

In a Love Nest with the Aloof CEO Chapter 241

Skylar's voice sounded monotonous from all the shivering. "You're much better."

Tobias was really satisfied with her answer, but he squat at the bedside and said, "Louder. I can't hear you."

So Skylar repeated her answer over and over again as Tobias repeatedly asked her another three more times.

After that, Tobias picked her up by the shoulder and used his phone to turn off the vibration remotely. The room was quiet once again.

No one would have thought that Tobias would know how to use such an app since he did not even know how to make payments with his phone.

"Can we do this more often?" Tobias caressed Skylar's face as he spoke. He knew how to comfort her after sessions like these.

Skylar did not answer, so he smiled. "I'll take that as a yes then. Go wash up now. The night is still young."

She looked at him, astonished. Skylar thought they were done, but Tobias had to drop that bombshell on her.

While Skylar was in the shower, Tobias was smoking on the bed with only a pair of underwear on him. All a sudden, Susan called, but he immediately denied it.

Tobias did not want to be thinking about work during the night since it was his free time.

However, the phone rang once again. Tobias was getting a bit fed up so he took the call. "It's late. What is it?" He asked in cold manner.

"Mr. Ford, you should check Instagram. Two members of the company jumped of a building this afternoon. It's trending right now."

After the call ended, Tobias waited for Skylar to come out and asked, "Where's your phone? Give it to me."

Skylar hesitated for a split second. "What do you need my phone for? You want to inspect the content?"

"Of course not."

Skylar said nothing more as she bent down to pick up her pants from the floor. She then took out her phone from it and handed it to Tobias.

He proceeded to look for the icon for Instagram. When all of a sudden, a message popped out from the top of the screen.

Kai: I'm going back soon. You said you'd treat me to a meal.

Tobias' expression darkened as he stared at Skylar. "Are the things I tell you a joke to you?"

Skylar felt puzzled as there was nothing on her phone that she'd be afraid to show people. His reaction was odd to her.

"What are you talking about? I didn't do anything that is against your order, I think ." Skylar was not sure, so she added the last two words for insurance.

However, Tobias did not respond. He did not care about Instagram anymore as he opened up Skylar's WhatsApp.

When Skylar got close to see what he was looking at, Tobias was already looking at her conversation with Kai.

"We're just good friends!" She bit her lips and immediately explained. "Don't overthink it. And why are you looking through my messages anyway? Do I not have any privacy anymore?"

Skylar reached out to grab her phone from Tobias, but he raised his arm to block her.

He started scrolling back their conversation and found out that they had been talking very frequently.

Right then, Tobias closed his eyes and took a deep breath. From Skylar's perspective, he was emitting a terrifying aura. The situation at the moment was like the calm before a storm.

So, she quickly tried to explain herself once again. "We are really just good friends. You can see that from our conversation that we never went out of line."

"I told you in the past to stay away from him." Tobias voice was low and exuded a lot of pressure. "What are you doing right now? Do you like messaging him so much? Why not just talk face to face? He's asking you out for a meal anyway."

Skylar sat beside the bed, her hair was still dripping wet and her face looked a little sad.

"I didn't even talk too much with him. He's your cousin after all, there's no way something would happen between us."

In a Love Nest with the Aloof CEO Chapter 242

Tobias could not tell whether Skylar was doing it on purpose, or was she just that innocent.

Therefore, he blacklisted Kai's WhatsApp number for her because he did not want them to have any interactions with each other.

Seeing what he did, Skylar was speechless. He's a very stubborn man. He has zero tolerance for things like this.

"Don't ever let me see this again. Do you understand?" Tobias warned.

She nodded. "But he did save my life though. If it weren't for him that day at the river, I would have been dead."

Nevertheless, those words could not sway Tobias' decision, not even a little.

Skylar held her phone tightly in her hand. She was not as carefree this time for fear that there still might be something that would catch Tobias' eyes.

Tobias held his hand out towards her, and she reluctantly handed her phone over once again.

"Please stop going through my stuff," she pleaded. "I still have the right to my privacy. No one would possibly be okay with what you just did. Why don't you give me your phone too and let me go through everything inside."

"My phone is on the bedside table." Tobias did not even raise his head. "Go grab it yourself. There's a secret folder in there that contains videos of us. The visuals are impressive, but the sound is bad."

With just one nonchalant remark like that, Skylar's face flushed bright red and her heart raced.

She was not about to back down, so she took Tobias' phone and asked him for the password.

"Your birthday," Tobias answered.

Skylar proceeded to key in her birth dates, but the phone warned her that it was wrong.

"Did you remember someone else's birthday? Mine definitely does not unlock this," she complained to him.

Skylar tried again but to no avail while Tobias was looking through what was trending on Instagram.

"Wait, I remembered it wrongly," he suddenly said. "The password's 123123."

Skylar was annoyed. Is he messing around with me?

There was one news that caught Tobias' attention. He was certain that it would crash the company's share price and market value. He looked through the comments and everything was about how Ford Group was exploiting capitalism and undermining the workers. Some said that the employees were not being treated equally and that the system and culture within the company was ruthless and heartless.

On the other hand, Skylar held Tobias' phone in her hand and asked, "Can I do whatever I want with it?"

Tobias uttered a perfunctory sound in agreement, allowing Skylar to continue.

The first thing she did, was opening up the photo gallery, but there was nothing there. The secret folder that Tobias talked about should be locked.

Penelope had told her that she should be looking at his spending history when going through a man's phone. Having said that, Tobias was someone that did not know how to use his phone to make payments, so there was no record to be found.

When she was still dating Jeremy, Skylar would always find movie tickets in his pockets.

Every time, Jeremy would tell her that he went to see it with a dorm mate, and she would believe him. She figured that two man watching a romance film together was quite romantic in some ways.

After going over everything on the phone, Skylar was getting bored. So, she did what Tobias did and opened up his WhatsApp.

To her surprise, her name was pinned at the top. However, before she could feel happy about it, she saw a lot more pinned conversations. Her name was only at the top because she was the last person Tobias contacted.

Skylar eventually lost interest in Tobias' phone and left. She went downstairs to get some ice cream.

Meanwhile, Tobias was still focused on Instagram. He did not notice Skylar leaving because there were to many things going on Instagram at the moment.

When Skylar got back, she half knelt on the bed and passed him an ice cream seeing that he looked bothered. She thought Tobias was still unhappy about the Kai issue, but there was nothing more for her to say. She already explained everything to him.

Tobias shoved the ice cream away and Skylar noticed that he was looking at Instagram. So that's why he wanted my phone. He doesn't have Instagram on his! I have misunderstood.

The content on Instagram was very clear. It had a huge title, embolden in red.
