

Chapter 451

Even Tom was stunned as he didn't expect Master of the State to invite him.

After all, he was actually a big shot.

In particular, the Master of the State in front of him had a very strong background. If he could strike a relationship with Master of the State, he would acquire a higher status accordingly.

Tom did not hesitate, he smiled and agreed only after an instantaneous thought, "Since Your Excellency has invited me, I cannot refuse if you insist."

Master of the State laughed, looking especially happy.

Half an hour later, Tom arrived at an old urban residential community and went into the Master of the State's house. He was immediately surprised as he did not expect the Master to live in such a humble place.

With his distinguished status, how could he not live in a luxury villa!

Master of the State noticed Tom's surprise and said with a smile, "What? Are you surprised that I live here?"

Tom nodded honestly.

"Haha." Master of the State smiled and said, "It's normal for you to feel surprised. Most people assume that the Master of the State deserves to live an extravagant life."

Tom looked at the Master of the State and felt his honesty and uprightness, which was different from the other people in power he had met.

Moreover, he could tell that Master of the State was not pretending.

Now he could feel some imposing power hidden around him, apparently from those who guard the Master of the State to protect him in the shadow.

Master of the State took out the key and opened the door. When Tom came in, he found that the house inside was even more humble, which looked completely ordinary. If Tom hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he wouldn't have believed it was true!

Master of the State could be one of the few fancy titles. He had the ultimate power in G State. He even was considered as the power behind the throne in G State. It was really incredible that he lived in such a humble house now.

And Tom respected him even more.

"A lot of people have sent gifts to me such as villas more spacious and luxurious than you could ever imagine, but I didn't take any one of those. Tom, you're smart. Guess why?" When he came in, he personally poured Tom a glass of water and asked with a smile. Tom quickly stood up and took it with both hands.

"I guess Your Excellency's uprightness and great ambition don't allow you to accept such superficial benefits." Tom said seriously.

"Hahahaha..." The Master of the State laughed after hearing this. "Tom, you misunderstood me. I'm not that noble. Who could resist the temptation of wealth and noble reputation? Who doesn't want to enjoy all those things? It's just that I don't deserve it!"

Master of the State took a sip of water and said, "Our country is still developing, so many of our compatriots are still suffering and facing all kinds of disasters, I would be shameless if I live and enjoy the extravagant life."

Tom was stunned. He really didn't expect that Master of the State would do it for this reason, but when he saw the sadness and helplessness in the Master's eyes, he knew that Master of the State really meant that. It was his real thoughts.

He couldn't help but shudder and respect Master of the State even more!

"Your Excellency, you have done a good job." Tom said respectfully.

"No!" The Master of the State shook his head and said. His eyes suddenly became sharp. "It's not even close to being enough! Tom, do you know how many poor people in G State are suffering? Especially the people who suffered from the disaster this time. I could have done better, but I didn't do it well! Tom, so many of my countrymen are still suffering. As the Master of the State, how can I live an extravagant life?!"

Master of the State was only in his sixties, but his hair was grey and his face was much more lined. He looked like an old man in his seventies. However, even though he looked so old, what he said was also moving! His words resounded through the state.

Tom was stunned.

Then, Master of the State made a move that shocked Tom. He saw the Master clasp his fists and bow deeply to Tom, saying, "Tom, tonight I represent those fellow countrymen in suffering to express our sincere gratitude to you, for this 19.13 billion donation!"

Tom was shocked and quickly stood up. He held the Master of the State up and said, "Oh, I don't deserve this. Your Excellency, I don't deserve this!"

Master of the State smiled and said, "Tom, it's a blessing for the people of G State to have an outstanding young man like you."

Tom was a little embarrassed by the praise, scratching his head, he said, "Your Excellency, to be honest, I didn't donate all my money tonight for charity, but for the identity of Charity Ambassador. After all, I killed some people a while ago."

In fact, after Tom said this, he was also nervous. He was not sure how the Master of the State would react. After all, no matter in which country or era, killing people was a felony.

The Master of the State seemed to see through Tom's thoughts. He smiled and did not respond to Tom. Instead, he changed the subject and said, "Come on, Tom, try my Longjing tea. I planted the tea tree myself and only had a little harvest this year."

Tom breathed a sigh of relief, understanding that the Master of the State would not punish him for his crime. Although he was now highly cultivated, he should not go against the authorities.

Next, Tom stayed with the Master of the State and chatted while drinking tea. There was a huge span of age between the two of them, but they still had a good conversation.

It was not until evening that Master of the State and his wife ask Tom to stay for dinner. They were so enthusiastic that he could not refuse, so he had to stay for dinner.

Finally, when he came out of the Master of the State's house, Tom still felt a little dizzy. He actually met Master of the State, the most powerful man in the state.

Before leaving, the Master of the State roughly mentioned the Military Intelligence 3 and implicitly told Tom that the Military Intelligence 3 was very dangerous, and he should carefully make a choice.

Tom naturally understood the implication of the Master of the State's words. In fact, he knew that the people of Military Intelligence 3 could find him, which indirectly showed that the Military Intelligence 3 was a very dangerous place, and there were really openings.

After all, it was difficult for ordinary people to enter such an important organization without sufficient qualifications. In particular, the background of its staff was the most important. Every staff was innocent. Tom, however, was not innocent.

However, the more dangerous things were, the greater the benefits would be. Once he entered the Military Intelligence 3 and earned himself a position, Tom would be more superior.

Tom left the Master of the State's house and went straight home.

Two days passed in a flash. In these two days, Tom's reputation had once again grown. After all, donating so much money at one go, becoming the Charity Ambassador, and being invited by the Master of the State were all things that everyone envied.

As for Bard, he was about to go crazy.

His 8.8 billion dollars was simply in vain!

No matter how rich he was, he felt pity for the money wasted. Moreover, he was finally taken down by the Master of the State, which was a great humiliation. Now he felt that he had become a joke, and these were all brought by this guy, Tom!

At the thought of it, he was furious.

"Mr. Perez, can you kill Tom or not?"
Bard stared at Sean with red eyes.

Sean sat on the sofa, playing with two iron eggs with his right hand. Suddenly, with one hand squeezing hard, there came the sound of cracking. The solid iron eggs were actually smashed by him and became a ball of iron residue.

He looked at Bard with a half-smile and said, "What do you think?"

Bard was shocked, then his eyes lit up and he bowed deeply to Sean. "Mr.
Perez, please!"

Chapter 452

Three days passed in a flash.

Tom had been living a relatively relaxed life, but without lowering his guard. He knew that Sean would bother him soon.

He was now the Charity Ambassador, and Sean had to think twice if he really wanted to kill him!

He did not think that LT Organization was powerful enough to challenge the authorities.

But anyway, he knew his own strength was the most important.

It was not very likely for him to win Sean, because he was only at the third stage of Innate Realm while Sean was at the fourth stage.

The battle between him and Sean would start sooner or later. And the more prepared he was, the higher his chances of winning.

Therefore, in the past few days, he had focused on cultivation and kept imagining the scenario of fighting with Sean so that he could make as few mistakes as possible when the day came.

Phoebe went to a business party. As the party was about to end, Phoebe called him and asked him to pick her up.

Tom immediately changed clothes and drove there.

After hanging up the phone, Phoebe said to a well-dressed young man in front of her, "Thank you for helping me out just now, Mr. Perez!"

"You're welcome. It's my honor to help such a beautiful and elegant lady like you." The well-dressed young man said elegantly. He was slender and dressed in a decent suit. He looked handsome and attracted the attention of many women.

And he looked at Phoebe with excited eyes.

If Tom had been here, he would have recognized Sean!

Sean left a good impression on Phoebe.

Sean helped her out at the party and even offended some big bosses. She was very grateful to Sean.

