

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 31-36

Chapter 31

Walter raised his eyes and saw a large spring of light on her chest, his eyes gleaming.

Is this woman on purpose?

But seeing her innocent expression, she held the perfume bottle and leaned in front of him, as if she was unintentional.

Unintentional?

Walter reacted abruptly, how could a woman like this unscrupulous marrying into the night house be unintentional? Walter's eyes became gloomy: "Want to seduce me?"

Ana Shen raised her eyes, not knowing why.

"what?"

Walter's gaze shifted and fell on her chest.

Ana Shen followed his gaze, only to realize that she was leaning forward and her collar slipped, revealing a white chest.

She covered her chest with her backhand and leaned back, her white cheeks flushed suddenly, her watery lips trembled as she tried to explain, but she couldn't say a word when he reached her lips.

Walter's black eyes made her embarrassed.

When she realized what her actions had revealed just now, Ana Shen just wanted to get into the cracks...

She really didn't mean it!

She just wanted to show him the bottle of perfume, after all, he asked...

However, she didn't expect the collar of this dress to be so wide, she just leaned forward a bit and it became like this.

Right now, Walter's impression of her must have been worse.

The blushing cheeks turned from red to white, and Ana Shen looked out the window and held the bottle of perfume in her hand.

She didn't mean it! not on purpose! ! !

She didn't want to seduce him!

The atmosphere in the car became weird. Through the rearview mirror, Walter could see her face turning from red to white, as well as the grievances under her eyes.

Wronged?

What is wronged?

Did he wrong her wrong?

But what is her way of showing her breasts to a man actively, isn't it about seduce?

The car quickly arrived at the banquet. Just after getting off the car, Ana Shen wanted to go forward and push him, but Walter coldly refused: "I have something to do, you go to Mr. Lu first."

Before leaving, Walter glanced back at her deeply: "Remember, don't bow your head, or else..."

Needless to say, the latter sentence is also known to be a threat. After the previous events, Ana Shen certainly knew what he was referring to, and nodded embarrassedly: "I know, don't worry, I am not as embarrassed as you think."

When the words fell, Walter's lips twitched, and there was a touch of mockery in his eyes, obviously he did not believe what she said.

Ana Shen bit her lower lip and clenched her fist, and said angrily: "I use my personality as a guarantee."

Walter still looked like that, so Phillip pushed him away, and Ana Shen had to enter the banquet alone.

Those who came to the banquet were all people with faces and faces. Ana Shen passed by several women, smelled the strong perfume on their bodies, saw the diamond necklaces on their necks, and the exclusive dress skirts.

She was dressed up in the crowd, and it could be said that she was instantly hidden.

Where did Ana Shen attend any banquet? So she didn't know where to find Mr. Lu, so she could only find a place on her own, then sat down and took out her mobile phone to search for information about that Mr. Lu.

Not finding it now doesn't mean that you won't have a chance to meet in the meeting. Now you can take the opportunity to find out first. If you see it later, you can do what you like.

Ana Shen sat there with her mobile phone and looked carefully, not paying attention to the surrounding situation.

After the music sounded, Ana Shen suddenly came back to her senses. She glanced at the phone and realized that the banquet was already halfway through.

Ana Shen picked up the cocktail in front of her and took a few sips, then got up and searched. After watching for a long time, she didn't see Walter.

Strange, where did he go? Why haven't you come back after so long?

While thinking about it, Ana Shen suddenly saw another familiar figure, it was Mr. Lu from the Lu Group who had been checking the information repeatedly.

Lu Xunchang.

Spokesperson for self-made people.

From nothing to the current Lu Group.

Although the Lu Group is no better than the Ye Family, it is also famous in Beich.

Lu Zongchang is a man who has just turned 30. He is single and a bit romantic. He likes to play with celebrities in the circle. After he gets it, he puts aside. He likes to fight with people, play golf, play chess, and most importantly, he likes to listen. song.

This is embarrassing.

Ana Shen wanted to do what she liked, but found that she didn't fit in at all.

I don't know if I can get a little benefit if I go as the assistant to the president of Ye's.

Thinking of this, Ana Shen picked up the cup in front of her and decided to toast her a glass of wine first.

Ana Shen walked slowly avoiding the pedestrians, and walked to the place where Lu Zong was just now, only to find that he was walking outside with a woman in a blue dress.

Ana Shen had no choice but to quickly catch up.

Following them to the outside of the banquet hall and into a small garden, Ana Shen finally saw Lu Zongchang again.

Just when she wanted to come forward to talk, Lu Zongchang suddenly held the woman in his arms and bowed his head to kiss.

“Um... Mr. Lu, you hate...”

The woman chuckled coquettishly in his arms, Lu Zongchang let out a low laugh, his big hand went straight to her back and opened the zipper, and the big hand poked in, making the woman's voice even more coquettish.

Ana Shen didn't expect that she could see such a scene. She sighed secretly and the spread was true, then blushed and looked away.

