

Chapter 247

After buckling her seat belt, Curtis closed the car door, and then went to the other side to get in the car. After that, he took off his suit jacket and put it on Ana Shen's body: "Close it. Don't catch a cold."

Ana looked at the suit jacket, glanced at him, and did not refuse.

Curtis Ye treated her... it was really good.

If...she didn't like Walter, maybe she could be with him.

But now, her mind is full of Walter's appearance, she really can't deceive herself anymore.

Thinking of this, Ana closed her eyes and stopped talking to Curtis Ye.

The car went all the way, and she does not know how long it took to finally reach the parking lot of Yejia.

Ana was afraid of being misunderstood by Walter's sight, so she got into the car a little bit hastily, and put his suit jacket back on the car when she got off the car. Curtis couldn't help but smile when he saw it, "You don't have to worry so much. I asked the servant, and Walter never came back."

Hearing, Ana's steps stopped for a while, and then stood still, she looked back at Curtis Ye, who was also looking at him.

"Of course, you don't want to know where he went." He smiled faintly, his eyebrows were still moist, but his eyes were sharp. Ana Shen saw clearly and lowered her head.

Actually, she doesn't need to think about it. After all, Karla Han wore that pair of earrings and appeared in front of her last night. Although she went to the jewelry store and asked about it, but...she is still a bit unwilling to give up.

She felt that maybe the shopping guide deceived her, or maybe she was wrong. The pair of earrings Karla wore was not the pair bought by Walter. How could she have a relationship with Walter?

So she wanted to go to Walter to see if the pair of earrings were still with him, and wanted to confirm.

"So don't worry, go slowly, or I will send you back to your room."

"No." Before he came forward, Ana Shen coldly rejected Curtis Ye's kindness, and then walked forward slowly by herself. After a few steps, she suddenly stopped again and looked back at Ye. Cold.

Seeing her turning back, Curtis's expression moved, and he unconsciously called out her name: "Ana..."

"Big brother, I know you are good to me, and I am very grateful to you for being sincere to me, but feelings really can't be forced. If you want, you can always be my big brother, no matter how I and Walter are."

Hearing, the brightness of Curtis's eyes suddenly disappeared, and after a while, he pulled his lips and laughed bitterly: "This is all you want to say?"

"Yes, I won't say it again in the future, big brother, thank you for what happened yesterday, I will leave first." After speaking, Ana Shen turned and left.

Looking at her back, Curtis Ye suddenly raised his lips and stared at his palm. His hand had touched her before, and the fragrance of her seemed to linger between his fingers.

He stood there for a long time before leaving.

Ana Shen returned to the room and found that it was really deserted, and Walter did not come back at all.

For two whole nights, two days, he actually... didn't come back?

Ana Shen lay in the hospital all night and felt uncomfortable, so she had to take a bath first. When the warm water washed down, Ana Shen recalled that her wound seemed to be unable to touch water, but after thinking about it for a few days, it should be It's okay. If she doesn't wash it, she will also have bacteria on her body, so she doesn't care. After washing it hastily with water, Ana Shen changes clothes and comes out.

Walter was at home, so Ana Shen just put on a nightdress and came out directly.

As soon as she walked out of the bathroom, Ana Shen felt an icy breath spread over the sky. She stood in a daze and looked at the people who suddenly appeared in the room.

"Where did you go last night?"

The icy voice hit Ana Shen's head ruthlessly like snow and ice.

It was not someone else who appeared in the room, but Walter in a wheelchair. His expression was cold, like the king of hell, and his eyes were sharp as a knife when he asked.

"You..." Ana stared at him blankly: "Why did you come back suddenly?"

Didn't he come back for two nights? Why did you suddenly appear here, and know that she didn't come home last night?

“What?” Walter sneered: “This is my site for Walter. When will I get the consent of others when Walter arrives here?”

This made Ana Shen’s scalp numb, and she could only explain quietly: “I didn’t mean that, I just...”

Before she could finish her words, Walter pushed his wheelchair over, and then buckled her wrist, pulling her into his arms forcefully.

“Ah!” Ana exclaimed, lying on his body.

She had just finished taking a shower, she was full of water vapor, and she was not wearing close-fitting clothes. When she lay in Walter’s arms, she felt that a certain part of herself was hit and hurt. He pushed away.

The expression on Walter’s face was gloomy, and the aura all over his body was dark!

“Isn’t that? What do you mean? Or, you think I appeared inexplicably and disturbed your good deeds?”

