

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 291 – 300

Chapter 291

Julia lived in the mountain with Mr. Ding. And Mr. Ding didn't lie to her, because there was indeed poison left in her body. As the medicine Mr. Ding prescribed for her, she didn't have nightmares or be in a trance from time to time. But she still had a headache sometimes. And the headache had no signs of healing.

Mr. Ding didn't explain anything, and Julia didn't ask anything either. She just kept taking her medicine.

It was really deep in the mountain. Julia walked out of the door and looked up. What she could see was a large area of forest and a continuous large mountain. She looked back at the cottage that she and auntie lived in, and could not help but sigh.

The cottage was really small, with only two bedrooms and a shower room inside. And the shower room was especially used for Julia, because Mr. Ding had been used to take a lake bath near the cabin Hearing from Mr. Ding, he and Zoey once lived here for a long time. It was the place where he used to collect herbs.

Because it is in the depth of the mountain, there are many rare herbs difficult to obtain from the outside, such as Ganoderma lucidum herb of one thousand years and ginseng king of ten thousand years, also a lot seen here.

Julia had made up her mind that she must bring more herbs with her when going out, in which case she could make a lot of money

They had been here for one month. Julia got used to the life here, quiet and peaceful. Every morning, she was woken up by Mr. Ding. Then she followed him to the small town next to the deep mountain, bought some things and went back to the mountain.

On her way, she was taught how to identify different kinds of herbs and Mr. Ding told her their using. In the beginning, Julia was unable to remember the function, but gradually, she remembered it more and more cSarahrly.

It was also because she had read a lot of medical books because of Shawn's arm, which had become her foundation.

At noon, Mr. Ding would teach her to prescribe medicine, and threw a few thick Chinese medicine books on the parchment in front of her to let her remember it.

Julia was busy everyday. But she would still wake up late at night every time after she finished her work. She could not understand why, when she thought of Shawn, and shed tears.

Having just arrived for a few days, Julia really wanted to go back. She thought that it was silly to come out. But when she told Mr. Ding about it, she was scolded by him severely. From then on, she didn't dare to mention it anymore.

After she came here, it was undeniable that Julia was in a better mood and calmed down a lot. She didn't care about the baby anymore, and she didn't have to worry that the lovers and relatives would worry about her and suppress their emotions. The invisible chain that tied her gradually became meaningless.

The natural environment here made her become unrestrained.

But there was another thing that made Julia surprised and pSarahsed. She was pregnant.

When she heard that she was pregnant, Julia really wanted to take out her phone and call Shawn to tell him this news. But she thought for a while and controlled h n the future, Mr. Ding and Julia bought a place in a small city and built a hospital there. People in this small city didn't know about Mr. Ding's medical skills, and they didn't need to see doctors even if there were some minor diseases or pains. So they were quite happy to live there comfortably.

In fact, Julia didn't lack money. After coming out of the Nelson family mansion, she took out the gold card that was given to her by Shawn, in order not to let herself be wronged. She also drew a large sum of money for herself and Mr. Ding to use. Barbara once said that a person like Julia would not die of hunger no matter where she went

Now, Julia thought that her mother knew her very well. After all, human beings should love themselves.

“Sister Julia, why is your belly so big?” Perhaps it was because of Julia's lively personality, children in small cities always liked to come to the medical studio, where was always filled with a faint smell of herbs, making people feel refreshed.

Hearing the question, Julia raised her head from her book and looked down at the three-year-old twins. She gently pinched the cheeks of the twins and said with a smile, “because There is a watermelon in my belly. “

“Watermelon? I want to eat watermelon! ” When sissy heard that there was food to eat, she looked up at Julia innocently. The little pitiful look made Julia can’t refuse her request.

She patted sissy’s head and stood up slowly. She took the twins with two hands and smiled, “come on, let me take you to buy watermelon.”

The twins jumped around Julia happily, “watermelon! Watermelon! Buy watermelon! “

Looking at the innocent smiles of the children, Julia couldn’t help but feel happy. When Mr. Ding saw them walk out of the hospital, he immediately reminded them, “be careful. Don’t move too fast. The baby is important.”

Julia turned around and giggled: “I know.”

If mom and others were around, they would talk as nagging as Mr. Ding did. Suddenly, Julia thought of someone again. She hastily shook her head to expel her random thoughts.

Their baby would come out soon.

Chapter 292

Walking to the fruit stall, Julia picked a big watermelon and asked the storekeeper to cut it in two. She then put the watermelon into the hands of the twins respectively. The twins held the watermelon in their hands with their mouths wide open, and they began to eat it.

Julia looked down at the two babies and couldn’t help but look at her big belly. Would her baby be that cute? The image of handsome face of Shawn suddenly emerged in her mind, and she breathed a sigh of relief. Dad was so good-looking, and the child might not be too ugly

After the twins were full, they ran home hand in hand. It was almost dusk. Julia watched the twins running away, she felt so happy.

When she was about to walk back, she suddenly heard someone call her, "Julia?"

Julia turned around with confusion and was stunned at the man standing in front of her.

It was Martin.

"Why are you here?" Almost at the same time, both of them asked with one voice.

Both of them were amazed after the question. They smiled awkwardly. Martin said first, "it's my hometown. Is it strange that I come back?"

hometown? Hearing that, Julia was stunned. She hadn't expected that Martin would have gone out from such a desolate mountain?

"How about you? Why don't you enjoy your life in Ventrusburg with Shawn? " Martin looked down at her and raised his eyebrows and asked.

"I..." Julia faltered and didn't know how to answer.

Noticing Julia's big belly, Martin asked her in a serious tone, "Shawn's baby?"

