

Chapter 551

There was a dead silence. Everyone was frightened by his fierce look. They stood still, their faces pale.

Then, a sharp and angry voice broke the silence.

"Fuck you! I don't care about who you are. You're going to die!" It was Mr. Lewis. He was so angry that his face was twisted. He gritted his teeth and fire was about to burst out from his eyes. He pointed at Tom and shouted, "All of you. Go and kill him. Kill him!"

He was hysterical, like a madman. He didn't have the demeanor and elegance he had just now. He looked very ferocious and frightening.

Everyone who knew him was frightened by his appearance.

Natalia, in particular, shivered violently. She was panicked and scared. She thought that Tom had offended Mr. Lewis, and that Tom was going to die.

It could be seen that Mr. Lewis was the core of the people here. Everyone had to obey his orders. The other men immediately began to rush towards Tom, trying to kill Tom.

In the face of this situation, the corner of Tom's mouth rose and a disdainful smile appeared on his face. "A group of ants. How dare you fight against the divine dragon?"

Now, he no longer had his usual elegant and easygoing manner. He became the god of war, domineering. He was invincible.

He sneered, then raised his right foot above his waist and stamped on the land!

Suddenly, with a Bang, something happened. It made everyone present look at it in horror and tremble.

Tom's foot landed. The land in front of him immediately cracked. There was a crack as wide as half a meter, and the men who rushed towards Tom were hit by this powerful force and they flew to both sides. The scene was extremely shocking.

With one stamp, although Tom did not touch them, he made these men seriously injured and spurt blood. No one knew how many ribs of them were broken.

Phoebe's eyes flashed with deep shock when she saw this scene. She knew that Tom's martial arts were very powerful, and ordinary men were not his opponents, but she did not expect that Tom was so powerful. It completely went beyond her imagination.

Not to mention the rest of the people. They were completely dumbfounded and thought they saw superman.

This crack happened to spread in front of Mr. Lewis. Mr. Lewis staggered back and finally fell to the ground confoundedly. Her butt was stuck in the crack, and her face was pale.

The next moment, his pants became wet. He actually peed his pants!

He was trembling. In such a situation, he couldn't calm down. It was beyond his endurance.

The other women, too, were trembling with fear, and their faces turned pale. Natalia knelt down directly in front of Tom and kowtowed. "Mr. Howard, I don't dare. Mr. Howard, I don't dare. Please, Mr. Howard, don't kill me. Woo....."

She had snots and tears all over her face. Her hair was disheveled. She was not as demure as she was before.

Tom glared at her coldly. Suddenly, she was shocked and her mind went blank. Then, she fainted because of fear.

In fact, it wasn't just that she fainted, but that her nerves had been severely damaged and she had become an idiot.

As a master at the fourth stage of Innate Realm, Tom's mental strength was very powerful. Some powerful hypnotists could hypnotize ordinary people by just looking at them. It was a piece of cake for a top master like Tom to scare ordinary people into idiots with one look.

Natalia invited Phoebe to the party today. So, Natalia could be regarded as the chief culprit of what happened today. Tom would not let go of her. He could not kill Natalia, but Natalia must end up miserably!

Next, Tom looked at the others...

Everyone who was being looked at by Tom did not dare to look at Tom. They all knelt down and begged Tom for forgiveness.

Tom did not punish the rest of the women much. He looked at Mr. Lewis, and naturally, he could tell that this man was the person in charge here, and this man was also the culprit who had harmed Phoebe.

Tom was not a person who liked to kill, but the crimes committed by these people to Phoebe were enough to make him have a strong desire to kill!

He cherished Phoebe much. He would kill anyone who dared to bully Phoebe. There was no room for negotiation!

Sensing Tom's murderous intent, Mr. Lewis became even more frightened. He kept retreating and screamed, "You. You can't kill me! My brother-in-law is Redford. He's an Instructor in Military Intelligence 2. You can't kill me! Otherwise, my brother-in-law won't spare you!"

When he mentioned his brother-in-law, Mr. Lewis immediately came back to his senses. He had a big backer. His brother-in-law was an Instructor in Military Intelligence 2 who was in a high position and had great power. If this man in front of him killed him, his brother-in-law would definitely avenge him!

"Military Intelligence 2?" When Tom heard this, he frowned slightly. He had been in the Military Intelligence 3 for a while. Naturally, he had heard of the Military Intelligence 2. He knew that Military Intelligence 2 was an institution similar to Military Intelligence 3, but Military Intelligence 2 was stronger. He had heard Thorn mention it before. And Thorn had scruples of the Military Intelligence 2.

When Mr. Lewis saw Tom like this, he immediately became arrogant. "That's right. The Military Intelligence 2! This is an important organization in H Country. There are all talented agents inside. My brother-in-law, Redford, is the king of agents. If you dare to touch me, my brother-in-law will skin you alive! Be good. Just apologize to me and compensate me for my loss tonight. Otherwise, I'll let my brother-in-law punish you!"

Redford? Tom had never heard of this name. He stared at Mr. Lewis and saw that Mr. Lewis was not lying. It seemed that Redford was indeed somebody.

But so what?

Phoebe, who was behind Tom, regained some strength and her face was not as pale as before. She slowly walked over, took Tom's arm, and said worriedly, "Tom, I'm not actually taken advantage of by them. Forget it."

Tom could tell that Phoebe was worried about him. She was afraid that he would offend a big shot.

Looking at Phoebe's weak look, Tom could not help but feel a pain in his heart. He held Phoebe's face with both hands and gently kissed on Phoebe's slightly pale lips. He said gently and domineeringly, "Phoebe, don't worry. The Instructor in Military Intelligence 2 means nothing to your husband. You are the most precious treasure in my life. I hate that I can't love you more, but this beast still dares to take advantage of you. How can I let him go?"

When Phoebe heard this, her heart was filled with warmth. She bit her lips tightly and her eyes were slightly red.

"Tom..."

"Well, Phoebe, if you're afraid, close your eyes. I won't allow anyone in this world to bully you and then go away safe and sound!" Tom kissed Phoebe with incomparable affection and determination.

Then, he looked at Mr. Lewis again, his eyes full of murderous intent, .

Mr. Lewis's whole body trembled violently when he saw the look in Tom's eyes. Mr. Lewis felt like falling into an ice cave!

"You can't kill me! My brother-in-law is a super agent. He has a license to kill. If you kill me, you're dead!" Mr. Lewis screamed. Then, he hurriedly took his phone out of his pocket to call his brother-in-law.

Tom did not stop him and walked towards him step by step.

Soon, Mr. Lewis's phone call was put through. He screamed in horror. "Brother-in-law, help me! Someone's trying to kill me. Someone's trying to kill me..."

On the other side of the phone, Redford was stunned for a second, then stood up and said in a deep voice, "Who wants to kill you?!"

"It is..."

Mr. Lewis just wanted to speak, but he just said two words, and then he couldn't say anything. It was because Tom had already come in front of him, grabbed his neck, and lifted him up with one hand. Then, Tom pinched him a little hard and his neck broke with a crack. Mr. Lewis died on the spot.

Just then, Redford, who was on the other end of the phone, heard the sound of the crack.

Chapter 552

Mr. Lewis was dead.

He was struggling desperately and suddenly his body lost its strength as if he had become a soulless puppet. As Tom let him go, he fell to the ground.

The whole room was silent.