“What?” Ana Shen looked at him in astonishment, reaching out to push him away, but her wrist was pinched so hard that she paled with pain: “You hurt my hand.”

“Do you still know it hurts?” Walter stared at her coldly, and sneered: “Why didn’t you expect to be now when you didn’t come home last night? Huh? Do you know you are married? Know yourself What should be done?”

Hearing this, Ana Shen finally understood the reason for Walter’s anger. She stared at him with wide eyes: “You, how do you know I won’t come home at night?”

“Do you think you can hide from me?” Walter sneered. “It seems that during the period when you were married to Yejia, you have gained a lot of courage, and you actually learned not to return home at night. Let’s talk, you went last night what did you do?”

His tone was reprimanded at first, and then seemed a little indifferent.

At first, Ana was a little guilty and a little scared. He would actually know that she was not coming home at night, so how did he know?

But now he questioned himself like this, Ana reacted suddenly, what qualifications did he have to question her?

So she slowly raised her head, her eyes turned to Walter, and her voice was unexpectedly calm.

“What did I do, do you care?”

Hearing, Walter’s pupils shrank, and he narrowed his eyes dangerously to look at her, “What did you say?”

Ana Shen was not afraid of him at all, pressed her lips to meet his gaze, and deliberately lowered her voice.

“Don’t you know what I’m talking about? Walter, why can you not come home at night? I can’t? You can’t come back for two days and two nights. I just didn’t go home for one night, so you shout at me what?”

Chapter 248

“ ... ”

She probably didn't expect that she would say this, Walter did not respond for a long time.

After he realized what she said, Walter's thin lips curled up coldly, and his big hand squeezed her chin: "Do you know who you are talking to? What are you talking about?"

With great strength, he immediately pinched Ana's chin to make a red mark. Ana suffered from pain and wanted to pat his hand away.

Without patting it away, she could only bit her lower lip and stared at him bitterly: "Of course I know, so what? Am I wrong? Why do you only allow you not to come home at night?"

After speaking, Ana tried to push Walter away, but the difference in strength between the two was too great. After pushing him for a long time, Ana couldn't push him away, and finally stopped panting.

Because of the exertion just now, her white cheeks are flushing now, and because of emotional anger, her cold eyes are especially vivid, like stars reflected in the lake, shining with moving light.

Walter was supposed to be angry, but after she questioned her own words, he suddenly thought of something, then squinted his eyes and approached her with a deep voice.

"Are you... jealous?"

Ana was stunned, she was jealous?

"Huh? I'm concerned that I don't come home at night. I heard that you even called Phillip, worried that something happened to me?"

Ana didn't speak, but stubbornly opened her eyes and stared at him. Walter manually moved her chin up, and Walter leaned down, his cold thin lips almost touching her. .

"Answer me."

The tone is domineering and authoritarian.

Looking at his face close at hand, Ana could feel the cold breath of Walter in her breath, it was cold, like the smell of a quilt in the room for a long time in winter.

Ana shrank, and finally said slowly: "I can see through it."

With a word, Walter was stunned.

He originally thought that she would deny, or sophistry.

Unexpectedly... She actually admitted.

Ana smiled slightly in front of him, and the pink lips curled up: "It's just that I'm jealous, so do you want to stay away at night?"

Walter narrowed his eyes dangerously, and leaned forward for a few minutes. The tip of his nose and forehead touched her, and the chilly breath had enveloped her. Ana looked at his mountain-like eyebrows and her heartbeat suddenly It began to speed up unconvincingly.

He really... really moved her.

I can't control myself.

In front of him was his strong chest, and she had just taken a shower, so she squeezed her softly in front of his chest without reservation, because of his approach, Ana suddenly licked her lips nervously.

This small, inadvertent movement suddenly caused Walter's pupils to shrink, and then certain impulses almost broke out.

"Woman, did you do it on purpose?" He asked abusively, and when Ana spoke, he bowed his head and grabbed her red lips fiercely.

"Well."

The moment he grabbed the red lips, Ana couldn't hold back herself, and let out a loud cry.

This small hum seemed to touch a certain point of Walter. The fingers that were pinched on her chin turned into big palms to clasp her back of the head, and he held it down with some strength, making the kiss deeper and deeper.

The two of them met with each other, and Ana Shen took all his breath away. At first, she was still able to react. Later, the whole person turned into a pool of spring water, lying softly in his arms.

Walter didn't let her go. Instead, he caught her and kissed her for a while, after which his thin lips fell all the way down to her neck.

