if you send them back intact, I won't want them.”

The steps that Ana Shen took suddenly stood in place. What this said... it seems that there is something in the words!

She turned her head quickly and bit her lower lip: “Did you ask me before sending it out? I said I want this mall? How could I want such a big mall with so many profits? Walter, you really think can money buy me?”

Walter looked up, staring at her coldly.

“If money can't buy you, why would you take these to my study today? Didn't you want to come to me to pretend to be innocent?”

Ana: "...I didn't expect you to see me like this!"

These words made her tremble all over.

But then he reacted again, he must be deliberate.

Because she said those words who hurt him, he now deliberately said these to stimulate her.

"Never mind! Look at me whatever you want. I don't want these things anyway."

After speaking, Ana Shen turned around and left.

When she walked to the door, she heard a pop.

Walter raised his hand and threw the contract and bank card directly into the trash can.

Ana Shen's eyes widened in disbelief.

"Are you crazy? That's a mall contract, and there are tens of millions in Kari!"

"Have you been heartbroken?" Walter glanced at her coldly, with a bloodthirsty smile on his lips: "Pick it back."

The hands hanging on both sides tightened silently, and the nails were almost sinking into the flesh. When Ana Shen looked at the nasty man in front of her, the sense of despair in her heart gradually deepened.

"You must...you will be happy if you humiliate people so much?"

"This is the most suitable way to deal with a woman like you."

“Okay, don’t just don’t, throw it away and throw it away, who cares?” Ana Shen couldn’t stand him anymore, and shouted directly at him loudly. Her beautiful eyes turned red unexpectedly. After the roar, she didn’t look at him again. Walter glanced, she turned around and ran away.

Walter watched that petite figure leave his sight, his gaze gradually shifted, and he landed in the trash can, his hands tightening silently.

Chapter 164

Midnight

Ana Shen lifted the quilt and got up, walked out of the room with bare feet, then went to the study, and found Walter’s lost contract and bank card from the trash can. She couldn’t help crying when she got it.

Walter this bastard.

She took these things back, but she threw them away without even looking at them.

It seems that when he gave these to her, he didn’t care at all.

Originally, these didn’t belong to her.

But Ana Shen couldn’t help feeling uncomfortable when she saw his cold look.

In the dark study room, there was a depressed sob.

After a while, Ana Shen wiped away her tears, then put the contract and bank card back to the room, sleeping as if nothing happened.

The next day she took time to go to the mall to find sister Jing.

“Sister Jing, how much is this mall worth?”

Sister Jing narrowed her eyes and looked at her: “Why are you asking this suddenly?”

“I just want to know the value of the mall, can sister Jing tell me?”

“Such a big mall, you have also seen that the profit in a month is tens of millions of dollars. In the off-season, what do you think is the value of this mall?”

That said, Ana Shen can hardly estimate the value of this mall.

It seemed that she could not buy it for the time being, and Ana bit her lower lip and began to think about how to deal with it.

But Sister Jing accurately stated her thoughts: “You don’t want to spend money to buy a mall, do you?”

Hearing, the smile on Ana’s lips is a bit embarrassing: “It’s ridiculous, isn’t it? I don’t know...why I thought this way.”

“No.” Sister Jing said with a faint smile: “If you say this, you are a very thoughtful girl. You don’t just want to be attached to Walter, I support you.”

Ana’s gloomy eyes lit up for a while, and she looked up at her with joy.

“You really support me? But... you also said that the value of this mall is immeasurable, and I simply can’t afford it.”

“I don’t think you need to buy it at all, silly girl, you can calculate the percentage of the next profit, and then return it to Walter. How much do you take for the rest, you think it is like managing a shopping mall Easy? You have to get rewards when you put in energy, and Walter is not at a loss.”

Having said that, Sister Jing could only sigh in her heart.

I don't know what is the relationship between Walter and Ana? It was obvious that Ana was very upset when she took his things, and always wanted to make a clear calculation with him. If this is the case, then it would be bad for Walter.

It's just that she hasn't had the chance to see Walter recently, so she doesn't know exactly what the situation is.