Everyone's eyes widened, their faces filled with fear and disbelief, and they looked at Mr. Lewis, who was breathless on the ground.

Mr. Lewis really died, in the hands of Phoebe's husband!

This fact, like a storm, strongly blowing up in everyone's mind, making them scared, panicked, and shocked.

As ordinary people, they had lived a simple and stable life since they were young. The most intense thing they ever experience was quarreling with people. They even seldom fought with others. How could they have seen a murder?

All of a sudden, they were so scared that they wetted themselves. When they looked at Tom again, they were no longer in awe, but in deep fear! It was like they were looking at a demon, an evil of death, and the most terrifying existence in the world!

What interrupted the silence was the voice coming from the phone on Mr. Lewis. "Beckett? Beckett? Beckett?!"

Without Mr. Lewis's response, Redford paused for three seconds. The next moment, he burst into a roar, "Ah! Who are you? Who are you! How dare you kill my brother-in-law? Tell me who you are!"

The speaker on Beckett's phone was turned on. The voice, like a thunderstorm, exploded on the scene. Even if it was transmitted through the phone, Redford's immense anger and murderous malice could be felt.

After Phoebe heard this, her heart beat faster and she was worried about Tom.

Tom held her hand and gave her a reassuring look. Then he walked over and stomped on Beckett's phone.

Redford's voice was immediately cut off.

In another mysterious base, a wild roar was heard, followed by the sound of smashing things.

"No matter who you are, you killed my brother-in-law. I will kill you!!"

Outside the door, a few people passed by. When they heard this voice, they couldn't help but shudder and say, "God, who offended Redford?!"

"I've known Redford for so long. I've never seen Redford so angry."

"Whoever he is, he will definitely be killed by Redford."

Ten minutes later, Tom waited until Malcolm arrived and asked Malcolm to clean up the scene before he took Phoebe away.

Now Phoebe's body didn't look as scary as before, and her face returned to normal, not so pale.

But Tom was still not assured, because Tom had already felt that Phoebe's body was not as healthy as before... No, it was not simply about "health", but the origin of life. It was worn out, as if there was a gap, and it was constantly losing vitality.

Phoebe would not live long if this continued.

When they got into the car, Phoebe saw that Tom had been keeping a straight face. She was very sad. She forced out a smile and asked Tom, "Tom, why are you keeping a straight face? Why? Did you blame me for not waiting for you just now?"

Tom looked at Phoebe, saw the strong spirit in Phoebe's eyes, and that she was trying to comfort him. He felt especially uncomfortable.

"When did the condition start? Why didn't you tell me?" Tom took a deep breath and said.

Phoebe's body trembled slightly, and a little panic flashed through her eyes. She immediately smiled again, looking very confused, and said, "Tom, I don't understand what you're saying."

It had to be said that Phoebe's acting skills were still very good and she acted it all naturally. If Tom hadn't been observant enough and kept staring at Phoebe, he would have been fooled by Phoebe.

It was also Phoebe's superb acting skills that made him ignore Phoebe's problem for so long!

He held Phoebe's hand tightly. "Phoebe, you shouldn't hide it from me. We're husband and wife. Have you forgotten?"

When Phoebe heard this, her heart immediately trembled and her nose couldn't help but ache. She wanted to be as normal as before, but she couldn't do it now because Tom's expression were so destructive that she couldn't bear it at all!

Besides, she was also unworthy of Tom. She could imagine how sad Tom would be once she left!

Now, instead, she hoped that Tom had not fallen in love with her, but he had always hated her. In that case, he would not be sad and painful if she ever left.

She still wanted to look relaxed, but as soon as she opened her mouth, she couldn't say anything, and tears started to flow out and she apologized to Tom, "Tom, I'm sorry, I'm sorry..."

When Tom saw her crying, he immediately panicked. At the same time, his heart sank to the bottom. He was not stupid. How could he not see it? Phoebe's reaction was to acquiesce that she was really ill, and that she was seriously ill. At least, she was ill to the extent that modern medicine could not cure her!

Some things can be inferred with just one look or one action without any words.

Tom knew Phoebe very well. She was indeed a strong and capable woman.

When Phoebe found out that there was something wrong with her body, she must have gone to the hospital for a checkup as soon as possible. With her current status and financial resources, she could still get the most advanced medical treatment in the world without his help.

However, Phoebe still cried desperately, indicating that the medical treatment in today's world could not save her.

In the end, Phoebe chose to hide it from him and just spend her last days happily.

Thinking of this, Tom couldn't bear to cry.

"Silly girl, why are you crying? What's there to cry about?" Tom smiled and wiped the tears from Phoebe's face. "You should have told me earlier. Your husband is the most powerful man in the world. He's much better than those doctors. I can definitely cure you."

Tom forced his sadness into his heart and comforted Phoebe with a smile.

Phoebe shook her head and cried, "It's no use. I'm terminally ill. Even the world's top medical team has never seen such a disease before. I feel like I'm cursed by God. I'm aging every day. I can't live long..."

"Tom, I'm sorry. I was going to spend the last period of my life with you and leave quietly... Why, why did God do this to me? Tom, you've done so much for me. I really don't want to see you hurt for me..." Phoebe burst into tears.

Tom gritted his teeth. He was speechless. He was afraid that as soon as he spoke, he would cry!

He could only hold Phoebe in his arms, take a deep breath, and say, "Phoebe, you don't have to be sad or desperate. I promise, there will be a way to cure you! There are so many things we haven't done together, and so many places we haven't been to together. Most importantly, we haven't had a baby that belongs to us yet! So I won't let you go, and I don't allow it to happen. Even the king of heaven will never take you away from me!"

Chapter 553

Tom's words were convincing and powerful, full of authority and determination, showing his unwillingness. It seemed that he was telling God that even God could not take Phoebe's life from him!

Phoebe sensed his emotions and was stunned. She looked up and stared at him for a few seconds. "Tom..."

Tom smiled gently, and said softly, "Phoebe, please believe me. I won't let you disappear."

Phoebe bit her lips tightly. She was touched by Tom's confidence and commitment. She nodded hard and said, "Okay! I believe you!"

Tom smiled and said, "Great."

Although he saw sadness and despair in Phoebe's eyes, he still believe himself.

For the next few days, Tom didn't go anywhere. He just stayed with Phoebe. The two of them loved each other to the extreme, and they both tacitly stopped mentioning this matter, as if they had really forgotten it.

In the first two days, Phoebe was very sad and guilty, but after a few days, she slowly relaxed. Anyway, this was her fate. She had no way to change, but to accept the truth.

Actually, her life was already better than many people's. She had a happy family, and a husband who loved her deeply. And her husband was a big shot. So she had nothing to regret.

These days, Tom did not specifically investigate how to treat her, nor did he contact the medical team for her. Instead of frowning in front of her, he just spent every day with her, happily and sweetly.

Tom didn't waste the last time of her life on something meaningless. So Phoebe was very happy.

However, what she did not know was that Tom had not stopped the investigation in the past few days, nor had he stopped trying to find the cure. He always started the investigation after Phoebe fell asleep.

He didn't tell Phoebe about this, but just showed his enjoyment. He was trying his best to please Phoebe, which was his responsibility as her husband.

Through investigation, he probably understood that Phoebe had an extremely rare disease. It was more a physical defect than a disease. It was as if she was cursed by God. After a certain age, her body functions began to decline. Even if she continued to exercise, take medicine, and practice martial arts, there was no way to cure it.