Phoebe was wearing a black evening dress tonight, which set off her fair skin and made her look as noble, elegant, and charming as Snow White.

Phoebe's beauty made Sean even more excited.

Sean coveted Phoebe.

He had thought this business party would be very boring and hadn't expected that he could meet such a gorgeous woman. He got active immediately after seeing Phoebe.

Phoebe didn't say anything more, so he walked half a step closer to her and said with a pretty smile, "Miss Scott, I drove my car here. May I drive you home?"

Phoebe shook her head and declined him. "Thank you, Mr. Perez, but I just called my husband. He's on his way here."

Hearing this, Sean immediately frowned, and a trace of gloom flashed in his eyes. He pretended to be surprised and asked, "So you're married?"

Phoebe could see Sean's admiration for her and said with a smile, "Yes, I've been married for five years."

Sean was a little disappointed, but he had another desire. He thought it would be exciting to conquer another man's wife.

"Really? Please introduce your husband to me. I would like to know how outstanding he is so that he can have you as his wife." Sean said.

Phoebe smiled and did not respond.

It was not long before Phoebe saw Tom walking towards her. And she walked towards Tom, waving and called him in a happy tone, "Tom, I'm here."

Tom heard her voice and looked in this direction. Sean also looked in Tom's direction. Immediately, their eyes met.

Tom's heart missed a beat. He thought, "Why was Sean here?"

Sean was also startled, and then he immediately realized that Phoebe's husband was Tom. His eyes narrowed and his face became gloomy.

Phoebe walked up to Tom quickly and took Tom's arm affectionately. She kissed Tom on the face and said happily, "Tom, you're here. I'd like to introduce you a new friend who had just helped me out at the party."

"Really?" Tom smiled and looked away from Sean's face.

After a while, Phoebe took Tom's arm and walked to Sean. She said with a smile, "Mr. Perez, let me introduce my husband to you. This is my husband, Tom."

Then she said to Tom, "Tom, this is Mr. Perez, Sean. I'm grateful to him for helping me out just now. Otherwise, I would definitely be drunk now."

After saying that, she realized something was wrong. Tom and Sean glared at each other. She felt the air suddenly stiffened with tension!

She was not stupid. She immediately realized that Tom and Sean had known each other before, and furthermore, they were enemies.

"Huh, what a coincidence. I didn't expect the woman I like to be your wife." Sean suddenly gave a wicked smile, totally different from his previous self who looked elegant and decent.

When Phoebe saw him like this, she immediately frowned, and the good impression he left on her disappeared.

Tom squinted at Sean and said, "Sean, you are already the most powerful master at the fourth stage of Innate Realm. Don't you feel shameless to pick up with an ordinary woman around me? Maybe you don't regard yourself as my rival, so you decide to threaten me with the people around me? Does LT Organization teach you that?"

Phoebe realized that there was an irreconcilable grudge between Tom and Sean, and she immediately became nervous. She grabbed Tom's arm, and felt very uncomfortable at Sean's evil aura.

And she was scared. She had not expected Sean to be a bad person.

When Sean heard Tom's words, he burst into laughter and stared at Tom, "I need to threaten you with the people around you? What a joke!"

After that, he took a step forward, his eyes fixed on Tom with murderous intentions. "Tom, you bastard! Anna once betrayed the organization and married your father, she was a shame! And your existence is a greater shame. You have no right to live in this world!"

At this moment, his aura was so dominating that Phoebe could not bear it. Her face was pale and her breathing became rapid.

Tom also took a step forward to protect Phoebe behind him.

"Sean, this is what LT Organization taught you? You call me a bastard and yourself a god. How ridiculous! How dare you!" Tom did not give in at all. He became increasingly aggressive, and he stood up to confront Sean. "Whether I have the right to exist or not is not up to LT Organization nor you, Sean!"

Sean showed a grim smile. He really wanted to kill Tom right now. "It's not up to me? Then I'll show you today if it's up to me! You..."

But just as he was about to make a move, suddenly, he sensed something.

His expression suddenly changed and he turned back. He was stunned for a second, and then showed a playful expression. "It's interesting."

After saying this, he disappeared and chased after the person he had seen.

Tom also sensed something. He looked over as well and saw a beautiful red figure flashing by.

Chapter 453

Seeing this red figure, Tom immediately realized that it must be Master Sunny, whom Master Chou had told him about!

She was a top master in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. She appeared again.

Just now, Sean's intention to kill had reached its peak, and he was about to launch an attack.

With Tom's current cultivation and Phoebe as an encumbrance, if they really fought, Tom's chances of winning were actually very slim.

But at this moment, Sunny appeared.

No, to be exact, Sunny had been here and been watching them in secret. When Sean was about to attack Tom, Sunny warned Sean, which immediately alerted Sean. In this way, Sunny saved Tom.

Sunny disappeared very quickly. Even with Tom's sharp eyes, he could not follow her. In an instant, Tom saw Sunny's beautiful profile.

He had mixed feelings. He was both grateful and worried about Sunny.

"Tom, I'm sorry for causing you trouble again."

At this moment, he heard Phoebe's sad voice, which brought his mind back. He lowered his head, and saw Phoebe's guilty expression.

Tom held her face and said with a smile, "Silly, don't say that. Sean and I are enemies. Even if you had not met him tonight, there would have been no reconciliation between him and me."

Phoebe said, "But now he knows that you are married..."

Phoebe's meaning was obvious, that was, she would be a burden to Tom in the future.

Tom shook his head again and said, "Honey, don't let your imagination go wild. There is no such thing. A top master like Sean won't do anything to the ordinary people around me. Once this kind of thing gets out, he will be despised by everyone."

"Really?" Phoebe said worriedly.

Tom held her hand and said with a smile, "Of course. I've never lied to you. Well, don't think too much. It's okay. Sean is no match for me."

"Okay..." Phoebe nodded gently. She was very meek. After a pause, she wanted to say something, but she didn't say it in the end.

In fact, even if she didn't say it, Tom knew what she was going to say. She wanted to ask Tom about his conversation with Sean just now, especially Sean said that Tom was a bastard and had no right to exist in this world.

Tom stared at Phoebe and said, "Phoebe, I promise you I will be fine. When this thing is over, I will explain my background to you."

Phoebe nodded hard, "Okay!"

Then they went home together.

Tom glanced in the direction of Sunny's disappearance. There was a glint of worry in his eyes. He hoped that Sunny would be fine.

He didn't chase after her because he couldn't catch up with her, and it was meaningless.

Just as Sean was about to attack Tom, he suddenly felt a strong power warning him. He turned around and saw Sunny. He chased after her without hesitation.

He had come to G State this time for Sunny, and he just found Tom by accident.

"Sunny, you really are protecting this bastard." Sean ran with a sneer. He sped up, and chased after Sunny.

Both he and Sunny were in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, and they almost reached the Major Perfection Realm. They were so fast that ordinary people could not see them at all. With a flash in front of ordinary people's eyes, they disappeared. Those who saw them often thought they were hallucinating.

A few minutes later, they had already run more than ten kilometers to a remote park. Sunny stopped next to an artificial lake.

She stopped abruptly, as if she had lost her inertia, which was incredible.

Then, Sunny turned around, stared at Sean, and said, "Tom has never done anything to hurt the organization. Why are you targeting him?"

Sean did not answer but stared straight at Sunny and said, "Sunny, you finally show up. I've been waiting for you for a long time."

Sunny narrowed her eyes. She felt Sean's desire for her, which made her very uncomfortable. In particular, Sean was looking her up and down, which was extremely annoying!

"Sean, are you following me?" Sunny said coldly.

Tom walked slowly towards Sunny. Step by step, he gradually got closer to her. Not long after, he was standing three meters away from Sunny. He could smell the fragrance coming from Sunny, making his desire burn.

