Luna raised her brows and looked in the direction of the sound.

By the entrance of her office, Joshua, in black, was leaning by the entrance, looking at her indifferently. His arms were crossed around his chest.

It looked like he had been there for quite some time.

Luna said seriously, "I only want to know which hospital she is at, so I can get Theo to help me gather some news."

At that moment, Irene was being resuscitated, everyone's emotions and despise against Luna had to be at their peak. Luna would be crazy to go to the hospital personally.

However, in the end, everything that Irene did was targeting her.

Luna had to know of Irene's situation, so getting Theo to look on her behalf was the best option. If Luna recalled correctly, Theo has a few friends in the hospitals of Banyan City.

Joshua slightly furrowed his brows. "You trust Theo that much?"

Theo was not from the medical world, he did not have influence in Banyan City as well. He was not even from Banyan City.

Still, once she encountered such a matter, the first person Luna thought of was actually Theo to help her gather news.

Was Luna just treating Joshua as a prop? Perhaps, in her heart, Theo was more reliable than him?

Once Joshua knew of the Irene incident, he immediately contacted the doctor who was resuscitating Irene in the shortest time possible. Then, he came over to look for Luna with his first-hand news.

Still, Luna just kept talking about Theo!

Luna furrowed her brows and met with his gaze fearlessly. "Shouldn't I trust my boyfriend?"

Shannon, who was scrolling through her phone by the side, said, "Found it. She's currently in New Life Hospital. Getting Mr. Allen to have a look is one of the safest options. On one hand, he is Director Luna's boyfriend. On the other hand, he is also a famous artist. Even if the people were vicious, they have to be wary of his status. They would not dare to do anything to him."

Then, Shannon lifted her head. "Director Luna, you...."

Before she could finish her sentence, she realized that the atmosphere between Luna and Joshua was a little off.

At the thought that Luna and Joshua had so many rumors between them...

Shannon paused for a while and cautiously backed out. Then, she shut the office door.

It was only Luna and Joshua left in the office. The atmosphere was so quiet it was suffocating.

Joshua entered and sat down on Luna's sofa. "I thought that you would trust me more."

Luna furrowed her brows and sat down on the chair once again. "What did I do to give you such a misunderstood impression, Mr. Lynch?"

"Theo's mother was still finding fault with you yesterday."

"Theo is Theo, his mother is another person."

"You called me last night to do something for you. " "But I also promised to add another design in this project."

The air was once again in silence.

In the end, Joshua harrumphed coldly and stood up. He took out the sketch he saw on her table the day before. The one with his hand.

"How do you explain this? You have been secretly modeling your sketches after my hand, yet you say you don't trust me?"

Looking at Joshua's hand in the sketch, Luna's head instantly ached.

Actually, the sketch was done a long time ago.

Back then, when they were abroad, Nellie would like to come up with topics for her to sketch. Nellie told her to design a ring for their father, wondering what it would look like.

Although Luna did not like that topic, but to appease her daughter, she still sketched it out.

The ring has a skull on it and other assorted horror elements. Those represent her resentment for Joshua.

Because the design was for him, so naturally she modeled the sketch after his hand.

Neil must have shipped this sketch over together with the others when he sent all her sketches back from abroad.

However, why would it appear on her desk at that moment?

She furrowed her brows and thought for a long while.

Finally, she recalled. When Celeste came to throw the check at her the day before, She placed all her honorary certificates on the table. One of the folded sketches dropped on the floor, but at that time she was busy dealing with Celeste, she did not care for it.

At that moment, it seemed like...

Either Arianna, Samson, or Zayne must have picked up the sketch and mistook it for a recent sketch of her, that was why they placed it on the table.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 602 By eBooksCat

At that thought, Luna could not help but rub the middle of her brows.

No wonder Joshua would ask her about modeling in her sketches in their phone call the night before. It was because of this.

Seeing how she was silent, Joshua sneered and laughed, "Why are you not talking? You secretly drew my hand, designing a ring for me, yet on the other hand, you say you don't trust me?"

Luna pursed her lips. She should not have agreed to Nellie playing that game back then.

Luna took a deep breath. She lifted her eyes and looked at Joshua. "Alright, yes, I did secretly design a ring for you, Mr. Lynch, but my reasons are also simple. As an employee working under the Lynch Group, I have been causing you troubles many times, so I wanted to specially design a ring for you as compensation."

Then, Luna took out her phone and searched for Theo's contact. She was about to dial it when Joshua calmly raised his gaze and looked at her.

"Are you still getting Theo to help you?" Luna paused for a while. "Can't I?"

Joshua changed into another comfortable position on the sofa. "In Banyan City, I rule."

Luna was silent for a moment.

After a while, she lifted her gaze and smiled at him. " In that case, Mr. Lynch, are you willing to send men to help me gather some news on Irene's current situation?"

"She's fine."

He finally waited for her to ask this question. Joshua picked up the documents he placed by the side and threw them on Luna's desk.

"Lucas has already reached the hospital half an hour ago. They might say that Irene is still undergoing resuscitation, but it had been long completed. She is currently staying in the hospital. Although they say she's undergoing resuscitation, they are just using this to create momentum. Their purpose is to get more people to know that you were the one that hurt her that way.”

Luna furrowed her brows. She picked up the documents and flipped through them.

As expected.

Irene’s patient’s record clearly stated that she fell from the third-story balcony, about six meters high, onto a lawn.

There were no serious injuries. There were bone fractures on her left foot. Also, other bruises.

After seeing Irene’s patient’s records, Luna chuckled, “I thought it would be quite serious.”

Jumping off the building, being resuscitated, leaving a note... such dramatic ways. Luna thought that Irene was truly planning to die to bring her down.

“She only wants you to pay the price, it’s not that she really wants to die. ”

“It’s strange, though.” Luna put the documents down. “Yesterday, when Irene left the office, this incident was resolved. Arianna said that yesterday she heard Irene telling the people that she brought along to protest that this matter has ended. In less than a day, why is she trying to create trouble again Joshua laughed, “Because people from a media company approached Irene yesterday, so this leaving a note, jumping off a building incident is just a hype. It’s because your identity is too special. A famous jewelry designer having rumors with the Lynch Group president. Now, you’re also the great artist, Theo Allen’s girlfriend. On top of that...”

Joshua narrowed his eyes. "Yesterday, the police caught the people that beat up Irene. All of them said that you were the one that ordered them to do so."

Luna narrowed her eyes.

"There's something else that is quite interesting too." Joshua looked at Luna and smiled. "The media company that is helping Irene make news... is from Sea City. The shareholders behind this company are very mysterious. I could not find out anything after many rounds of investigating, but one thing I'm sure of is that this company has an inextricable link with the Walter family."

Luna shuddered.

She raised her gaze, smiled, and looked at Joshua. "So, you still think I'm Hailey Walter, is that it, Mr. Lynch?"

"Since the beginning, not once have I thought that you are Hailey Walter."

Joshua looked at Luna closely. "But so many incidents that had to do with you had something to do with Hailey too. My guess is that you already know who the real Hailey is and where she is.

"Tell me."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 603 By eBooksCat

Luna was instantly in a daze.

Never would she have expected that Joshua would immediately guess that she knew who Hailey was when he was still suspecting her of being Hailey the day before.

This man's acuity... was way beyond her imagination.

She took a deep breath and kept herself calm. She raised her gaze and looked at him. "I don't know what you're talking about, Mr. Lynch. How would I know about the news on Hailey?"

Joshua laughed.

He leaned back on the sofa and elegantly crossed his legs. His gaze was calm. "She has been constantly targeting you. It started when we were in Sea City. For such a long time, every time she targeted you, she wanted your life. According to your character, it would be impossible for you to just sit and do nothing. However, from the information I have recently, you have never done anything to Hailey, who has been hiding somewhere in the dark. So, the only possibility is that you have long known the existence of Hailey. You also know all her current secrets. That is why you could be so calm."

Then, Joshua gracefully raised his eyebrows. "Am I right?"

Luna narrowed her eyes. She clenched her fists under the table.

Joshua's gaze was too sharp and penetrating as if he could see through all her secrets.

Luna did not dare to meet his gaze. She was afraid that even meeting his gaze for a split second, he would be able to see the panic in her eyes.

