

Chapter 681

A real professional could tell what it was as soon as he took a sniff.

Strictly speaking, this was the first time he had ever fought a top master of Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. Previously in Lion Mountain, his fight with Fausto was not a battle because Fausto did not play his due strength and did not take Tom seriously.

But now, Tom had become stronger, on a par with Waylon. So, he would not underestimate the enemy. The first move he made was the Thunder Power.

Fortunately, Tom was not a pushover.

He started to move almost the same time as Waylon moved. So, no matter how fast Waylon moved, he could dodge.

Waylon didn't feel surprised even his first move missed. If Tom couldn't even make this move, he wouldn't deserve to be a master of Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm.

He did not stop. The ship had sailed. There was no way to stop.

His boxing was like an arrow and he could punch hundreds of times in a second, which was terrifying. In an instant, they surrounded Tom. Every punch was full of explosive power. The sound of punching carried over the field. Every punch blew through the air like a firecracker.

Tom kept retreating and he was at a disadvantage. Seemingly, he could do nothing but parry. If it went on like this, it was only a matter of time before he lost.

People present curled their toes. Was this the strength of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm? They couldn't stand it at all.

People of the Military Intelligence 3 were nervous and they worried that Tom couldn't take Waylon's punches. In fact, they did not think that Tom was not Waylon's match in their deep hearts.

"No, Waylon is serious. He wants to kill Tom." Seeing this, Pence's face changed drastically and he became worried.

Marlin's pupils constricted, with awe and horror on his face. He sighed sincerely, "Is this the strength of the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm? It is really scary."

Waylon had been modest about his skill for so many years.

Silas frowned and said worriedly, "No, I'm afraid Tom is not Waylon's match."

Thorn said, "Then what should we do? Should we stop it?"

Pence shook his head and said, "We can't stop. Waylon didn't come alone. If we moved, Redford and the others will definitely make a move. It will be us who will suffer."

Hearing what Pence said, the rest of the people of the Military Intelligence 3 became silent. He was right. If they made a move, Redford and others would definitely do the same.

However, on Redford's side, it was a different scene. They were all excited.

"Waylon is indeed invincible. He beat Tom up just one look." One of the masters of the Innate Realm from Military Intelligence 1 flattered.

"Of course. Waylon is a master of Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. Under the influence of Immortal Realm, he is invincible. Back then, Waylon destroyed an army in the middle east region by himself. Do you think it's easy?"

"That's right. With Waylon taking the field, Tom is nothing but a piece of cake."

"Waylon is mighty. This time, there is no way Tom can escape."

Redford looked straight at him with enthusiasm and excitement. His hatred for Tom had reached a terrifying point where he wanted to kill Tom in his dreams. It could be said that he hated Tom not just because Tom killed his brother-in-law.

"Tom, you are not my match. Surrender. I can spare your life if you give up." Waylon attacked him leisurely and spoke calmly. Obviously, he didn't exert his utmost power.

Tom kept silent and retreating. In the eyes of all, he seemed to have fallen into a disadvantage. It was only a matter of time before he lost.

Seeing that Tom was silent, Waylon seemed to have lost his patience. He snorted coldly and said, "Tom, I'll give you one last chance. Surrender, or die."

Tom was still silent. Waylon was angry, "It seems that you have to do this the hard way. Since that's the case, then I will kill you."

As soon as he finished speaking, Waylon sped up a little. Even in the daytime, nobody could see his track clearly but the shadows. It was obvious that he moved fast.

In everyone's eyes, what they saw was no longer a man who was 1.8 meters tall, but a huge Glutton Beast, with three heads and six arms. and its bloody mouth was wide open to swallow a mountain in one bite.

Tom was an ant in front of Waylon, and one blow would crush him into pieces.

"Oh no, Waylon has a trump card. Tom is in danger."

Pence immediately cried out, full of nervousness and despair.

Others clenched their fists, a wave of nameless sadness surging into their hearts. Tom was going to be defeated by Waylon. Once he was injured, nothing but endless sinking was waiting for him, and there was no chance of a turnaround.

"Good!" Redford's eyes were bright, and he was overjoyed. His face was red. He could finally see bastard Tom be brought to justice with his own eyes. When Tom was detained, he would use the cruelest to torture him.

Not only him, but also Shaw and others were extremely excited. They thought that Tom was doomed this time.

However, at this moment, everyone in the room heard a sigh, "Waylon, is this all you have? I'm disappointed."

It was Tom's voice.

It was full of strong disappointment, and vitality, with no sign of overwhelming.

"What?"

Hearing this voice, Waylon's heart skipped a beat, and his eyebrows twitched twice.

What was going on? Tom kept his strength?

Not only him but everyone present was stunned and unable to react for a while.

In the next moment, all of them were shocked. In their perception, Tom's momentum changed in an instant. He was no longer the defeated army that kept retreating and showing the trend of defeating. Instead, he was an elite army who woke up in an instant. He held the spear in the air, which could pierce the sky.

Tom looked up. To them, this simple motion gave them a feeling that the god of war opened his eyes and the sun shone. The next moment the disaster and destruction would follow.

The Glutton Beast, in front of Tom, was just a meal on the plate and it could not stop the anger of the god of war.

The one who felt the most was Waylon who got goosebumps all over his body. In an instant, he felt a great crisis which came from the young man in front of him. His brows twitched fiercely twice, and he subconsciously wanted to step back.

However, he was too late...

Chapter 682

When he was about to retreat, Tom had stretched out his fist.

There was no warning as if it had appeared out of thin air. Tom should stretch out his fist so fast!

At this moment, Waylon felt scared. He had a premonition that if he was punched, he would definitely be seriously injured, so he must be careful.

He had no time to think about why Tom's strength had increased so much at once. It was completely unusual that Tom knew what Waylon was about to do!

Tom moved so fast that Waylon did not have the chance to dodge. In a hurry, he made up his mind to fight against Tom directly.

Otherwise, he would not get the upper hand.

He was the powerful head of Military Intelligence 2. If he was defeated by Tom, he would lose his face.

So no matter what, he could not lose!

He let out a roar, and a huge sound wave burst out of his mouth and covered Tom.

This sound wave was very big. Even a master of the Innate Realm would lose his eardrums if he was not careful at once.

Tom was a master of Major Perfection Realm, so he would not be deaf, but he might have a tinnitus problem, temporarily losing his hearing. But Tom would not be powerful once he lost his hearing.

Almost at the same time, Tom reacted. His ears closed quickly as if there was an invisible hand covering his ears.

This greatly reduced the damage to his eardrums caused by the sound waves.

This punch was already in front of Waylon...

They both had experienced such a situation a lot.

Bang!

Waylon came in late and collided with Tom's punch.

Their fists collided, causing a huge movement. The huge Military Intelligence 3 shook violently twice, and, under their feet, there were several cracks, and a strong aftereffect also tore the ground apart.

At the same time, their bodies quickly retreated, leaving a ten-centimeter footprint on the ground with every step they took!

In the end, their extremely tough shoes made from special materials broke open and they were barefoot.

Tom took ten steps back, more than 20 meters away.

Waylon, on the other hand, took at least 15 steps back, approaching 40 meters!

Moreover, Waylon's face was extremely ugly.

His right hand was also trembling slightly.

Moreover, his fist began to bleed, and the blood fell to the ground bit by bit.

In comparison, Tom was much calmer, and his blood and energy were rolling a little, but he soon controlled that, with a faint smile on his face. His right fist was not bleeding, nor was it trembling.

Obviously, Tom won this fight.

It was suddenly silent.

Everyone looked at Tom in shock. They had no idea that Tom had won. In fact, Waylon was so powerful, being a big shot among the three divisions.

But now, he was defeated by Tom?

They still felt it was unreal even if they saw it with their own eyes as if they were dreaming.

Redford and the others, in particular, were all stunned. They could not believe it.

After a short period of shock, Pence and the others suddenly became excited and their faces turned red!