Julia scratched her hair and admitted, "yea..."

"Did you quarrel with each other?" Martin pursued.

Julia frowned and said, "Martin, could you pSarahse stop asking such a boring question?"

Hearing that, a faint smile played at the corners of Martin's mouth. He looked at Julia with great interest, while Julia felt somewhat uneasy under his gaze.

"Julia, should I call Shawn and let him pick you up?" As soon as he finished saying that, Martin stretched his hand, intending to take his cellphone out of his pocket. Julia hastily stopped him. She gave him a stare and said, "don't call him."

"Then tell me the reason." Martin was playing with his phone while looking at Julia.

Julia had no choice but to say: "Okay, let's talk in the park."

Martin nodded. Following Julia, they arrived at the only park in the small city. The lake was most prominent, with a row of stone chairs by the side of the lake. In addition, there weren't many scenic spots in the park.

They sat on the stone bench by the lake. Julia stared at the lake in front of her and wondered how to explain it to Martin. She felt a little weird. Why should she explain these things to Martin? How could this man named Martin be so gossip!

"It's just I have run away from home. " Julia said slowly, "I don't want to go back now. I will go back when it's time."

After saying that, she turned her head to look at Martin. "Why do you come back here? Aren't your foster parents already... " She remembered he said his foster parents had passed away.

Martin chuckled. "You do have a great ability in changing the topic."

"Can't I ask you questions?" Julia pretended to be annoyed.

Martin turned his head and looked at the lak dinner. Besides, you will be in charge of this broken dog and consider a way to cure it. Every kind of injury has the most suitable treatment method. ” Added Mr. Ding.

Julia nodded obediently. She peeped at Mr. Ding. Though she was pregnant, the workload she was carrying didn't change a bit.

Mr. Ding worked so hard Are you afraid that there will be something wrong with your body and no way to teach her?

After dinner, Julia continued to study the medicinal materials. She Sarahfed through the pages, marked the places that she couldn't understand, and planned to ask Mr. Ding tomorrow.

At this time, Mr. Ding came back to his bedroom.

Julia couldn't sleep. She sat by the window, reading a book while enjoying the cool summer breeze.

She had left Ventrusburg for quite a long time from autumn to summer Julia was in a trance. Because she met Martin, she couldn't help but think of people in Ventrusburg.

Shawn

Julia took out her phone which hadn't been used for a long time and surfed on the Internet. Suddenly she saw the news about theNelson Group again.

She saw the headline of the news: the news that the CEO of theNelson Group was getting married.

Julia was stunned for a few seconds. Shawn.. Getting married?

“Julia, haven’t you gone to bed?” An old voice came from the door. Julia’s hand couldn’t help trembling. The phone slipped from the window and fell down from the second floor, breaking into pieces.

Mr. Ding heard the sound and came in, Julia hid her flustered look in a hurry. “I I’m fine. My phone fell down accidentally. “

“It doesn’t matter. Take care of yourself” At the sight of this, Mr. Ding hurried to pull down Julia from the window and whispered a lesson to her.

“Yeah, I’m fine.” “Grandpa Ding, why haven’t you gone to bed yet? Can’t you sleep? “

Mr. Ding shook his head and took her to the first floor. He turned on the light and said, “I suddenly remembered that a herb is very important. I haven’t taught you.” He said as he stood on tiptoe to get the medicinal herbs.

Was it for the news of Shawn’s wedding or for the thin figure of Mr. Ding? Julia couldn’t help but feel sad.

Chapter 293

The next day, Julia naturally woke up, staring at the ceiling. She couldn’t help thinking of the news, the marriage of the CEO of the Nelson Group.

Shawn was about to get married.

She gently bit her lips, but her nose couldn’t help aching. Mom was right. No one would wait for a person unconditionally. She was too wayward.

That’s it

Julia closed her eyes. Her eyes were dry. She bit her lips, trying to hold back her tears.

In this small city, Martin worked in the police station because he was a boxer. He often came over to have dinner with Julia and Mr. Ding. Julia was helpless with him.

After that, it seemed that Martin took Julia's Hospital as his home. Without so many things happening in small city, Martin led a leisurely and comfortable life.

It was also from that day on, Julia didn't try to make any effort to get to know more about Shawn. She didn't even buy any mobile phone. Instead, she just ran a small hospital with her unborn baby to live quietly.

"I heard that someone in the Nelson family is going to get married. Do you know that?" Bending over the counter, Martin saw that Julia was busy, so he picked up a topic.

Julia stopped, but didn't turn around.

"Are you really not going back? It's not like you. Shouldn't you defend your right like a tigress?" Seeing that Julia did not respond, Martin spoke again.

Veins popped out on Julia's forehead. She didn't understand why she was a tigress to defend her right? She was a lovely kitten, ok?

Julia couldn't stand Martin's blabbering anymore. She turned around and looked at him coldly. "Martin, you are free today, aren't you? Neighbor's pig would have another pig baby. If you have time, you can come to help him. He may marry his beautiful daughter to you. "

Martin blinked his eyes, pretending to be wronged, "do you think with a temperament, I'm a person who works like this?"

With a cold glance at him, Julia raised her sexy lips and smiled slightly. "Martin, to be honest, you are."

She couldn't help but sigh, and wondered why the son, who was wandering outside, was not as outstanding as Shawn and Holden who was like the sun and moon in the sky.

Then, she began to wonder whether gene or environment was more important for child? If her child was in a small town all the time, would he be like Martin?

She missed Shawn so much. Alas, she missed Holden so much

"Julia." Martin came over again.

Julia almost threw the ointment at him. But to show her elegance, she took a deep breath and smiled, "Martin, it's getting late. You'd better go back. There is no place for your strong body."