After a while, Luna took a deep breath. She lifted her head. "Since you have already investigated and analyzed this so thoroughly, can't you find out any clues pertaining to Hailey?"

Joshua laughed, "Of course, there are things that I can't find out. Throughout this period, only Alice seemed to have a problem with you, but Alice..."

Luna pursed her lips. When she heard Joshua mentioning Alice, she could no longer hold back. She said, "Mr. Lynch, have you ever suspected that Alice..."

Before Luna could finish her sentence, Joshua raised his head up suddenly. He glared at Luna closely with his deep gaze. "Luna, I understand that you are always being targeted by Alice, that is why you have a misunderstanding with her, but Alice is my wife. I know her the most. She is not, and could not be Hailey."

Joshua harrumphed coldly and directly stood up. "It looks like you're not willing to tell me."

Luna laughed, "Since I have already said it, but you're not willing to believe me, then why bother asking me, Mr. Lynch?"

Joshua fiercely narrowed his eyes upon Luna's words. The atmosphere in the office dropped a few degrees.

After a long while, Joshua harrumphed coldly, "Since you're willing to keep Hailey's secret, then moving onward, I won't care about what she does to you!"

Then, Joshua directly stood up, turned, and left with a cold expression.

Sitting on the chair, Luna looked at Joshua leaving in resolution. She slowly smiled bitterly.

She was not willing to say that Alice was Hailey because she was afraid that Alice might drag her down together, immediately pointing out that she is Luna Gibson.

Luna did not want Joshua to know her identity. This time she came back to look for Joshua just so she could get pregnant with his child and she could return to cure Nigel.

Luna was not planning to get back together with Joshua. She was not even willing to let any of her children be taken by Joshua.

However, at that moment, she realized that she had been overthinking.

Joshua's attitude a moment ago has explained everything.

Even if she placed all evidence of how Alice was Hailey in front of Joshua, he would still not believe it.

After all, although he was a scumbag, he still liked Alice at that moment.

He liked her so much that he could ignore Alice's mistakes over and over again, protecting her time after time.

He liked her so much that Luna felt that even if he knew that Alice was Hailey, he might not even break up with her.

After all, Joshua could kill Luna Gibson back then, yet he could love and protect Alice, who was assuming the identity of Luna Gibson.

What Joshua liked should be the person, not her previous identity.

Joshua was a philanderer and liked all sorts of people, but the unfortunate thing was, whether it was back then or the present, Luna has never gotten a single ounce of gentleness from him.

Perhaps, it was fated...

At that thought, Luna was a little annoyed.

She went into the washroom to wash her face, forcing herself to calm down.

"She already forced a person to jump off a building, yet she's still as usual."

"How powerful. Would a designer have such huge powers?" "Tsk, tsk, isn't she just relying on Mr. Lynch and her boyfriend..."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 604 By eBooksCat

Coming out from the washroom, Luna heard a few female staff gossiping in the pantry outside the washroom.

According to her previous character, when she encountered such incidents, she would pretend that she did not hear it and leave.

Even if it was serious, she would remember which department they were from so she could pay back in the future.

However, at that moment, she was not in a great mood.

Luna took a deep breath and walked toward the pantry in her high heels. She crossed her arms around her chest and looked at those women.

"She's just relying on her face, nothing great about that..."

"I heard that the face is not an original one, she had gone through plastic surgery..."

“Even the cosmetic surgery was paid for by Mr. Lynch. She used to be extremely ugly...”

The women were gossiping without realizing it.

After a long while, someone finally noticed Luna by the entrance.

“Stop talking.” The person that noticed Luna tugged on the others’ sleeves and said in a low voice.

The women subconsciously turned to look at the entrance. Their fire has suddenly been doused. “Why don’t you continue?”

Luna crossed her arms and leaned gracefully by the entrance. She smiled. “What creative storytelling. Go on. I like to listen to them.”

Upon her words, the few women gritted their teeth. “ Director Luna, we were just talking nonsense, don’t mind us. What if I do mind?”

Luna smiled and entered.

Bang!

She slammed the door of the pantry shut.

“Ah!”

“It burns! ”

“Help! Luna is murdering! ”

Luna swiftly put the cup down accompanied by the screams of the women.

She swept a glance at the women who were burned red by hot water.

"If I don't flare up, it doesn't mean that you could keep defaming me. This is just a simple lesson. If there is next time, the things being splashed on you might not be hot water, but acid."

Then, Luna turned and left.

When she touched the doorknob, she suddenly thought of something.

She turned around and glared coldly. "Next time, even if you want to spread rumors, don't put me together with a person like Joshua Lynch. He is not worthy of it."

Then, Luna opened the door and stormed off.

The women in the pantry looked at each other. They thought that they misheard!

Luna... actually said that Joshua was not worthy of being rumored with her?

"Sir."

In the president's office on the top floor, Lucas placed an old-looking handphone that had been placed in a sealed bag on the desk.

"We sent people to search the lake twice before finding this phone. Because it has been soaked in the water for too long, the original internal parts of the phone have been damaged and cannot be repaired. "

Joshua narrowed his eyes and looked at the phone on his desk.
“Got it.”

Lucas remained on the same spot. He looked at Joshua and wanted to say something else.

“Is there anything else?”

“ . There is one more thing.”

Lucas took a deep breath and took his phone out. “ Someone sent this video in our staff chat group just now. Have a look at it.”

Joshua furrowed his brows and accepted the phone.

In the video, Luna splashed water onto a group of women in the pantry. The women’s screams kept ringing, which made Joshua furrow his brows in annoyance.

Just when he was about to turn off the video, Luna stopped.

Her gaze and tone in the video were ice-cold.

“Next time, even if you want to spread rumors, don’t put me together with a person like Joshua Lynch. He is not worthy of it.”

He looked at Luna in the video and fiercely narrowed his eyes.

He was not worthy of her?

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn’t Easy chapter 605
By eBooksCat

Joshua gripped the phone until his fingers were white.

He played the video once more. Hearing Luna's voice, he narrowed his eyes.

He was not worthy?

This was the first time in his life that he has heard someone saying that he was not worthy!

The atmosphere in the office was extremely cold, filled with Joshua's endless wrath.

"Sir..." Lucas said cautiously, "the staff that had been splashed with water has brought it up to their managers. They said that if Luna doesn't compensate them and apologize, they would report it to the police."

Joshua coldly raised his eyebrows. He returned the phone to Lucas. "Let them make the report. She should learn her lesson."

It was because he had been too lenient with her, that was why Luna would be so bold to do such things. She first hid about Hailey, then she tried to stir up problems between him and Alice. She also told others about how he was not worthy to be mentioned together with her.

If Joshua did not let Luna learn her lesson, she would be too brazen!

"But, sir, " Lucas said in a low voice, "the evidence is solid. If they were to report it to the police, Luna would be arrested and be judged for it. This incident would not be settled in a day. Don't forget, because of Luna's injury previously, also the Allen family incident, the project this time has been delayed by a lot. If she was locked up in the police station for another few days, our project would be done."

Joshua raised his eyebrows. He swept Lucas a glance. "Do you think I care?"

Feeling his rage, Lucas said in a suppressed tone. "I know that you don't care, but this project is the focus of the company..."

"If you want to punish Luna, there are a lot of other ways. There is no need to..." Lucas' suppressed tone inexplicably annoyed Joshua.

Joshua coldly swept Lucas a glance. "Go and handle it, then."

Lucas was relieved. He turned around and left.

"Also. " Joshua returned to his chair. He raised his hand and rubbed the middle of his brows. "The staff in our company have been gossiping a lot about other people's private lives recently. Get each of the department's heads to deal with it. I do not want to hear any more incidents of conflict arising due to rumors."

Lucas straightened his back. "Yes."

When he left the office, Lucas let out a long sigh.

Although on the surface, Joshua wanted to teach Luna a lesson, secretly, he was still protecting Luna.

After all, in the entire office at that moment, the person whose private life has been most heavily discussed is Luna.

"Director, way to go."

In the design department, Samson took his phone and played the video for Luna while looking at her praisingly.

"Didn't you say that adults would not slam the table and fight? So adults should just directly splash water?"

Luna coldly swept him a glance. She snatched over his phone and directly locked it into her drawer.

"Go and work."

Samson pursed his lips. "Can't I praise you?"

