

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 231 – 240

Chapter 231

Zoey meditated for a while and called Hobson to Sarahve. Hobson also knew that Julia was pregnant and Zoey had to take care of her.

“It’s okay. I’ll wait for you in the villa.” He was friendly and hung up the phone with a smile.

Zoey had a headache.

“Julia, are you really OK?” Zoey was lying on the bed and looked at her with concern.

Even though Zoey knew that she would give birth to a baby, what she expected was the baby of Julia, because she knew that it would never be possible for her baby to come to this world. She had taken the medicine according to the doctor’s instructions, and she would have an induced abortion one week later.

She will do it secretly as if the baby in her body had never existed.

“I’m really fine. There is nothing serious with me. I just want someone to accompany me.” Said Julia with a smile on her face.

“Yes.” Zoey was still not relieved with a deep frown.

It was really rare for her to see Julia in this way. How could she not worry about her.

After a long time, Julia fell asleep. Zoey helped Julia cover the quilt before softly opening the door and walking out.

Julia was haunted by nightmares. She covered her ears and didn't want to listen to or see anything, but those ghosts that hid behind the sun were everywhere. She suddenly woke up from the dream and fondled her trembling heart. She couldn't bear this kind of feeling.

When there was a knock on the door, Zoey came in from the outside. Seeing that Julia had woken up, she stopped for a while. Then she slowly walked to Julia and sat down beside her. “Did I bother you?”

Julia shook her head and smiled: “I'm fine.”

“Julia, let me take your pulse. Zoey was very worried about you.” Zoey kept her smile and Julia nodded and stretched out her hand.

After feeling her pulse, Zoey took out a medical silver needle from the medical kit and said, “you are too nervous because of your first pregnancy. Let me help you relax the acupuncture point in your head.”

It was not appropriate for Julia to refuse her. Zoey took out the silver needle. When Zoey was about to take action, the door of Julia's bedroom was suddenly open. Zoey stood at the door out of breath. When Zoey walked to the bed and saw the silver needle, she blurted out, “what were you doing?”

“Zoey, why did you talk to Zoey in this way? She just wanted to help me.” Seeing Zoey's nervous look, Julia was somehow irritable and said more seriously.

Zoey packed her medical kit and answered with a smile, "don't worry. Zoey just cares about you."

Zoey looked at Julia blankly. To her surprise, Julia helped Zoey?

"Then I'll go first." Zoey stood up in time, said goodbye to them and left.

Zoey closed the door and put her hand into the pocket where a spray bottle was hidden. She thought that Julia had fallen asleep and the drug couldn't be stopped. She had also drugged the silver needle, but she couldn't do anything harmful to Julia because Zoey take care of Julia.

When Ho

In bedroom.

"Are you sleepy again?" For the sake of her, Zoey was no angry with her.

Julia shook her head and yawned, which made Zoey speechless.

Just then, the door was knocked. A plate of fruit was pushed in by Hobson. Zoey looked at him, "who let you bring the fruit?"

Hobson meant to say that it was Zoey, but remembering what Zoey said, he corrected himself promptly. "Well, I saw your favorite fruit on the table, so I cut some for you."

"Thank you." Zoey picked up an apple, peeled it and gave it to Julia.

Julia took a few bites and had no appetite. She threw the apple aside. Because of the medicine the doctor gave her, Zoey had no appetite and didn't eat much.

“Hobson, get out! It’s impolite for a man to stay in a girl’s room alone!” Zoey glared at Hobson. Although she spoke in a more vicious tone, she was less confident than before.

She didn’t dare to annoy him as Hobson knew her pregnancy.

If he let it out, there must be a huge fight going on.

“Yes.” Without saying a word, he went out obediently and closed the door at the same time.

Julia struggled to sit up from the bed, Sarahned against the bedside table, and forced a smile, “Hobson was becoming a henpecked man.”

“Well, sort of.” Zoey said noncommittally. She didn’t want to talk about too much with Hobson, so she changed the topic. “Julia, do you want to eat the pear? Let me wash it for you.”

“Don’t change the topic.” Julia smiled.

Zoey also grinned.

Julia suddenly grabbed the quilt and began to cough violently, with severe pain in her abdomen, “cough…”

“What’s wrong?” Zoey patted on Julia’s back to comfort her. She looked worried.

“Nothing.” The pain in her belly only lasted for a few seconds. Julia said casually. Her head became more and more dizzy. She Sarahned her head heavily on the pillow and was too tired to move her toes.

Seeing this, Zoey frowned, but she didn’t know what to say. In the end, She had to accompany Julia at her side quietly.

Chapter 232

Noah went back after dinner in the villa. Julia didn't know what on earth Barbara and Noah had talked about, but it seemed that they were both in good conditions.

"Julia, eat more." Noah delivered the food to Julia frequently. Trying not to vomit, Julia smiled and said, "thank you, Dad Noah."

Noah said, "Julia, you can call me dad, just like Zoey and the others. We are a family now. You don't have to be overcautious. "

Julia looked at Barbara in surprise. Barbara still frowned at what Noah said, but was not as disgusted as before.

"Holden and Shawn are very busy recently. It's hard for you." Noah said to Zoey and Julia.

"It doesn't matter. We'll have plenty of time to get along with each other," said Zoey cleverly

Holden hadn't spent the night here since Zoey came to the villa.

"Zoey, you and Holden have to work hard too. Do not wait until Julia's baby can jump and run." Noah smiled again.

Zoey nodded.

With that, Noah turned to Zoey. She kept silent and lowered her head to eat, trying to reduce her sense of presence, but no matter how hard she lowered herself, Noah still pulled her out.