Ana stayed in a daze until her nightdress was pulled up, and then her body fell cold, she suddenly woke up, and then pushed Walter away.

"..." Walter was immersed in his own world, and was suddenly interrupted, frowning unhappily.

"Want to die?" He scolded her with a hoarse voice, obviously emotional.

Ana quickly finished finishing her clothes, and then pushed him: "Walter, you don't come here, do you think this will make me forget about your staying away at night?"

"Why?" Walter stared at her thoughtfully, "Because I don't come home at night, so you won't come home at night to avenge me?"

"So what?" Ana Shen bit her lower lip, her red lips that had just been kissed red and swollen were bitten by her white teeth, especially eye-catching, "You can do it, so can I."

"...You!" Walter was furious, "Listen clearly, what I can do doesn't mean that you can also. Apart from me, I don't allow you to interact with the men of his team anymore. Have you heard?"

Ana did not answer, but looked at him amused.

"What about you? I'm not allowed to associate with other men. Will you associate with other women by yourself?"

When he asked the last question, Ana felt his heartbeat suffocated, and she was almost ready to answer.

Speaking of this, Walter's eyes darkened a bit, and then the expression in his eyes became complicated, and then Ana Shen heard him ask: "I am dealing with other women, do you care?"

Ana: "..."

Almost blurted out, Ana said anxiously: "Aren't you nonsense?"

After speaking, Ana realized what she had just admitted. Her expression changed. She wanted to jump off Walter, but he caught her wrist.

“It seems you really care about it.”

“I just said nonsense about that sentence!” Ana Shen explained anxiously.

Walter’s lips curled up, “What you say is splashed water, and besides, it’s for me to hear that. There is no chance for you to take it back here in Walter!”

Ana stared at him blankly. After a while, her lips moved, and then she asked: “Okay, if I don’t take it back, what about you? Will you stay away at night in the future? You will carry me with other women?”

Hearing, Walter frowned, as if displeased by her words.

“Can it be done?” Ana asked without giving up.

Even now, she still couldn’t believe that Walter and Karla Han had a relationship, and she always believed that it was just a coincidence!

Walter’s thin lips pressed lightly, and suddenly stretched out his hand to rub her forehead: “Who said I didn’t return home at night because I was with other women? Did you see it with your own eyes?”

Ana: “...No, but is there something so important that prevents you from coming back for two days and nights? Can you tell me?”

Walter narrowed his eyes and stared at her dangerously.

“My business, you better ignore it.”

Hearing this, Ana couldn’t help laughing, her smile was very bitter.

“It seems that you just want me to care about you.”

After speaking, she let go of his hand, and then took the initiative to leave his thigh and stand some distance away from him.

“In that case, what qualifications do you have to ask me?”

Chapter 249

Walter frowned, staring angrily at the woman who was standing not far from him.

“Pardon?”

Ana Shen smiled bitterly, “What will happen if you say it again? Can you change your and my mind? Walter, since you don’t care about me, then you just leave my business alone!”

“I don’t care about you?” Walter snorted, and a dangerous light flashed through the dark eyes: “So, you want to fly with Curtis? Did I stop you?”

“Yes!” Ana didn’t know where her courage came from, and she actually responded loudly and had to fight him to the end: “So what?”

At that moment, Walter’s pupils dilated suddenly, and then began to shrink again. After hearing her confession, something climbed onto his heart, and then severely pinched his heart, making him almost slow. Not angry.

This damn woman!

Actually admitted in front of him that she wanted to be with her eldest brother?

Before he could ease his emotions, Ana Shen turned her back.

“I just like Big Brother. Big Brother is gentle, considerate, humble and courteous. He is much better than someone who is so arrogant and always want to control others. Walter, you always think I like you. Actually You are wrong, I don't like you at all. For a person like you, even if other men are dead in this life, I won't like you the least.”

After speaking, Ana took a step directly and left regardless of the reaction of the people behind.

Walter was sitting in the wheelchair, and his heart suddenly felt like being pierced by a needle. This inexplicable feeling made him frowned uncomfortably and stretched out his hand to press his chest.

Is... his heart hurts?

Because of that woman? It's so ridiculous!

Walter looked at her back, and after a while, his thin lips curled up with a sneer arc.

It was just a woman, and there was nothing to care about for Walter. He never needed a woman's presence on his Walter road.

Although that was the case, when Ana Shen lay back on her floor, her tears could not help but wet her eyes.

