Chapter 36 Are You Going to keep

Doris felt disgusting when seeing Jessica

She wanted to disfigure her that no more directors would cast her.

Jessica adjusted the hairpin and smiled seductively, "You rely on your father, and I rely on myself. We all have our own strength."

Doris admitted that she was recognized as eye candy in the industry, but Jessica was the first person who dared to speak it out in front of her!

"Jessica, don't be so full of yourself!" Doris said angrily and walked away.

Jessica sneered in a whisper, "I hope you don't play any tricks with me, or will definitely pay you back double."

"All right, everyone gets ready. It's about to start." The director was already sitting in front of the monitor with a toothpick between his lips, urging everyone to focus on filming.

Jessica was solid in acting. She immediately got into the groove.

"Action"

After that, Doris and some women ran towards Jessica, who was sitting by the lake.

"Your highness."

"Get out of here!"

The maid standing next to Jessica greeted Doris, but the exchange was a kick.

Jessica immediately stood in front of the maid and looked at Doris coldly and angrily. "Madam, what are you doing?"

The heroine who time-traveled from the 21st century could not stand Doris's behavior of not treating servant as a person.

“Quentina, I’m just teaching her a lesson. If you dare to plead for her, then I’ll teach you a lesson too. Don’t think that you can be unbridled even with the emperor’s favor.”

Doris was about to slap Jessica, but Jessica quickly stopped her.

“Madam, since you are so unreasonable, don’t blame me for being rude.” Quentina, who was acted by Jessica, was beaten by Doris last time, and this time she had almost taken a beating again.

Driving by the old and new grudges, she fought with Doris directly.

“Why are you still standing there? Get rid of this bitch for me.” The fight was an act, but Doris felt that she was being pricked by the needle.

She was confused about whether it was a performance or not. She struggled with Jessica on the ground and could only ask for help from a few other actresses standing by.

Some actresses rushed towards them, and the scene was chaotic.

Of course, Jessica only had Doris in her eyes.

She hit Doris with all her strength, especially hitting her private parts.

Doris’s eyes were tearful, and her face turned very red.

“Cut!” The director was pleased with this scene. He supposed that Jessica and Doris would mess it up, but they actually finished in one take.

Doris was beaten up so badly by Jessica, which was what he wanted.

All the actresses around stopped fighting while Doris cried awkwardly at the center of the crowd.

“Director, Jessica is so vicious. She stabbed me with a needle.”

Doris ran to the director. Her makeup was all gone, and her hair was in a mess like a bird’s nest.

Justin was standing not far away. He couldn’t bear to look straight at her mess.

However, when Justin thought about that it was thanks to Jessica, he moved up the corner of his mouth.

Interesting. Jessica was such an interesting woman.

“Doris, I know you have a grudge against me, but you can't frame me like this. You said that I stab you with a needle. Where did you find the needle? And which part of your body did I stab you?”

Jessica felt aggrieved after hearing what Doris said to the director.

Even Mrs. Kimi could not remain silent about this situation.

“Doris, Jessica's face was hit swollen by you a few days ago. Now you frame her to stab you with a needle again. You won't stop until Jessica is dead, will you?”

The person who Mrs. Kimi most hated had been Louise, but she was replaced by Doris now.

“Where there is a will to condemn, evidence will follow.” Jessica tugged at Mrs. Kimi's sleeve, “She's the daughter of the Wellons family. She can say whatever she wants. There's no chance for us to refute her.”

She was paying tit for tat.

She could not bear to stand to lose.

Jessica's face was covered in delicate makeup, and the injured expression made her look more appealing.

“Jessica, don't pretend to be innocent. You must have needles on you!” Doris was almost crazy for Jessica's words. It was so disgusting that she stabbed her but pretended to know nothing.

“You can search me.” Jessica opened her arms in frank.

Doris went over and searched, but she found nothing.

"It's impossible. There was a needle in your hand just now. Did you hide it in your clothes?" Doris had searched for a long time but found nothing. Where did Jessica hide the needle?

"Miss Wellons, you can't go too far." Seeing that her clothes were going to take off by Doris, Jessica's face darkened. "You've already searched me. Now it's your turn to show us which part did I stab you."

"Yes, Doris. You can check the wound on your body." The director also supported Jessica. After all, she was the actress he cast, and he couldn't stand this unruly Doris anymore.

"Sure! You can't scare me."

Doris began to take off her clothes.

But she suddenly realized that where Jessica stabbed her were all private parts.

Where she was stabbed was either her chest or her lower abdomen. Could she let these people see her privates?

Doris was so angry that her chest began to ache. Just then, an actress asked, "Doris, your face is so red, and there are some pimples on it."

Doris picked up a mirror. Her face was really red and breaking out with pimples one after another.

"My face..." She threw the mirror onto the ground frightenedly and put her hands on her cheeks, looking incredulous.

Looking at Jessica, who looked calm and indifferent, Doris scolded, "Jessica, you're the fucking bitch who did this, aren't you? I won't let you go."

Then she rushed to Jessica.

Jessica did not expect that Doris could behave so badly in public. It was too late for her to run away.

