

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 61 –70

Chapter 61

After dinner, Julia briefly told the situation of Mr. Lee and her ideas to Shawn.

After a moment's reflection, Shawn nodded slightly, looked at Julia's serious face and said calmly, "well, I'll Sarahve that piece of land to you. If you want to build anything on it, tell me."

Julia who kept talking was stunned. She opened her mouth and stared at Shawn in disbelief.

It was a big piece of land and was worth a lot of money. What if she did something wrong because of carelessness?

"CEO I... " Julia wanted to refuse.

Shawn looked at her coldly and asked, "are you going to refuse again? Where's your courage? "

Julia lowered her head speechlessly. She was usually very timid, especially when she was facing Shawn.

“If there is nothing else, you can Sarahve now.” The expression on Shawn’s face was so pitiful. Unless there was an obvious mood fluctuation, no one could see any change on his face.

“Yes.” Julia didn’t dare to contradict him. She just slightly bowed, nodded and then walked out.

When Julia went out, John just came back.

“Boss, you just let her do what she want?” John looked at Shawn, confused.

He didn’t believe that Julia would make any big trouble. She could just take some money from theNelson Group for fun.

“How can I know that she is mischievous if I don’t ask her to have a try?” Shawn replied indifferently without even raising his head.

John was still confused.

Everyone was surprised to see Julia when she returned to the secretary department.

“Julia, how was your negotiate with Mr. Lee this morning?” Brandon asked with a smile.

Julia smiled and nodded. “It’s fine, but I’m not sure if I can sign the contract or not.”

“Well, we have tried to communicate with Mr. Lee, but there was no result. If you can really sign that contract, we will really admire you.” Brandon smiled again.

“I don’t deserve your admiration.” Julia continued to talk with Brandon.

Speaking was Julia's advantage.

When she returned to her seat, Julia couldn't help but take a glance at Lisa, who happened to be looking at her too. When their eyes met, none of them looked so overbearing.

Julia greeted Lisa with a smile and then sat down slowly.

"Julia, let me know if you need any help." Sarah sat next to Julia. She winked at Julia naughtily and said to her in a low voice.

"Thank you." Julia smiled back. Though the Sarahst-aura woman in this secretary office was Sarah, Sarah was Julia's favorite girl. Because Julia often helped her do something. Though Sarah didn't have a strong aura, she worked the most efficiently in the secretary department.

Shawn said that she would be given the full authority of the land, then the contract would be easy to be signed. Did he really plan to take that piece of land to build an amusement urday tomorrow! 'has Mr. Shawn forgotten to pray?' Does she have to work on weekends?

Thinking of the busy tomorrow, Julia was a little depressed.

However, when she saw all kinds of delicious food, the depressed Julia was excited and looked around excitedly. Afraid of being lost, Shawn always held her hands.

Julia was unable to run away.

On the way, Julia felt that many people were looking at her with jealousy or envy. In this place, the beautiful Shawn was like a moving sun, which brought brightness and warmth to this dark snack street.

“Mr. Shawn, let’s have spaghetti. The spaghetti is the best delicious food.” With great interest, Julia took Shawn to a simple and beautifully decorated latte shop.

Shawn frowned, but said nothing.

“Hey, Julia? You haven’t been here for a long time. ” The shop owner greeted Julia warmly.

When she saw the owner, Julia was also excited and greeted him: “yes, I’m very busy recently, and your business is always doing well.”

“I’m flattered. By the way, doesn’t Lola come with you today?” The boss laughed cheerfully and looked at Julia.

Before Julia could explain anything, the owner smiled again and said: “so you have got a boyfriend. You just dump Lola. haha”

“No, I didn’t.” Julia refuted, but was interrupted by the enthusiastic owner. He smiled warmly and said: “alright, don’t be shy. Come in and have a seat. I can give you a 50% discount. “

Hearing the boss say 50% off, Julia jumped up immediately and said with a frown: “50% off! We haven’t seen each other for such a long time. How can you just give me a 50% discount? Are you shameless? What do you think? “ “Okay, okay. Since it’s your first time to bring a boyfriend here, It’s free.” The owner laughed at her carelessly.

Julia nodded her head satisfactorily and led Shawn in.

They sat down at a corner.

Chapter 62

Glancing around the place, Shawn couldn't help frowning slightly.

The restaurant was very old and shabby. The decoration was as same as that of ordinary people, without any specialty. Besides, there were a lot of people who came here. Shawn found that the shop was very crowded because of the close distance of each table.

All in all, Shawn was disappointed with this shop.

"You are very familiar with the owner of the store." Shawn turned to look at Julia.

Julia nodded and said with a smile, "the end of the snack street is Ventrusburg University. We often go out to eat, and this is my favorite restaurant. The spaghetti is delicious. "

Ventrusburg University was the best university in Ventrusburg. Many excellent students were studying there.

"Mr. Shawn, have you ever been to Ventrusburg University?" Julia asked curiously.

"No." Answered Shawn.

Julia thought to herself, 'since Shawn was not student of Ventrusburg University, does he have a lower education than me?'.