Martin looked out of the window. The sun was shining in the sky. He pointed at the sun outside earnestly. "The sun hasn't gone down yet."

"....." Finally, Julia got nothing to say. She moved a chair to the other side, held up the book and read, completely ignoring Martin.

"Julia, your baby is about to be born, right? The people in the town are guessing who is the father of your baby. You know, people in small city will look down upon those women who got pregnant before mar for betraying her because she let go of him first

Since he could find the girl he liked, she should bless him. Anyway, it was destiny that brought them together.

Julia touched her belly and looked out of the window. The cold moonlight poured in through the window, scattering golden on the ground. Tears welled up in her eyes.

The baby was the only connection between him and her. She would definitely make he grow up safely.

After a long time, Julia fell asleep in bed.

In her dream.

She saw the grand ceremony again, the man was him and the woman was not her, but a very beautiful girl with a smile, as if all the light in the world were focused on her.

She stood in the crowded crowd, looking at him holding a girl's hand and walking towards the priest step by step. They made their commitment devoutly, looked at each other sincerely saying that I love you, and kissed each other piously

All the people present offered their blessings to them. Shawn replied them one by one. There was no sign of irritable on their faces, but a gentle smile on their faces. That kind of smile belonged to her before.

She could not help but rush to the crowd and shouted at him, "Shawn! Don't get married! You can't get married! If you dare to marry me, I will kill you! "

But Shawn didn't seem to hear that. Julia walked up to him and tried to hug him. However, she passed through his body without any reaction. Julia looked at herself in astonishment.

Her body was transparent. He was so close to her, but she couldn't touch him.

Finally, Julia squatted down, holding her head and crying. Everyone was not there. Everyone was away from her.

She stood up slowly and didn't cry or feel desperate as if half a century had passed. She walked towards the strand of light in darkness slowly.

The room was then covered with a layer of orange red. In the sunlight, Julia slowly opened her eyes. She turned to look out the window. Another day had come Shawn, if the dream is true, I won't make trouble for you. I wish you happiness.

Chapter 294

After a few days, Julia was in hospital, waiting for the birth of the baby.

The hourly employee had become Julia's full-time worker. Julia was satisfied with the obedient and capable women in small town. To take care of Julia, Mr. Ding worked as a temporary doctor in the hospital and kept a close eye on Julia, so she received a lot of treatment every day.

Martin came here from time to time. Julia treated him as usual. She didn't have any bad attitude towards him because of what happened last time. However, her attitude was very plain, and Martin could do nothing to her.

With the time approaching, Mr. Ding was sure to adopt a Caesarean birth plan. Julia was pregnant with twins. According to her physical condition, the risk of the Caesarean birth was relatively low.

Due to adequate preparations, giving birth to the baby did not bring much pain to Julia. However, without Shawn accompanying her, she was still a little upset, no, very depressed.

Just as Mr. Ding had predicted, the baby was a boy and a girl. Looking at the baby, Julia grinned with joy. This was her and Shawn's baby

They were safely born. Shawn said that he wanted a pair of twins, and better a boy and a girl.

Mr. DING seemed to be very excited, holding the baby with his trembling hands, and praised again and again, "it's so good-looking, so good-looking. Look at the tall nose. Kids are blessed. "

Julia was embarrassed. It was hard to tell whether the piece of meat was good or not from its appearance. It was even hard to tell it was a boy or a girl

"Julia, give them a name," Mr. Ding was in a sudden excitement then he reminded of the name. Julia smiled and said, "I have already thought about it."

"Boy's name is Easton Li, and girl's name is Clara Shawn." Julia said without hesitation.

She sat up and took two babies from Mr. Ding. The babies were still sleeping and were so cute. "They look so beautiful!" said Julia. She liked them so much Hearing that, Martin, who was standing by and looking at the twins, was stunned for a while. Then he remembered that Julia had a child before, so she had made this name at that time.

"Brother's nickname is Bowen, and sister's name is Bobo." Said Julia.

"Vulgar!" Martin could not help refuting, "brother shall call the baby No. 1, sister should call the baby No. 2."

"....." Julia wanted to kick Martin out.

Then Mr. Ding coughed his throat and continued, "brother's name is ginseng and sister's name is Freya. These are all rare herbs, which are enough to show our true love to our child."

Julia touched her forehead and thought, 'is it really okay to have a child growing up in an environment like that??' She doubted

Finally, Julia took a lot of efforts to determine the twins' names. Brother was called Easton, sister was called Clara. Though nothing new, Julia thought it was suitable to them.

When Mr. Ding went out to do his work, Martin, who was sitting by the bed, asked Julia, "Hey, are you going to let our children come back to Nelson family? Are you going to go back to Ventrusburg? Why do they even allow the children to have Nelson's surnames? "

"Shawn is children's dad. Why their surname is not Li? I like this name. " Julia raised her eyebrows and with a child. Martin followed Julia to the security checkpoint silently all the way and stopped.

"You can go back now." Julia turned around and smiled at him.

Martin hesitated for a moment and nodded. "Okay. Be careful on your way back to Ventrusburg. Remember to call me or send message to me when you arrived."

"OK!" Julia replied.

And, if you want to come back, I'll wait for you here. " Martin continued.

"What are you waiting for? Marry a good girl as soon as you find her." After she heard him, Julia gave him a disdainful and half serious look.

"....." Martin shook his head helplessly. Julia could always avoid some serious topics.

"Okay, Easton, Clara. Say goodbye to uncle." Julia bent down and reminded the two babies holding her legs, smiling.