"Sunny, the Saint King once ordered that all the members of the organization should not help the bastard that Anna gave birth to. However, you pretend to obey orders without actually executing them. I wonder what the Saint King will do to you if I tell him about this!" Sean said with a fake smile. He really should be taught a lesson for the manner in which he behaved. When Sunny saw him like this, she, who was cold and arrogant, couldn't help but feel angry.

Sean did not say anything. The Saint King had indeed given such an order. If Sean really told the Saint King about this, she would definitely be punished!

She was not afraid of being punished, but once the Saint King found out about this, Tom would be in a very dangerous situation. With the Saint King's character, he would definitely kill Tom if he knew that Tom had grown up now.

Moreover, even aunt Anna would be implicated.

Thus, for a moment, she frowned and wanted to kill Sean.

"Do you want to kill me? You can try it. I want to know the power of your Western Territory anyway!" Sean smiled awkwardly, not afraid of Sunny at all.

He was really despicable!

Sunny took a deep breath and forced herself to calm down. He stared coldly at Sean, and said, "Sean, what do you want?"

"What do I want?" Sean showed that kind of obscene and evil expression again. He walked slowly towards Sunny, and at the same time, he showed an intoxicated expression. He took a deep breath of the fragrance from Sunny. Sunny frowned. She was so angry now that she wanted to kill Sean right away!

Nonetheless, she knew that once she did so, the consequence would be even worse because she was unable to kill Sean.

"Sunny, you know exactly what I want. Why do you ask me?" Sean laughed.

Sunny's expressions changed and she blurted out, "Sean, you should give up on this idea. I can't be your partner!"

It was no secret that Sean had long been coveting her. In fact, Sunny was sick of it.

Sean shrugged and said, "Is that so?"

Well, then I can only kill that bastard, take his head back, and ask the Saint King for credit. I believe this credit is enough for the Saint King to order you to marry me... Sunny, I heard that you have the ice element constitution in the world. If I have dual cultivation with you, I'll improve a lot. Haha!"

Chapter 454

After saying that, Sean took another step and got closer to Sunny. He took another deep breath and showed an intoxicated expression. He looked extremely sleazy.

Sunny couldn't help but slap Sean in the face.

She slapped him without any warning. She suddenly attacked, and they were so close to each other. Thus, when Sean realized it, it was too late for him to dodge it. He could only watch Sunny slap him in the face.

Slap!

It was so loud that it could be heard all over the park.

Sunny didn't try to kill Sean, but just wanted to teach him a lesson. Even so, her strength still made Sean very painful.

At that moment, Sean was slapped so hard that he fell back and half of his face went numb. After a while, he began to feel a burning pain and his mouth was bleeding.

A sudden surge of anger rose from his chest to his head!

He vented his anger, "Sunny! You bitch! You're doomed!!"

Sean's eyes turned red in an instant, and he was extremely angry. He let out a torrential roar, scaring the birds and beasts in the park. Sean's voice was so loud that it created a tiny ripple on the surface of the artificial lake.

Sunny was not afraid of him at all. She sneered and felt happy.

The next moment, Sean launched a fierce attack on Sunny. His eyes were sharp. Even it was at night, there seemed to be two fires burning in his pupils.

What brought the greatest pressure to people was his imposing manner, which made the air around him solidify. He seemed to have formed a prison cage, with no place for Sunny to escape.

Even for someone like Sunny, she felt the pressure in an instant and hesitated for a moment.

However, she was the top master in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. Her cultivation was not inferior Sean's. She snorted coldly and was not affected by Sean. Soon, she began to fight back.

Fortunately, it was late at night, and this park was relatively remote, so there were no people. Otherwise, when these two top masters fought, it would be very noisy. If they were photographed, they would be in the headlines.

Now, there were masters of the Innate Realm in this world, but there were so few that most ordinary people didn't know about them. Once ordinary people saw them, they would think they met supermen.

Sean's style was feminine, like a venomous snake. Each of his attacks carried a cold and gloomy air, making people uncomfortable.

On the contrary, as a woman, Sunny's style was very strong. Her attacks were violent and full of vigor, and she was like a goddess of war.

They had already done a lot of damage in half a minute of fighting.

"Sunny, you bitch, I don't expect you to be so strong. No wonder you dared to challenge me." Sean did not defeat Sunny. Several of his attacks were resolved by Sunny. Instead, each of Sunny's attacks was so violent that it jarred his hands and feet.

Similarly, Sunny was also invaded by Sean's cold air. Fortunately, she had a Yin constitution, so she soon suppressed the cold.

Then she transferred the cold into her body, which became the nourishment of her extremely Yin constitution.

Sean soon found it out. His face took on a ghastly expression.

Sunny said with a cold face, "Sean, we are equal in strength. You can't defeat me. Since we are colleagues in the organization, I can forgive you for this offense. If you dare offend me again, don't blame me for being merciless!"

Sean suddenly smiled, "Really? How can you be merciless?"

Sunny narrowed her eyes and said, "Do you think I don't know what you've done in secret all these years? I wonder what will the Saint King do to you if I tell him what you've done."

In an instant, Sean's face clouded over. He stared at Sunny, gritted his teeth, and a strong panic flashed in his eyes.

Over the years, he had indeed pretended to obey orders without actually executing them and done a lot of illegal things. If the Saint King knew about it, he would come to a terrible end!

What a bummer that Sunny got a hold over him!

Sunny continued, "Sean, I don't want to be your enemy. Let's mind our own business and don't offend each other. Otherwise, we will die together!"

After saying this, Sunny no longer lingered, turned around and left. She stepped on the water and crossed the river with a reed.

When Sean looked at Sunny's back as she left, his face clouded over, and he finally waved his sleeves and said coldly, "Sunny, I will win your heart. Wait for me!"

...

As for Tom, he was under more pressure and began to practice harder to improve his cultivation as soon as possible.

Once he was defeated by Sean, the consequences would be unimaginable, which he could not accept.

He suddenly remembered something that Sean mentioned to him when they first met.

Sean thought that the reason why his cultivation was so advanced was that he had dual cultivation with Sunny.

This was something he could not understand. What martial arts could be refined through dual cultivation? There was no such good thing in this world, and he had never heard of such a thing.

After thinking about it, he decided to ask Master Chou.

"Who's Sean?" Tom said directly after seeing Master Chou.

Master Chou was drinking tea. When he heard the word "Sean", he was so startled that he spat out his tea. Tom dodged it.

From Master Chou's reaction, Tom already got the answer he wanted. Sean must be a superior person even in LT Organization.

Master Chou said in surprise, "Young master, has Sean found you?"

"That's right." Tom nodded, and then he briefly explained what had happened these days. After Master Chou heard these, he couldn't hide the fear on his face. He stood up and paced back and forth.

Seeing him like this, Tom said again, "Tell me who he is."

Master Chou swallowed his saliva and said to Tom, "Sean is a Law Protector of the Eastern Territory in LT Organization. His cultivation has reached the peak of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. It is said that he has been practicing in the Antarctic Pole for three years, training the cold into his body. Each of his attacks can cause a lot of damage to his opponent! The most terrifying thing is that he has a talent for martial arts. When he first entered the first stage of the Innate Realm, he killed a strong man in the second stage of the Innate Realm. He can kill people beyond his level. Now that he is in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, I'm afraid that he can challenge the top master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm!"

After Tom heard this, he was also a little surprised. Nonetheless, when he thought about it carefully, he did feel that Sean was extraordinary with two fights with Sean.

Master Chou added, "In the past, Kenneth was a nonentity and there was nothing to be afraid of. However, Sean is a Law Protector of Eastern Territory. With his character, he will definitely do something to you, then take your head and ask for credit in front of the Saint King! Young master, you are in danger!"

This was the first time Tom had seen Master Chou in such a panic. It seemed that Sean was indeed a powerful person.

