

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 277-282

Chapter 277

“So in other words, you gave Mr. Walter a chance to wait for him to give you a satisfactory answer?”

Speaking of this, Ana’s eyes faded a bit: “It’s been a few days now, is it a satisfactory answer or not?”

“Don’t worry about it. Since he has said to make you believe him, then you can give him some more time.”

Having said that, Jessica blinked her eyes, then began to analyze with his intuition.

“Look, I said before that Karla Han is a green tea bitch, right? So, I said Walter really likes you, then he really likes you.”

Ana: “...”

I heard from Jessica again that Karla Han is a green tea bitch. Ana Shen still feels a little uncomfortable. She frowned and just wanted to speak, but Jessica preemptively said: “Don’t refute me anymore. She does everything. If you have this kind of thing, if you speak for her again at this time, then I won’t help you anymore.”

Hearing that, Ana couldn’t help sighing, and said softly: “Actually...I don’t know the truth of the matter.”

“It doesn’t matter what the truth is, you just do it. She really wears the pair of earrings that Mr. Walter bought, isn’t she? No matter what she says or does, she can’t whiten herself. Ana, eyes should be brighter, don’t always It’s to wash her away with past memories. Maybe you were very good before, but I want to tell you the truth. There has never been someone who has changed suddenly. Maybe she approached you with purpose from the beginning.”

Ana: “she approached me with purpose from the beginning?”

“Yes! You met in college, so there must be something you can use.”

When she was in college, did she have something to use?

Ana thought for a long time, and shook her head distressedly: “I haven’t had any shining points on my body, it’s impossible for you to say it.”

“You don’t think there’s a shining point, maybe you don’t know it, but she knows. Just like this time you marry Mr. Walter, she will take Walter away from you. Ana, if it wasn’t for you with that pair of ear studs, would you know that Karla Han did these things behind your back? Maybe... She has taken away a lot of your things invisibly, but you discovered this time.”

Ana: “...”

“You are too conspiracy theory, maybe she just happened to like Walter, so she had to—”

“You are so annoying! When do you want to comfort yourself? She is like this and you still protect her? Ana, do you want me to slap you to wake you up? Or, she takes everything around you You will wake up when everything is taken away?”

Ana stared at her blankly, Jessica was puffed up with her angry cheeks, obviously furious about her.

The two looked at each other for a moment, and Ana suddenly lowered her eyes, and her whole body was lifeless.

“But, how do you want me to believe? Is this kind of good sister I have been with for so long? She has been helping me in the past days.”

Karla Han has always been doing things for her, including asking her to find the strange man on the rainy night.

Moreover, she always made suggestions for her before, and even hoped that she would live a happy life and wanted to push her into Curtis Ye’s arms. She didn’t want to believe that she had done it deliberately.

Jessica was silent for a moment.

She sat down beside Ana and suddenly understood Ana Shen’s mood.

Yes, the good sisters of the past so many years suddenly said that the sister had betrayed her, and no one would believe it easily.

Unless, she can hear Karla Han’s admission.

But that woman was so treacherous that it was impossible for her to admit it.

Thinking of this, Jessica sighed, “I know you feel uncomfortable, but sometimes it may not be the truth in front of you, but it has its reasons. Karla Han will do this to explain many problems, no matter what the result is. Yes, you have to accept it. I am here today to see how you are. Now that I find that you are fine now, then I should go back.”

Hearing that she was leaving, Ana suddenly became nervous, “Are you going back? I still want to keep you here for dinner.”

Jessica smiled faintly: “Do you think I don’t want to stay for dinner? But I have to go back to work? I’m not like you! I didn’t find a long-term meal ticket, and I didn’t know one at the anniversary party last time. Okay, it’s all you! If it wasn’t for saving you, I would have won the championship early, and then bathed in the spotlight, all good men can see me. Maybe...Is the old lady in love now? “

After hearing this, Ana seriously commented: “The brain hole is huge.”

“Fk you, I will go first, and I will come to see you another day.”

After Jessica left, Ana Shen fell into deep thought again alone.

She really didn’t believe that Karla approached her with purpose, and even after this incident she thought, since they are happy, she will be the one who left.

I didn’t expect...

Ana Shen lowered her eyes, feeling her thoughts drifting to before.

When Walter came back, the room was empty, and several maids were packing up the things on the table, leaning together and talking about something.

At this time in the past, Ana would talk and laugh with them.

Walter could see it as soon as he walked in, but Ana was missing today.

“Master, you are back.” Zhu Yun stepped forward and asked respectfully.