In many ancient records, Tom found some clues and discovered that there had been such cases from time to time over the past thousand years. And its possibility was almost one over a billion.

He didn't expect Phoebe to be cursed!

Why did God let her suffer this?

In this week, Tom did his best to investigate and find a cure. His workload was so heavy that he felt tired even if he was extremely strong.

He even tramped over mountains in the middle of the night to consult many famous doctors in nearby cities. But he didn't get anything useful.

Finally, he got some information from an old Chinese medicine doctor who was over 80 years old. According to that doctor, this kind of disease could not be cured by ordinary medicine. The only way was to find a medicine that could replenish the patient's life elements and compensate for her physique deficiency so as to cure it!

Replenishing the life elements... When Tom heard this, he suddenly knew what he should do.

Reiki Fruit!

That day, at Chou's place, Sunny said that the Reiki Fruit, the fruit cultivated by heaven and earth spirit, had a huge magical effect. If people ate it, there were huge benefits. It could increase life elements and even an ordinary person could reach the Innate Realm!

This kind of fruit would only bear fruit once in 112 years, so it was priceless.

Later, Tom immediately went to find Chou. To be safe, he didn't say that Phoebe had a problem. He just pretended to ask out of curiosity.

Chou also looked for a lot of information and confirmed that the Reiki Fruit would definitely cure Phoebe. Tom breathed a sigh of relief. As long as there was a way, there was hope!

Chou noticed Tom's relieved look, and he immediately frowned and asked, "Young master, are you planning to get the Reiki Fruit?"

When he asked this, Sunny, who was resting with her eyes closed, strained her ears and focused on this side.

Tom coughed and said, "Of course not. Is it necessary?"

Chou nodded vigorously and said, "The Reiki Fruit was quite precious, so there are many powerful people who want to get it. There is no need to fight for it. If you are not careful, you may die. It is unworthy."

Tom nodded. On the surface, he didn't care about that fruit at all, but in his mind, he had already made a decision that he must get the Reiki Fruit!

Only by taking the Reiki Fruit could he cure Phoebe.

Sunny opened her eyes at this moment, looked at him faintly, and said meaningfully, "I advise you not to think of getting the Reiki Fruit. This is not something you have the right to touch. The Saint King has affirmed to get it. In addition, there are many other forces involved. With your current strength, you are not enough to compete for it."

Tom fell silent. Naturally, he knew that Sunny was not bluffing him. He could imagine how difficult it would be to get that fruit. If there were not many people who knew it, it would be not that dangerous.

There were a lot of people who knew about it and were determined to get it now. He was just a master of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. It was still extremely difficult for him to snatch it! And his life would be in danger!

However, he had no other choice. This was the only chance to save Phoebe. He couldn't give up no matter what.

Time passed quickly. In the blink of an eye, another week passed.

In this week, Tom carefully investigated the information of the Reiki Fruit and found that the environment in which that fruit grew, where it might appear, and what he should pay attention to when picking it.

Of course, during this period of time, he did not give up on cultivation. Since he wanted to pick the Reiki Fruit, which was as difficult as climbing to heaven, he could not fight a war without preparation!

Now he became more and more decisive and confident.

That day, Thorn called him and asked him to go back to the Military Intelligence 3 to coach because he hadn't been back for a while.

Tom wanted to refuse, but on the phone, he heard Thorn mention the Reiki Fruit, then he changed his mind...

Chapter 554

When Tom arrived at the Military Intelligence 3, Thorn asked him to go to the conference room. There were already a lot of senior executives who were discussing seriously.

"Hi, Tom. Welcome."

When Thorn saw Tom, he smiled and waved at Tom, signaling Tom to come over and sit down.

Tom smiled back. He glanced around briefly and found that in the conference room, there were some strange faces other than the top management of the Military Intelligence 3, such as Thorn and Marlin.

Just now on the phone, Thorn roughly mentioned to him about the Reiki Fruit, which immediately aroused his interest. After settling Phoebe, he rushed over immediately to see what was going on.

After Tom's arrival, everyone in the conference room looked at him. Those newcomers were especially interested in him, and they cannot hide their surprise. It seemed that they did not expect Tom to be so young.

Tom walked to the seat next to Thorn and sat down. Thorn pointed to a middle-aged man on the main seat and introduced, "Tom, this is Pence, the director of Military Intelligence 3."

Tom was not surprised by that man's identity. In fact, when he came in, he had already guessed his identity. Speaking of which, it was the first time he had seen the director of the Military Intelligence 3.

With just one glance, Tom knew that his strength was extraordinary. He was in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, stronger than Marlin.

Moreover, unlike Marlin and Thorn who were quite rough, that man was elegant, looking like a knowledgeable university professor.

Pence stood up to shake Tom's hand and said with a smile, "So you are the famous professor Tom. I've heard a lot about you."

Tom shook hands with him and said with a smile, "Glad to meet you, Director Pence."

The two shook hands amiably. Tom could feel that Pence admired him very much.

"Tom reached such a stage at a young age. It's our fortune to invite you to join the Military Intelligence 3!" Pence kept showing his admiration for Tom.

Tom smiled and said, "Director Pence is flattering me. I was just lucky to have reached the fourth stage by chance."

Pence then praised Tom and was very enthusiastic about Tom. Other new faces greeted Tom and were especially polite to him. Obviously, they all knew that Tom was a man of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, who killed the Fool, Satan and the Red-haired Witch in one move.

In the Military Intelligence 3, it was a place where strength was respected. Tom's strength was extraordinary, and he would naturally be respected.

What caught Tom's attention was a tall man opposite him. He was Silas, the instructor of the Dragon Blood Team. His skin was redder than ordinary people's, especially the part above his neck that looked congestive.

In Tom's perception, Silas was stronger than Marlin. He was almost the strongest in the third stage of the Innate Realm.

All the core figures of the Military Intelligence 3 were in this conference room. The strongest among them was Pence, then Silas, Marlin, finally Thorn and Joshua.

Of course, Tom did not think of himself. In fact, he was not weaker than Pence.

After greetings, they began to talk about the Reiki Fruit. Pence said in a low voice first, "It's less than half a month before the Colorful Fruit of Essence is mature. This time, we are assigned to get it! The Colorful Fruit of Essence is a rare treasure on Earth and has unimaginable research value! If we can snatch it over and hand it to the national laboratory, once we discover something important and copy it, then our country's strength will be greatly improved."

Joshua, the deputy director frowned slightly and said, "There are too many people targeting the Colorful Fruit of Essence this time. It's not easy for us to complete this task. Besides, there will definitely be a bloody competition."

Thorn also said with a sad face, "Yes, even many foreign forces are targeting the Colorful Fruit of Essence. They started to enter H Country very early and made preparation. If only the Military Intelligence 3 is assigned to do that, I'm afraid we would fail."

Several other senior executives also expressed their concerns. The Colorful Fruit of Essence was so precious that it was called a peerless treasure. With the Military Intelligence 3's current strength, it was really difficult to win over the fruit.

Pence smiled and said, "Don't worry about that. The main responsibility for picking the Colorful Fruit of Essence would be taken by Military Intelligence 1 and Military Intelligence 2. What we should do is to assist them."

When the others heard this, they were immediately surprised and said, "With the help of Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2, the odds of winning will be much higher."

