The Man's Decree Chapter 373

Chapter 373 Explosion Pill

At the mansion of the Jantz family.

Zachariah stood respectfully in Venicus's room with a beautiful wooden box in his hand.

At the moment, Venicus was sitting on the bed with his eyes closed while conjuring magic with his hands. Balls of green flames were floating around like wisps.

Zachariah was amazed by what he saw. Even as a Master of internal energy, that was the first time he saw such an astonishing technique.

Huff!

Suddenly, Venicus shouted, and the green flames melded together, followed by a deafening explosion.

Boom!

The jarring noise was so loud that all the glassware in the room rattled.

After the flames exploded and the smoke dissipated, a green-colored pill appeared in Venicus's hand.

"This is an explosion pill. After consuming it, it can instantly double your strength. However, it only lasts for three hours. Once the time is up, you will return to your original state," Venicus explained before he casually tossed the explosion pill to Zachariah.

"Thank you, Master Venicus. Here, this is a thousand-year-old ginseng. Please take it as an offering from me to you," Zachariah placed the wooden box on the table and said.

“Good!” Venicus nodded and waved his hand, signaling Zachariah to leave the room.

After Zachariah went out of the room, Venicus’s face broke out in excitement. He jumped down from his bed and opened the wooden box. Then, he carefully put the thousand-year-old ginseng into his pocket.

In actuality, many mages were able to create an ordinary pill like the explosion pill. However, not many people from the martial arts world knew about this. Therefore, they would worship mages as a god. After all, they were oblivious due to the difference in their profession.

Venicus was overjoyed to have obtained a thousand-year-old ginseng in exchange for an ordinary explosion pill.

“Mr. Jantz, it took you a lot of effort to find the thousand-year-old ginseng, and you’re just giving it away?” Puzzled by his decision, Leonardo asked when he saw Zachariah walking out of Venicus’s room

“Hahaha! What would you know?” Zachariah exclaimed with the explosion pill in his hand. “This pill will instantly double my strength, and I’ll be undefeatable in the arena tomorrow! Do you think I’m just fighting for the Whitaker family’s assets? No, I want the whole Warriors Alliance! I want to be the leader! With this explosion pill, everyone will have to obey me!”

“As expected of Mr. Jantz.”

Leonardo didn’t expect Zachariah’s end goal to be the Warriors Alliance.

The next morning, many people rushed to the arena venue on the outskirts of Summerbank. Among them were people from martial club families in the Warriors Alliance and many people from business families.

Anthony brought the Department of Justice and set up a perimeter around the area to prevent anything unexpected from happening.

He was well aware that the Department of Justice couldn’t interfere in the affairs of the Warriors Alliance. Even if something brutal happened, the Department of Justice could only watch. However, he was responsible for protecting the safety of the surrounding area.

Jared took Josephine and Tommy along and followed the people from the Phoenix Regiment to the venue.

Lizbeth, on the other hand, was on the move with the Department of Justice. She was an investigator, after all.

“Phoenix, don’t force yourself when you’re fighting against Zachariah later. Only kill when you can, and retreat if you can’t. The Jantz family’s days are numbered anyway,” Jared warned Phoenix in the car.

“Don’t worry, Mr. Chance. I have full confidence in this fight!”

Phoenix smiled.

Jared could tell that the woman had accumulated a substantial amount of strength over the years. Otherwise, she wouldn’t be this confident.

Soon, the car finally rolled to a stop at the entrance of the venue. Dozens of investigators from the Department of Justice could be seen standing guard at every entrance, checking every vehicle.

Lizbeth walked over and advised, “Jared, you have to be careful. There are many people from the Jantz family, and all of them are experts. One of the cars just drove past the investigators and nobody knew who was in the car.”

“I got it.” Jared nodded.

Lizbeth waved her hand to let Jared's car into the venue.

When they entered, they passed by some more investigators who were guarding the place. However, with Phoenix by his side, they easily gained access.

The moment Jared and Phoenix got off the car, they immediately attracted the attention of the crowd.

After all, the fight between Phoenix and Zachariah was the main event of the arena that day. Everyone was excited to see who will come out victorious.

"Mr. Jantz, isn't that Jared?"

At that moment, Leonardo pointed at Jared, who was standing right beside Phoenix.

Zachariah frowned. He glared at them with eyes full of killing intent. After all, the enemy was right in front of him, and it was only natural for him to be angry.

"Why is Jared together with Phoenix?"

Zachariah was confused.

Leonardo shook his head as he didn't know the answer to the question either.

"What the f*ck..."

Wilbur, who was behind Zachariah, was infuriated when he saw Jared. He immediately rushed toward him.

"Jared, you must have quite the balls to show up at this place! I will kill you today and avenge my sister!"

Wilbur stomped toward Jared and immediately threw a punch at him.

However, Jared didn't dodge the punch, nor did he retaliate. It was Phoenix who reached out to grab Wilbur by the wrist and gave him a stern warning. "Wilbur, if you dare lay a finger on Jared, I will make your life a living hell."

Phoenix's tone sounded so threatening that it sent chills down Wilbur's spine.

He was well aware that compared to Phoenix's strength, he was evidently inferior.

"Wilbur, get back here!" Zachariah shouted at Wilbur.

Wilbur snorted at the two of them before turning back to Zachariah.

At the moment, the crowd had their eyes glued to Jared.

Recently, Jared's name was prevalent among the martial arts families. However, many of them had never seen him in person.

"What the hell? This is Jared? He looks so young. How did he destroy the Whitaker family at such a young age?"

"Why is Phoenix with him? And why is she protecting him? Are they lovers?"

"Shush! Cut the nonsense! Be careful not to get yourself into trouble. Didn't you hear her addressing him as Mr. Chance? Seems like the young man is not an average person."

"Ooh, I bet a good show's coming our way. It seems that the Jantz family and the Phoenix Regiment will be fighting to the death!"

Everyone began discussing among themselves. They were all looking forward to the fight.

Phoenix led Jared to his seat, and they were seated opposite the Jantz family. The people from the Jantz family glared at Jared with eyes full of anger, but Jared couldn't be bothered by it. Instead, he kept his gaze trained on the person next to Zachariah, who was wearing a hat with his head lowered all while stuffing his face with snacks.

Jared couldn't see the face of the man in the hat. However, he could feel a surge of spiritual energy from the man's body.

Everyone in the martial arts world exuded a faint aura from their bodies. However, this man was surging with spiritual energy, and Jared couldn't help but keep his eye on him.

“Did the Jantz family also recruit a cultivator?” Jared frowned slightly. But after some meticulous observation, he realized that the spiritual energy of that man was faint, unlike an energy cultivator.

“Be careful up there,” Jared warned Phoenix.
