In Love, Never Say Never Chapter 1019

He nodded. Since things have already escalated up to this point, we can't turn back anymore. I'll do my best to make it up to Amy once Summer's life has been spared.

Having arrived at the hospital, Zachary rushed toward us and asked, "Did you guys see Amy?"

My heart skipped a beat. "Amy? I thought I told Mom to make sure she stays beside her. What happened?"

Zachary was getting flustered. "Just now, the doctor asked your Mom to do the necessary paperwork in order for Amy to stay in the hospital. When she came back, the kid was missing. I arrived at the hospital not long ago to look for her, but to no avail."

I was stunned in place. It must be Armond who took Amy away. He took advantage of the fact that we were too busy to look after her. Damn him!

Ashton glared at Joseph, who was catching up to us, and ordered with gravitas, "Use whatever means necessary to seal off the highways in and out of A City. Also, hack the hospital's surveillance cameras and see if you can locate the kid's whereabouts."

He then went silent for a while before aligning his eyes with Zachary's. "Summer's surgery should proceed as planned," he uttered.

I was tensed up after hearing his statement. I stared at him uttered, "Ashton, without the bone marrow and the kidney, Summer's surgery will have no probability of succeeding. We must find Amy first, or else..."

Zachary interrupted me, "Don't worry, Scarlett. We know what we're doing. It'll be fine."

How can I not be worried?

I shook my head as my face turned pale, "No, this is way too risky. I've already lost my own kids. I can't afford to lose Summer too."

I tried to stop Joseph but Ashton was holding me back. He gazed at me consolingly. "Don't worry, Summer will be fine, and so will Amy. Trust me on this, okay?"

I stared at him doubtfully. "You..."

"Just trust me, okay?" he insisted.

I stayed quiet and nodded.

Thus, Joseph hastily went to hack the surveillance cameras. Meanwhile, Zachary seemed like he had made preparations of his own. He made a certain phone call and uttered, "Do it!"

After hanging up the phone, he glanced at me and said, "I'm going upstairs to see your Mom!"

When it was just me and Ashton left in the lobby, I blurted out asking, "Did you know beforehand that Amy was going to be abducted?"

He embraced me and helped me to a nearby bench to rest. "Don't worry. All the pain that you've suffered, I'm going to pay them back twofold."

When Joseph came back, he took a few glances at me but was reticent to say anything. Perhaps it was something that he couldn't say in front of me.

I gazed at Ashton and uttered, "I'm going for a walk outside!"

I got up and headed toward the exit of the hospital. On my way out of the hospital, I saw an ambulance dropped off a patient who was severely wounded at the emergency area. The nurse beside the patient shouted, "It was a car accident. He suffered a serious concussion. The nerves connecting his legs are damaged."

A group of nurses and doctors rushed to the patient and took him to the ER immediately. It seemed like his injury was rather serious.

I then overheard two men talking about the incident. "There was an accident on the Sunny Highway. A black passenger car flew off the highway and crashed under the bridge. A family of three was on the car. Unfortunately, the mother didn't survive. The kid on the other hand, only suffered a minor injury thanks to his father protecting him."

"God can be cruel and callous. Look at what happened to a nice family like them!"

Out of curiosity, I opened my phone to look at the news. There was indeed news about a car accident. I roughly went through the news article and noticed that the black car in the accident was a Mercedes-Benz.

The number plate of the car was way too familiar to me. No one else uses a pair of the same number "eight" as their number plate other than Brandon. Back then when I went to Amy's house, I inadvertently saw his number plate. I only thought that he was an ostentatious person upon seeing it and didn't pay much attention to it then. That being said, I didn't expect to see it again in this manner.

So were Brandon and his family the ones who got into a car accident?

Thinking back, Joseph did try to hide something from me. Could it be? Without thinking too much, I dashed back inside the hospital. Ashton was still talking with Joseph in the lobby. Upon seeing me, Joseph immediately stopped talking.

I glared at Ashton and blurted out, "Does the car accident that happened to Brandon has anything to do with you?"

Unperturbed by my question, he gazed at Joseph and instructed, "Go and deal with the aftermath."

After Joseph left, I stared at Ashton intently as I waited for his response. He dragged me over to him and sat me down by his side. "You were just discharged from the hospital recently, so you must take it easy, okay? Originally, you weren't even supposed to get out of the house. But since you're already out here, promise me that you won't think too much, okay? You must take care of your body."