Without seeing Ana’s figure, Walter felt a sense of gap in his heart. He pursed his thin lips and looked at her questioningly.

Knowing what he was asking, Zhu Yun explained: “Young lady doesn’t seem to have any appetite today, so she went back to the room to rest. Master, young lady seems to be in a bad mood.”

Hearing, Walter frowned, didn’t he let Jessica come to see her? Why are you in a bad mood?

Thinking of this, Walter nodded: “I see, you all go back first.”

“Yes.”

Walter entered the room. The room was completely dark. He frowned and found the switch. After turning on the light, he found that there was no one in the room.

The room was empty, as if no one had ever lived in it.

At that moment, only one thought emerged in Walter’s mind.

That is...Ana ran away!

Immediately, the aura on Walter’s body suddenly changed, with blue veins on his forehead bulging, and he turned the wheel out of the room angrily.

This damn woman actually wants to escape again, does she think she can escape?

Even though Walter was sitting in a wheelchair, his speed was so fast that no one was seen.

He went directly to Ana. When he went out, he was angry and didn’t notice a figure sitting on a wooden board not far from the coast. Ana was sitting there, quietly holding her knees and looking at the sea at night.

The sea under the moonlight is more beautiful than during the day, and a bright moon is reflected on the sea, and there is a feeling that the world is at this time.

Chapter 278

Ana's originally irritable mood, after sitting down and blowing the sea breeze, the anxiety in her heart has disappeared a lot.

The sea breeze at night is strong and cool.

A little bit cold, but my heart is very cheerful.

At this time, Walter should be back, right?

Then she will sit back for a while.

Walter thought that Ana had escaped, so he gathered everyone together, and everyone rummaged through the villa, but Ana was not found.

Everyone knew that Walter had found Ana missing in their room, so naturally they didn't want to go to the room to look for it. The guards of the door were questioned many times, and the answer was that they didn't see it, or No one went out at all.

But a good person, neither going out nor in the villa area, can she disappear out of thin air?

"Young Master Ye, we searched everywhere, but we didn't see Grandma!"

Listening to the report that came from his hand, Walter's face was extremely bad, and his tone was cold and authentic: "Look again, send a few people out to find, and investigate and monitor by the way."

Everyone looked for another circle, but still no one was found.

When Zhu Yun came back, his face was not very good, and his eyes were full of fear.

“Mr. Walter, we really searched all the places, but we didn’t find anyone... Mr. Walter...”

“What do you want to say?” Walter glanced at him, his eyes dangerous.

Zhu Yun shivered with fright, but finally he courageously said: “Couldn’t... the young grandma never left the room? There was only one exit where we were at that time. If the young grandma wants to go out, she will definitely pass by, but none of us saw the young grandma going out there. So I guess, maybe the young grandma is still in her room?”

Hearing, Walter frowned unconsciously, and then solemnly said after a while: “There is no one in the room.”

Zhu Yun and Yiganren looked at each other.

“Wait.” Walter suddenly remembered something, because the best room for her, the room has only one exit, but there is another exit in the room, only that leads to the seaside.

Could it be...?

Walter suddenly remembered something, and his face changed suddenly: “You are waiting here, I will go back to the room to find her myself.”

The crowd hadn’t reacted yet, Walter had disappeared.

“Zhu Yun, what did you mean by that? Is the young lady still in the room?”

Zhu Yun smiled slightly: "It might be possible, but this is the first time that I have seen Mr. Walter look so nervous."

"Yeah, it's the first time I have seen Mr. Walter get angry, and I feel that Grandma is so happy."

Ana blew a bit cold, and after calculating the time in her heart, when she was about to go back, she suddenly heard a roar.

"Stupid woman, you really are here."

Hearing that, Ana turned her head abruptly and saw a figure suddenly appeared on the calm wooden board.

The figure was sitting in a wheelchair, reflected in the light, and the outline of determination was looming in the light, giving people a very unreal feeling.

Before Ana could react, the person had already reached her, and suddenly reached out with a big hand and grabbed her from the ground into his arms and hugged her.

"Ye... Um." Ana just wanted to call his name, her lips were kissed hard just as soon as she spoke.

His kiss came turbulent, like a rushing ocean, pushing her up and down so that her head was dizzy. It took a long time for Ana to recover and push him hard: "What's wrong with you?"

His kiss today was not the same as before, it swallowed her like a beast, and it was not at all uncomfortable.

Walter hugged her and gnawed for a while before giving up, his big hands held her waist tightly, and his voice was low, "You have always stayed here? Didn't you go anywhere?"

Hearing, Ana was a little inexplicable: “Where can I go?”