She was afraid that others would see it, but it was not suitable to go out at this time. She could only hide behind the big tree and wait. The wait was boring, and Ana Shen still took a few sips with the wine.

I don't know how long she waited, Ana Shen drank the wine in the glass, it was not over there yet.

Ana Shen's face was calm, but the pinkness on her face showed her embarrassment. After waiting for a while, it ended hastily.

"Mr. Lu, then you must come to find someone tomorrow night, I will leave first~"

"Don't worry, baby, you are so charming, I will definitely go to you again tomorrow night."

The woman reluctantly pestered him for a while before leaving.

After Lu Zongchang waited for the woman to leave, the smile on his face disappeared, and then he smoked a cigarette and slowly sorted out his clothes.

After a while, he whispered: "Come out."

Hearing that, Ana Shen was taken aback and clenched the cup in her hand.

She... was found in the corner?

wrong! Where is she listening to the corner? Obviously she came over and saw it accidentally, but she was found out now, is she going out?

"Everyone is gone, don't hide, or do you want me to pull you out myself?"

Lu Zongchang gave a low laugh, then turned around.

When Ana Shen saw that he was coming towards her, she took a step back in shock.

At this time, a cold voice rang from another direction.

“Mr. Lu is really good at playing, and he is so interested in the sky.”

Phillip pushed Walter out from the other side.

When Ana Shen saw him, her eyes widened subconsciously.

Why is he here? Could it be that Walter also witnessed the live erotica just now?

Thinking of this, Ana Shen is even more embarrassed. I hope Walter doesn't know that she is here, otherwise...

Chapter 32

“Hey, it's more emotional, but Mr. Walter can't understand it.”

When the words were over, Lu Xunchang's eyes fell on Walter's lap.

Phillip raised his eyebrows, just about to get angry.

Walter's face remained as usual, and he replied in a cold voice: “I really can't understand. Even if I want to play, I will only play with clean women. Used ones, I can't eat them.”

Ana Shen hiding behind the leaves: “...”

Nima, does he know she is here? So saying these things deliberately to slander her?

Lu Zongchang was not irritated by Walter's words, but smiled: "Actually, I really want to know, Mr. Walter has the ability to eat? Is it second-hand?"

Phillip gritted his teeth: "Do you want to protect the chrysanthemum?"

Lu Xunchang: "???"

"When you ask this kind of question, I thought you wanted to keep chrysanthemum, otherwise why would you ask us Mr. Walter?"

Nani? Lu Zongchang looked dumbfounded. He just wanted to mock Walter's disability and incompetence. When did he want to say that he wanted to be affected by it? This assistant is really annoying!

Ana Shen was even more speechless, unexpectedly Phillip's thoughts were so corrupt!

"The words of Assistant Mr. Walter are really thought-provoking~" Lu Zongchang came back to his senses after a moment of stunned, and began to fight back.

The master moves, the move is fatal.

Now it was Phillip's turn to choke.

Lu Zongchang has already shifted his gaze to Walter's face, "If I had known that the Ye Shaohui would come to the banquet, I should visit you first."

Walter's eyes were calm and indifferent: "It's not necessary to visit."

Ana Shen listened from a distance. It was dark. She was wearing a skirt tonight. She stood here for a while and attracted a lot of mosquitoes. At this time, her calf was itchy by mosquitoes, and soon she couldn't help thinking. Reach out to catch.

But if you grab it, you have to bend over, and bend over and make a noise.

You will be noticed if you make a sound.

After this scrutiny, Ana Shen didn't dare to bend down at all and could only endure it forcibly.

But afterwards, it was so itchy that she couldn't stand it, so she could only bend down to scratch it, and just hit the leaf and made a noise.

The smile on Lu Zongchang's lips faded, and he took two steps in her direction: "Who is there?"

Ana Shen was too scared to move.

Walter's eyes were old and cold: "The wind is blowing, there is no need for Mr. Lu to make such a fuss, right?"

Hearing, Lu Xunchang's steps stopped: "Is it the wind blowing, or is there someone Mr. Walter wants to protect?"

Walter didn't speak, but his eyes were quiet, and there was a hostile spirit on his body.

"I'm really interested in Lu Zongchang who can be the person who can protect Mr. Walter."

The two confronted each other. After all, it was Walter. The aura on his body made Lu Zongzhu a sneer. After a while, Lu Zongzhu curled his lips: "I have heard that Mr. Walter is not easy, but now I see it is really extraordinary. I have to go on a date with the little beauty, so I won't be with me."

"Take it easy."

After Lu Zongchang left, Ana Shen was about to explode in her original posture. Lu Zongchang left, and then waited for Walter to leave.

But Ana Shen waited for a while, Walter had no tendency to leave at all.

After waiting for a while, when Ana Shen could not hold on, finally heard Walter.

"Are you planning to install an ostrich there?"

Hearing, Ana Shen was startled and fell to the ground with a plop.

"Who?" Phillip's eyes widened, and he rushed over to see Ana Shen, "Why are you here?"