"It doesn't matter. The next time I see him, I'll kill him." Tom said calmly.

If it had been in the past, Master Chou would have believed it, but now, it was obvious that Master Chou's eyes were full of doubt and bitterness. He sighed and said, "Young master, I know you have a great talent for martial arts, but Sean has a higher talent in martial arts. In addition, he is already in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, a level higher than you. It's not that I don't believe you, but it's just that you are really not his opponent."

Tom smiled faintly and did not say anything. After a moment of silence, he said curiously, "There's another thing. The first time Sean saw me, he said that the reason why I was so strong was that I had dual cultivation with Sunny. What's going on? What's the secret about Sunny that I don't know?"

When Master Chou heard this, his expressions changed again, "This..."

He looked around, as if to see if Sunny was nearby.

Tom's curiosity intensified when he saw Master Chou's nervous look.

Finally, when Master Chou was sure that Sunny was not here, he gritted his teeth and walked to Tom. He whispered in Tom's ear, "This matter used to be a secret. Lord Sunny has a rare Yin constitution in the world. Those who have dual cultivation with her will obviously improve their cultivation. If they become a taoist couple, the other party will benefit greatly from long-term dual cultivation with her."

Chapter 455

Tom was stunned when he heard this.

What the hell?

Was there such a rule in this world?

If it weren't for Master Chou's more than serious expression and fear of being heard by Sunny, Tom would have suspected that Master Chou was lying to him.

After a while, Tom said, "Then who's Sunny's cultivation partner?"

Master Chou shook his head and said, "As far as I know, Master Sunny doesn't have a cultivation partner. In fact, the secret of Master Sunny's extremely Yin constitution was leaked not long ago, and not many people know it. According to what Sean has said, he obviously knows the secret."

Then Master Chou frowned again and said worriedly, "I know Sean well. Now that he knows Master Sunny's secret, he won't miss this opportunity. I'm afraid he is going to harm Master Sunny!"

Tom also nodded slightly, agreeing with Master Chou's conjecture. After briefly encountering with Sean twice, Tom could see that Sean was ambitious and would do anything to achieve his goal.

After thinking for a while, Tom said, "I want to see Master Sunny. Can you arrange it?"

Master Chou smiled bitterly and said, "Young Master, you think highly of me. I'm just a servant. How can I arrange for you to meet Master Sunny? She's an expert in the fourth stage of Innate Realm."

That was true.

Tom added, "Since she's coming to H City, she will see me sooner or later."

Master Chou thought for a moment and said helplessly, "I can't give you an answer to that either. Master Sunny is a cold and aloof person. I've never been able to guess her thoughts. However, in my opinion, Master Sunny probably will meet you once."

"Okay." Tom also knew that Master

Chou could not arrange a meeting between him and Sunny. Since this was the case, he was eager to meet Sunny.

Then, Tom asked about Sunny, and Master Chou told him everything he knew. But he didn't know much about Sunny. He only knew that Sunny was from the Western Territory in LT Organization. She was brought back to the organization by the Saintess Anna, and had a very high cultivation level. Besides, there was no further information.

At this moment, Master Chou's phone suddenly rang. He took it out and looked at it with surprise. Then he looked up at Tom and thought for a while before answering the phone.

"Hello, Master Sunny..."

Tom immediately raised his eyebrows and focused on the conversation.

On the phone, a cold female voice immediately sounded, "Tell Brother Tom that I will see him when the timing is right, and that he doesn't need to worry about Sean, I will take care of it. Just concentrate on his cultivation will be fine."

"Okay, Sunny..." Master Chou replied respectfully. Before he could finish speaking, he felt a flash in front of him. A gust of wind blew. It turned out that Tom quickly walked up to him, grabbed his phone, and said, "I want to see you now."

"Young Master, what are you..."

Tom glared at him, and Master Chou did not dare to speak.

Sunny was short of breath for a while. Instead of responding immediately, she remained silent.

After a while, Sunny's voice sounded. "It's not time yet."

"When is the right time?" Tom asked in a low voice.

Sunny did not answer.

Tom sighed inwardly. The feeling of being controlled was really uncomfortable.

After thinking for a while, he asked again, "Is my mother fine?"

Tom could not help but feel nervous when he asked this question. His mother's gentle and kind face appeared in his mind. He had not seen his mother for a long time, so he thought that his mother was dead. He did not expect her to be alive.

Now, the only family he had in this world was his mother.

"She's... Fine."

Sunny paused for a moment. Even though she quickly regained her composure, Tom still keenly noticed there's something wrong!

It seemed that his mother was not fine!

Tom was short of breath, and he grasped the phone harder. The tempered glass screen cracked when he held it.

"I can tell that my mother is not living well. Is someone bullying her?" Tom's eyes were cold with his teeth clenched, and a strong murderous intent emanated from him, causing the temperature in the room to drop several degrees. It was the first time for Master Chou to feel his stateliness, and his heart was tightened. He felt shocked, and he didn't expect that the Young Master's cultivation had become even more profound after not seeing him for some time!

Sunny was silent again. Tom hated her silence and gritted his teeth, "Tell me!"

Sunny finally spoke. Her tone was tinged with helplessness and grief, but she suppressed it as best she could. It seemed that her voice was very cold. "You don't have to ask so much. Auntie is not in danger. Besides, with your current cultivation, you can't save her. What's the use of telling you?"

Tom lost half of his strength in an instant, and his anger disappeared like a tidal wave. Slowly, it turned into bitterness, unwillingness, and self-reproach.

She's right. Even if Sunny told him, what could he do?

Not to mention fighting against the entire LT Organization, even defeating just one person, Sean, was difficult for him, so what could he do to save his mother from her suffering?

Everything depended on his strength!

All these years of hardships, setbacks had long since hardened Tom's mind. He did not let this dishearten him too much, and he soon picked himself up.

Now that he was under thirty, and he still had plenty of room for improvement!

He had survived all those difficulties in the past, and now he would not be easily defeated in the face of even greater difficulties.

"Just because I can't do anything now doesn't mean that I can't do anything for the rest of my life. I will be able to save my mother one day!" Tom said firmly. At this moment, his eyes were filled with determination, and a strong confidence came out of him.

Master Chou, on his side, was immediately shocked by him. At this moment, he felt Tom's determination and confidence of not giving in to defeating the invincible enemies. In a flash, he even developed a sense of trust in Tom that he would really one day confront LT Organization!

It seemed that Sunny, who was on the other side of the phone, also felt Tom's confidence.

She fell silent again.

But a few seconds later, she said, "You don't know about Raoul. It's normal for you to have such confidence. You don't have to worry about auntie. When the time is right, I'll get auntie out, and then you'll be reunited with her."

Sunny did not believe Tom. And even though she disguised it well, Tom still could feel it. When Tom wanted to say something else, Sunny had already hung up the phone.

Tom was in a complicated mood when he heard the busy tone on the phone.

After returning the phone to Master Chou, Tom did not stay for long and left after explaining the matter.

Next, he was going to start his retreat and do his best to break through to the fourth stage of the Innate Realm!!!

Chapter 456

Tom was now in the third stage of the Innate Realm, a step away from the fourth stage.

To be more specific, there were five cups in the Innate Realm. One cup represented a stage. Tom's third cup had 90% water, and it would be full very soon.

However, it was not enough to fill his third cup up. He had to find an opportunity to put the excess water into the fourth cup before he could break through to the fourth stage.

And Sean and Sunny both had four cups, which represented that they were in the fourth stage.

But it was not easy for Tom to take a step further.

So Tom isolated himself from the outside world to improve his cultivation after arranging everything and making sure the safety of Phoebe and her family. And he had prepared a lot of pills before doing that.

In a deep mountain forest, there was a cliff. At five o'clock in the morning, a person sitting cross-legged upside down with one finger propping himself up.

