

Chapter 646

Pence, the head of the Military Intelligence 3, said in a low voice, "Tell me what's going on. What makes you so excited?"

Thorn said excitedly, "It's Tom. He's back!"

In the whole Military Intelligence 3, Thorn had the deepest attachment to Tom. He joined the Military Intelligence 3 under Tom's recommendation.

He had a hard time during the time when Tom had an accident, and he even couldn't sleep for two days!

"Which Tom? Old Sunn, can you make it clear..." Marlin sulked. Halfway through, he suddenly realized something and widened his eyes. Then he shook his head and said, "That's impossible! Impossible!"

The others also came to their senses. Thorn was talking about Tom. For a moment, the atmosphere in the conference room became strange, and for a moment, everyone was speechless, and their expressions varied.

In fact, during this period of time, the words Tom became a taboo, and no one would mention it.

For Tom, their feelings were very complicated, because he was the most powerful one of the Military Intelligence 3, and there was no doubt about his strength. Tom was young and promising. Almost everyone hoped that he could lead the Military Intelligence 3 to glory.

However, their hopes were so high they were doomed to disappointment. What Tom did in Lion Mountain had severely hurt their feelings, and he even became a disgrace to their Military Intelligence 3, making them feel ashamed in front of other departments!

At the same time, they couldn't figure out why someone like Tom would do that. Tom was already brilliant enough. It was not necessary to take the Colorful Fruit of Essence and stand on the opposite side of H Country? In their opinion, any normal person would not do such a stupid thing.

The silence in the conference room calmed Thorn down as if he had been poured a bucket of cold water.

He finally realized that Tom could do nothing at all even if he was back. Now Tom had caused a huge disaster. Death could relieve him of his troubles. But now if Tom came back, he would face a military trial!

"Old Sunn, where did you get the news?" Finally, Pence broke the silence and asked with a frown.

The others also reacted, thinking that it might be false news. After all, they saw Tom being chased by Fausto and died in the big explosion themselves.

Thorn took the phone directly to Pence and said, "This is true. Tom is definitely back. This is his video in W City. Blaise and Maddox from the Elixir Sect died in his hands."

"Well..." Pence saw Tom in the video and immediately stood up with a shocked expression!

Although the video was a little blurry, Pence could still tell at a glance that it was Tom!

"What the hell is going on? Tom's already dead. How could he come back to life?!" Pence was also shocked. When the others saw his reaction, they realized that it was not groundless.

Tom really came back. For a moment, they all surrounded him and fixed their eyes on the video on the phone.

They all saw Tom, and they were sure it was Tom himself!

Marlin couldn't help but say, "This is Tom, but how is this possible? We all saw him die in the explosion. How could a person survive that?"

Silas, who was beside him, came back to his senses and said meaningfully, "It's the Colorful Fruit of Essence. He swallowed it, which is why he could survive, and in such a short time, he recovered from his injuries and returned intact!"

They were aware of this. Pence sighed deeply, "Since he survived, why did he come back? And why did he attract so much attention..."

That was what everyone else was worried about. The return of Tom wasn't necessarily a good thing.

"I really want to ask him now why he did this! He had a great life, but why would he waste his life like this? Even if he broke through to Immortal Realm, he can't do against the country." Thorn's expression was filled with hatred as he said.

Because of the news, they were in no mood to continue the meeting.

In fact, the Military Intelligence 3 was also facing a lot of difficulties. Now that foreign forces had infiltrated H Country even more seriously, they were helpless.

They couldn't help thinking what if Tom hadn't done that and was still a member of the Military Intelligence 3!

Unfortunately, what happened could not be changed.

Next, they all found out what Tom had done after he returned completely accepted his resurrection.

They were all waiting. When the higher-ups found out about this, they would definitely do something. They just hoped that this day would come later.

In the ZQ Media, in the chairman's office.

"Mr. Howard, I don't think the authorities will let you off that easily this time," Elliot said worriedly.

Malcolm also said, "Elder Wang is right. They were angry about you robbing the Colorful Fruit of Essence. Now that they know that you are back, I'm afraid they will send someone to arrest you."

Tom sat in a boss's chair with two iron balls in his hands. There was no panic on his face, and he said with a smile, "I know my place. You don't have to worry too much."

Hearing that Tom was so confident, Elliot and Malcolm also calmed down a lot. Although they didn't know why

Tom was so confident, they had absolute confidence in him.