Ana Shen's movements were already so stiff, she simply sat leaning against the tree, with the cup in her hand placed on top of the leaves, she gently rubbed her calf that was bitten by mosquitoes, and gave Phillip a helpless look.

Phillip suddenly realized: "So you were the one Lu Zongchang said earlier?"

Walter pushed the wheelchair over and stared at her sitting on the ground condescendingly, "Get up."

Ana Shen died of uncomfortable suffering. Although she was reluctant, she stood up.

“I asked you to find Mr. Lu, you come to see the restricted level?”

what? Ana Shen’s eyes widened, and her white cheeks flushed. She actually knew, didn’t it mean that she was also watching him for a long time before?

Thinking of this, Ana Shen subconsciously said: “You... are you watching by the side?”

Walter narrowed his eyes: “So this is an admission?”

Hearing that, Ana Shen came back to her senses and waved her hand quickly: “No, no, I didn’t mean to peek, but when I found him, it happened... I was afraid of being discovered by him, so I hid behind the big tree. For a while, I never thought they would be like this...”

Bold!

That’s it outside the crowded banquet hall.

“Unexpectedly or deliberately, would you not know his situation and behavior beforehand? Or...” Walter’s eyes suddenly sharpened, and his voice was grim: “Do you think Lu Zongyuan is the next target you are aiming for? “

After hearing this, Ana Shen finally understood what Walter’s words meant.

Doesn’t it mean that she is so profuse and wants to seduce men when she sees them? And Lu Zongchang is good in all respects, whether he is a person or his family, so Walter thinks he has been targeted by Ana Shen.

At the moment he figured it out, Ana Shen's face turned from red to white, and her lips suddenly became bloodless.

"I know you look down on me, but don't you be so insulting? Ana Shen also has dignity!"

"Really? How much is your dignity worth?"

Walter relentlessly stamped her dignity under her feet.

Ana Shen's eyes widened.

It's unbelievable that this man is so bad, he said everything in front of her that ridiculed her, but he was able to protect her from the wind and rain in front of others, giving her face.

What kind of person is he?

Thinking of what happened before, Ana Shen decided to bear it, biting her lower lip without speaking.

"Phillip, let's go." Walter said coldly, and Phillip nodded forward and pushed Walter away.

Seeing that they were leaving, Ana Shen stepped forward to follow.

"Don't follow me."

In a word, success caused Ana Shen to stop, and could only watch Walter leave in front of him.

After a while, Ana Shen caught up with him, just in time to see Walter's car flying away.

Well, she was left behind again.

Ana Shen wanted to cry, but also wanted to laugh.

What I want to cry is that she might have to go back again, because she didn't carry a wallet at all, and there was no extra money in her phone.

It's really a failure to mix herself with her.

Thinking of this, Ana Shen bit her lower lip, stubbornly raised her head and looked at the shining starry sky, her eyes were wet, as if something was about to flow out!

"Ana Shen, don't cry, it's just a small matter, you will have to face...more!"

Huh.

Suddenly, a blue Bentley stopped in front of her.

The window rolled down, revealing Lu Xun's handsome eyebrows.

"Get in the car? May I give you a ride?"

Seeing Lu Zongchang, Ana Shen remembered the scene she had seen outside the banquet hall before. Her eyes were a little dodgy, "No, no more."

There was a playful smile in Lu Xunchang's eyes.

"Really no need?"

Chapter 33

Lu Zongchang's non-smiling expression made Ana Shen feel a little embarrassed, and his mind always automatically reflected what happened to him outside the hall at night with the lady.

"Thank you, President Lu, I really don't need it."

Ana Shen politely rejected him.

Lu Xunchang narrowed his narrow eyes, "Do you know me?"

"Uh...The Lu Group is well-known in Beich. How many people don't know Mr. Lu?"

Lu Zongchang suddenly leaned against the car window and stared at her carefully: "Oh, are you crying?"

The sudden question made Ana Shen stunned, then shook her head: "No."

Lu Zongchang lifted his lips and smiled, "Well, it's a little bit weaker and someone hurts. You just hid behind the tree, right?"

Ana Shen's expression changed and she didn't speak.

Her eye sockets were reddish, but her cold eyes were full of stubbornness. At first glance, she could not tell lies.

Oh, because you can't lie, do you choose to be silent?

interesting.

"I saw Walter leave you behind, how about it, do you want to consider getting in my car?"

Having said that, Lu Xunchang's hand moved forward and slowly landed on her shoulder.

Ana Shen reflexively stepped back, avoiding Lu Zongyuan's touch. Lu Zongyuan threw his hands in the air for a while, then laughed again: "Why are you so careless? He doesn't send me and I send you. ?"

After that, Lu Zongchang took a few steps forward, and Ana Shen backed away in shock.

"How many ladies are rushing to post me, depending on your dress and Walter's attitude towards you, you shouldn't be his, you will definitely not suffer from me."

No matter what he said, Ana Shen just didn't let him touch her.

Ana Shen knew exactly what kind of person Lu Zongyuan was. If she showed even a little hesitation, she might be targeted by Lu Zongyuan.