Those words she said were terrific, but she knew that those words actually only hurt her, maybe Walter didn't care what she said.

After hearing that he was going to take a bath, Ana thought of something, she still sat up, wiped the tears from her face, then got up and walked towards the suit she put on the shelf.

That suit is the one he wore before. If he sent the thing out, the box shouldn't be inside.

Ana Shen moved cautiously, like a thief. She reached into both pockets and touched it. After a while, she touched a small hard box.

Actually... is he still here?

Ana Shen stayed for a while and took out the box.

Sure enough, it was the little box that she saw that day, how could it still be with him?

Is it possible that she misunderstood him?

For an instant, Ana felt extremely guilty. If she really misunderstood him, then the things she just said hurt him...

Thinking of this, Ana stretched out her hand to open the box, and then she froze in place.

After a while, she closed the box with a wry smile, and put the box back in the pocket of the suit casually.

Ana stumbled forward.

When she lay down, she closed her eyes, tears streaming down in despair.

That box...is empty.

The pink stud earrings inside are no longer inside.

It was worn on Karla Han's ear.

When Karla Han mentioned the pair of earrings, her face was shy, and she stopped talking later, and later made her believe her.

What do you believe in her? Ana can't figure it out now.

Ana closed her eyes, and the words and things that Karla Han and Walter had said in the past were like watching flowers in her mind. Gradually, Ana fell asleep.

In the middle of the night, Ana woke up once, only to touch it to find that her pillows were all wet.

In desperation, she had to turn the pillow over to sleep. The room was quiet, she lay on her side and looked at the moonlight outside the window, and then slowly closed her eyes after a while.

Forget it, so be it.

Adult beauty is also a good thing.

After all, a woman who married her second time and was pregnant with other children.

Not worthy of happiness at all.

Tomorrow, she will ask Karla Han to speak clearly.

After thinking about it, Ana Shen found that her heart was calm, and she slept well that night. When she woke up the next day, she calmly got up and changed her clothes to wash, and then she sat in front of the dressing table and looked in the mirror. She painted carefully by herself.

Walter couldn't help frowning when he saw this scene.

Is this woman changing sex today? Having been married for so long, it was the first time he saw her sitting in front of a mirror doing makeup.

Actually, Ana rarely puts on makeup, but it doesn't mean that she doesn't. When she was a young girl, everyone got together and loved beauty, but time was not allowed, and she didn't have any extra thoughts.

She drew her eyeliner carefully in the mirror without shaking her hand. She drew the eyeliner very thin and beautifully. The eyeliner was drawn out in no time. The thin black eyeliner outlined the cold eyelid with a hint of smoke, Ana Start to curl the eyelashes again, and then apply mascara.

Then there was lipstick. When she had just painted the lipstick, she smashed her mouth in the mirror, and her entire lips looked very red.

Putting down the lipstick, Ana realized that she hadn't shadowed yet. When she was about to shadow herself, she found that there was an extra figure behind him.

It's Walter...

Through the mirror, Ana saw Walter staring at her gloomily.

"It's the first time you put on makeup." He said with a low voice and an ugly face.

Ana had already figured it out in her heart, so she raised her lips and smiled at him in the mirror: "Isn't it? When I become beautiful, I will naturally save you face, but...presumably you won't Need it."

She said the latter sentence very quietly. Walter couldn't hear it clearly, and only vaguely heard a little bit. he frowned and asked, "What nonsense are you talking about?"

Ana Shen came back to her senses and smiled at him in the mirror: “Did I say something? No? I just said, don’t you want face? I’m good-looking, don’t I give you a face?”

After that, Ana got up and went to the closet to pick a long light blue skirt and put it on. When she came out, she let down her hair. The waist-length blue silk was scattered on her shoulders, adding a touch of charm to her. .

Seeing Ana like this, Walter felt very uncomfortable for a while.

He pursed his thin lips and asked in a cold voice: “You want to go out?”

Hearing, Ana nodded: “Yeah, I plan to... today we will come out with Karla, we... haven’t been shopping together for a long time.”

Hearing Karla Han’s name, the expression on Walter’s face changed, his eyes seemed a little unnatural.

“Are you looking for her?”

Chapter 250

Ana nodded, “Is there any problem?”

When asked this sentence, Ana kept staring at Walter, trying to find out what different emotions were from him.

But for the first time, Walter did not look directly at her eyes, but looked at other places and said coldly: “No.”

“Oh, then I will continue to ask for leave today, I will go out first.”