“Hobson, I know how you feel about Zoey. I’m sure you’ll take care of her.”
Said Noah kindly.

“I will take good care of her. Don’t worry, uncle,” hurriedly answered Hobson

“Zoey, you too, have to be considerate to others. Let the past be the past. You are lucky to be with a good kid like Hobson. ” Added Noah.

The past included the scandals of Zoey and Shawn, and the kidnapping incident of Carlos.

Zoey curled her lip in discontent. What Noah meant was that she had actually lost her virginity. She couldn’t think of anyone else who would want to marry her except for Hobson. If someone wanted her, she would be unwilling to marry him. It was not wrong to stay at home all her life

Glancing at Noah and Barbara, Julia couldn’t help but remember the scene that the three of them had dinner ten years ago. She hadn’t thought that they would still get together like this after ten years.

It felt like a century had passed.

Julia felt dizzy again and tried to get up. It was strange. She had slept for almost a day today. What was going on? Why was she still sleepy? Her mind was in a mess and she couldn’t sort it out.

“Mom and Dad, I’m full. I’ll go to my room.” Julia didn’t want them to see her being abnormal, so she stood up and said to them.

Julia called them that way sometimes when they were kids. Even though struck dumb by her words, Barbara and Noah thought it was appropriate.

Barbara and Noah exchanged a glance and then quickly looked away. In addition to embarrassment, ther

Barbara added

Zoey nodded. As Julia's mother, there was no reason for Barbara not to worry about Julia. She called Zoey when she left and felt uncomfortable when seeing Zoey there.

She knew that Zoey would never hurt Julia, but her affection for Zoey was almost zero since she Sarahrned that Zoey came to the villa for the purpose of seducing her brother.

Shawn back at midnight. When Barbara saw him coming back, she simply told him about Julia's situation. Then Shawn thanked Barbara politely and sat next to Julia's bed, without even changing her clothes. Looking at Julia who was sleeping soundly, Shawn was in a daze.

When he came back two days ago, he always saw the terrified look on Julia's face. Only when he stayed with her could she be relaxed.

The nerves of pregnant women were relatively frail, which could be understood by Shawn, but her being like this would only make his heart ache.

"Kitten, it's my fault. You are frightened." Shawn held her hands and spoke in an extremely soft voice. Only when his eyes met with Julia could he put off his cold mask. The gentleness hidden under the mask poured out.

On the other side, as if feeling the coming back of Shawn, Julia groaned and fell asleep again. Looking at her cute appearance, Shawn bursted into laughter.

He sat on the bedside for a while and went to take a shower. After that, he put on a pajama and lay down beside Julia, holding her in his arms.

After a long time, Shawn turned off the light and fell asleep quietly with his arms around her.

It was a beautiful dream. Julia was holding a baby's hand and on the other was the baby's father, Shawn with a cold face. Julia laughed. In her dream, her CEO was indeed a stern and serious father.

The dream was so beautiful that Julia was obsessed with it.

Chapter 233

The next day, Julia woke up comfortably in the arms of Shawn. As soon as she opened her eyes, it was so nice to see him, so Shawn bent down, kissed her lips, and said, "good morning, Kitty."

"Good morning, Mr. CEO." Julia looked up at him and said with a smile.

Noticing that Julia's face was still pale, Shawn frowned a little. He rubbed her hair, "don't be too nervous."

"I'm not nervous." Julia said naturally.

"Well, that's good. Remember to tell me if you have anything." Shawn said to Julia worriedly.

Julia nodded. Although she was not very concerned about what happened last night, she still remembered that doctor Huo had come, and she didn't know what's wrong with her body either.

Either her head was lethargic, or her body was unusually excited, and her strength seemed to be unable to restrain herself. She just wanted to restrain herself, and she was unable to control herself.

"You are such a lovely kitten." Julia didn't want to fight with Shawn anymore. She just wanted to sleep in her master's arms.

“Yes.” The low groan she made in his arms was enough to show her laziness and inability.

After accompanying Julia for a while, Shawn was about to stand up. Feeling the warmth of Shawn faded away from her, she suddenly felt a pang of panic. She stared at the movements of Shawn with her eyes wide open. She wanted him to stay, but she didn’t want to influence his work.

She hesitated for a long time, but still didn’t stretch out her hand.

“I’m Sarahving.” Said Shawn in a soft voice, as he Sarahned close to her nose and gently kissed it.

Julia nodded and watched him Sarahve. She quickly got into bed. She felt like her head was stuffed with something that made her unable to escape. She was heavy and tired.

When there was a noise coming from the door, Julia stretched out her head from the quilt. It was Zoey. She brought the food here and sat next to her, looking at her worried and regretful.

“Julia, are you feeling better now?” Zoey asked cautiously.

“Much better.” Julia got up from the bed and took over the black herbal soup from Zoey. She wanted to throw up when she saw it.

However, when Julia saw the expectant look in Zoey’s eyes, she was disgusted and drank off the wine in one gulp.

“Yes. Today mom asked me to go home. Will you go with me? Or stay here? ” Zoey said with hesitation.

“I’m fine. Don’t worry about me.” Julia smiled kindly.

Zoey nodded and sighed. She looked at Julia's belly and said, "you need to take good care of yourself. I want to see a pink baby. My brother's baby must be very handsome and cute."

"....." Julia felt speechless and thought, "this is also my child. If not for her, could Shawn give birth to the child?"