"Don't do this, I know you are different from them."

After finishing speaking, Lu Zongchang stepped forward and held her shoulder strongly, Ana Shen couldn't dodge, and her face changed greatly in fright: "Mr Lu, please respect yourself!"

"What is your self-respect? Walter doesn't care about you, what's wrong with me?"

There were many women who wanted to climb Lu Xingyuan's bed, and Lu Xingyuan couldn't count them, but Ana Shen's attitude made Lu Xingyuan feel like he wanted to try. He wanted to see if the people around Walter would also tend to himself.

In fact, he was secretly competing with Walter.

“let me go!”

Ana Shen turned pale with fright, and pushed her chest: “Hasn’t the goal of President Lu always been a celebrity? I’m just Mr. Walter’s assistant, please don’t do this!”

After all, it was Ye’s partner, so Ana Shen didn’t dare to do anything to him.

“Oh? You know me so well. You seem to be interested in investigating me?”
Lu Zongchang lowered his voice and slowly approached her.

Ana Shen widened her eyes and pushed him away hard, but her strength was not comparable to him. Finally, she annoyed Lu Zongchang. He sternly said, “I hate others resisting me. Would you like to think about it? I might Will you be gentle?”

“Mr. Lu, I still said that, please respect yourself, if you don’t let go, I will be welcome!”

Ana Shen has been forbearing, but it doesn’t mean that she really is so easy to bully!

Lu Zongchang looked at her with a smile, “Do you dare to offend me? Don’t forget that Lu’s and Ye’s will have another cooperation in a few days.”

Hearing, Ana Shen paled: “This cooperation is about the interests of your company, do you want to get involved?”

“Wrong.” Lu Zongchang increased the strength in his hand: “It’s about your future. Guess if I refuse to cooperate and make trouble for you, will the company put the responsibility on you?”

“You!” Ana Shen bit her lower lip, “Despicable!”

“Then you think about it, do you want to have dinner with me, a despicable person?”

“impossible!”

“No, then I can only...”

boom!

Lu Zongchang hadn't finished speaking, when a sharp leg wind swept behind his calf, Lu Zongyuan unexpectedly fell on one knee in front of Ana Shen.

Ana Shen's eyes widened, and she reached out to cover her mouth in disbelief.

“With such a big gift from Head Office Lu, do you want my assistant to cooperate with your company?”

A cold and familiar voice sounded, and Ana Shen looked at the source of the sound in shock.

I found that Walter, who had already left, did not know when to return. At this moment, he was sitting on the wheel, looking calmly at Lu Zongchang who was half-kneeling on the ground, Phillip stood behind him, equally stern. Face, staring angrily at Lu Zongchang.

They...how...returning?

Isn't it... gone?

A bloodthirsty smile came up on Walter's lips, and he sneered: “Unfortunately, even if you kneel down to beg my assistant, Ye's doesn't want to cooperate with a third-rate company like Lu's.”

Bang bang bang!

This sentence was like the sound of a bell, knocking heavily into Ana Shen's heart.

If Walter is ruthless, but everything he does is protecting her.

At least, in front of outsiders.

He is defending her!

For some reason, the tears that had just disappeared from Ana Shen came up again now, her nose was a little sour.

She grew up so big that no one had ever made her head for her like Walter.

The moment Lu Zong went down on his knees, coupled with Walter's ridicule, his face suddenly turned pale, and he wanted to stand up, only to find that his legs were so fierce that he could not stand up for a long time because of the pain.

Lu Zongchang didn't know who kicked him. Walter was sitting in a wheelchair, and he naturally assumed that Phillip had moved his hand.

It took a long time for Lu Changchang to stand up, sneered and wiped the cold sweat from his forehead: "Mr. Walter is really capricious, this cooperation is so important, I wonder if the old man will let you go?"

Walter's eyes were suddenly cold, "You can try it."

"Do it for an assistant, Walter, I'm waiting for you to beg me."

Lu Zong glared at him angrily, then limped into the car and left.

Three people remain on the scene.

Ana stood in place, her mind still in a daze, she never thought they would go and return.

Phillip pushed Walter to the other direction, and Ana Shen still stood still. For a while, the people in front suddenly stopped, and Walter's cold voice seemed to come from hell.

Ana Shen reacted violently and quickly followed.

After getting in the car, Ana Shen consciously did something wrong and could only keep her head down.

The temperature in the car was like Antarctica, everyone was afraid to speak, including the driver and Phillip, trying not to treat themselves as adults.

“Are you a wood? Can't hide?”

Ana Shen bit her lower lip, and cold sweat emerged from her forehead: “I...”

“Or do you want to open a house with him?”

what?

Excessive remarks made Ana Shen suddenly raise her head, her beautiful eyes flashed with angry light and crashed into Walter's gloomy eyes without warning. She bit her lower lip tightly, her face turned pale, making Walter remembered the scene he had seen before.

The petite figure was locked by Lu Zongzhu and leaned very close.