“Really?” Ana was surprised.

“Of course, but you have to make the mall's profitability better. Think of a way.”

Ana suddenly got enthusiasm and nodded: “Okay!”

After that, Ana signed the salary list, and then went back to the company to work seriously. She was learning how to do business during meals or during breaks. She specially bought a lot of books related to business from the bookstore.

Every day except for work and rest time, she was studying.

It can be said that if you plunge in, you won't come out.

With these as motivation to move forward, Ana found that she had less time to think about it. Before, she always struggled with Curtis Ye and the relationship between her and Walter.

But when she had more important things to do, she found that these things could not stop her at all.

Only in her free time or in the dead of night Ana think of these tangled questions.

But... she still doesn't know how to solve it, she can only go by day after day.

However, Karla Han seemed to have really done something wrong, and brought her gifts in three days. In just over a week, she received four gifts from Karla Han...

To this day, Karla Han brought her things to the door again, and Ana couldn't help it.

"Karla, what's going on with you now, always give me things."

Karla Han heard this and waved her hand awkwardly: "Didn't I explain it before? I took it for you, you see I also have a copy of it for myself. We are good girlfriends, why don't we use the same thing???"

"It's not bad, but these things are too expensive. You don't have to buy everything for me. Don't give it to me again."

Then Karla Han stopped talking, and Ana was silent for a while and asked her: "Karla, do you feel sorry for me?"

Karla Han who said this raised her head like a frightened bird, looking at her in a panic: "Qiao, Ana, why do you think so?"

"If you don't feel sorry for me, why do you send me things frequently? Actually..." She paused, "If it is because of that, you don't have to feel sorry for me at all, because...this result None of you or I thought of it."

Before starting the investigation, Ana never thought that this person would be Curtis.

Although, she still hasn't believed it yet.

Karla Han looked up at her.

"Ana, don't you believe me?"

Hearing that, Ana Shen paused, then shook her head: "I believe you, but... I can't accept it in my heart."

Karla looked at her calmly.

"Then... do you like Walter?"

Do you like Walter? Like it? If it was asked before, Ana could answer with certainty, she didn't like him.

But now... she is also entangled.

Thinking of this, Ana Shen smiled faintly: "I don't like him."

It's just that the expression in Karla Han's eyes darkened a bit, "Ana, you have changed."

"changed?"

"I asked you this question before, and you answered decisively at the time, not as hesitant as you are now."

Ana: "...really?"

She didn't even know about it.

Also forgot...

Karla Han lowered her eyes, and her emotions became low for some reason. After a while, her eyes fell on Ana Shen's lower abdomen.

"Then you... didn't plan to tell Curtis Ye clearly about this matter?"

Ana Shen didn't pay attention to Karla Han's emotions, because she was also very tangled in her heart.

"I'm not sure at the moment, but...I don't think he will accept it. Besides, once this matter is said, it will definitely be a scandal for their Yejia!"

"So what?" Karla Han suddenly aroused: "No matter how ugly, he is also your man that night, the father of the child in your stomach! Don't you want to find the biological father for your child? Or you like night Walter? You want Walter, who is an uncle, to be the father of the child?"

These words caused Ana hit hard.

She stared at Karla Han in front of her blankly, feeling that she gave herself a blow.

Yes, how could she... let Walter recognize the child in her stomach?

Chapter 165

"Ana, I think Big Brother Ye is very good to you, are you really not going to say it?" Karla Han suddenly increased her tone: "Are you not courageous? If you really don't dare, then I will go for it. Right?"

She was eager to try, the little devil in her heart had grown out, and then she couldn't control it.

Hearing her saying that she wanted to speak for herself, Ana Shen was shocked. Before her own brain could react, her mouth had subconsciously blurted out, "No."

The expression in Karla Han's originally hopeful eyes fell through.

There was a silence between the two.

No one said anything, all had their own thinking.

Karla Han stared at Ana Shen on the opposite side, and put her hand under the table tightly.

She originally thought she would be very happy after telling Ana Shen the news, after all, she and Curtis are very close, right? Then simply stay with him, why bother with Walter?