“What happened to you?”

“Nothing.” Walter closed his eyes and buried it in her neck, but Ana Shen still heard it. His voice was trembling, as if he was afraid of something. She stayed here all the time and didn’t know what was going on, so she could only stretch out her hand and hug Walter’s neck at this moment: “What happened?”

Walter did not answer, but still held her tightly.

The sea breeze caused Ana to shiver and tremble. Walter realized that her body was wet when he hugged Ana. After he hugged her, even her shirt was always wet, and the clothes were sticky. On the body, the sea breeze was so cold.

“You stupid woman, how long have you been sitting here? Your clothes are all wet?”

“Just accidentally... a wave came over, and then accidentally got wet, but luckily it didn’t get too wet, I was about to go back to find you...”

Knowing that she had been sitting here, Walter’s fear and anger just disappeared all at once, and replaced by lost and recovered. She was still here, she did not run. But the dampness on her body and the coldness of her hands and feet made him feel terribly distressed. For a while, Walter could be said to have mixed feelings, and hugged her up: “Stupid woman, the clothes are so wet, you too. Don’t you know how to take a shower? What if you catch a cold later?”

After speaking, Walter brought Ana into the room.

Ana lied in his arms and laughed softly: "Isn't you here? Besides, I just wanted to go back, and you happened to be here."

"So this is to blame me?" Walter asked rhetorically.

Brush...

The glass door was pulled open, and Walter took Ana into the bathroom and opened the shower.

When the hot water came down, Ana reacted and screamed: "Ah, why did you come in too? Get out!"

Hot water washed over the two of them, dampening Ana's hair. She anxiously wanted to get up and leave and push Walter out, but Walter grabbed her fingers: "What's pushing pme? The clothes are also wet."

As the mist rose, Ana stared at him dumbfounded: "You...wouldn't you also want to wash together here?"

"Yeah." Walter happily curled the corners of his lips: "Wash it together."

After staying for a few seconds, Ana reacted violently: "I don't want to wash with you, you wash first, I want to go out."

After walking a few steps, Walter still didn't let go of her finger, but raised his hand to close the bathroom door.

"We are a husband and wife, what happened to the washing together? It's not that we didn't see..."

Ana's face turned red all of a sudden, yes, even though they were a husband and wife taking a bath together, it didn't matter, but... she still didn't have the courage to face him naked, then... how could it be possible?

Thinking of this, Ana blushed and gritted her teeth and rejected him: "I don't want to. Anyway, either you wash it first, or I wash it myself, or I don't wash it, so I can't wash it together!"

As soon as the voice fell, Walter was already unbuttoning her shirt.

Chapter 279

His strength is so strong that Ana's resistance is useless, so she can only rebuke him loudly: "Walter, what are you doing? Stop it!"

Walter didn't seem to hear her, and the movement of his hands kept on.

Ana was confused, and quickly reached out to hold down his tumbling big hand: "Don't mess with my buttons!"

As the mist rose, Walter saw that Ana's white face became rosy, and the shame under her eyes became more obvious. He couldn't help but curl his lips and said, "If you don't unbutton it, how do you take a bath?"

Ana's blush was almost bleeding. She endured the urge to push Walter away and stretched out her hand to protect the buttons on her Weibo clothes, "Don't be like Walter, let me go."

"What are you shy?" The more she resisted, the more Walter wanted to get close to her. The clothes of the two were already wet with hot water, and Walter forced Ana to lie on his body.

Ana panicked and called his name: "Walter!"

“Yeah.” He replied, and his big hand leaned in through the hem of her clothes.

“Don’t forget, you are the one who can’t put out the fire after you set it on fire!”

Hearing, Walter’s movements became stiff, and even the smile at the corners of his mouth stiffened. After a while, he slowly released his restraint on Ana.

Yes, after catching the fire, but taking care of her body, so you can’t touch her.

Then why bother taking a mandarin duck bath with her here?

Thinking of this, Walter gave a wry smile: “That’s what I said, then you wash it first, and it’s done.”

After speaking, Walter really let go of her, then turned around and went out.

Ana was stunned, and stared blankly at Walter as he got wet all over his body and went out, with drops of water dripping on his body, making her dumbfounded.

At first she thought he would not let her go, but she didn’t expect him to let her go so soon...

For some reason, Ana felt a little sorry when she saw his clothes were wet, and couldn’t help calling him: “Walter...”

Walter’s movements paused. After a while, he turned his head and stared at her gently: “If you don’t hurry up, I’ll be really rude to you if you call me again.”