“Walter, don't...hmm.”

As soon as Ana Shen's words were spoken, the back of his head was held down, and his eyes went black.

Chapter 34

"Well!"

The soft lips were caught.

Walter's lips were cold with some dryness, and she rolled over her soft lips with great strength.

Ana Shen didn't react for a long time, she was actually kissed by Walter.

why?

Walter pressed the back of her head, asking for kisses over and over again, his kisses were a bit rude with anger.

From when Ana Shen came out from Sister Jing and put on this peach-like lipstick, from when she bit her lip to herself, Walter wanted to kiss that red lip, and then she got into the car later. Unintentionally, deliberately seduced myself, until now I saw her pulling together with Lu Xunchang.

Walter was stimulated.

Just wanting to kiss her to vent the anger in his heart, Ana Shen was dumbfounded, let him ask for it, and when she saw it again, she stared at him incredulously.

Walter's anger was even greater, and he didn't even feel at all facing her kiss.

Walter pinched his other hand to her waist and pulled her half-dragging and half-hugging to his lap. Ana Shen was petite, and was quickly dragged by Walter, lying uncontrollably. In Walter's arms, she reflexively stretched out her hand to embrace Walter's neck.

Ana Shen lay on Walter's body in an ambiguous posture, and this angle made Walter even more for her lips.

The driver and Phillip clearly saw this scene and felt that the temperature in the car had risen a lot from before, and it was still rising gradually.

Xiao Xiao didn't expect that he could actually see Walter's side.

Ana Shen was shocked from the beginning, until Walter took her into a beautiful mirror in the end, her hand also subconsciously wrapped his neck, but she still couldn't learn to breathe, so she was almost kissed by Walter in the end. Out of breath, her body lay weakly in his arms.

Walter noticed this, his eyes darkened a bit.

Pulling her away, Walter's hand pinched her chin.

"Nothing? Don't you enjoy it?"

His kiss was hot, but his tone was still cold, Ana Shen slowly recovered, and seeing Walter's eyes gloomy in front of her, Ana Shen was surprised how he reacted just now, "I..."

"Do you want it?"

Walter suddenly leaned to her ear and asked charmingly.

On the surface, he was teasing her, but his light tone was obviously teasing her.

Thinking of the words he said before kissing her, Ana Shen's face turned pale, and she bit his lower lip and said nothing.

"Woman, your reaction tells me that you are satisfied." Walter's hand on her waist moved up, but Ana Shen suddenly became angry, "Let go of me!"

Walter's movements stopped, and his eyes narrowed dangerously.

"Why? Wasn't he very happy when Lu Xunchang hugged you?"

Ana Shen bit her lower lip: "When did you see me happy? I was forced to do it. Didn't you see? Walter, you must step on the self-esteem of others like this to make you happy?"

The expression on Walter's face cooled down, and he stared at her coldly.

"Remember, even if Walter doesn't bother to touch you, but you have my label on your body now, no other men are allowed to touch you."

Ana Shen: "..."

"Next time, if I see you with other men again, it won't be your dignity to be stepped on the soles of your feet."

After speaking, Walter let go of her, his thin lips moved slightly: "Go away."

Ana Shen was still sitting on his lap, her face suddenly turned pale when she heard him say scribble, and her lips trembled.

"Don't forget your identity."

He warned again.

In the end, Ana Shen lowered her eyes, said nothing, and returned to her seat calmly.

Ana Shen, who returned to her seat, was extremely silent. Her face kept turning out of the window without even looking at Walter, but the aura on her body was obviously much lower than before.

After returning to Yejia, Phillip pushed Walter out of the car first, and Ana Shen followed behind him with her eyes down.

Walter did not go back to the room, but went to the study. Ana Shen went back to the room by herself, removed her makeup and took a bath, and when she finished everything, Walter hadn't returned yet, so Ana Shen lay down and went to sleep.

Soon after lying down, the phone vibrated.

Ana Shen took a look and found that it was a text message from Ben Lin.

Ben Lin: Ana, are you asleep?

Seeing this text message, Ana Shen frowned subconsciously. Since the divorce, he has never said a word to her. This evening at the mall was the first time he met after the divorce.

Thinking of the things he did in the mall, Ana Shen closed her eyes, put down the phone, and did not reply.

After a while, the phone vibrated again.

Ben Lin: Ana, I didn't mean to help you with things in the mall at night. It's because Bo'er is about to give birth. I can only follow her advice. Otherwise, I will have a bad fetus. Can you understand me?

Understand what? Ana Shen used to think Ben Lin was good, but now she thinks he is strange enough. He was with another woman and swept her out. He actually asked her if she could understand him?

Ben Lin: Shall we meet tomorrow?

Ana Shen still did not reply to the text message, so she blacked out his name, and then turned off the phone to sleep.

After Walter came back, Ana Shen was already asleep, probably a bit cold, so she curled up into a ball with the quilt, buried her head in the pillow, her white face and eyes tightly closed.

“Sao Ye, I will help you get your clothes.”