After finishing speaking, Ana directly picked up her own bag and walked outside.

“Stop.” Walter suddenly stopped her.

After Ana’s steps, Walter didn’t notice that Ana’s face turned away from him without a smile, and she was totally different from when she faced him.

“Are you sure you are only looking for her? No one else?”

Hearing this, Ana turned around and smiled at Walter.

“Do you think I will go and date other men behind your back?”

Walter frowned unhappily, staring at her sharply like an eagle.

“Don’t worry, I don’t have that kind of interest. Besides, even if I really date a man, I won’t be so swagger in front of you.”

After saying this, Ana left the room directly.

Looking at her back, Walter didn’t know why there was a feeling as if there was something to lose.

This feeling caught him off guard.

Going downstairs, Ana happened to meet Curtis Ye who was about to go out.

When the two of them met in the air, a flash of surprise flashed in Curtis Ye’s eyes, but he quickly turned into doubts. Why did she suddenly dress like this when she was usually plain?

Before he could react, his steps had already moved towards her.

“Ana, want to go out?”

He asks.

Ana nodded: “Well, big brother early.”

The eldest brother’s claim made Curtis’s eyes darkened. After a while, he laughed as if he had figured out something: “Morning, what important person do you want to see if you dress so beautifully and go out today?”

“No, just go shopping with friends.”

“Do you need me to give you a ride?” Curtis Ye raised the key in his hand, “I just want to go out too.”

Ana originally wanted to refuse directly, but when she first looked up, the corner of her eyes seemed to see a familiar figure. Ana Shen paused, then nodded: “Okay.”

Curtis didn’t notice her reaction, he raised his lips: “Let’s go then.”

“Yeah.” Ana walked forward, Curtis suddenly raised his head, his gaze fell on the person upstairs from a distance, just to face those sharp eyes like falcons.

At this moment, he had always been gentle, and he pulled out a smile that was sure to get, and then turned around to follow Ana’s pace and parallel with her, “Have you had breakfast? Will you stop by for breakfast?”

Ana blinked, then nodded: “Okay.”

Curtis didn’t know what happened between her and Walter. How could she suddenly change so much, but it didn’t mean much to him. As long as Ana was willing to give him a chance to approach, he would have time to show her his heart.

This is enough.

After getting in the car, Ana took out her mobile phone to send Karla Han WeChat, and asked her to meet at the milk tea shop near the school today.

Hearing her talking about the milk tea shop, Karla Han replied with a question mark.

Then a WeChat message was sent quickly: "Why are you suddenly meeting at a milk tea shop?"

Ana replied calmly: "Suddenly want to drink milk tea over there, would you like to accompany me?"

There was silence over there for a long time, and then a good word was returned to her, Ana Shen told her about time, and then put the phone aside.

"Have an appointment with a friend?" Curtis Ye asked inadvertently when he saw her put down her phone.

Ana leaned on the car seat and nodded while looking at the receding trees outside the window.

Although the sun was sky at this time, and there were a lot of people in this city, and her clothes were quite thick, Ana still felt very cold, and...Very lonely.

Curtis drove the car and glanced at her, and found that her mood was different today, and he felt very bad.

He frowned and asked worriedly: "What happened?"

Hearing, Ana paused, then shook her head: “Nothing happened.”

“You are very wrong today.”

“Really?” Ana smiled faintly, and raised her lips: “It’s because of my dressing up.”

She spoke calmly and seemed to not take this matter seriously.

She couldn’t ask the result, and she didn’t plan to say, Curtis Ye had to give up, “What would you like for breakfast?”

“It’s okay for my eldest brother to call the shots, I don’t care.” Ana replied, then closed her eyes to rest.

Curtis looked tired when she saw her, so he didn’t talk to her anymore, but accelerated.

I don’t know how long it took before the car stopped. Ana fell asleep. She woke up after being called by Curtis Ye several times, and then she was helpless when she looked at Curtis Ye with a pair of wistful eyes. Staring at her pettingly: “Here, get ready to get out of the car.”

Ana stared at him blankly for a moment before she came to her senses.

“It is good.”

She unfastened her seat belt, and then wanted to rub her eyes, but Curtis Ye grabbed her hand, she looked up at him in amazement.

“Big brother?”

Curtis gave a low laugh, stretched out his fingers and flicked her forehead: “What do you think? If you put on makeup and rub your hands, the eye makeup will be lost.”

His voice was so gentle that it was caught in Ana’s heart like cotton.