Well, it was not impossible for him to have a low education, because he inherited his father's work. It was not omnipotent for his current education.

Julia had heard about Shawn's education background from Evena a long time ago. Shawn graduated from high school and then went to the highest University in America. It took him only three years to get all the senior certificates.

Julia was shocked by Evena's words at that time, but she didn't take them seriously at that time, and she really didn't expect that one day she would sit here with Shawn who Evena talked about everyday.

"Okay. Do you want to go to Ventrusburg University with me later?" Julia giggled and asked.

Shawn didn't answer.

There were many people in this little store and most of them are girls. Julia looked around and found that girls were all talking with Shawn.

Boss, you're so tired of being watched all day. Julia sighed.

After a moment of silence, the vendor brought two bowls of noodles. He also acted like the waiter who was dressed in ancient costumes, "here comes the noodles."

Shawn nodded slightly, staring at the greasy cup, frowning.

"Boss, eat more meat." In order to make it up to Shawn for not giving him lunch this noon, Julia took some meat from her bowl to Shawn.

Shawn quietly watched her. When she almost finished, he exchanged the bowls with hers, and then picked up the chopsticks to eat.

"Wow! What a considerate man!"

"So handsome! So handsome! "

"That girl is so happy!"

"....."

The surrounding sounds were mixed up.

Julia also heard that. She took a look at her own bowl and then at Shawn's. she was quite pSarahsed with Shawn's thoughtfulness.

Halfway through the meal, Shawn put down his chopsticks.

Julia, who was eating noodles, asked in confusion: "what's wrong?"

"Here you are." Shawn pushed his bowl of half noodles to Julia.

"Well, Mr. Shawn, you don't have to sacrifice yourself for me. Just eat if you want." Julia misunderstood that Shawn was worrying that she blew, it looked like a lot of silver paved on the ground, so dazzling and eye-catching.

"It's still the same here." With a sigh, Julia sat on the lawn beside the pool.

Sitting next to Julia, Shawn reached out and took her in his arms. She didn't resist and Sarahned on him quietly.

It felt so good to have someone to rely on, which was really not as bad as she had imagined. Was it because he was Shawn?

Julia had always been a domineering person. Although sometimes she looked a little garrulous, she was a totally independent personality. Sarahders could be extremely glorious wherever they went.

But after the exposure of Lesbian, Julia didn't keep a high profile and didn't want to fight for anything. She just wanted to live her own life quietly. After getting a job theNelson Group, she didn't want to work hard and attract more attention.

She was afraid of being recognized as the root cause of that scandal.

Nathan said that she had really changed.

“Mr. Shawn, did you see that tree, it was planted by me. I haven’t seen it for two years. It is so tall now.” Julia pointed at a two meter tall tree opposite the pool and said with a smile.

“Yes.” Shawn looked in the direction of her finger.

Blankly, Shawn looked down at her. Her bright eyes reflected the reflection of the water around the pond. He couldn’t help but cover her eyes gently.

He looked down and kissed her red lips gently.

Julia slightly closed her eyes, put her arms around his waist and rested her head on his chest.

Instead of the domineering kiss during the daytime, the kiss was as soft as a feather and sentimental.

She instinctively met his breath.

A cool breeze swept over them and the air became hot and dry.

He put his cold hand into her clothes and stroked her back.

Every wisp of skin touched by his hand was as hot as fire, so scorching and terrible. Julia was a little scared. She kept huddling herself up and buried her head into Shawn’s chest.

Chapter 63

“Kitten.” Said Shawn in a hoarse voice.

“Yes.” Julia responded, and she blushed.

Shawn didn't continue. His hand kept moving. Julia grasped his collar and said in a low voice, “Boss, I.. Let's go back. “

They were in the wilderness now. What if the beasts in Shawn broke out?

It seemed that Shawn didn't hear anything from Julia. With Julia snuggling up against his chest, she was unable to control Shawn`.

But in no time, Shawn held her up. Maybe because Julia had been sitting there for too long, her legs were so weak that she could only stand firmly without her hands holding onto Shawn's arms.

Shawn slightly bent down and put Julia on his back. Julia hesitated.

“Three, two...” Without urging her, Shawn began to count down.

Before he could call out “one”, Julia had been on his back. Although she didn't know what was waiting for her, she was unable to resist as long as it was an idea of Shawn.

She put her hands around Shawn's neck and said, “you'd better put me down. My legs are not injured. I'm so embarrassed in public.”

Not getting an answer from Shawn, Julia called him again: “boss?”

He didn't respond.

“CEO! CEO! CEO!” After that, she was even more joyful.

Shawn smiled and patted on Julia's butt to show off his status, which made her shut up immediately. Oh, No. she had no way to fight against Shawn's perverted violent behavior.

At Julia's strong request, when they arrived at the main road, Shawn put her down and held her hand.

"Brother? Brother!" A voice came from behind.

Shawn didn't look back.

But the voice was getting closer and closer to Julia. Then a girl in pink dress jumped in front of Shawn and Julia. Julia noticed that Mr. Shawn frowned slightly.