Tom did not stop. Instead, he flicked his fingers and attacked Waylon, "Now, it's my turn."

Tom reached the front of Waylon at once and clapped his hand. It was impossible for Waylon to escape.

Waylon felt to be controlled under Tom's palm, and there was nothing he could do.

This was because Tom's mental strength was too great, which brought Waylon a huge disturbance and made him feel sad and desperate to escape.

However, Waylon was also a Major Perfection Realm master of the Innate Realm. He also had reached a peak and experienced a lot. Almost in an instant, he had already realized it, snorting heavily and said, "You dare to teach me tricks!"

Although he was shocked when he lost to Tom with one punch just now, he would not think that he was no match for Tom. On the contrary, he was more excited about the fight.

He also regarded Tom as an equal-level opponent.

As the head of the Military Intelligence 2, Waylon had spent most of his life in battle. He was a better master than Tom.

Tom was impressed by Waylon's confidence. No wonder Waylon had such great power, he should suppress the momentum of the entire Military Intelligence 3.

However, Tom became more excited to fight.

He stopped talking nonsense and focused on fighting Waylon.

Waylon was the strongest opponent he had ever met since his debut. His strength was even as strong as Fausto.

If he could defeat Waylon, he would have more confidence to fight Fausto.

Although Waylon was forced back by a punch just now, he was not hurt. He still maintained his original fighting strength.

If it had not been for Pence and Redford, the masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, people at present would have been wounded by mistake.

But even so, people were very shocked about the battle. They had never seen such a fierce and terrifying battle. They seriously suspected Tom and Waylon could tear down the entire Military Intelligence 3!

The dust was flying all over the place, making everyone unable to see how the battle was going. They could only hear the sound of blood spurting out.

Suddenly, it was quiet.

Then, a cold voice said, "Waylon, you lost."

Chapter 683

What had happened? Everyone was stunned when they heard Tom's voice.

Next, they saw a shocking scene.

The dust slowly dispersed and the scene unfolded. Tom stood with his hands behind his back. Although he was injured, he did not look embarrassed. Waylon climbed up from the ground, dressed in rags, and there were many injuries on his body. He looked dispirited and unwilling.

It was obvious that Tom had defeated Waylon!

This result stunned all of them and they were all unable to believe it!

"This..."

Pence's eyes widened, and the shock in his eyes could not be concealed. Although Tom also reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, the same realm as Waylon, Waylon was known as the living king of hell for a long time. In the past twenty years, Waylon had done many earth-shattering things. How could he be defeated by Tom?!

It was not long before Tom reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm.

Tom had made tremendous progress.

Even Pence felt very afraid, not to mention Redford and others. What Tom did was a huge blow to them!

"Waylon lost?"

"No, it's impossible. How is that possible? Waylon is the absolute king. How could he lose to this young man..."

Waylon's eyes were fixed on Tom. He was shocked greatly. Just now, when he fought with Tom, he had used all his skills and all his trump cards, but he still lost to Tom.

Tom was too powerful and he had strong learning ability. The more they fought, the more exquisite Tom's moves became. Waylon lost step by step. When Waylon realized it, he had no strength to fight back!

"What kind of evil are you?!" Waylon was no longer calm. He was shocked and in dumbfounded.

Now he began to believe the story that Tom had seen God of War as Tom was really too powerful. Tom was only less than thirty years old and was already that powerful. How could the country be willing to wipe out such a talented person?!

No wonder Tom had been so calm all along!

"Damn it!" Waylon cursed, not at Tom, but at Redford and Shaw. If it weren't for these two idiots, he wouldn't have come to the Military Intelligence 3 to arrest Tom. If he succeeded, it would be fine as Tom was indeed a sinner without orders from Shifu. However, he was defeated and humiliated. If the news got out, he would be a laughing-stock!

Tom gave a half smile, obviously knowing what Waylon was thinking. "You are the director of the Military Intelligence 2. How can you be egged on by two of your subordinates? Why do you believe that I don't know I'm guilty? I came back just to wait for a clown like you to show up. Thank you for helping me complete the test."

Waylon was a smart man. When he heard this, he immediately understood. Then he was very angry because he had been deceived. He became God of War's tool to test Tom!

In an instant, even with his temperament, he could not help but get angry. He gritted his teeth and almost went berserk.

He had won for half his life and now he was defeated by Tom. Damn it!

However, he did not dare to do anything else. He snorted heavily and was about to leave.

Tom stopped him and said, "Waylon, where are you going?"

Waylon stared at him and said, "Tom, I admit you are powerful. I underestimated you so I lost. I will spare your life for the time being. However, Shifu's temper is not as good as mine. When Shifu gives the order, you cannot escape!"

"Ha ha ha." Tom seemed to have heard a big joke and burst out laughing. "Waylon, at this point, you still refuse to admit your mistakes. Do you really think I can be easily bullied by you just because I'm young?"

At this moment, Tom let out all his power which covered the entire venue. He completely overpowered Waylon.

Waylon frowned. He had a bad feeling that if Tom really wanted to pick on him, he would have no way out.

Now that Waylon was injured and had lost less than half of his fighting capacity. Tom had only expended some of his physical strength. When the time to fight came, Waylon would be the one to suffer.

After getting a sign from Waylon, Redford immediately stood out and shouted, "Tom, stop pushing your luck! Waylon has a broad mind, and he never go too far. If he didn't tank the fight, how can you win? You had committed a huge crime. When Shifu gives the order, you will die!"

Tom glared at Redford and said "Nuisance". Then Tom moved and rushed towards Redford.

This time, he moved very fast and he instantly came to Redford.

In an instant, Redford felt Tom's power. Tom was so powerful that Redford felt the sky above him was about to fall. Redford realized that there would be an unprecedented crisis. He immediately panicked and shouted, "Tom, how dare you..."

However, before he could finish his words, Tom slapped him hard on the face and sent him flying. He somersaulted several times in the air. When he fell down, half of his face swelled up and one of his teeth was knocked off.

"Who are you? How dare you yell at me?" Tom said coldly.

All the people in the room fell silent again.

Tom shocked them once again.

He was too overbearing and powerful.

After all, Redford was not a nobody, but a top expert in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. Many people had to rely on him, but now, he was slapped by Tom and had no power to fight back.

Even people from the Military Intelligence 3 looked at Tom with fear in their eyes. Tom was too scary.

Redford only felt that half of his face was gone. What he was suffering was no longer a burning pain, but a piercing pain!

In particular, half of his teeth had been knocked off and his mouth was full of blood.

He looked up at Tom and met Tom's cold and mocking eyes. He was frightened and had a deep fear of Tom.

As soon as Shaw and others met Tom's eyes, without exception, they could not help but tremble and lower their heads in panic.

When Waylon saw this, he was very upset. To his surprise, Tom was so powerful and overbearing. Now Waylon had lost both his reputation and dignity, so the situation became difficult for him deal with.

"Who allows you to leave?" However, no sooner had he taken two steps than he heard Tom's voice came from behind, full of authority and teasing.

Waylon stopped and stared at Tom, "Tom, I'm warning you, don't go too far!"

"Go too far?" Tom smiled disdainfully.

"If I'm out of line, what are you gonna do to me?"

As he spoke, Tom walked towards Waylon with his eyes fixed on Waylon.

Waylon panicked and immediately said in a low voice, "Tom, what the hell do you want?"

"I want you to apologize to everyone in the Military Intelligence 3."

Chapter 684

Ten minutes later, they left dejectedly.

The members of the Military Intelligence 3 were in a daze and couldn't believe it.

It was impossible for a man like Waylon to apologize. It was worse than being killed for him.

But just now, Waylon was forced by Tom to apologize. They were in disbelief.

It was especially incredible for people like Pence. They knew Waylon for many years and had never seen him apologize.

But Tom made it today.