I scowled as I retorted, "Ashton, you're changing the topic!"

He was feeling helpless. "What do you mean? I'm just worried about you."

Peeved, I furrowed my eyebrows. "Did you hurt Brandon and his family?" This couldn't have been a coincidence.

He narrowed his eyes and remained taciturn.

My heart was aching as I looked at him and uttered, "Ashton, I know that Brandon is the one who hurt me. Honestly, I want him to suffer as much as you do. However, what you're doing is too dangerous. If you were to get caught, you'd be put in prison."

He glanced at me and replied, "His wife's bone marrow is compatible with Summer's."

I was stunned in place after hearing what he said. "You..." The news said that his wife died on the scene. Does that mean...

The atmosphere was engulfed in silence for a while until he uttered, "Summer's illness will recover. The kid that you've adopted will also be fine. Our whole family will be fine. Trust me."

My eyes turned red as I gazed at him. "Ashton, do you even realize the consequences of doing such a thing?"

If he gets caught, he'll be put behind bars. I'm cognizant that he's being discreet about all of this. However, since he was brought up in an army, I know for a fact that he'll get the impulse to kill his enemies. Although Brandon is indeed an abhorrent man, killing him is still too much for Ashton to bear. He'll be haunted by this forever.

Seeing as my face was pale, he let out a faint smile and embraced me. "Don't worry, I'm acutely aware of what I'm doing."

Zachary, who had just came down the stairs, informed us, "Summer's bone marrow is confirmed to be compatible with a deceased woman's. With that, there's hope for Summer to recover now. You guys don't have to worry anymore."

Pursing my lips, I felt as though my heart was suffocating. After my incident, I was relieved to see that Ashton didn't do anything. He could've just succumbed to his anger and torture those who have hurt me, but he refrained from doing so, which I'm glad about.

That being said, I'm different from him. I'm inherently a bad person. Even if I've killed a person, I won't feel bad about it. But that's not the case for Ashton. He has always lived his life by abiding to the law and his responsibilities. No matter what happens, he'll choose a gentler approach to the problem. That's his belief.

But this time, he was willing to break his own code of living. Because of me, he set up an accident to hurt Brandon and even had the impulse to kill him. This is not the Ashton that I wanted to see. They say that lovers help each other to grow and improve, yet I'm only impinging on him...

Joseph came back again and he seemed rather impatient. Instead of avoiding me like last time, he directly reported, "Mr. Fuller, there's an issue pertaining to the port in Moranta. Illegal drugs and military weapons were found among the imported items there. The local police are starting to take action."

Ashton frowned and replied, "I understand!"

Zachary paused for a bit before saying, "Seems like the Murphys are making their move. I'll handle all the things here. You should head to Moranta as soon as possible. This war will be an onerous one to win."

Ashton turned toward me and embraced me before he murmured, "No matter the circumstances, your own safety comes first. Understand?"

I nodded and hugged him tighter for I didn't want to let him go.

Seeing he was about to leave, I offered, "Let me see you off!" Although we had parted ways before, but I really didn't want to see him go this time.

Seeing as I followed him, he smiled and pulled me onto the car. "Why are you behaving like a child?" he teased me.

I paid no heed to his teasing and embraced him tightly and said, "I don't want to see you go. After the mess in Moranta is dealt with, promise me you'll spend more time with me, okay?"

He smiled and caressed my hair. "Okay, you have my word. In return, promise me you'll take good care of yourself."

I nodded while still clinging on to him.

Time does tend to pass faster when we are saying goodbye to someone. In the blink of an eye, we were already at the airport. Joseph had sorted everything out in advance so that they were able to leave immediately. I couldn't help but hug Ashton again before he boarded the plane.

He hugged me back and exhorted me to take good care of myself in a gentle voice. He told me to eat at regular intervals, to close the windows before I sleep, to not stay up late, to not eat or drink anything cold...

As he was rambling on, I hugged him even tighter than before. As time was running out, Joseph called out to Ashton. Then, I let him go reluctantly.

Watching him walking further and further away from me, tears started flowing out of my eyes. "Ashton, you better come back soon. I'll be waiting at home for you!" I exclaimed.

He turned around and gave me a soothing smile.