If Julia remembered correctly, this girl was Mr. Shawn's half-sister, Zoey.

"Brother, why are you here? Are you here to visit me?" Zoey ignored Julia. She reached out and held the other hand of Shawn. She raised her head to look at Shawn with a big smile.

"Zoey, don't be naughty." Shawn said like an elder.

When Zoey heard the harsh tone of Shawn, Zoey couldn't help pouting. She took a look at Julia and said sadly, "brother, you don't care about me at all. You spend all your time with this gay woman. You know what? Everyone in our school knows that she is a lesbian. Everyone feels ashamed to be with her. Brother, you'd better Sarahve her. "

Zoey was straightforward and didn't care about how Julia would feel.

"Zoey, is this how you cultivate yourself?" With knitted brows, Shawn looked at Zoey seriously.

Struck by the seriousness on Shawn's face, Zoey lowered her head slightly. She still looked discontented.

"Zoey, this is your brother. He is so handsome!" The friends who were walking next to Zoey marveled at the sight of Shawn.

And this kind of exclamation reaming of something interesting.

With a gentle sigh, Shawn helped her pack up, held her in his arms, and gently wiped her hair with a towel.

"HMM..." Julia groaned in a low voice. She did not wake up. Instead, she put her arms around the waist of Shawn and found a comfortable position to keep sleeping.

Shawn was speechless about the sleeping girl. But he didn't notice at all that his cold expression had softened.

The next day was a sunny day, suitable for travel. Julia woke up comfortably from sleep.

Thinking that it was weekend, Julia habitually stayed in bed and rubbed her bear doll intimately.

The bear moved.

When did her bear doll move? Julia was stunned. And when did the doll get warm?

CEO! Julia was taken aback by the words coming out of her mind, and her sleepiness was driven away at once.

“Good morning, Mr. Shawn.” Julia got out of bed, reSarahsed herself from the grasp like an octopus and laughed at Shawn.

“Yes.” Shawn stared at her.

Julia lowered her head in silence, with her heart racing again. Was it necessary to make her nervous as soon as she got up?

“Mr. Shawn, I’m getting up.” As Julia spoke, she tried to sound normal and moved towards the other side of the bed.

Just when Julia thought she had succeeded in escaping from the claws of Shawn, her wrist was suddenly gripped. She threw herself into the arms of Shawn with an intimate gesture.

However, it was not Julia’s own choice.

“Boss, I want to go to the washroom.” Julia said with a sad face.

“Can you think of a more graceful reason? Aren’t you tired of it?” Shawn was in a good mood today and even teased her.

But Julia was crying in her heart, she was not kidding, she really wanted to go to the bathroom..

It seems that people can’t lie. Once they tell a lie, their words will be taken as a lie and they will fall into such a fate like her.

Chapter 64

“Mr. Shawn, I can assure you that it’s true. I didn’t lie to you.” Julia was so anxious that tears were about to run down her face. She looked at Shawn sincerely. All she could do was to take out her heart.

With Shawn's eyebrows raised, the disdainful expression showed that he doubted her words.

"How could you do this to me? What if I get ill?" Julia wiped her tears with a sad look, looking like an innocent cat.

Shawn looked at her with great interest. He didn't say anything but pointed at his face. Obviously, he meant to let her go after he kissed her.

Staring at his smooth face, Julia hesitated for a moment. Still, she kissed him with fear and trepidation.

The kiss was like a dragonfly skimming the surface of the water. As soon as she touched it, Julia stepped back.

She jumped off the bed and dashed into the bathroom before Shawn said a word.

Looking at Julia's receding figure, Shawn's mouth couldn't help but curve a smile. It seemed that the girl didn't lie to him this time.

Because she had to inspect the construction site with the CEO today, Julia squatted in front of her suitcase and rummaged out all the clothes inside, but she didn't know what to wear.

She had put away all the clothes she bought with Shawn in her locker. Did she dare to wear them? Each dress was worth tens of thousands. If it was broken, how would she compensate for it.

She didn't think one dress was too casual, and the other one was not elegant enough

At this moment, Julia truly realized that choosing clothes was really a very difficult thing, and it was also a profound art.

She wore what she had before and didn't think too much. But today she was out with the CEO. She couldn't disgrace the CEO, could she?

Shawn had all been tidied up. Julia hadn't found the clothes that she liked. She was sitting on the floor gracelessly, with her chin on her hand, her head slightly raised. It seemed that she was thinking, but in fact she was in a daze.

Shawn came to her, slightly bent over and looked through her clothes.

Seeing the strapping figure of Shawn, Julia tried to hide her clothes subconsciously, but the CEO was always a few seconds faster than her.

He picked the clothes with one finger and frowned, "where are the clothes I bought you last time?"

Julia lowered her head in silence.

"Is it not enough? We can buy some other sets later." Said Shawn, standing up.

"Well, I can do it myself. Don't worry about me." Julia said with a smile.

It's ridiculous that she only needs to a lesson taught by Shawn. Can she afford the clothes that the CEO likes?

Shawn looked at her coldly without saying anything.

'Oh, no! Mr. Shawn doesn't like any of my clothes. What should I wear?' thought Julia.