They didn't just appreciate Tom but were absolutely in awe of him. They could imagine what achievements Tom would make and what status he would have. He would not just stay in Military Intelligence 3, where Tom's potential couldn't be fulfilled.

Not long after, he would go to Y City.

"He is really arrogant. He defeated Waylon and asked Fann to apologize."

Joseph moved his chess and shook his head. He appreciated him even more.

God of War, Albert smiled and said, "He's not arrogant. He did it on purpose. Once he has such an image, it will be more convenient for him. Tom is a genius."

Joseph nodded and agreed with Albert. He said, "Such a talent can be cultivated by H Country. It means that the country could be prosperous. Maybe we can entrust the task to Tom."

Albert shook his head and said, "Don't be in a hurry. We should continue to observe him."

"Well, no problem."

After it, Tom was regarded as a supreme god in the Military Intelligence 3.

Even Pence was unconsciously respectful when he spoke to him, let alone others.

Tom did not feel much about the change. He smiled and didn't care about it unconsciously.

The next day, Tom left the Military Intelligence 3 for H City.

Phoebe was busy during the period of time. Under her leadership, the Scotts was more and more prosperous. The SK Lighting also raised funds several times and a public offering was going to be made.

Under the operation of Elliot and Malcolm, Tom's three big companies prospered. He didn't need to do anything now and became the idlest person.

He was getting even richer. His assets had exceeded 300 billion. It was terrific.

However, since Tom gained so much money, money had been nothing but a bunch of numbers for him. And he did a lot for charity with the money.

As for his old classmate, Kai, he was assigned to work for Malcolm. When Kai knew Tom's identity, he was stunned. It took a full minute for him to come back to his senses, and then he exclaimed in excitement.

He knew that Tom was not ordinary, but he never expected that Tom had such a big business. Even some big companies he usually heard of were about Tom.

Compared with him, Leyla was nobody!

He was especially glad that he didn't despise him like Dane and his followers. Otherwise, how could he have such a good opportunity?

Now he followed Tom and had his day.

And the news was spread very quickly. The old classmates knew Tom's identity only a few days later. The bosses of several giant groups and even Lord should respect Tom!

When they heard the news, they were completely stunned. Then they slapped themselves heavily and were extremely regretful.

If they knew Tom's identity, they wouldn't have dared to offend him, let alone ridicule him!

Dane and his followers were especially frightened. They were afraid that Tom would avenge them. In less than a week, Dane was sick and almost died.

They knew that Kai prospered after following Tom and was jealous. Even those who despised Kai began to flatter Kai. A few beautiful girls even tried to seduce him.

For a moment, Kai also felt what it was when he was superior.

However, he did not lose himself. He knew that Tom hated them very much. If he arranged them in the company without his permission, Tom would definitely be unhappy.

Kai had been poor for so many years and cherished the opportunity very much. He was like a drowning person, who grasped the life-saving straw. He would never let go of it.

The class beauty, Leyla didn't live well recently. She had been sleepless for a few days.

Since she knew Tom's identity, she had countless thoughts. But she couldn't do anything cause she could not get in touch with Tom at all.

She was the one who regretted it the most.

If she took the initiative, she could attract Tom with her beauty. But she wasted this opportunity!

When she was unlucky, everything would happen. She felt that she had bad luck now. Her business was declining. She lost money in several projects and was short of funds in some projects.

She developed so fast these years that she was arrogant. She didn't have a good foundation. It didn't matter on good days, but she couldn't make money on bad days.

She would be bankrupt soon if she remained the same.

She wanted to ask Tom for help, but Tom ignored her. She couldn't even see him. She had no choice but to take second place to look for other big shots so that she could get through the difficulties by getting a fund.

She drank with more than a dozen customers at the grand hotel tonight. She drank too much and almost vomited several times.

"Mr. Chan, I really can't drink anymore. If I drink any more, I..." Leyla pleaded.

Mr. Chan said with a smile, "It's the last glass. After drinking it, you will not drink."

Leyla looked at the brimful glass of wine in front of her. There were at least 100 grams. If she drank it, she would definitely be drunk.

She knew very well that Mr. Chan wanted to get her drunk and violate her.

She thought of Tom. If she didn't mock him, he would have been willing to help her.

But it's said that an arrow couldn't be withdrawn when it was shot. She had already done it and couldn't change it even though she was so regretful.

"Mr. Chan, if I drink it, will you sign the contract?" Leyla gritted her teeth and said.

Mr. Chan looked at her passionately and nodded, "Sure. As long as you drink, I'll sign the contract. Hehe."

Chapter 685

Leyla was in a struggle. She would definitely be wasted if she drank this glass. But if she did not drink, she would not be able to get through this crisis!

After careful consideration, she decided to drink it.

"Okay! I'll drink it! I hope Mr. Chan won't break his promise."

"What are you talking about? I am Moshe! Words spoken are like poured water. I will never break my word. You can take my word that as long as you drink this glass of spirit, I'll sign the contract!" Mr. Chan said loudly.

Leyla couldn't resist the offer. She wanted this investment so much that she gritted her teeth, picked up her glass, and gulped it down!

It was a strong spirit, and the aftereffect was especially strong. After having a few glasses, she felt dizzy. Her face was so red that it looked like the blood was about to come out of her body. Her eyes were blurred, and she burped heavily and said, "Mr. Chan, I... I've already drunk it. Please sign the document now."

Mr. Chan lost his senses when he saw her staggering appearance. His eyes did not hide the heat and obscenity. He saw Leyla's sexy body feature and felt even hornier. He was drooling over her body and kept swallowing his saliva.

"Don't rush it. Have some food first. I'll sign it right away after we finish dinner."

Leyla's face sunken immediately, and she said anxiously, "Mr. Chan, please sign now. We've both read the contract, and it has no problem. All you need to do is to sign."

Mr. Chan chuckled and said, "Slow down, slow down. I just said I'll sign it right away after dinner. You're so pretty, Miss Edwards. I heard you're not married yet, but do you have any sexual experience?"

Mr. Chan tore open his disguise and looked at Leyla lustfully. It felt like he was using his gaze to undress her.

Leyla was not stupid. Now she understood that Moshe never intended to sign the contract and invest in her company. All he wanted was to lure her to bed.

"Mr. Chan, you just promised me that as long as I drank, you would sign the contract. How... how can you break your promise! What's the difference between what you did and a snob?!" Leyla said angrily.

Moshe frowned and said, "Miss Edwards, mind your word! I just said that I would sign the contract after you drink it, but I didn't say when I would do it. Now, sit down, and let's have a little chat. I'll consider signing the contract when I feel good."

"You!" Leyla was furious. In the past, she didn't have to beg someone like Moshe. But there was no other way now. She had to do what he asked if she wanted the help.

She had drunk a lot, and now she felt sick. Her whole body felt hot and dry, and her vision was blurry. She couldn't even stand steadily. She hated the situation!

No one else at the dinner table spoke for her. They looked at her with a sneer, as if they had already known that she was a cooked meal and could never escape Moshe.

Moshe looked confident and said slowly, "Leyla, I know your situation right now. You need my investment.

Your company will go bankrupt without it. By then, your fate will be even worse. As far as I know, you took out a big loan from the bank, didn't you?"

Leyla gritted her teeth. Now that she was full of alcohol, she was so dizzy that her brain couldn't work.

"At this point, I will be straight with you." Moshe lit a cigarette and said, "You stay with me for a month, and I'll sign the contract for 200 million. Leyla, you're smart. I believe you know what to do."

Leyla trembled with anger.

What made her more furious was the vice president, who came with her. He also looked at her with a sneer and said, "Miss Edwards, maybe you should consider Mr. Chan's offer. That's the only way you can save our company."

Leyla stared at the vice president, and she became even angrier.

"Damien, how dare you..."

Damien sneered, not afraid of Leyla at all.

Moshe felt that the moment has come, and he walked straight over and wanted to hold Leyla in his arms. Leyla was shocked and dodged over. She slapped a glass of alcohol on Moshe's face. "Fuck off! I will not agree to that!"

