

Chapter 851

Tom was nervous when he got Phoebe's call. At that moment, he looked around guiltily, afraid that Phoebe was nearby and had already seen him and Lexie. If that was the case, he would be doomed.

When Lexie saw Tom's reaction, she felt even more uncomfortable. She snorted, deliberately showed a teasing look, and said, "What happened? Don't you dare to answer your wife's phone? Are you afraid that your wife will know that you are cheating on her?"

Hearing this, Tom felt the urge to curse again. Lexie, this crazy girl, actually had the face to say that. When did he betray his wife? It was Lexie who kept pestering him!

However, he didn't want to argue with Lexie, because he knew that what he said was for nothing. Lexie was very thick-skinned.

He quickly gave Lexie a look and said in a low voice, "It is my wife who calls me. Don't make trouble, or I'll really be angry."

Lexie snorted, looking very disdainful, but she strained her ears. She obviously wanted to hear what Tom would say to Phoebe.

Tom didn't dare not answer the phone for too long because Phoebe would suspect him later.

He took a deep breath to calm himself down and answered the phone, "Hello, Phoebe."

Phoebe's pleasant voice immediately came from the phone, "Hello, Tom, where are you? Are you home?"

Hearing this, Tom felt even more guilty. Could it be that Phoebe was already waiting for him at home? He wouldn't be so unlucky, would he? Did Phoebe really see what happened just now?!

He said quickly, "I'm almost home. I met a friend on the way and we talked for a while. What happened? Are you home? I'll be right back!"

Phoebe said on the phone, "I'm not at home. One of my best friends broke up with her boyfriend today and drank a lot. I'm still at her house with her. I might not go back tonight. I'm sorry, Tom."

Hearing this, Tom breathed a sigh of relief. Phoebe was not at home, which meant that it was impossible for her to see what happened between him and Lexie just now. The danger was relieved. But immediately, he began to feel disappointed. If Phoebe wasn't at home, he should stay at home alone. Originally, he came back tonight to get Phoebe's company...

"Ah? Are you sure you won't be back tonight?" Tom sounded disappointed.

Phoebe obviously sensed his disappointment and said guiltily, "I don't think I can go back. My best friend drank a lot and now she's heartbroken. I'm not sure if I can leave her alone at home... I'm sorry, Tom. It's not rare for you to go home, but I can't even accompany you."

"It's okay. It's okay." Tom waved his hand and said, "I'm fine. But you should be careful. Are you safe there? Do you want me to arrange for bodyguards to protect you?"

Phoebe said, "I'm fine. I've called the bodyguards. They'll be outside all night. Nothing will happen. Besides, isn't H City your territory? Who dares to hurt me?"

That was true.

Tom nodded. Now he was almost the king of H City. As long as people didn't want to die, they would not hurt his family. Moreover, he had arranged for a master of the Innate Realm to protect Phoebe. No matter how bad the thing was, the master could still send Tom a message before something happened. In addition, he also arranged for people to protect his family in H Country.

Therefore, Tom was not too worried about this. However, he was more disappointed. Tonight, he needed Phoebe's company very much, but Phoebe could not accompany him.

"Alright." Tom sighed. "It seems that I have to sleep alone tonight."

On the other end of the phone, Phoebe said meaningfully, "You can ask Amelia to accompany you. Speaking of which, you haven't contacted Amelia for a long time, have you?"

"Well..." Tom immediately felt embarrassed. As his wife, Phoebe actually took the initiative to ask him to contact his confidant. It sounded strange.

Tom was too embarrassed to answer. After speaking several words, he hung up the phone.

When he turned around, he saw Lexie's eyes widened and she stared at him. Her ears were pricked up. It was obvious that she was eavesdropping.

Seeing his gaze, she immediately turned her head away and pretended to look at the scenery.

Tom grunted unhappily and walked over, "My wife called me and urged me to go home. I won't be with you anymore. You can make your own plans next."

However, Lexie sneered disdainfully and said, "Don't lie to me. Your wife was accompanying her best friend, and she's not at home."

Lexie looked at Tom with disdain, obviously disdainingly Tom for his poor acting.