Luna glanced at him coldly. "Do you want your phone to stay here till tomorrow too?"

Samson was helpless. He could only turn around, return to his seat, and start sketching.

"Luna, come out! "

"Luna! "

At that moment, sounds of angry women rang out from outside the door.

Luna helplessly rubbed the middle of her brows. She knew that this matter, like Irene's incident, would not end just like that.

The people that fabricated false rumors about her were heartless, one more after the other.

Once they were targeted, they pretended to be innocent and pitiful, it was annoying to see them. The sounds outside continued.

There was a commotion in the entire design department, Luna could not even pretend that she did not hear it.

Luna took a deep breath and strode out. She crossed her hands around her chest and stood by the door, looking at the aggressive group of women. "What? Do you want me to repeat the incident in the pantry once more?"

The leader of the women sneered, "We know that you have huge power supporting you, we cannot offend you, but Luna, you hurt us badly, shouldn't you apologize and pay for our medical fees? We don't want to blow this incident up. Getting the police to arrest you is also a loss for the company. "

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 606 By eBooksCat

"But we cannot just let this matter go like that."

Luna crossed her arms around her chest. "Is that so?"

She graciously smiled and took a recording device out from her pocket. "Too bad, when you slandered me, I recorded everything you said. I welcome you to sue me. By then, I will make sure you get your just desserts."

That woman's face turned pale. She furrowed her brows. "Yes, we shouldn't have gossiped behind your back, but it was only this time. It is..."

"Only this time?"

Behind Luna, Samson, Zayne, and Arianna pushed open the door. The three assistants stood behind Luna and took out their respective recording devices from their pockets.

"Ever since you all started spreading rumors about Director Luna, Samson suggested that we take our recording devices everywhere we go to gather evidence."

Arianna smiled and looked at the group of women. " You guys definitely bad-mouthed Director Luna more than once. I have recorded three times here."

Samson smiled. "I have it twice."

Zayne, who usually did not talk much, lowered his head and fiddled around with the recording device. " I have recorded... eight times."

The group of women was stunned as if they were struck by lightning. Their expressions were extremely ugly.

For the past few days, Luna has been the main discussion topic of the office. On top of that, Luna was way too gorgeous and exceptional, so no matter where they were, as long as they got the chance, they would gossip about Luna.

However...

They would never expect that Luna and her three assistants would have recording devices on them to record everything down!

Luna turned back and looked at her three assistants in surprise. "You guys..."

"Director Luna." Arianna smiled and looked at her. "

You have always treated us well. We don't like it when they try to spread false rumors about you."

Luna was rather moved.

She turned around and condescendingly swept a glance at the group of women who came there looking for justice.

"Between the four of us, we have a total of fourteen recordings. It's enough to prove that this is not the first time you talk about me, right?"

The surrounding people started discussing among themselves in hushed tones.

"They were the ones who were in the wrong in the first place, how dare they come here to seek justice."

"They truly have nothing else better to do. What does other people's personal affairs have to do with them?"

"They are being a blabbermouth. They deserved to be splashed! If it was me, I would have done the same! "

The group of women remained in the same spot, their expressions fluctuating.

She thought they could go there and forced Luna to compensate and apologize.

They did not expect... that Luna would be so shady!

When Lucas reached the design department, he saw how the group of women who came to cause trouble was rendered speechless.

He furrowed his brows and walked over. "What are you still standing there for? Leave! Doing things like this during working hours, do you not want your jobs anymore?"

Once Lucas said that the group of women finally left with dejected expressions.

Once they left, Lucas raised a thumbs up at Luna.

"Who knew that you would protect yourself. Mr. Lynch thought that you might not be able to solve it, so he got me to help you..."

Luna furrowed her brows. "Joshua got you to come and help me?"

Lucas nodded.

She harrumphed coldly. "Please tell Mr. Lynch, since he decided not to care about me, he should do it more thoroughly."

He was the one that made such a harsh statement about how he was not going to care about her in the future.

What was the point in getting Lucas to come and help her then?

Lucas wiped the sweat off his forehead. "Luna, were you guys arguing again?"

Luna rolled her eyes at him. "What right do I have to argue with Mr. Lynch?"

In the office, Samson secretly opened the drawer and took his phone back while Luna was still outside.

Once he turned on his phone, a news notification instantly appeared.

(Girl Who Jumped Off Building, Irene Cook, Out of Danger. Press Conference Tomorrow to Reveal the True Colors of the Designer.)

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 607

By eBooksCat

"Did she really say that?"

Joshua fiercely narrowed his eyes upon hearing what Lucas said in the president's office.

This woman has gotten audacious and unappreciative.

How dare she flare her temper at him?

He only previously said that he did not care what Hailey did to her, yet Luna told Lucas to tell him that other than her work, she did not want him interfering!

Joshua harrumphed coldly, "I won't bother her then."

Irene was going to hold a press conference tomorrow. He did not believe that without his help, Luna would be able to deal with this matter properly.

In the evening, once Luna exited the main entrance of the office, she was surrounded by a group of reporters.

"Ms. Luna, did you know about Irene Cook jumping off a building?"

"You made a young person in her prime jump off a building, do you feel guilty?"

"Irene is going to hold a press conference tomorrow, will you be there?"

"Could you give a statement regarding Irene's incident?"

Facing the reporter's questions, Luna was calm. "I will be there tomorrow for the press conference.

Irene said she wanted to reveal the designer's true colors, I would like to know as well, what my true colors are."

Then, a black BMW stopped in front of Lynch Tower's entrance.

Luna gracefully waved to the reporters and got in the car.

In the car, Theo calmly looked at her. "I've already said I could pick you up from the back door, why did you have to let them see you here?"

Luna smiled and put on her seatbelt. "I did it on purpose. How could I make them more arrogant if I did not declare war on them?"

Theo chuckled. "You're truly an enigma." Then, he drove toward Swan Lake Residences.

When she got out of the car, Theo passed a box to her. "My parents have already taken this morning's flight and left Banyan City. My mother got me to pass this to you. She said you might find it useful."

Luna furrowed her brows and accepted it. She thanked him and went upstairs.

Once she reached home, she placed the box down and took off her jacket, while talking to the necklace on her neck.

"I'm going to have a tough battle to fight tomorrow."

"I've already sent the things that you need for tomorrow to your email," Nigel, on the other end of the line, calmly replied, "I have faith in you."

"Us too," Neil also chuckled and said.

"But, Mommy," Neil sighed and said, "I still think that you should not be rash. Don't expose Alice's identity. She still has something on us. We still haven't found a cure for Nigel's sickness. If that scumbag Joshua finds out about your identity, all our hard work in the past will be for nothing."

"It's fine." Nigel's voice was mature and sophisticated. "I actually... don't care too much whether I can continue living or not. If the price for me living is too hard for all of you, I would rather... "

"Nigel."

Before Nigel could finish his sentence, Luna forcefully interrupted him.

"I have worked so hard because I hope that you live. Since you know that we have been sacrificing so much for you, don't say such things in the future."

Then, Luna closed her eyes and exhaled a long breath. She erased the plan of revealing Alice's identity on the paper.

No matter how much she loathed Alice or how much she wanted to expose her, Luna still had to continue holding on for Nigel's sake.

At least, until she truly got pregnant with Joshua's child.

Luna held onto her necklace and chatted with her children for a little while longer before exhaustedly retiring to bed.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 608

By eBooksCat

That night, she had a realistic dream.

She dreamed that Alice had fallen down from Bay Bridge, the place where she fell from.

Before falling into the ocean, Alice glared at Luna fiercely.

"If you don't let me live, you and your children can stop dreaming of living! "

Then, Alice directly pressed the button on the remote control in her hand.

On the bridge, the three children that were running toward Luna were instantly blown to pieces.

"No! "

Luna woke up from the dream in a cold sweat.

The startled woman took a deep breath. She got down from the bed, went to the kitchen to pour herself a cup of water, and went to the balcony.

She initially wanted to calm herself down in the cold night breeze, but she was surprised to see a familiar black Maseratee downstairs.

It was Joshua.

She subconsciously looked at the time. It was almost 2 a.m.

What was he doing here at that moment?

The confused Luna habitually picked up her phone and searched for Joshua's number.