Just as Jessica thought that she was about to be beaten, a tall figure appeared in front of her.

"Enough! What a shame." Justin looked at Doris disgustedly. Doris really wanted to hide somewhere when despised by the man she liked.

“Justin, it was Jessica.”

“Slap.”

Before Doris could finish speaking, Justin slapped her in front of everyone.

“I don’t hit women, but you are the first one. You’d better get out yourself, or I’ll ask the security guard to throw you out.”

Justin’s family background was much better than Doris’s.

He didn’t care about Doris retaliating against his girlfriends before. It was because those girlfriends were not attractive to him at all.

0 24 PM =

But Jessica was different. Every time he saw her being bullied, he wanted to protect her.

Although he knew that Jessica did not appreciate it.

It probably was the debt of love. After being a playboy for many years, he finally met his Miss Right.

While Justin and Doris were tangling, Jessica walked straight back to the dressing room.

Mrs. Kimi followed her.

“She is asking for it.” Mrs. Kimi gloated. The crew was watching that free show outside. There was only Jessica and Kimi in the dressing room.

Jessica was slowly taking off the hairpin and wig in front of the mirror.

When Mrs. Kimi was about to say something more, she saw Jessica take out three needles from the wig!

“Damn... I thought Doris set you up.” Mrs. Kimi’s eyes widened in disbelief. “Are you still the Jessica Sandgren | know?”

Mrs. Kimi swore in her heart that she would never bully Jessica. Otherwise, it would be terrible to be retaliated by her.

Jessica remained silent.

Today's schedule was to shoot Jessica playing opposite Doris. But after what directly

In the afternoon, they didn't film anything.

Jessica left the crew early and went to the supermarket to buy some fruits and vegetables. She was going to cook the dinner herself.

At the same time, Timothy and Jacob were in the office.

They sat opposite each other on the sofa.

The atmosphere in the office was serious. They stared at each other. If there were any special effects on their gaze, it would definitely be sparks and lightning

"Bro, are you really going to come back?" Jacob's amorous eyes were full of seriousness.

"Do you think I'm joking with you?"

As soon as Timothy finished speaking, Jacob fell to the ground and hugged Timothy's legs. He said with a sobbing tone, "My dear brother, you're finally back. Do you know how long I've been looking forward to this day?"

He could continue to flirt with girls.

And he could leave those stupid businesses alone!

"But are you going to keep that from Jessica? She seems to know nothing."

Jacob thought of Timothy's past and changed the subject

Chapter 37 Substantial Reward

Timothy narrowed his eyes gloomily, and the atmosphere in the office became oppressive.

“Um, I am sorry. I said something stupid.” Jacob immediately patted himself on the cheek. Although he pretended to be regretful, he expected the result from the bottom of his heart.

What would happen if Jessica knew about Timothy’s past?

Jacob got excited even if he just imagined it!

“I’ll tell Jessica. You don’t need to worry.” Timothy said and stood up, leaving the office.

When Timothy’s back disappeared at the corner of the office, Jacob finally felt relieved.

Hmph, Jessica would definitely punish you in the future!

After returning to the apartment from YH Entertainment, Timothy opened the door and smelled meat in the kitchen.

W

He raised his eyebrows slightly and walked to the kitchen. Surely, he saw Jessica preparing the food in an orderly manner.

Timothy walked behind Jessica and hugged her directly.

Jessica, who was washing vegetables, was startled. She stopped what she was doing and complained, “Mr. Landy, you walk so quietly. Are you a cat?”

Timothy just chuckled and didn’t say anything

His sexy thin lips brushed Jessica’s ears, and he deliberately stayed in her earlobe for a long time.

Being rubbed by Timothy like this, Jessica felt itchy all over her body.

She avoided Timothy’s touch and said, “Stop, or we won’t even be able to have dinner when it gets dark.”

It was rare for her to cook once. She didn’t want Timothy to ruin it.

“I don’t need to have dinner. I will just eat you” When Timothy was in front of Jessica, he was like a child.

Jessica had no choice. She could only turn around to kiss Timothy and then said, "Go to wait outside. I'll prepare dinner for you today."

After being kissed by Jessica, Timothy behaved well in an instant.

He left the kitchen with a satisfied smile. Jessica finally could continue to cook dinner.

Half an hour later, Jessica prepared three dishes and a soup.

They sat at the table and ate as if they had been married for a long time.

After dinner, Timothy washed the dishes while Jessica lay on the sofa and read a magazine.

After washing the dishes, Timothy walked to Jessica.

"The Landy family is having a dinner party tomorrow night. I wonder if you have time to attend?"

"Because you are going back?" Jessica asked.

Timothy nodded and said, "I am the first-born in my family. In the past three years, outsiders did not know that I was actually in this city. My family said that I went abroad, so tomorrow night is also a welcome banquet for me. At that time, many guests will be invited. You can take the chance to meet other people."

In fact, if Timothy wanted, he could easily make Jessica a movie queen.

But he knew that Jessica would never accept it. She preferred to rely on her own efforts to climb up step by step and finally stand at the top of the Pyramid.