"Yes." Pence nodded. He smiled, but there was bitterness on his face. The burden on his shoulders was lighter, but this also meant that the Military Intelligence 3 was not strong enough.

Others also realized this and showed bitterness and helplessness.

Marlin said, "It seems that the task of getting the Colorful Fruit of Essence is very important. If anyone can seize the Colorful Fruit of Essence, it will be a great achievement."

Pence added, "Yes, the Colorful Fruit of Essence is significant. It only bears fruit once in 112 years. If we miss this time, we will have to wait for another 112 years. By then, we will have turned into a cup of soil."

Tom listened to them and remained silent. Pence noticed him and asked with a smile, "Tom, what do you think?"

Everyone fixed their eyes on Tom, and soon they realized that Tom was the top master in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. If Tom joined them, they would have a chance to win.

Besides, once they seized the Colorful Fruit of Essence and dedicated it to the country, they would make a great contribution! By then, the entire Military Intelligence 3 would benefit from that.

Tom smiled bitterly and said, "I don't have any thoughts. In fact, I don't even know what the Colorful Fruit of Essence is."

Pence looked at Thorn. Thorn

suddenly patted his head and said, "Oh, it's my fault. I didn't have time to introduce the Colorful Fruit of Essence to Tom. The Colorful Fruit of Essence is..."

Next, Thorn told Tom about the Colorful Fruit of Essence in detail, and there was no difference from what Tom had learned.

After hearing his introduction, Tom's eyes flashed and he said in surprise, "Is there such a magical fruit in this world? Can people really increase life elements after eating it?"

Pence nodded solemnly and said heavily, "That's right. Colorful Fruit of Essence is known as the Reiki Fruit. It's cultivated by heaven and earth spiritual Qi, so it's priceless. Even an ordinary person, after swallowing it, can immediately reach the Innate Realm and the longevity would increase for decades. All in all, it's almost the same as the immortal pill!"

Tom showed a shocked look and acted perfectly. No one could tell that he knew the Colorful Fruit of Essence well in advance, and he had already made up his mind to get the Colorful Fruit of Essence.

Then, after chatting for a while, Pence said with a smile, "You don't have to feel stressed. This time, our mission is to assist the Military Intelligence 1 and Military Intelligence 2. According to their strength, it shouldn't be difficult to complete the mission."

At this moment, Silas, who had been silent for a long time, said, "It's not that simple. I got the news that the mysterious organization has also targeted the Colorful Fruit of Essence and sent out a lot of experts of Innate Realm to snatch it."

Hearing his words, the atmosphere suddenly became stiff and everyone's expression became serious.

Chapter 555

Tom was stunned for a moment. He felt that the atmosphere was not weird. Everyone present was very afraid of this mysterious organization. He thought of something. His heart thumped but on the surface, he acted he was confused and asked, "May I know what is the mysterious organization Silas is talking about?"

Silas looked at him fearfully. He took a deep breath and said in a deep voice, "LT Organization!"

Sure enough!

Tom was suddenly enlightened. He was right. What Silas said was just the LT Organization. Moreover, he could tell from Silas's expression that he was terrified of the LT Organization.

Thorn immediately widened his eyes. "What, the LT Organization is also interested in the Colorful Fruit of Essence?!"

The others were also shocked, and they all took on a troubled expression. Obviously, this LT Organization was a big threat to them.

This made Tom involuntarily remember that at the time when he had just come into contact with the Military Intelligence 3, he once mentioned the LT Organization in front of Tanya, and at that time, Tanya was extremely confused and did not know about the LT Organization at all.

At that time, he thought the LT Organization was so mysterious that even a H Country organization like the Military Intelligence 3 didn't know about its existence.

Now it seemed that was not the case. The top management of the Military Intelligence 3 knew it and was very afraid of the organization.

Marlin also frowned deeply and said, "The LT Organization, isn't it more active abroad? Besides, the LT Organization was restricted by the top and it does not battle against us."

Several other senior executives also expressed their thoughts. Tom stopped and got a deeper understanding of the

LT Organization.

Obviously, the headquarter of the LT Organization was in H Country, and its power was so considerable and extraordinary that even H Country had to be afraid of it. Tom did not doubt this, because he had dealt with people of the LT Organization before. From Kenneth to Sean and to Sunny, they were all unusually powerful and skilled. They were only members of the LT Organization, not to mention its Saint King!

Pence took a deep breath and said, "Silas, are you sure the news is accurate? The Saint King of the LT Organization has an agreement with the top. If they also join in the search for the Colorful Fruit of Essence, then the agreement will be broken unilaterally, and the top will not let them go easily."

Others thought the same way. The LT Organization was indeed very strong, especially the Saint King, whose power was even unfathomable. Rumor had it that he had reached the Immortal Realm!

So even in the face of national power, the LT Organization was not afraid, and the Immortal Realm meant the greatest power in the whole world. The deterrence brought by it was no less than a nuclear bomb, or even more!

Silas said, "The Saint King of the LT Organization has indeed made an agreement with the top. Although this Saint King has reached the Immortal Realm, he is not absolutely invincible. He is still very afraid of the top."

Marlin immediately said, "If that's the case, how dare the LT Organization try to get the Colorful Fruit of Essence?"

It was also everyone else's question.

Silas knocked on the table and said, "In fact, within the LT Organization, it is called the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit. This is the essence of the Earth which can only be harvested once in 112 years. It gathers the spirit of heaven and earth. It is comparable to an immortal pill. Naturally, the Saint King will not let it go easily. So this time, he won't do it on his own, but send his subordinates out."

Marlin asked, "I heard that under the Saint King, there are three Major Perfection Realm masters in the Innate Realm. I wonder who he will send this time."

Everyone looked Silas, including Tom. The difference was that Tom already knew who the Saint King would send.

Silas's breath came in gasps, and he was blinking in erratic intervals, as if he had thought of something terrifying. He took a deep breath and said, "I heard that this time the Saint King will send out Fausto, and three top masters in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. He is bound to win the Colorful Fruit of Essence this time!"

"What? Fausto? Hiss..." When Marlin heard this, he took a deep breath. He reacted so strongly that he even stood up and stared straight at Silas. "Xiao, are you sure this is true? Fausto! That's a dead Major Perfection Realm master!"

There were four masters under the Saint King, and Fausto, the strongest of them, died five years ago.

The others were equally shocked and looked incredulous. Tom also frowned when he saw their reaction. He knew that the strongest master sent by the LT Organization this time was Fausto, but he didn't know much about Fausto.

Now it seemed that this Fausto was a terrifying existence!

Silas nodded heavily and said, "Yes, he will send Fausto. He didn't die five years ago. He escaped and survived. Now he's stronger than he was five years ago. Therefore, our situation is not optimistic this time. Even if Military Intelligence 1 and Military Intelligence 2 join us, the chances of us winning are not high, let alone the existence of many foreign forces."

After hearing this, the conference room fell into silence. Everyone's expression was gloomy, including Tom's.

He had already made up his mind beforehand that he must get the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit, because this was the only way to save Phoebe, and he was ready to fight against the world. But now it seemed that his enemies were too powerful!

Not only did many of the Military Intelligence 3's top masters would go, but also the Military Intelligence 3, Military Intelligence 3, and many other foreign powers. The most troublesome was the LT Organization!

He could clearly imagine the cruelty of that fight.

After a long silence in the conference room, Pence finally broke the silence and knocked hard on the table, saying, "Cheer up, he is only Fausto. Military Intelligence 1 and Military Intelligence 2 also have Major Perfection Realm masters in the Innate Realm. We also have some chances this time."