Just when she was about to call him, she stopped. The unhappy scene she had with Joshua that day appeared on her mind. She even got Lucas to pass on the message to him that besides work, she would not have anything to do with Joshua.

However, at that moment...

Luna hesitated for a moment before looking for Lucas' contact. She called him.

Soon, Lucas picked up. "Did we wake you up?"

Luna furrowed her brows. "I woke up from a nightmare. I saw Joshua downstairs, he..."

"Someone was trying to kill you," Lucas said in a suppressed tone, "we only just managed to deal with him."

Luna paused a little. She found it rather hard to believe. "You said that someone was trying to kill me?"

"Yes." Lucas' voice was rather hoarse. "You know this person too."

"Who was it?"

"Jason Lane."

Luna gasped. She knew that Jason was a person without any morals. However, she did not expect that he would intrude into her place and tried to kill her that night when she just threatened him the day before!

This man was much more terrifying than she imagined!

"Yesterday night, when you got Mr. Lynch to send men to take Bonnie back to the mental asylum, he also got them to investigate Jason and Bonnie. He found out that Jason has been always using Bonnie. The move you did yesterday blocked him in his path.

"Jason has always been a vicious murderer. Mr. Lynch was afraid that something might happen to you, so he got men to secretly protect you near your house. Who knew that Jason would take action tonight."

Luna pursed her lips. Waves of shock and bewilderment washed over her.

She completely did not expect it.

Not only did she not expect Jason to take action so quickly, but she also did not expect...

Even when she had an unhappy encounter with Joshua during the day, he would still send men near her house to protect her in the middle of the night.

Luna took a deep breath and invited Lucas sincerely. "Do you and Joshua want to... come up? I '11 make you all some supper."

Lucas laughed, "You don't have to thank me, I'm only doing what I'm instructed to do. If you want to thank someone, thank Mr. Lynch. He has been keeping watch here since after work. If Mr.

Lynch hadn't been so smart, we would have never apprehended Jason immediately."

Luna paused for a while. "Then, c-can you... help me invite Joshua, get him to..."

"What?"

Before Luna could finish her sentence, a cold man's voice interrupted her on the other end of the line. "You even need someone to help you express your appreciation?"

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 609 By eBooksCat

Luna was silent for a while.

"In that case, Mr. Lynch, are you willing to come up for a cup of tea?"

Joshua's voice was low and cold. "Forget about it. You've already asked me not to meddle in your affairs. I came over to help you tonight, only because Lucas has sent his men to follow Jason for the entire day. We're finishing it off. From this moment on, other than work, I won't meddle in your affairs anymore."

Then, Joshua hung up the call.

Luna stood by the balcony, looking at the black Maserateo starting its engine and leaving.

In the end, it was only a black dot in Luna's eyes.

Luna gasped. She did not know what he was being angry about. She had an impulsive moment that afternoon telling him how Alice was Hailey.

However, not only did Joshua refuse to believe her, but he even said that if she were to continue keeping secrets for Hailey, he would not care for her in the future.

That afternoon, she was pissed off, so she told Lucas that other than work, she did not need him to meddle in her affairs.

Turns out, Joshua held his grudges strongly.

Looking at the car leaving, Luna chuckled bitterly.

Joshua has done so many terrible things to her, yet she could still bear it and live with him peacefully.

Joshua, on the other hand, just because she angrily talked back to him, held his grudge. He has already helped her apprehend Jason, yet he still gave her the cold shoulder.

Luna stood on the balcony for a long time.

It was until the night turned cold when she clutched her clothes tighter, turned around, and returned to her room.

A message from Lucas popped up on her phone. It was a message with a photo of Jason being tied up in both hands.

(Mr. Lynch said to let him take over Bonnie's place in the mental asylum.)

Luna pursed her lips and transferred a hundred bucks to Lucas.

(Buy him a cup of coffee on my behalf.)

She was not willing to owe Joshua anything. On the road in the distance from Swan Lake Residences.

Lucas passed the phone to Joshua.

Joshua coldly swept a glance and laughed, "Because of her, I used five or six secret agents, yet in her eyes, it is only worth a cup of coffee?"

Then, Joshua looked at a beverage shop by the road. "

Go."

Lucas was lost. "Go where?"

"Get coffee."

Lucas paused for a while, before immediately getting down from the car to buy coffee.

10 minutes later, Lucas passed the coffee to Joshua. He sat in the driver's seat while looking at the news on his phone.

"Everyone is discussing Irene's press conference tomorrow. They are pretty angry at this incident. There are even companies that sponsored Irene, hoping that she could get back on her feet. Would Luna be fine attending the press conference under such circumstances?"

Joshua took his coffee and gently took a sip. "I've said it. I won't meddle in her affairs anymore, but..."

Joshua smiled. "The coffee is not bad."

The next morning, before Luna woke up, Anne's call came.

"I just saw what you said in the interview yesterday! Luna, are you nuts? You cannot go to the press conference! Everyone knows about Irene's incident. I joined a group that was supporting Irene. Everyone was talking about preparing rotten eggs and vegetables. Don't go!"

Luna was still groggy. Upon Anne's words, she could not help but yawn. "I'll be fine."

"What could you have arranged for? You really cannot be rash at this matter! I thought Joshua would at least care about you. I just called him actually. Turns out, he only said that other than work, the other matters had nothing to do with him, then he hung up! I was so pissed. I wanted to ask him. If you're not in a good mood, how could you produce good work for him?"

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 610 By eBooksCat

Luna laughed helplessly, "I get it, Anne. I know you're worried about me. I have made my arrangements."

After simply comforting Anne, Luna yawned and hung up.

While brushing her teeth, she turned on her phone and roughly browsed through the news that day.

The Walter family media company has been putting all their money's worth into hyping Irene's news.

Almost all of the headlines in Banyan City had been taken up by Luna and Irene's conflict.

Alice was clearly planning to ruin Luna's reputation completely.

Luna smiled coldly and called Theo.

10 a.m.

In one of the sports arenas in downtown Banyan City, it was extremely lively.

A banner was placed in the most prominent place. It wrote, (Seek Justice for Irene Cook, Fight Against Evil..)

There was a crowded group of reporters.

Every one of them had their heads lowered. They were busy dealing with the questions they were about to ask.

In the corner, Luna, in a face mask and a cap sat together with Theo, who was equally dressed up. They pretended to deal with the notes in their hands. Their actions were too professional. On top of that, they both have press cards, so no one suspected them.

On the stage, the emcee was narrating the incidents that Irene has suffered through the past few days.

Below the stage, besides the reporters, many supporters of Irene came with banners, as well as other passionate onlookers.

"Okay, since everyone is caught up to speed, let's welcome today's main guest. A new generation of an inspirational lady, Irene Cook! "

Irene, who was in a wheelchair, was pushed up the stage by a volunteer.

At that moment, Irene's face did not have any color. There were still purple bruises on her face.

She looked feeble and was pushed to the microphone.

"Hello, everybody. I'm glad that you can attend my press conference. Although I don't look too bad, I'm not a celebrity nor a social media influencer. The only reason why I wanted to hold this press conference is to bring justice to a woman who has been using her connections and power to suppress others evilly."

Theo gritted his teeth. "This woman sure is shameless enough! "

Luna laughed a little. She patted his arm to get Theo to calm down.

Soon, the reporters started asking questions.

"Ms. Cook, can you tell us in detail the events that took place that night?"

Irene wiped her face and started complaining tearfully, "That night was the first day a colleague and I started working. Luna initially did not bother with us, but one of our colleagues got her to buy us a meal, so she forcefully agreed to it.

"Halfway during the meal, she said she wanted to go to the toilet, but she did not come back after a long while, so I went over to look for her. Turns out, I heard her arguing with another person. That person said that she had been with a lot of men..."

Then, Irene could not help but sob, "I initially did not believe it, but at that time, Luna was very fierce. She told that person that if they were to continue talking, she would beat them dead. When I overheard that, I was scared half to death because I always thought that Luna was a very gentle and kind woman.

"I accidentally made some noises and Luna noticed me. Then, she choked me by the neck and told me that I was fired. She said that if I were to tell anybody of that night's incident, she would take my life..."

Upon Irene's words, the reporters gasped.

The crowd was in a heated discussion. Who knew that Luna, who was so gorgeous and capable, would be so arrogant!