Sometimes Karla Han even felt that Ana was acting too much, so she refused to let the two men go.

I completely forgot the fact that I took her identity and deceived her.

After the two parted, Karla Han returned to Han's house with a heavy heart, and found that her eldest brother's car was actually at home. She asked the servant a little strangely: "Did brother not go to the company today?"

The servant replied respectfully: "Mr. seems to be uncomfortable today, working from home."

Karla Han was taken aback for a moment: “Big Brother is not well? I’ll go and see.”

The servant hurriedly followed up: “Miss, Mr. Victor has ordered, no one can disturb him.”

“Joke, I’m my brother’s sister, what do you mean? I just watched my brother get sick to visit, what are you talking about?”

Karla Han looked fierce and vicious.

The servant bowed his head, afraid to say anything.

Karla Han went upstairs directly, and then went to Victor Han’s room.

It turned out that Victor Han’s room was not locked and there were people inside.

“Mr. Victor, this is all the information you asked me to investigate about Miss Shen.”

It was Su Jiu’s voice, and Karla Han hurriedly leaned on the door to listen the movement inside.

“Well, let it go.” Victor Han’s deep voice was dry and dumb, and it sounded really uncomfortable.

Su Jiu continued: “Mr. Victor, why did you ask me to investigate Ms. Shen? Just because she is a friend of Ms. Karla? According to the survey results, this girl named Ana Shen is a girl with good personal qualities in every aspect. , But... the encounter is a bit pitiful.”

In fact, if Su Jiu should have said these things, if she usually said these things, Victor Han would ignore her, and she also learned to concise language.

But Su Jiu saw that Victor Han was really interested in Ana Shen's affairs in the past two days, so he unconsciously mentioned a few more words.

There was silence in the room for a while, and Su Jiu coughed lightly. When he thought he was talking too much and was about to stop, he heard Victor Han ask in a low voice: "Poor?"

"Yes." Su Jiu nodded: "Her husband who was married to another lady has had a child now, but Miss Shen hasn't noticed it for two years. Suddenly her husband won the lottery one day and thought he could live a good life. , Who knows the divorce, Xiao San walked directly into the room with a big belly. In the end, Miss Shen got nothing."

Hearing this, Victor Han frowned subconsciously: "Nothing?"

"Yes. The marriage between the Shen family and the Ye family was actually supposed to belong to Ms. Shen's younger sister, Erika Shen, but when Ms. Shen's mother heard that the person she was going to marry was a disabled person, she happily divorced again, so she let Miss Shen marry to Yejia."

"That day... what we saw in the meeting room, probably... is Ana's current situation."

After hearing these words, Victor Han didn't say a word, but pressed his slender fingertips lightly on the tabletop, making a dull sound. Although he was expressionless, Su Jiu knew that he was a little angry when he saw his movements.

But... why are you angry?

It hasn't been long since he met the woman of Ana. Is it... love at first sight?

But that shouldn't be right. Although Ana Shen has suffered misfortune and is sympathetic, she is not so beautiful as to make people fall in love at first sight, right?

No, the beauty of the country is not the first condition for love at first sight, after all, Victor Han is a different man, never seduced by beauty.

But no matter how you fall in love at first sight, there are also married women.

Thinking of this, Su Jiu wanted to remind Victor Han kindly, but when he saw his sharp face like a knife, he swallowed again when he reached his lips.

Forget it, this man is very discreet in everything, so he shouldn't be nosy.

And Karla Han, who was eavesdropping outside the door, listened to the conversation between the two without a word. After the conversation inside was still, the blood on Karla Han's face had faded clean, like a dragged from the water. The white paper was terribly pale.

The eldest brother asked Secretary Su to investigate Ana Shen's information?

why? And he actually asked about Ana for the first time, as if he cared about her.

When she thinks about posing as her identity, Karla Han feels that her whole body is weak and weak. The eldest brother is always so indifferent to her, is he still doubting her identity?

Or, he didn't accept her sister seriously from the beginning???