Tom rolled his eyes and said, "I'm going home anyway. You can go wherever you want."

After that, he turned around and left.

Lexie chased after him and stood side by side with him.

Tom immediately frowned and said unhappily, "What are you doing?"

Lexie stared at him and said, "Who's Amelia?"

Her eyes were full of scrutiny.

Of course, Tom wouldn't tell her. He said directly, "It's none of your business."

Lexie pointed at him and looked very serious, "Is she your mistress outside? Well, Tom, you look sanctimonious in normal times. But I didn't expect you to be such a person. Don't you feel sorry about your wife?"

Tom was a little guilty after hearing what she said and avoided her gaze, but it was not easy for him to refute. He said that she was crazy and continued walking.

Lexie was not sure at first. But seeing Tom like this, she immediately confirmed that Amelia and Tom had an ulterior secret with her intuition. It was most likely that Amelia was Tom's lover!

Lexie was very angry. How could Tom do this? He was already married. What a scumbag!

"Scumbag!" She said loudly, looking at Tom with disdain and anger.

Tom frowned again. He had been impatient with Lexie, but now she actually called him a scumbag.

If others said he was a scumbag, he would admit it. But what right did Lexie have to say he was a scumbag?

Then he blurted out, "Feel your conscience and think about it. Are you qualified to call me a scumbag?"

Lexie said angrily, "Why am I not qualified to say that you are a scumbag? Am I wrong? You are married but you still seduce women outside!"

Tom also became excited and blurted out, "How much better are you than me? You know I'm married, but you pester me over and over again. You kissed me just now. If I'm a scumbag, what will you be?"

Lexie's expression froze when he said this.

After Tom finished speaking, he regretted it a little...

Chapter 852

All of sudden, awkwardness ensued between them. Tom's words seemed to reveal their secret.

Although they both knew they had feelings for each other, they never laid it out clearly. Now Tom said it out, which immediately made Lexie blush!

Lexie wanted to refute him, but she couldn't find a word to say. She felt like her face was burning with shyness and embarrassment.

"You, you, you bastard!" She stammered. Despite her fierce expression, her words were not even a threat or angry talk. However, it was more like she was asking for comfort and now she seemed rather guilty and panicked.

s Tom felt regretted as well. "Damn, why did I say that? It just added to our awkwardness." He thought.

He coughed a little to cover up his awkwardness. After a moment of hesitation, he voiced, "It's getting late. You go find yourself a place to stay tonight."

As soon as he finished his sentence, he trotted away without looking back, leaving Lexie behind.

Lexie wanted to catch up with him, but her feet were like rooted in the ground and she couldn't move at all.

She thought she was strong enough to

She really wanted to shout out on the top of her voice that "I never liked you, Tom! Stop being narcissistic! I would never like you even if you were the last man in the world!"

However, she didn't have the courage to say this. She couldn't lie to herself that she didn't love him.

Walking forward for a while, Tom found that Lexie did not follow him. Feeling baffled, he stopped and looked back. Expectedly, he found that she was still standing there, dazed.

Seeing her reaction, Tom felt a little flustered.

He heaved a long sigh, thinking that she really knew how to make him turn deaf to all the rumors and gossips. However, now she perished this thought because she couldn't even stand his harsh words just now, which really hit her Achilles heel. All her sense of shame burst out at this moment.

"He is right! Who am I to say that he is a scumbag?" She found herself bitterly thinking of this.

She knew that he was married, and she pestered him over and over again, and even kissed him! To be frank, she was just like him. she was seducing a married man, like a shameless woman!

Realizing this, she was weighed down by sorrow.

softened. He must have done something wrong to her in another life. That was why he needed to repay her in this life.

He wanted to leave by himself. Lexie was an adult anyway and she could take care of herself.

Besides, he didn't think he was wrong about what he said. Lexie really didn't have the right to say anything about him.

For no reason, he just couldn't bear to see her standing there with a sullen look.

"Damn!"

Tom sighed in his heart and was about to go back to give her comfort.

Otherwise, who knew what troubles she might cause later!