Phillip stepped forward and walked inside. Phillip was not a gentle person and made loud noises as he walked.

Walter frowned slightly, and said in a low voice, “Keep your voice down.”

“Huh?” Phillip glanced back at him without knowing it, with an expression that he couldn't touch his head, the voice was very loud.

Walter's expression suddenly changed, staring at him gloomily, “Are you looking for death?”

The voice is low.

Phillip was startled by his cold air pressure, but just couldn't react. He looked around and saw that Ana Shen sleeping on the floor had shrunk into a small ball before he suddenly reacted.

Could it be that his voice was too loud just now, so Mr. Walter lost his temper?

So Phillip relaxed, and as expected, Walter didn't lose his temper at him anymore, Phillip was finally relieved.

When cleaning up for him, Phillip couldn't help saying: "Mr. Walter to Miss Shen..."

"What do you want to say?"

"No, nothing. I meant to say that Miss Shen is pregnant now, is it inappropriate to sleep on the floor?"

Hearing, Walter frowned: "Then give her your bed?"

Phillip's face changed drastically. Lu Zongchang just touched Ana Shen's shoulder, and lost a contract worth tens of billions after saying a few romantic words. If he let Ana Shen sleep in Phillip's bed, he would still be able to Can't live anymore?

Thinking of this, Phillip shuddered, "No, no, let Ms. Shen continue to sleep on the ground."

Walter became silent, thinking of the softness of the woman's lips...

Chapter 35

That night, Ana Shen had a dream.

She dreamed that the night after more than a month, the man strongly hugged her waist and plundered, hot and unrestrained kisses, hot breath, low gasps.

Ana Shen rolled over, opened the quilt so hot, and opened her eyes.

It was already bright, and the room was full of sunlight and morning smell coming in from the window.

Ana Shen sat up, leaning there in a daze.

It's been so long, how can I still meet that man?

In the dream, the man is still strong.

It's just that the voice has long been inaudible.

Ana Shen wiped the sweat from her forehead, her throat suddenly became itchy, she covered her mouth and coughed a few times before suddenly remembering something, and looked at the bed not far away.

Walter was still asleep. Ana Shen was afraid of making him noise, so she could only suppress the cough, but her throat was so uncomfortable, she could only get up quickly, got up barefoot and hid in the bathroom.

After staying in the bathroom and coughing for a long time, Ana Shen squeezed toothpaste to brush her teeth.

Walter slept very lightly. The moment Ana Shen turned over, he woke up, but did not open his eyes.

After a while, Walter heard a cough, but was quickly covered up, and then heard her hurriedly got up and went to the bathroom.

Immediately afterwards, a suppressed cough came from the bathroom, as if he did not want him to hear it.

But this room is only so big, no matter how you suppress it, coughing sounds will still come out, and the surrounding area is quiet, there is no messy sound, these sounds can be clearly transmitted into Walter's ears.

So Walter remembered what Phillip said to him last night.

“Miss Shen is pregnant now, is it inappropriate to sleep on the floor?”

Although it is not winter now, it is gradually entering autumn. There is only a layer of quilt on the floor, and she is still a female, so sleeping for a long time is really bad for her health.

Walter opened his eyes, his eyes flashed, and then closed again after a while.

But his head was filled with the appearance of the woman covering her mouth and coughing in the bathroom.

For a moment, Walter irritably lifted the quilt and glanced at the time on the bedside table. There was still an hour left before he got up.

After Ana Shen brushed her teeth and washed her face, she came out and found that Walter had actually gotten up. She was a little embarrassed: “Sorry, did I bother you?”

Hearing, Walter frowned.

This woman is a little bit self-aware, and she knows that she quarreled him herself.

Ana Shen didn't have the habit of wearing a small clothes to sleep at night, but she would rush into the bathroom every morning when she got up to wear it, but because of a cough just now, she didn't care about it.

Now that she saw Walter, Ana Shen suddenly remembered the incident, and her movements became unnatural.

"You don't know how to make you noise me?"

Facing Walter's accusation, Ana Shen had nothing to refute. She indeed quarreled him, so she could only lower her head and pinch the corner of her clothes, and whispered: "I'm sorry..."

Sorry?

Her weakness and incompetence made Walter even more unhappy.

Doesn't she know how to fight back? Coughing is not something she can control! What does he say?

"Sorry to be useful?"

Ana Shen lowered her head and didn't know what to say. Walter's stern gaze made her unnatural, and she wanted to go back to the bathroom.

Walter didn't know what was going on either, he always felt that Ana Shen was completely different from what he had imagined.

He thought that in the face of those people's bullying, she could fight back very well, who knew that she could not even fight back, and she looked so wronged.

“I didn’t want to wake you up.” Finally, Ana Shen looked up at Walter and said something.

Walter’s thin lips pressed tightly into a straight line.

“come.”

past? Ana Shen’s expression changed, and she shrank her shoulders subconsciously.

She... didn’t wear a dress???

Thinking of this, Ana Shen bit her lower lip and stood still.