If anyone saw this, he would be too shocked to scream out!

The cliff was several hundred meters high. If he fell down, he would be crushed!

And the wind was still so strong and the mountains were howling. Ordinary people would tremble if they were lying there, not to mention propping themselves up with only one finger like him.

But the man supported himself with one finger only two centimeters away off the edge of the cliff!

Tom's body was almost hanging off the cliff. He was risking his life!

However, no matter how strong the wind was, it could only lift his clothes, but not tremble his body at all. It seemed that he was not a human being, but a flag that was firmly embedded in the rock and would not waver.

The person was Tom.

It was his third day of isolating himself from the outside world to improve his cultivation.

In half an hour, the sun would rise from the east, and the first ray of sunlight would shine on his face.

That was how he improved his cultivation. Namely, he tempered his will and broke through his limits in the wild nature.

Only this method could stimulate his potential the most.

In his opinion, it was an act of exploring heaven's secrets!

The ordinary masters at Innate Realm did not dare to do this because once they accidentally fell down, there was absolutely no chance of survival!

Only masters at Immortal Realm could survive.

Of course, only by this way could the person stimulate his potentials to the full.

The wind grew stronger and stronger, making Tom's clothes rattle. The wind had strength like that of a seven-year-old child, trying to push Tom down the cliff.

To maintain his balance, Tom's body was tilted towards the mountains and forests.

And he had already poked a half-centimeter hole with his finger.

It could be said that only Tom would use this cultivation method in the world. There were many people who improved their focus and speed up their cultivation in dangerous situations. However, Tom was no longer in a dangerous situation, but in a desperate situation. He would fall down and be broken into pieces.

Was Tom afraid?

Of course, he was scared!

On the first day, his heart was beating so fast that he almost retreated. Moreover, he almost fell down because he was mentally exhausted due to his focus.

But the next day, When the first ray of sunlight shone on his face, he regained his hope and had a mysterious experience. Then he slowly relaxed.

Now, on the third day, he was even calmer. He could clearly feel that his body had not strengthened, but his mind had been stronger. He had been fighting against death all the time. Several times, he had already felt the smell of death.

But he managed to survive. It was a great way to train his mentality!

And his spiritual strength had also increased a lot. Now it was more than twice as strong as before!

Of course, he didn't let his guard down. He was still in awe of nature and calmed down at the same time.

Half an hour later, he finally sensed the first ray of sunlight from the east shining on him.

The night was driven away, and a glorious day once again came.

This rule had never been changed for hundreds of millions of years.

And he had realized something that he had never thought about before.

Things about life, nature, and time...

Almost at the same time, he opened his eyes and saw the sun rising over the mountain. The strong light drove away the night.

Then, he started to move and tilted his body towards the cliff!

When he was about to fall, he reached out his right hand and suddenly grabbed a rock on the edge of the cliff. Then, with great strength, he flew up from the cliff with a loud roar.

The birds and animals resting in the mountains were frightened by him.

Tom was bathed in the sun and began to practice punching.

He stood at the edge of the cliff and punched again and again.

And the strength he brought, through his bare feet, was constantly transmitted to the ground. The rocks on the edge of the cliff were cracked and then fell down. It took a long time to hear the sound of the stones hitting the bottom. It was obvious that the height of the cliff was astonishing.

But Tom didn't fear or panic.

He punched again and again.

When the sun was high above his head, he stopped punching, and more than ten centers of the cliff stones under his feet had been gone!

He exhaled a long breath of turbid air, and all the flowers and plants were pressed on the ground because of his breath.

"My cultivation has improved a lot. I can kill May in less than a minute now."

A satisfied smile appeared on Tom's face, and then he said regretfully, "Unfortunately, I still haven't broken through to the fourth stage. But I may not be defeated by Sean now."

Tom clenched his fists. He was confident in his strength.

He felt a little hungry now and took out a few special pills from his bag and swallowed them in one gulp.

The pills were quickly digested in his stomach and turned into a strong heat flow that spread throughout his body. Soon, his strength recovered a lot.

He was no longer afraid of the cliff. Even if he stayed here longer, it would not be able to stimulate his potentials, so there was no need for him to waste any more time here.

So he packed his bag and left.

Instead of going down the original road, he took out a few hundred meters of hemp rope from his bag and tied it to a big tree. Then he threw the other end of the rope down the cliff. He grabbed the hemp rope and jumped straight down.

In just half a minute, he went down to the foot of the mountain, safe and sound, and this way was as fast as fall free.

When Tom returned to H City, he met two acquaintances at the entrance of the Dragon Bay, Tanya and Dax.

When they saw Tom, they walked to him quickly. Tanya said, "Mr. Howard, a week has passed. What's your decision? Would you like to join Military Intelligence 3?"

They looked haggard and their eyes were bloodshot as if they had been waiting for him for a long time. Tom asked in surprise, "You've been waiting here for a long time?"

Dax said bitterly, "Not very long, just two days and two nights. Your phone has been turned off, so we have to wait here."

Tom felt sorry. He had gone to improve his cultivation for the past three days, and his phone was turned off.

He smiled awkwardly and said, "I'm sorry. I have something to do for the past few days. Sorry to keep you waiting."

Tanya waved her hand and said, "It doesn't matter. Mr. Howard, have you made any decision? Joining us will bring you many benefits..."

Tom waved his hand and interrupted her, "Why are you in such a hurry? Did someone else die?"

Tanya shuddered, and Dax lowered his head.

At this moment, a voice came from behind Tom. "Mr. Howard is really smart. You guessed it so quickly."

Tom looked back and saw a tall, middle-aged tough man walking over.

With just one glance, Tom knew who he was.

Chapter 457

The man must be a senior member of the Military Intelligence 3. When Tanya and Dax saw him, they immediately showed respect and saluted solemnly, "Director Sunn!"

The middle-aged man nodded at them, walked up to Tom, and said in admiration, "Mr. Howard, you look younger than the photos. If I hadn't got some information about you, I really couldn't believe that you, a young man less than 30 years old, could make the amazing achievements."

As the man walked closer to him, Tom could clearly see that the man's right foot was partly amputated. Even if the man had covered it well, he could still see it. Moreover, one of the man's eyes was artificial that could not move.

In particular, the man exuded an iron-willed and hardline aura, which was so strong that you could easily tell that he had ever killed many people. But his aura did not make people feel bloody. He was not the kind of ferocious people. Tom immediately knew that the man had killed bad people only. He did that with a clear conscience and even a sense of honor.

Tom immediately held the man in respect and said politely, "Hello, Director Sunn."

Obviously, the man in front of him was at least a deputy director if he was not the deputy of the Military Intelligence 3.

To be honest, Tom was still a little surprised. Even the deputy director was highly influential and powerful. The fact that Director Sunn came to him personally indeed showed that the Military Intelligence 3 valued him very much. However, at the same time, it also indicated that the Military Intelligence 3 was short in talents and thus needed him very much.

Director Sunn looked at Tom carefully with a smile and then suddenly became serious. He saluted Tom and said in a deep voice, "Thorn, Deputy Director of the Military Intelligence 3, sincerely invites Mr. Howard to join the Military Intelligence 3!"

At the same time, Tanya and Dax also saluted Tom with an extremely serious and solemn expression. Even with an imploring look, they shouted, "Tanya, deputy head of the fourth group of the Military Intelligence 3, sincerely invites Mr. Howard to join the Military Intelligence 3!"

"Dax, a member of the fourth group of Military Intelligence 3, sincerely invites Mr. Howard to join the Military Intelligence 3!"

Their voice was so loud and clear, bringing about a thrilling resonance.

Even Tom was always composed, he could not help but be shocked and moved at this moment. A burst of enthusiasm swept over him.

In fact, at his level, it was difficult to be affected by the outside world. But now, he was affected greatly.