Elliot and Malcolm were capable. In just two days, everything in the company was arranged in perfect order.

Tom was relieved of their abilities.

In fact, in the past two days, Tom went to look for Chou, only to find that he was no longer in H Country, and his number was non-exist.

Tom stopped looking for him because he knew that this situation meant that Chou was most likely back to the LT Organization.

Tonight, Tom spoke in a commanding tone. He gave an order to let everyone who had encroached his property come to plead guilty, and anyone who did not come would die!

The news immediately caused a stir. Everyone involved began to panic and tremble.

Almost everyone in G State kept an eye on Tom, wondering how many people would beg for mercy and how many would choose to burn their bridges.

Chapter 647

When Kiwi heard the news, he shuddered and his fear of Tom reappeared. He called Redford without thinking and reported it to him.

Redford immediately gathered everyone, and he also flew over from the Military Intelligence 2, followed by Shaw, as well as Will and Carl from the Military Intelligence 1. The four great masters of the fourth stage of Innate Realm gathered together. No matter how capable Tom was, he could not defeat them four!

Tom was already a sinner of the country. After they directly beat Tom up, crippled his martial arts, and then handed him over to the on high to punish him. Then Tom would end up worse than dying!

It could be said that the whole G State was surging at this time, but it was abnormally quiet at this crucial moment.

Those who were strong or powerful were now lurking, not daring to make any moves. Everyone was waiting if Tom came back to revenge successfully, or he was devoured by the wolves tonight.

"Chairman, do you think they really dare to come here tonight?" Elliot asked softly. He was still a little nervous. After all, Tom was against the whole powerful people of the H City on his own! Some of them were even big shots from other cities, and each one of them alone was a remarkable existence.

Malcolm could not hide his nervousness and worry.

In addition, other subordinates were all nervous, as it was the end of the world.

It was so quiet tonight that it was frightening.

Tom was the only calm one in the room. He leisurely drank his tea. "They will come."

"Really? Should we call more people here?" Elliot asked carefully.

Because he had already heard the news, Kiwi as the leader had already gathered other big shots to resist Tom!

Tom smiled and said, "Why, you don't believe me?"

Elliot quickly shook his head and said, "No, not at all. Mr. Howard, I didn't mean that. I just..."

Tom waved his hand, interrupted him, and said with a smile, "You can rest easy on this. With me around, no matter how many people they come, they can't make any difference."

Tom stated it in a very calm tone as if he was just talking about a very ordinary thing. However, his confident words and tone made everyone present feel much more relaxed.

Not long after, suddenly, two people rushed in from outside in a hurry. They looked pale and frightened. They seemed to have seen something terrible, and even their legs were shivering. "Mr. Howard, something... Something is wrong."

They looked as if they had seen a ghost, which made the relaxing atmosphere in the room get tensed all of a sudden. Malcolm frowned and scolded, "Why are you so panicking? Mr. Howard is here! You useless coward."

Elliot frowned and said, "What's wrong? Shoot it!"

The two of them swallowed hard and said, "There are a lot of people outside. They are all big shots. Besides, they bring a lot of bodyguards and thugs..."

"What?!" Elliot and Malcolm both widened their eyes, and they got tensed up again.

Subconsciously, they looked at Tom who was their absolute master.

Tom still drank his tea calmly and said, "Here they are."

As he finished speaking, from outside, a majestic sound of footsteps came in, especially orderly, step by step, as if thousands of troops were sweeping in from all directions, trying to drown this place!

Hearing this, Elliot and Malcolm became even more flustered, not to mention their more than twenty men.

Now that their faces were a little pale, they could not help but take out their weapons and put them in front of themselves.

When Tom saw them like this, he shook his head. These people's psychological quality was too terrible.

However, it was not their fault. Tom probably sensed that they had gathered thousands of people this time. It seemed that they were determined to beat him down.

Moreover, he also felt four powerful auras. It was undoubtedly the top master of the fourth stage of Innate Realm. It must be Redford, Will, Shaw, and Carl.

Just in time, he could get even with them.

The footsteps got closer and louder, and finally stopped.

The movements were especially consistent, orderly, and shocking. Now Elliot and Malcolm couldn't help but be scared. It wasn't that they didn't trust Tom, but there were too many people coming. According to the footsteps, they knew that there were at least a thousand people! There were only more than twenty of them here, forty to one. A thousand people could drown them with their saliva.