Irene, on stage, continued with a teary eye. "She is powerful and influential, I could only surrender, so I only complained a little in the staff's group. I never thought that she would send men to beat me up that night. They even forced me to eat the trash from the bin..."

"I truly could not take such humiliation, so I reported it to the police. Who knew that even when the police knew that the men were sent over by Luna, they still said that they did not have enough evidence, so they could not do anything to her. Luna became even more arrogant then.

"I knew I was no match for her, so the next day, I went to her office to kneel and apologize to her, but she still would not let me go. She said she wanted to get rid of me. I had no choice, that was why I chose to jump off the building..."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 611 By eBooksCat

"I hope all of you could help me seek justice on my behalf. Since my suicide was not successful, I am fortunate. I should continue living my life, but I believe that since things have progressed to this state, Luna would not let me go. I don't have enough evidence to send her to prison. That was why I could only come up with this solution. I hope everyone will hold her to high moral standards, so she won't be able to target me in the future."

Irene said with such sadness, some reporters wept. The audience was sad for her.

The reporters were angrily discussing among themselves in hushed tones.

"What a poor little girl. Who the hell is this Luna?"

"Apparently, she is the mistress Joshua Lynch is keeping in his office."

"Not only that, she even has a famous artist as her boyfriend. Such amazing tactics..."

The comments were harsh and ugly. One more than the other.

Luna, who was in the eye of the storm being heavily discussed, lowered her head and doodled on her paper in boredom.

"Luna?" Seeing how Luna was distracted, Theo furrowed his brows and reminded her in a low voice. "It's almost your turn."

Luna came to her senses. She realized that it was already number seven, according to the order in which the reporters asked their questions.

Luna was number eight.

Luna took a deep breath and tidied her notes. When reporter number seven sat down, she calmly stood up.

"Ms. Cook, since Luna is so powerful and influential, aren't you afraid that she might seek revenge after this press conference?"

Irene furrowed her brows. "I believe that the righteous would win over the evil. I have a huge fan base. So many kind-hearted people are standing behind me, I would not be afraid of a person like Luna."

"In that case, Ms. Cook, after this, what plans do you have? Are you still planning to be a Designer Assistant?"

Irene smiled. "I have not considered this." "No, you have already thought about it."

Luna sneered and gave Theo a look. Theo instantly aimed the projector at the huge screen.

Luna took the remote control and opened up photo by photo. "Ms. Cook, since you have already signed a deal with a media company, I'm guessing that you are planning to become a social media influencer or a celebrity, right?"

Upon her words, the entire crowd was in an uproar. Irene could sign with a media company in such a short time?

"Yes, everyone guessed it correctly. This incident from beginning to the end is just a hype."

Luna smiled gracefully, her eyes were cold. "The evidence is all on the screen. The first photo is Ms. Cook negotiating with people from the media company.

"This photo is of them signing the deal.

"This is of them coming up with the incident of jumping off the building.

"The last photo is the contents of their contract. It has specifically stated that the first thing after signing the deal is jumping off the building. Using suicide to attract society's attention, earning from the hype. What a despicable tactic."

Irene's face was instantly pale!

Sitting on the wheelchair, she gripped her sides of the wheelchair tightly and glared at the female reporter, who was in a cap and a face mask, angrily.

Who was she? How did she know about this? Where did she get these photos from?

The more Irene looked, the more familiar she thought the pair of eyes were!

Looking at Irene glaring at her, Luna calmly smiled and took off her cap and mask. She looked at Irene coldly.

"I said that I would come here today."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 612 By eBooksCat

At those words, everyone turned to look at Luna.

Then only did they notice that the female reporter was Luna herself!

"These photos are faked, they're made up! Luna was also the one who faked the contract! "

Irene gritted her teeth and glared at Luna fiercely. "I never thought that at this moment, you still refuse to change. You even want to use such horrible tactics to defame me! "

Then, Irene bit her lips. Her tears could not help but fall from the corner of her eyes. "Luna, I know that you're powerful."

Irene wiped her tears. "For a person like you, faking this would be a piece of cake. You said that I'm hyping it up, but who would risk their life to make news? At that time, I truly did not want to live anymore, if not I wouldn't have jumped off the building. I even broke both of my legs. It's not like you can't see it..."

Luna raised her eyebrows. "Ms. Cook, did you really break both legs?"

Luna's questioning gaze and tone weakened Irene's aura a little.

The woman behind Irene gently tapped on her shoulders. Irene seemed to be instantly encouraged. She lifted her head up. "Luna, what do you mean by that? I jumped down from such a high place... how could it be fake?"

Luna smiled. "What if it's fake?"

Irene bit her lips. She could not hold back her anger. "I have been humiliated and bullied by the people you sent. I was in so much despair I even jumped off a building and broke both my legs! Yet you are still here casually questioning me if I'm faking it!"

"Whether you are faking it or not, everyone will know it soon."

Then, Luna directly took her phone out and dialed a number. "Old Mr. Gordon, please come in."

The moment she hung up, the door of the press conference venue was pushed open by someone.

An old man with a head of grey hair slowly entered with the help of Theo's assistant.

Someone among the reporters exclaimed, "It's Old Mr. Gordon! "

"The world's best orthopedic doctor! " "My goodness, a doctor like him has strict conditions on patients seeing him, how is he here in Banyan City?"

Luna chuckled. She strode over and helped Old Mr. Gordon over together with Theo's assistant.

"Coincidentally, my boyfriend, Theo Allen, his father is good friends with Old Mr. Gordon, despite their age differences. Once he heard that Ms. Cook broke both her legs because of me, my boyfriend specifically got Old Mr. Gordon over to help diagnose Ms. Cook, hoping to revive your both legs."

Irene's face was instantly paler than the wall behind her.

She bit her lips and curled up into the wheelchair. "No, I don't need it! Stop using such tactics to please me!"

"Do you not want me to please you or do you just don't dare to let Old Mr. Gordon check up on you?"

Luna smiled and looked at her. Her eyes were smiling too. "Ms. Cook, don't forget, you have a million fans supporting you. What if Old Mr. Gordon could cure your legs?"

Irene gritted her teeth. She suddenly did not know how to react.

The lady behind Irene, who helped push her wheelchair, furrowed her brows tightly.

Their plan was initially flawless. They even predicted that Luna might find an orthopedic doctor over, so they bribed all the orthopedic doctors in Banyan City.

However, they did not expect that Luna might get the best orthopedic doctor, Old Mr. Gordon, over.

The lady bit her lips and let go of the wheelchair. She wanted to sneak off among the chaos.

Luna reacted quickly. She immediately blocked her and grabbed her wrist.

"Ms. Yvonne Walter, long time no see."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 613 By eBooksCat

Actually, ever since the beginning when they entered, Luna had already noticed the lady that accompanied Irene.

Although she was wearing a face mask, her eyes were unique.

Her eyes were narrow and long, with the end of her eyes going upward. In between her brows and eyes, there was also a rather large mole.

Luna would remember such eyes after seeing them once. When they were at a closer distance, she was even more sure that this woman in a mask was Yvonne Walter, the person that was beaten up badly by Joshua's men a month ago because she kidnapped Neil and Nellie!

The daughter of Mr. Walter, the butler.

It looked like Mr. Walter's men had been almost nabbed up by Joshua and Theo recently.

Even an unimportant duty like pushing a wheelchair for unimportant people like Irene, Yvonne had to do it personally.

Being blocked by Luna, Yvonne furrowed her brows. "Move aside."

"What if I don't?"

Luna smiled, raised her hand, and pulled off Yvonne's mask.

Yvonne's panicked face had been captured by the reporters, the image was broadcast live onto the screen. "Idiot! "

In Blue Bay Villa, Alice, who had been paying attention to the live broadcast of the press conference angrily threw her cup!

Yvonne Walter, that idiot!

She had such obvious facial characteristics, did she think that Luna would not recognize her just because she wore a mask?

Did Mr. Walter not have more men in Banyan City? Why did Yvonne need to be there to embarrass everyone?

At that thought, Alice angrily picked up her phone. " Mr. Walter, what is going on? Why is Yvonne at the press conference? Where are your other men? Are they all dead?"

On the other end of the line, Mr. Walter sighed, "Ms. Hailey, all of my men in Banyan City... have been secretly nabbed by Theo's men."