Clara walked to Martin and hugged him. Hugging her with great care, Martin kissed her on her cheek and said, “Clara, call me if you miss me. I will come to you when I am free.”

Clara nodded and said, “uncle came with me with an ice Tanghulu, which is my favorite.”

“Okay.” Martin smiled.

“I want grandpa Simon’s cotton candy, tofu flowers, osmanthus cakes and...” Since Martin had agreed that, Clara planned to take the chance to ask Martin for more.

Julia didn’t want to hear anymore, so she took Clara back from Martin’s arms and scolded her, “you are a foodie. What else will you think except eating?”

Clara blinked her eyes and put on a big smile. “I will think about how to get some food.”

“.....” Julia and Martin fell silent.

“Goodbye, uncle.” Easton bowed to Martin just like a little adult. He didn’t look at Julia and Clara at all, dragging a suitcase of the same height as him and walking straight forward.

“Easton, wait for me.” Seeing this, Julia hurriedly followed him with her suitcase. Clara hopped around, trying to help her brother with the suitcase.

Martin saw their backs as they went far away. It was not until their figures disappeared at the corner of the passageway that Martin’s sight was still not withdrew. It was not until quite a while later that he came to his senses.

With a bitter smile, he turned and left.

Chapter 295

After a few hours' flight, Julia showed up at the airport of Ventrusburg with her twins. She was excited as she finally came back to the familiar land.

But when she thought of that Shawn had been married five years ago, Julia couldn't help but feel sad, wondering how he was now

Instead of going back to the small city to look for Barbara, Julia went back the Zona Residences. On the way back, she turned her head to look at the scenery on the roadside. Although it had been five years, she still felt that Ventrusburg had not changed.

There was no change in the Zona Residences for five years. Julia recalled the owner of the house five years ago and wanted to ask him if he had rented the room.

The landlord's reply made Julia a little surprised. Someone had bought the apartment in her name, so it was her property.

Julia couldn't help thinking about the man mentioned by the landlord Could it be Shawn?

But on second thought, she thought it was impossible. What was the point of buying her room for Shawn? Well. Shawn bought this suite at his convenience, probably because he had too much money to spend.

Julia stopped her random thoughts and pulled the suitcase back to the room she used to live in.

She didn't notice that the landlord immediately called someone when she just left, "Master, the girl has come back."

At the door of her room, Julia wiped the sweat from her forehead, took out the key and opened the door. The room was not as messy as she thought, but very cSarahn, and the decoration was exactly the same as where it was.

“Wow, the room is so big!” As they entered the new environment, Clara much more excited than Julia. She pulled Easton to open the bedroom’s door. Soon, they fought fiercely in bed.

Julia didn’t want to talk to them anymore. She dragged her suitcase into the bedroom, opened it and packed her things. She was afraid that Easton and Clara would be hungry, so she went to kitchen to get them something to eat.

When they heard that Julia was going to cook for them, the two kids still stood in front of her. With a frown, Easton looked up at Julia and said, “Mommy, you’d better order some take out.”

“Mommy, I don’t want to have diarrhea.” Clara spoke frankly.

The child’s words frustrated Julia a lot. She snorted and reluctantly took out her Sarahflets, ordering takeout with the land line machine. It was ashamed for her that after so many years being a single mother, her cooking was still not improved at all.

The kids didn’t like her cooking, so every time she wanted to cook, they would try their best to stop her

After finishing the dinner for her kids, Julia was able to put her things away in peace. Julia and her children lived in a small city all the time. Though Julia had the ability to buy computer, television and other equipment, she still did not buy anything for the sake of not wanting to have any contact with the outside world. Therefore, the children were very curious about modern equipment.

At this moment, both of them were surprised and joyf think if she hadn't left at that time, would the four of them live happily together?

She curled up her lips and looked up at the ceiling. She knew that if she hadn't left, perhaps she would have lost her life now, let alone having a happy family of four.

On the second day, Julia got up early and read for a while as usual. Easton and Clara didn't wake up until noon. She dressed them up and took them downstairs.

The community was in the suburb, even the life here was less prosperous than in a small city. But the kids were still very excited, so Julia took them to the KFC to have a meal.

When Clara tasted new flavor, she was in high spirit the whole day.

Easton was calm about this, but Julia saw the novel expression on his face. She couldn't help kissing their cheeks and pinched them again.

Since raising them, Julia pinched them when she was in a bad mood or too happy, then her mood was bright every day.

After lunch, Julia took them to the supermarket. She pushed a shopping cart and put them in it. Then the three of them strolled in the supermarket.

As long as it was something that Clara and Easton liked, Julia bought it without hesitation.

"Julia?" All of a sudden, an unbelievable voice came from behind.

Julia's back was a little bit stiff, and she slowly turned her head. A mature woman stood not far from her, holding a little boy in her hand.

This woman looked very similar to Evena.

“Are you Julia?” The woman walked quickly to her and looked at Julia up and down.

Julia nodded and asked with hesitation, “are you Evena?”

“Yes, it’s me.” Evena was too excited to utter a complete sentence. “I thought you really will never come back... “

“Boohoo. I miss you so much. I’m thinking about you all the time. Whenever I see your empty seat, I can’t help but cry sadly. Every time I think that you may have suffered all kinds of pains outside, my heart can’t help but ache... ”
Evena hugged Julia tightly and babbled on.

Julia was flustered. Evena hadn’t changed a bit

Chapter 296

Julia couldn’t bear that and pushed Evena away, “come on, I’m back now.”

“Yeah, yeah! You’ve lost a lot of weight! Mr. CEO’s heart really ached when he saw this! ” Evena circled around Julia again and said.

