Life at the top chapter 1745

Tony laughed and shook Jasper's hand hard before saying, "You little kid, it seems that you have done many things this time around."

"I nearly trapped myself in it, I have no idea how to explain all the difficulties anymore." Jasper laughed.

"Alright, it seems like you are quite easy-going. I was still afraid that you might retreat after encountering some obstacles, but I guess I'm wrong then." Tony said satisfyingly.

"I can't back out when I have so many people supporting me." Jasper said seriously.

"That's good to hear."

Tony led Jasper to the guest hall to sit down and said, "Today is the last day of the temporary lockdown order. Since the JW Foundation will be opening again tomorrow, have you prepared anything?"

"Nope."

Jasper's answer made Tony frown.

Jasper smiled wryly, "Mr. Pratt, both of us are smart enough to see through things, so I'll skip the formalities. Let me ask you Mr. Pratt, if you were in my position, what kind of preparations would you make?"

Jasper's words caught Tony off guard.

"I'll need to have something in my hand for me to prepare."

Jasper showed his hands and said, "But now, I have neither money nor power, so what can I prepare?"

Tony had an annoyed expression when he heard this, "Just say it if you need money, don't beat around the bush."

Jasper chuckled, "I am just trying to look for a better excuse, hahaha..."

Tony's expression turned solemn immediately. "Frankly speaking, I am here to fulfil your requests as per my orders. But, if the amount is too high, we won't be able to do it, so we'll have to negotiate."

"Sure, how about 10 trillion?"

Jasper's words stunned Tony.

"USD..."

The next thing that came out of Jasper's mouth made Tony's expression darken.

"Are you kidding me?"

Jasper said with a difficult expression, "Mr. Pratt, you are well aware of the enemies that I am facing right now. Wall Street is playing me for a fool this time, so honestly speaking, is that amount a lot?"

"That's impossible."

Tony refused without thinking, "Such a large amount of foreign exchange will inevitably affect the country's foreign exchange reserves, and it will directly cause huge fluctuations in the international foreign exchange market. At that time, even fools will know what Somerland has done with this money. Do you think the United States officials will stand idly by in this situation?"

"This is something that can cause the conflict between the two countries to escalate to another level. None of us can decide on this."

"What about you, Mr. Pratt?"

Jasper never expected to get so much money, and was actually just asking.

Mr. Pratt said, "It's not about what I think, it's what the upper management thinks. 8000 billion Somer Dollars is the maximum amount we can provide to assist you."

Jasper frowned and kept quiet. However, anyone would notice that Jasper thought that the amount was too small.

“Just deal with it. This decision is being negotiated hard by the bosses above me, so don’t be too greedy.” Tony comforted him.

“What if we lose?” Jasper asked.

Tony stared at Jasper with slightly scorching eyes and replied slowly, “What do you think?”

Chapter 1746

“This is not a sure win game.” Jasper’s expression was not pretty.

“If it were that easy, why would I be in this state right now?”

“JW Foundation has trillions of Somer Dollars trapped in this game, and honestly speaking, I am just like the piece of meat on the chopping board, waiting to be sentenced. I’d rather not do anything if I must win this without any support.”

Tony pointed at Jasper with his finger, “My dear friend, don’t be emotional now. Difficulties can be overcome right? The period 2 or 3 years ago was also extremely difficult for you, but you still managed to walk out of it, no?”

“Mr. Pratt, you don’t sound right.”

Jasper said, “I don’t mind being passionate and patriotic, but there are tons of families resting on my shoulders and I will at least have to consider my employees and investors, right?”

Tony had a dark expression as he asked, “Then what do you want?”

Jasper looked slightly relieved, and he laughed, “I don’t need much, not even the 8000 billion Somer Dollars. I only need one thing, which is to command the national team.”

Tony was dumbfounded.

“There’s a SBS Investment Fund under the SBS Bank, which is under the national team’s control. It’s said to be quite powerful, no?”

After hearing the second half of his sentence, Tony finally understood what he meant.

“Don’t even think about it.”