He closed the door easily, and only Ana was left in the bathroom, because considering that Walter’s clothes were all wet, she quickly finished washing and then put on clean clothes and went out.

There was no one in the room. Zhu Yun was wiping the water stains on the floor, and he smiled when she saw her come out: "My grandma is ready to wash? You wait a moment, I will clean up here and blow your hair."

After speaking, Zhu Yun quickly bent over and started to work.

Ana looked at the way her waist was rubbing hard, and she couldn't stand it.

"No, I can just blow it myself. You can go back and rest as soon as you finish cleaning up. It's already late."

When Zhu Yun heard this, he looked at her moved: "Thank you, young lady, by the way, Mr. Walter is washing in the next room."

He cleaned up the ground in an instant and got up again and went out. Ana thought she was going back to rest, so she quickly took a dry towel and wiped her hair. After sitting for a while, Zhu Yun came back quickly, he held a cup in her hand in front of Ana.

"I heard Mr. Walter said that the young lady's clothes were wet after sitting at the beach for a long time. I was afraid that you would catch the cold, so I specially cooked the cold soup for the young lady. The young lady should drink it while it is hot."

Ana: "...this..." She paused, and looked at the hot-smoke quenching soup in front of her, Ana always felt that everything was unreal.

From childhood to adulthood, she was taken care of so well for the first time.

Never thought that there would be this day before.

"Thank you." Ana glanced at Zhu Yun gratefully, then drank the cup of cold water.

Zhu Yun likes Ana. Although she is a young grandmother, she doesn't have any airs. The pair of Walter and Ana are different from other wealthy ladies and young masters. They all think they are rich. I feel superior to others, never put them in the eyes of servants, usually scolded loudly for not doing a little thing well.

You may be beaten if you are not careful, but there is no way...

In order to receive that high salary, everyone has to endure this harsh responsibility.

But since they came here, they have enjoyed the freedom they have never had before. Even though Walter always has a cold face, he won't give you a good face, and his words are cold, but in his eyes it is only alienated. He will never criticize them as long as they stay safe.

To them, that man is like a god.

"Young grandma, rest early after drinking, I'll leave first."

"Ok."

After people left, Ana continued to blow-dry her hair. Walter hadn't come back when she had blow-dried her hair and was about to rest. She had to go to the next door to take a look, and she heard the sound of water. The ground is flowing, hasn't this guy been washed yet?

Ana didn't bother to wait for him, and she was too sleepy, so he went back to her room and lay down to sleep.

Then she slept in a dazed room, feeling that the bedside position collapsed a little, and then a slightly cool body stuck to her, and then wrapped her waist, the bed was very warm, this coolness meant that Ana would not He shrank consciously, and his body subconsciously moved forward and wanted to leave the cool body behind.

The person behind was taken aback for a while, lying on the bed for a while, waiting for the temperature of his body to burn all over his body, then he put on and hugged her.

This time, Ana did not run away.

Sleep well all night.

When Ana woke up the next day, she found her cell phone lying quietly on her bedside table, and there was a note left by Walter on the table, telling her to remember to eat breakfast.

Ana's heart was warm, and it seemed that Walter was willing to let her communicate with the outside world.

Thinking of this, Ana got up to wash, and Zhu Yun was chatting with her during breakfast. Ana Shen found that only Zhu Yun had an unsightly face and lacked energy.

"What's wrong with you?" Ana asked suspiciously.

Hearing that, Zhu Yun replied: "They looked for the young lady for a long time last night, and then they were all scared. They had insomnia when they went back, so they didn't seem to be in good spirits."

Ana frowned: "Have been looking for me for a long time? Haven't I been here all the time? Has something happened?"

"Young grandma, don't you know?" Zhu Yun told Ana about what happened last night, and Ana suddenly realized after listening.

No wonder that when Walter found her last night, he pulled her into his arms and hugged her tightly, and then said some strange things. It turned out...that there was such a twist.

Thinking about this, Ana glanced at the phone placed on the desktop.

So before last night, Walter had been worried that she would run away from here, so he never wanted to return the phone to her. Did he return the phone to her after knowing her thoughts?

Chapter 280

“My grandmother, Mr. Walter really cares about you.” Zhu Yun saw her lowering her eyes and said nothing, for fear that she was thinking wildly or accidentally misunderstood Walter, so he quickly explained to Walter.

Hearing, Ana came back to her senses, looked at Zhu Yun in front of him, and smiled: “You can speak for me very well.”

Zhu Yun blushed, as if embarrassed.

“My grandmother laughed. I’m not speaking for Mr. Walter. Zhu Yun is telling the truth. My grandmother knows it in her heart, right?”