Even if Tom was good at fighting, they thought he couldn't beat a thousand of them alone.

They were too confident before. If they had known, they shouldn't have believed Mr. Howard so blindly. They were supposed to gather more people so that they would have a better chance of winning.

"Tom!"

At this moment, a contemptuous and provocative voice came from outside, declaring war on Tom.

And the voice grew louder and louder, more and more people called out, and finally, it became a huge sound wave, as if it would drown more than 20 of them in the house.

This situation made Elliot and Malcolm even more frightened.

Tom remained unmoved. He still made tea calmly, as if he had not heard them at all.

Then, the voice stopped and changed into a scornful voice. "Tom, I, York, am here. I heard you want to hit me?"

Then, another person came out. It was a fat man, "Tom! I, Eric, am here. I want to see what you dare to do to me!"

"Tom, I'm here too! I swallowed up your company and snatched billions of dollars from you. What can you do to me?"

More and more people came forward. They were all prominent figures in H City and even in G State. They were extremely afraid of Tom before. Any one of them, in front of Tom, was nobody and did not dare to go against Tom at all. But now, all of them joined forces, and they were not afraid of Tom at all. Instead, they thought they could crush Tom to death!

With so many people and so much power, this was the only chance they had to resist Tom and even swallow Tom up.

Finally, Kiwi came out of the crowd. He stared at Tom and said, "Tom, I'm here. I want to see what you are capable of. How dare you challenge so many of us!"

As he said this, more than a thousand people behind him stomped their feet and made three thumps. The momentum was incomparably majestic and frightening like an earthquake.

Chapter 648

At this moment, Kiwi was in a spirit of militant pride. He straightened his back with a majestic demeanor and felt like reaching the pinnacle of his life. Now he had a greater sense of accomplishment than when he founded the KL Group and became a top dog!

Tom was absolutely a big demon. In the past two years, his influence hung over everyone's head like a giant mountain. In these two days, knowing that Tom had returned, he saw the days creep by like years. He had never suffered this before.

Now he could finally stick out his chest to face Tom, so he was excited.

He looked at Tom in contempt instead of awe. He was now confident that Tom would come to the end of his life. And Tom was doomed to die today!

He was rather looking forward to seeing Tom in despair. It must be wonderful. He would film it and enjoy it. Ha ha ha.

Undoubtedly, Kiwi's current posture was very frightening. Ordinary people would be scared.

Unfortunately, his opponent was Tom, the most powerful master in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. Therefore, what Kiwi did was just like a clown performing antics in front of Tom.

When Kiwi saw that Tom remained calm and fearless, he was inexplicably afraid. But soon, he thought that the four great masters including Redford were here, so he was not afraid of anything.

"Tom! It's not your time anymore. How dare you come back? You're asking for death!"

"That's right! Tom, how dare you challenge us? Do you really think you are invincible? You're doomed today!"

"Tom, kneel down and beg for mercy. Maybe we'll spare you if we are satisfied. Ha ha ha..."

The other masters also began to yell at Tom. They were a little nervous at first.

But when they saw clearly that only more than 20 people followed Tom, they immediately regained their confidence and were ready to attack Tom. In their eyes, 20 people were not their match at all.

Moreover, they had the backup of Redford and the other three masters. They were strong enough to crush Tom to pieces!

They kept approaching Tom like locusts, trying to devour Tom and the other twenty people.

Elliot stood up and scold loudly, "Kiwi, nonsense, Eric! How dare you disrespect Mr. Howard? I think you're tired of living! Do you really think you ants can pull Mr. Howard's wrist?"

Malcolm also scolded loudly, "You are asking for your own death at this time. Mr. Howard asked you to come here tonight because he wanted to give you a chance. You are actually shameless. Do you really think Mr. Howard is a soft persimmon?"

The two of them tried their best to restrain their fear. Now Tom was silent. They had to speak for Tom to raise their morale.

"Ha ha ha..." Kiwi burst out laughing and looked contemptuous. "Elliot, Malcolm, you two lackeys, could you stop trembling when yelling at us? Tsk tsk, I feel sorry for you! You are trying so hard to hold back your fear. Ha ha ha."

The others also laughed. Now Elliot and Malcolm looked especially funny.

York mocked, "Elliot, Malcolm, you two are also big shots. Now, you actually work so hard as lackeys for this fledgling boy Tom. Do you feel ashamed? I'm ashamed of you!"