Now that the Kungfu Cup was in full swing, he still had to go on stage tomorrow. If something happened now, he couldn't bear the consequence.

So he sighed again and decided to walk back to her.

But just then, a car drove over at an extremely fast speed, and Lexie was standing by the roadside, with her back to this car.

Upon seeing that it was about to run over her, Tom did not hesitate. He immediately rushed over and grabbed her to the other side the second before the car was about to hit her. She was saved.

The car braked. A man stretched out through the window and cursed, "Damn it! Why are you standing in the middle of the road? Are you trying to get yourself killed!?"

While the man cursed loudly, Lexie froze there as a ghostly paleness came over her face. Tom was worried sick just now, the man's curse just added more fuel to his anger. So he immediately glared at the man with a fierce look and said coldly, "Say another word again, I'll kill you!"

Tom's angry stare were so scary that even an expert in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm would feel feared, let alone an ordinary man.

At that moment, the dread and fright gnawed the man's heart. Petrified, he couldn't think of anything. All the color in the man's face paled and large drops of cold sweat streamed down his face. He was stunned for a long time before he slowly came back to his senses.

He felt like his heart would explode any minute from now due to the fear. He mumbled, "Death, Death, Death..."

It took him quite a while to finally regain his composure. When he made sure that Tom didn't continue to look at him, he quickly stepped on the accelerator and drove away. However, carried away by too much anxiety and nervousness, he didn't see a car in front of him and slammed into it.

Tom ignored the swearing driver. He looked at Lexie and said helplessly, "Miss Lexie, can you give me a break and take good care of yourself? I have to participate in the competition tomorrow."

Now Tom found that he was really helpless to her. He could not scold or beat her. What's more, she was thick-skinned. There was really nothing he could do to drive her away.

Finally, she slowly came back to her senses. She raised her head and looked at Tom with a softness that she rarely showed before. She then asked in the undertone, "Do you hate me?"

Tom was stunned. Her reaction made him a little surprised. He couldn't help but wonder if she was playing with some tricks, so he said warily, "What do you want? Are you trying to trick me again?"

Lexie bit her lips and spoke despondently, "You're right. I don't have the right to call you a scumbag. After all, I'm also a shameless woman."

Her words left Tom speechless.

Her reaction really astonished Tom. An unsettled feeling crept into his mind. "Did she really get upset because of what I said?" He thought.

"Are you... Okay?" With a gentle tone, careful not to upset her further, Tom drew closer and asked.

Lexie lowered her head and did not answer.

The quieter she was, the more flustered he became. He thought to himself, "Did she really take my words to her heart? This just makes the situation complex!"

"Hey, I was just joking. Don't take it to heart." Tom said.

However, Lexie still didn't respond to him. She kept lowering her head, wallowing in self-pity.

Tom's head ached even more. If he had known his words would lead to this, he would never have said that to her just now. Unfortunately, what he had said couldn't be unsaid. If she felt crushed, he really didn't know what to do.

"I'm sorry." Tom said again.

"Don't be. You're right. I'm really shameless! Ohh..." Lexie's voice echoed.

As she spoke, she cried. Upon seeing this, Tom was even more flustered. He feared nothing but women crying.

Chapter 853

As soon as Tom said that, Lexie cried even more.

"I'm going to tell grandpa that you bully me, boohoo..." Lexie sobbed, and Tom felt it getting on his nerves.

"Miss Ross, didn't I say that I was just joking with you? Why do you take it so seriously? Besides, you are very good at joking, aren't you?" Tom said helplessly.

Lexie kept sobbing, "No one has ever said I'm shameless. You're the first one. You hurt my pride..."

"Oh, Miss Ross, can you stop crying?" Tom was almost defeated by her and he comforted her in a hurry, but he was really not good at comforting women.

"If you want me not to cry, you have to promise me one thing." Lexie said.

Tom said quickly, "Just say it, as long as you don't cry."

They were still on the street and Dragon Bay was not far away. Although Phoebe said she wouldn't come back, they might still meet his father-in-law and mother-in-law. In addition, now some people were looking over and gossiping about them. Tom was really afraid that it would be spread to Phoebe.

As long as Lexie didn't ask too much, he would agree.