Yes, Ana Shen knows this time.

It’s not that she is being passionate about him, and Walter is also interested in her.

As long as this...is enough.

Thinking of this, Ana smiled slightly.

Since Walter was worried about her, she should stay in the villa for the time being and wait for the news.

It's just that she thought she could live peacefully until Walter brought news to her. Although she was waiting every day, she would be anxious at first, but at the end she felt it became a habit, and she would look forward to the night every night. Walter came back to tell her the new news.

But even if he didn't talk about it after he came back, she wouldn't ask more.

She thought, as long as there is new news, he will not hide it from her.

Ana Shen kept waiting, but finally waited for the news.

But it was not Walter who gave it to her, but Karla Han.

Karla Han sent her WeChat and said that she wanted to see her.

For some reason, the WeChat message Karla Han sent her actually gave Ana Shen a heavy feeling. Ana Shen had a very vague premonition, always feeling as if something was going to happen.

She and Karla Han are good sisters for so many years. After making things clear last time, she felt that she would probably never see her again in the future.

So she replied: "I have nothing to say with you."

"Ana, even if it's the last time, don't you want to see me?"

The last side?

Ana's heart felt a little when she saw this word.

“What do you mean?”

“Just say if you want to see me!” But the other party’s attitude was very tough, and she had to meet her.

Ana was helpless, to be honest, she was soft-hearted to Karla Han, she helped herself so much, she really couldn’t hate her. Now she said such a weird thing, like the kind of tone that would be short-sighted.

If not, it is fine, but what if it is?

In case something should happen to her, Ana might regret her death for the rest of her life.

“Tell me the time and place.”

In the end, Ana compromised, and it took a long time for Karla Han to send her an address.

After reading the address, she found out that it was a hotel. She frowned and her feelings of anxiety grew.

Ana put away the phone, then said to Zhu Yun: “I want to go out today, can I?”

Zhu Yun froze for a moment, then smiled and wanted to tell her after a moment: “The young grandma and the young master really have a good heart. This morning, the young master has just secured your access control. From now on, you can come and go freely, and there is a dedicated driver for the young woman to call.”

Ana: “...it doesn’t need to be so troublesome, it’s just that the terrain here is intricate, so I have to trouble you to take me to the door.”

“Young grandma, don’t worry, Zhu Yun will take you there later.”

After that, Ana changed her clothes casually, and then led by Zhu Yun to the door. Zhu Yun probably said hello in advance. There was already a car waiting at the door.

“My grandmother, just tell the driver where you are going, and the driver will escort you there.”

Originally, Ana wanted to go by herself. After all, she was in the past to find Karla Han. She felt that she had something to say clearly to her.

“it is good.”

After getting in the car, Ana reported the address to the driver, “Excuse me, please take me here.”

“Young grandma, you are polite, I will take you there.”

The driver is an elderly uncle, with a kind eyebrows, and a very gentle speech.

After Ana arrived at the destination, she wanted the driver to go back first. Who knew that the driver said he was waiting for her downstairs, and then he was a little worried: “My grandmother, the hotel is so complicated, I’ll accompany you up, or else the time will come. I can’t explain anything.”

Ana Shen originally wanted to refuse, but the driver’s uncle said: “I will be at the door when the time comes, so don’t worry about my grandmother.”

“I came to see my friend, she said she is here, thank you Uncle.”

“Just call me Uncle Jin.”

“Thank you Uncle Jin.”

Ana entered the hotel together with Uncle Jin, and then took the elevator to the room Karla Han said.

After arriving, Ana rang the doorbell, and Uncle Jin consciously stood in the corner next to her. After Ana Shen pressed for a long time, no one came to open the door.

Ana had to send a WeChat message to Karla Han saying that she had arrived, and Karla Han still had no response in the past few minutes.

The uneasiness in her heart became bigger and bigger. When Ana just wanted to call Karla Han, she found that the door of the hotel was hidden and not locked.

It seemed to be deliberately hiding like this, waiting for her to come.

After staying for about five seconds, Ana reacted abruptly and stepped straight into the door.

The hotel room was quiet, there was no one, and there was a bottle of red wine on the table.

The familiar pink jacket and bag were placed on the sofa, and the high-heeled foot was kicked aside. The scene looked nothing unusual, but...Ana's heart had been alarming.

“Karla? I'm here, where are you?”

No one answered her question, the surroundings were still quiet, and Ana could even hear her breathing.