Jessica nodded and put down the magazine. She put her hands around Timothy's neck and said, "Honey, you're so sweet. Do you want some substantial rewards?"

Timothy raised his eyebrows. Jessica's words made his eyesight deep in an instant.

He put his big palm on Jessica's leg and slowly moved up. He said in a hoarse voice, "Yes."

0 055 AM

Almost as soon as Timothy finished speaking, Jessica kissed his lips directly Their hearts beat faster and faster, and their breathing also quickened as time went by.

Just as Timothy wanted to do something more, he suddenly woke up.

“Mrs. Landy, it’s not wise to tease your husband like this.”

Timothy’s tone was full of frustration because he realized that Jessica was in her period.

No wonder she was so initiative tonight. She just wanted to tease him.

Jessica looked innocent and said, “I didn’t tease you. I gave you a kiss as a reward.”

Jessica got off from Timothy’s body and picked up her magazine to continue to read.

Timothy felt so helpless. Finally, he stood up and walked into the bathroom.

Anyway, he had to calm himself down.

The next day, Jessica worked very hard to film her part. Most of the scenes were done on her first try and she barely got “no good”.

Doris got a facial allergy, so many scenes of her back and blurry side face were done by her substitute.

After filming, Jessica went with Mrs. Kimi to get an evening dress and jewelry from a sponsor.

Most of the dresses worn by celebrities at dinner parties were provided by brands for free.

In this way, these brands and celebrities can benefit from each other.

The brand that offered the evening gown to Jessica tonight was a foreign company famous for its fairy style. Although it was not as famous as Dior and Chanel, it still had a certain degree of popularity in the fashion week.

All the evening gowns designed by the brand were made of layers of fabric as light as wings and looked so stunning.

Of course, as Timothy said, there were a lot of people coming tonight.

These guests included hundreds of enterprises, ladies from noble families and so on.

As the CEO of TY Group, Simon was also invited as well as Louise.

Of course, from today on, the TY Group had one more staff.

That was Simon's sister, Yolanda.

Yolanda was originally in charge of the Capen family's company abroad, but recently, there have been a lot of accidents in the TY Group, so she had to come back from abroad.

After Yolanda arrived at TY Group, she scolded Simon for suddenly giving up on Louise.

Louise was an entertainer that TY Group had spent a lot of money on, but Simon suddenly turned to support a newcomer. Wasn't that stupid?

"Yolanda, you don't need to worry about me and Louise." In the office, Simon looked particularly unpleasant.

"If I leave you alone anymore, the whole company will be ruined by you. Simon, I don't care what happened between you and Louise, but she has to get the title of movie queen so that we can earn back everything we've done for her."

Yolanda knew about Simon cheating on Louise from the beginning.

Yolanda liked Jessica more than Louise. After all, Louise was shrewd. Simon would not suffer losses if he married her.

Seeing Simon's gloomy face, Yolanda could only sigh and say, "After we earn back the money we spent on Louise, I don't care how you treat her. A wise man submits to fate. Simon, you can not act on your will. TY group is still in the development period. It will be a big loss if it is destroyed."

Simon was in a better mood after being comforted by Yolanda.

He was going to tell Yolanda that Louise had been raped by a few men, but it was related to his dignity as a man, so he hesitated.

He had no choice but to hide it.

"Yolanda."

"As for Jessica , I'll help you deal with her. There's nothing else. Go and call Louise in. I have something to say to her."

Before Simon said anything, Yolanda got impatient.

She was very upset to have to clean up such a mess as soon as she returned home.

Simon had no choice but to leave his office and call Louise in.

Louise welcomed Yolanda's coming back most.

After all, Louise knew that Yolanda would not give up on her for a while.

When Louise walked into Yolanda's office, she looked happy and said, "Yolanda, when did you come back?"

"I just came back today. Tell me what happened. Why did Simon give so much of your resources to a newcomer?"

Yolanda would not ask Simon about what happened, but she could ask Louise.

If she had any questions, she would ask Louise directly

"Yolanda, Jessica is a bitch. She caused all of these. She employed some gangsters to kidnap Simon and me, and she even did more evil things."

Louise's eyes turned red, and there were tears in them.

Louise told Yolanda everything that had happened not long ago, especially the part that Simon found hard to say. She described it vividly.

"Yolanda, I am pregnant. That night, there were more than four or five gangsters. If I had sex with them, I must feel not right. The child wouldn't be safe until now. The bruises on my body were all pinched by those gangsters."

Louise didn't even guess that everything was mischief when it happened.

But when she came back and gradually calmed down, she realized that she and Simon were being set up.

However, no matter how she explained it to Simon, Simon just didn't believe her.

"It seems that we underestimated Jessica." Yolanda was a successful businesswoman, and she could see through many tricks easily.

"Louise, are you sure those men really didn't do anything to you?" Yolanda asked. This time, she emphasized her tone.

"I swear, if I were touched by those men, I would be killed in an accident!" Louise raised her right hand to swear.