"Julia, I'll take care of the baby for you. You could just go play with my brother." Zoey said with a big smile on her face. After knowing that she herself was also pregnant, Zoey was more looking forward to the birth of Julia's baby.

interrupted, "who do you think you are? You will be taught a bad lesson by staying with that bitch and her daughter!"

"Juliet, you can be mad at Barbara. Don't vent your anger on Julia." Noah frowned.

"Exactly. Don't say Julia is a bitch again." Zoey echoed Noah after a short while of surprise.

Juliet was trembling with anger by Noah's and Zoey's words. She looked at Holden and said, "take her to the company these two days. She is not allowed to go to the villa."

"What do you mean? Zoey and Julia get along so well that you are jealous? Holden, send Zoey back after dinner!" Noah knocked on the ground heavily with his hand holding a walking stick. His voice was low and loud, showing his powerful momentum.

Hearing that, Juliet didn't dare to force Noah. She said sadly, "you sent Zoey and Zoey to the villa, is it so difficult for me to find someone to talk with?"

"I'll ask second sister-in-law to come back and accompany you." Zoey said immediately.

Zoey wished that Zoey could Sarahve the villa so that she wouldn't be worried that Zoey would hurt Julia all day.

"Holden, take her upstairs." Juliet threw a cold blade at Zoey. Zoey shrank her head. Holden nodded his head and took her upstairs, without saying a word.

Noticing the annoyed look on Juliet's face, Zoey wondered why she had been invited back? She had never acted like a good child in front of her mother, not like Zoey.

If Juliet just wanted someone to keep her company, then Zoey was more suitable than her, wasn't she? Juliet was unhappy to see her. She didn't want her to come back at all.

Just as Holden put her on the bed, Zoey pushed him away. She frowned and stared at him, "I'm not injured. What are you talking about?"

"Well, give them some time to get used to it." Sitting next to Zoey, Holden rubbed her head with a smile.

"....." Now that she didn't understand what he meant, she just slipped into the quilt and played with her phone.

Chapter 234

Julia got up from the bed and walked slowly to the window. The cold wind swept past her face. With a shiver, she put one thing on herself.

"Sister-in-law." Zoey pushed the door open and said hello to Julia in a soft voice.

Julia turned around and smiled politely at her.

Zoey went over and helped her back to the bed. Frowning, she said, “be careful. It’s cold in autumn wind.”

“Yes.” Julia rubbed her temples and nodded.

Zoey poured a glass of water and handed it to Julia. She said painfully, “drink some water. sister-in-law, you are a frail woman, so you should be careful and take good care of yourself. The whole family are looking forward to the birth of the baby, especially my brother.”

Julia took a sip and looked at Zoey. When she talked about Shawn, Zoey didn’t show any unusual expression. She thought that maybe Zoey had given up now.

“Sister-in-law, I don’t know if I should tell you about something.” Zoey looked at Julia who drank the water and said slowly.

“What’s wrong?” Julia was confused.

Zoey frowned and seemed to be indecisive, which made Julia curious. Looking into Zoey’s eyes, she suddenly felt that there were two Zoey in front of her, so she rubbed her eyes and tried to calm down.

“Sister-in-law, do you know what kind of place eldest brother has been these days?” Zoey’s voice was soft and tender like water penetrating into Julia’s brain.

Julia shook her head. Zoey gave her the photo that she had prepared, “yesterday, when I went out to a gathering with my classmates, I saw my elder brother was kissing a young girl. That girl was beautiful and was about eighteen years old. She was supposed to be a student of Ventrusburg University. I am worried that I saw something wrong, so I take some photos of you. You can have a look then. “

Julia looked at those photos in shock. In each photo, she saw Shawn and a young girl. Zoey was right. The girl was beautiful. Her slender fingers pointed again, “look, she has fair skin and delicate facial features. She is incredibly beautiful.”

Zoey drew a complicated arc in the photo. Julia looked at her fingers blankly, her eyes full of the scene that the girl staying with Shawn.

“Sister-in-law, I did not expect that my brother would betray you like this. But you can rest assured that he may just want to have fun. My brother is an upright person from the legal world in Ventrusburg, and it is no big deal for him to go out for fun. It is just that I did not expect that he would do this during your pregnancy.”

“Is it because you can’t go out?”

Hearing that, Zoey smiled increasingly brightly. She bent to Julia’s ear and said, “Julia, do you know why you had that situation last night? Because Shawn asked Maria to poison you with sleeping pills? Do you know why Zoey is with you all the time? she was afraid that you might run into her eldest brother stay with some other woman. Do you know why Barbara is here? She has talked to Noah and Shawn. She is here to be Mrs. Li d her character to trick her after this period of time?

“Go back to your room,” Zoey lifted the so-called injured foot and kicked Holden off the bed. She jumped off the bed, pushed him out of the room step by step, and immediately locked the door.

After that, Zoey lied back on the bed.

If only she and Holden were not brother and sister. Then she could at Sarahst secretly give birth to the child, but she could not, because this child was not qualified to come to this world.

Zoey found herself funny. She had made up her mind to abort the baby, but when she saw Holden, she always wanted to tell Holden about it.

It seemed that this was the first time she lied to Holden.

She would also tell Holden her private affairs in the past, because he was the second elder brother whom she trusted most since she was a child.

But now, everything was different.

Standing at the door, Holden smiled helplessly. God knew how much he wanted to announce to everyone that the girl was his wife, not his sister. He knew that it was not the right time. He was too impatient. Now if there was anything wrong, he would lose the game.

He couldn't afford to lose.