"Well, we were used to be acquaintances. Now if you kowtow to us and admit your mistakes, we can consider letting you go. How about that? We are righteous enough."

The others laughed again.

Elliot and Malcolm were trembling with anger. But they could do nothing about it and felt bitter. Now they regretted it. They were worried about Tom. He had asked too few people to confront so many people. They had thousands of people. This was not a battle of the same level at all.

They couldn't help but look at Tom. Seeing that Tom was still calm, they couldn't understand what Tom was thinking.

Kiwi stared fixedly at Tom. When he saw that Tom was still so calm, he was very unhappy. "Tom! You hit my son last time and I hadn't even settled accounts with you! Today, I think that you were..."

Finally, at this moment, Tom spoke.

"Shut up." He said two simple words. He didn't sound domineering but only said faintly. However, these two words were weighty enough to Kiwi. He immediately became afraid and couldn't help but shut up, not daring to say more.

Seeing that the others were looking at him with a little disdain, Kiwi came back to his senses and was furious. "Tom, your last hour has come. How dare you be stubborn! Today I'm here. What can you do to me?"

Kiwi was shamed into anger. He had boasted that he could scare the shit out of Tom tonight. However,

Tom's two simple words had already frightened him. How could he convince the public?

Tom frowned slightly and said, "What a noise."

After saying that, he dipped a drop of water on the table with his middle finger. Then he bent his thumb and flicked the waterdrop at Kiwi. There was a slight buzzing sound. The waterdrop flew towards Kiwi and almost instantly into his mouth. Kiwi screamed and fell to the ground. He covered his mouth and rolled on the ground in great pain.

This sudden change stunned everyone present. No one had expected Tom to do such a thing. It was so scary that he could hurt people more than ten meters away with just a drop of water.

Kiwi was screaming and couldn't say one more word.

Elliot and Malcolm also opened their eyes wide and were extremely shocked. They knew that Tom's martial arts were very high. But the superhuman skill that Tom showed just now still scared them. At the same time, they relaxed a lot.

"You, you, you..."

York on the side narrowed his pupils. Obviously he was so frightened that he pointed at Tom and could not say a complete sentence.

Others' arrogance reduced a lot at this moment.

Although there were many of them, they were just ordinary people. They still had instinctive reverence for this kind of superhuman skill.

They also realized that although they had many people, it was easy for Tom to kill any of them.

Tom stood up. He narrowed his eyes and swept across them. At this moment, his momentum was constantly lifted up, which actually surpassed thousands of people's. Now he wasn't besieged by them. Instead, he surrounded them alone!

Chapter 649

"No matter how many of you come, you are still losers, and you want to compete with a supreme master? That's funny!" Tom's words sounded very powerful. Standing there, he looked like a god of war and people was in awe of him.

"I called you here tonight. I was thinking that we had met before. As long as you guys are sincere and apologize to me, I will let you go." When Tom said this, he paused, and he ran his eyes over everyone. His words sounded authoritative. "But you are making mistakes, and you dare to challenge me!"

This scene was very shocking. Tom was confronting thousands of people on his own. They could drown Tom with one mouthful of the saliva of each, but they were afraid of Tom. Everyone who was stared at by Tom would be genuinely frightened. They quickly lowered their heads and did not dare to face Tom at all!

There were even people who retreated, feeling a sense of fear.

"Kneel down for me. Those who comply with me thrive and those who resist me perish!"

Tom stood in front of them with his hands behind his back. He gazed at everyone at a king.

Tom's aura was so great that it was a great shock and threat to them, which made their momentum dissipate gradually.

As it was said, "Do it all at once, second time tired, third time exhausted". They were already starting to exhaust.

Someone was terrified and was really ready to kneel down for Tom.

Just then, a disdainful voice rang out from behind the crowd, "Tom, you ungrateful sinner, you are still pretending!"

The voice was loud, like thunder in the sky, resounding throughout all the people present and reached everyone's ears. It was loud and rumbling, as the god of thunder landing on the ground, making people tremble, and they could not help but feel fear.

Especially the people on Tom's side: they felt the boundless pressure, as if thunder exploded in their ears, making them extremely scared and pale!

And when the voice fell, a tall figure appeared in front of them, dressed in military uniform, giving out an oppressive and tense atmosphere. It was a man like iron and steel, and he was Redford.

He was now staring at Tom with a scary look, his eyes shining terrifyingly.