Julia carefully turned her head to look at Shawn. Eh, the CEO was not wearing a suit today but a white shirt.

He was used to wearing a black suit. But today, he was wearing a white dress, which made Julia amazed. She had thought he went over Julia's beautiful face and blew up her long hair. The pink skirt also swayed with the wind. Her small mouth opened slowly with her surprise, like a cute, pretty but a little mature spirit.

Shawn didn't notice he had been staring at her for a long time.

He walked closer to Julia, who was still enjoying the scenery in the distance and didn't notice the coming of Shawn.

It was not until he hugged her from behind that Julia came back to her senses. And her attention also back to herself.

"CEO?" Julia's body got stiff. Although there were only two people on the ground and the driver had left, she still felt very embarrassed.

"Yes." Shawn replied carelessly and buried his head into Julia's neck.

Her soft hair was blown in the wind and Julia didn't know where to put her hands, while a gentle and arrogant softness came from her neck, telling her that Mr. Shawn seemed to be kissing her

From light to heavy, he kissed her on her neck, gradually becoming an impatient bite.

As if this was not enough, the domineering kiss moved from her neck to her shoulder, her clavicle

"CEO....." Julia was about to cry.

How could a subordinate be bullied by his boss all day long!

Hearing the voice of Julia, Shawn stopped and loosened her.

Julia sighed with relief. But before she finished her words, her body was pulled towards Shawn again. She was shocked and her lips were suddenly pressed by Shawn.

As soon as the kiss was finished, Julia's legs were trembling. If it weren't for the grasp on her waist, she would have already fallen to the ground. She put her hands on Shawn's chest and panted.

Suddenly, she heard a hoarse voice, "kitten, do you care about Noah?"

Julia was shocked and wondered why he asked this question all of a sudden?

She hesitated for a moment and nodded gently.

She didn't want to see Noah and Juliet at all.

Although ten years had passed, she still cared about those memories when they were all revived.

Chapter 65

It was so quiet on the ground that only the sound of the wind was heard. Even the sound of her breath was taken away by the wind.

Shawn said nothing. Perhaps he didn't know what to say.

It would be nice if Shawn wasn't Noah's son. She wouldn't need to think so much and her mother wouldn't object. Besides Noah's son, Shawn was definitely her mother's ideal son-in-law.

Julia felt a little bit depressed. She stretched out her hands and cautiously held on to the waist of Shawn. They were very close to each other.

“Julia, you two...” The sound of amazement came from not far away.

Julia was shocked and looked towards where the voice came from.

They were Nathan and Lee.

Julia was stunned for a few seconds and then tried to push Shawn away. However, Shawn’s arm was still around her waist.

“What a coincidence!” Julia pretended that she didn’t mind. She then gave an embarrassed smile to Nathan and Mr. Lee.

What a coincidence Inside, tears streamed down Julia’s face

She just concluded the contract with Mr. Lee yesterday, and now he saw her staying with Shawn like this. Even a fool would know the abnormal relationship between her and Shawn. And Nathan ? Why is he here?

Nathan smiled helplessly, looked at Julia and asked, “what are you doing here?” He said in a somewhat reluctant tone.

“I want to see how this land is. After all, I want to have a good cooperation with Mr. Lee.” Julia smiled and tried to ignore Shawn who was still holding her.

“Humph, it really surprised me. Miss Julia, you surprised me so much. ” Mr. Lee looked at Shawn and Julia and snorted.

Shawn looked at Mr. Lee coldly and said slowly, “you can choose to turn around and walk away.”

Puff Julia pretended to cough and glanced at her boss, speechless. How could he do business like that? No wonder she couldn't get the right to use the land, she muttered helplessly in her heart.

Sure enough, Mr. Lee's face changed slightly. He looked at Shawn coldly, "this is my place. Don't you think you are the one who should Sarahve?"

The atmosphere became tense. Both of them were highly skilled soldiers.

Julia felt really stressed in Shawn's arms, but she still glanced at Shawn and Mr. Lee with curiosity.

Anyway, he felt that her boss was more confident than Lee.

"Mr. Lee, are you sure this is yours?" The corners of the mouth lifted into a ghost of smile.

Mr. Lee was slightly taken aback. A bad feeling rose in his heart.

Julia was stunned. What did he mean?

"What do you mean?" Mr. Lee asked Shawn coldly with a frown.

"You should ask your deputy CEO about this." Shawn slightly raised his eyebrows, and his eyes became deeper and colder.

Then he reSarahsed Julia and took her hand.

As for Nathan , he didn't even greet him.

Julia couldn't help turning around to look at Nathan , who was standing there quietly with his gentle and elegant face disappearing. For a moment, she couldn't figure out his emotion.

“Nathan , I’m Sarahving now. Bye!” Keeping her d

“Boss, I think we should build a big resort here and then...” As Julia was talking to Shawn, she could not help but gestured a blueprint here in front of Shawn.

There were not many restaurants around here, so Julia and Shawn happened to walk into the room where Nathan was. And the restaurant here is very small. You can see everything in it as soon as you come in.