She was about to leave after saying so.

However, the situation of her body was too bad to hold herself. Just as she stood up, her body started to shake, and she almost fell to the ground.

Moshe was humiliated by her, and he was furious. He scolded, "You bitch! You came to drink with me, and you still pretend to be decent? I'll get what I want today! You just wait."

Moshe grabbed Leyla's hands and pulled her back with great force. He acted violently and tried to rape her.

Although Leyla's body was heavy, she did not completely lose consciousness. She fought back hard. In her panic, she slapped Moshe heavily and hit Moshe's penis with her knee. It hurt Moshe a lot. He gnashed, and cold sweat ran down his face.

"How dare you! Catch this bitch! I will teach her a lesson now! Let's see if she can still pretend to be tough!"

Moshe was furious. He ordered loudly, and immediately the others at the dinner table began to attack Leyla.

Her heart was full of desperation when Leyla saw this. She used all her strength to rush to the door and opened it. Before she could go out, someone grabbed her shoulder. "Help..." she shouted.

She looked up and saw a man walking towards her. Because she was too wasted, she couldn't see clearly. She could only vaguely see that he was somewhat similar to Tom. She shouted,

"Tom, help me!"

However, as soon as she shouted the word, she was pulled back by two big men behind her.

Now her heart was filled with despair.

This hotel was under Moshe's name. No one would come to save her in the private room, no matter how much noise she made.

She felt completely desperate now that she was dragged back into the room. Her head felt heavier and heavier because of the alcohol, and her body felt extremely hot. What awaited her was endless humiliation.

However, at this moment, the door was kicked open violently. A tall man appeared. The huge sound shocked everyone in the room.

Leyla stared at the man in front of him in a daze. She was stunned, and she could only think of one word, savior.

"Who are you? How you dare kick my door? Get out of here!" Moshe cursed. He picked up the bottle and threw it at Tom.

But how could he hit Tom? Tom kicked the bottle back and hit Moshe on the head. With a thud, Moshe screamed and fell.

Chapter 686

This change scared everyone in the room.

Tom frowned at the scene in front of him. He just had dinner with his friends tonight and didn't expect to encounter such a thing.

He could tell at a glance that this group of people were all hooligans who wanted to rape Leyla. Leyla was drunk and her face was flushed.

Although he didn't like Leyla, Leyla was, after all, his classmate. He should help her under this circumstance.

Two strong men loosened their grips on Leyla. She immediately took the clearly? When Tom saw her like this, he stopped asking. In fact, he probably guessed that Leyla was taken advantage of these people when her career was down.

He happened to encounter such a thing.

"Who are you? How dare you meddle?!"

Someone pointed at Tom's nose and cursed.

"Why are you nagging at him so much? Beat him to death together!"

"He dares to beat Mr. Chan like this. He must pay his life!"

A group of people rushed towards opportunity to rush towards Tom and throw herself into his arms. She was panicked and sobbing, "Tom, please save me. They are going to rape me."

Tom felt embarrassed to be hugged like this. Speaking of Leyla, she was also a beautiful woman with a good figure. It was really indecent of her to hug him so tightly.

He tried to push Leyla away. But she hugged him too tightly. Leyla was so panicked that his every move would make her cry. He sighed in his heart and didn't push her away.

"What happened?" Tom asked.

Leyla was so flustered that her mind was in a mess. How could she explain it

Tom. With the help of alcoholics, they were all bold.

Leyla immediately screamed in fear when seeing this scene. She threw herself into Tom's chest, not daring to look at them.

Tom didn't even blink. He certainly didn't take these nonentities seriously. Tom stood still and beat these guys down neatly and quickly.

Moshe, who had just climbed up from the ground, was stunned and trembling. He pointed at Tom with a pale face, "You, you, you... Who the hell are you?!"

"Tom."

Hearing his name, Moshe shuddered and his eyes filled with extreme fear. He knelt down in front of Tom and begged for mercy desperately. "Tom, Tom, Mr. Howard, I didn't know that Leyla is your woman. I, I ask for it... Goddamn it!"

Moshe had heard of Tom. Now he freaked out. He had never been so afraid, let alone starting revenge. He begged for mercy and snapped his face, afraid that Tom would get angry and kill him.

He had heard many legends of Tom. In fact, he had tried to curry favor with him countless times. But he had never had a chance. A man of his level, in the eyes of a big shot like Tom, was a nobody.

But he never thought that this was his first time to meet Tom. In an instant, he wanted to commit suicide!

Leyla came back to her senses and turned around. When seeing the people lying in the box and Moshe's frightened look, she was deeply shocked again.

Tom was really powerful. He was the most powerful man she had ever met. The most powerful man!

"Leyla is my classmate. Don't trouble her in the future."

"I understand!" Moshe nodded like a chicken pecking rice.

Tom didn't bother to argue with this little guy. He withdrew from the box and said to Leyla, "Well, everything is fine. Let me go."

Leyla didn't have the strength now. She was completely drunk and unconscious.

She lied directly in Tom's arms and fell asleep. Tom frowned. This situation really troubled him.

He didn't know where Leyla lived either. After thinking about it for a while, he decided to send Leyla to the hotel temporarily.

After settling Leyla down in the hotel, Tom was about to leave. Leyla suddenly vomited and stained his clothes, which made him frown.

"I don't want to sell my body, I don't want to sell my dignity... Why are you bullying me..." Leyla mumbled in her sleep with a pained expression.

Now that Tom saw her like this, he also sighed. To be honest, he didn't hate Leyla. He just felt pity and disappointment. This simple girl became a sorehead after entering society.

However, he had a better opinion of Leyla tonight because at least she didn't sell herself. She could be saved.

He pressed Leyla's acupuncture points to make her feel better.

And now it was a little troublesome that his clothes were dirty.

Just as he was about to leave, Leyla woke up and grabbed his clothes. "Tom, are you here? Don't leave me behind."

Tom turned around and looked at Leyla's pitiful face. He still sympathized with her. "You drank too much. Have a good sleep."

After vomiting, Leyla felt much better and soberer. But she still felt hot. Thinking of Tom's behavior just now, she felt that her heart beat very fast and her body was sensitive.

"Tom, I'm sorry about what happened last time. I'm too philistine." Leyla bit her lips tightly. She stood up, bowed deeply to Tom, and apologized to him.

Her clothes were loose and she unbuttoned two buttons. When she bowed, her boobs were exposed. Tom's heart beat faster and he quickly looked away.

Leyla was the most beautiful girl in the class. They once had a dubious relationship. In this situation, it was impossible for Tom to stay untouched.

"It's okay. I don't remember it." Tom said.

Leyla also noticed Tom's difference. Her eyes flashed with surprise. Tom's performance just now obviously meant that he was interested in her! If she took the initiative to seduce Tom, she wouldn't have to worry about the rest of her life.

She would have a sense of accomplishment to conquer a strong man like Tom.

Thinking of this, Leyla suddenly felt wildly excited.

She walked towards Tom and said in a sexy tone, "Tom, fortunately, you showed up tonight. Otherwise, I would have been tarnished by that jerk Moshe. Thank you very much!"

Tom took two steps back to keep a distance from her. He smiled and said, "It's no bother. You don't have to take it too seriously."

"It's easy for you. But for me, it's a great favor!" Leyla stared straight at Tom and said with a blushed face, "Tom, I like you. Stay here tonight and let me repay you, okay?"

Chapter 687

Tom, who was sensible, knew what Leyla meant by that.

To be honest, Leyla was really a beauty, charming and attractive. Tom was a normal man. As an instinct, he would definitely be touched, but it didn't mean that he would be promiscuous.

"You're drunk. Have a good rest," Tom declined.

Leyla said seriously, "I'm not drunk. I'm awake now! Tom, I really like you. Last time, it was my fault, but you have to understand. I wanted to attract your attention because I couldn't be over you. In fact, I wasn't trying to humiliate you."