Tom saw him, but he showed a half-smile. "I was wondering why these ants dared to be so bold and attack me. It turns out that you are behind them."

Redford found that he could not see through Tom. In his perception, Tom was like an unpredictable dark fog in front of him. You know, before, he could see 80% of Tom's strength, but now, he couldn't even see 50% of Tom's strength.

This was not a good omen. It was most likely that Tom had surpassed him too much. But he was already in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. If Tom wanted to beat him in the realm, he had to be in the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm! And how could this be?

In any case, he called Will and the three of them this time. Even if Tom was really in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, they could only suffer the consequences.

"Tom, I think you refuse to be convinced until you are faced with grim reality! Last time in Lion Mountain, you dared to steal the Colorful Fruit of Essence and have already committed a huge disaster! Now you dare to come back. You may don't know how to write the word "death". This time, I will arrest you back and let you accept a military trial!" Redford narrowed his eyes and threatened him very intimidatingly.

When Elliot and Malcolm heard this, they became nervous. Redford was not an ordinary person, but a big shot in the government and his strength was extraordinary. If he attacked Tom, he would be miserable

When York and Eric saw Redford appear, their panicked mood began to slowly relax and they quickly said, "Redford is right. Tom is extremely guilty. He should be caught back and tortured to death!"

"Tom, you're in trouble. Let's see how you die this time!"

They started shouting again, no different from a shrew.

Tom was so annoyed by the noise that he glanced at them coldly. "If who shits again, I'll cut his tongue."

The noise suddenly stopped. They were still deeply afraid of Tom.

Redford was even angrier when he saw that Tom still dared to be arrogant. He snorted coldly, "You're dying. You still dare to pretend! Tom, last time you dared to kill my brother-in-law, since you are a member of the Military Intelligence 3, I spared your life. In the end, you dared to disobey your superior's order openly. This time, I will make you suffer a horrible death!"

In the face of his clamor, Tom said directly, "Retarded."

"You, presumptuous!" Redford was even angrier, his face turning red. In his opinion, Tom was already a fish in a barrel. In this case, Tom's wisest choice was to kneel down, beg for mercy and repent to him, instead of being arrogant as he was now, which was like he was seeking death!

Redford waved his big hand and shouted in a commanding tone, "All of you, take Tom down!"

His words were full of strength, which made many people who hated Tom ignite their anger, and they all began to feel hot and indignant. They rushed at Tom with threatening gestures, trying to tear Tom apart with countless people's strength!

It had to be said that hundreds of people rushed over at once, like locusts, and the picture was still very shocking. Elliot, Malcolm and the others behind Tom felt unprecedented pressure at this moment, which crushed their mentality. Many people began to wag their legs and they were totally not in the mood of resistance.

"Hmph." Tom snorted coldly. He didn't make any big movements. He just lifted his right foot and stepped down hard. There was a loud bang, and the strength made the ground tremble!

And with an unstoppable force, it spread out in front of them, making the people who rushed up in front of him feel as if they had stepped on a landmine. There was a huge impact on the ground, which made them jump up and fall to the ground, causing the people who rushed over behind them to be knocked over, too.

For a moment, wails were heard everywhere.

Redford raised his eyebrows a few times when he saw this scene, and his eyes were uncontrollably filled with horror and fear.

He knew that Tom was fierce, but he didn't expect that he would be so powerful that he was even stronger than he was in Lion Mountain!

But how could this be? How long had it been? And Tom was seriously injured.

Could it be that the Colorful Fruit of Essence really had such a big effect?

Now Tom's eyes were fixed on him, he swallowed heavily and became a little nervous.

"Redford, are you afraid now?" Tom looked at him without concealing his contempt for him. He even crooked his finger and said, "Come on, I'll use only one hand."

Chapter 650

Tom perfectly illustrated what it meant to be arrogant, domineering, and invincible.

Redford gritted his teeth angrily. He didn't expect Tom to escape from more than 40 masters of the Innate Realm. Tom also escaped from Fausto and he even had his cultivation advanced. It was simply unreasonable!

How could there be such a genius in this world?

Redford stared fixedly at Tom, and the murderous intent in his heart had reached a climax. He realized that if he didn't get Tom killed this time, then there was no guarantee that Shifu would not punish Tom if Shifu found out that Tom had such potential!

After all, the most precious thing in these times was talent.