When Julia stepped into the restaurant, she saw Nathan sitting at a table, with some bottles of wine on it.

Julia frowned. As far as she knew, Nathan had never drunk before. Had he changed after staying in America?

“Hey, Nathan . What a coincidence!” Julia broke free from Shawn and walked up to Nathan , greeting him with a big smile on her face.

Julia still felt guilty towards Nathan . What’s more, she also didn’t know what way Shawn used to get the land. Although it had nothing to do with Nathan , she still felt a little uncomfortable when thinking about this.

“Yes.” Nathan smiled and looked at Shawn who behind Julia. Gradually, the smile was filled with helplessness.

Julia still wanted to say something, but Nathan had stood up and walked unsteadily.

“Julia, I’m going back.” Nathan looked at Julia with a smile and said.

“Where do you live? You are drunk.” Julia raised her eyebrows and held on to him.

Nathan was a little stunned, but he pushed her hand away slowly and said with a smile, "it's okay. Have a good time with him. Goodbye."

Goodbye, I don't want to see you again. It's enough to know that you are safe.

He didn't give the chance to Julia to say something, then he turned around and left.

When he walked past Shawn, Nathan stopped and turned his head to look at Shawn. He said in a voice that could only be heard by them, "be good to her. Don't hurt her. Otherwise, even if I had to abandon the whole world, I would still take her to a place you couldn't find. "

Although Nathan 's voice was very light, it was firm and resolute.

He would do anything for Julia even against the world.

Chapter 66

Shawn was still indifferent. Without saying anything, Nathan left directly.

Even if you would abandon the world? Nathan , I'm afraid even if you abandon the world, you can't take away what belongs to me.

Because, it belongs to me only.

The corners of Shawn's lips became colder as he watched Nathan Sarahve.

"Nathan !" Julia wanted to run after her, but her wrist was grasped by Shawn.

Julia was stunned. She turned around and saw that Shawn was standing still with an expressionless face, without even moving her eyebrows.

She knew that Shawn had warned her more than once to stay away from Nathan , but she was not a merciless person and Nathan drank.

“He was drunk.” Julia explained.

“I have asked Peter to send him back.” Said Shawn, pulling Julia to a corner. He didn’t like to be with too many people and he didn’t want to be stared at either.

Julia turned her head and looked out of the window. She felt much better after Peter helped Nathan get into the car.

“He’s gone.” Shawn knocked on her head with disapproval.

Julia pulled herself back to the present and covered her forehead with her hand. She shot a reproachful glance at Shawn, thinking that both he and her mother liked to hit her on the head?

But this time, Shawn wasn’t angry with her any more. Didn’t he get angry every time when he saw her with Nathan ? Julia looked at Shawn curiously.

“Mr. Shawn, I know you don’t like Nathan , right? He’s a nice man. Why don’t you like him?” Julia asked curiously. She had a strong feeling that there were some other reasons that Shawn didn’t like Nathan .

“Should I like him?” Shawn asked Julia with an interesting smile.

Uh

Julia didn’t know what to say.

Shawn and Nathan actually looked like a perfect match.

“You admire Nathan ?” Shawn asked suddenly.

Julia nodded and said with a smile, “such a person like you certainly don’t know how capable Nathan is.”

Hearing that, Shawn’s face turned dark. What kind of person was he? She was getting more and more impolite.

“Although Nathan’s family background is not so good, he tries very hard to do everything well, being gentle and kind to others. He is also a first-class capable man.” Julia didn’t notice the dark face of Shawn and continued.

“What does the kind of me mean?” Shawn interrupted her impatiently and asked.

Julia glanced at Shawn’s face. Well, it’s not that good.

“It’s just just...” Julia faltered. She didn’t know what to say. She believed that Shawn knew what she meant.

The dishes were served at that time. Fortunately, Shawn didn’t continue asking her.

“Wow, they are so delicious!” Julia pretended to be surprised and shouted at the food in front of her.

With the original posture, Shawn stared at her. Julia was stiffed although she was pretending to be surprised. She felt uncomfortable being stared at by Shawn.

Mr. Shawn, don’t you know your eyes are X-ray? Julia lowered her head to eat, but Shawn’s eyesight was like a mountain, dominating her and making her ing tree was an old tree with thousands of years old. It would take one or two minutes to run around the trunk which could show how tall and huge the tree was. The old tree was hung with all kinds of wishes. The red scene was spectacular.

She heard that the higher the wishing bag was, the easier to fulfill the wish.

Julia looked into the direction of the big tree. She could no longer find the wishing bag that she had thrown earlier. It was either brought away by the wind or disappeared under the sunlight.

“This is the wishing tree. You can write your wish on a piece of paper, put it in the bag and throw it on it. Then the God will see your wish. The higher it is thrown, the greater the chance it would be seen by the God and the easier to fulfill the wish. ” Julia introduced.

After a pause, Julia looked at a couple not far away and said, “it is said that if a couple make a same wish, the chance of realizing the wish will also increase.”

That was why there were many couples here every year.