Leyla tugged at his clothes with a shy look, which was seductive.

Tom's eyes were getting colder. He could see through Leyla easily. He had a little good impression of Leyla, but now, what she did turned him off her.

"Leyla, you disappoint me."

"Tom, I..." Facing Tom's eyes, Leyla immediately panicked. She didn't understand what she had done wrong to offend Tom. In her eyes, there was no man who didn't cheat. She thought she could get her way and slept with Tom.

Tom ignored her and turned to leave.

Until Tom left, Leyla couldn't figure out what she didn't do well and was very upset.

Coming out of the hotel, Tom took a breath, shook his head helplessly, and went home.

Another week passed in a flash. In this week, Shifu issued an order to clear Tom's name, and personally resigned Tom to be the chief instructor of the Military Intelligence 3. His rank went directly to the rank of lieutenant.

The news immediately shocked many people!

After all, Tom had disobeyed his orders and also privately took the Colorful Fruit of Essence, which was a mortal sin!

Everyone thought that Tom must be screwed this time. He would have to go to jail for at least 50 years. But in the end, Tom didn't get any punishment him at all. On the contrary, he was promoted to the lieutenant!

In this way, no one dared to despise Tom anymore.

Redford and the others were shivering in fear.

In this regard, Tom was not complacent, because he knew that there was no such thing as a free lunch. Not only didn't Shifu blame him, but he directly appointed him as the lieutenant, which meant he must need his help in the future and it was hard to be done.

Now that H Country was soaring, it encountered many pullback from foreign forces, and faced great difficulties.

Tom was already prepared, but he didn't have much thought. Anyway, as a man from H Country, he would definitely not stand idly by when his country needed his help. As the saying goes, the greater the ability, the greater the responsibility. Tom had known this for a long time, so he could only advance, not retreat.

After a week of cultivation, he was now more powerful. He felt that he was closer to being Immortal Realm. Maybe in less than a year, he could break through successfully!

As for Phoebe, she was now in the first stage of the Innate Realm. Under Tom's training, her strength had improved a lot, and she was no longer a weak woman. Even if a few of the Extrinsic Peak were to attack her, they were no match for her.

Tom was relieved.

One day, while Tom was eating, he suddenly received a call from Rufus. He said in an anxious tone, "Mr. Howard, something goes wrong. Someone is messing with us on our territory.."

Tom immediately frowned. Rufus was almost invincible in W City. After he took the Cloud and Sky Pavilion and the Elixir Sect, Rufus's strength had increased by more than one level. Tom was surprised that someone dared to make trouble in Rufus's territory.

Moreover, with that tone, Rufus couldn't handle it.

"What's the matter? Take your time," Tom said.

Immediately, Rufus told him what happened. It turned out that someone messed up the opening ceremony of the new company he opened and it was closed down.

At first, Rufus didn't take it seriously, and he wasn't a nobody in W City. He had many connections, so he called immediately.

But in the end, it was too much for him to handle. The other party's background was far beyond his imagination!

Originally, he wanted to call Tom for help, but he immediately gave up the thought after thinking about it.

Tom handed over the Cloud and Sky Pavilion and the Elixir Sect to him. If he couldn't even solve this problem, he would be too incompetent.

So he still planned to solve it himself. He used his current energy to find trouble with the other party and play hardball.

But in the end, the other party's strength was far beyond his expectations. He was utterly routed!

Now he had no choice but to ask Tom for help.

After hearing his words, Tom frowned in surprise. He found it hard to believe that someone dared to provoke him.

"I'll go over now." Tom said in a flat tone, and Rufus was immediately overjoyed.

An hour later, Tom came to W City, saw Rufus, and said, "What's going on?"

Rufus and a group of people were waiting at the door. When he saw Tom, he immediately breathed a sigh of relief and strode up to him. "Mr. Howard, it's great that you're here!"

Rufus looked very haggard. Tom could tell at a glance that he hadn't slept well for a few days and was under a lot of stress.

"Well, there's a big shot from H province who has targeted our forces and suppressed us," Rufus said concisely.

"Oh, is there such a thing?" Tom narrowed his eyes slightly. "None of you are his match. It seems that he has some strength."

Rufus lowered his head in shame. "I'm incompetent. I'm guilty."

Tom waved his hand and said coolly, "It's okay. The other party is coming for me. It has nothing to do with you."

Rufus breathed a sigh of relief. He was also looking forward to it now. He thought Tom could definitely crush him!

The next day, Tom found out that the other party had also opened a company and was about to start the ceremony. Tom and Rufus went there with a group of people, trying to pay back blow for blow.

Chapter 688

Rufus was very excited as if he had returned to his student days, following the leader of a gang to challenge others, and Tom was his leader.

"Mr. Howard, the guy over there was the one who ruined the ribbon-cutting ceremony! They closed down our new company and beat up a lot of us! They were so lawless that they didn't take you seriously!" Rufus said through gritted teeth. Everyone could tell that he was furious.

Tom nodded and strode over.

They called a lot of guests to attend that ceremony. There was press presence as well. The ceremony looked grand.

Of course, Tom would not go over by himself. He retaliated by calling the relevant departments directly and telling them to close up the place.

With Tom's current position, there were a lot of people fawning on him. Several officers came over in less than half-hour after his call. Besides, they were stepping on the land of G State, which was Tom's home court. No matter how powerful the outsider was, he had more privileges.

The officers didn't explain much but closed the company after they have arrived. The other end was furious but couldn't do anything about it.

"Hey, how dare you do this? Do you have any idea who runs this company? There will be some serious consequences if you dare to close this place up."

Someone immediately jumped out and tried to stop the officers.

I don't care who runs the company. If your company breaks the rules, it will be closed up. You can appeal if you have any problem with my decision! Get out of my way, or I'll sue you for obstructing the law. That will keep you busy for a while!" The officers sounded especially tough. He got the order from the above to close up the company no matter what it takes.

The man wanted to say something back but was immediately stopped by the person next to him. He pointed in the direction of Tom and said in a deep voice, "No need to say anything. These people were sent by Tom. It looks like he finally made a move."

He followed the other man's gaze and saw Tom and the sneering Rufus. He said, "It's really Tom. We'd better let the boss know."

After a while, he ran to the side, dialed a number, and said respectfully, "Boss, it's me. As you expected, Tom fought back."

Across the phone came a lazy but imposing voice. "Sounds good. He can't help standing out of the way."

The man asked respectfully, "Boss, what should we do now?"

The voice said thoughtfully, "We wait."

"Wait?" The man was stunned and did not understand what he heard, but he did not dare ask further. He nodded and agreed. "Brilliant."

After hanging up the phone, the Boss smiled meaningfully and muttered to himself, "Tom, I hope you won't disappoint me. I haven't found an opponent for a long time."

On Tom's side, Rufus was excited to see the company being closed up. He felt more cheerful seeing nobody dare to fight back, and said, "Mr. Howard, the situation turns out to be so different when you are on the scene. They are obviously afraid of us. This is great!"

Tom sipped his tea slowly as if all this had nothing to do with him. He said faintly, "The fight has just begun. The other party knows that I will take action. They are just testing the water."

Rufus's face tightened when he heard this. He said quickly, "Mr. Howard, who is the other party? Why are they against you?"

"I don't know yet, but he should be an interesting opponent." As Tom spoke, he drank the tea in one gulp. Seeing that Tom drank the boiling hot water in one gulp, Rufus's scalp was numb. Even if he was a master of the Innate Realm, he did not dare to do this. It would not be life-threatening, but it would definitely burn his throat and tongue.

Tom, on the other hand, was totally fine. The boiling hot water he had seemed to be a cup of warm water to him. It was obvious that Tom's ability was far above his.

Indeed, Rufus felt that Tom was getting more and more unfathomable and frightening.