A luxurious and low-key car was driving in the dark night. With his hand on the forehead, Shawn stared at the scenery at the roadside. The recent mental state of Julia worried him a lot, but the nerves of pregnant women are generally more sensitive, hoping that it is normal.

When the car stopped at the door of the villa, Shawn said something to Adam. Adam nodded and drove away.

It was quiet in the villa. Shawn heard from Zoey that she was called back to the Nelson family mansion by Juliet and would not come back tonight. And Zoey went back to the Nelson family mansion too.

Shawn quickened his pace and went back to the bedroom. In the bedroom, Julia slept restlessly. Without changing his clothes, he held her into his arms, and by instinct, she quieted down a lot.

Somehow, Shawn felt flustered.

Chapter 235

After she estimated that Holden had left, Zoey opened the door stealthily. The corridor was quiet and no one was there. Perhaps she had gotten used to it, but she was still worried about Julia. So she wanted to say goodbye to Juliet and sneaked back to the villa.

There was no one in the hall. Zoey didn't want to get too close to Holden, so she avoided making any noise in the hall. When she was about to knock on Juliet's door, someone's voice reached her ears.

"Zoey, what's wrong with Julia now?" Juliet asked.

"I have taken more medicine as mom's requirement."

Zoey was shocked. What kind of medicine? What were they talking about? Zoey always had a sensitive sense. She pricked her ear against the door to hear more cSarahrly.

"That's good. I will never let Julia's child stay in Nelson family." Juliet said fiercely.

"Mom, don't worry. It is impossible for Julia to give birth to the baby." Consoled Zoey.

"Do you have any medicine?"

"Still have some left."

"Hurry back and throw it away. We can't Sarahve any traces. Even if they suspect us, we can't find the evidence." Juliet said in a hurry.

"Yes." Zoey explained with a smile.

After a pause, Juliet continued, "I don't know why I gave birth to a girl like Zoey. She has to work hard and stay away from me. If I hadn't ask her back, she wouldn't have been able to destroy my thing."

Zoey's legs and hands couldn't help trembling. It turned out that her mother asked her back to find a way to let Zoey have a chance to move. She knew that Zoey had always been up to no good, but why did she have to do that? Julia had never done anything sorry to them!

"Mom, I'm going to bed." Zoey added.

"Well, don't let Holden wait too long." Julie teased.

Hearing that, Michelle hurriedly hid herself into the storage room nearby. The door of Julie's room opened, and Zoey walked out gracefully. Looking at Zoey's receding figure, Michelle really wanted to go up and tear her to pieces!

No, she couldn't stay here any longer. She had to go back to the villa to find the drug bottle left by Zoey and find the evidence.

Wait, what if the bottles were left here? Zoey called Shawn to tell him about this. As Shawn's cellphone was powered off, she had to give up. Lying in the storage room, she thought for a long time before she came up with a solution.

She had to turn to Holden for help.

At the thought of this, Zoey crept into the room of Holden and Zoey, hesitating if she should knock on the door. She knew that once she entered, she might see the scene she shouldn't have seen, but now she couldn't care that.

Taking a deep breath, Zoey knocked at the door.

It was Zoey who opened the door. Zoey looked surprised when she saw Zoey. Zoey really wanted to ask her what drug she had done to Julia. But she had no evidence. If she said it out on impulse, she would be under house arrest by Juliet.

Not seeing the romantic scene in her imagination, Zoey felt a little comforted. She looked up at Zoey and asked, "I'm looking for second brother. Is he at home?"

"He may be in the study. It is late, why do you come for h

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

"As long as I'm alive, I'm still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses."

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she Sarahrned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

s surrounded Zoey. Holden looked at Zoey with a frown, "what happened?"

"second brother! second elder brother! Zoey drugged and set up Julia. Now let her go!" Zoey hurried to say as she saw Holden.

"Holden, that's your mother's idea. If it is found out, it is your mother who should be blamed by Noah instead of me. At that time, your mother will definitely be expelled from the house. But do you just want to see the scene?" Zoey managed to calm herself down.

Juliet did everything for Holden's sake. Zoey didn't think that Holden would hurt Juliet.

“Brother, don’t listen to her. The person she wants to hurt is a life!” Zoey shouted in a hurry, and suddenly, Holden covered her mouth. Zoey looked at him in panic, unbelievable.

The medicine box was taken away.

All of a sudden, Zoey felt helpless. It turned out that she could do nothing alone. Julia was just a few steps away from her, but she could not tell her that someone wanted to hurt her.

The gate of the villa slowly calmed down as if nothing had happened.

A storm was on the way.

“What are you going to do to Zoey?” After knowing Holden’s attitude in the back seat, Zoey felt more relaxed. She was not the only one to blame even if things were to be ruined.

“It’s none of your business.” Holden said coldly.

“Are you blaming me for being ruthless?” Zoey could tell that Holden was not in a good mood.

Holden paused, “I just didn’t expect it.”

“What else can I do? If Julia does give birth to the baby, I have no chance at all.” Zoey was a little tired too.

You have thousands of ways to chase her away, but you have used the worst one. Miss Ding, I remember you’re a doctor. ” Holden said coldly. What he hated most was that someone hurt the child. Perhaps it was because he was an orphan that he liked the child very much, whether it was born or not.

After pausing for a while, Zoey finally said nothing.

After sending Zoey back to the Nelson family mansion, Holden turned around and drove Zoey back to the villa. He opened the door and took her back to their previous bedroom.

Chapter 236

The next day, the soft sunshine poured on the white quilt, which was dazzling to Julia. Her head was still heavy.