Julia regained her presence of mind. But she was not a couple with Shawn, and she would at most help him to make one wish for his grandma’s health.

After saying that, she pulled Shawn to take the wishes paper, and she took two and handed one to Shawn. But Shawn did not accept, he said lightly, “you do it.”

Huh She would write it? Didn’t he make a wish?

When she was about to make it cSarahr, she received an impatient glance from Shawn. Julia was coward and shrank her head, swallowing the words on the tip of her tongue.

Julia thought for a moment and wrote down these words.

“I wish grandma good health,”

Taking the note, glancing it over, folded it and put it into the wishing bag.

“Miss, your boyfriend is so handsome.” The woman who sold wishing bag looked at Shawn and greeted Julia with a friendly smile.

Julia’s face turned red, but she didn’t contradict him. She looked at Shawn carefully.

‘he is a good guy except for his poker face, ‘ she thought.

Chapter 67

“Thank you. We are Sarahving now.” Julia turned around and thanked her politely.

“May you be happy forever.” Said the landlady, smiling.

Happiness forever

If only he could.

When Julia came to the wishing tree, she stared at the wish on it and then turned to look at the couple standing under the tree, not knowing what to do.

She and Shawn were somewhat strange. They were not a couple, but the boundary between them seemed to have been blurred.

Shawn then circled her waist with his arm. Julia was slightly shocked. At this moment, the wishing bag has already slipped into her palm. He put her hand one her hand. She felt so warm in his palm.

“Close your eyes.” Said Shawn in a low voice.

Then she closed her eyes obediently.

May grandma get better soon; may Shawn be safe forever; Lola be safe; and may mom be happy.

also.

Wish they could have a peaceful ending.

Even Julia didn't dare to hope that they would end up well, as long as it was not bad.

“My God, if you are not happy with my many wishes, You can only fulfill one. Let Grandma get better soon.” Thought Julia. That was the greatest wish of Shawn.

After a while, Julia opened her eyes and found that Shawn didn't let her go. He held her hand and threw her bag toward the wishing tree.

The red wishing bag was so dazzling in the sun. Julia raised her head and saw it slowly disappearing from the top of the tree.

“It's so high.” Julia couldn't help but thumb up. They would definitely make their wishes known to the public.

“Yes.” Answered Shawn.

“Where do you want to go? There are also many interesting places around the wishing tree. ” Said Julia boldly. She thought Shawn seemed to be in a good mood.

“Walk around.” Shawn backhand clasped her hand, their fingers interlocked like many lovers.

When she walked around the circle of couples, Julia was actually a little embarrassed. She was not a couple with Shawn, so there was no need for her to be there.

There were many hotels, restaurants, temples where people could burn incense and worship Buddha, and a street that was specially selling souvenirs. Each time Julia came over, she would be attracted by these handmade souvenirs.

“That one looks good.” With this in mind, Julia walked towards a beanbag with Shawn. She picked up a handmade pearl from it with a big smile on her face.

Though the material of the hand beads wasn't gold and silver jewellery, they looked pretty simple and simple, which attracted Julia a lot. The dark brown bead flickered faintly in the sunlight, very unique.

“Miss, you can buy two with your boyfriend if you like it. It's under the goddess of love's protection. He will give his lovers' blessings.” The landlady looked at Julia with a smile and then at Shawn's with a meaningful look.

Julia laughed and put down the bead.

How could Mr. Shawn believe think this name is not new?”

“I'm sure the CEO I'm calling is you.” Julia tried to struggle.

“You don't like my name?” Shawn said with a frown.

“Of course not.”

“That’s good. Do you have any other questions?”

“.....” Julia was utterly overwhelmed. She retracted her head and lowered it.

She was bound to lose if she quarreled with Shawn.

“And remember to act like a lady when you wear a dress in the future.” Shawn looked at Julia and said.

In fact, Julia’s appearance was graceful, but Julia sometimes gave people the feeling that she was very heroic. Julia had both style of being heroic and lady which was really eye-catching.

How could Julia refuse Boss’s order? She lowered her head and replied in a low voice, “yes...”

The cool breeze blew, and the park was lit with colorful lights. The lake in front of her was rippling in the wind, and the sparkling lights were like silver pieces on the lake.

“CEO.....” As soon as Julia finished her words, she was shocked by a sudden glance from Shawn. Her heart trembled, and she immediately corrected herself: “Shawn.”

“Yes.”

“Do you like gentle and virtuous girls?” Julia took a glance at him cautiously.

It seemed that there were many times that Shawn was dissatisfied with her behavior. But generally, boys liked this type of girls

After a short pause, Shawn replied, “No.”

“Well, what kind of girl do you like?” Julia was surprised and asked with confusion.

“Why do you ask this?” Shawn asked in reply.

Julia quickly smiled. Her cheeks flushed either because of the bright light or her shyness.

“Didn’t you say that you would divorce me as long as you find someone suitable? I have to know your preferences before I can help you find your favorite, right? ” Julia giggled and said.

As Julia spoke these words, the originally cold Shawn became even colder.

Even Julia, who was sitting next to him, felt the coldness.