He did not dare to have any improper thoughts at all in front of Tom. He always felt that if he had any improper thoughts, Tom would see through his thoughts immediately. He would have nowhere to escape.

Nothing had happened for the next half month. It seemed that the grudge had been resolved, and the other party no longer tried to fight him.

However, the good times did not last long. Tom heard the news that something happened on Elliot's side. His son was beaten up by a group of people after school. The son was so heavily injured that a few of his ribs were broken!

He even had a concussion.

When Elliot heard the news, he almost fainted from anger.

He only had one son and loved him dearly. Now that his son was hurt like this! Elliot couldn't accept it at all.

He rushed over angrily and used his power to find the perpetrators. With his current power, as long as the person was not particularly important, Elliot could make the person disappear without a trace.

However, it was an important person.

He found out the location of the perpetrator and went there fiercely. However, let alone getting revenge for his son, he was beaten up badly and almost lost his life.

He could no longer hide it at this moment, and he also knew that he must have provoked a big shot. He could not solve it on his own.

He had nobody to turn to but Tom. "Mr.

Howard..."

When Tom received the call, he immediately knew that the other party had struck again. The attack was even fiercer this time.

Even the man that made of clay would be angry by now, let alone Tom.

Tom was furious when he heard this and stormed out to the hospital.

In the hospital, he saw Elliot wrapped by the bandage, like a mummy. His anger rose to another level!

"Mr. Howard, Please help me this time! It doesn't matter if I get beaten up, but this so of a bitch almost beat my son to death. I really can't take this! He is clearly coming to me!" Elliot said through gritted teeth.

Tom nodded and said in a deep voice, "Don't worry, I owe you an explanation."

"Thank you, Mr. Howard!" Elliot immediately burst into tears.

Coming out of the hospital, Tom knew that he could no longer sit back and wait.

At the same time, in a mysterious place in the H province, Sunny was wearing red all over and glaring at the man in front of her. She said angrily, "Reid! Why are you bothering Tom?"

Reid walked unhurriedly. He had long hair and wore Hanfu on him. He looked like a man coming from a historical film.

He was extremely handsome, better looking than all the cute guys on TV these days.

"Sunny, I told you, you are mine. Now you give yourself to him. You leave me no choice but to kill him." Reid said with a smile, without a trace of murderous intent. He sounded as soft as a spring breeze.

Chapter 689

Sunny saw him like this, and she felt a bone-chilling coldness. She knew Reid's character very well. The more friendly Reid's smile was, the more murderous malice he had!

Moreover, she knew very well that Reid was an absolute strong master. Even in the entire LT Organization, he was ranked first. Besides the supreme Saint King, he was only inferior to Fausto in terms of strength. Sunny even felt that after all these years, Reid's temperament became more and more unpredictable. Once he got close, one would feel invisible pressure and very uncomfortable.

Reid, as one of the four Kings of Heaven under the throne of the Saint King, was in charge of the Southern State and had a noble status. Reid was not old: he was only 35 years old this year. He was a genius and a monster at the same time!

Sunny knew that if Reid really attacked Tom, then Tom had no chance of winning!

She gritted her teeth and said, "Reid, you just want me. You don't have to go through so much trouble. I can give myself to you now as long as you let Tom go."

Reid stopped. The corners of his mouth twitched slightly, but his smile was broader, even perverted. "Oh, it seems that you really have feelings for him.

With your cold temper, you would sell yourself to protect him. Tsk tsk, what a touching love."

When Sunny saw his smile, there was even more unease in her heart. She couldn't help but take two steps back and frown, "You don't have to overinterpret it. Tom is my aunt's only son. My aunt is so kind to me. I can't just watch Tom get into trouble."

"Really?" Reid raised Sunny's chin with a wicked smile and a teasing expression. "Sunny, after all these years, your lying skills are still so bad that you can be seen through at a glance."

Sunny's eyes flickered and her heart suddenly panicked. She was usually aloof and she was indeed not good at lying. With Reid's perception, he could easily tell if she was lying.

At the same time, his anger became more intense, and his look more treacherous.

Sunny, the woman he had crushed a long time ago. He had been holding back from touching her, because he was waiting for her to reach the peak of the inner force in her body before he could take it.

But this time when he came back, he found that Sunny's inner force had suddenly weakened by more than half! Her temperament had also changed. She used to be very cold and pure. But now there was some charm and love.

Reid immediately realized that Sunny was no longer a virgin!

When he knew about that, he was so angry that he almost killed Sunny!

At the critical moment, he endured it. He wanted to see who had the guts to touch his woman.

He had interrogated Sunny, but Sunny refused to say anything, so he had to give up. Finally, through his investigation, he found Tom.

"How can you let Tom go?" Sunny looked up and said in a pleading tone.

Reid laughed, "Let Tom go? Are you begging me? It seems that you really love Tom. I'm more interested in seeing him. I want to see what kind of man can make Sunny fall for him and give up her own life."

Sunny gritted her teeth and said, "Now that Tom is also a master in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, you may not be his match. You have to think about it!"

Reid touched Sunny's face and said jokingly, "This is such a childish provocation and you even tried such a trick. It seems that you really fall in love with him. Well, maybe you will understand whose woman you are when I twist his head off myself!"

Sunny panicked even more. She had no doubt that Reid could do what he said!

At this moment, Reid suddenly sensed something. His playful eyes suddenly froze, and then became cold, full of murderous intent in an instant. He snorted heavily, "Where did you come from? How dare you eavesdrop! Are you tired of living?"

After Reid finished speaking, he stepped on the ground and it immediately cracked. A stone jumped out. He seemed to kick it casually, but the stone was instantly given a huge amount of energy and flew out like a shell!

The stone flew too fast, like a meteorite falling from space. It cut through the air, and the high temperature caused by rubbing even made the stone ablaze. Almost instantly, it hit the target in the corner heavily.

There was a bang, breaking the silence. At the same time, there was a muffled hum.

Chou, who was hiding in the corner, was hit in the thigh by this stone. Even though he reacted quickly and dodged an inch, he was still rubbed by the stone and was taken away a piece of meat. The stone was then deeply embedded in the tree behind him.

Chou was shocked. He had been practicing the turtle breath technique since he was a child and could hide his existence. Even a master of the Innate Realm could not find him. But just now, when he heard that Reid was going to trouble Tom, his mood fluctuated, his breathing quickened, and he was immediately discovered.

"No! I was found out. Reid wanted to kill me!" Chou realized this and turned to run.

But Reid had already found him. How could he let him go? He chased after Chou directly and wanted to see who had the guts to eavesdrop on him.

Sunny had recognized Chou and she quickly stopped Reid, "Reid, stop! He's deaf and can't hear us. You can't kill him!"

"Deaf?" Reid slowed down and frowned slightly. He looked at the panic-stricken Chou in front of him who was gasping for air, immersed in his thinking.

Chou reacted quickly. He immediately pointed to his ear and said anxiously, "Master, please forgive me. I'm deaf. I didn't hear anything."

Reid showed a meaningful half-smile. "There's such a coincidence. Are you deaf? Why are you hiding there? You just used the turtle breath technique. Not many people in the organization know this technique."

Chou really didn't seem to hear what he was saying, and his face was full of confusion.

Sunny walked over and said, "Reid, he's really deaf. You don't have to make things difficult for him."

"Okay." Reid laughed and roared at Chou. The sound was so loud that Chou only felt his eardrums hurt. Then, he couldn't hear anything. He really became deaf!

Chou was agitated, but he didn't dare to show it. He still looked confused.

Sunny's face suddenly changed. "Reid, do you have to do this?"

Reid waved his sleeves and smiled, "I'm just trying to satisfy you and make him deaf. He is sent by Anna, isn't he? He's here to inquire about military intelligence? Okay, for your sake, I can let him go."

Sunny was so angry that her delicate body trembled, but there was no way.

With her strength, she could not do anything to Reid.