The others were cheered up, but Tom's heart sank even deeper.

However, no matter how difficult and dangerous the road ahead was, he had no intention of retreating. This was the only way to save Phoebe, so he would go for it even if the enemies were all-powerful people and even if it was a sea of fire and knives or even hell.

Even if he died on the spot, he would not hesitate to do so.

Then, they began to discuss the specific plan. The meeting lasted nearly eight hours before it was over.

A professional scientist calculated that the Colorful Fruit of Essence would mature in 15 days and 13 hours. Now many forces were ready to seize it when it became mature.

Unfortunately, the Colorful Fruit of Essence would not show up until it was fully mature. No matter how great the scientist was, he could only roughly calculate where the Colorful Fruit of Essence might appear, within a range of 20 kilometers.

This added a lot of uncertainty.

It was also because of this that Tom gained some confidence. Otherwise, if everyone knew the position of the Colorful Fruit of Essence, everyone would be waiting there. With his current strength, there was really no hope of competing with them in such a case.

Followingly, in the next half month, he had to train himself in seclusion wholeheartedly and improve his strength to the peak!

Chapter 556

After the meeting, Tom returned to the Fourth Group. He was thinking about something.

Tom was completely famous now. Everyone knew that the instructor of the Fourth Group was so strong that the instructors of the Scout Team were no match for him.

When he walked along the road, no one dared to look down on him anymore. Anyone who saw him had to call out Tom obediently. As a result, the status of the Fourth Group was improved a lot in Military Intelligence 3.

When he returned to the Fourth

Group, Tom temporarily stopped thinking about it and began to train the soldiers.

With his instruction, the Fourth Group had improved a lot. They weren't the weakest group and even surpassed the Third Group. They were respected more in Military Intelligence 3. At the same time, they were more worshipped and grateful to Tom. Without him, they would never have been what they were today.

After three days, Tom left the Military Intelligence 3. He returned to H City and was about to start his final seclusion.

Before the seclusion, he traveled with Phoebe for a whole day. Even though he fed Phoebe health products and blocked her acupuncture points with acupuncture, she was still aging slowly. Now, Phoebe had less than one-third vitality of normal people. It was like a balloon with a hole. No matter how much it was filled, it would still continue to deflate. If it continued, Phoebe's vitality would disappear in a month and she would die.

So Tom had to succeed this time!

It's time for seclusion.

He locked himself in a sealed space this time. There was no water, light or food. Even the air was limited.

The oxygen in this space was only enough for an ordinary person to breathe for three days. Three days later, an ordinary person would suffocate to death if he stayed here.

There was no construction without destruction for Tom.

A scientist had done an experiment. He locked normal people in a completely enclosed space. There was nothing except light and food. They didn't know the time. Most people could only bear it for two or three days. A few people can stay there for 5 days. Almost nobody could stay there for a whole week.

People had thoughts. It was a great challenge for their mentality in the extremely enclosed space. Generally, people without an extremely strong mentality couldn't stay there for such a long time.

But Tom's goal was to stay there for eleven days!

It was a great test for him, which was much bigger than what he had on the edge of a cliff.

He was more burdened this time. To win or to die!

It was even more difficult for him to enter the empty state. And the oxygen in the space was limited.

As soon as he walked in, he felt that he was in another space. It was completely dark without any light or sound. It was so quiet that it was frightening!

It was as if he was the only one left in the world.

The subtle breathing and heartbeat were also infinitely amplified in this case.

"Huha... Huha..."

"Bang... Bang..."

In the beginning, his mentality fluctuated a little!

He had entered a similar enclosed space before. Last time, he lit incense to emit weak light. And he could see the room clearly with his eyesight.

And there was enough oxygen in the room.

But he locked himself in an absolutely enclosed space this time. There was no food, light, sound or oxygen.

At first, He asked Elliot not to disturb him even for the most serious thing and to release him on the eleventh day.

So he had no way out!

It was the first time that his life relied on another person. The room was made of steel and was more than a meter thick. Even he himself couldn't get out.

And what the most terrifying was that the oxygen inside was limited. The more intense he moved, the more oxygen he consumed. When the oxygen was completely consumed, he would die.

All he could do was to calm himself down as soon as possible and enter the empty state. Then his consumption would be reduced by a lot and he could survive eleven days later.

However, it was also based on the fact that Elliot would come to unlock him on time and release him. Otherwise, if Elliot had any idea of betraying him, he would die.

What the most terrifying was that his life was connected to Elliot's. If Elliot had an accident and died, he would also die inside!

There was no construction without destruction. It was it!

So when Elliot heard Tom's arrangement, he was so scared that he couldn't speak. In his mind, he couldn't imagine why Tom would do it.

Tom had no way. He had to get the effect he wanted through it. Otherwise, he would find the solution if there was something weak. Then he would be relaxed and couldn't exploit his potential!

The seclusion was so dangerous. Even Tom, who had a strong mentality was so stressful. It was much more stressful for him than what he practiced in the edge of a cliff!

Because he was racing against time and fighting against himself!

The more nervous he was and the more oxygen he consumed, the more disadvantageous he became. Similarly, he was worried about Elliot. What if Elliot wanted to betray him or told other people accidentally? If someone who wanted to kill him found out, he might kill Elliot. Or Elliot died in an accident, he would die as well!

Thus, he was really nervous and even panicked.

Ever since he was in the Innate Realm, he had never had the emotion!

And what the most terrifying was that the more he wanted to calm down, the harder it was to calm down. It was a vicious cycle. After an hour, he still did not calm down. He was so nervous that he began to sweat a little on his forehead!

It was hard for him to imagine. He was in the fourth stage, the Innate Realm.

"Calm down, calm down, I must calm down..."

Tom didn't know how many times he had told himself, but it was still difficult for him to remain calm.

Worst of all, he even began to regret it now. Why must he do it? If he died, Phoebe would definitely die too!

Chapter 557

"The biggest enemy of a person is often himself."

In the past, Tom didn't quite agree with this saying, but now, he finally understood its meaning.

The biggest enemy of a person was indeed himself, or rather, the flaw in his character, his laziness, greed, jealousy, or the demon in his heart.

For Tom, he was fighting against his own demon. The more he wanted to enter the realm, the more the demon kept him from doing so.

In fact, this power already had its own consciousness and could have a conversation with him!

It was his heart demon.

"You're so arrogant. How dare you come into an enclosed space and put your own safety on Elliot?"

"You're very nervous. The oxygen in the space is getting less. It's impossible for you to survive more than eleven days."

"If you die, Phoebe will be implicated by your arrogance. You will never save Phoebe."

"You..."

This voice became louder in Tom's mind. Finally, it sounded like thunder in his ear.

He was also getting more flustered because it was beyond his plan and expectations. He had never thought his seclusion would be bothered by a demon in his heart!

Yes, he was too arrogant. He thought he was a genius who could break through any difficulties. In fact, he was just a luckier ordinary person.

He realized that in the past year or so, he had improved too fast, which could be called amazing speed. In just over a year, he had completed the journey that other masters in the Innate Realm could not complete in ten years.

Since he improved too fast, his foundation was not stable and he had a heart demon. Before, his will was still firm, so the heart demon had not come out. However, when he was in a panic, the heart demon immediately came out and had a huge impact on him!