"Okay, I believe you." Yolanda patted Louise on the shoulder and softened her tone a little, "You come with us to the dinner party of the Landy family tonight. I'll handle your problem with Simon. The only thing you need to do now is to defeat Jessica and win this year's Oscar best actress."

Hearing Yolanda's words, Louise suddenly relaxed. She had been so upset these days.

It seemed that the second chance of her life was coming again.

Louise left the office happily. Yolanda's eyesight darkened in an instant.

No wonder there was such a big conflict between Simon and Louise. It turned out that such a thing had happened.

Yolanda hated Jessica for ruining a profitable tool that TY Group had carefully cultivated. She also made up her mind to make plan B while exalting Louise.

She didn't care if Louise had been raped by those men or not, but what was certain was that after so many things happened, Louise was not so valuable anymore.

Chapter 38 Big Boss's Identity

As time went by, the night reigned.

It was a very ordinary night. However, in this city, there was a wild beast crawling in everyone's heart since the Landy family was going to have a dinner party.

The Landy family was an aristocratic family, a real wealthy and influential clan.

This family had not held a dinner party within a few years. Now that the eldest son, who was studying abroad, came home, the celebration party would definitely be very splendid.

The party was held in a large villa that could accommodate five to six hundred people.

People attending the party were the guests invited and the reporters who wanted to collect some information as well as the fans of some celebrities.

Around eight o'clock in the evening, the guests began to arrive and entered the villa one after another.

There was a distance from the road to the entrance of the villa, which was covered with red carpet. The good looking and slender maid stood at the entrance of the villa. After she checked the invitation letters in the guests' hands, the guests were allowed to come in.

The Landy family was a big family, so any news would be widely reported, especially the eldest son of the Landy family, who was even more mysterious. The news related to him would give rise to a heated discussion over these years.

Therefore, these reporters tried their best to get some information about the eldest son of the Landy family.

It was said that Simon and Louise of the TY Group and Jessica of the YH Entertainment would also attend. It was obvious that the triangular love story of these three people, which was a really complicated relationship, would become a big hit in media.

Jessica arrived at the villa after 8.10

1.       pm.
Mrs. Kimi's said that currently, the status of Jessica in the entertainment industry was neither high nor low. On one hand, if Jessica arrived early, people would think that she was fawning on the Landy family. On the other hand, if she went there late, she would be regarded as putting on airs. Therefore, she'd better follow the mainstream and choose a time slot that was in the middle.

Jessica got out of the car and then she walked towards the red carpet.

However, another white car appeared before she could reach the red carpet.

Jessica was caught in the glare of the car's headlights and Mrs. Kimi was so angry that she cursed on the spot, "Damn it!"

The lights were quickly turned off. Then, Simon, Louise, and Cherry Capen got out of the car.

Everyone knew that Simon had an affair with Louise.

They showed up together tonight, which meant that they were not afraid of media reports.

Simon carefully helped Louise get out of the car. These two people, who were well matched, stepped on the red carpet before Jessica.

Cherry glanced sarcastically at Jessica, who was mindless at that moment, and then she followed Simon and Louise.

This scene was captured by sharp-eyed reporters.

The reports could be written in different ways, and the headlines could be "a battle between Simon's girlfriend and his new lover", "a ruthless man ignored his ex-girlfriend", or "an unpopular actress was abandoned".

Jessica only glanced coldly at these people in front of her. She paused for approximately ten seconds, and then many reporters gathered around her with microphones.

“Jessica, your best friend showed that she was in love with your ex-boyfriend to the public. What do you think of it?”

“Miss Sandgren, do you hate Simon? Did you sign the contract with YH Entertainment to take revenge on them?”

“I heard that you have broken up with Simon a long time ago and it was you who betrayed Simon first and fell in love with Justin, who was an award winning actor. Is that true?”

Jessica was questioned by so many reporters at the same time. Mrs. Kimi, who was standing beside her, felt a little bit sorry for her.

However, Jessica remained smiling when faced with these sarcastic questions.

“Firstly, I watched them show off their love with my eyes. Secondly, I signed the contract with YH Entertainment because it provides me with a bigger platform. Last but not least, if you assume that I am guilty, you could find various kinds of ways to throw dirt at me. As an actress, I hope that you could pay more attention to my work.” The Mistress Abandoned by the King” is nearly finished. I hope that you could go to the cinema when it is released.”

Then, Jessica turned around and walked into the villa, ignoring these reporters.

Cherry came back and invited Louise and Simon to here together. It seemed that she was not a simple person who was easy to get on well with.

Jessica swore in her heart, “I must be cautious of Cherry.”

Jessica and Mrs. Kimi were standing in the garden, which was huge, after entering the villa.

Jessica looked around and then she realized that they were all celebrities in this city and even in the country, who were familiar to the public.

Mrs. Kimi held a glass of red wine in her hand, and she blushed with excitement. "Jessica, your man really loves you. If it weren't for him, we wouldn't even have the chance to stand at the entrance and watch such a dinner party of this level."

Jessica remained silent, but she was staring at Simon and Louise.

She was not still in love with Simon, but she was too curious. Jessica wondered what exactly Cherry told to Simon that made Simon love Louise so much regardless of the grudges in the past.