Hearing what he said, Ana realized that she put on eye makeup and rubbed it with her hands.

Thinking of this, she nodded: “I see.”

Then she drew her hand back, just blinked, and then got out of the car following Curtis Ye.

When eating breakfast, Ana was still absent-minded. There were countless kinds of food in front of her with various fragrances, but the expression on her face was always faint and unmoved.

Curtis picked up a dumpling and put it in her bowl: “You don’t seem to be very interested in what you eat.”

He talked to himself, and Ana’s sanity was pulled back.

“Oh, its okay, it’s okay.” She smiled awkwardly, and then ate the dumpling.

It seemed that she was eating something colorless and tasteless. After watching this scene, Curtis Ye couldn’t help but frowned and put down his chopsticks.

“Ana, tell elder brother, what happened?”

Ana stared at him blankly.

“Between you and Walter, last night...what happened? Don’t try to lie to me, you have completely changed today.”

After thinking for a while, Ana smiled calmly: “Big Brother, you think too much. I was just thinking about where to go shopping with my friends. That’s why I lost my mind. It was not between me and Walter. What.”

Having said that, she paused, and then stared at Curtis Ye: “Did you forget what you said last night? You won’t force me to do anything, and you won’t force me to say anything?”

Curtis Ye choked for a while, and said helplessly for a moment: “Are you accusing me of being nosy?”

Chapter 251

“Forget it, since you don’t want to say it, my eldest brother won’t force you to say it.” Curtis Ye picked up another dumpling and put it in her bowl: “It’s just that you are too skinny. You need to eat more.”

“Well, thank you brother.” Ana thanked him, and then took another one.

Ana absentmindedly finished breakfast like this, and when Curtis Ye said goodbye to Curtis Ye, he was still worried that she was alone. He told her to leave alone for a long time.

Finally, Ana got on the bus alone. While on the bus, she fell into deep thought.

How on earth is she going to tell Karla Han this clearly today?

Ana was in a daze all the way. She didn’t know if she had taken the bus, until she realized that she had taken the station, she suddenly stopped and got off the bus.

After getting out of the car, Ana was depressed, and she reached out and twisted her sore eyebrows.

The phone vibrated, and Ana looked down and saw Karla Han sent a WeChat message, asking her why she hadn't arrived yet.

Ana Shen had no choice but to reply with a message: "I have taken a seat, come here now!"

Then when she was about to go to the opposite side to take the bus, a car stopped in front of her, and the window rolled down.

"Get in the car." Curtis Ye looked at her with gentle eyebrows.

Seeing Curtis Ye, Ana was a little surprised, staring at him in astonishment: "Why is the big brother here? You shouldn't..."

Have they gone? Obviously she has sat for several stops, so he shouldn't show up here again.

"Stupid girl, I think you're so uncomfortable in the morning, why don't you worry about taking the bus alone? But you don't want me to send you off, I have to follow you."

After speaking, Curtis Ye smiled again, and said warmly: "Hurry up and get in the car."

Karla Han was already waiting for her, and she was afraid it would take about ten minutes to pass this stop. Ana was embarrassed to let her wait again, so she had to get in the car quickly.

After getting in the car, Curtis Ye reminded her to fasten her seat belt, and then sent her to the scene.

“Go ahead and be safe.”

Curtis rubbed his head and told her to leave. Ana looked at him blankly, then nodded and left.

There was still a two-minute walk away from the agreed place, and Ana hurried to the agreed place.

Although not long after leaving school, this milk tea shop still has a lot of customers, and most of them are students nearby. The dressed-up Ana Shen is particularly eye-catching. When she enters the shop, she also attracts the attention of many people. How many people are there in the shop? A sluggish boy also whistled at her.

Ana Shen walked around without seeing it. She already saw Karla Han sitting in the corner.

Today, Karla Han still wears a pink skirt with a fluffy skirt, which looks like a little princess.

Karla Han was poking the pearl in the cup bored in every possible way. The expression on her face was very impatient. A boy wanted to ask her number, but she sneered and then scolded him: “Go away ugly, don’t look at yourself. What is it, is it worthy of me?”

The boy flushed with her scolding, “You, don’t give it if you don’t give it, why do you curse?”

Karla Han stared at him with an arrogant expression: “Do you know who I am? Dare to contact me for contact information? If you continue to verbalize, I might not just curse people!”

The boy was helpless, but timid, he had to turn around and walk away. Unexpectedly, he ran into Ana who was walking by. Ana was knocked back by him two steps and almost fell.