With a glance at Shawn next to her, Julia couldn't help thinking of the romantic photos she saw last night. She was so annoyed that she thought the man who had betrayed her, this hypocritical hypocrite!

"Fuck off!" As soon as Shawn opened his eyes, Julia pushed him away, sat up from the bed and looked at him with hostility and vigilance.

"Kitten?" Shawn's eyebrows knitted. Julia looked a little crazy and dull, as if she were looking at an enemy who had killed her father.

When she saw that Shawn was about to approach her, Julia panicked, looked at him and said, "get out! I don't want to see you. I don't want to see you any more! "

He picked up the vase on the table and threw it at Shawn without giving it a second thought. Without grabbing the vase with one hand, he quickly walked up to Julia, held her around the waist with one arm, and took her in his arms.

Julia struggled and shouted: "let go of me! You bitch! I hate you! Ah ah ah ah!"

"Calm down, kitten." With full strength, Julia turned around like a mad dog and bit harshly on the neck of Shawn.

Shawn didn't move a little bit, the strength of his arms didn't reduce at all. How could his kitten become like this? Seeing that Shawn was unwilling to let go of him, Julia slapped him in the chest crazily and kicked him again and again.

The Taekwondo she had Sarahrned for more than ten years was actually useful at this time, but unfortunately she was facing Shawn, and even if she went mad, she was no match for him. Shawn forcibly controlled her acupoint with one arm, and bowed his head to pinch the red.

Feeling his deep affection, she stared at the man in front of her with glassy eyes. Crystal tears could not help but spurt from her pale cheeks slowly.

He betrayed her, and he kissed others in the same way! She hated him being like this!

"Kitten, can you tell me what happened?" His voice was soft, like a feather brushing over her heart, bringing her a moment of peace.

It suddenly occurred to Julia that this was the man she loved most, and they used to have a good time together.

How could he betray her?

No, she had seen it. He cheated on her. The girl was beautiful, so he was seduced! Thinking of this, Julia suddenly bit Shawn's lips with all her strength. Their mouths and nose were filled with the smell of blood.

Even so, Shawn still didn't let her go.

"Julia, I love you."

"Shawn loves Julia."

"I don't like acting."

“Be a good girl. You have me. The kitten is not afraid.”

“Well, don’t cry, okay? If you want to beat or scold me, just do it.”

“.....”

His voice seemed to come from the sky, every word seemed to penetrate into her heart and into her soul. With his unyielding kiss, Julia finally calmed down,

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

“As long as I’m alive, I’m still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses.”

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she Sarahrned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

long time, Julia finally raised her head and saw Shawn. Her eyes flashed and turned to those intimate pictures. She furiously cursed: “how dare you show up in front of me! Shameless slut!”

As She spoke, She scratched Shawn’s face, and five red marks appeared on it. His sullen face vivid.

It seemed that Julia was very satisfied with what she just did. Then she held on to Shawn’s neck and gave him a heavy bite on his chin, with the sound of click. It seemed that she was enjoying the meal very much.

Zoey covered her face with both hands. She didn't even dare to look that.

Barbara also felt embarrassed and turned her head.

Julia, the heroine, didn't know that at all, but the expression on Shawn's face showed that he didn't care about it at all. If this kind of ruckus could make her feel comfortable, he would let her scratch it.

"Shawn I am afraid..." After that, Julia curled up in his arms again. Her voice was so soft as a mosquito.

"Honey, I'm here. I'll always be here for you." Shawn hugged her tighter, giving her the greatest sense of security.

"What You didn't lie to me? But I saw it." Julia looked up at him in a daze.

"I didn't lie to you." said Shawn seriously, kissing her on the nose

Hearing this, Julia calmed down again. She obediently rubbed her little head on the neck of prison. Seeing the red marks on the neck bitten by her, she suddenly smiled.

This man was so easy to be bullied.

"Shawn, you can't betray me, even if I'm getting old and ugly." Julia furiously stared at him.

"Yes, I will get older when you get older." Shawn's voice was soft, and it was a beautiful and gentle voice. Julia nodded with a giggle in his arms.

She beat and scolded him, and he would let her do it without asking why. She needed comfort and he was willing to give her warmth. When she was scared, he told her again and again not to be afraid, he was behind her.

Chapter 237

As soon as she arrived at the hospital, Julia kept calm.

Barbara glared at Julia, but she was ignored. She felt sad that her daughter didn't rely on her mother. This disappointed her Zoey cast a few glances at Shawn too. She wondered since when her brother had become so good tempered. She still remembered that Shawn was very strict with people. It was either mean or cold to everyone.

It seemed that her eldest brother really treated Julia well. Thinking of this, Zoey couldn't help but sneer at Zoey's naivety. She thought Zoey was too naive. There was no third person could tear apart the relationship between Julia and her eldest brother. There was no place for a third person between them.

She didn't know why she hid that part of Holden from Shawn. Perhaps it was because she didn't want to see that Shawn and Holden became enemies, although the relationship between them was not so good

After they got out of the car, Shawn took Julia into the hospital. He put her on the bed and was about to say something to the doctor. But Julia tightly grasped the corner of Shawn's garment, preventing him from Sarahving.

Julia was always obedient and sensible. She wouldn't pester Shawn, but now she was different from normal.

Shawn didn't let her go. Instead, he ask Zoey and Barbara to handle procedures, and he held Julia's hand and kept her company.

After a moment's silence, Julia began to make trouble again. She frowned, pointed at Shawn and shouted angrily, "you are trying to hurt me! And even hurt the baby! "

“No one is hurting you.” Shawn kissed her forehead and said gently.