"What?" Alice was so furious she stood up. "Theo's men got rid of your men?"

Theo was just an artist, how did he have so much power?

"Yes, I was shocked too, but it's the truth."

Mr. Walter, on the other end of the line, sighed, "I have recently been targeted too. I'm being followed. I suspect that they are Theo's men too."

"Ms. Hailey, Yvonne has been exposed. Joshua would soon connect this incident to you. You better... think of a plan quickly."

Then, Mr. Walter hung up before Alice could respond. Alice held onto the phone. Her mind was in a mess. How could this...

After the Walter family went down, her father has even passed the remaining secret forces of power to Mr. Walter the butler.

How could they be so quickly...

Alice was in a daze for a long while before she raised her head and looked at the TV screen.

The live broadcast was still going on.

Irene clearly could not stop Luna's advances. Old Mr. Gordon is already checking up on both her legs.

Irene's face turned to ash.

In front of the reporters' cameras, Old Mr. Gordon's assistant slowly broke off the cast on Irene's leg.

“What nonsense! ” After taking off the cast, Old Mr. Gordon did not even touch Irene when he sneered and said, “I have been an orthopedic doctor for so many years. Not once have I seen a case like this when both legs have been broken! Perhaps, she might have been injured when she jumped off the building, but it’s not serious! ”

Then, Old Mr. Gordon took the small hammer that was used to break off the cast and gently knocked against Irene’s leg. “Miss, does it hurt?”

Irene was in pain. She was in so much pain she almost cried, but to continue the act, she could only force her tears down. “It does not hurt.”

“How could it not hurt?” Old Mr. Gordon sneered, “ Whether you broke your leg or not, the place that I hit should hurt. Stop pretending.”

The crowd was in an uproar.

Old Mr. Gordon was a world -renowned orthopedic specialist. At such an old age, he would not ruin his own reputation for such things!

Even if Theo and Luna were rich, they would not be able to get such a respectable man to lie!

Therefore... Irene’s legs were not broken?

The emcee had an ugly expression. “Ms. Cook, what is going on?”

“Yes, what is going on?”

“Ms. Cook, are you truly trying to hype this up, fooling everyone for sympathy?”

“Please answer us!”

Irene’s face has lost all of its colors.

Irene secretly clenched her fists.

The entertainment company initially promised her that after the press conference, they would start preparing a live show for her. They would also send her for small cosmetic procedures and get her advertisements.

She could have a bright future!

All thanks to Luna, she lost everything... No! This could not happen!

Irene gritted her teeth hard. She was a poor student coming from the countryside. It took so hard for her to finally have the opportunity to climb up the social ladder. She would not give up! She could almost feel it, there was only a step left!

Irene glared at Luna grudgingly. There was loathing in her eyes.

In a short moment, she cried again.

“Yes, that’s right.” Irene wiped her tears and said while crying. “Both my legs are not broken, but... I didn’t mean to lie to all of you! ”

The entire venue was in silence.

The reporters aimed their microphones at Irene, waiting for her to speak.

Irene wiped her tears. She could not help but sob, "I was really forced into desperation by Luna, that was why I chose to jump off the building. I truly wanted to die, but I was rescued in the end. Not only did I not die, but my legs were not broken as well.

"I deliberately pretended that my legs were broken so that I could attract all your attention on one hand, getting all of you to help me.

"On the other hand..." Irene sobbed and looked at Luna. "I'm afraid that if Luna knew that my injuries were not that serious, she would use a more cruel tactic against me..."

She said with all her heart as if she was truly afraid that Luna might target her once more.

Behind Irene, Luna got Theo to hold onto Yvonne while laughing a little.

"Irene, are you still pretending? I bet you don't know, the company that you signed on with had closed down ten minutes ago."

Irene turned around and glared at Luna in shock. "Impossible! How could this happen! "

Luna laughed gently and opened a news article, projecting it on the huge screen.

It was the news on the closure of the company that Irene signed on with.

The real person controlling the company in the background was Mr. Walter the butler.

On the surface, the company was a media entertainment company, but secretly, they have done a lot of unseemly things.

The night before, Nigel spent the entire night hacking into their system and sent all the evidence of the crimes they committed to the police.

Luna and Nigel have strictly calculated the time from reporting them to the appearance on the news.

It had to happen just when Irene was holding the press conference.

Irene looked at the news. She was in total bafflement.

H-How... could this have happened? The people from the company even described to her a perfect blue plan for her future.

How could this be...

"Wake up." Theo looked at Irene coldly. "Do you think they really wanted to give you a life that you wanted? Do you think you have any commercial value? It's only because you were stupid and crazy enough to have a feud with Luna, so they deliberately used you to target Luna, that's all! "

Irene immediately slumped to the ground from her wheelchair. Her world seemed to have collapsed on her in that instant.

"T—This... is... i—impossible. Impossible..." "Irene." Luna walked over and said flatly, "We're live now. Have you ever thought that you would not be able to survive in Banyan City in the future because of this incident?"

Irene bit her lips. She was trembling terribly.

"I..."

"There is a chance to redeem yourself." Luna chuckled. She moved aside and pointed to Yvonne, who was being apprehended by someone behind her.

Luna said, "As long as you tell me, what relationship do you have with her? That's all."

Irene bit her lips. She raised her head and looked at Yvonne.

"Me and her... actually, everything I said and did today was taught by her!"

Then, Irene took out her phone from her pocket.

"I was afraid that she would not keep her word, so I secretly took a video! "

Luna took Irene's phone over, opened the video, and projected it onto the huge screen.

"How could this be planned by Yvonne Walter?" In the president's office at Lynch Group Tower,

Lucas was stunned looking at the live broadcast on the computer screen.

"Sir, Yvonne Walter, if I remembered correctly, is Mrs. Lynch's good friend, right?"

Joshua leaned back on his chair and looked at the screen. He narrowed his eyes a little.

"As long as you cooperate with us, you will have an extremely bright and limitless future."

At the press conference, on the huge screen, Yvonne's fierce expression and tone rang through.

"You have to be firm that you are being targeted by Luna."

Irene, who was sitting opposite her, said timidly, " But, the police have already confirmed that this incident had been planned by someone from Sea City. It had nothing to do with Luna..."

Yvonne rolled her eyes at her. "Someone from Sea City? Could you find that person? Would a random person from Sea City create more news or Luna, the talk of the town? Go and jump off a building tomorrow. Then, you say that you were being forced to jump off the building because of Luna! "

Irene bit her lips. "M-Must... I jump off a building?

I'm scared..."

Yvonne sneered, "If you're scared, how do you expect to live a high social status life? Are there such things as low risks that yield high rewards in life?"

Irene slowly clasped her hands together. She bit her lips and looked at Yvonne.

"But..."

"No more buts. Tomorrow, go find a lower level. Maybe the third floor. The second floor would be too obvious. Put some protective gear on you, then get a few witnesses to film you and you're almost done." "O-Okay...then."

The video has finished playing on the huge screen. The entire venue was in an uproar.

Before the press conference that day, no one expected that the results of the press conference would be so sensational.

Everyone was so sure that after the press conference that day, it would be the downfall of Luna the talented designer.

After all, no matter how capable one was, if they were vicious and heartless, they would not be able to go far.

However, no one expected that such a piece of sensational news was just a well-planned false accusation against Luna.

The reporters were uninterested in the story anymore. They asked Luna some simple questions before leaving in a hurry.

Theo got someone to send Old Mr. Gordon back to the hotel.

Although Irene did not really break her leg, she was still an injured patient, also, at that moment, she was utterly dejected. She knew that she could no longer survive in Banyan City anymore.

A person like Irene was like Celeste. They were just tools to be used by Alice and Yvonne.

Since the truth had been exposed, Irene no longer had any use and would be abandoned.

Luna did not bother to make such a person stay. She got her staff to send Irene back to the hospital.

Not long after, it was only Luna, Theo, and Theo's assistant, who was holding onto Yvonne, left in the venue.

"Luna, I have never seen this before. You have pretty great tactics too."

Yvonne clearly saw Luna only sitting in her office sketching every day, she did not look like she had a counter plan at all.

Who would have thought that...

Since the beginning of the press conference, she attacked one move after the other.