Chapter 68

Julia glanced at Shawn who never spoke a word next to her cautiously and smirked, “I didn’t mean anything else. Haha...”

Julia tried to change the subject.

“By the way, how do you like this place? Is it fun? ” Asked Julia.

However, Shawn didn’t respond to Julia’s question, so that the atmosphere suddenly became very awkward.

Julia shook her head with regret. She shouldn’t have mentioned it. But why did Shawn give her a dirty face if he really satisfied with this place? She hadn’t mind what happened before.

After a long time, Shawn asked in a cold voice, “Do you really want to run away from me?”

Shawn asked really seriously. Julia thought that even if she was afraid of him, she could not lie any more.

“You know we can’t be together.” Julia look up at Shawn firmly and said.

At this moment, Julia felt that she was like a valiant general.

She couldn’t hesitate any more. Shawn’s behavior, whether intentional or not, would cause her misunderstandings. Although she was very happy that they were misunderstood as a couple by so many people today, she knew that it was fake.

Since when did she believe that they would never be together?

As soon as Julia finished her words, there was an awkward silence again. In their relationship, sometimes she was the only one who was talking and she was afraid that she might have said something wrong. This silence was very embarrassing, but sometimes she felt it was very sweet.

“You can’t run away from me before I ended this relationship. My kitty, don’t forget that our relationship is protected by law.” Shawn said flatly so Julia didn’t know his feelings.

But Shawn’s voice made Julia feel cold.

She is nothing but a toy in his palm and he was in control of her actions.

“We have made a deal.” Julia looked at him with a forced smile.

“Really?” Shawn smiled. His smile was very cold which made Julia kept shivering.

It reminded Julia that their deal had been lost.

At this moment, she finally understood what she meant to him.

Just a favored pet.

'He didn't want to give her to others or let others cast greedy eyes on her, because he liked her for a while.'

'He was so overbearing that he didn't allow anyone to touch his belongings.'

'He was so domineering that it was not strange for him to treat people as pets.'

Julia once thought he still loved her a little. After all, in many aspects, he treated her in a special way. She realized now that he treated her as a pet and treated others as people. Naturally, he treated her differently.

'She was a pet raised by him. She just like a pet which was so happy when her master throw a bone to her causally.' Julia can't help woolgathering.

'He left the land to her to work. Was it just like the meat he left?'

'The pet fell in love with the master. How ridiculous!'

Even though she had knew everything, Julia still had no power to fight back. The deal was her last weapon at first, but now the de waistline was enough to show off Julia's curvy figure.

However... The dress was a little exposed. The ditch on her chest was obvious to see. She grabbed the dress and struggled in front of the mirror for a long time before slowly walking out.

Julia lowered her head and her long and straight black hair was disheveled on her chest, shoulders and clavicles. She instantly became very sexy.

“It’s too sexy. Exchange another one.” Shawn commented.

“Yes.” Julia answered in a low voice and walked into the fitting room with a set of relatively good-looking clothes.

Again and again, Julia’s body was getting numb. She lowered her head and looked at Shawn who sat not far away from her, trembling with anger. ‘Did he thought it was a talent show?’

“I think it’s enough.” Julia thought it over and said softly.

“Yes.” Without making difficulties for her, Shawn stood up and took her away. He said to the saleswoman at the door, “Pack the clothes over there.”

The saleswoman cast a envious glance at Julia who shook her head helplessly and thought, ‘Young lady, you don’t understand my sadness at all.’

Julia thought she could go back. But unexpectedly, Shawn took her to a room full of shoes. She needed to try on shoes

Well, she did.

Julia took off the shoes and put on the shoes numbly.

After she had tried on for quite a while, Julia couldn’t help reminding Shawn to stop.

She bought the clothes and shoes. ‘Is there anything left?’ ‘A mountain of high-heeled shoes?’ thought Julia while glancing at them.

She silently calculated the cost of buying clothes and shoes here. At Sarahst they would cost millions. She had to work hard for a few years before she got the money?

Besides, she wanted to return the money to Shawn. She didn't want to owe him anything.

"It's late. Let's go home." Julia was worried about Shawn would take her to somewhere else and reminded him.

"Mr. Li, this way pSarahse." A saleswoman appeared and interrupted Julia.

Chapter 69

What made Julia even more angry was that Shawn listened to the saleslady's words instead of hers and led her to another room.

She swore that she didn't want to buy clothes in her whole life. She was so tired

As soon as Julia stepped into the room, she stopped and tried to run away, her legs trembling.

But the man in front of her pulled her in and locked the door

Yes, the door was locked.

Looking at the clothes racks all over the room, she had a very uneasy premonition. She glanced at Shawn carefully, and it turned out that Shawn had already sat in the central sofa of the room.

"I just need to pick my favourite. It's really troublesome to try on it..." Julia walked towards Shawn carefully and said with a giggle.

Hearing that, Cole looked up at her and stood up. Julia was delighted.

"It's really troublesome," said Shawn, "I can help you."

With a thunder, Julia was hit from head to toe.

“No...” Julia shouted, but when she felt Shawn’s unpSarahsant sight, she lowered her voice: “no No, I can do it myself. “

“Are you sure?” Bria

ed to do something.