"Really? Are you sure you didn't trick me?"

"I really mean it."

Tom just wanted to finish this matter quickly.

Lexie immediately said, "I only want you to do one thing, which is you should stay with me for half a month and you can't leave me alone anytime anywhere. If you promise me, I won't cry."

Tom subconsciously wanted to agree, but he immediately realized that something was wrong. He and Lexie were just ordinary friends, how can he accompany her for half a month? More importantly, he was going to participate in the Kungfu Cup... Thinking of this, Tom immediately understood that Lexie was still trying to stop him from going to the Kungfu Cup!

Sure enough, Tom realized that Lexie was just pretending to cry.

"Do you want to go back on your word?" Lexie looked like she was about to cry again, but Tom would not be fooled by her this time. He immediately said, "Then you just continue crying. I have signed up for the Kungfu Cup. If I retreat temporarily, I will be a deserter and face military court action."

When Lexie heard Tom's suddenly cold tone, she quickly realized that her acting had been seen through by Tom. She looked up and there were actually no tears. Her eyes were just a little red and swollen. She had acted out all the sobbing just now.

"Why are you so stubborn? You have my support, so facing military court action means nothing to you. As long as I fawn to grandpa, you will be fine." Lexie said a little resentfully.

Tom sighed and said, "I appreciate your kindness, but I won't quit the Kungfu Cup."

Lexie stamped her foot and said angrily, "Why are you so stubborn? Aren't you afraid of death?"

Tom looked at her calmly and said, "Of course I'm afraid of death, but there are many things scarier than death in this world, such as watching the dignity of our country being trampled on and our compatriots being bullied. Lexie, you didn't participate in it, so you can't understand."

Perhaps Tom looked too serious now, making Lexie feel strange and scared. Especially the determination and justice in Tom's eyes were the feelings she could not understand.

For a moment, Lexie bit her lips and said, "So no matter what, you must participate in the Kungfu Cup, even if you will probably die, right?"

"Yes." Tom said.

When Lexie heard his answer, there came a distant look in her eyes. With her experience and knowledge, she could not understand Tom's thoughts very well. In this world, was there really something more terrible than death?

Then she said, "Will your wife agree with that?"

"Yes." Tom nodded without hesitation.

Tom continued, "Well, it's getting late. You should go back first."

Lexie was still a little out of her mind. Finally, she bit her lips tightly, looked straight at Tom, and said, "Then promise me that you will survive! okay?"

"Okay." Tom nodded and agreed. In fact, he never thought he would die. He had not been particularly confident before he formed Great Momentum, but now that he had made it and had stepped into the God Becoming Level halfway. What else could he worry about?

Even in the match of the top eight, he could fight against the other seven rivals by himself.

Only then did Lexie relax a little. At this moment, her stomach growled, and she looked awkward. She was actually hungry.

Tom also felt strange and asked, "You didn't have lunch?"

Lexie nodded and said, "Yes, I've been waiting for you here for six or seven hours. I'm starving."

"Okay..." Tom was a little speechless. Now that Lexie was like this, it was not good for him to leave Lexie alone. So he took Lexie to a nearby place to have some food, then arranged a place for her to stay. After that, he returned to Dragon Bay.

Originally, Lexie wanted to ask Tom to stay, but he obviously saw through her thoughts. Before she said anything, he immediately left.

Lexie looked at his disappearing back and stomped her feet, calling him a coward!

But in fact, she was also a little blushed. She actually fell in love with a married man and acted so actively. If it was in the past, she couldn't imagine it.

Tom returned to Dragon Bay and breathed a sigh of relief. After taking a shower, he returned to his room and looked up at the wedding photos of him and Phoebe hanging on the bed. His heart calmed down a lot. Then he began to sit crosslegged and slowly entered a state of meditation.

In his own room, he quickly calmed down, returned to his best state, and began to meditate.

Now that he had formed Great Momentum, the results he achieved by meditating were more obvious. Now his cultivation method had been completed beyond the understanding of ordinary martial artists. He never needed to practice boxing, standing, and even without actual combats, he could achieve more than ten times the effect of ordinary martial artists!