It was conceivable that if he could not defeat the demon in his heart, then he would die here. He would definitely not last for eleven days, not even three days!

At the moment, because of Tom's nervousness and the completely enclosed space, he began to become hot and dry. He sweated a lot, and his physical strength was exhausted.

"What should I do? What should I do?"

Tom opened his eyes and his breathing became rapid.

In his mind, the demon's voice was louder and more triumphant. "You panicked. You've already lost. Tom, you think you're good, but you're just a coward."

Then, in his mind sounded the voices of Peter, May, and Sean who were cursing him viciously and sneering at him.

This time, Tom was so panicked that he even felt scared.

And his physical strength was also exhausted very quickly...

In just two hours, one-third of the oxygen in the space was consumed by him, the amount for a whole day.

Just as his consciousness was gradually invaded, a light appeared deep in his mind, which made his whole body tremble and calmed him down a little.

He saw a figure in the bright light.

It was Phoebe.

This was what Phoebe looked like when she married him in her wedding dress.

He was stunned. Then, the corners of his mouth were turned up and a heartfelt smile appeared.

The voice in his mind was still very loud, but in his heart, there was already a trace of clarity, just like in the darkness, there was a trace of light, which represented himself.

He relied on this glimmer of clarity to let himself sit still, then slowly adjusted his breathing, ignoring the noise of the demon in his heart, and he began to enter the realm.

"That's impossible, Tom. How can you regain your clarity?"

"Tom, you're just an orphan. You're trash that the Howards doesn't want. You're the son-in-law who lives in your wife's the Scotts. What right do you have to become supreme?"

"Tom, you can't succeed. You're destined to die here..."

"Tom..."

Tom turned a deaf ear to the voice of the demon in his heart. In his consciousness, he grabbed a faint light, which became stronger and stronger. In the end, he drove away the darkness and lit up the whole depth of his consciousness.

At the same time, in his mind, the voice disappeared.

The demon was overcome by him and was gone.

At the moment when the demon of his heart completely disappeared, Tom felt as happy and relaxed as he had never felt before. He was alive!

In particular, he seemed to have been liberated in the spiritual world. He was like a runaway horse and he improved himself a lot.

In the past, his progress was too fast, which led to the appearance of a heart demon. Now that the demon was eradicated, he became totally different.

If he hadn't made himself weak through this seclusion, and the demon of his heart had not taken advantage of the situation, he would not be able to eradicate it this time. If it waited until he was trying to reach the Immortal Realm while he was already a Major Perfection Realm master in the Innate Realm and tried to disturb him then, he would definitely be dead!

Now, he suddenly felt much more cheerful, and he could see his future more clearly!

He had already known the threshold of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, not like before when he only knew it vaguely. As long as he was given more time, he would definitely be able to break through to the realm of the Major Perfection Realm.

He could even go for the Immortal Realm: it was no longer a dream.

There was a faint smile on his face, and then his consciousness gradually dissipated. If it was figuratively described, it was as if originally, his consciousness was like water in an artificial lake, but now, the lake gradually became smaller. In the end, it became a tank of water, then a bucket of water, and finally shrunk into a small glass of water.

After he completely entered the realm, his body slowly stiffened and did not move. In the end, he even breathed much less. After about ten seconds, he took a slow breath.

Even his heartbeat slowed down gradually. His heart would beat once in over 10 seconds. If someone was here, he could find that his body temperature gradually decreased. In the end, he already seemed to be a corpse!

Tom had successfully entered the realm, on the basis of being completely secluded and giving his life to someone else.

This was extremely difficult, even impossible!

If this news was spread, it would definitely cause shock to countless people!

Because, in fact, over the past hundred years, many people tried this kind of destructible method, but all of them failed.

Some of them were not determined enough and left a way out for themselves. For example, when the oxygen was totally consumed, they fled the space on their own. Some were determined, but they couldn't beat their own demons and were suffocated to death in the space.

It was not that easy to do that.

There was no one like Tom who was determined enough and could also defeat his own demon!

And after he successfully entered the realm, the benefits were extremely great.

Three days later, Tom condensed his consciousness to a point, a small drop of water. His body, completely in the realm, only needed to take a breath in an hour, and his heartbeat the same way. He was just like a dead person.

At the same time, seven days after he was confined to this space, a group of people came to the Military Intelligence 3 came menacingly.

The first one was Beckett's brother-in-law, Redford, the Military Intelligence 2's instructor.

Behind him, there were more than a dozen people, and half of them were masters in the Innate Realm!

Even Pence came out to greet Redford and said with a smile, "Redford. Welcome."

Behind Pence, Thorn, Joshua and other executives were also there. They saw Redford's grim face and had a bad feeling.

Redford didn't show due respect for Pence. Instead, he took out a cell phone, found a video, and played it for him.

This was a surveillance video in which a person was standing with his back turned to the camera. It was no one but Tom!

The video showed the scene of Tom killing Beckett in that villa.

Pence's heart skipped a beat when he saw the video.

Redford immediately said, "Director Pence, is this person in the video your Military Intelligence 3's instructor?"

Chapter 558

Redford was expressionless, but his eyes were burning. Everyone could tell that he was here to seek revenge, and his hatred was overwhelming.

Thorn and Joshua, who were behind him, felt Redford's hatred and killing intent. Their hearts jumped violently as they became nervous.

Redford was the great instructor of the Military Intelligence 2, and his cultivation was unfathomable. He had reached the level of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. Even Pence was not 100% sure of beating Redford.

What's more, behind Redford, there were several top experts in the Innate Realm.

They were not stupid. From the surveillance video that Redford took out, it could be seen that Tom must have killed Redford's men, so Redford came to seek revenge!

Although Tom was also a strong man in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, he would definitely not have a good life in the future if he offended Redford. Moreover, Redford was too famous and his disciples were numerous and powerful. They did not think that Tom could compete with Redford.

Pence didn't answer immediately, but asked with a smile, "Redford, who are you talking about?"

Redford snorted heavily and said, "Director Pence, we are all smart people, so you don't have to beat about the bush. I'm talking about the murderer in the video! He's the new instructor of the Military Intelligence 3, right? How majestic! He has slaughtered ordinary people!"

Pence remained calm and he forced a smile. He said, "Redford, you can eat everything indiscriminately, but you can't talk indiscriminately. In this video, we can only see the murderer's back. What proof do you have to say that he is the instructor of the Military Intelligence 3?"

Thorn also walked up and said, "Redford, the Colorful Fruit of Essence is about to mature soon. It's not appropriate for you to come to our Military Intelligence 3 and send a punitive expedition, right?"

Redford looked at them and suddenly laughed. He changed the subject and said, "I heard that there's a new instructor in your Military Intelligence 3. He's very young, only less than 30 years old and has reached the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. What a genius! He even killed the three killers, The Fool, Satan, and Red-haired Witch and successfully protected Melissa's safety, thus bringing 300 billion dollars investment to H Country. This is a great contribution! I wonder where this new instructor is. I want to see him."

Everyone was smart. They knew that Redford had recognized the person in the video as Tom.

What happened was really beyond their expectations. Tom had provoked this devil Redford. It was a huge trouble!

Pence smiled and said, "I'm really sorry. Tom happened not to be at the Military Intelligence 3."

Redford frowned and sneered. "Really? I haven't visited the Military Intelligence 3 in a long time. With this opportunity today, I'll pay a good visit!"