Not only did she expose Irene for her lies, but she also exposed Yvonne to the public!

"What? Only you guys get to secretly plot against me? I `m not allowed to secretly do things to protect myself?"

Since Irene jumped off the building and announced that she was going to hold a press conference, Luna could already guess what they were going to do during the press conference.

Thus, she got Nigel and Theo's help to come up with a plan.

It was also because she was busy coming up with a counter-attack, she completely forgot to defend herself against Jason. That was why she was almost attacked by Jason the night before.

At the thought of Jason, she could not help but think of Joshua from the night before.

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 616

By eBooksCat

Although he already threatened her that he would not care about her affairs anymore, even so, he should have paid attention to it right?

A moment ago, she deliberately got Irene to point Yvonne out in the live broadcast.

"Yvonne and Alice have such a good relationship with each other. Luna believed that if Joshua had seen the live broadcast that day, he should have an answer in his heart, right?"

"Ms. Luna, what should we do with this woman?" Theo's assistant, who had Yvonne apprehended, asked gently.

Luna furrowed her brows and passed a USB stick to the assistant.

"She is one of the people controlling the media company that had closed down a moment ago. The police are still looking for her. Send her to the police station. Perhaps, there might even be a bounty reward."

The assistant's eyes instantly sparkled and quickly brought Yvonne along and left.

Once they left, there was only Theo and Luna left in the huge venue.

Theo changed into a more comfortable position and leaned back on the chair in the front row. He exhaled a long breath.

"I guess this matter has been resolved successfully."

Thanks to the mysterious person on the internet.”

Luna was scrolling through the news while sitting down opposite Theo. “What mysterious person?”

Theo paused for a while.

“I haven’t told you about this yet. The only reason why I could so successfully nab the men of the Walter family in Banyan City and so quickly find Mr. Walter’s base in Sea City is all thanks to the help of a mysterious person.

“He suddenly contacted me yesterday afternoon. He said that he knew I was targeting the Walter family. He also has a feud going on with them, so he was willing to help me get rid of their men.”

Then, Theo could not help but lean back on the chair and said emotionally, “I asked him out for dinner tonight, to properly thank him. The righteous always will get help from others. Who would have thought that the Walter family would have rivals in Banyan City too.”

Upon hearing Theo’s words, Luna furrowed her brows hard.

Although the Walter family was arrogant, the reason they could do that in Sea City was because of the previous largest gang leader in Sea City, Liam Clark. He listens to the Walter family.

However, Banyan City was not under Liam’s territory, so the Walter family’s power did not reach Banyan City.

They do not even have any business there. How did they have any enemies?

If Luna had to place it on someone, the only person in Banyan City who has a grudge with the Walter family would be...

Only Joshua, right?

At that thought, Luna raised her head and looked at Theo. "You said that you asked this mysterious person out for dinner?"

Theo nodded. "Take me along."

Luna wanted to know, in Banyan City, other than Joshua, who would pay so much attention to the Walter family too.

Blue Bay Villa.

Alice smiled and placed a cup of hot tea on the coffee table. "Joshua, haven't you been busy with work recently? Why did you come back at this hour?"

Joshua sat on the sofa, his expressions were ice-cold. He looked at Alice frigidly. "Since when did Yvonne come to Banyan City?"

Alice looked surprised.

"Yvonne is here in Banyan City? Hasn't she always been in Sea City recuperating?"

Joshua sneered and played the video on his phone.

The video was a replay of the press conference a moment ago. The scene was right when Luna tore off Yvonne's mask and how panicked Yvonne looked.

Alice's eyes widened. Her eyes were filled with shock.

"Why would Yvonne be here? Since when has she been in Banyan City, I don't even know about this!" Joshua leaned back and crossed his arms around his chest. He glared at Alice coldly. "Are you sure you still want to continue pretending in front of me?"

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 617

By eBooksCat

Alice's body instantly stiffened.

She bit her lips, turned around, and sat next to Joshua. She held his arm. "Joshua, what are you talking about? I don't understand."

"You don't understand?" Joshua smiled. He directly took out an old-looking handphone from his pocket and slammed it in front of Alice.

"Now, do you understand?"

Alice pursed her lips. She turned to have a look, her face was instantly pale.

The handphone...

Was the same one which she threw into the lake previously.

However...

Joshua saw her throwing the phone into the lake that day. She was worried that Joshua might overthink it and fished the phone up. That night, in the middle of the night, she got people to fish it up first.

She clearly remembered that she had already gotten her men to fish the phone up. Later on, she melted the phone with acid before throwing it at a trash bin outside.

How could that...

Alice's mind spun crazily quickly. She laughed. "Joshua, this phone is exactly the same as the one I threw the other day. Did you buy a new one for me, seeing that I threw the other one away?"

Then, she buried her head in his arms and rubbed against him. "How thoughtful of you, Joshua."

"Of course, I'm considerate." Joshua sneered, "I got Lucas to find the exact same phone, fished it out, and threw it back in the lake."

Upon Joshua's words, Alice's face has lost all of its colors.

She felt her blood freeze.

Joshua calmly pried her hands off him. He picked the phone and switched it on.

"It took quite some time to fix this."

Then, the phone was switched on with a sound.

The chat records on the phone were recovered. The one who contacted Irene with the number of an 'Alice '. In the chat between them, she abetted Irene, and instructed her how to get to where the Walter family was...

Each chat was tapped open by Joshua in front of Alice.

The color on Alice's face lost bit by bit with Joshua's every tap.

After a long while, when Joshua had finally shown all the chat records, Alice was almost completely slumped on the sofa.

How could this have happened... Her plan was flawless... how...

"Alice."

Joshua placed the phone down and looked at her coldly. "Do you think that your schemes and actions will go unnoticed?"

Alice gripped the armrest of the sofa tightly. She said nothing.

"I treated you as the person closest to me, yet you treat me like a fool."

Joshua narrowed his eyes. His voice was as frigid as his gaze.

"We have been husband and wife for many years. You still understand me very well. You know the woman I hate the most is Hailey Walter."

Alice gripped the sofa with both hands so tightly her knuckles turned white.

She bit her lips hard. Her heart hurt so much as if it were stabbed by someone with a knife.

Joshua changed into a more comfortable position on the sofa and sneered.

"Ever since the Walter family started moving about in Banyan City, Jude noticed it. Whether it was him or me, we all were willing to believe that it was Hailey who was behind all this. I even suspected a little whether Luna was Hailey herself. However, I never had thought that the main culprit behind this was you."

Joshua turned to and looked at Alice's miserably pale face. "The only reason I was waiting for the Irene matter to end before looking for you is to give you a chance to turn a new leaf."

Joshua has even thought that if Alice were to stop Mr. Walter and his daughter from moving on with the plan before the press conference, he could even treat it as if nothing has happened.

He would still continue to tolerate her and put up with her dirty tricks.

After all, he owed her too much, leaving her out in exile for six years.

Joshua's wariness of Alice and his sense of insecurities were normal.

However...

Patience and tolerance have their limits too.

He could forgive Alice's dirty tricks and her little antics once or twice.

However, what if it happened more than that?

If she has already changed and she was no longer the Luna Gibson from six years ago, was Joshua still going to continue tolerating?

"Joshua..."

Alice slipped and slumped onto the rug on the ground from the sofa. She grabbed Joshua's sleeve with teary eyes.

“Joshua... I know I did wrong. It’s really because you have been too close with Luna. I really have no sense of security, that is why I would...”

“Also, I have been against this plan from the beginning. It’s Yvonne and Mr. Walter, they came up with this idea on my behalf. I initially wanted to reject the plan, but I realized that you were always going to Luna’s. You spend much more time with her daily than me. I’m really jealous.

“I have been apart from you for so long. I am really afraid that I might lose you. I can’t take this, that is why I half-heartedly agree with them...”

Alice wiped her tears and sobbed, “Joshua, please forgive me...”

Joshua lowered his gaze and looked at the woman sitting on the floor while grabbing his sleeve.

Alice’s face was still the face of the woman he owed the most to since six years ago.

However, at that moment, she was so vicious and manipulative that he could not believe that this woman was the same gentle and kind-hearted Luna Gibson, the woman who would stand behind him.

Did he still love her?

He guessed that he still loved her. Luna Gibson was someone he could not forget nor let go of for his entire life.