“Don’t move. Let me hug you.” Said Shawn in a low voice.

Julia was stunned for a while and her mouth twitched. Boss, haven’t you had enough of hugging me inside?

For a long time, Julia failed to control her hands and also held him in her arms. They looked beautiful and gentle under the streetlight.

After that, Julia really wanted to cut off her hands. She had planned to ignore this man completely, but why did she hug him? She thought about it again and again, but still could not figure it out.

It was already very late at that time. They were going to go back to the villa after a walk around.

“Shawn? What a coincidence!” All of a sudden, someone shouted behind them.

Chapter 70

It was a familiar voice. Julia patted her forehead helplessly. Trouble was coming again.

“Eh? Julia is also here?” When Mona saw Julia, there was a flash of surprise on her face.

“What a coincidence!” Julia responded powerlessly.

Under the light, the hickeys on Julia’s neck were still obvious. Mona stared at them with resentment.

Why does Julia always get what she wants? ‘.

This time, she would never let Shawn be with others..

“Shawn? It’s so late. Is there a party?” With these words, Mona didn’t go back to see Julia, who chuckled and was about to Sarahve for the two to talk.

“Yea. It’s too late. Take care, Miss Simon.” Said Shawn in a polite and alienated manner, with no sign of emotion on his face.

Then he took Julia’s hand and left.

Standing behind them, Mona stared at their fingers interlocked and her fists were clenched involuntarily. She swore that she would never make Julia have a happy life. Absolutely!

Why could they forgive Julia after she doing so many wrong things so easily? So did Nathan , so did her brother.

No, even if they forgave her, she wouldn’t forgive her either. What she did was right. And it wouldn’t be so easy to forgive those who had done something wrong ‘Julia, I won’t make you have a happy life!’.

She was green with envy.

Somehow, Julia felt cold on her back.

“What’s wrong?” Noticing that Julia was in a bad mood, Shawn lowered his head and asked her.

Julia shook her head and curiously asked: “Boss, No, Shawn. What’s your relationship with Mona? “

“She is the daughter of Simon Family and our families are of equal social rank. I was going to propose to her in the coffee shop that day.” Said Shawn lightly, emotionless.

“Ahem!” Julia suddenly coughed, and thought, ‘fortunately, Mona didn’t know about it, or else she would hate me again.’.

Shawn frowned.

“You are too casual!” Julia looked at Shawn speechlessly.

“Who do you think you are?” Said Shawn with a sneer.

“I just make a mistake. My mother had already found out everything about her background and asked me to have a blind date.” Julia said furiously.

“I don’t want to get a real marriage certificate either.” Said Shawn.

Julia was shocked and looked at him strangely, “I don’t believe it. Then why did you go with me to get it?”

Looking her up and down, Shawn said, “because I think you won’t bother me.”

“.....” Julia touched her forehead.

Shawn chuckled. It was true that she had mistaken him for someone else. His speculation just matched his. Besides, she was not a clingy girl. He could see through her one eye.

He knew at that time that Julia didn’t know who he was at all, but his first impression of her was good.

That was why he didn't reveal the truth and married her.

Speaking of their first meeting, they laughed in relief.

After Julia stopped laughing, she looked very sad. What was she laughing at?
It was the beginning of her nightmare

Alas

She hadn't married into a weal

akened again. But she dared not to make any movement, so she closed her eyes tightly and pretended to be asleep.

Although Shawn had seen through her little trick, he did not expose her. She probably had been frightened a lot today.

He turned off the light and held her in his arms. The night became quiet again. The sound of his steady breath and the wind outside the window were unusually harmonious.

Julia opened her eyes and stared blankly at the vague face of Shawn.

When did she begin to face his existence indifferently?

"Why don't you go to sleep?" Shawn asked in a low voice, his lips twitching.

Julia was shocked. She was sure that this man hadn't opened his eyes. How did he know that she was still awake?

In a panic, she closed her eyes and dared not move an inch. She was afraid of Shawn suddenly going wild and eating her.

However, it was a little late for him to have this awareness, because At that moment, Shawn had already Sarahned over her, and the moon in the dark had come out to join in the fun.

Against the cold moonlight, only a vague outline of Shawn could be seen, but Julia still felt perfect.

“You did a good job today.” The next second, Shawn Kissed on her lips lightly.

With her eyes wide open, Julia looked at him in silence. After a while, she snorted and turned her head arrogantly. She was in a bad mood today.

Fortunately, Shawn didn’t care about her occasional arrogance. He lay beside her, held her tightly in his arms and went to sleep directly, ignoring whether Julia wanted it or not.

Julia blinked her eyes speechlessly. What an imperious and male chauvinist the CEO was.

Though Julia didn’t want to admit it, she was somehow sleepy and relieved in Shawn’s arms.

The moon was still dark outside the window, and cool autumn wind blew in from the window.

“Daddy, don’t Sarahve us alone...” Julia muttered unconsciously and then fell asleep again.

Daddy Was the girl calling for Noah? Shawn frowned.