He deliberately emphasized the word "visit." After saying that, he strode straight inside.

More than a dozen masters behind him also walked in with great force. They looked very overbearing.

For a long time, the Military Intelligence 3 and the Military Intelligence 3 had a competitive relationship, and there were even some grudges between them. If it was not a necessary task, there would be no intersection between Military Intelligence 3 and Military Intelligence 3.

Now that Redford was about to break into the Military Intelligence 3 with more than a dozen masters, Pence and the others stopped Redford immediately. "Redford, stop. The Military Intelligence 3 can't receive you now."

Redford immediately sneered and said, "Really? What if I must go in?"

Pence's face began to turn dark. He said, "Redford, I advise you not to do this. Our Military Intelligence 3 doesn't welcome you."

Redford laughed. "Ha-ha-ha, so you admit that the person who killed my brother-in-law is from your Military Intelligence 3?!"

Pence stepped forward and said, "I don't know what you're talking about, Redford. You don't have evidence. You'd better not talk nonsense! You can't slander my Military Intelligence 3!"

Redford's eyes were cold. He stared at Pence and said, "Pence, are you sure you're going against me?"

Now, Redford's body was emitting a tremendous and overwhelming aura, as if condensing the surrounding air.

His imposing aura made everyone present feel pressured, as if a mountain crushing on them. Even masters like Thorn and Joshua were breathing faster.

Only Pence could remain unmoved because he was also a master in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm.

He snorted coldly. The same overwhelming aura emanated from him and collided with Redford's aura like a tide.

Tit-for-tat.

Pence said, "Redford, it's you who came to my Military Intelligence 3 to cause trouble today. I admit that my Military Intelligence 3 is not as strong as Military Intelligence 2, but here is not a place where you can come and go as you want!"

After Pence said that, Thorn, Joshua and the others took a step forward, they stared coldly at Redford, indicating their position.

Redford felt the determination of the Military Intelligence 3, so he couldn't help but frown. This time, he came aggressively. He had thought that the Military Intelligence 3 would not dare to offend him directly. He did not want to kill Tom directly, but he must teach him a lesson. After this mission was over, he had plenty of opportunities to revenge on Tom!

But Redford didn't expect Pence and the others to be so tough!

"Pence, you can protect him for a while, not for the rest of his life! Tom killed my brother-in-law. I can't let him go. Is it worth it for you to offend me for him?!" Redford said in a low voice.

These words made Pence hesitate a little, but soon, he smiled and said in an incomparable tough tone, "As long as he is in my Military Intelligence 3 for a day, I will protect him!"

"You!" Redford was completely angry.

He thought that Pence was too arrogant and didn't save him any face. At least, he was the great instructor of the Military Intelligence 2, the most powerful person in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm.

"Okay, okay!" He laughed in anger, even clapped his hands, looked deeply at Pence and said, "Pence, you have guts. I want to see how long you can protect him!"

After that, he turned around and left with big strides.

The dozen masters who came with him also left in a flash. In a short while, they disappeared from the sight of Pence and the others.

After Pence saw them leave, his face darkened. He sighed and said to Thorn, "Contact Tom."

Thorn nodded and immediately called Tom. However, he made a few calls and found that his phone was off. "I can't reach him. His phone is off."

Pence frowned. "Go to the Fourth Group and let them contact him by all means."

Chapter 559

Not long after, Thorn came back from the Fourth Group and didn't look well.

Pence immediately had a bad feeling and quickly asked, "How's it going? Have you contacted Tom?"

Thorn sighed and said, "No."

"What?" Pence said with a frown, "As an instructor of the Military Intelligence 3, and at this critical juncture when the Colorful Fruit of Essence is about to produce, how can he go missing?!"

He spoke with a little anger. One who worked for the Military Intelligence 3 would be considered as the servant of the country, no longer an ordinary citizen who could fool around. The phone must be kept on all the time.

Thorn said, "Actually, Tom's phone was turned off a week ago."

Pence frowned even more. "This Colorful Fruit of Essence is about to mature. This is the top priority. Tom is missing at this time. Is he trying to disobey our order?"

The word "disobedience" was overwhelming for an organization like the Military Intelligence 3. It would take to court!

Since Tom was recruited by him, Thorn quickly explained, "I've known Tom for a long time. He definitely won't disobey orders! I think he might be in seclusion, right?"

"In seclusion?" When Pence heard this, his face looked much better. Obviously, he thought so too.

After a while, Pence said, "Keep trying to contact Tom and tell him about Redford's revenge, so that he can be on his guard. Redford is petty and a man of great cultivation. Tom killed Redford's brother-in-law, and he will definitely not give up his revenge."

Thorn nodded, and there was gloominess on his face. There was no other way. Redford was too strong, and he had too many senior disciples. Tom was not a match for Redford.

He sighed heavily and said, "Tom, why did he kill Redford's brother-in-law? This grudge is not easy to make even!"

Pence's face also flashed across some sadness. It was not easy for the Military Intelligence 3 to recruit such a genius, and there was hope that he could bring the Military Intelligence 3 to rebuild its glory. In the end, it was not long before he provoked Redford.

In his opinion, Tom was still too reckless. Even though he had reached the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, he was a young man in essence, impulsive and aggressive, and did not consider the consequences.

As for Redford, after he left the Military Intelligence 3, his face had been grim.

Next to him, a master of the second stage of the Innate Realm said, "Instructor, we just let Tom go that easily?"

Redford stopped and suddenly punched down a banyan tree more than half a meter in diameter. He snorted heavily, "Let him go? That's not gonna happen! He killed Beckett and must pay for that."

The expert said, "Just now, Pence's attitude was clear. He was determined to protect this Tom. If he had been hiding in the Military Intelligence 3, it would be difficult to make a move."

Redford's big eyes rolled a few times and said coldly, "He can't hide that long. In another week, the Colorful Fruit of Essence will be mature. When the time comes, he will definitely participate. I have plenty of ways to deal with him!"

Thinking of this, Redford felt his ideas more and more feasible. A cruel smile appeared on his face. "Hmph, Pence, do you think you can protect this Tom on your own? At that time, I will personally kill this son of bitch in front of you and avenge my brother-in-law!"

His heart ached at the mention of his brother-in-law.

Although Beckett was his brother-in-law, he had been with him for many years and had a good relationship, which was similar to his own brother. Now that Beckett was killed and his wife was crying all day, how could he let Tom go? Even if Tom was the new instructor of the Military Intelligence 3, he would kill Tom. This was non-negotiable!

Although the Military Intelligence 3 and the Military Intelligence 2 were nominally equal, in fact, the strength was too weak to be on the same level as the Military Intelligence 2, so Redford didn't have to save Pence's face at all.

A week passed in a blink of an eye.

During this week, Tom never showed up. It was as if he had disappeared from the world. His phone had been turned off and he could not be reached at all.

According to the schedule, there was only one day left before the Colorful Fruit of Essence matured. The Military Intelligence 3 was in a hurry.

Besides the Military Intelligence 3, Elliot was also in a hurry.

In fact, he had been very uneasy for the past half month. The task that Tom had given him was too important. He put down most of his work because he was afraid of delaying Tom's instructions.

Later, he found out that Tom was in seclusion and didn't bring anything with him. He had a hard time every day. Several times, he almost couldn't help but open the door for Tom in advance!

In his opinion, a normal person would not be able to hold on for two days without food or water, let alone eleven days!