When Jessica was lost in thought, someone patted her on the shoulder.

Jessica quickly regained her senses and turned around to look at the person behind.

She realized that he was the investor, President Smith, that she had met in the business club last time.

The man held two glasses of red wine and looked at Jessica with infatuation.

Jessica remembered what happened in the business club last time and she looked in horror at the red wine in the man's hands.

If Timothy hadn't let Jacob come over that night, Jessica wouldn't know how to get away with it.

After all, she didn't expect that man would be so shameless that he put the drug in her drinks.

"Jessica, you're an excellent model. I'm very optimistic about your future development." President Smith said. Then, he handed the glass in his hand to Jessica.

As Jessica was hesitating whether to accept it or not, she heard the crowd screaming.

"The first young master of the Landy family is coming."

"I heard that this young master is very handsome. I don't know whether it's true or not."

People spoke in low murmurs, and they all looked out. Their eyes, which were extremely curious, rested on the door of the villa.

At that moment, the bustling doorway became quiet in an instant when a black Rolls-Royce appeared.

This luxury car and the people sitting in it attracted everyone's attention.

The driver got out of the car, went around the parking lot, and opened the door for Timothy.

A shiny black leather shoe showed up in front of the crowd and then people saw a man who was tall and straight and had long legs. Most importantly, he had an extremely good-looking face.

He was as attractive as a black hole when he was just standing there casually with his noble and cold temperament.

Timothy shifted his gaze from the crowd to Jessica

Although he looked away quickly, Jessica felt the thrill in her heart at that moment.

There were so many people in the villa, but this man could find her at first glance.

That's what happened when a person was in love with someone.

As the most mysterious successor to the Landy family, Timothy's appearance really shocked everyone.

However, Simon was the one who was extremely shocked.

Looking at the elegant man on the red carpet, Simon's face was full of disbelief.

Simon was surprised that this man looked so similar to the man who beat him up on the set last time.

He wondered whether they were actually the same person and Jessica dared to treat him in that way because she hooked up with the eldest son of the Landy family.

Simon's eyes smouldered with anger. He had never felt so humiliated that his women betrayed him one after another recently.

However, he thought the man on the set was a security guard.

Besides, he remembered that the eldest son of the Landy family had stayed abroad all year round.

If Jessica hooked up with Mr. Landy, she was supposed to get many opportunities to play the lead.

However, apart from snatching Louise's role, which was a female lead, it seemed that Jessica did not act in other TV series.

Simon suddenly became confused. He shifted his gaze from Timothy to Jessica. Then, he saw her standing beside President Smith.

3 0 156 AM

Simon's frown immediately stretched upon seeing this.

It was impossible for Jessica to make acquaintance with Mr. Landy. The person on the set that day was definitely a security guard. It was possible that Jessica slept with President Smith, who was known as a man who was lust for women by the people in the entertainment industry. Jessica was now his favorite woman, so it was normal for him to get some resources for her.

Looking at Jessica, Simon was spaced out. However, Louise, who was standing next to Simon, was staring at Simon at that time.

Realizing that Simon was looking at Jessica, Louise's face was twisted with jealousy.

The photos that Priscilla took last time came sweeping back to her mind.

It seemed that she should also develop her forces in other fields and she could not rely on Simon anymore.

There was a highly charged atmosphere in the villa and it was pushed to the highest point because of Timothy's appearance.

At this time, the issues between Jessica and Simon were completely unimportant.

The reporters took photos crazily and didn't want to miss Timothy's every move.

After all, they could make money from these photos.

Timothy was surrounded by someone as soon as he entered the villa.

Those people were also celebrities.

It was impossible for Jessica to talk to Timothy at the dinner party.

Moreover, Jessica was followed by President Smith, who was really difficult to deal with.

"Here's to you, Jessica." President Smith would never give up until he achieved his goal, so he tried to force a glass of red wine into Jessica's hand.

If Jessica still refused to take it, her chest would be pressed against by the glass.

Jessica had no choice but to reach out her hand to grab a glass of red wine that President Smith gave her.

"President Smith, I'm not feeling well recently. I was not able to drink it, shall I?" Jessica's face was taut and pale. When that man repeatedly persuaded her to drink the wine, she became more suspicious of it.

"It's just a glass of red wine. You do not show respect for me if you refuse to drink it." Obviously, President Smith didn't want to let Jessica go.

He had been thinking about this woman for a few nights since she escaped from the business club last time. Now that he saw her tonight, he definitely wanted to stay with her much longer or even sleep with her.

Jessica was speechless at that moment, but it seemed that she could only drink this glass of wine.

While she was about to drink the wine, Jessica did not expect that she was stopped by a slender hand and then a man took the glass from her hand.

“President Smith, I’m afraid that you would not want others to hear the news that you find faults with a small actress in this way, right?”

Chapter 39 It Was Obvious

At the same time, they looked at the owner of the hand, and it was Jacob again!

Jessica’s sight immediately shifted from Jacob to the distance. As expected, she saw Timothy looking at her.