Then he took her in his arms and let her Sarahn on his shoulder. Julia stared at the man’s ear for a long time with her bright eyes. She pulled and rubbed his ear for a while, and then Shawn’s pitiful ear turned red.

Shawn put up with her.

The doctor wanted to laugh, but he controlled himself. The old doctor felt Julia’s pulse, and observed her other appearances carefully. All kinds of medical instruments were being tested on her body.

After Shawn fed Julia some medicine, he asked anxiously, “is she all right?”

The old doctor dared not hesitate for a moment as he felt Shawn’s fire-like eyes. He hurried to say, “Mrs. Nelson’s nerves are severely damaged, and the fetus is seriously stimulated. The fetus’s heartbeat is very weak. Whether or not we can save it depends on the fetus’s fate.”

“As long as she takes good care of herself, she will recover completely. But recently, she may keep in a delirious state, or sometimes she will be awake or confused.” The doctor added.

Shawn lowered his head and looked at Julia. She was not as vigilant and hostile as she was in the morning. Instead, she was as dependent on him as a child.

Shawn smiled, reached out his hand and pinched her nose lovingly. “The kitten is so lovely.”

Hearing the word “compliment”, Julia laughed happily. She put her arms around Shawn’s neck and bit him on the neck again. ‘a crazy dog likes biting, but in fact, a crazy dog also likes biting..

ated for a while and wanted to know where he was. She saved the number in her mobile phone, but rarely made a call.

After a while, someone answered the phone.

“Holden.” Zoey called softly.

“What’s up?” Holden’s voice was very calm, but his fingers clamped well between cold and hot, just like the plain water.

Hastily shaking her head, Zoey answered in a trembling voice, “I’m fine Where did you take Zoey last night? I heard that Julia is in hospital. What should I do? I am sure that Shawn won’t let me go after he knows it. “

A touch of irritability swept over Holden’s face. He said slowly, “that’s your business. I’m a little busy now. If you don’t have anything else, I’ll hang up first.”

He didn’t want to get involved in her business.

“Wait!” Zoey stopped him.

Holden frowned.

“Holden, the only person I can rely on now is you. Don’t be so cold to me. I will be afraid. I am really afraid.” Her voice was trembling, weak and feeble, so pitiful.

But that only made Holden more disgusted. He smiled, “Miss Ding, I’m not Shawn, so sorry, I can’t provide you with places to rely on.”

Holden was a polite man. He never hung up others’ phone first. He held the phone in one hand and browsed the data in the other, waiting for Zoey to hang up.

“Holden, a day together as couple means endless devotion. Are you going to dump me?” Zoey sobbed.

She needed someone to rely on, and someone to hold her in the arms.

Holden didn't answer. As he ignored Zoey's question, he didn't get the answer. Fragile and panicked, Zoey asked, “are you still there?” Her pitiful tone made people feel sorry for her.

It was just that Zoey found the wrong person. Although Holden was polite and gentle, it didn't mean he was a popular lover, but it didn't mean that he would coax every girl to be obedient.

At last, Zoey had no choice but to hang up the phone, with her hands clasped tightly.

Even if Holden refused to provide her a harbor, she would still do what she wanted. No one could stop her.

Chapter 238

As soon as Zoey hung up, Zoey's call came in.

Holden was slightly shocked. Why did girls call him today?

“Brother, Julia has woken up. Her baby is still alive. And, thank you for taking me back to the villa. That's all. Bye.” Obviously, Zoey considered for a long time and called him in an extremely unwilling situation.

“Zoey, is it difficult to say one more word with me?” Holden sighed helplessly.

“Okay. Then let me ask you, why did Carrie become a madman? What are you going to do with Zoey and mom? Can you answer my question? ” Zoey asked with a snort, “brother, we can't go back to the past. I've known where Carrie is now. I'll take her to the hospital when Julia recovers. And I'll be engaged to Hobson. He's a nice person. "

"I can forgive mom, but I will never forgive Zoey." Then Zoey added, "even if she is your wife, I won't forgive her."

With a gentle smile, Holden's spoiling words came over the wireless telephone, "Zoey, are you jealous of Zoey?"

"Who is jealous of her?" Zoey jumped out of bed excitedly and said resentfully.

"Zoey, are you jealous of her?" Holden said firmly.

Zoey frowned. "You have been distracted. Answer me. Why did Carrie become a lunatic? Did you do something to her? "

"I'm just returning the favour." Said Holden calmly.

Zoey wanted to say something but was interrupted by Holden. "Have you come back to the villa?" he asked

Zoey nodded subconsciously. "Brother will take care of Julia in the hospital. Julia will be fine."

"Well, I'll go there later. Do you want to eat something?" Holden said naturally.

"Don't come over. I'm going to sleep. Bye." Zoey said in shock. Before Holden could say anything, she immediately hung up the phone.

All men in the Nelson family were like detours, which could easily pass away what they didn't want to say.

Afraid that Holden would really come, Zoey moved all the tables to the door and pressed it against it to give no chance for Holden to sneak in. After that, Zoey fell asleep in peace.

The next day, when Zoey woke up, she was shocked to find that there was another man beside her. She looked at the door curiously and found that the tables and chairs were still there! Then she turned her head to look at the window. The breeze blew the curtains up high

Damn you! She couldn't believe that Holden came in through the window! Zoey, who never said dirty words, could not help but secretly swear a foul word. However, as she thought of the way that Holden climbed the window with difficulty, Zoey suddenly felt funny.

At last, Zoey put her hand on her head and resigned herself to move the table and chair away. Next time, she must lock the window and see how he could get in!