“Karla, Karla Han, what the hell are you doing?” After speaking, Ana walked around looking for Karla Han’s traces. When she passed the bathroom, she heard a tick tick, like a drop of water falling on the ground.

Ana’s steps stopped, and after a while she slowly turned around and pushed open the bathroom door.

After seeing the scene in the bathroom, Ana’s face instantly turned pale, like a ghost against the light, she trembled uncontrollably, and then screamed: “Karla!”

Uncle Jin stood by the door so that he could go in in time when there was a noise in the room. Who knew that he heard Ana’s cry after a while, he felt something was wrong, so he walked to the door and saw Ana staggering Ran towards him.

“Jin, Uncle Jin, call for an ambulance...”

Uncle Jin didn’t understand what was going on inside, but Ana’s face was as pale as a ghost, it really scared him. He quickly took out his cell phone and called an ambulance, and rushed into the hotel room after he finished the call, “Young grandma. ,what happened?”

Ana trembled with fright, but still tried to calm down and said, “Uncle Jin, come and help me.”

Uncle Jin followed her to the bathroom. After seeing the scene in the bathroom, an old man who had lived for most of his life couldn’t help his eyes widening and sweating

Chapter 281

Karla Han committed suicide.

This happened unexpectedly. Faced with this situation for the first time, Ana almost passed out looking at the large pool of bright red blood in the bathroom, but she knew she could not.

If she faints, who will save Karla? So she could only endure the fear in her heart, and let Uncle Jin follow her to lift Karla Han out of the bathtub, and the blood on Ana's lips faded away. Uncle Jin's strength was so strong that he hugged Karla Han to the sofa, and Ana stepped forward and held her hand, trying to prevent the blood from flowing out.

"No, I can't stop it. Uncle Jin... I'm afraid I won't be able to wait for the ambulance." Ana's voice was trembling, she thought about it, and then firmly said: "Uncle Jin, I am afraid I will trouble you. Help me pick her up in the car and we will go directly to the nearest hospital."

Uncle Jin is a man after all, and he has seen many things. He was shocked at first, but now he has calmed down.

He nodded, and went forward to hug Karla Han directly: "I will hug her downstairs now."

"Okay." Ana walked out with him quickly, taking out her mobile phone and opening the map navigation to find the nearest hospital.

After finding out, she thought of something, and hurriedly sent a WeChat message to Karla Han's older brother, Victor Han, to ask him to come to the hospital.

After arriving downstairs, the people in the hotel lobby were so frightened that they were actually holding a person covered in blood. They wanted to come forward to give condolences, but Ana rebuffed him and said, "Lock this guest's room first. Stand up."

“Yes, yes!” The person didn’t know which room she was talking about, and they hurried to check the surveillance after they left.

After getting in the car, Ana kept pressing Karla Han’s hand. Uncle Jin had already drove to the nearest hospital according to her instructions, but even recently, it took a full ten minutes. Ana can be said to be distraught and unable to calm down. .

Now she is like an ant on a hot pot.

“Ana...” A weak voice came from the side, and Ana lowered her head to see Karla Han opened her eyes and looked at her with pale lips.

Looking at her like this, Ana felt terribly sad, her eyes flushed and she bit her lower lip and said cruelly: “Don’t talk, the hospital will be here soon.”

“No... Don’t...” Karla Han shook her head, and said palely: “Don’t save me, I...I don’t want to live anymore.”

“What silly thing are you talking about?” Ana scolded her, gritted her teeth and said: “Now you close your eyes and rest. We will be at the hospital in a few minutes. The doctor will definitely save you and you must live.”

“Ana...” Karla Han was crying, still calling her name.

Guangqiao couldn’t bear to look at her again. The tears were already rolling in her eyes. She turned her head and didn’t let Karla Han see her tears, and said cruelly: “Even if you want to die, don’t let me die.”

“I’m sorry.” Karla said vaguely, and then fainted when he rolled her eyes.

“Karla! Karla!” When Ana saw Karla Han fainted, her face became paler in fright, “Uncle Jin, please drive faster! I’m afraid she won’t work...oo...”

Before she finished speaking, Ana was already crying.

She held Karla Han and kept pressing her acupuncture points with her hands to prevent the blood from flowing out. She was so scared, really scared.

The surroundings seemed to have turned into the gloomy little room before. It was dark and deep, with no fingers visible, but she was the only one who was alone, and the darkness fell on her face, almost overwhelming her.

“No, don’t...” Ana bit her lower lip firmly, a bloody smell appeared in her mouth, and the pain made her sober up.

She can’t fall down!

Can’t!

She fell, and Karla Han was no longer rescued.