She felt that it was like a warm stream slowly flowing into her heart. Timothy had never been with her since he got out of the car.

But he had been observing her silently, helping her over and over again when she was in danger.

Timothy greeted Jessica by raising his red wine glass to toast in the distance.

Of course, because the way they communicated with each other was so secretive that no one else could understand.

On the other hand, President Smith had already known that Jessica would be attractive to Timothy.

It just happened that Timothy was there so he helped Jessica in the club last time, but what about this time?

He helped the same person for twice, what a coincidence!

As Timothy was a Mr. Big Shot in the entertainment industry and even the entire economic circle, so President Smith came up with an idea to draw Timothy to his side.

"It seems that Timothy is going to be the knight of the beauty today. I will punish myself with this shot. Please forgive me for my offense."

President Smith drank two glasses of red wine in a row and began to flatter Jacob.

President Smith would never have any interaction with Timothy tonight or in the future because that man was mysterious and had no weaknesses.

It was hard for them to curry favor with him.

But Jacob was different.

"Well, you can get out of here." Jacob fumbled with his ears and looked impatiently at President Smith.

President Smith was afraid that he would really mess up with Jacob and left with a smile.

Jessica looked at the old man who had been arrogant to her a moment ago had no dignity at all now. She could only sigh that people were so different from each other!

"Jessica, you look so beautiful today. My brother is a lucky man." After President Smith left, a smile immediately appeared on Jacob's face, making Mrs. Kimi, who was watching from the side, feel so shocked.

Even the most dandy and unruly Jacob was so polite to Jessica. She would definitely be in good luck.

0

56 AM

"Your brother asked you to come?" Jessica asked.

"You look so beautiful that all other women at the dinner party were invisible for us. Even if my eldest brother doesn't ask me to come, I will come to you anyway. Everyone wants to stay with beautiful women."

Jacob's words were sweeter than honey.

People loved being praised anyway. After hearing his words, she was naturally in a better mood.

"Jessica, that's Leon, an excellent director. I heard that he's preparing a new movie. Why don't you meet him?"

Just as Jessica was having a good chat with Jacob, Mrs. Kimi reminded her excitedly.

Leon was a senior director who had been in the film industry for decades. All the movies he invested in had been highly praised at home and abroad.

He had even been dubbed the "God of Directors."

In the entertainment industry, one would be popular even if he or she only played a supporting role in Leon's plays.

Of course, Leon was harsh on the actress's selection. He didn't want actresses who had cosmetic surgery. Every time the heroine of the movie was selected by him.

Jessica did not forget why she was coming to this reception party tonight. Jacob took a hint and found an excuse to leave.

Jessica walked up to Leon, neither flattering nor aloof. Instead, she said in a tone of respect for his seniors, "Hello, Director Leon."

Leon, who looked like observing a pot of exotic flowers, turned around and looked at Jessica in confusion. "Hi, you are...?"

"My name is Jessica Sandgren. When I was at school, I admired you very much. I'm very excited to see you here tonight."

Jessica did not say that she was an artist signed by YH Entertainment. She knew that Leon had met many artists who wanted to get close to him. She only told him her name, which meant that she was really just a small fan, just chatting with him.

After hearing Jessica's brief self introduction, Leon looked at the little girl in admiration.

He thought that this little girl, like the other artists tonight, wanted to recommend herself to perform his new work, but she didn't, which made him like her a lot.

"I'm old. I can't keep up with young people like you." Leon was very modest.

"That's impossible! I think a lot of your thoughts are very thought-provoking for young people. For example, your recent movie has left a deep impression on me. It reminded me that with the development of science and technology, we are more and more inseparable from mobile phones and ignore the reality..."

Jessica began to talk to Leon, but Mrs. Kimi, who was standing aside, couldn't say a word.

She felt that Jessica had changed drastically in these three years. It seemed that there were fewer and fewer things she could help Jessica along the way in the future.

Alas, the child will grow up and leave anyway.

Q57 AM

At a time when she should be happy for Jessica, Mrs. Kimi became more and more melancholy.

Jessica and Leon talked for almost half an hour, and in the end, Leon asked Jessica which entertainment company she was from.

Jessica also said her company's name openly.

"Chatting with you is the most relaxing time of my night. I thought you little girls wouldn't understand my old fashioned thoughts, haha." Leon handed a business card to Jessica. "This is my personal number."

Jessica suppressed her excitement and accepted the business card politely.

She watched Leon leave, but the great director walked a few steps away and suddenly came back.

"Miss Sandgren, you are very lovely. You look very much like a person I met a few years ago. I have a strong feeling that we will work together soon."

"A person? Can I ask who it is?" This was the first time someone had said that she looked like someone else. Jessica was eager to know the answer.

"You'll meet her, goodbye."

Leon really left this time. When his figure disappeared at the door of the villa, Mrs. Kimi was so excited that she hugged Jessica immediately.

"Jessica, did you hear that? The director said he wanted to work with you in the future. Oh my god, he is Leon! He actually said that to you. It felt like a dream."

Jessica laughed at Mrs. Kimi's excited gesture and kindly reminded her, "Okay, okay. If you continue hugging me, maybe the other guests think we're lesbians."