And now that he saw Ana, he started to investigate Ana.

No, no...

She finally got the identity, the eldest lady of the Han family, so many people are holding her, she can eat and drink spicy every day, live in a big house that everyone envy, buy all kinds of luxury perfume bags, cosmetics and clothes, how many women envy Red eyes.

She has already lived on the cloud, but she can never go down again.

How to do? Karla Han was so anxious that her eyes were red, and the people inside spoke again.

Su Jiu said: "Mr. Victor, if there is nothing wrong, I will leave."

"Ok."

After that was the sound of footsteps, Karla Han recovered and realized that she was still standing at the door of the eldest brother's room, and Secretary Su was about to come out soon.

She couldn't let Secretary Su find out that she was listening to them.

Karla Han hurriedly moved away.

She hid in the corner and saw Su Jiu coming out of her elder brother's room, and then stepped downstairs.

In the middle, Su Jiu turned his head and glanced in the direction where she was, as if he was aware of it, so scared that Karla Han hurriedly hid behind the wall, her breathing became tense.

Su Jiu is the secretary that her elder brother values, if she finds out...

Fortunately, the sound of high heels was gone, and Karla Han found herself in a cold sweat and sat down weakly against the wall.

How to do? The eldest brother has already started investigating Ana, will he find out that Ana is the Han family's biological daughter? If it is found, what will she do with Karla Han?

She didn't want to go back to the dark life as before.

No way-she has to think of a way, think of a way...

Chapter 166

In addition to studying in the past few days, Ana also ran to the mall after get off work to study and study with Sister Jing.

Although Sister Jing had little hope for her at first, her progress these days has shocked Sister Jing, and Ana has worked harder than she thought, not afraid of hardship or tiredness.

Ana stayed in her office several times, tired enough to fall asleep, still holding on there, and then fell asleep on the table again after a while.

Sister Jing could see her dark circles and couldn't help teasing her.

"Does Walter feel sorry for you if you keep going like this?"

Hearing Walter's name, Ana paused, and then smiled faintly.

No answer.

This is the longest period of cold war since she married Walter.

Walter treated her as an invisible person, and she did not take the initiative to speak to Walter.

Although the two lived in the same room, they ignored each other farther than strangers.

After thinking about it, Ana felt that this is also good.

At least, she doesn't need to struggle when facing Walter, she just plunges into the work, not seeing or worrying.

"Girls have to feel sorry for themselves. Youth is limited. If you go on like this, I'm afraid you will get old too fast. Then Walter will ask me to settle the accounts."

Ana paused for a moment, then smiled: "Sister Jing, don't laugh at me."

"Who is making fun of you? I don't have that time. Don't work. Go back and rest. See what your eyes look like and don't you look into a mirror."

Ana didn't care about her words, thinking that Sister Jing lied to her.

In the next second, Sister Jing directly placed a mirror in front of her, and Ana glanced at it, and almost jumped from the start of the woman in the mirror.

The woman in the mirror was pale, her eyes were so dark that she didn't see the bottom, and her lips were not as moisturized as usual, they were all dry.

"This, this is..."

"Scared?" Sister Jing sneered: "I really have never seen a woman who can't dress herself better than you. You don't love beauty at all!"

Ana was a little embarrassed and couldn't help but reached out and rubbed her face.

"Sorry, sister Jing, I scared you."

"We are also women. It's okay to scare me. I'm afraid to scare Walter. Even if you have to work hard, women still have to love beauty. After all, only you are good a worthy better person."

This is true, and Ana has always thought so.

Unfortunately, she has never been such a good person.

And she is not worthy of better people.

"Go back and rest quickly."

"Ok."

Ana also realized that she was really tired recently, so she had to pack up and go home.

In the past, she arrived home very late, and most of Walter had already fallen asleep. Today, she arrived home earlier. When she returned home, she found that Walter was still in the study. Ana Shen was too tired, so she fell asleep after washing up.

When she slept in the middle of the night, she seemed to have one hand touching her cheeks, and those hands were cold and dry, as if something was rubbing her eyes, causing her to frown her eyebrows with some discomfort, she wanted to open her eyes Look, it's so tired, her eyelids are too heavy to open.