“Uncle Jin, hurry up!”

Ana urged again.

Finally, the car finally rushed to the hospital. The doctors and nurses who received the news in advance were already waiting at the entrance of the hospital. Seeing that they were all covered in blood and got out of the car, they quickly carried the stretcher and hugged Karla Han to pick it up.

“Quick! There are emergency patients, get on the cart and go to the emergency room immediately.”

Ana followed them vainly, because she had been staying with Karla Han, so the blood on her body was not less than that of Karla Han, and the appearance of the two looked shocking.

“Doctor, how is she? Did she lose too much blood?” Ana asked with a trembling voice with red eyes.

The doctor said while doing first aid for her: “Are you her friend? Don’t worry, when she enters the emergency room later, you should clean up the blood on your body. Too much blood is unhygienic.”

Uncle Jin ran with them, and Karla Han kept entering the emergency room. Ana still stupidly wanted to follow it, but she was stopped at the door before Ana’s steps stopped.

Boom!

After the door of the emergency room was closed, Ana felt that all the nerves were still tight. She kept biting her lower lip, her heart hanging high.

Uncle Jin stood there for a while, and found that she had been standing there, motionless, looking very scary.

He can only step forward and say: “Young lady, there is a chair over there, would you like to sit?”

Ana stood there as if she hadn’t heard him.

Uncle Jin persuaded her a few words, but she still ignored him. In the end, Uncle Jin had no choice but to quickly walk to a quiet corner and take out his mobile phone to make a call to Walter.

And Ana, who had been standing still, seemed to realize something at this moment, and she suddenly turned her head to look at Uncle Jin.

“Uncle Jin, are you calling Walter?”

Hearing, Uncle Jin stopped halfway through his fingers. He turned his head and glanced at Ana strangely: "What's the matter, grandma?"

"Are you calling him?" Ana remembered something and rushed forward:
"Don't call him."

"My grandmother, why? With such a big incident, I think it's better to tell Mr. Walter."

"No." Ana said coldly: "This matter has nothing to do with him. The one inside is my friend. Don't call him."

Uncle Jin looked at her ugly face and had a particularly strong tone. He thought Ana didn't want Walter to worry, so she refused. He had to put away the phone: "Since the young lady won't let him hit, then Uncle Jin put it away. I'm watching here, so grandma, go and tidy it up."

Ana glanced down at her clothes and said in a low voice, "I don't have any clothes to change and wash. How to tidy up? Forget it, I'm fine, just wait for her here."

"Will the young lady go to the chair in front and sit for a while?"

"The blood on my body will stain the chair."

Because her whole body was blood, the family members of other patients waiting outside all hid away, not daring to approach her a bit.

After all, Ana's appearance is terrible now, her whole body is bright red, her eyes are crimson, and her messy hair looks terrible.

But fortunately, she is a girl. If he is a man, everyone will almost think she is a murderer.

Chapter 282

Ana didn't care about their gazes. She waited at the door of the emergency room. She had to wait here until Karla Han was safe before she could leave.

The phone in her hand was vibrating, and Ana picked it up and took a look, only to find that the screen was also stained with blood, and it seemed that Su Jiu had called her.

Ana grabbed the clothes and wiped the blood on the screen. Who knew the clothes were stained with blood, the more they wiped it, the dirtier they got. In the end, Ana had to answer the phone.

“Hey?”

While speaking, Ana's voice was still trembling.

“Miss Shen? Was it you who sent Mr. Victor WeChat?” Su Jiu's voice came, asking her for confirmation.

“It's me.” Ana nodded and took a deep breath, trying to make her voice sound calmer: “Are you here?”

There was silence on the other side for a while, and then a cold and steady male voice changed.

“On the way there, tell me first what happened.”

Ana wanted to tell him, but when the words reached her lips, she couldn't say a word.

She couldn't tell Victor Han that Karla committed suicide lightly, and she still couldn't believe that everything just now was true.

Thinking of this, she closed her eyes and said exhaustedly: “You will know when you come here. I will not lie to you. I will wait for you at the door of the emergency room.”

After finishing speaking, Ana hung up the phone without waiting for the other party to ask questions again.

Toot toot——

The busy tone from the phone made Victor Han frowned.

Su Jiu sitting aside looked at him suspiciously, “Mr. Victor?”

Hearing, Victor Han recovered, and glanced at him sideways: “Speed up, go to the hospital.”

Su Jiu nodded and suggested to the driver in front: “Brother Lin, please hurry up.”

“Ok!”

Both of them looked bad, because Ana sent Karla Han only one sentence, that is, something happened to his sister, so he should go to the hospital.