Mrs. Kimi immediately let go of Jessica.

Just then, Jessica's phone rang.

She looked at the caller id and saw that it was Timothy calling.

"Mrs. Landy, may I have the honor to invite you to the upstairs tonight?"

Timothy's voice sounded deeper than ever. His voice made Jessica feel the pleasure of limp and numbness.

Jessica glanced at the garden of the villa. Timothy had already disappeared.

"Where are you?" Jessica asked.

"Look up."

Jessica raised her head.

Above the tall building of the villa, a man stood on the edge of the glass railing, with one hand casually holding the railing

Although the night shrouded the man's features, Jessica could still imagine the man's attentive look when he looked at her.

Jessica ran into the villa. During the time she went upstairs, they continued to talk

Timothy counted Jessica's walking speed so clearly that every few seconds, he would tell her exactly where to go.

Thanks to Timothy, the military advisor, Jessica quickly arrived at the balcony where Timothy was.

As soon as she stood at the door, she saw Timothy opening his arms at her.

Jessica ran straight to Timothy and gently threw herself into his arms.

"Why are you here all of a sudden?"

Timothy must have been too busy socializing tonight, but he stayed at the party just for half an hour and ran away.

"Just leave the people downstairs to my mother and Jacob. I don't have a wife with me all night. I'm not interested in anything."

Timothy pressed his thin lips against Jessica's ear and said something sweet.

The heat from the man's mouth was like a feather gently scratching Jessica's neck, making her have goosebumps all over her body.

"You have such a sweet mouth." Jessica felt that she didn't know how to answer the man.

Timothy chuckled, put his arms around Jessica's waist, and kissed her.

He preferred to love the woman in front of him rather than socialize with others under the villa.

The lasting and tender kiss lasted for two or three minutes. Finally, Jessica felt that the man seemed to have a faint tendency to go further. She began to struggle.

“Timothy, there are so many people downstairs.”

Jessica’s cheeks were so red. With today’s fresh and seductive makeup, she looked like a fairy with fatal seduction.

“It’s okay. Those people can’t see it. Besides, tonight’s guests can only walk on the first floor of the villa’s garden.

They can’t go upstairs.”

Timothy could not help but comfort his sweet wife.

“Go back to our room, huh?” The implication in Timothy’s words was already very obvious. This villa was Timothy’s home, his bedroom, and their bedroom.

“No... Timothy... Ah...”

Before Jessica could finish her words, she was picked up by Timothy.

Chapter 40 No, No, No

“It’s useless saying no.” Timothy carried Jessica inside after finished speaking.

Jessica rolled her eyes helplessly. “You knew I got my period last night, didn’t you? I’m still in my period now.”

“Mrs. Landy, I just want to go back to our room with you. What are you thinking about?”

He only teased her. In fact, Timothy did not intend to have sex with Jessica even if she did not say it.

After all, it was hard for him to forget what happened last night.

Jessica was so embarrassed that she suddenly didn't want to talk to him.

Timothy held Jessica back to their room while something happened in the bathroom on the first floor of the villa.

It was the bathroom in the villa, so there was no sign of a man and a woman.

When a middle-aged man came out of the bathroom, a sweet voice sounded.

"President Smith..."

The middle-aged man looked at the woman who called him. It was Louise, the top actress of TY Company.

"Miss Sandgren." President Smith thought Louise was sexually attractive, so he stared at her bosoms infatuatedly. It seemed that he wanted to have sex with her now.

Louise was inferior to Jessica in terms of appearance, but she was so hot that her figure would cause men's sexual excitement as they looked at her. Especially her big boobs, which made men eager to touch them.

"I heard that President Smith recently invested in a TV drama. I wonder if there's any character in it that is suitable for me?"

As Louise spoke, she slowly walked towards President Smith. The man instantly smelled her perfume, which made him slow.

Seeing the man was obsessive about her, Louise was pleased with herself inwardly.

Actually, she specially waited for President Smith at the door of the bathroom. Although Simon treated her the same as before on the surface, Louise had a strong feeling that she would soon be abandoned by the TY Company

Therefore, she must find a backer before she was abandoned, or all her efforts would be in vain.

President Smith was Louise's target.

When Louise walked up to President Smith, he reached out his fat hand and directly put it around her waist.

After that, they closed the bathroom door.

President Smith pushed Louise against the door and began to fondle her.

"Miss Sandgren, why don't you let me try you out now?"

President Smith had worked in the entertainment business for more than ten years, so he had already known very well about the situation of female stars throwing themselves at him.

What Louise said today had hinted that she would do anything as long as he could give her a role.

"Okay." Louise gave him the come-on with her pure face. Her hands slowly moved down his chest and finally, she put them on the belt.

His belt was unbuckled with a click.

They naturally continued.

The bathroom was soundproof, so people outside could not hear Louise and President Smith's voices at all.

Louise whose hair was a little messy came out of the bathroom about ten minutes later.

Perhaps it was because she had been standing on one foot in the bathroom for too long, she felt very uncomfortable walking.