Then she gave a cry, and then put the hand back.

It was quiet in the middle of the night, and Ana had a good dream until dawn.

When she washed the next day, she found that her eye circles seemed a little sticky, and the eye circles had faded a bit. Sure enough, sleep is a natural mask.

Ana Shen came out after washing up, and happened to run into Walter who was getting up.

Seeing him sitting by the bed, he was leaning against a magazine in his hand.

The wheelchair was not far away, and Phillip hadn't come over yet.

Ana thought for a while, and walked over.

She pushed his wheelchair to Walter, her voice was rare and peaceful: "Do you want to help?"

Hearing this, Walter raised his head, and his deep and calm eyes fell on her face.

They do not have the habit of drawing the curtains at night, and this window is facing the east, but the window is far from where they rest, but the strong sunlight can still be reflected on their faces.

At this moment, when Walter raised his eyes and fixed his eyes on Ana Shen, Ana Shen noticed that half of his handsome face was dazzling as a god by Nikko Yingshe, and his deep eyes were like the sea of stars, which made Ana look at his heart. Dang.

A heart fluttered like this.

Unfortunately, in the next second, Walter's voice made her feel like a cave.

"No need."

Ana's face changed, and she realized that she was being passionate.

The two were already in a cold war. He had demoted her for so long and threw away the contract bank card in front of her. How could he still care about her?

The hand in the wheelchair tightened and tight, but finally loosened suddenly.

Ana lowered her eyes, turned around and left, leaving only Walter's stubborn back.

Walter looked at her thin but straight figure, and the mockery in his eyes became a bit rich.

This woman never seemed to know that she would bow her head softly in front of him, and she would always look like this dead.

Nothing!

If she wants to be stunned, let her be stunned.

See who can be the last.

As soon as Ana Shen arrived at the company, she saw an extra breakfast on her table. She frowned and looked around. Who brought her breakfast so kindly? From the time she entered this department, how many people saw her not pleasing to her eyes, and wanted to rectify her. The rest were just thinking and not taking action, and some people who were afraid of getting into trouble did not dare to approach her.

So if someone brings her breakfast...

Ana Shen rolled her eyes, probably thinking of who it was.

She didn't move the breakfast, turned on the computer and started working as if she hadn't seen it.

Gao Yun's mocking voice sounded in the audience.

"Oh, this woman who knows how to seduce people is different. No matter which department you go to, you can get a fish in the water. I only came to our department for a few days, and you seduce another one. Tsk tsk, it really hurts someone who was cheated by some people before. What."

Cui Minli is her good helper, and she vigorously agrees with her.

"Sister Gao Yun, don't talk about it. Women who know bed skills are like this. You can use this trick to subdue men wherever you go. Hey, newcomer, you also made this trick to Xu Liao's face?"

Gao Yun mocked: "Probably there is no manners or shame in her eyes, and she can do the same with old men. It's really not disgusting. I get goose bumps even thinking about it."

These words fell into Ana's ears, and everyone else heard them, and then turned around as if watching a good show. Everyone was ready to be a crowd of people, watching the curse war that is about to start in this office. .

But who knows that after waiting for a long time, the parties mentioned by Gao Yun and Cui Minli actually didn't move, and didn't even give them a look.

The gleeful smiles on everyone's faces gradually disappeared...

Gao Yun and Cui Minli couldn't wait for her to have a seizure, so they stood up and asked her angrily, "Newcomer, what do you mean? Why is there no response?"

Hearing that, Ana slowly turned her head, and met them innocently: "Are you talking to me?"

Chapter 167

Everyone fell mad!

The expressions on Gao Yun and Cui Minli's faces are ever-changing, and they are obviously frustrated by Ana.

Dare to love them for a long time, didn't she listen to a word?

Then who are they talking so vigorously to?

"Shen, are you too arrogant? You really think that if the supervisor likes you, you can do whatever you want in the department, no one can do it?"

