Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1311 - 1312

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1311

When Joshua came out from the room, Luna had just finished consoling a crying Nellie.

Even though she was just a child, Nellie fully understood the consequences of Granny Lynch's action when she tricked her into drinking the antidote that would cure her disease.

Nellie had stopped crying but was still sniffing. "Great-Granny... How much time does she have left? Will she get better if the doctors draw out my blood and give it to her?"

Luna sighed and pulled Nellie into an embrace but said nothing in response.

"Great-Granny won't want your blood." Joshua closed the door behind him, strode over to Nellie, and squatted in front of her. He looked straight into her eyes and continued, "Nellie, Great-Granny is willing to give the best to you because she wants you to be well. In that case, she won't want to see you suffer, will she?"

Joshua's words made Nellie cry. The tears streamed out of her eyes and down her cheeks. "What will happen, Daddy? I don't want Great-Granny to die..."

Joshua sighed when he saw Nellie crying again. Then, he pulled her into his arms. "I still remember that you promised Great -Granny that you'll learn from Mommy and make the jewelry that you designed especially for her, right?"

Nellie nodded earnestly.

"Why don't you follow Mommy to the studio at Daddy's office and make the jewelry, then? If Granny Lynch wears the jewelry you make for her when she passes, she'll be able to reunite with you in her next life."

"Okay." Nellie wiped the tears off her face and removed herself from Joshua's arms. She turned and gazed at Luna. "Mommy, can we...go now?"

Luna nodded. "Sure."

She took the keys that Joshua handed her and picked up Nellie in her arms. Just when she was about to leave, she heard the sound of footsteps and wheels turning from behind her.

Luna turned around and saw Nigel, who was wheeling Neil along, following behind her. "We can help, too."

A surge of warmth spread through Luna's heart, and tears built up in her eyes. "Sure. Let's make the jewelry for Granny Lynch as fast as we can."

With that, the four of them boarded the elevator and left.

Joshua remained motionless, watching the elevator doors close, and let out a sigh of relief.

Granny Lynch loved jewelry. He sincerely hoped that she would be able to wear the jewelry that Nellie handmade for her before she passed.

After a moment, Joshua took out his phone. "Lucas. Help me check if there's any news on Adrian. No matter where he is, bring him to me."

Granny Lynch was in very critical condition. Even though Adrian was a wicked and shameless person, he was still Granny Lynch's only child. Even if Joshua had to kidnap him, he would do it so that Adrian would be here to pay his last respects before she passed.

"Sir..." Lucas hesitated for a moment. "We don't need to look for him. I already ran into Master Lynch downstairs. According to the time...he should already reach Granny Lynch's room. Didn't you see him? "

Joshua was stunned by this. "When did you see him downstairs?"

"About ten minutes ago?" Lucas tried to recall his memory. "He was drenched and seemed to be in a rush; he almost bumped into me. When I saw it was him, I greeted him and asked if he was there to see Granny Lynch, but he didn't answer and went straight upstairs."

Pursuing My Ex-Wife Isn't Easy chapter 1312

Joshua, who was holding the phone, narrowed his eyes.

It had already been ten minutes. He knew that it only took one minute to board the lift and arrive at Granny's ward from the ground floor.

Ten minutes had passed, yet Adrian had yet to arrive. This meant Adrian was not here to visit Granny Lynch at all.

Joshua let out an exhale, walked into the lift, and asked, "Michael is here in the hospital too, right? Which level is he in?"

"The twelfth floor."

Inside the patient's room on the 12th floor.

Covered in seawater, Adrian took off his jacket and said, while wiping away the excess water on his body, "Don't worry. Although she's still unconscious, she's alive. I hid her in a safe place. A doctor from a small clinic is with her. The doctor said she choked on a large amount of water, and it caused her to pass out. She could've died if we didn't manage to save her so soon."

With that, he looked up and stared at Michael, who was lying on the bed. "Didn't you say she's pregnant with your child?"

Michael was wrapped in so many layers of bandages that he looked like a mummy.

When he went to find Luna in the ICU, he was pushed off the bed and landed in the broken glass all over the floor. On top of that, Joshua had pressed him against the shattered glass and beat him up, so his entire body was covered in cuts.

His face was so swollen and bruised that he looked like a pig from afar.

Michael glanced at Adrian and replied, "Of course she's pregnant with my child."

When Michael first heard Aura say she was pregnant with Joshua's child, he believed it. Later that day, after Joshua beat him up, Aura went to visit him.

After the two of them talked, only then did he find out that Aura had never slept with Joshua before ever since she returned to Banyan City.

The only person Aura had slept with was him. She had never slept with Joshua.

Who else would the child in her womb belong to, apart from him?

Adrian rolled his eyes at Michael. "Well, the doctor says she was never pregnant! "

Adrian grew more and more outraged when he talked about this. "If I had known she wasn't pregnant, I would've never saved her at the risk of getting discovered by Joshua! "

"How is that possible?" Michael widened his eyes in shock. "She told me herself that she's pregnant! I even saw her pregnancy test! "

"The pregnancy test is fake. I showed it to the doctor." Adrian rolled his eyes again. "You and Joshua were both tricked. She was never pregnant! "

Michael was so stunned by this discovery that he could not say a single word.

Adrian pursed his lips slightly when he saw how crestfallen his son became. "Alright, you shouldn't be sad anymore. At least she's rescued and is now in a safe place. Do you think you won't be able to impregnate her after she wakes up? No matter what, I saved her life, so it's only fair that she bears a child for you in return."

Michael was silent for a moment. Then, he sighed in relief and nodded. "Yes. Let's wait for her to wake up. Then, I'll plant my seeds in her, and she'll give you and Mother a few grandchildren!"

After hearing Michael bring up his mother, Adrian suddenly realized someone was missing from the room. He raised his eyebrows and looked around. "Where's your mother?"

It had been about ten minutes since Adrian arrived at the hospital, but there was no sign of Celia anywhere. Where could she possibly be?

Michael lowered his head and bit down on his lip rather forlornly, "Mother, she—" Before Michael could finish his sentence, however, he was interrupted by a cold, stern voice coming from the door, "I sent Celia to the police station."
