

Chapter 701 – 706 of Punished by His Love Novel

Chapter 701

This little girl has been particularly ashamed since she fell down.

She usually doesn't even let her pull her little hand.

This time, the little bitch was finally tamed.

Darius and Galia came in when Lenny forced to kiss Rayna.

Darius entered the door and shouted loudly: "Lao Jun, what's your situation, is your injury serious?"

Galia is more concerned about Rayna: "Rayna, are you all right, right?"

Rayna turned her head, her eyes were red and she looked at Darius and Galia.

To be honest, it is impossible not to be sad.

At this moment, the people who cared about her were the two friends she had just made, and it was her boyfriend who had just begun dating to save her life and save her from being broken.

And her close relatives, her parents have not shown up until now.

The reason why she was exposed to her cousin was entirely because her mother called her and was always scolding her.

That's why Walton, who was holding the sulfuric acid bottle, came to him, and she didn't even notice.

Darius came forward to look at Rayna. Rayna leaned against Suzi. She thought that Darius was going to her cousin Walton. Rayna stammered: "That... .. Shu, President Shu..."

"She beat you?" Darius asked distressedly.

Rayna: "..."

"From childhood to adulthood, she has always bullied you, right?" Darius asked again.

Rayna shook his head bitterly: "..."

Darius: "...". At this moment, heartbreak is not enough to describe the pain in Darius's heart. He thought again, could he be so unlucky for the Shu family? Could it be that his Shu family really failed to find two fake cousins?

That's really unlucky!

However, he must check it down, he will check it!

Thinking of this, Darius comforted Rayna: "It's okay, if someone bullies you in the future, you will find me."

"Old Shu! You already have a serious face!"

Darius: "In addition to thinking of your girlfriend, what else do you think of!"

"Oh... miss my pain." Lenny wailed as she slept on the hospital bed.

The others in the ward laughed.

This afternoon, Suzi originally wanted to go home early to pack up, but it was delayed because of Rayna's affairs.

After coming out of the hospital, Suzi repeatedly confessed to Darius: "I must take care of Galia during my absence this week."

Darius nodded: "Don't worry."

Suzi looked at Lenny, who was holding his arm in the white gauze cloth: "Mr. Jun..."

Before Suzi finished speaking, Lenny said: "I will take care of my own little wife, don't worry."

Suzi smiled and nodded.

At four o'clock in the afternoon, I picked up Lilly and the family of three hurried home. Due to time constraints, Suzi simply packed his clothes and took Lilly with Arron, and Christopher drove them to the airport.

Christopher was passing through the security check with Arron when he received a call: "Hey, what's the matter?"

I didn't know what was said on the phone, and Christopher was taken aback.

Then he called to Arron, his face was very solemn and said: "Four Lord, something has happened."

Chapter 702

Arron suddenly lowered his face, “What happened?”

Christopher glanced at Suzi, who was in front of him, and then whispered to Arron, “It’s the Lin family, something happened to the Lin family.”

Without waiting for Arron to ask, Christopher hurriedly said: “We guarded dozens of people in the Lin family. We have not seen one of them come out for most of the day. We should say that Moira and Lanita are embarrassed because they are embarrassed. I was walking around, but Jarod had to go to the company to handle the business? But in the middle of the afternoon, no one came out in Lin’s house. The subordinates were puzzled, so they forced to go in for a look, and found that Jarod, Moira, and Lanita Months are not at home.”

Arron: “...how could this happen! They are not even at home!”

This is something he never expected.

“The subordinates asked the Lin’s domestic helper, and they all said that the three of the Lin’s family went on a trip.” Christopher said.

Arron sneered: “What a trip! Obviously escaped!”

Christopher was also incredibly surprised: “When did this family become so agile? Is it rapid? After all, they are still afraid of death.”

Arron: “...” raised her eyes and glanced at Suzi’s mother and daughter.

If the Lin family of three escaped, Arron would not be able to follow Suzi to Suzi’s hometown for the time being. He had to stay and deal with the Lin family’s affairs first.

To put it bluntly, he just wanted to stay and capture the Lin family of three alive in a short time, and then destroy them.

It is absolutely impossible for Arron to keep the Lin family three more.

No matter how deep his friendship with Old Man Shu is, he can't keep it.

“Suzi.” Arron shouted calmly.

Suzi turned his head: “What’s wrong, Arron, is there any urgent matter that the company needs to deal with?”