"Yes, isn't it just a breakfast? You really take yourself seriously? Our supervisor is someone who has a wife. You seduce a married man, is it too shameless?"

The voices of the two of them were getting louder and louder, and the words they said were unacceptable. Some people watching the scene next to them felt that they both said too much, but there were also people who liked to make up the knife.

"Where does she need a face? Any man's bed crawls, you should ask her if she wants to force her face..."

Ana: "..."

"Yes, don't push your face!"

The breath of Ana Shen cooled down, and she slowly raised her lips to sneer, and echoed: "As long as you put a breakfast on your table, you will seduce a married man, right?"

Everyone was taken aback.

Ana got up, picked up the bag on the table, and placed it on Gao Yun.

"What about now? Miss Gao, can you please point your face?"

Gao Yun's complexion changed.

"This kind of insult to others, as well as the things you just said, I thought that even if someone said it, it would come from the mouth of a gangster. I didn't expect it to be said from the mouths of everyone here. You didn't ask me to be shameless. Then there is a question I want to ask you, what is the difference between you like this and those shrews who can only scold the street? What is the difference?"

Ana's words are not unpleasant, but the underlying meaning is that they are just shrews and cursing people on the street.

The others were furious at hearing and responded angrily.

"What do you mean by this? Do you dare to be someone else can't say anything to you?"

Cui Minli gritted her teeth: "That's it, dare to do it or not, and slander others."

Ana smiled slightly, stretched out her hand to pull a strand of blue silk from the cheek behind her ear, and suddenly stepped forward to Cui Minli, “Miss Cui, last night I saw a bald man coming to take you home. At first I thought He is your father, but later I saw you both kissed each other, what is your relationship?”

When Cui Minli heard the words, her pupils trembled.

“You, you...what nonsense! I didn’t have one!!!”

Everyone looked at Cui Minli in an uproar.

“No? Do you dare not recognize it?”

Gao Yun, who was on the side, reacted, Ana was trying to blame her and Cui Minli.

“Shen, don’t blur the point there! Isn’t the point that you seduce our supervisor? What do you slander Cui Minli for?” At this point, Gao Yun was so angry that he reached out to pull Ana’s hair, trying to drag her away. Come.

Ana ‘s face changed and she quickly avoided her touch.

“You said that I didn’t do anything for a long time. I just said that you wanted to do it. Is this because I poke the center of my mind into anger? Or you can’t wait to cover up your ugly things for her. Why... Let me talk about you?”

Gao Yun: “...said me? What story do you want to fabricate?”

“That’s not true. I just wanted to kindly remind you that your boyfriend was talking with his little couple before he came to pick you up.”

“What are you talking nonsense?” Gao Yun didn’t think she had hit her boyfriend, so she was so angry that he would hit her.

“What are you arguing about?”

Xu Liao’s voice suddenly rang, and everyone’s voice was drunk.

Although everyone told him secretly, after all, Xu Liao had been here for five or six years as a supervisor, and he was still very courageous. When everyone saw him coming, they quickly dispersed like a beast.

Gao Yun saw Xu Liao coming, his eyes turned red, and he said directly: “The supervisor, you are here, this newcomer has done something wrong, she just murdered me when I said her words, and slandered me and Minli. “

The named Cui Minli hurriedly followed the act upon hearing this, and looked at Xu Liao crying.

“Supervisor, we really didn’t say anything about her, but she actually slandered me for being raised by a man. I’m a clear and clean girl. How can I compare with that kind of person, the supervisor... You have to call the shots for us!” “

No matter what Gao Yun and Cui Minli said, Ana stood still, looking at them coldly.

This look really makes people look at her more.

A peerless and independent look...

Xu Liao suddenly discovered the beauty in her body. Although she always ignored him, Ana Shen’s air-conditioned eyes and her temperament were not annoying. On the contrary, the more she resisted, Xu Liao The more he found himself sinking.

“Just a few words, when did you become so vulnerable?” Xu Liao gave a light cough, then looked at Ana and asked softly: “Are you really talking about them? Or are they making you up?”

Gao Yun and Cui Minli turned pale: “Supervisor, what do you mean by this? How could we fabricate her?”