He could tell that they didn't pretend to want him to join the Military Intelligence 3. They were sincere.

From their eyes, Tom saw bitterness and sadness. Obviously, there were really no talents left in the Military Intelligence 3.

Originally, Tom was reluctant to join. He had already been the charity ambassador and developed a good relationship with the Master of the State. His status in the country was already relatively superior. Joining the Military Intelligence 3 would not bring him many benefits but much potential danger.

Weighing the advantages and disadvantages, Tom should not join the Military Intelligence 3. However, he was not a person driven by pure reason but a person with feelings and ambitions.

The country needed help now. It was hard for him to look coldly from the sidelines since he had the ability to offer help.

Finally, he sighed in his heart and shook his head helplessly.

Thorn and the others saw Tom's reaction and thought of it as a refusal. Their eyes darkened. Thorn sighed heavily and said, "Everyone has their own ambitions. Since Mr. Howard doesn't want to join the Military Intelligence 3, we won't force you to do so."

His eyes were filled with disappointment and bitterness.

Tom smiled bitterly and said, "Director Sunn, you misunderstood me. I'm willing to join the Military Intelligence 3."

"What?!"

In an instant, Thorn opened his eyes wide and looked at Tom with excitement, so did Tanya and Dax. Both of them felt that there was always a way out even in a dire predicament.

Tom touched his nose and said with a bitter smile, "You guys have overreacted as if I was a big shot."

Thorn laughed, patted Tom on the shoulder, and said, "Haha, Mr. Howard, with your participation in our Military Intelligence 3, we can definitely restore our glory."

Tom was even more embarrassed by the praise. Although his cultivation level was not low now, he still couldn't stand out in such a big organization as the Military Intelligence 3. He knew himself well.

Thorn seemed to be very confident in him and said with a smile, "Mr. Howard, I'm not exaggerating. Perhaps we know more about your strength even than yourself."

Tom smiled bitterly again. Thorn's praise was too considerable.

However, he was relieved after he had agreed. Since he had made up his mind, then he should do it well.

Next, Thorn held Tom's hand and chatted for a long time, mainly introducing Military Intelligence 3 and Tom's main responsibilities.

Tom was surprised that Thorn asked him to join the Military Intelligence 3 as an instructor.

"Well, Director Sunn, I'm afraid that I'm not qualified to be an instructor."

Tom said awkwardly.

Thorn said confidently, "You are definitely qualified! I have known some information about your Shield Security Company. Those newcomers have improved rapidly in a short period of time under your guidance. If you are not qualified, who else can take the position? Well, that's it. I'll ask Tanya to pick you up the day after tomorrow to the Military Intelligence 3 佛如 registration. I'll help you handle the procedures. From now on, you'll be one member of the Military Intelligence 3."

After a pause, Thorn added meaningfully, "Although there are few talents left in the Military Intelligence 3 now, we are still relatively superior in the country. As an instructor of the Military Intelligence 3, it will be much easier for you to handle matters in the country as long as you don't contravene rules and laws."

Tom, as a smart person, quickly understood what Thorn meant. That was, as long as Tom did not commit treason, he could almost do anything at his whim in the country.

Tom did not doubt that. After all, the Military Intelligence 3 itself was a superior organization.

Of course, everything had two sides. Tom's access to these conveniences was based on the danger he was exposed to. Besides, he needed to fulfill his duty well, otherwise, the promise that Thorn gave him would be in vain.

Tom shook his head as he watched Thorn and the other two go away. He didn't know how he himself had joined the Military Intelligence 3.

For the next two days, he accompanied Phoebe. They went to the surrounding cities for a day, ate some famous local snacks, and went to the amusement park. Both of them were in a much better mood.

The two of them had never hung out like this before, even though they had been married for so long. This experience was really wonderful.

The next day, Tom got up early. He got on Tanya's car and went straight to the Military Intelligence 3 base.

On the way there, Tanya told him a lot about the Military Intelligence 3. Only then did Tom slowly realize that the instructor of the Military Intelligence 3 was not an easy job. There were many recalcitrant students.

At the same time, in the Military Intelligence 3 base, there were more than a hundred people gathered in a square. With bright eyes, they were exceptionally strong, full of explosive force and ferocity. It was obvious that they were men to be trifled with.

In particular, more than a dozen of them had very strong physiques, exuding a strong iron-willed aura. They were fighting with each other, and every movement of them was especially fierce. Ordinary people could not bear to be hit by them once and even died on the spot!

"Hey, I heard that Director Sunn found a new instructor."

"Well, I also knew it."

"What's more, this new instructor is said to be a president of an entertainment company. He's under thirty years old."

"No way! How can a businessman be our instructor? Isn't that a joke? Director Sunn must not get wrong here."

"It's true. I've already heard about it from Dax. He told me this new instructor is very good at Kung Fu. All of us together are not his match."

"Huh, he is good at bragging! Is the businessman, a young man under thirty years old, qualified to be our instructor? What can he teach us? Doing business? What a joke! When this guy comes, I'll be the first to deal him a head-on blow!"

"Huh, Buffalo, don't torture the new instructor. How can he end up crying later?"

"Hahaha..."

The crowd in the square began to mock.

Just then, someone shouted, "Look,
Director Sunn brought someone here!"

Chapter 458

Ten minutes ago, Tom arrived at the Military Intelligence 3 base in Tanya's car. The high-standard facilities and solemn atmosphere impressed Tom.

From afar, the base exuded a murderous atmosphere. In Tom's mind eyes, it was not a dead thing, but a hard long spear. The head of the spear was sharp, emitting a strong and fierce aura.

This spear represents the national spirit of H Country, protecting people in H Country from the invasion of foreign races.

However, this national spear was a little old, even its head was rusty, and there were scattered gaps on the grip, showing its past glory and scars.

This feeling was complex. Only people in the third stage of the Innate Realm with a strong spirit could feel it. Ordinary people wouldn't have felt it at all.

Tom sighed inwardly. He knew that if he joined Military Intelligence 3, he would have a lot of difficulties.

As Tanya approached the base, her face was filled with pride and enthusiasm. This was her home, and she had a strong sense of belonging to it.

"Tom, we have arrived the base. From now on, we are colleagues." Tanya shook hands with Tom and said with a smile.

Tom shook her hand. "It's my honor."

Tanya blinked and said, "The honor is mine. From now on, you are my instructor."

"Really?" Tom was a little surprised.

Soon after entering the Military Intelligence 3 base, Tom saw Thorn.

Thorn looked tough in the uniform. He stood straight like a long spear, which was awe-inspiring.

"Tom, you're finally here. Welcome." Director Sunn came forward actively and shook hands with Tom, very excited.

Tom also smiled and said, "Director Sunn, I'm a newcomer. If I do something wrong, please excuse me."

Just as Thorn was about to speak, a dark-faced middle-aged man next to him snorted heavily and said unhappily, "He begins to shirk his responsibilities before he starts his work. Slippery boy. The qualities a soldier can't be seen from him! Thorn, why did you find this kid to be the fighting instructor of the Military Intelligence 3? Are you out of your mind?"

This man was hot-tempered, so Tom didn't escape from his scolding. In his opinion, Tom was skinny, young, and a businessman. He wasn't qualified to be an instructor of the Military Intelligence 3. If this news was spread to their competitor, the Division Three would be ridiculed.

He had lost a lot of talents in the Military Intelligence 3, but it would be a shame to hire a businessman to train his soldiers! This was a joke!

Tom raised his eyebrows. He was not angry, but a little dissatisfied. What was going on? Did Thorn not inform other people in the Military Intelligence 3? He had already been here. He didn't expect such a fuss.

Now Tom was not an ordinary person. He was the top expert in the third stage of Innate Realm, a superhuman. He agreed to join the Military Intelligence 3 for Thorn's sake.

