Chapter 1811

Chapter 1811 Teach Her to Recognize Danger and Evil

Nicole rolled her eyes and smiled lightly. "Sure, we're leaving anyway." They could go together. Nicole wanted to see what else that girl would do even if she was there. Before a smile could surface on that delicate girl's face, the man beside Nicole immediately stopped them.

"No, this has nothing to do with us, so we shouldn't meddle." That girl's face stiffened a little. Nicole was also a little surprised. "It's on the way... ») Clayton shook his head. His side profile looked cold and stern as he wrapped his arm around Nicole's shoulders and took a few steps forward. He explained to her in a whisper.

"She's here to fish for a sugar daddy. She's not a good person. Even Mr. Carter said so, so don't trust her. She's what they call a manipulative scheming b*tch that specializes in destroying people's families. You have to stay away from her!" Nicole froze in place.

She never thought that Clayton would say this. Nicole blinked and suddenly felt like they swapped places. Shouldn't she be the one to say this? Why was it Clayton who's telling her this? Clayton sighed and saw her dumbfounded look. "

Forget it. You don't understand how evil a human could be. You're too easily deceived by appearances. Just listen to me. Let's hurry up and leave. Don't let her Pooo oo cling to us!" The girl behind them stood there with a ghastly pale face.

This time, she no longer dared to take a step forward. It was unbelievable. She looked at the man's back with a shocked gaze. Did he think that she could not hear what he said when she was standing behind him? Or, did he deliberately say this for her to hear? She had acted so well, but he did not expose her.

When Nicole came over, she thought that she had a chance. She did not think that he would expose her thoughts to prevent Nicole from being deceived. It was truly incredulous.

How could such a man exist in this world? The delicate girl watched as Clayton pulled Nicole away as if he was afraid that they would get stained by something dirty. That feeling really hurt her self-esteem. Nicole held back her laughter as she followed Clayton into the elevator.

She looked at him sideways from time to time. Clayton could not ignore the number of times Nicole looked at him. He pinched the bridge of his nose somewhat helplessly. "What are you looking at me for? Did you read the messages I sent you?" Nicole pursed her lips and withdrew her gaze.

"I did." "You did? That means... You didn't want to reply?" Clayton's voice was slightly upturned. He looked at Nicole with a smile. "How did I offend you?" The elevator arrived. Nicole did not answer and walked out slowly.

Clayton sighed lightly and hurriedly followed. The driver went to get the car. Nicole told Yvette and the others in their group chat that she was leaving first. When she looked up again, she bumped into Clayton's thoughtful eyes. Nicole pursed her lips.

"What are you looking at?" Clayton pondered and said, "I was thinking about what I've done wrong recently. How do I have to beg you so that you can give me a little hint?" Nicole could not help but smile. She lowered her head to send that photo to his phone.

She lifted her chin slightly. "There. Think about how you're going to explain this." Clayton took out his phone and glanced at the phone. He then frowned in displeasure. "Who is this? This is photoshopped, right?" Nicole paused and raised her eyebrows. She never thought that Clayton would give such an explanation. Nicole did not think that Lumi would photoshop a picture just to fool her.

"This isn't photoshopped. Why don't you think carefully?" Nicole looked at him. Clayton's face did not have the slightest hint of guilt or evasion. Clayton just wrinkled his brow and looked at the photo seriously, trying to look for a clue to explain this photo but to no avail.

Chapter 1812

Chapter 1812 I Won't Be Fooled

Clayton and Nicole waited until the driver came. Nicole sat in the car and looked at Clayton. Clayton sighed and got into the car. "I don't know this woman at all. I don't have any impression of her. Who the hell is she? Did she send you this photo? She must be jealous that we have a good relationship and deliberately wanted to destroy our relationship. You can't fall for it! You should stay away from these people..."

4000 Nicole blinked. For some reason, her heart suddenly felt delighted Nicole did not suspect Clayton from the beginning She just wanted to see his reaction. Sure enough, Clayton did not let her down. B Seeing his distressed face, Nicole put down her phone and laughed. "Forget it. I'm just teasing you..." Clayton looked at her and smiled helplessly. He hugged her shoulders and sighed, then reached out to touch her belly.

"You only know how to bully me, huh? Is the baby behaving today?" Nicole proudly touched her own belly. It's very obedient tonight. The music was so loud just now, but it didn't make a fuss!" Clayton touched Nicole's head and looked at her gently. "I know. You must be jealous, so you randomly took a picture as a bluff. Nicole rolled her eyes at him. ma "Don't overthink it. You're the careless one. This photo is real.

I even exchanged your investment project for this!" Clayton was slightly dumbfounded. The corners of his mouth twitched. "Exchange what?" Nicole thought about it for a moment and told Clayton what she had exchanged with Lumi.

Clayton was silent Nicole pursed her lips. "That project can probably earn quite a lot, right?" Clayton looked at her and said seriously, Not a penny, darling. I'm just using this a sa cover-up. Although it looks promising, there's actually barely any development potential. A year later, this company will declare bankruptcy.” 82 The air became silent and stagnant. Nicole suddenly felt sorry for Lumi.

“You’re not joking?” Clayton raised his eyebrows. “I never joke about business.” He was not lying. Nicole was silent for a few seconds and sighed. “Forget it. After all, Lumi has failed so many times, so I guess this time makes no difference.” If Nicole were to stop Lumi now, Lumi would definitely not believe her.

Instead, Lumi would think that Nicole was lying. No matter what, Nicole still sent a message to Lumi. “This investment is very risky. You’d better give up!” Lumi replied. “Don’t lie to me. I won’t fall for it! Nicole was speechless. At least, she tried her best to persuade Lumi.

Clayton bowed his head and smiled. He held Nicole’s hand tightly. “No matter what, I’m still glad that you’re jealous!” That meant that his love was reciprocated. Even if it was a trickle, Nicole’s love came on into his life little by little.

A few months passed. Before the baby was born, Nicole and Clayton discussed the child’s name many times but were still not satisfied. Thus, they entrusted Floyd with this. VY Grant and Aida named their baby boy Levi Stanton.

Grant came up with the name. Floyd had originally prepared a lot of names, but they did not pick those. Due to this, Floyd sulked for a long time. Floyd’s mood only turned for the better when Aida suggested that he could come up with the baby’s nickname.

Thus, Levi Stanton’s nickname became Leaf. When Grant found out about this nickname, he did not return to the Stanton Mansion for several days. Grant also took back his promise to let Floyd name their second child if they ever had one.

Aida had nothing to say about it. Nicole asked Floyd to name her baby. She also asked everyone to come up with names for both genders so that she could pick the best one. Although Floyd was not quite satisfied that Nicole had the final say, he dared not scold her since she would be the one who would have to suffer through childbirth. 3