“Ah, I’m sorry!” The boy quickly apologized when he realized that he had hit someone. When he raised his head, he saw Ana’s appearance. He stood there with his eyes widened in surprise, his eyes showing amazing colors.

Unexpectedly, he was so lucky today, when he was rejected by a beauty, and unexpectedly ran into another beauty.

“Hello beauty, my name is...” The boy just wanted to talk to Ana, but Karla Han stood up and lifted him away, and said in an impatient tone: “You go aside, Ana, what you are doing? I’m just coming now, do you know I’m waiting for you...”

Having said that, Karla paused.

She stared at Ana, who was wearing a long skirt in front of her, “You, how are you...”

Ana smiled at her slightly, and then whispered to the man next to him: “I’m fine, you can go.”

After speaking, she went around and sat down opposite Karla Han. Karla Han was still in a daze, but the man was fascinated by Ana Shen’s smile. He stood there for a long time and couldn’t recover.

God, goddess!

It’s so gentle, and the smile looks good!

It took a long time for Karla Han to react. She looked at Ana Shen with complicated eyes. She didn’t know if she didn’t dress up before, but now that Ana Shen dresses up so seriously, her real temperament has emerged, very dazzling.

Although, she has light makeup.

But the gentle smile on her face and the temperament revealed by her cold eyes were really exactly the same as the woman in that photo.

Between gestures...Is this the power of blood?

Thinking of this, Karla Han's heart was shocked, no way! Such Ana is too similar to Madam Han. If Victor Han sees such Ana, something will happen.

But now there is no way, Karla Han can only suppress the panic in her heart and smile dryly at Ana: "Ana, you... why are you thinking about dressing up today? And you are still dressed so beautifully?"

Hearing, Ana glanced at her strangely: "Didn't you always want me to dress up? Now I have figured it out, women should really love themselves."

After speaking, Ana smiled at her: "Karla, don't you think it's good for me to be like this?"

The expression on Karla Han's face was stiff, and she nodded hard: "Very good, really good."

It's just that she becomes beautiful, and it becomes her threat.

Suddenly, Karla Han found that the little demon in her heart was starting to move frantically again.

Ana didn't know what she was thinking, but she could still see something in her expression, so she pretended to ask: "You don't seem to be happy?"

Hearing, Karla Han's expression changed, and she quickly defended herself: "What? How could this be possible? How could I be unhappy? When you become beautiful, I am too happy to be happy."

"Really? Then you say... After I become beautiful, will Walter like me?"

The expression on Karla Han's face was completely unbearable. She stared at Ana in a daze, "Ana, you...do you really like him?"

Ana Shen smiled faintly: "Yes, I just like him."

"But..."

"But what?"

"..." Karla Han hesitated to speak, and the scene of her saving herself appeared in front of her, and found that she couldn't say a word when she reached her lips.

Ana saw her looking at her speechless for a long time, and the smile on her face gradually faded. After a while, she went straight forward: "But you also like him, so we are rivals in love, aren't we?"

Chapter 252 Who Allowed You to Touch My Things?

"Ana!" Karla Han was shocked.

Compared with her, Ana is particularly calm.

"What you can't say, I'll say it for you."

Karla Han's face turned pale, staring at her like a ghost.

Ana chuckled and squeezed her cold cheeks: “Why look so surprised?”

“You, don’t talk nonsense.” Karla Han took down her hand and shook her head desperately: “I have nothing with Walter, and I don’t like him either! We are not rivals, we are good sisters.”

“Good sister...” Ana said these three words, lowered her head, her voice lower and lower: “We are indeed good sisters, but I didn’t expect that we would like the same person, and you would lie to me.”

“I didn’t lie to you!” Karla Han was really anxious, walked around to her to take her hand, and anxiously explained: “Ana, are you listening to nonsense? Is that Jessica right? Isn’t she again Provocative? You have to believe me, I really won’t talk to Walter...”

When she looked up, Ana saw the pair of pink earrings on her ears shining under the refraction of sunlight, as if to ironic Karla Han.

“Karla, do you know?” Ana took her hand and looked at her calmly: “I have seen the pink stud earrings on your ears.”

In a word, Karla Han completely stopped all movements.

Her lips opened, as if she wanted to say something to Ana, but she couldn’t say a word for a long time.

Ana smiled leisurely and said calmly: “Emotions are involuntary, I won’t blame you, but...I won’t forgive you for the same.”