Otherwise, he didn't want to come. Now that he was being ridiculed by this man, how embarrassed he was.

Thorn saw Tom's gaze, and he felt sorry. He had been too busy these two days to inform Nikolai, another deputy director. He said quickly now, "Chang, this is Tom. Right, he is young, but he is powerful. He is already a master of Innate Realm. His cultivation is unfathomable. With him as our instructor, I believe that our overall strength will be strengthened soon."

Nikolai didn't buy it at all. "A master of Innate Realm? In such a young age? Thorn, do you think I'm an idiot?"

Thorn frowned. He and Nikolai both were deputy officers, and they had been competing with each other over the years. Their relationship was not very good, especially for Nikolai's extremely arrogant and stubborn personality, so there were often friction between them.

"Nikolai, if you don't believe me, you can investigate for yourself and see if I'm abusing my power or if you're a fool!" Thorn said in a low voice.

Nikolai snorted heavily. "I don't have to investigate. I'll see if he is qualified later!"

Then, he narrowed his eyes and said coldly, "Thorn, don't blame me for not reminding you that the fight instructor of the Military Intelligence 3 is not an easy job to do. There are many proud and difficult people in the team. Not everyone is qualified to be their coach. If the businessman you found is overshadowed by our soldiers, it will be a shame!"

Thorn laughed. "Then just wait and see. Nikolai, if you don't believe me, you can challenge Tom."

After Nikolai left, Thorn looked a little embarrassed. He said to Tom, "Tom, it was my mistake not to inform Nikolai in advance."

Tom was a little dissatisfied, but he didn't express it. He waved his hand, saying he was fine, and then said directly, "He is right. My ability could prove if I'm qualified to be a Military Intelligence 3 instructor. Director Sunn, if it's OK, please take me directly to meet those students."

Thorn nodded. Before that, he had to ask Tom to change into a Military Intelligence 3 uniform and let Tanya take Tom to the dressing room.

When Tom changed into the uniform and came out, Tanya was amazed.

Tom had a good figure. He was tall and straight with the steady and calm temperament. This uniform added a bit of hardiness and perseverance on Tom. He had never dressed like that before.

In an instant, Tanya's heart beat faster.

When Tom saw her reaction, he thought he didn't look like an instructor in this uniform. He touched his nose awkwardly and said, "Why, is it ugly for me to wear this?"

Tanya came back to her senses and shook her head, "No, Tom, you look even more charming in our uniform!"

After confirming Tanya wasn't lying to him, Tom let out a sigh of relief. In fact, it was the first time for him to wear a uniform. He felt the indescribable solemnity and holiness.

Looking at himself in the mirror, he found that he was indeed looking well, which made him relieved.

Not long after, when Tom arrived with Thorn and Tanya, the hundreds of people in the square quieted down and quickly lined up, waiting for their superiors to come over, which showed their high discipline.

At the same time, the hundreds of soldiers also looked at Tom next to Thorn, and they were obviously disappointed.

The new instructor was a pretty young man, and he seemed to be very weak. Anyone of them could easily knock this young man down.

Tom's hearing was excellent. On the way here, he had heard the disdain from these students for him, but he did not take it seriously, because he glanced at them casually and saw that there was not a single powerful man of Innate Realm, and the top ten or so were just at the Extrinsic Peak who had not taken the Purification Pill. They were very ordinary.

"Salute!!"

When Tom and the others arrived, the first strong man in line shouted loudly, and then everyone saluted neatly.

Thorn was very satisfied. He gestured to them to put their hands down. Then he said with a smile, "I believe you've heard that I've found you a new instructor. It's Tom, who's next to me. He's a top expert with extraordinary skills. From now on, he'll be the instructor of your fighting class. You have to follow his instructions, understand?"

"Yes, Director Sunn!!!"

They answered in unison in a loud voice, and their voice spread across half the base and was very imposing.

Then Thorn said to Tom, "Tom, I'll leave these soldiers to you. You don't have to worry about if they could bear your training. Train them as hard as you can. The harder you are, the better they are. Train them to be useful as soon as possible!"

What a blunt thing to say.

Tom nodded, giving his affirmative answer to Thorn with a salute. Then he ran his eye over the soldiers in front of him.

"Hello, everyone. I'm Tom..."

He greeted them, but before he could finish his sentence, someone interrupted him. "Tom, we have a rule here. If you want to be our instructor, you have to pass our test first."

Chapter 459

The man who spoke was a bulky man over 1.85 meters tall and he was in the second row. He tilted his face and looked at Tom teasingly without hiding his contempt.

When the others heard him, they also looked at Tom teasingly and presumptuously. They didn't respect him because he was their new instructor.

In their opinion, they only respected the capable ones. Even if the new instructor had a powerful background, he wouldn't be respected if he was incompetent.

Tom also knew about this, so he smiled and looked at the bulky man and said,

"Okay, how do you want to test me?"

The bulky man smiled meaningfully and said, "Aren't you going to be our fight coach? Then fight us to show your ability. After all, Military Intelligence 3 only needs capable instructors."

He sounded arrogant. And others were waiting to see Tom being humiliated.

In a building not far away, in one of the windows stood a middle-aged man with a gloomy face. He was sneering. He was Nikolai, who had just left. "Thorn. I don't believe that the sissy you brought has the ability to be the instructor for the Military Intelligence 3."

Thorn did not scold the bulky man, but he just smiled. Obviously, he allowed this to happen.

Before Tom came, he had expected this to happen, so he was not surprised. Instead, he nodded and said, "No problem. Since you want to test me, come on. I want to test you to see whether you deserve my training or not."

He really meant that, but those men thought he was arrogant, and they were even more hostile to him.

Nikolai laughed when he heard this. "How arrogant this sissy is. I'm looking forward to seeing how he will be tortured by them."

"You're arrogant!"

The bulky man's face immediately darkened. He glared at Tom coldly, then walked out of the line and walked to Tom.

His body was extremely strong, and he had reached the highest stage of Master Realm. He could be considered a strong ordinary person, and he could even participate in some of the informal domestic boxing competitions.

However, he was not a match for Tom at all.

He stared at Tom with a grim smile. His eyes were filled with coldness and contempt. He twisted his neck and made a scary cracking sound

But when Tom saw that he came out alone, he frowned slightly and said in surprise, "Are you going to challenge me alone?"

The bulky man grinned. "That's right. Why? Tom, are you afraid?"

In his opinion, Tom was just a little scared. After all, Tom was really much weaker than him in terms of physique, and he was not muscular at all. He looked like an ordinary person with a good upbringing. He thought he could knock down Tom immediately.

Tom said, "You're too weak. You couldn't hurt me even though I don't dodge you at all. You should go with your bros."

He was not pretending to be powerful at all. As a master of the third stage of the Innate Realm, he was completely overqualified to teach hundreds of ordinary people.

But the others didn't think so. Their faces darkened immediately when they heard that.

"How dare you say that!"

"Arrogant!!"

"A weak chick like him asks us to challenge him together? Is there something wrong with him?"

"Buffalo, since the new instructor looked down on you, show him how strong you are!"

"Buffalo, teach him a lesson!"

They were shouting. They were all vigorous men who could die for their country without hesitation, but they also aggressive. They looked down on those who had no strength but liked to show off. In their eyes, Tom was such a person.

Buffalo clenched his fists. He was a little angry. He thought that as a weak chicken, Tom was too arrogant. How dare he to look down on him?

"Tom. since you're so confident, I won't be polite to you! Be careful, don't be knocked down by my punch!" Buffalo roared, and then began to attack Tom.

He was very fierce, like a tiger. Ordinary people would turn pale with fear when facing him.

But his punch was too slow for Tom, and his strength was very weak. He had more than a hundred ways to knock him down in a second.

But Tom didn't do that. He just dodged his attack carelessly.