When Louise went out of the bathroom, she saw Simon standing outside.

A look of panic flashed across Louise's face, but it soon disappeared.

"Simon, why are you here?" Louise walked up to him with a smile and was eager to please him.

"You spent more than 20 minutes in the bathroom. Louise, did you do something that betrayed me in there?" Simon said coldly. The reason why he cooperated with Louise tonight was that he had listened to his sister.

"How... How is that possible? I had eaten something wrong, so I stayed in the bathroom a little longer. Besides,

I'm a woman, and I have to fix my makeup."

Louise spoke in the same tone as usual so that Simon did not notice anything

wra

"You'd better not." He turned around and left after finishing speaking.

Louise looked at Simon's back and grasped the evening dress tightly with her hands. When she loosened it, the place where she had grasped was already wrinkled.

The dinner was underway in an orderly manner. But Jessica who was carried back to the room by Timothy suffered.

Timothy kissed her from time to time, and the duration of their kisses increased.

Moreover, he began to stroke her. Jessica had to tell herself that she must not indulge in his handsome face, and at the same time, she needed to resist.

It was... too tiring!

There was no doubt that Timothy was very good at flirting. After resisting for more than 20 minutes, Jessica found her body limp.

"You go back first. Be careful on the way, okay?" Timothy was close to Jessica and kissed her delicate collarbone with his thin lips.

He had been arousing her, but he had no intention of really sleeping with her.

"Well... It's getting late... Timothy, I should go downstairs, or others will suspect me. Moreover... Ms. Kimi is waiting for me downstairs."

Jessica couldn't even say a word clearly now. She had done nothing, but she was already very limp.

Timothy smoothed her slightly messy clothes and gave Jessica a peck on the forehead.

“Go ahead.”

Jessica hurried to leave Timothy’s bedroom, tugged her evening dress, and ran all the way.

When she belted down the stairs of the villa, she found that there were fewer guests in the garden outside.

One-third of the guests were gone, and those who left were the more important figures.

The rest were either the bosses of companies or the stars who wanted to expand their network.

Jessica didn’t want to make friends with any of them.

Jessica moved around the garden to look for Ms. Kimi. As Jessica was about to call her and ask where she was, Mrs. Kimi called Jessica first.

“Jessica, can you let Mr. Landy take you home? One of my actors just caused trouble, so I drove away first.”

Ms. Kimi sounded very anxious at the other end.

“All right.”

Jessica hung up and was about to leave.

The Landy family’s villa was situated in a rich neighborhood, so there were no taxis near the neighborhood.

If she wanted to take a taxi, she had to walk a long distance.

Therefore, she must leave now, lest it would be too late.

Jessica thereupon walked to the door of the villa, but Simon, who suddenly emerged stopped her.

Jessica was disgusted when she saw Simon.

"A lot of leading figures of the entertainment industry came to the banquet, isn't it a pity to leave so early?" Simon ridiculed her. "Or do you think President Smith alone can make you successful and famous?"

"It's none of your business whether or not he can make me successful and famous."

Jessica glanced at Simon coldly. When she was forced to drink by President Smith, this man must have seen and misunderstood.

However, she disdained to explain. It served Simon right for not knowing that Louise had cuckolded him.

Jessica's perfunctory attitude instantly made Simon unhappy.

He reached out and grabbed Jessica's wrist. "Jessica, you'd better stop before it's too late. If I deal with you, I'll ruin your reputation in the entertainment business."

Since this woman signed the contract with the YH Entertainment, many of his company's good resources had been taken away by her.

Jessica sneered. "President Capen, please destroy me. I'm looking forward to it."

After saying that, she shook off Simon's hand. "I defy you to destroy me before I do that."

Jessica walked past Simon with a scornful smile.

She would remember all the people who had hurt her!

Simon

stared after

in astonishment and glinted malevolence in his eyes.

Ever since what happened that night, he had disliked Louise intensely.

When Simon compared the two women, he felt that Jessica was better than Louise.

He didn't intend to deal with Jessica, but she was ungrateful. Then she could not blame him for ruining her career.

After Jessica disappeared at the entrance of the villa, Cherry who stood aside came out with her hands folded around her chest.

"Simon, do you think a woman like Jessica will change her mind after knowing that you have betrayed her?"

You should remember now, you have to be ruthless if you want to be a leading figure! Women are just your chips."

When Cherry said this to belittle women, she did not realize that she was a woman.

All she could think of was the good looking face of Timothy.

She planned to seduce this man sometime, and she didn't know if he was good in bed!

Jessica had no idea about their dirty thoughts. She was walking alone on the deserted road.

The more she walked to the side of the road, the fewer people there were.

It was because many people who bought a villa in this neighborhood did not live in it.

Jessica suddenly had a bad feeling, so she quickened her pace to the road.

She didn't notice that three furtive men were following her.

When Jessica walked to the road, a man behind her covered her nose and mouth with a wet towel.

At the same time, the other two men dragged Jessica into a car, which took less than ten seconds.

Jessica had never expected such a thing to happen, so she resisted desperately. However, she quickly lost