After speaking, Ana got up, no longer looked at Karla Han, and looked at the door far away.

“From now on, we will no longer be good sisters.”

After Ana left, Karla Han stayed there for a long time before remembering to catch up with her to explain, but when she reached the door, Ana Shen's figure had disappeared.

For a while, Karla Han was so nervous that she didn't know how to deal with her. She didn't expect that this incident would be discovered by Ana so quickly. She wanted to keep it for a while. As long as she didn't say it, Ana's character should not be able to ask. .

Who knew she was so straightforward today.

Karla Han had to take out her cell phone and call Ana, but her cell phone turned off unexpectedly. There was no way. Karla Han was anxious and had to look around quickly.

After searching for most of the day, she didn't find Ana Shen's figure. In desperation, Karla Han had to go back first, but she received a call from Phillip midway, saying that Walter wanted to see her.

After hearing the news that Walter wanted to see her, Karla Han immediately put Ana's emotions and the whole person behind, and hurried over after asking the location excitedly.

When she arrived at the destination, she found Walter looking at her coldly, but Karla Han still walked over with a soft smile: "Walter, you are looking for me."

Seeing Karla Han, Phillip stepped aside two steps unconsciously, trying to stay away from her.

Although he knew the whole story, he just didn't like this woman. It was annoying to look at. He actually digs the corner of his good sister, and he digs so naturally. Seeing Walter, her eyes will stick to the look on him.

Walter didn't answer her words. He just glanced at her and saw the pair of pink earrings on her ears. His eyes suddenly became fierce like a falcon, and he grabbed her wrist and pulled her to him. Sideways.

"Who asked you to wear these ear studs?"

His voice was as cold as ice, as hard as a knife.

"Ah, it hurts!" Karla Han's wrist was red stamped by him, and her face turned pale with pain, but Walter still didn't mean to let her go, and looked at her angrily: "Who allowed you to move? My stuff? Say!"

Karla Han's tears fell from the pain, "It fell out of your suit pocket that night. I looked at it and liked it, so I just..."

"If you don't ask, you are stealing! Is Miss Stella lacking such a pair of ear studs?"

Seeing the pair of ear studs on her ears, I don't know why, Walter always felt that the pair of ear studs were stained.

When Ana put it on, he thought it was extremely pink and cute, but who knew she turned her head and left without buying it. So he went back and bought it later, ready to find an opportunity to give it to her.

But who knows that this woman was given the first step!

"I'm sorry!" Karla Han felt that her hand was about to be severed. The pain caused her tears to drop. She could only apologize to Walter constantly: "I'm really sorry, I really like these ear studs, that's why I will bring it and wear it. If you are angry, I will return it to you."

After speaking, she stretched out her other hand to untie the pair of earrings.

Who knows that Walter shook her hand directly, and said coldly, “No, even if you take it off, these ear studs are useless.”

Hearing that Karla Han’s movements were stuck in place, she looked at Walter in astonishment: “What do you mean by this?”

Phillip listened to the side and couldn’t help but fill the knife and said, “It means you stained the pair of ear studs. Really, how about Miss Stella’s quality? Why is the quality so bad? Take it away? It’s still not Miss Stella, pretending to be?”

It was originally a complaint, but this sentence pierced Karla Han’s heart, her eyes suddenly became fierce, and she stared at Phillip and said, “What are you talking about?”

Phillip was frightened by her vicious look, “What are your eyes?”

Walter’s eyes swept over, Karla Han immediately recovered her previous appearance, and became pitiful: “Walter, I’m really sorry...I didn’t intend to wear that pair of earrings, I just woke up at the time. When it arrived, I thought it was very good-looking. I thought you gave it to me, so I just... put it on. I really didn’t mean it. If you don’t like it, I won’t touch your things in the future.

After speaking, Karla Han quickly took off the ear studs and put them back in Walter’s palm.

“Return it to you, and I promise you that as long as you don’t let me touch it, I will never touch it again.”

The pair of pink earrings returned to Walter’s hands, but Walter looked annoying, and sneered, “you wear them all, do you think I will still want them?”

Karla Han's face turned pale, even the blood on her lips disappeared. She bit her lower lip and tremblingly said, "I see, you bought the pair of earrings for Ana, right? Really? I'm very sorry, if I knew that you were going to give it to Ana, I would never touch that pair of ear studs anyway!"

After that, Karla Han directly raised her hand and slapped her face: "It's me who is not good. I shouldn't show up in front of you. I will go to Ana and admit my mistake to her!"