However, at that moment, Joshua was also very clear that he actually loved the version of her six years ago.

The version of her at that moment...

"Alice."

Joshua closed his eyes and said in a low voice, "Let's get a divorce."

Perhaps if they split up, Alice would not let jealousy blind her. She might return back to the gentle and adorable version of her.

Divorce.

This word was like a huge hammer, smashing brutally on Alice's heart.

No. They could not have a divorce!

If they were to divorce, that meant that all her years of cosmetic surgery and her effort had gone to waste!

She spent so much time and effort just to become Luna Gibson, to become the unattainable woman that he had longed for.

If they got a divorce, her past six years would have been for nothing!

Alice bit her lips and hugged Joshua's calves tightly. She grabbed onto the hem of his pants and shook her head furiously. "Joshua, I do not want a divorce! We cannot have a divorce! You're the only person in the life that I care for the most! If you were to divorce me, then... my life will have no meaning anymore! "

Warm tears seeped into the thin fabric of his pants. Joshua's heart seemed to be affected by her tears.

He closed her eyes. "Alice, I have given you chances. Not only once."

"T-Then... then give me another chance! "

Alice held onto Joshua tightly. She extended her fingers and pointed it to the sky. "I swear I won't make any mistakes anymore. Okay? Next time, I'll do as you say. Alright? Joshua, don't leave me, please? I have loved you for so many years. Don't give up on me, please..."

Joshua lowered his gaze and looked at her teary face with darkened expressions.

Actually, Joshua did not feel good either. This was the woman he loved the most in his life.

She was kneeling on the ground humbly pleading with him. How could he bear too...

However...

Joshua took a deep breath. In the end, he still took the item that he had prepared earlier from his pocket and placed it on the table.

Alice raised her head and immediately noticed the words 'Divorce Agreement' written.

Alice's eyes widened. She instinctively retreated backward.

"No ! I don't want to! I won't sign it! I don't want a divorce! "

Joshua furrowed his brows, looking at the face of the woman he once was obsessed with. He had mixed feelings.

"Joshua! " Alice grabbed the hem of his pants. She choked, "I'm not divorcing you. I don't want a divorce! We have had a relationship for so many years. How could you bear to let it go just like that?"

Joshua closed his eyes. "I have also considered this decision for a long time."

He had asked himself countless times. Was he still going to continue this?

When the person that he loved the most has become someone he loathed the most. No matter how many chances you gave her, she was not willing to change. Should he still continue on that way?

Should he continue on like what Luna said, constantly tolerating and indulging in her?

"Joshua."

Alice was crying so badly she was gasping for air. "I only have you! You can't treat me this way! You can't treat me this way! You have treated me so badly before, but I did not mind it. I loved you with all my heart. Why are you not willing to give me another chance this time? Joshua..."

She helplessly grabbed the hem of his pants. "Give me another chance. I'll be good. Do whatever you like with Luna. I won't interfere. If you want me to apologize to Luna, I'll kneel and prostrate myself before her!

"As long as you... you don't divorce me and don't chase me away..."

Alice's lowly attitude was stinging to Joshua's eyes.

Joshua closed his eyes and was silent for a very long time. In the end, he still could not help but sigh.

"Alice, just sign the papers. This is only the divorce agreement. As long as I don't proceed with the divorce procedures, you and I are still husband and wife. If you really can do as you said, to turn over a new leaf and not treat my female employees with such tactics... I can destroy the agreement."

Alice lifted her head. She looked at Joshua in a daze. "Y-You're not lying to me, are you?"

Joshua looked at her face. The face that he once loved the most. In the end, he still could not bear to say words that were too cruel and harsh.

"I'm not lying to you."

Alice looked at Joshua's face closely. She could sense a hint of unwillingness in Joshua's eyes.

Alice understood clearly.

Once she signed the divorce papers, in the future, if she did something that Joshua could no longer tolerate. There would be no room for redemption in their marriage anymore.

However, if she were to not sign the papers, Joshua would only hate her more.

At that thought, Alice bit her lips and picked up the pen on the coffee table. She pulled the divorce papers over and signed her name on them.

Joshua was a little surprised at Alice's swift movements.

He was already prepared that she would not sign the divorce papers. After all, when she hysterically pleaded at him a moment ago made him feel that she was not willing to give up so easily.

However, he did not expect that not only was she willing to let it go, but she also agreed to it so swiftly.

Once Alice signed her name on the papers, Alice passed the divorce papers to Joshua.

"Joshua, I really know that I did wrong. This matter is my fault too. I'm willing to go with you to apologize to Luna. I'm also willing to accept all your punishment. You're right. With our relationship, even if I have signed the papers, you would not continue to proceed with the next steps, right?"

Looking at Alice's tear-stricken face. Joshua lifted his hand and accepted the divorce papers.

"Alice."

He looked at her. "You should know that I brought up divorce because I `m very disappointed in you. If... you could change. I would not let you leave me so easily too."

Upon his words, Alice's tears started to fall again. "Joshua..."

She buried herself in Joshua's arms with tears streaming down her face.

"Believe me. I will change! "

Joshua sighed and looked at the woman being buried in his arms. He wanted to raise his hand and pat her back comfortingly. However, he raised his hand and it stopped in mid-air. He could not find a way to bring his hand down.

In the end, Joshua could only sigh, "Alice, I have protected you for far too long. I really hope there is no next time."

"There won't be."

Alice buried herself in Joshua's arms. In a place where he could not see her face, she narrowed her eyes fiercely.

The only reason she agreed to sign the divorce papers was just to pacify Joshua for the time being.

In a few days, when this matter had died down, she had to find a chance to secretly get the divorce paper back!

Worse comes to worst, she would burn the place where Joshua kept the divorce paper down!

By then, if the divorce paper went missing, Joshua would not be able to divorce her too.

Theo and the mysterious person agreed to meet at the Bamboo Palace at 8 p.m.

At 7:30 p.m., Luna and Theo were already there. Both of them had different views of Luna's new design, so on the way there, they kept debating on this.

In the private box of the restaurant, they were still debating about it. They lost track of time.

At 8 p.m., the door of the private box was opened.

When Jude appeared by the entrance, Luna and Theo were still in a heated discussion.

Theo sighed helplessly, "Then you should rather just add a skull. It would make it seem more dispirited."

Luna pursed her lips. "You don't understand. You can't just simply use the skull element. At least, to me. The skull element represents evil and coldness. Also, something that still exists but should have long died."

Theo rolled his eyes. He wanted to say something else when he raised his head and noticed a man by the entrance.

He immediately stood up. "A—Are you... the mysterious man that helped me previously?"

Jude paused a little. He smiled. "That's me." Luna also subconsciously lifted her head.

When her eyes fell on Jude, she furrowed her brows and paused a little.

She has seen this man before. He was Joshua's best friend, Jude Smith.

Back then, she used to hear other people say that the distribution of powers in Banyan City could be divided into two.

One half belonged to Joshua, the other half belonged to Jude.

Still, Jude and Joshua were good friends who knew each other when they were still students.

Looking at Jude, Luna furrowed her brows. "You were the one... that helped Theo previously?"

Jude nodded. "Of course."

Then, he entered the room and sat down opposite Theo and Luna.

"If it was not me, then who? Joshua?" Luna's eyes slightly darkened a little.

Before Jude arrived, she truly thought that Joshua was the one that helped Theo.

Luna lifted her head and looked at Jude. "Mr. Smith, why did you help Theo?"

According to what Theo said...

He could quickly locate Mr. Walter's men in Banyan City and found out where Mr. Walter was hiding was all thanks to Jude.

Even, Jude was the one who helped get Old Mr.Gordon to come to check up on Irene's leg.

The man was powerful and influential, but Luna could not think of a reason for Jude to help Theo or her.

"I'm not helping Theo."

Jude smiled. "I just want Joshua to owe me one." Then, Jude picked up the teacup and gently took a sip. "One of Joshua's work plans for the second half of the year is to develop a Lynch Group jewelry branch.

"You, Ms. Luna, is his only trump card in the jewelry industry. If I helped you, even if I didn't bring it up, Joshua would understand that he owes me a huge one."

Then, Jude raised his eyebrows. "Are you satisfied with this answer, Ms. Luna?"