Ana was also taken aback. She didn’t expect that he would actually ask, would he use his hand to punish those two people? But... she didn’t want to get involved with Xu Liao in front of him.

Forget it.

Ana pursed her lips and was too lazy to speak, so she turned around and returned to her seat.

Xu Liao was ignored and felt a little uncomfortable.

“Supervisor...”

“Okay, you guys, all of them don’t make people worry, right? You asked me to deal with you because of the quarrel in the morning. Should I take care of you when I eat? Work for me as soon as you can. All bonuses have been deducted this month!”

When Gao Yun and Cui Minli heard about the bonus, they didn’t dare to say any more, they could only hold their breath and return to their seats.

Xu Liao wanted to turn around and leave, but when he saw Ana’s exquisite curves, thinking about her face and cold eyes, his heart began to move again.

So he stepped forward and coughed slightly, “That little Shen, come to my office.”

Hearing, Ana Shen paused for a moment and looked back at Xu Liao:
“Supervisor, what’s the matter?”

Xu Liao: “...Say it when you come!”

Then he just turned around and left.

Ana Shen sat there and took a deep breath. She could actually guess what Liao was doing with her, but she didn’t have that thought, and she stood upright and was not afraid of shadows.

Just go to make it clear.

Thinking of this, Ana locked the computer, then got up and went to the office.

As soon as she left, Gao Yun and Cui Minli began to get together again.

“What’s the matter with Xu Liao? Didn’t it mean that Sister Qiangwei ordered her? Why didn’t he help us?”

“Wipe, old pervert, I am moved when I see a woman, and I don’t even look at what the surname Shen looks like. Is half of our sister Qiangwei’s good-looking? Actually, I have changed my mind, bh!”

“Gao Yun, what do we do now? Xu Liao doesn’t help us, how can we fix that surname Shen? She seems to be pretty good.”

Chapter 168

“Don’t worry, I am here to guard, I will go up to Sister Qiangwei and talk about this.”

Gao Yun got up and walked outside. Cui Minli was so nervous that she was left behind, rubbing her fingers.

On the other hand, after Ana Shen arrived at Xu Liao's office, Xu Liao sat there with a smile, watching her softly said, "Xiao Shen, you are here."

Hearing, Ana frowned slightly, "Supervisor, what can I do for you?"

Xu Liao looked at her tenderly like that, but he gaze that he thought was very gentle to Ana Shen. She was stared by his greasy eyes and her scalp was numb, and she couldn't help but remind him. Tao.

"Supervisor, if there is nothing wrong, I will leave !"

Just turning around, Xu Liao got up anxiously and said, "Wait, I want to ask you, is breakfast still good for you?"

What the hell...

Ana thought for a while, and suddenly thought of something, with an innocent expression on her face: "Breakfast, I didn't see any breakfast, supervisor, if there is nothing wrong, I have something to do."

Xu Liao walked around the table directly and pressed the door panel to prevent her from going out.

The expression on Ana's face cooled down, and a pair of cold eyes looked at him.

With a look in his eyes, Xu Liao's heart wafted and he looked at her with a smile: "Little Shen, how are you thinking about the things I told you at that other day?"

Ana just wanted to laugh.

“Didn’t the supervisor knowingly ask?” Ana pursed her lips and replied coldly.

Hearing, Xu Liao’s face changed slightly: “What do you mean? Xiao Shen, you...do not want to follow me?”

Ana Shen frowned and stepped back to keep a distance from him:

“Supervisor, I have already told you the answer to this question a few days ago.”

“Xiao Shen, do you know what you are talking about? Didn’t I analyze it for you before? Although you had a conversation with the president before, but now he doesn’t want you anymore. Let’s talk about it. Is the point bad? You will stay and work in this department in the future, you can follow me and I can give you shelter!”

“I don’t need anyone’s asylum, thank you.” Ana went directly to the sliding door and prepared to leave.

Xu Liao pressed the door panel: “Do you really no longer think about it? Refused so simply?”

“Supervisor, please get out of the way.” Ana said with an unkind expression on her face.