Chou was also very angry, and now he didn't dare to show it. After getting Reid's permission, he left, thoroughly flurried.

He did not linger any longer and immediately left for H City. He wanted to tell Tom the news!

Reid was not a good person. He was a big shot who could be as famous as Fausto!

Now that Reid was going to attack Tom, Tom was really in danger.

Chapter 690

When Chou returned to H City, it was already night.

He went straight to Tom without any delay.

After calling Tom, Chou said directly, "Young master, it's me, Chou. I'm outside your house. Please come out and meet me."

Tom was very surprised when he received the call from Chou. Immediately, his consciousness spread out. As expected, he sensed that Chou was indeed outside.

"Okay, I'll be right there." He said in a deep voice. Just as he was about to hang up the phone, Chou's voice came from the phone. "Young master, I can't hear you. Please come out immediately. I have something urgent to tell you."

Tom frowned slightly, feeling a little strange. Was Chou forced to do so? Was there an ambush out there?

But soon, Tom denied this conjecture. First of all, Chou should not do this. Moreover, with his current strength, only masters of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm dared to challenge him. If that was the case, there was no need to lure him out. They could just come in to fight him.

He put down his bowl and chopsticks, told his family, and immediately walked out.

Phoebe saw his serious expression and asked in a low voice, "Tom, what's wrong?"

Tom patted her hand and said with a smile, "No. An old friend came to see me. It's nothing."

"Well, that's good. Be careful!" Phoebe said.

"Don't worry."

When Tom came out of the villa, he soon saw Chou under the street lamp.

When he saw Chou, he was immediately stunned. Chou was embarrassed and sweated all over. There was an obvious wound on his left leg, and his whole pants were stained with blood.

Moreover, most importantly, Chou was very frightened and nervous. Tom had never seen Chou so embarrassed.

"Chou, what happened?" Tom strode over and asked in a low voice.

However, Chou didn't seem to hear his words and was still looking around. It was not until Tom walked over and appeared in his line of sight that he came to his senses and grabbed Tom's hand hurriedly. "Young master, it's not good. Reid is targeting you. He's going to attack you soon. You should hide for the time being!"

Chou said quickly, panting. There was an unconcealed panic and tired look on his face.

He came out of the LT Organization and ran all the way over. He was exhausted. Moreover, his left leg was injured, so every step he took was painful.

"Who's Reid?" Tom asked in a low voice.

Chou was already deaf, and he couldn't hear Tom at all. He said in a panic again, "Young master, Reid is a master at the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. He is now determined to kill you. With his character, he will definitely come to kill you! So you'd better find a place to hide quickly. This is not a joke."

Tom realized something was wrong. Chou didn't answer his questions at all. Chou didn't seem to understand him.

"Chou, calm down and tell me who Reid is. Is he the Saint King of the LT Organization?"

"Young master, I'm not lying to you. I heard it myself. He knows about you and Master Sunny. He's coming to kill you now!" When Chou saw Tom frowning, he thought Tom didn't take it seriously and said more anxiously.

This time, Tom was almost sure that something was wrong with Chou. Otherwise, Chou wouldn't have given an irrelevant answer. He grabbed Chou's shoulder and said, "Calm down!

Tell me who Thunder is. Don't panic!"

When Chou was grabbed like this by Tom, he realized it and smiled bitterly. He pointed to his ear and said, "Young master, I'm deaf. I can't hear you. You'd better type for me on your phone."

"What?!" Tom was shocked. He immediately looked at Chou's ear. Sure enough, he found that there was blood oozing out of Chou's ear. Tom shouted in Chou's ear, but Chou did not respond. Tom immediately became angry and typed on his cell phone to show Chou, "Thunder did it?"

When Chou saw it, he smiled bitterly and nodded, acknowledging it.

Tom continued typing, "Who is Thunder?"

Chou told Tom about Thunder's identity. After that, he said, "Young master, Thunder is very powerful. I heard that his real cultivation is no longer inferior to Fausto's. Besides, he is very young, only 35 years old. He is an absolute devil. Young master, you don't have much chance of winning against him."

"Thunder..." Tom repeated the name, and his eyes flashed with a terrifying gleam. He was not stupid. He immediately figured out that Thunder must be the one who had been picking on him recently!

Tom was not surprised to hear the origin of Thunder now. Moreover, Tom was high up in the three armies. Only Redford and a few others who had grudges against him. Others would not take the initiative to antagonize him unless they were mentally ill.

Then others who were giving him a hard time must be from the LT Organization!

However, he was a little surprised that Sunny was Thunder's subordinate.

Tom thought of something and typed, "Is Sunny okay?"

Chou said, "Master Sunny is fine at the moment, but with Thunder's character, once he kills you, he will definitely not let Master Sunny off!"

Tom thought of Sunny's beautiful face and that unforgettable experience.

He thought for a moment and typed, "Don't worry, Thunder can't do anything to me. It would be better if he came to me. I was going to seek revenge on him."

When Chou heard this, he became even more anxious. In his opinion, Tom was no match for Thunder. If Tom really fought Thunder, Tom was doomed.

After settling Chou down, Tom immediately began to plan it. He could feel Thunder's hostility to him. Sooner or later, there would be a battle between them.

Three days had passed, and Tom had been recuperating for the past three days. He was getting more convinced that there would soon be a battle between him and Thunder.

Sure enough, on the fourth day, when Tom was cutting ribbons for a new company, a group of people barged in. They hit people and smashed things. Obviously, they were stirring up trouble here.

The leader was none other than the handsome and elegant Thunder.

"Who is this man? How dare he stir up trouble in Tom's territory? Isn't he afraid of death?"

"Is this a madman? How dare he offend Tom? You know, now Tom is not only the top master in G State, but also a military officer with a high position and power!"

"We know Tom is powerful, and the other party must also know about it. However, the other party still came. It means that the other party may be even stronger than Tom!"

Chapter 691

The people of the Thunder came out in an aggressive manner, which ignited the atmosphere. People began to discuss enthusiastically.

And they turned their attention to Tom.

Rufus's pupils constricted and he said to Tom in a deep voice, "Mr. Howard, they came again. They're making another move. Look at them, they seem to take stronger actions this time."

Elliot gritted his teeth and said, "Mr. Howard, they go too far. They dare to make trouble in your presence. Obviously, they don't take you seriously."

Malcolm nodded in agreement, "That's right. We can't let this guy go easily this time. Otherwise, if it spreads out. it will be a huge blow to your reputation."

Phoebe was also there. Holding Tom's hand, she said worriedly, "Tom, who are these people? Why do they make trouble at our opening ceremony?"

Tom said faintly, "He's from the LT Organization, coming here specifically for me."

"LT Organization?" Hearing these words, Phoebe immediately took a deep breath and looked frightened.

As for LT Organization, Tom didn't hide anything from Phoebe, so she knew that it was a very powerful and domineering organization. Her mother-in-law, Tom's biological mother, was still imprisoned inside. It could be said that Tom's the biggest enemy in his life.

Hugging Tom tightly, Phoebe said worriedly, "LT Organization, will they attack us? Then what should we do?"

Tom patted Phoebe's hand and said with a smile, "It's okay. I got this. The sky is falling. I'm here for everything."

Tom said in a light voice as if he were saying something trivial. But people who heart these made them feel safe. Phoebe's worried mood was relaxed a bit.

At this moment, Tom and Reid looked at each other, seemingly there were be two transparent lightning bolts colliding fiercely, making a huge noise. Obviously, neither of them moved, but many people present felt the collision between two powerful mental forces. There were rumbles in their minds as if they had heard lightning and thunder.

"Weird. Why did I hear thunder just now? Isn't it sunny? Where did the thunder come from?"

"Damn it. I heard too. I thought I was hallucinating. So you heard it?"

"I heard."

"What's going on? I heard it too..."

Many people began surprise, not knowing why.