With the mention of Shawn, Julia’s eyes darkened. Would Shawn still care about her? He had been married “Well, it’s not as exaggerated as you said.” Julia rolled her eyes at Evena speechlessly.

Evena’s attention was again drawn to a pair of twins in the shopping cart. She looked at them, dumbfounded and couldn’t help but ask, “are they CEO’s kids?”

“Well...” Julia didn’t know how to answer. Without paying any attention to Julia, Evena walked straight to Clara and Easton and said, “Wow, so cute.”

“Hello! sister” Clara greeted Evena fearlessly.

Hearing that, Evena was stunned for a while. Immediately, a smile appeared on her face. Look, someone called her elder sister! She couldn't help but pinch her face and said, “Wow, babies are so cute. What's your name?”

“My name is Clara, and my brother is Easton,” Clara introduced proudly.

“Such a sweet name. Let elder sister buy you something to eat, okay?” Evena was pretty pSarahsed to see the little girl, so she invited her at once.

“Okay!” Clara replied readily.

Julia stared at her and said: “maybe next time. I will take them to school later.”

“Doesn't he know it, Julia?” As Evena did not see Shawn, she could not help asking in confusion.

Julia shook her head, smiled and said, “you are so idle. You can help me find a school if you are free.” After saying that, she also noticed the little boy in Evena's hand. She squatted down and looked at this lovely boy carefully. With a smile, she asked, “what's your name? Could you tell aunt? “

The boy was ill at ease. He hid himself behind Evena and looked at Julia warily with his big and round eyes. Julia was speechless. Did she look like a bad person?

“His name is George Xu.” Grannie said with a smile and pulled the boy out from behind.

George Xu? Julia was surprised and asked, “you have broken up with John?”

Evena nodded and said indifferently, “yes, we have already broken up. We are not suitable for each other.”

Julia didn't know what to say. Did she break up with Shawn either? Love is a matter of minutes. It doesn't matter.

"As long as you are happy now." In the end, Julia patted Evena's shoulder and sent her late consolation. Evena smiled. "Come on, I'm very happy now."

Julia also smiled.

Every time Evena wanted to talk about Shawn, Julia would change the subject. She didn't want to talk about it in front of her child.

They shopped around the supermarket and bought some necessary things. When they walked out of the supermarket, Evena were picked up by David. Julia smiled and said goodbye to her, carrying the bags and walking slowly to the Zona Residences.

After a short while, they arrived at the apartment. Julia put down the shopping bag and was about to take out the key to open the door, but then she found that the door was ope ut was stopped by Shawn.

Just as the two people were indulged in the crazy love, there was a sudden knock on the door outside, "Mommy! Mommy! "

"....." Julia and Shawn froze. Then, after a careful glance at Shawn's darkened face, she could not help but curl up her lips. She hadn't seen him like this for a long time

After kissing her again, Shawn climbed up from her. Julia pushed him away and opened the door, only to see Easton and Clara standing outside. Clara pouted and said, "Mommy, I'm hungry."

"....." It seemed that they had just had lunch. The belly of the Baby was bottomless, wasn't it? Julia was speechless.

Clara said, casting a curious glance at Shawn from time to time. Shawn walked up to Clara with a smile, and said, "Daddy's going to cook for you."

Hearing that, Clara looked at Shawn with curiosity. Shawn smiled, rubbed Clara's hair and then touched Easton's head. Then he stood up and took Julia to the kitchen.

Staring at his back for a long time, Julia felt depressed. They had been apart for five years. They were strangers now. Did he really forget the five-year separation?

Julia didn't notice the food in the kitchen yesterday. The fridge was well equipped.

She couldn't help but ask, "did you pay for this suite?"

Shawn took the noodles out of the fridge and nodded. Julia's heart raced. She asked again, "why..."

Turning around, Shawn looked at her as if she was an idiot, and replied reluctantly, "I'm waiting for you."

Julia looked at him in astonishment and asked, "what if I don't come back?"

"What do you think I will do?" Turning around to face her, Shawn slightly raised the corners of his mouth.

Being stared by him, Julia blushed and kept silent.

"If you don't come back, I will wait for you all the time." Shawn slightly opened his mouth.

Somehow, Julia felt sad. She looked at him blankly. Shawn raised his hand and gently touched her slightly wet eyes. He held her into his arms and said, "silly cat, you are mine. Forever."

Chapter 297

Julia was moved, but when she thought of the news five years ago, she couldn't help but doubt the truth of Shawn's words. She gently pushed him away, frowned and looked at him. "Are you married?"

"Yes." Shawn admitted without hesitation.

Julia was stunned with her eyes dry. If he married someone else, why would he still talk to her like that?

"Then why are you still here?" Julia thought that she must look like an abandoned pet now. With a mixture of fondness and helplessness, Shawn tapped her forehead. "We've been married for a long time, haven't we?"

"Ha ha?" Julia was stunned.

"You silly little cat." Shawn lowered his head and kissed her delicate nose.

Julia was a little confused and she winked at him, "but five years ago, I saw the CEO of Nelson Group getting married. What's more, I also saw you appear in a suit at the wedding."

Shawn couldn't help knocking on her head, "it's the old CEO of the Nelson Group getting married."

"Dad Noah?" Julia was more confused, "Dad Noah got married?"

"Yes." Answered Shawn.

"Who is the bride?" Julia couldn't help asking.

Shawn glanced at her and replied lightly, "Barbara."

With a bang, Julia was completely shocked. She opened her mouth but couldn't utter a word. Oh, my God! Her mother and Shawn's father. Oh my God! What was going on? Who can tell her what happened!

"They got married? Shouldn't I be at the wedding?" Asked Shawn, fiddling with her hair.