Walter suppressed his anger and raised his eyebrows: “Behind the ears?”

Only then did Ana Shen walk towards him helplessly, but every step she took was like stepping on the tip of a knife, so awkward, that Walter was helpless.

When she walked in front of Walter, Ana Shen couldn’t straighten up, so she almost squatted down.

Walter squinted his eyes and tried to pull her. Ana Shen squatted down with a fright.

Walter’s hands paused in the air, and the air was almost frozen.

For a moment, Walter frowned, “What are you doing?”

Ana Shen squatted there still.

“Ok?”

“I... my stomach hurts.” Finally, Ana Shen made a bad excuse, no matter what, she didn’t plan to get up.

Walter frowned deeper, “Stomach hurts?”

So he thought of the things Phillip said to him last night. If his stomach hurts, could it be a cold?

Thinking of this possibility, Walter felt a little irritable.

Walter didn’t speak, and Ana Shen kept squatting still.

I don’t know how long it took, the two still maintained their original posture.

Walter had leg problems, so he could only sit without Phillip’s help, and Ana Shen didn’t dare to get up, so the two of them had to stay in a stalemate.

Forgetting how long she squatted, Ana Shen’s legs were a little numb, and she looked at Walter eagerly.

But he didn’t move, and she didn’t dare to move.

“See what I do? Don’t expect me to hold you up.”

When he said so, Ana Shen suddenly reacted.

Yes, Walter had leg problems, he couldn’t get up at all, and Ana Shen’s lips moved. “What are you... calling me over?”

Walter did not speak.

“speak?”

“Don’t you have a stomachache?”

Ana Shen’s face turned pale, and nodded: “Well, but...it’s better now, what can you do?”

“Help me push the wheelchair here.”

His gaze fell on the wheelchair not far away, and Ana Shen paused before realizing that he wanted to sit in a wheelchair, so he slowly got up, “Wait for me.”

Then she went and pushed him over in a wheelchair.

“Help me.”

Walter raised his eyes to look at her face: “Can it be done?”

Looking at the distance between the wheel and the bed, Ana Shen stammered and nodded: “Should... OK?”

No way, Ana Shen could only walk over to help him.

“My legs are weak, you squat down and lend me your shoulders.”

“Okay.” Ana Shen didn’t resist at all to what he said, and he bent down without saying a word.

Walter leaned his hand on her shoulder to borrow strength. Walter’s height was above 185, and Ana Shen was extremely petite, less than 165. Therefore, with the help of Walter’s hand, her waist was almost bent. I can’t get straight down.

Walter's forehead was sweating profusely, and he withdrew his hand: "Forget it if you can't."

Hearing, Ana Shen bit her lower lip, "It's okay, I can. I didn't stand firm just now. Let's start again."

After speaking, Ana Shen changed her posture, then patted her shoulder: "I can, you can take advantage of it."

However, Walter suddenly stopped moving and kept staring at her.

Ana Shen reacted and followed his gaze, only to find out where he was staring.

Chapter 36

"Asshole!" Ana Shen followed his gaze and lowered her head before realizing what Walter was staring at.

When Ana Shen finished cursing, she glared at him fiercely, and then just walked away.

As a result, the two moved halfway, and half of Walter's body was already suspended before Ana Shen retreated. Unexpectedly, Walter's tall body fell to the side.

"Ah!" Ana Shen's face changed greatly in fright. Before he could step back, she took two steps forward to support him. Although Walter was thin, his muscles were still very strong, and the weight was firm. Ana Shen was suppressed. I had to back up and almost fell.

Fortunately, she used all her strength to blush before supporting him.

“Are you okay?” Ana Shen asked nervously after stabilizing.

Walter probably didn't receive such treatment, his face was pale, “What do you think?”

“Sorry, I didn't mean it.” Ana Shen could only apologize to him, “Fortunately, I didn't fall, I will help you.”

Walter's thin lips pressed tightly, and without answering her words, he slowly got into the wheelchair with her support.

Although the process was tortuous, Ana Shen finally breathed a sigh of relief when she saw him sitting back in the wheelchair. She felt like she was successful. She just wanted to reach out and wipe off the sweat from her forehead, her wrist was caught by Walter.

Ana Shen was startled, her eyes widened unconsciously.

“You, what are you doing?”

Walter squinted his long and narrow eyes, his gaze was a little wicked, “Your methods of seduce people are really different, but you look down upon you.”

“What? When did I...”

As soon as the voice fell, Walter's hand pressed hard, Ana Shen fell into his arms, her chin was pinched by the big hand, “Intentionally or unconsciously, it seems like nothing, I'm very surprised, how can you be so attracted to people? Abandoned by your ex-husband?”

The embarrassing words fell into Ana Shen's ears, her face pale, and her lower lip was bitten: “I didn't seduce you.”

“You haven’t said yet?” Walter sneered, “Hard mouth.”

“I didn’t!” Ana Shen stubbornly stared at him: “Walter, you keep saying that I seduce you, when did I seduce you? Is I seduce you, or your self-control is no longer enough to see me? Want to go crazy?”