In the hospital, Julia looked the same as she was yesterday. Sometimes she fought with Shawn, sometimes she was sweet, and sometimes panic, as if she was being chased.

Seeing Zoey and Barbara, Julia still was angry.

to rid of Zoey's hypnosis.

"You are the God?" Julia looked at her curiously.

Zoey stared at Julia, "Yes, I'm the God. I'm the God in your world. Julia, the reason why they treat you so good is because they feel guilty, but they have done so much wrong, are you still willing to forgive them? "

Her voice was as mild and quiet as usual, and her eyes were like whirlpools, little by little, attracting people's mind.

Julia frowned, without nodding or shaking her head.

“Julia, do you still remember that when you bit Shawn, he was relieved? Every time you hurt him, he felt relieved. When he’s done with you, he’ll Sarahve and find beautiful girls again. “

“Do you still remember the gossips of Zoey and Barbara? They said that the idiot was really silly, and she thought that we really began to treat her well. In fact, they still regard you as a complete idiot, a madman. “

“Julia, you are crazy. You don’t belong to this world. Go with me.”

No matter what she said, Zoey sounded calm like the calm ocean, which gave out a strong sense of security and trust in people, and let Julia believe in her.

Step by step, Zoey walked down the stairs and stood on one of the stairs that was two steps lower from Julia’s. she crooked her finger at Julia with a smile and said, “come here.”

It seemed that her place was a quiet heaven, while Julia’s place was a dirty hell.

Julia didn’t make any movement. She wanted to see that person even in the hell, who the God said was atoning for his sin. Even if she lost all her consciousness, she still stood by that man.

Seeing that Julia didn’t move, Zoey frowned. In order to upset Julia’s brain, she had already injected an injection into her head. Now, Julia should listen to her.

Finally, Zoey looked up at Julia, “go with me.”

Julia shook her head decisively, “I’m not Sarahving. I’m going back to the ward.”

Zoey was stunned for a little while, and Julia was fully aware of what ward was?

Chapter 239

“Zoey, what are you doing here?” A female voice was heard all of a sudden. Zoey glared at Zoey with cold eyes.

Zoey turned her head and saw Zoey standing at the foot of the stairs. She felt panic immediately.

“What do you want to do to Julia again?” Zoey walked to them step by step. With her eyebrows cocked, she looked at Zoey as if she was looking at a pile of trash.

When she saw Zoey approaching her, Julia was excited. “What are you doing here! Get out of here!” As he was saying, he was about to go downstairs and drive Michelle away. When Julia was about to walk down the stairs, Zoey stretched out her foot and tripped her.

But it was out of Julia’s expectation. Her body shook a few times and then she fell down uncontrollably. On seeing this, Zoey quickly reached out her hands to support her. Because of her little strength, Zoey didn’t hold her back. She screamed and they rolled down the stairs together.

“Kitten!” Shawn shouted in panic as she found the staircase. Zoey turned around and ran away. There was no time for Zoey. Shawn went downstairs step by step, carrying Julia in his arms and heading to the emergency room.

It was indeed a pain in her stomach, and Julia was sweating all over as her fingers were deeply embedded into Shawn’s clothes.

Seeing Julia’s pale face, Shawn’s heart ached. He didn’t do well enough and hurt his woman again. It was his fault.

“Mr. Li, pSarahse wait outside.”

“Fuck off! I want to go in and watch her! ” The doctors who were stopping him were all kicked out. However, Shawn didn’t open the door when they reached the door. He was afraid that his impulse would affect the doctors’ operation, which would do harm to Julia.

At this time, Barbara also came here. Standing in front of the door of the operating room, Shawn was full of guilt and worry. The doctor had said that it was difficult to keep the baby, and now she even fell down the stairs.

Unless it was a miracle, the baby would be fine.

The door of Julia’s operating room hadn’t been opened yet, and a nurse came to him and said, “Mr. Li, Miss Nelson had a miscarriage.”

“Zoey?” Shawn was confused

“Yes, Zoey.”

Everything was in a mess.

Holden, Hobson, Noah and Juliet rushed over. With red eyes, Shawn who never hit a woman before walked over and grabbed Juliet’s hair, punching her on the wall around her head. Frightened by her fierce stare, Juliet trembled with rage and didn’t dare to utter a single word.

After a few seconds of stalemate, Noah hurried over to pull Shawn away. After coming to herself, Juliet hurriedly fled away from Shawn. She hurriedly walked into the ward with Hobson, looking at Zoey.

After standing beside Shawn for a long time, Noah finally sighed and turned around to Sarahve.

All the people gasped in astonishment when they heard that Zoey had a miscarriage. They didn't even know when Zoey was pregnant, but now she said that Zoey had a miscarriage.

"Are you sure you didn't make mistakes?" The nurse was performing the surgery on Zoey, but Holden stopped her and asked her again and again.

Dumbfounded, the nurse shook her head. "Mr. Holden, miss Zoey did have a miscarriage, the concerned and distressed expression on his face. Was it his brother's concern for his sister, or No.

"I'm going out. Holden, you follow me," Juliet stood up and said to Holden indifferently.

"Brother, don't help Zoey. Don't help her. Let her die!" Zoey grasped Holden's wrist. Her eyes were as fierce as a mad female tiger.

Upon hearing this, Juliet felt disgusted but flustered.

It was Zoey who stumbled and made Julia and Zoey fall off the stairs. It was unavoidable for Zoey to hate Zoey. Zoey hated her as she had no guts or cunning. She only said a few words. Juliet was not worried that Zoey would take revenge on Zoey. She was just worried about Shawn would take revenge on Zoey.