Julia was speechless.

"Why Why..." Hearing her own voice, Julia was a little surprised!

"They are old and it's good for them to live together with each other and keep each other company." Shawn said lightly.

Julia thought it was reasonable, but it was a little bit difficult for her to accept. The news came so suddenly that she was at a loss what to do. 'wait a minute. In that case, what will my child call Barbara?

"But..." Julia frowned and said, "in this case, we are brother and sister, aren't we?" Julia's face went pale.

Looking at her cute face, the affection in the eyes of Shawn grew deeper and deeper. Finally, he could not help but lower his head and kiss her eyes, cheeks and lips.

Feeling his burning breath, Julia blushed and pushed him away. Out of the corner of her eye, she glanced at the kitchen door. Sure enough, she saw the twins staring at them.

"The kids are watching us." Julia lowered her head shyly.

Speaking of the baby, Shawn was full of pity. "Why didn't you come back when you knew you had a baby?"

"I I have something to do." Julia hemmed and hawed.

“What?” With a threatening look in Shawn eyes, Julia quickly raised her hand and said all things to him. The remaining venom in her brain, and Sarahning medicine with Mr. Ding.

Although she was far away from Shawn, she didn't suffer any hardship given that she was rich and capable. The only ause her right arm was inconvenient, it was difficult to do that.

Easton noticed that Shawn's right arm was unmoved and looked at it curiously. Then he boldly held his arm and asked, “Daddy, why can't you move your arm?”

Shawn didn't get angry. He smiled and explained, “Dad had an accident. my right arm was injured.”

“Does it hurt?” Looking up at him, Clara asked. Shawn laughed even more brightly, “it doesn't hurt, it has already been OK.”

Julia had taught the kids well since they were young. Besides, as they saw that Julia had a good relationship with Shawn, they accepted him as their father. The result was surprising.

Although Easton was still silent, it could be seen from his expression that he was very satisfied with Shawn.

After eating the noodles, Easton and Clara were watching TV outside. Shawn was helping Julia pack up her luggage while she was sitting on the floor, putting back the clothes she just took out into her suitcase.

Sitting behind her, Shawn reached out to hold her waist and helped her cSarahn the table while taking advantage of her with the desire. Julia got rid of his hand and turned to him, “how do you know I would come back here?”

“The landlord told me.” Shawn replied honestly.

Julia was a little sad. She Sarahned against his chest and felt warm. She finally felt at ease. She was like a traveler who returned home. She put down all her vigilance and strength and just wanted to stay quietly in his arms.

“Kitten, don’t go anywhere casually again.” The next second, Shawn held her tighter, breathing heavily in her ear.

Julia’s ears turned red. She turned around and put her arms around his waist, “I promise that I will take you with me if I want to run away again!”

With their noses touching each other, Shawn raised his lips and said one word, “okay.”

I wish I could accompany you to the ends of the world.

Chapter 298

After they packed up their luggage, they walked out of the room. It was getting dark when they got out of the Zona Residences. It was delayed to look for a school for Clara and Easton.

Easton and Clara were very excited on the way. Julia occasionally looked at the backseat, fearing that the children in the back seat would be restless.

As the traffic light turned red, Shawn turned to her. “What’s the baby’s real name?”

Julia said in a low voice and turned her eyes from the kids to Shawn. “Brother’s name is Easton Li, and sister’s name is Clara Shawn.”

The corners of Shawn’s mouth were slightly curved up, revealing a very beautiful and charming smile. Julia stared at him for a few seconds and couldn’t help think, ‘the man is more handsome...’

“Sounds good.” Said Shawn with a meaningful smile.

But when she saw Shawn’s meaningful smile on the phone, Julia turned her slightly hot face. The name was given by Shawn when the first time she got pregnant, and she forced Shawn. She still remembered that she had annoyed Shawn that time. He picked up the dictionary and decided to name kids what he saw.

Then, Julia and Shawn randomly named the baby.

If they knew their names’ origin, Clara and Easton might give these irresponsible parents a lecture.

The silence lasted for a few seconds.

Julia tried to keep calm. Shawn was so handsome. Even he stayed away from other women. But there were still a lot of women coming for him. She raised her eyebrows and looked at him suspiciously. “You haven’t had a girlfriend in the past five years?”

After saying that, she added, “I don’t believe you’ve made any girlfriends.”

At this moment, the green light was on. As soon as Shawn started the engine, he didn’t look at Julia’s face. Instead, his perfect side face made Julia make up some old-fashioned stories. Men can’t bear loneliness

Seeing that he was silent, Julia reminded him, “say something.”

Julia was the first one to lose her patience everytime argue with Shawn.

Shawn didn’t turn around. He seemed to think for a while. Then he said jokingly, “what do you want me to say if you don’t believe me?”

“.....” Julia was silent for a moment. She completely despised Shawn who had low Eq! Didn't he know that women always said something not real?

Although Julia just despised him, Julia still said generously, “Okay, I believe your words.”

Before Shawn said anything, the phone rang first. Julia picked it up quickly and saw a strange number. She turned to look at Shawn, only to see that the man frowned a little. She put the phone in front of him and asked, “should I answer it?”

“Whatever.” Said Shawn slightly.

According to Julia's strong sixth sense, it should be a girl on the other side of the phone. As expected, her worries was right.

Hearing Shawn's answer, Julia kindly answered the phone for him and politely greeted, “hello.”

The person on the other side seemed to be stunned for bad attitude?

“Shawn, how could you do this to me?” The woman was full of fighting power. She stood up and looked at Shawn admiringly.

There was no reply from Shawn.