Just by meditating, his brain will constantly secrete the hormones his body needs. At the same time, in his mind, like artificial intelligence, there were constantly simulation combats, which were equivalent to actual ones.

Especially after he had achieved Great Momentum, he could make progress every day, which was a terrible thing.

So in theory, when he came to the God Becoming Level, he progressed even faster and he made progress every day. So within the life span of the human, the gap between the God Becoming Level and the Innate Realm had always been widened.

Tom's meditation lasted the whole night. When the first ray of sunlight shone through the window, he opened his eyes and returned to his best condition. Moreover, his strength had improved a lot compared to yesterday!

After breakfast, he rushed to the Kungfu Cup as soon as possible.

Chapter 854

Now, it was halfway through the Kungfu Cup, more than two-thirds of the martial artists were eliminated, leaving behind the real strong ones. Even experts of the Extrinsic Peak were gone, all that was left behind were masters of the Innate Realm!

When Tom had just reached the Innate Realm, he had once thought that there were very few masters of the Innate Realm in the world, and he was one in a million.

But as his experience deepened and his horizons widened, he realized that his previous thoughts were so narrow.

There were still a lot of geniuses in this world. In addition, the spirit on earth had been revived, and the progress of science and technology had made more and more experts reach the Innate Realm.

There might not be many experts of the Innate Realm in H Country, but there were many of them in the world.

It was precisely because there were so many masters of the Innate Realm that the Kungfu Cup of this year was so important and highly regarded!

When Tom went to the Kungfu Cup, he immediately attracted the attention of many people. All the H Country martial artists who saw Tom saluted seriously and looked at Tom with reverence.

Their respect for Tom came from the bottom of their hearts.

Tom responded with a smile.

In such a high-profile situation, Tom arrived at the organizer's office and met Pence and others.

After greetings, Pence said, "Tom, you seem to be in good shape. Today is your day. I guess everyone is waiting for your opponent."

General Watson also said, "I don't know who's so unlucky to encounter Tom."

Marlin smiled and said, "Let's see whether that person can surrender quickly before Tom makes a move. Ha ha."

Others laughed when they heard Marlin's words. Indeed, Tom was the best on the field now. Before the quarterfinal, anyone who met Tom would be dead.

However, those foreign martial artists also knew this. They all waited to see whether they could shout the word "surrender" quickly enough when they got on the stage.

The rules of the Kungfu Cup this year stipulated that every competitor had three chances to surrender. If they used up, they could no longer claim surrender. They could only fight to the death, either win or be killed by their opponent.

And even if there was still a chance to surrender, they had to go on stage and could not withdraw voluntarily. That was to say, if they didn't say the word "surrender" and were beaten to death by their opponents, they deserved it.

No one had paid attention to this rule before, because those who could fight on the stage were powerful enough. Generally speaking, they would not get killed because they didn't have the time to say the word surrender.

But things were different now. With the devil Tom here, it was really hard to say what the situation would be. As long as one was not the top player of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, anything could happen.

Tom just smiled and said, "Who else will fight today besides me?"

Silas stood up and smiled, "On the Military Intelligence 3 side, I'm the one who will play except you."

Marlin and Thorn sighed and said reluctantly, "Alas, it's a pity that we are over forty years old. Otherwise, we really want to join the fight and teach these bastards a lesson!"

Tom nodded, smiled at Silas and said, "Silas, play up!"

Silas also smiled and said, "Play up!"

Tom was not very worried about Silas. After all, Silas was also an expert in the third stage of the Innate Realm and was approaching the fourth stage. Silas had no problem in the next competition.

In addition to Tom and Silas, there were also five masters of the Innate Realm. Two of them were masters of the first stage, and another two of them were masters of the second stage, and the last one was masters of the third stage.

Normally, they were actually very powerful. After all, they were all under forties and were talented people. But in the Kungfu Cup, they were still much worse than the martial artists from other powerful countries.

It could be imagined that in this Kungfu Cup, if not for Tom, H Country would be really miserable. Not to mention the champion, no one could even enter the top 16.

