The Mans Decree Chapter 213

Chapter 213 What A Piece Of Trash

“Renee!”

Upon seeing that his daughter had regained consciousness, Erasmus instantly rushed over with all the excitement in the world.

“Dad...”

Renee glanced around the room with a lost look in her eyes. At the sight of the crowd milling around, apprehension promptly swamped her.

“You scared me to death, Renee! Do you know you had been unconscious for several days?”

Tears streamed down Erasmus’ face.

Although it was said that cultivators needed to sever all emotional attachments when they embarked on the path to immortality, few could actually do it.

“Do you believe me now, Master Erasmus?” With a sneer on his face, Falcon drawled, “But let me tell you something—this is just a temporary fix. If I don’t do anything to treat Renee, she’ll still revert to her initial state. Also, I’ll be so kind to tell you that I’m the only person who can cure her of her frosty constituent in this whole world! All others are charlatans! If you’ve made up your mind, kick all these charlatans out!”

“Who are you calling a charlatan? You look more like one yourself! Stop blowing your own trumpet with that worthless thing that’s no more than a bronze mirror! If you’re so great, throw it away, and we shall see who’s better!” Josephine stepped forward and snapped viciously, long since sick of the man’s arrogance.

As Falcon stared at Josephine, who stood out, a flash of something glinted in his eyes. He didn't fly into a rage but leered at her with a salacious look in his eyes. "Others may all scam, but this lady can stay. I love such a feral temperament!"

"What a piece of trash!"

Josephine spat at him hard as she said that.

At that, Falcon was momentarily stunned before he wiped the spit off his face. His temper spiked at once. "Do you believe that I'll finish you off right this instance, you b*tch?"

Seeing that he had gone off the deep end, Josephine instinctively backed up a step. Meanwhile, Jared took a step forward and shielded her behind him.

Eyeing the man disdainfully, he scoffed, "You're acting all high and mighty because of the Starry Compass, no? How are you different from a good-for-nothing without it? This Starry Compass is a magical item, but it's an utter waste in your possession! If one cultivates with it, only half the effort is required to achieve double the results! Alas, a useless piece of trash like you have no idea how to use it!"

Falcon was startled, and red-hot fury swiftly blazed through him because Jared was right—it was all thanks to the Starry Compass that he managed to defeat Leonidas and heal Renee. Without it, he was nothing at all!

"This is pure envy, kid! You're simply jealous that I've got a magical item such as the Starry Compass! If you're so great, take a magical item out as well! What are you going to use to absorb the frosty energy from Renee?" Falcon demanded provocatively.

"I'm the greatest magical item myself, so why do I need to use anything else? Only ineffectual people use so-called magical items!" Jared derided with a snort.

Following that, Falcon's expression darkened even further. Leonidas likewise wore a grim look since the man's scornful remark struck a raw nerve in him. After all, he had also used the jade scepter to treat Renee earlier.

"Are you saying that you want to absorb the frosty energy in Renee directly into your body?" Falcon questioned.

"Exactly!" Jared nodded placidly.

"Haha... What a joke! Renee has a frosty constituent, and that's the only reason she managed to withstand the frosty energy within her for so many years. If it were the average person, he wouldn't be able to survive for even a day! Yet, you dare say that you'll use your body to absorb the frosty energy? If you really have that capability, you can ask anything of me! However, if you fail to do so, don't blame me for not showing you any mercy. You'll have to get on your knees before me and apologize. Also, the girl behind you has to warm my bed!"

Falcon's eyes brimmed with malice, making goosebumps rise all over Josephine.

"Are you sick of living?" Jared's eyes narrowed, and a murderous aura radiated off him in a flash.

While he and Josephine hadn't yet confirmed their relationship, they were both aware of the other's feelings.

Therefore, he had already regarded her as his girlfriend and would never stand idly by while she was harassed.

Chapter 214 Frozen

"What's wrong? Are you scared?"

Falcon snickered even as he eyed Jared contemptuously.

"Why would I be? Today, I'll show you a true immortal technique!"

As Jared spoke, his hand abruptly shot out toward Renee on the bed.

Stricken with fright, Renee hastily scooted backward and hid behind Erasmus in terror.

“Mr. Chance, there are many people here, so I’m afraid that it’s a tad inappropriate for you to be removing my daughter’s clothes in front of everyone.”

Reluctance deluged Erasmus, for his daughter’s reputation would be tarnished once her body was bared in public.

“You misunderstand, Abbot Erasmus. I’m only going to absorb the frosty energy in your daughter’s body, so no removal of clothes is necessary.”

Earlier, Jared had to remove Renee’s clothes for treatment because he wanted to transform her frosty constituent. Then, she wouldn’t have to suffer from the icy cold anymore.

However, if it were merely absorbing the frosty energy, there was no need to remove any clothes.

Hearing that, Erasmus breathed a sigh of relief. Supporting his daughter, he explained, “Renee, you don’t have to be afraid, for Mr. Chance is here to treat you!”

After much persuasion from Erasmus, Renee finally calmed down and sat on the bed quietly.

Subsequently, Jared lightly placed his palm on her forehead. In the blink of an eye, wave after wave of frosty energy was absorbed directly into his body.

Although Falcon had already absorbed most of the frosty energy from Renee with the Starry Compass just now, he didn’t remove it all. There was still a portion left in her body. Worse still, frosty energy was everywhere in Lagrange Monastery, and her body would automatically absorb it all.

Slowly, Jared’s palm turned white. On the heels of that, a thick layer of frost seemingly formed over his entire arm.

With his eyes closed, he culminated the Focus Technique to its maximum potential. He cultivated the frosty energy unceasingly, but there was too just much. He was only at Level Five Energy Cultivation, so he still couldn’t cultivate it all despite his best efforts.

Soon, a thick layer of ice covered his entire arm, and it was even spreading rapidly to other parts of his body.

Seeing that, Falcon let out a cold chuckle.

“Mr. Chance!” Erasmus cried out in alarm when he saw Jared’s current condition.

Nonetheless, it was as though Jared didn’t hear him at all, for the man continued absorbing the frosty energy from Renee.

Eventually, his hair turned white, and a layer of frost blanketed his face. In the very end, his entire person was seemingly encased in ice, rendering him just like a snowman.

“Haha... I’ve said that the average person can’t withstand this frosty energy! Now, he has become a block of ice!”

At the sight of Jared all frozen, Falcon laughed uproariously.

“Mr. Chance!”

“Jared!”

Walter, Josephine, and the others all exclaimed in horror.

Josephine, especially, was so distressed that she threw herself at Jared, intending to use her body heat to melt the ice off the man.

“No, Josephine!”

Reacting swiftly, William grabbed her and stopped her from doing so.

Even Jared is unable to withstand such frosty energy, so isn’t she just consigning herself to death if she were to go over?

“Jared!” Josephine wailed, tears welling in her eyes.

Despite the short time they had been acquainted and the indistinct relationship between them, they could sense each other's presence within their hearts. Verily, such a feeling was beyond words.

She was most at ease when she was with Jared though she couldn't quite explain her feelings either.

Therefore, she instinctively wanted to save him when she saw him frozen right then, so much so that her own safety never once crossed her mind.

"Haha... Don't be sad, pretty! There are plenty of men in this world, so why must you fixate on one man? Look at me! I'm a hundred times better than this Jared guy! As long as you make me happy, I guarantee you a lifetime of wealth and glory!"

Falcon swept his gaze up and down Josephine's body unabashedly.