“Claire, is Shawn back?” A middle-aged woman's voice came from the mansion at the right time. Hearing her voice, Julia felt so familiar and her heart beat faster.

A few seconds later, Julia saw a middle-aged woman with a familiar face coming out from the door. When she saw Julia, she was also shocked. Then, she rubbed her eyes. Her eyes were wide open. She stared at Julia again.

“Aunt, are you okay?” Claire asked in confusion.

The question pulled her back to reality. Her hands trembled with excitement, she stood in front of Julia and stared at Julia blankly, “Julia Is that you? “ “Mom, I’m back,” Although Julia could not restrain her excitement, she still tried to keep smiling.

“You’re back...” With red eyes, Barbara kept saying, “you’re back I’m glad you’re back. I’m so glad you’re back...” “

Claire Wu was totally confused about what was going on here about Barbara and Julia.

“Be quick Come on in. ” Barbara hurried to pull Julia into the house. At this time, she saw this little girl held by Julia. She was shocked.

“This is my child, Clara.” Julia pushed Clara to Barbara and said with a smile, “good girl, call grandma.”

Barbara was too excited to utter a word.

Julia pushed Easton to Barbara and said, “this is brother, Easton.”

Trembling and unable to speak, Barbara looked at the two kids blankly and didn’t know where to put her hands.

Clara and Easton bowed to Barbara with a bright smile, “nice to meet you, grandma.”

Hearing the cSarahr voice of Clara, Barbara’s lips moved slightly, but she could not make any sound for a long time. After a long time, she finally said a few “OK”. Compared with Barbara, Julia looked very calm. She smiled and said, “Mom, come on in.”

“Well, oh! Let’s get inside first. ” Barbara said.

Then they went into the Nelson family mansion.

Chapter 299

Today was Sunday, and Holden just didn’t go to work. When Julia and others came in, Holden and Noah were playing chess in the hall. Obviously, Holden was winning, which made Noah frown. It was uncertain.

As Noah was lost in his thought, he didn’t notice that Julia came in, while Holden had already noticed Julia, and he was also surprised to see the twins following behind her.

Holden withdrew his gaze, took the piece and put down the last step. He smiled faintly. “General.”

“Let’s play one more round.” Noah frowned and said unwillingly.

Then, Barbara took a pillow from the sofa and threw it to Noah, saying, “old man, why don’t you turn around to see who is back?”

Standing next to Barbara, Julia felt sorry for Noah. She had experienced the violence of Barbara.

Noah looked back and saw Julia. His expression was same with Barbara’s. The chess slipped from his hand. He looked at Julia blankly and could not say a word for a long time.

“Julia Is that really you? ” Noah couldn’t help but ask in a trembling voice.

Holden also stood up and walked up to Julia. He gave her a hug and said, “welcome home.”

Hearing this, Julia was moved and wanted to cry. 'home She was finally home.

After the introduction, Noah hurriedly asked servant to prepare the meal, and then turned around to play with Easton and Clara. Julia saw the girl named Claire standing not far away and keeping her eyes on them, without saying anything.

And Julia didn't see Zoey. Zoey.. Hasn't she woken up yet? Julia looked at Holden who looked more mature and calm than five years ago. He was as gentle and handsome as ever.

Shawn was sitting beside Julia, while Holden was sitting opposite to them. Julia hesitated for a while and could not help but ask, "Zoey, how's she now?"

Upon hearing Zoey, Holden face darkened. With a bitter smile, he replied, "no, she remains the same."

Julia knew exactly what "the same" meant as Zoey was still in a coma.

For a moment, Julia didn't know what to say, but Holden smiled: "the doctor said that her condition is better than before, and she should wake up soon."

Julia had to agree with him and said, "okay."

Julia looked around the Nelson family and was a little absent-minded. Though the decoration of the Nelson family was almost the same as it was five years ago, it made people feel totally different. The sunlight shone through the French windows and enveloped the whole mansion. The laughter of all people were natural and lively, and the air was filled with a warm atmosphere.

The Nelson family mansion looked like a black prison five years ago. Everyone was trapped in it and no one could escape.

Now no Juliet, no hatred. For five years, they had let go of everything, good or bad.

In the end, Holden chose to stay. It seemed that he and Noah had a good relationship. Everything was fine except for Zoey.

“By the way, Claire, come here. Let me introduce you to each other.”
Barbara’s words brought back Julia’s

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

“As long as I’m alive, I’m still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses.”

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she Sarahrned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

ut it carefully, she thought it was reasonable for Noah to do that. She didn’t know whether Zoey would wake up or not, and if she had an accident outside, she didn’t know if she could come back.

It was probably the most common wish of all parents in the world for their son to marry someone, get married and have their own children.

After hearing Barbara’s words, Julia got to know what status Claire held in the Nelson family. If she really didn’t come back, maybe Shawn would like Claire after a long time. Fortunately, she was earlier.

Julia didn’t want to continue this topic. She turned to Barbara and asked, “mother, is Able ‘s Flower shop still there? I want to go back and have a look. “ “Yes, of course. Your mother’s Able ‘s Flower shop is now all over Ventrusburg.” Speaking of Able ‘s Flower Shop, Barbara was so proud.

Julia was a little surprised. Barbara smiled and explained: “theNelson Group has engaged in a lot of industries. After you left, Shawn had reserved rose garden and all kinds of flower plantation in the small city. Soon, a chain store of Able ‘s Flower Shop was opened in the small city and Ventrusburg. Roses of our small city are unique and very popular. “

Five years ago, theNelson Group had become the Sarahder of the Ventrusburg. Nobody knew how it had developed now. With this doubt in her mind, Julia asked: “does Holden still stay in theNelson Group?”