Suzi has always been a very transparent and considerate girl. Just now Christopher’s cell phone rang and Christopher answered the call. She knew that Christopher’s serious expression was the same as that embarrassing when he talked to Arron. Suzi saw the expression in his eyes.

She knew that something very difficult must have happened.

Otherwise, the subordinates will not call at this moment.

Arron wants to be in charge of the entire Shengshi Group. Without him, many things cannot be done by the group company.

Therefore, without waiting for Arron to say anything, Suzi said with a smile: “It’s okay, Arron, in fact, it’s okay for me to go back to my hometown alone, my hometown, I can’t be more familiar with it, you really don’t need to follow me. Besides, I’m not as poor and inconvenient to go out as before. Now I have so much money in my hand. I stay in the best hotel when I go to my hometown and take a taxi when I go out. You don’t have to worry about me at all. .”

After a pause, she bagged her nose and smiled at Arron coquettishly: “That’s...Can you take the only one left for two days? I went to my hometown to set up my parents’ tombs. I bring the only inconvenience.”

Seeing Suzi pleading with him, Arron felt sad.

Xiaojiao's wife has always been so sensible, so she can see through her eyes.

However, if she knew the people she had always hated, her number one enemy suddenly disappeared, and these enemies may be the murderers who killed her mother, or they are more likely to be the ones who occupied the magpie's nest. She can't take revenge in the future, what will she think in her heart?

No way!

Arron had to capture the three Lin family back alive, and even if they were immortal, they had to be handed over to Suzi for Suzi to deal with.

He hugged Suzi in his arms, he leaned down and kissed her head, and whispered to her: "Two days, two days later, I will come to your hometown to find you. Take your parents' graves with you. , I took it back to Nancheng to find them the best Feng Shui tomb."

Suzi nodded: "Yeah."

Then, she bent down and looked at Lilly, who was carrying a small backpack and holding a dumb bear in her hand.

Lilly seemed to know something. She looked at her father and mother.

Suzi smiled and said, "Children, are you willing to follow your father these past two days, or are you willing to follow your mother?"

Shen Only: "..."

Why leave this problem to her!

She is now reluctant to both her father and mother, OK!

Humph!

The little eyeballs rolled a little circle, and she suddenly had an idea: "Guess Ding Shell, whoever wins, who I will follow."

Guess Ding Shell!

Chapter 703

Arron + Suzi: "..."

Pedestrians come and go in the huge airport lobby.

Many people recognized Arron, but they didn't dare to take photos or cover up things like that. This is such a frightening man. In this airport hall where people are everywhere, he wants to guess with his wife. Ding shell.

Yan Zhu next to him immediately covered his mouth.

If he doesn't cover his mouth, he has to laugh out loud, okay!

I really admire my little princess.

The little princess is really a good hand to torture her own father.

Okay!

Even a man respected as the King of the South City is just a slave to his daughter.

Guess Ding Shell!

The president of the dignified Fushi Group guessed Ding Shell with his wife in the airport lobby.

Moreover, it has to be the kind of cheating.

Arron knew that although the little girl asked her parents to guess Ding Shell, she wanted to follow her mother in her heart.

This little thing!

When did she think about her mother, she was simply her mother's little guardian.

Guess Ding Shell!

Arron and Suzi met his brother's eyes, and then they both shot at the same time.

"Only, you followed Dad these two days." Arron said in a gleeful tone. Lilly: "Eh... that's all right."

She looked at Suzi, "Goodbye mom, good luck. If you get to the place, if you have any needs, remember to call my dad as soon as you can. If you can't find my dad, you can find me."

She is like an old man, and has a lot to explain to her mother.

Suzi: "...I see, mom!"

Lilly: "Puff..."

“You go back quickly, I’ll go through the security check and board the plane!”
Suzi kissed the girl’s face before he was willing to go through the security check.

After registration, the plane will take off in 45 minutes.

Suzi sat down and closed his eyes and thought a lot.

The moment the plane took off, she suddenly panicked. She has a nervousness that is close to nostalgia. For fifteen years, she has not set foot on her homeland.

What has become of that piece of land now?

Is there anyone you know there?

How is your old house?

Have all the neighbors moved out?

Suzi didn’t know, she was very worried.

Two hours later, Suzi landed safely. After leaving the airport, she took a taxi to the county where her hometown was.

After another two hours, Suzi guessed that she had actually reached her homeland.

The development of the small county has completely changed, and she can’t recognize it anymore.

There were so many tall buildings here, which made her feel like she couldn’t tell the direction. Suzi checked the time, and it was already ten thirty in the evening, and she settled down at the Jinli Hotel, the best hotel in the county.