Tom also found that among the five Innate Realm masters, two of them were Jasper and Musa. They also signed up.

"Did you two really sign up?"

Tom said in surprise when he saw them coming over.

Jasper and Musa stood in front of Tom, somewhat embarrassed. After all, they had made a fool of themselves in front of Tom not long ago.

In the past few days, they had seen Tom's power with their own eyes... No, it could even be said that it was horrible, and they were no longer on the same level with Tom.

Although Tom was younger than them, they no longer had the contempt and hostility they had before. They only had admiration and reverence for Tom.

"Tom!"

"Tom!"

Both of them saluted Tom and greeted him loudly.

Tom smiled and said jokingly, "Why? You don't want to fight with me anymore?"

When he said this, everyone around him looked at Jasper and Musa in surprise.

"What? You two guys are actually going to fight with Tom? Did you have the guts to do that?"

"It's truly that newborn calves are not afraid of tigers." Someone joked.

"Ha ha ha, that's interesting. Tom, as the top player in the God Becoming Level, you were challenged by two younger generations. How did it go? Did you beat Tom?"

A lot of people started to laugh and tease Jasper and Musa, making them both blush and feel very ashamed.

"At that time, we didn't know about Tom's strength. We were too arrogant..."

"It's because of ignorance. Fortunately,

Tom didn't take us seriously."

The crowd laughed even more when they saw them like this, but it was not that kind of ridicule, it was just a joke, so Jasper and Musa just felt embarrassed, ashamed, and did not feel insulted.

Tom waved his hand, stopped teasing, and began to say seriously, "The next competition will be tough. I hope you all take it seriously, okay?"

When everyone heard Tom's words, they all nodded seriously, especially Jasper and Musa. They stood up straight, and now they admired Tom very much.

And they had made up their minds to follow Tom when the Kungfu Cup was over.

Then, Tom told him something else, and today's Kungfu Cup competition began.

On H Country's side, the first person to play was Jasper.

For some reason, when Tom saw Jasper play, his right eye jumped. He stopped Jasper and said, "Take it easy. If you can't win, give up. Don't lose your life, okay?"

Jasper patted his chest and said confidently, "Don't worry, Tom. I'll be fine!"

After that, he strode onto the stage...

Chapter 855

Tom wanted to say some more, but Jasper had already stepped onto the stage. He was both vigorous and confident. In such a grand prehistoric event, he felt excited instead of nervous.

With a strong national sentiment, he seemed to have entered the animation world. As a young man, he wanted to perform well in the Kungfu Cup and win dignity for the H Country!

Although Jasper was actually thirty years old, he had always liked to watch cartoons since he was a child. He was still a hot-blooded teenager deep inside and had a dream to save the world.

Although this situation was not as grand as saving the world, he was still fighting for his country. He would never give up or retreat!

In fact, in the past few days, he had already participated in the competition. At that time, his opponents were only at the level of the Extrinsic Peak, and they had not met the masters of the Innate Realm.

But now, the opponent he had to face was a master of the Innate Realm.

When he stood on the stage, he could clearly feel that the atmosphere was different from that of the previous few days.

All of a sudden, most people fixed their eyes on his face, which made the blood in his body suddenly burn.

In particular, he found that on the big screen above, where his image appeared, as well as his data, his achievements, and so on. That was to say, he was standing on the stage now, and was broadcast to the whole world. The martial cultivators all over the globe were watching him at this moment.

That was something he had never encountered before. Why wouldn't he be excited?

Soon, he heard someone cheer him up under the stage.

"Come on! You must kick his ass!"

"Come on! We are counting on you!"

"Come on! Show them the competitiveness of our H Country!"

"Come on! Let the world know that our martial artists are the top!"

The sound of cheering came into Jasper's ears. He looked around and saw people cheering him up under the ring, many of them beautiful women!

A lot of people looked at him with expectations. At this moment, he felt a sense of responsibility.

He was encouraged by the crowd.

He clenched his fists, raised them high, and said loudly, "Don't worry, I won't let you down! I'll show them we H Country's power and let these foreigners taste the strength of our H Country!"

He spoke very loudly. He was so angry that at this moment, he really gained a lot of momentum.