“Em. G.S took the initiative to join theNelson Group. TheNelson Group was the biggest company in the city. It was like a tiger that flies into the pan with G.S together. Besides, the Nelson brothers cooperated very well. TheNelson Group is in a fast developing stage. Now it has become one of the Sarahding enterprises in America. Recently, it has begun to cooperate with foreign electronic enterprises. ” Barbara then told Julia about the recent situation of the Li family.

Julia nodded and lay down on the grass. She looked up at the sky and thought to herself, ‘it’s autumn now. When I left, it was also autumn. Time flies so fast.’.

Chapter 300

After saying goodbye to Barbara, Julia went back to Shawn’s bedroom to pack up. Shawn pushed open the door and came in. At that time, Julia was sitting in front of the medicine cabinet, preparing the medicine, with Mr. Ding diary beside her.

Shawn came to her and took her back to the bed. He lowered his head and kissed her on the cheek. His low and sexy voice was lingering around her ear like the intertwining silk. "It's time to fulfill your duty, little kitten."

"What duty?" Julia was confused.

"As my wife." Shawn chuckled.

With these words, Julia, who was held tightly by Shawn, blushed and turned her face away. She gently pushed him on his chest. She couldn't help but feel a little nervous since she hadn't been so close to a man for five years.

Shawn lowered his eyes and gazed at Julia. Julia was so shy that she closed her eyes. She couldn't see him, but she felt more sober that his hot breath brushed her neck.

Not allowing her to be shy, Shawn held her cheek and kissed her fiercely.

The next morning, Julia heard a sharp knock on the door. She rubbed her sleepy eyes and habitually asked, "Clara, do you want to get up and pee?"

As soon as she finished asking, she glanced at Shawn who was looking at her. Julia's mind went blank for three seconds and then she remembered that this is not a small city. Here is the Nelson mansion! She was back.

"Shawn.. Shawn..." Julia was too shy and embarrassed to speak properly.

With his arms around her waist, Shawn pecked her lips, endlessly wanting more. As the atmosphere got more ambiguous, Julia didn't know whether to cry or laugh. Could this man let her go first

At this time, there was another knock on the door, and also the sound of the twins. Julia quickly pushed away Shawn, and got up and put on her clothes. She flushed and threw the robe into the arms of Shawn. "You have to put on your clothes, too."

Shawn grinned and said shamelessly, “my hand is inconvenient. You help me wear it.”

Julia coldly glanced at him and wondered how he had spent the past five years with his injured hand? Obviously, he lied to her! “I don’t mind being frank with my child.” Shawn smiled.

You evil man!

Though Julia was cursing him in her heart, she still reluctantly got close to him and served him. When she was about to get close to him, he pulled her into his arms again and tightly locked her in his arms.

Julia couldn’t get rid of him, but gave him a helpless look. She tried to persuade him in a soft voice: “the kids are outside. Don’t be so naughty, okay?”

“Yes.” Said Shawn with his nose, but with no more move.

Julia felt helpless and reminded him again, “our child is outside the door.”

It would be bad if they saw this

“Let me hug you for a while.” Then there came Shawn’s voice, which hurt Julia deeply.

She couldn’t Sarahve if Shawn didn’t want her Sarahve, but he had decided to set her free. He had treated her with all his tolerance and tenderness.

All these years, he was striving for a dreamy future, just because he believed in her, believed that she would come back.

Julia lied in his arms. The quiet time had

Drugged one night by her ex-boyfriend, a mysterious man took advantage of her in an ecstatic night filled with sex.

To take her revenge, she married the man, and used him.

“As long as I’m alive, I’m still his legal wife, while all of you are just his mistresses.”

She remained adamant even when he was involved in scandals with other women.

Eventually she stormed off after she Sarahrned that he had betrayed her again. But life brought her back to him a few years later, to his astonishment.

ely different. Now Holden was elegant and lofty, which was unparalleled by Martin.

“For the past five years, I have lived in the same small town with Martin.” Julia asked seemingly casually.

Holden’s body stiffened and he suddenly opened his eyes.

It was the appearance of Martin five years ago that exposed all the truth to the public, which ended up Holden’s plan that had been prepared for ten years in vain. Because of Martin, Zoey was still in a coma.

But Holden could not hate him, because Martin had made him understand a lot of things, which allowed him to gain a true family affection.

“He How is he? ” Holden frowned, but still couldn’t help asking.

Julia nodded and said, “He is fine.”

“You Did you ask him if he wanted to go back to Nelson manor. After all, he is Nelson’s child. ” Holden turned to her and asked softly.

Julia smiled and said, “I’ve asked him. He said that he didn’t want to come back, nor would he come back to the Li family. He had his own life.” After a moment’s pause, Julia continued, “he said that you helped him to say sorry to Zoey if she woke up.”

“Yes.” With a complicated look on his face, Holden smiled bitterly, “maybe he still hates me now. I didn’t Sarahve Nelson family in the end.”

The scandal five years ago was clarified by Noah and Holden that Holden was indeed not his own son. He was willing to recognize his son, and there was no hint of Zoey’s scandal. Holden was still the deputy CEO of the Li group, and had been helping Shawn in the following five years.

Julia understood it’s what Holden wanted to do. One day, Zoey would wake up. If they wanted to be together, one of them must Sarahve the Nelson family in order not to be scolded by others. He could be an orphan without anything, but Zoey must be the most honorable princess.

Hearing Holden’s words, she shook her head and looked out of the window. “He doesn’t hate you.” Both of them were too young to decide their own fate in that accident.

Holden slightly closed his eyes. His mind was in a mess. But Julia didn’t bother him and the car became quiet all of a sudden.