After entering the hotel and putting down his luggage, Suzi called her husband immediately: "Arron, I have already arrived at my hometown."

Chapter 704

Arron was in a meeting at the other end.

In the conference room, Arron sat in the center. On the sofa placed next to him lay a sleeping little bun. On the opposite side of him, there were no fewer than 30 people sitting on the long oval conference table.

These thirty people are all his confidants.

Suzi's call was made during this intensive meeting.

The man raised his hand to silence the participants. He asked the receiver, "Has the hotel been found?"

Suzi said warmly: "I've found it. It is the largest hotel in our county. This bed is about the same size as ours, but I don't have you and the only one by my side. I feel empty."

Suzi has always been independent and can stand lonely people.

However, during this period of time, she and Arron's family of three have not been separated. The sudden separation made Suzi really uncomfortable.

She found that she could not do without Arron.

Moreover, she also learned to act like a baby without knowing it.

"Um... Arron, give me a kiss." She said.

At this time, Suzi didn't know that the three Lin family she hated the most had escaped without a trace, and didn't know that her man Arron was holding an emergency meeting overnight for this matter.

Her soft voice reached Arron's earpiece, and then heard it in the ears of the participants, it was called a...

Although he did not press the hands-free button.

However, in the quiet night, when everyone did not dare to speak, Suzi's voice was still very clear.

Hearing his man's silence, Suzi asked lazily: "Why, haven't you been sleeping alone?"

The man looked at the child sleeping next to him and said to his wife: "Don't worry, the only one is already asleep."

"Huh! Are you still kissing me? I thought the only one was by your side, you are embarrassed." Suzi said grinningly on the other end of the phone.

She is very relaxed today.

After all, when I was with him, I wasn't so bold to face each other.

She can't see anyone anymore, she misses him a bit, she can't see her face anyway, and she doesn't even feel blushing. She is very courageous: "Why, you are still shy? If you don't kiss me, I will kiss you. I kissed you, you put your cheek to the earpiece, and I kissed you."

Arron: "..."

He can't hang up, because she is alone in her hometown far away. If he hangs up immediately, he is afraid that she is alone.

So he left her to tune him very freely on the other end of the phone.

He didn't change his face and his heart was calm.

None of the participants in the meeting dared to laugh.

"Huh! What!" On the other end of the phone, Suzi could eagerly say Huan.

"Are you happy, Arron?" she asked again.

Arron: "Yeah."

"Speak louder!"

Arron: "..."

"Don't you say it? You don't say it, don't you say it, I will let you kneel on the washboard. Believe it or not, believe it or not!" Suzi said in a proud voice.

She thought, he couldn't catch her anyway.

Even if he caught her, he would punish her severely.

And his punishment to her is often what she looks forward to most.

She doesn't suffer anyway.

Then sahan chant to your heart's content.

Said to be enjoying Sahan, in fact, Suzi understands deeply in her heart that she has a kind of fear. She is afraid that she will return to her hometown tomorrow and don't know what it is like. She feels a little uneasy in her heart. She can only call her husband. Acting like a baby, joking, to calm down the trace of anxiety in your heart

“Happy!” Arron raised his voice immediately.

Chapter 705

“Perfect! Well, you won’t be allowed to kneel on the washboard, but you have to bring the only one over to me as soon as possible.” Suzi softly ordered.

“Good.” Arron’s voice was very gentle.

After speaking, he raised his eyes and glanced at the thirty subordinates present.

None of the subordinates dared to gasp loudly.

It is said that Siye Fu is very decisive, but he is afraid.

At this time, they really saw it.

This is what the family’s little wife asked Master to do, and Master did it!

It’s really worthy of the name.

“Husband bye bye.” Suzi finally said goodbye, mainly because she was afraid of affecting his rest.

“Pay attention to safety. When you go from the hotel to your hometown, hire a taxi and tell him to give him two thousand yuan a day and let him wait for you there.” Arron said.

“I know, husband!” Suzi just hung up the phone.

Arron's heart was also drawn.

He knew that Suzi had always been independent, and that she could take care of herself no matter where she went, but he still couldn't rest assured that she would go back to her hometown where she hadn't been back in fifteen years.

But here, he must respond urgently.

Closing the phone, he calmly looked at the cronies present: "Go on!"

One of them spoke: "Fourth Lord, the reason why the three of Jarod's family can escape so smoothly, Elder Shu will never get out of the relationship."

The other person nodded: "It must be Elder Shu who mediated it."