After being rejected many times without giving any face, Xu Liao became a little angry and gritted his teeth and said, “Don’t be shameless!”

Is this angry? Ana raised her eyes and glanced at each other, “Get out of the way.”

“I can shelter you, or make you stay in the department.”

“Really?” Ana smiled slightly: “Just like when I came the first day? Playing tricks in front of the president, clever. Supervisor, I advise you, don’t lose yourself for so many years because you have trouble with me. Upcoming position.”

“You!” Xu Liao didn’t expect her to say so badly. When his face was blue and white, Ana Shen had already opened the door and went out.

He couldn’t help but cursed at her back: “Pretending to be noble, but a woman who has been crippled and abandoned. It’s not bad if someone wants you, but I dare to refuse! Well, you are unkind and I am unrighteous, I will see how you will stay here in the future! Bitch!”

Ana didn’t know that her refusal would make the other person irritated like this, but she had already thought about the consequences of refusal, and she was ready to endure it.

From the day she was demoted by Walter, she had made all mental preparations.

No matter what she was facing, she had to deal with it one by one and calmly deal with it.

Enter the password and Ana Shen re-enters the working state.

When eating at noon, Jessica said excitedly: “Our company is approaching its anniversary, and there will be an anniversary event at that time, and there will be a grand banquet at night.”

Hearing, Ana has a meal, banquet?

“At that time, everyone can go, Ana, have you thought about what dress to wear?”

“Me?” Ana smiled: “I am an ordinary clerk now, can I also go to the banquet?”

“Of course you can. This is the anniversary banquet. Everyone can be there. You don’t know. Last year, it was terrible!”

“Fighting on the same stage?”

This word surprised Ana, she couldn’t help but smiled, “Is it that exaggerated?”

“Why not? Although it is Yejia’s anniversary event, do you think the only people who come are Yejia? There are many upper-class people who have been invited by Yejia. If you can hook up one of them at the event, it will be complete in the next half of your life. Don’t worry, okay?” Jessica explained.

Hearing, Ana was stunned for a moment, “You don’t have to worry about hooking up for the rest of your life?”

“Of course, if you can seduce the last one, you will marry a rich family. What can you worry about a woman who marries a rich family? Everyone wants to be a rich grandmother.”

“Does it include you?”

Jessica was stopped by this question, and after a while, she laughed and scolded Ana: “How can I compare with them? I won’t post it upside down. I must find someone who is in love with me. Only money and no feelings. I am I won’t marry.”

Only money and no emotion...

Are she and Walter now?

She married Walter because she had neither money nor feelings.

No, I was really wrong about having no money. Now the whole mall belongs to her, so much money.

Thinking of this, she pursed her lips, but Jessica suddenly grabbed her and said, "Should we go to the mall to see the dress after get off work? Let's go to the one under the Yeshi Group!"

Ana's face changed slightly, "Could it be that which one are you talking about?"

"Which one is there? Just the big shopping mall! You have to lead the way."

Ana: "..."

Isn't that the one that Walter gave her?

Is Jessica a coincidence, or does she know something to test her?

"Why are you going to that one suddenly?"

"You are stupid, the things there are the best and the most fashionable in Bukchon, and you can buy dresses and wedding dresses that are really customized from foreign designers. Are you so incomprehensible???"

Ana: "...Yes, I am not sure."

As the new owner of the mall, she actually didn't know anything, "Well, let's go there together after get off work in the afternoon. Can you tell me everything you know about this mall?"

Jessica nodded: "No problem, then I will come to you after get off work."

After the two agreed, Ana returned to the department.

When I was off work, I went to Xuyinglu's mall with Jessica.

Along the way, Jessica told her a lot of deeds in the mall and related events, and Ana occasionally took notes while listening.

According to Jessica, almost the best things in the whole North City are gathered in this mall, and everything for food is excellent.

Just because this mall has a surname-Ye.

Although many manufacturers and designers are vying to break their heads and want to sell things here, there are professional quality inspections here, and all those who fail or try to pass the customs will not be passed.