Moreover, if Tom was really to be held accountable for his crimes, he was not guilty of treason, but merely disobeying the orders of Shifu.

So, at this moment, Redford had made up his mind to kill Tom tonight!

He would get Tom killed at any cost!

Fortunately, he had the foresight to ask Will and another two people to help him.

"Ha ha ha ha..." Redford laughed loudly. His laughter was so loud that it pierced the sky and shook the world. He stared at Tom. "Tom, do you really think you are invincible after eating the Colorful Fruit of Essence? You're so arrogant! Just kiss my ass!"

He snapped his fingers and immediately, almost at the same time, three people appeared beside him. They were Will, Shaw and Carl.

Tom looked at them and narrowed his eyes. He was not afraid at all, but showed his convictions.

He was waiting for the three masters to appear.

They were four masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. On a national scale, they were indeed formidable opponents! In some small countries, they would be even more powerful. With these four people, they could completely destroy a small country!

But they were just best sandbags in front of Tom.

"You finally appeared. Great!" Tom's momentum was rising. At this moment, he was no longer human, but a god of war, born for battle!

Redford and the remaining three men felt Tom's aura and looked at each other. They saw the intense killing intent in each other's eyes as well as deep jealousy!

They were extremely jealous of Tom.

When they saw Tom, their hearts were filled with resentment.

They were all first-rate geniuses, but they were nothing to Tom.

They could not imagine why Tom could escape from that situation and grow to this level.

There was only one possibility. It was the power of the Colorful Fruit of Essence. Tom had eaten the Colorful Fruit of Essence, so not only did he get away, he healed pretty quickly.

Tom was talented enough, and now that he had eaten the Colorful Fruit of Essence that was borne once every hundred years, his power would be immeasurable. If they let Tom leave alive tonight, then they would be killed.

So Tom had to die!

"Tom, today is your day of death!"

"You traitor. Today we will enforce justice on behalf of Heaven and kill you!"

"Tom, go to hell!"

"Let's go together!"

The four masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm attacked Tom almost at the same time. The momentum they brought was as devastating as tsunami and landslide. Even for a moment, the people present thought that this world could not hold their power and was about to collapse.

This was impossible. They were far from being able to do that. It was because their mental strength was too strong. To ordinary people, it was a higher level of oppression.

Not to mention ordinary people, even Tom felt an unprecedented pressure at this moment, which made his mind freeze in an instant.

In less than a blink of an eye, the four masters had already arrived in front of Tom and launched a fatal attack on Tom from four different directions!

"Bring it on!" Tom shouted. He was not afraid or restrained at all. Instead, he was overjoyed. This was the happiest fight he had ever fought since he broke through to the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm!

Because people at the fourth stage of the Innate Realm were no match for him.

The sound of four punches to the flesh spread all over the venue, making everyone suddenly feel that the power beyond human beings. If any of them was hit like that, he would surely die!

Tom fought four people alone, but he did not panic at all. His attack was exquisite and perfect, deflecting the attacks of the four people perfectly.

Redford and the rest of the three men were so shocked in their hearts that they almost screamed. They were all at the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, already standing at the top of the human pyramid!

They had never teamed up before because they were big shots. If they joined forces, the whole world would go to spit on them.

This also showed that how powerful they were. Although they had joined forces, they were actually unable to defeat Tom and Tom still had the edge in the fight. What did this mean?

This meant that Tom's martial arts had reached an extremely powerful level!

Even the master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm was nothing more than that.

The thought startled all four people. Could it be that Tom had really reached the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm?! Unbelievable!

"Tom, what kind of monster are you?!"

"This is definitely not the cultivation you can have in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. Have you broken through to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm?"

Both Shaw and Will blurted out in shock.

Tom chuckled. "Are you afraid now? Unfortunately, it's too late!"

As soon as Tom finished his words, he sped up, punched Shaw directly.

The punch was so powerful and fast that it directly blew up the air. Tom's fist formed a hot air current, like a meteorite falling from the Heaven, tearing the air apart.

What Shaw saw was a huge fall of red fire, with the smell of death. With this punch, he would be beaten to death, and his body would be destroyed!

His nerves were also strained to the breaking point at this moment as he let out his resigned roar, "Ahhhhhhh!!!"

He raised his arms in front of his chest to block Tom's punch...

However, he still underestimated Tom's strength. Tom's punch broke his arm and hit him hard on the chest. He, who weighed more than 100 kilograms, flew out like a ball.