As the two masters of Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, their spiritual powers were powerful. If they wanted, they could manipulate an ordinary person through hypnosis in an instant, letting him follow their instructions obediently. Even if they let him kill and set fire, devote his wealth, it would not be a problem.

Only those who reached the Innate Realm could resist the invasion of their spiritual power.

Of course, with their status and structure, there was no need and they disdained to do such a thing.

They had a quick fight when they looked at each other, with some awe in their hearts.

Reid was thinking, "Anna's bastard is very powerful. He has reached this level. No wonder he was bold." Tom was thinking, "Reid is a little stronger than Waylon, and he was equal to Fausto. After simply testing each other, they all retracted their eyes in tune. They could tell the other's strength and will, regarding the other as an enemy. Either you die or I live.

Speaking of which, this was the first time they had met. They were incompatible like water and fire as if they were sworn enemies in their previous lives.

"How dare you! Where did you come from? How dare you cause trouble in Mr. Howard's territory? You want to die?"

Immediately, on Tom's side, there was a group of security guards who came out to chase them away. There were more than 200 people, holding weapons in their hands and coveting them. They surrounded the dozens of people of the Thunder. As long as Tom gave the orders, they would rush up and beat them up.

These were all the security guards of the Tom Shield Security Company. Each of them was the master level and more than a dozen of them were masters of the Extrinsic Peak. This power was very powerful among ordinary people.

But for Reid, it was way from enough.

Not to mention Reid, the most powerful master of Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm. Even the two men next to him were masters at the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. Any one of them could defeat the people of Tom.

Reid looked at Tom with contempt. And his eyes seemed to say your power was nothing to me.

Reid was right. Tom had high cultivation and could dominate the world, but his subordinates were too weak. Not to mention the masters at the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, there weren't the masters at the third stage of the Innate Realm.

"Tom, come out of there."

A middle-aged man, next to Reid, was a master of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. He took a step forward and shouted. His voice pierced through the sky and covered there. To ordinary people, it would hurt.

He was using sonic waves to attack. Its momentum was so strong that it immediately suppressed Tom's momentum.

As a master in Tom's camp, Rufus naturally wouldn't show weakness. At this time, he had to stand up immediately and worked as a pawn for Tom.

"Where did the gangster come from? How dare you shout here? Do you want to die?" Rufus's voice was equally loud but it didn't sound as imposing as other party's.

"Tom, Tom. As the number one master in G State, this is what you have? Hiding behind an ant?" The man said disdainfully and spat on the ground, looking down on him.

This was Reid's move. In Tom's eyes, it was quite childish.

Rufus wanted to continue. Tom had walked out and patted him on the shoulder. He said directly to Reid, "Reid, as the King of Southern State of the LT Organization, a master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. It's really childish to shout abuse like a fishwife."

Reid narrowed his eyes and said, "I heard a few years ago that Anna betrayed the Saint King. She seduced an ordinary person in the mortal world and gave birth to a bastard. It must be you. You are hard enough to live to this day. Even Fausto didn't kill you."

People heard what he said and their faces immediately changed.

Chapter 692

Most of them didn't know about the LT Organization and had never heard of it before, so when they heard Reid's words, they were curious.

According to Reid, Tom's background seemed to be dishonorable.

In the past, Tom would have been furious and felt humiliated at such a remark, but now he didn't care.

He could not decide where he came from. Besides, he didn't think he was an illegitimate child. He was the fruit of his parents' love. He didn't think that his parents' love was shameful. Instead, as a feudal organization in a civilized society, the LT Organization did not appeal to refined taste. Organizations that couldn't keep up with the times would be eliminated sooner or later! He didn't think the LT Organization would last long.

So instead of becoming angry, Tom smiled and said calmly, "Reid, I finally know why you're always worse than Fausto in LT Organization. Not only are you inferior to him in cultivation, but also in self-control. You can't catch up with Fausto in this life."

To the ordinary people, Tom's words were harmless and weak.

But it made Reid twitch his lips violently! His face suddenly darkened. Obviously, he was enraged by Tom and became furious.

The pressure Fausto put on him was like a mountain, making him extremely uncomfortable.

This time, he picked on Tom not only because of Sunny, but also because of Fausto.

Tom was the one who Fausto failed to kill. The news spread to the LT Organization, which had undermined Fausto's prestige a lot. However, Fausto's cultivation was really terrifying and was only inferior to the Saint King's, so others did not dare to say anything.

If Reid could beat Tom to death and bring Tom's head back, he would be able to humiliate Fausto. By then, his prestige would definitely be improved!

Now in the LT Organization, it was said that the Saint King had not appeared for a long time. It seemed that he had lived for so long and his days were numbered. He was ready to choose a successor for himself, and all the Kings of Heaven of the four regions had a chance.

The Saint King's position was too tempting.

Reid was now King of Southern State. He was a powerful man with endless money and women to enjoy. However, his desire was endless. Once he became the Saint King, his strength would increase many times! He could also get the resources of the entire LT Organization. By then, it was not impossible for him to break through to the Immortal Realm.

Now, in the LT Organization, besides the Saint King, the best cultivator was Fausto. If the Saint King really abdicated, then Fausto had the greatest chance to be his successor.

So Reid would not be willing to give up such an opportunity. Once he got Tom's head and gave it to the Saint King, his chances would increase a lot.

In fact, not only him, but also the King of Western Territory and King of Northern Territory were planning it.

It was not a rumor that the Saint King might abdicate. Over the past few years, the Saint King had indeed appeared less and less. If they hadn't been able to vaguely feel the aura of the Saint King, they would have wondered if the Saint King was already dead.

Indeed, the Saint King had lived for too long. Reid was sure that the Saint King had lived for more than a hundred years!

More than a hundred years. That was a long time.

Moreover, he had been the Saint King and reached the Immortal Realm for nearly a hundred years. He himself must be at least a hundred years old.

Looking at Tom's face, Reid thought of a lot of things, and he longed for Tom's head even more.

In his opinion, Tom was no longer a person, but a key. Tom could help him improve his prestige in the organization, and also make him more favored by the Saint King.

So, Tom must be killed.

Although Tom was also a master of Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm and was not inferior to him, Reid really did not take Tom seriously.

There was a huge gap among those who had reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. Moreover, Reid had reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm for five years, and he had countless trump cards, not to mention combat experience.

What about Tom? He had only reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm for less than three months. He was no match for Reid.

However, he underestimated Tom. If he had known that Tom had just defeated Waylon not long ago, he would not have been so conceited.

"Nonsense! Fausto is my senior. There is no competition between me and him!" Reid waved his sleeves and said coldly, "Tom, you bastard. How dare you sow dissension between me and Fausto? You are over-confident! I'm here today to kill you for Fausto. How dare you eat the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit? You are risking your neck!"

Thinking of this, Reid was actually quite glad. If Fausto had got the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit and given it to the Saint King, then the Saint King would not have considered abdication so soon.

He guessed that the reason why the Saint King was so eager for the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit was that the Essence of Life in his body was not enough, so he wanted to take the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit to continue his life. Nonetheless, it was snatched by Tom.

However, he immediately felt that it was a pity. A treasure like the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit was actually eaten by a bastard and Tom directly broke through to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. It was really a pity!

If he was the one who ate the Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit, then he must have broken through to the Immortal Realm now.

Tom looked at him indifferently. Tom could roughly read Reid's psychological activity from Reid's eyes.

Tom could tell that Reid picked on him for personal reasons.

"You are no match for me." Tom shook his head and said.

Reid was stunned and then burst into laughter, as if he had heard a big joke.

His laughter was so loud that it was even louder than the middle-aged man of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm just now. Layers of sound waves came out of his mouth and spread out to the whole audience. Many people felt pain in their ears and quickly covered their ears.

Some elderly people who were in bad condition could not bear it and began to scream in pain. Some even fell to the ground.

Because of Tom's existence, his men were not physically hurt.

Rufus and others felt Reid's horror, and their faces darkened. They were all worried and scared.