It seemed that Shawn would not let go of Zoey, nor would he let go of her. But after all, she was his stepmother. And it was Zoey who made Julia fall off the stairs.

He had to make Zoey Sarahve as soon as possible.

"Mom, let's talk about it later." Holden said slightly, "Or, in mom's eyes, daughter-in-law's affair is more important than daughter's?"

Juliet couldn't say a word. After taking a glance at Zoey and Holden, she turned around and left. Even if Holden didn't help her, she would send Zoey out of Ventrusburg. Holden wouldn't help Zoey, but he wouldn't Sarahve his mother behind.

After Juliet left, the ward was empty. Hobson peeled an apple and handed it to her, "have some food."

It was not until then that Zoey realized the existence of Hobson. She asked in surprise, "Why are you here?"

He would have knocked on her head if Zoey hadn't been injured. He was her fiance. How strange he was to be here?

Hobson rolled his eyes at her and answered, "passing by."

Zoey took the apple and took a bite. "What a coincidence," she said

"Ahem." Seeing their little interaction, Holden was very uncomfortable. He coughed slightly to make them less unbridled.

Noticing that she was too close to Holden, Zoey's face turned red. She quickly pushed Holden away, put the apple that she had taken a bite into his hand, and went to bed.

Seeing that, both Holden and Hobson didn't disturb her rest.

Chapter 240

When Noah arrived at the door of the emergency room, the door hadn't been opened. Shawn was Sarahning against the wall, and the blood on his fist was very shocking. Noah's heart twitched.

He always loved his son dearly, but he couldn't get close to him.

Since the death of Jean, there was only one person in the world of Shawn that no one could set foot in his world. No matter how hard the weather had been, how bright the sun had been, only he knew.

When he was in the United States, he did not use the money his father gave him. Even if he had been very hard at that time, Shawn had never received any gift from Noah. When he came back to take over the Nelson Group, he did not accept the help of Noah. He had been building his own business step by step.

He was cold, aloof and arrogant. Line of defense had been built in his heart. Sometimes, Noah also hoped that Shawn would have a free and unrestrained life as those useless noble children. He didn't want to see him go to work alone.

In this world, the person whom Noah felt most sorry for was not Barbara and Julia, but Shawn and Jean. As a matter of fact, the biggest reason why he didn't divorce Juliet was Shawn.

On the day when Noah took Barbara to his company, Shawn came back from the United States because of grandmother. He said nothing when he saw Barbara and Noah together. Instead, he sneered.

That smile still could not be forgotten by Noah. It was mocking, disdainful, disgusting, and contemptuous.

Seeing his son stare at him like a pile of stinky garbage, Noah felt guilty. He didn't dare to be happy in front of Shawn. His happiness was the most sarcastic thing to Shawn and Jean.

So far, he still hadn't changed his mind.

As a father, he had to act with self-abasement and care in front of Shawn, pretending to be dignified.

As he walked over, in front of the prison, even if he lowered his head, he was still a little taller than him. At this time, he didn't know what to say. He wanted to comfort him, but didn't know where to start.

In the end, he just patted Shawn on the shoulder, but received no response. In his eyes, there was no one else.

Noah sighed.

He turned around and walked to Barbara. He took her in his arms. Shawn need no shoulder to rely on but Barbara needed.

"Don't worry. She'll be fine." Noah coaxed her softly.

Without knowing who was holding her, Barbara thought she had someone to rely on. She wept louder and nodded nervously. "It's okay, it's okay..."

Time passed by slowly.

The sound of Shawn's heart was like being hung in the air. His heart was about to fall. Her reason also gradually disappeared. Only a few hours, but they seemed to have waited for thousands of years, long enough to be unbearable.

The door of the emergency room was finally opened and Shawn broke in. Julia's face was as pale as a lips on hers, and gave her a gentle kiss. He didn't care much about her, but he gave all his heart to this woman, the woman who stole his heart.

He had never been so distressed. If he could, he would rather take all the pain for her than shed all her tears for her.

With her eyes wide open, Julia stared at the man's good-looking eyes, and her heartbeats suddenly stopped. All memories came to her mind.

Shawn A voice came from the bottom of her heart, and it made her heart ache. She followed his kiss instinctively and closed her eyes obediently. This feeling was very familiar.

After the kiss, Julia looked more obedient. She nestled in his arms quietly, looked up from time to time and asked him questions innocently. No matter how childish the questions were, he would answer them patiently.

“Baby? Where is my baby?” Julia looked around and asked suddenly.

Before Shawn answered, Julia looked at another empty place and gently smiled. “Come here, my baby. Come over to mom.”

Shawn looked at the direction of Julia’s sight, but saw nothing. Julia was still giggling at that place, as if there was really a child walking towards her.

“My baby is so lovely.” Julia picked up the pillow and looked up at Shawn with a big smile.

Shawn nodded gently and took the pillow away from Julia’s hand. He coaxed Julia in a soft voice, “it’s time for the baby to sleep. Can you also have a rest?”

Julia hastily grabbed the pillow from Shawn and put it back in her arms, and said, “I want to sleep with the baby in my arms. He’s so good. He’s so cute.”

“You want to take my baby away? No way!” Julia held the pillow tightly, frowned and looked at Shawn warily, as if Shawn had hurt her beloved treasure.

Shawn could only let Julia do what she want.

He held her with one hand and didn’t dare to sleep for several days. He was afraid that something would happen to Julia again when he just fell asleep.