Moreover, it was an absolutely enclosed space, which meant that the air inside was limited, and after Tom had been in seclusion for so long, Elliot was really afraid that Tom would die there.

He wanted to open the door earlier to check how Tom was doing. Was he still alive?

If Tom was really dead, then he would be doomed too, because all his connections and power today came from Tom. If he died, not only Elliot's career would be ruined, but his life was in danger for he had so many enemies.

Because of the expansion of the company during this period of time, he offended numerous people, but because he had Tom's strong backing, those enemies did not dare to make it difficult for him.

It was no exaggeration to say that his fate was already tied to Tom's!

"Elliot? What's wrong with you? You look so pale and sweaty. Have you been messing around these days and your body couldn't hold on?"

Malcolm walked over and saw Elliot's pale face and restless expression. He patted Elliot on the shoulder with a smile and said jokingly, but unexpectedly, his pat directly knocked Elliot to the ground and startled him.

"Elliot? Are you okay?!" Malcolm immediately helped Elliot up.

Elliot was nervous. He kept looking at the clock on the wall, pinching the time to open the door for Tom on time. He was almost scared out of his wits by Malcolm's pat. He trembled all over and saw it was Malcolm. He cursed, "Malcolm, you're scaring me to death!"

When Malcolm saw him like this, he immediately realized something was wrong and asked in a low voice, "What happened?"

Elliot swallowed and said, "Mr. Howard..."

Malcolm screamed. "What? Mr. Howard? Did something happen to him?!"

"No, shut up! Who told you that something happened to Mr. Howard?! It's like this..." Elliot looked at the appointed time Tom set. There was less than an hour left. He told Malcolm about it.

After Malcolm heard this, his face was full of shock. He said suddenly, "Damn! Eleven days! Mr. Howard is out of his mind, but you dared to hear him! Open the door for him quickly. If something happens, we will be dead!!!"

Elliot shivered and ran over to open the door for Tom...

Chapter 560

After walking for more than ten minutes, he arrived at a dark basement. Malcolm looked at a square-shaped object, which was forged from steel and was as big as a house!

Malcolm widened his eyes and said to Elliot, "Is Mr. Howard inside?"

Elliot nodded and said, "Yes, he has been in it for eleven days."

Malcolm asked. "You mean, there's no food, no water, no gaps for air. In a completely enclosed space, Mr. Howard stayed for eleven days?"

Elliot nodded awkwardly. He now felt the seriousness of the matter. When Tom told him about it that day, Tom looked relaxed, as if he was doing an easy thing. Since Elliot had a near-blind trust in Tom, he didn't think too much and did as Tom said.

However, after being reminded by Malcolm, he realized how wrong he was! No matter how powerful Tom was, he was still a human. As long as Tom was a human, he had to eat, drink, and poop. Most importantly, anyone had to breathe oxygen at all times. In this closed space, the oxygen was limited and could not support Tom's breathing for eleven days!

Malcolm scolded, "Old Wang! You did something wrong! No matter how powerful Mr. Howard is, he's still human. How can he survive for eleven days without eating, drinking, or breathing? You really think of him as a god!"

Elliot scolded. He said bitterly and flusteredly, "It's none of my business. It was Mr. Howard who asked me to do so..."

Suddenly, Malcolm thought of something. He opened his eyes wide and said, "Don't be afraid! Mr. Howard's martial arts are superb. Even a room made of steel can't shut him down. Maybe Mr. Howard has come out now."

Elliot said with a bitter smile, "I'm afraid not. The room was designed and built by Mr. Howard himself. It's more than a meter thick. Even if the machine gun can't be shot through. No matter how powerful Mr. Howard is, he can't come out of it."

After hearing that, the corner of Malcolm's mouth twitched violently. He glared at Elliot fiercely and scolded, "Old Wang, I really want to slap you twice. Why didn't you tell me such a big issue? Have you ever thought about what would happen to us if something really happened to Mr. Howard?"

Thinking of that scene, Elliot's face turned paler and his body began to tremble.

Malcolm looked very unpleasant. He said in a low voice, "Let's stop talking nonsense. Open the door quickly.

Maybe Mr. Howard will survive in there!"

He said so, but he was pessimistic about it. In his opinion, Tom probably died inside.

Soon, Elliot trembled and opened the iron door. Because the iron door was very heavy, it could not be opened with Elliot and Malcolm's strength. They had to make use of the machine next to him to open the door.

"The door opened..."

Elliot said and swallowed his saliva.

Malcolm also nodded. Then they looked inside. It was very dark, and they vaguely saw a figure sitting cross-legged inside, motionless. It was Tom.

Malcolm sniffed but he didn't smell anything. He breathed a sigh of relief. If Tom died inside, then the body must have started to stink by now.

He didn't dare to rush in immediately, but asked softly, "Mr. Howard, are you okay?"

There was no reply.

Elliot also began to say, "Mr. Howard, you have been inside for eleven days. I came to let you out."

There was still no sound.

Their hearts thumped and they looked at each other, seeing the uneasiness in each other's eyes.

Oh no. Something happened to Mr. Howard!

Just as the two rushed in towards Tom, their heads were numb. Suddenly, Tom spoke.

"Eleven days. How fast..."

Tom said emotionally. It seemed that he had gone through a lot.

Hearing this voice, the two people suddenly stopped, they suddenly looked excited, surprised and a strange feeling occurred in their hearts. It seemed that it was not Tom who was inside. Because that voice just now was too vicissitudes. To them, it sounded like an old man who had lived for hundreds of years, not their junior!

In the past, Tom had a great aura, but he had never given them this feeling, as if they were facing not their superiors, but the elders of the family.

"Well..."

They looked at each other again and saw the shock and doubt in each other's eyes.

Next, Tom moved. With his toes working hard, he stood up and walked towards Elliot and Malcolm. And every step he took, he made a cracking sound, like fried beans. It seemed that he was being reborn.

When they came out of the iron room, Elliot, Malcolm and Tom looked at each other, as if they were in the middle of the afternoon sun, and their eyes would burst into tears.

So they immediately lowered their heads and did not dare to look at Tom. They were shocked and amazed. How could Tom's eyes shine?

When they looked up again at Tom, they found that Tom was not dazzling. But immediately, they found something different about Tom. Tom was obviously taller than before! It seemed that there were four or five centimeters more for them to look up to Tom.

They subconsciously looked at Tom's feet, only to find that Tom was not wearing stilettos. Tom came out barefoot.

"Mr. Howard, are you okay?" Malcolm swallowed his saliva and asked carefully. He found that Tom seemed to be more dignified than before. He could feel Tom's overwhelming aura all the time, as if he was facing a mountain soaring into the sky.

Elliot felt the same way.

Seeing their reaction, Tom smiled and said, "Did anything unusual happen in the past eleven days?"

Elliot and Malcolm shook their heads and said no.

Then Tom bypassed them and left the basement.

Elliot and Malcolm had no choice but to leave. Anyway, Tom was alive and well, so they breathed a sigh of relief.

Next, Tom took a shower, changed into a new suit, and went to have a meal. Apart from his height, everything else seemed to be the same. Elliot and Malcolm didn't know what happened inside. Was he stronger than before?

There was less than a day left before the Colorful Fruit of Essence matured. After Tom finished eating, he immediately called Phoebe and told her that he was back.

However, when he called Phoebe, he didn't hear Phoebe's voice.