Walter: “...I didn’t realize that you are so clever.”

The strength in his hand increased a little, and Ana Shen uttered in pain, frowning, “Let go of me!”

“Let go? Isn’t that what you want? Early in the morning, you didn’t even wear personal clothes, and deliberately ran over to touch me with your body...” At the end, Walter came to her ears. With that said, the warm breath vomited all over her neck, causing Ana Shen to tremble.

“You, you bullshit!”

The blood on Ana Shen’s face faded, and she suddenly remembered something.

He hadn’t intended to see it before. Later, because she was afraid that he would fall out of bed, she stepped forward and hugged his shoulders. At that time, the bodies of the two people were close to each other, which probably made Walter feel it.

“Heh.” Walter sneered: “Is there any nonsense? Your body is the clearest.”

“Walter, don’t forget our agreement.”

Hearing, Walter had a slight meal.

“You said it yourself, you are not allowed to approach you, so what are you doing now?”

She raised her hand, her thin white wrists were being tightly clasped by Walter.

The difference in skin color between the two and the sharp contrast between the size of their arms made Walter dumbfounded.

After a while, Walter released his hand: “Do you think I would touch you? A dirty woman like you is the most disgusting.”

After that, Walter pushed her away, and Ana Shen staggered and almost fell to the ground. She looked back angrily at the expensive man in the wheelchair. Numerous grievances came to her heart, but she was quickly caught Ana Shen pressed it down, she suppressed the expression from the bottom of her eyes, turned her head down and walked away.

She went to pick up her personal clothes and put them in the bathroom. When she came out, Walter was no longer in the room.

cut.

I woke up early in the morning without brushing my teeth or washing, and I didn't know where to go.

Ana Shen changed her clothes and packed her things, took out the phone and turned it on.

As soon as I turned it on, I saw strange text messages come in.

‘Ana, have you blocked my phone? ‘

‘How did the phone turn off? I really have something to tell you, I know I am sorry for you, but you give me a chance to explain. ‘

Explanation?

Ana Shen’s eyes turned cold.

Explain what?

Explain how he and that little San’er were together for two years without telling her and even got pregnant with the child?

Ben Lin!

I, Ana Shen, will never forgive you all my life.

Scumbag!!

Ana Shen continued to block the unfamiliar number to prevent him from harassing him again, then put away the phone and got up.

When I left the room, I happened to bump into Walter.

Ana Shen thought for a while, but went forward to push him.

“Don’t come near me.”

However, Walter’s thin lips uttered ruthless words, causing Ana Shen to stand in place.

Several of the maids who came to clean up in the morning listened to them and looked at each other. After a while, they lowered their heads and continued to work as if they had heard nothing.

Walter went back to the room by himself, and Ana Shen was about to go downstairs for breakfast.

Such a big family should have breakfast together, but the old man often does not eat breakfast at home, so there are three time points for breakfast at home, one is the earliest at six, then at seven, and finally at eight.

After these three time periods, Ye's cook will no longer provide breakfast.

Ana Shen wakes up early, so she usually rushes at six o'clock.

As soon as I sat down, there was a voice behind me.

"Second young lady, morning, have you come down for breakfast?"

Hearing, Ana Shen turned her head and saw a maid greeted herself with a smile, and that she had been to Yejia for so long, except for Walter's eldest brother, Curtis Ye, this was the second person to show a kind smile to her.

Ana Shen was in a subtle mood, with a smile on her face, and nodded.

"This is the egg I just fried. Would you like to try it?"

"Okay." Ana Shen nodded.

So the girl stepped forward and handed her the plate. Just as Ana Shen was about to reach out to take it, the maid suddenly let go, and an egg fell on Ana Shen's clothes!

"Second young lady, are you okay?" The maid's face changed drastically, and she quickly stepped forward to wipe Ana Shen with a tissue. Ana Shen frowned subconsciously. Did she make a mistake?

She obviously saw that the maid had let go on purpose, but the panicked expression on her face looked so innocent...

Probably her villain saved the abdomen of a gentleman.

“Second young lady, I’m really sorry, I’m a little lost, you were shocked by a glass of milk.”

“It’s okay.” Ana Shen smiled at her, then reached out to pick up the milk.

Brush it...

The maid poured milk on her by herself.

Unexpectedly, Ana Shen was in a daze.

The maid threw the cup at Ana Shen’s feet and exclaimed: “Second young lady, why are you so careless? You can’t handle a glass of milk!”

Ana Shen raised her head and looked at her incredulously.

Where is the maid still innocent? The complacency in that eye is almost spreading...

“Do you really treat yourself as a young lady? Think I will serve you?”

“Don’t look in the mirror to see what you are like? Am I going to serve someone like you? Mr. Walter ignores you, and you still have to stay in Yejia not to leave!”

Is she staying at night’s house, hindering these servants?

She obviously didn't do anything, these people... why do they hate her so much? Just because Walter doesn't like her?