Tony raised his voice, “Even I don’t have access to mobilize that investment fund, and the procedures are more complicated than you think. Commanding the team? Have you lost your mind?”

“Then forget it.”

Jasper put his hands together and said, “Like they say, even a clever woman can’t afford to cook without rice. How can they expect me to win when they are reluctant to pay me the capital? Until now, I have relied on the resources from myself and investors to fight alone, so I am already used to such a pitiful life.”

Tony had no idea if he should be angry or amused right now. “Why didn’t I realize that you were actually quite a shameless person?”

“Mr. Pratt, I am really not that shameless.”

Jasper sighed and said sincerely, “No one knows how severe the current situation is, except for me. I can say that as soon as the market opens tomorrow, all positions invested in by JW Foundation will be exploited within half an hour. Even if the SBS Bank gives me 8000 billion, this half an hour will probably get extended to another day or two, but it will still eventually get exploited.”

“Unless the higher ups are willing to spare at least one-third of the country’s foreign exchange reserves to me, this battle will not go our way. We are facing the United States and Wall Street, the world’s most powerful capital country and the most powerful capitalist team. Do you really think that I am a god or something?”

“Not trying to brag, but if someone else were in my position, he or she would have been finished a month ago.”

Tony pondered for a moment, looked at Jasper, then said, "Give me some time."

Jasper stood up and chuckled, "I came here too eagerly in the morning, so I haven't had breakfast yet. As such, I'll go down and have breakfast first."

"Go ahead." Tony waved his hand with a solemn face.

Jasper then went downstairs casually.

He actually did eat breakfast, but he was also giving Tony a reason to contact his higher ups.

Tony somehow managed to escalate this issue to the big boss behind the country, and after 20 mins, he called Jasper back.

Returning to his room, Tony said with a stern expression, "The bosses have agreed to it."

"So the bosses can be considerate toward us." Jasper said in a joyful tone.

"Don't be too happy for now, there are terms imposed." Tony glanced at Jasper with a complicated gaze and continued, "There is only one request from them: Even if you are going to lose, do it nicely."

"The Somers are never afraid of losing because we will still be able to get back up and win it back. What we don't want is to lose our dignity and the determination to resist oppression. These are the words from the boss that are supposed to be conveyed to you. Think about it yourself."

Jasper asked subconsciously, "Which boss is this?"

"Who is the one that you see in the news everyday?" Tony sounded envious.

Although he was the General Secretary of the SBS Bank, it was because of Jasper that he got to communicate directly with the big boss. It was a once in a lifetime opportunity and it was worth being proud of.

A face that everyone recognized appeared in Jasper's mind, and he immediately nodded and said, "I get it now."

"Since that person has spoken, things will be done quickly. Moreover, we know that tomorrow is the opening so it will probably just take a few minutes before the manager of the national team contacts you. You shall see what to do next then."

Tony took Jasper to the door, hesitated for a moment, and whispered before opening the door, "Jasper Laine, the bosses are placing high hopes on you this time. There are several big bosses who are supporting you unconditionally, so you must get something done."

"I know." Jasper nodded and said gently.

Although he sounded casual, his words were powerful. He returned to his office right he left Tony's place, thought for a while, and picked up his phone.

"Old Master, it's me."

"Jasper..."

Old Master Law's hearty laughter came over the phone, "Just say it, as long as you ask for it, the Law family will give you full support."

Old Master Law obviously knew why Jasper was calling him for.

Jasper took a deep breath and said while trying to suppress the boiling blood in him, "Old Master, I need to break the backbone of the United States this time."

Old Master Law laughed loudly and said, "How ambitious. It won't be easy though."

"Relying solely on external factors is obviously not enough, but the economy of the United States is already problematic in and of itself."

In Jasper's mind, there would be a storm that would sweep across the world in seven years' time.

This subsequent recession would be called the biggest and most dangerous economic crisis in human history. It was because of its emergence that the United States economy embarked on a downward path, and it had not slowed down until 2020 when Jasper was reborn.

This was known as the subprime crisis.