Her voice trembled like that. If it weren't something particularly loud, how could it be?

It is probably... Su Jiu just dared to think in his heart.

As time passed by, Ana felt as if she had been waiting for a light-year. She looked at the corridor countless times, but she still didn't see Victor Han's figure, and she was desperately anxious.

At this time, she felt that she needed to call Karla Han's relatives over. She had shed so much blood just now, and she was really afraid of something.

Lowering her eyes, Ana was so upset in her heart that she would be fine if she arrived earlier, but why did she walk so slowly?

Just thinking about it, a steady sound of footsteps came along with the sound of high-heeled shoes. Ana raised her head and looked at the exit of the corridor, and he saw two familiar figures.

It is Victor Han and Su Jiu.

Seeing Victor Han's steady eyes, Ana didn't know why. At this moment, it was as if she had seen a loved one. The tears that she had been enduring just now almost gush out to prevent the tears from falling. Ana quickly bit her lower lip and turned her head. Go, no longer look at Victor Han's eyes.

She felt that she was really rude.

That obviously Karla Han's elder brother, but why does she always think of him as her elder brother? If she let Karla know, she has to make fun of her.

"What happened?"

While thinking about it, Victor Han's voice had already sounded behind her, and she was held by someone on her shoulders, and then she was turned around, just to meet Victor Han's eyes.

The breath on her body is particularly family-like, and she feels safe.

The soreness between Ana's nose was heavier, she bit her lower lip and couldn't say a word, but tears kept falling.

She cried so badly all of a sudden, and looking at her blood all over, Victor Han only felt that his heart was trembling, as if something sharp was piercing his heart.

Su Jiu on the side saw Ana Shen like this, guessing that she might not be able to tell the whole story, so he directly looked at Uncle Jin standing next to her, "Excuse me, if you know what happened, please follow us. Say it."

Uncle Jin didn't really know the whole story, but it was okay to convey the process. So he simply explained the incident of going out to the hospital in the morning. Su Jiu and Victor Han stood together, so he could hear Uncle Jin the words said.

Victor Han frowned: "The person inside is Karla now?"

Ana nodded, "Sorry, if I found out earlier, maybe..."

Victor Han interrupted her: "Wait for the result first, you have to deal with it, Su Jiu."

Su Jiu reacted and immediately went forward to help Ana: "Miss Shen, I will accompany you to deal with it. There is Mr. Victor here, don't worry."

"It is good."

When Victor Han came, Ana felt more at ease, so he nodded and left with Su Jiu.

Su Jiu took her to a nearby hotel for treatment, and then went to a nearby store to buy a set of clothes of the same size as Ana, and then returned to the hotel. Ana just changed into it after she came out of the shower.

There was too much blood on her body. It took a long time to wash away the blood stains. When she came out, she put on the clothes Su Jiu brought her, and Ana said anxiously: "Then let's go to the hospital."

"Miss Shen, don't worry. I have already contacted Mr. Victor just now. Ms. Han is still undergoing emergency treatment. Even if Ms. Shen can't get in now, she can only wait outside. I think Ms. Shen also suffers. Frightened, it is better to rest here, and when Miss Stella wakes up, I will pick up Miss Shen."

"No!" Ana immediately rejected his proposal. "I must see with my own eyes that Karla is fine, she shed a lot of blood before."

Su Jiu took a look at her. Until now, Ana's face is still very pale. Compared with the previous one, she hasn't improved at all. On the contrary, it has become more serious. Moreover, her voice still has a vibrato, which shows that she is still there until now. Worrying about Karla Han, if it weren't for Mr. Victor to go, she would have waited until the door of the emergency room opened in the blood-stained clothes.

"Miss Shen, I understand your mood, but you are not in a good state now, it is really not suitable..."

"Are you worried that I will fall, and you will have to take care of me then? Don't worry, even for Karla, I won't fall easily, I'm fine." After speaking, Ana Shen stepped forward and shook hands. Hold Su Jiu's hand: "Let us go together."

Su Jiu was still hesitating, but Ana's eyes were full of determination.

It's really hard to refuse.

"Secretary Su!"

Seeing her delay in answering, Ana called her aloud, and Su Jiu's face flashed with helplessness, and finally he said, "I can't do anything with you, let's go."

"Thank you!" Ana wept with joy, and then left the hotel with Su Jiu.

When she arrived at the hospital, she could see Victor Han standing at the door of the emergency room from a distance. His tall figure was leaning against the wall, with one hand in his pocket, with his eyes down and not knowing what he was thinking.