Buffalo was surprised to see that Tom could dodge his quick punch. Soon, he attacked him fiercely again. He was confident that he could defeat Tom in a short time!

"You're too slow."

However, no matter how fast he punched, he couldn't hit Tom at all.

Instead, he was constantly ridiculed by Tom, which made him so angry that he was about to explode.

He attacked him for a minute but couldn't touch Tom at all. In his eyes, Tom was too flexible. He was always able to dodge his fist at the critical moment. Buffalo was furious.

Finally, he became impatient and then shouted, "What are you dodging me? If you have the guts, face my punch!"

Tom's eyes sparkled and he said meaningfully, "As you wish."

He suddenly stopped. He did not dodge and was punched hard by Buffalo.

When the soldiers present saw that

Tom did not dodge but stood Buffalo's punch, they all felt that Tom was too arrogant and was risking his neck. They had already imagined the scene of Tom being punched away by Buffalo.

But what happened next made all of them widen their eyes and show an shocked expression!

With a bang, Buffalo hit him.

Then came a muffled moan, but it was from Buffalo.

Buffalo punched Tom in the chest, and Tom did not move at all. Instead, Buffalo took a few steps back, and a painful expression appeared on his face. He held his right hand, looked up at Tom in horror, and said in a shrill voice, "You're wearing steel plates!

How despicable!"

"What?!"

When the others heard this, they all showed angry expressions and blamed Tom. They thought that Tom was so despicable. He was wearing steel plates. How shameless he was!

Tom frowned and said, "I didn't wear steel plates. It was my muscles solidified as hard as iron."

However, the others didn't believe him but snorted and scolded them.

"You damn liar!"

"Take off your clothes if you have the guts!"

"That's right, he even wore steel plates.
How shameless he is!"

"What? You dare not take off your clothes?!"

They all thought that he was wearing steel plates and were angry.
Otherwise, how could Buffalo punch him in the chest but hurt his own hand?

Tom shook his head. His eyes turned colder. He said nothing but just took off his shirt...

When his clothes were all taken off and his strong upper body was revealed, the whole room suddenly quieted down.

Chapter 460

Tom took off his clothes and his upper body was naked. Everyone could see his muscular upper body, which was full of power although his skin was fair.

The key point was that he was not wearing steel plates, and he shook his clothes deliberately, showing them there was nothing special.

At this moment, everyone was stunned.

They stared at Tom like a duck with its neck chocked. They looked quite funny.

"That's impossible!"

After a few seconds, Buffalo broke the silence first. He cried out in surprise and his eyes widened as big as brass bells. He really felt he had hit a steel plate! But Tom didn't wear any steel plate? How could this be possible? How could a human being be so strong? This was completely unbelievable!

Tanya looked straight at Tom's naked upper body with widened eyes. She didn't care about steel plates at all. She was amazed by Tom's strong figure. He was in great shape, even stronger than models. His body line was carefully carved by god. Muscles were built on him perfectly.

She knew how capable Tom was. His strong and powerful body was a great attraction to women!

She couldn't help but swallow her saliva and couldn't move her eyes.

Tom noticed her fiery eyes. When he looked over, her pretty face turned red and she quickly moved her eyes away.

But she kept peeking at him.

Tom didn't think much about it. He said to the soldiers calmly, "Can you be sure that I'm not wearing steel plates now?"

They were all silent and did not know how to answer.

Thorn coughed and shouted at the soldiers, "You fool! Tom is a top expert at Innate Realm. He can defeat you with only one finger. How dare you question Tom's strength!"

Then, Thorn said to Tom, "Tom, please don't take it seriously. They always think that they are the best in the world and only want to be taught by capable people. Please don't be angry with them."

It seemed that Thorn was scolding the soldiers, but in fact, he was still helping them. He said they tough and only respected capable men.

Tom was not angry, and he understood them very well. After all, when he founded Shield Security Company, he had encountered this kind of situation very often.

And the soldiers of Military Intelligence 3 had a more violent reaction.

In the building not far away, Nikolai saw what happened just now. He frowned and was a little confused. He muttered to himself, "Buffalo's strong. His punch can bring the strength of no less than a thousand kilograms. But Tom didn't even move at all?"

He started to appreciate Tom.

However, if that was all his strength, he was still not capable to be an instructor in Military Intelligence 3.

After all, Buffalo was below the average among those soldiers, and those really strong ones had not yet taken action.

Tom nodded, put on his clothes and said, "Who else wants to test me?"

After seeing what happened just now, the soldiers didn't look at Tom disdainfully now. At least they knew that Tom was not a weak chick as they had thought.

At this moment, another man came out. He was not as tall and strong as Buffalo. He was only 1.8 meters tall, but his aura was much more dominating than Buffalo's.

Tom could tell at a glance that he was a master at Extrinsic Peak, who was good at boxing and proficient in more than ten boxing techniques.

But in front of a master at Innate Realm, he was nothing.

He walked up to Tom and said, "Tom,

Director Sunn said you're a master at Innate Realm. I don't believe that. I've never met a master at Innate Realm at such a young age. But since Director Sunn introduced you to be our instructor, I think you are somehow capable. If you can beat me within a minute, I will recognize you as our instructor."

His words were polite, but in his eyes, there was strong confidence and contempt for Tom, which revealed his real thoughts.

Actually he didn't believe that Tom could defeat him.

Because he was a top-ranked master in the Military Intelligence 3, and had also completed many difficult tasks over the past few years. He had killed several foreign masters.

However, Tom looked so young and like a well-bred rich kid with fair skin. He didn't believe that such a man could defeat him.

As for standing Buffalo's punch? He could do that too.

Tom saw through his thoughts at a glance. In fact, he was quite helpless. As the master at the third stage of Innate Realm, he was overqualified to instruct these men. And he did not expect he would be tested by these ordinary men. If others knew it, he would be laughed at.

So he decided that he would show all his strength to convince them so that they wouldn't be disobedient to him in the future.

"Okay." Tom nodded. He asked that man to attack him first.

The soldier, who was at Extrinsic Peak, did not mock him. Instead, he punched Tom boldly. With a slight exploding sound, his fist seemed to be in front of Tom in an instant.

Tom appreciated the speed in his mind. As one of the masters at Extrinsic Peak, this soldier was not bad.

He didn't stand the punch as he did just now. It wasn't that he couldn't, but that he wanted to observe how these soldiers were trained in martial arts.

He also used Extrinsic Peak's cultivation to fight that soldier.

Thorn frowned. According to Tom's strength, he shouldn't have defeated the soldier immediately.

However, just as he was wondering, Tom suddenly punched the soldier in the face at an extremely fast speed. With the sound of the explosion, he immediately came to the soldier and stopped. He did this because he had already known what he wanted to know.

"Sorry, I win." Tom said faintly.

The soldier was scared by Tom's sudden power still scared and realized that he had lost.

When the other soldiers saw that Tom even defeated the master at Extrinsic Peak, they looked at Tom differently.

However, he should be more capable than just defeating a master at Extrinsic Peak if he wanted to be their instructor.

Tom stood with his hands behind his back. He could tell what these soldiers were thinking. He drew a circle one meter in diameter on the ground and said to all the soldiers, "Well, I don't want to bully you. You can attack me together and if you can force me out of this circle together, you win. I'll kowtow and apologize to you. If you fail, you should acknowledge me as your instructor. And you must obey my orders from now on."

Chapter 461

After Tom finished talking, the whole room suddenly fell silent, and everyone looked at Tom.

Thorn was also shocked by Tom. He knew that Tom was a top expert in the Innate Realm. However, in this coterie, it was impossible to fight more than a hundred people alone, not to mention they were professionally trained soldiers.

More than a hundred people at the scene also opened their eyes wide, thinking that Tom was too arrogant! It could be said that Tom despised them to the extreme.

Even their last instructor, a well-known