Immediately afterwards, the third person spoke: "Master Shu, is this the one who wants to help the island and fight against us?"

The fourth person: "Fourth Master, what do you think?" Arron remained silent. When his subordinates asked him, he nodded: "Yes! Elder Shu must have done this, otherwise they can't escape."

"Never forgive Elder Shu!" Someone suddenly patted the table.

"Yes! You must never spare Elder Shu!"

"This old man Shu, relying on your help to the Fourth Master in his early years, he really protected his ineffective granddaughter over and over again. For his granddaughter, he can do anything now. We are resolute. He can't let him go on like this anymore!" The cronies have been following Arron in the North and South for more than ten years, and some have even assisted Arron when Arron was a teenager. Their relationship and relationship with Arron There are already copper walls and iron walls a long time ago.

So at this moment, they dare to speak.

However, Arron had his own plan in mind.

“If I sanction Mr. Shu now, then the Jarod family of three must be panicked on the island side, and their family of three will be panicked, and the entire island will be more alert to us. Then, if I want to take that island, it will be a bit more difficult than it is now.” Arron said slowly.

Faithful: “...”

Master was right.

One of them said: “Why don’t we...we will do everything?”

“Yes, all the tricks! Just let the Lin family of three think that it is safe for them to escape to that island.”

For a time, all cronies held this attitude.

Arron finally breathed a sigh of relief.

This was the direction he had formulated before the meeting, and he could not rush to startle, but he had to stabilize the hearts of these trusted followers.

Only in this way can he make his plans more thorough.

Taking that island, Arron is bound to win.

Since all three of the Lin family have taken refuge on that island, wouldn’t it be better to catch turtles in an urn?

“Okay, that’s it! The meeting is over!” As soon as Arron’s voice fell, his cell phone rang again.

He picked it up and saw that it was an unfamiliar number, and he immediately connected: “Hey...”

Chapter 706

“Hee hee. Husband” Suzi’s voice came from there again: “husband...this is the phone number in the hotel. After you have dealt with Nancheng’s affairs, you must remember to call this when you bring the only one with you. Phone.”

At this end, Arron’s heart was inexplicably sad.

He could feel the panic in her heart.

In fact, she has always been a very calm person. If it weren’t for her unstable heart, she wouldn’t call him over and over again.

The man’s voice became warmer: “I will book the earliest flight and take the only one to go to your place. I must cover more quilts when I go to bed at night. The north is colder than ours.”

“I know.”

“Also, the hotel door is locked with double safety.”

“Understood!”

“Also... if there is any accident, call me as soon as possible.”

“It must be!”

“And...”

“Husband! Why are you like my little mother!”

Arron: "Where are you mom?"

"Your daughter! Shen only!"

Arron: "... " Before I knew it, there was a warm smile on his face.

The cronies next to him stared blankly.

If Arron didn't leave this conference room, none of the cronies would dare to leave. Faithful, look at me, I look at you, they can't believe it. This is the mercenary who has been strategizing since he was a teenager and had already made a strong contribution to the field of mercenaries abroad at the age of twenty, overnight. When in charge of the Fu Group, the Fu Group did not shake anything. He was always as calm as an iceberg. Their chief executive had a warm smile on his face.

They often heard Yanzhu say: "Four masters are becoming more and more gentle now. Just when the cronies were stunned, their president had taken off his suit and covered the little bun sleeping on the sofa, and then lightly Lightly picked up the little bun.

"Dad..." The childish little milk voice is very light, but it has a strong taste of attachment.

"Dad hold it lightly, the only thing to sleep well." The man coaxed softly.

The little girl lay on her father, sleeping happily.

The man just hugged Lilly so lightly and went out. After going out, he freed up a hand to wave his cronies to disperse.

The cronies looked behind them and were very moved.

Many people suddenly feel that they must treat their wives and children better when they come home.

The president has set an example!

Arron hugged Shen and got down the elevator all the way, came to the garage, jogged with Christopher behind him, and drove straight back to Arron's residence.

"Four Lord, how is the meeting going?" asked sternly.

"As I expected." The man said.

Christopher sighed as he drove: "This old man Shu is really doing it, I see, one day he won't regret it."

As soon as Christopher's words fell, Arron called again.

Arron thought it was Suzi. If it were Suzi, he would be able to talk now. He would tell his wife that his daughter is by his side and don't wake up the child.

However, when he picked it up, it turned out that it wasn't Suzi's call.

It's Shu's landline.

Whoever is really talking about will arrive.

Arron immediately connected: "Hello..."