General Watson nodded secretly and said admiringly, "This young man is not bad. He is a talent."

Amos also said, "General, you are right. This is indeed a good competitor of our H Country."

The others nodded slightly and had a lot of expectations for Jasper, thinking that Jasper could definitely make a name for himself.

Only Tom frowned slightly. He didn't say anything. Pence noticed something wrong with him and asked in a low voice, "Tom, don't you think Jasper would win?"

Tom said, "It's not that I don't think so, but that the situation was not as optimistic as I thought."

Marlin smiled and said, "I don't think so. Jasper has performed well in the previous few games. He's quite powerful among the younger competitors. Moreover, I looked at his opponent's data and achievements. He was no match for Jasper. As long as Jasper doesn't underestimate his opponent, it's fine."

Amos also nodded and said, "Right. Jasper is in good condition now, so he should be able to perform exceptionally. I think H Country should win this battle and make H Country look better!"

Hearing that they were so optimistic, Tom couldn't say anything more.

After all, at this time, even if he felt that Jasper couldn't rival his opponent, it was impossible for Jasper to withdraw.

Soon, Jasper's opponent got onto the stage.

This was a black man who was only about 1.6 meters tall and looked very thin. Jasper was 1.8 meters tall, so the difference in size was quite obvious.

When Jasper saw him, he twitched his lips and a confident smile appeared on his face. He thought that he would definitely win the battle.

After the black man came on stage, he did not speak, nor did he even look at Jasper, as if he was afraid of Jasper, and he behaved rather timidly.

All H Country martial artists that saw this scene thought that Jasper should win. After all, in addition to strength, courage was also very important in the fight between martial artists! Now that the black man didn't even dare to look at Jasper, it meant that he must have been afraid of Jasper.

Even Jasper himself thought so, so he acted more relaxed. He had a smile on his face and began to underestimate his opponent.

When Tom saw this, he immediately frowned and said, "Oh, no! This black player is deliberately showing weakness to make Jasper underestimate him. And he fell for it!"

Hearing Tom's words, Pence, Amos, and the others also began to realize this, but they were not as observant as Tom. They could see that Jasper was underestimating the enemy, but they did not see that the black player would be stronger than Jasper.

However, with the principle of being careful on the stage, Marlin reminded Jasper that he should keep alert.

Jasper nodded. After the bell rang, he took the initiative to attack and rushed out towards the black player!

His speed was very fast. It took him only a second to travel ten meters and he appeared in front of the black players.

He had absolute confidence in himself. Originally, he was at the top level in the first stage of the Innate Realm. In the past few days, under Tom's guidance, his strength had been improved a lot. Now, he was almost halfway to the second stage of the Innate Realm.

He had read the information about his opponent, a newcomer who had just broken through to the Innate Realm. He won the previous few matches in a quite difficult way, so it was impossible for this newcomer to rival him.

He had already begun to think that he should take this opportunity to show his strength and crush his opponent in front of everyone! In this way, his reputation could be established.

As a martial artist, who didn't want to be famous all over the world? Besides the Kungfu Cup, what other way could one become famous faster?

"I'll defeat you in three moves!" Jasper said coldly. He rushed to the black player and punched him. He was very fast and powerful. If the black player was hit by this punch, he would definitely get hurt.

But just then, the black player in front of him suddenly looked up and gave a disdainful smile.

Especially the black contestant's eyes, which were cold, made Jasper feel the threat in an instant!

Chapter 856

"Damn it! This guy is trying to show the white feather on purpose!"

In an instant, a voice sounded in Jasper's mind.

Because the black player's eyes were so sharp that it was not a newcomer's performance at all!

Moreover, he heard the black player say, "You are fooled."

Tom, who was in the audience, soon discovered the situation. He frowned, but he did not say anything to remind Jasper. After all, this was a violation of the rules.

He hoped that Jasper would turn the tables and work miracles.

It happened so fast. There were so many people present, but no one except Tom could realize it. This seemingly weak black player was hiding his strength, and Jasper was in danger.

Jasper hit the black player in the face, and his attack was very fast. Once the black player was hit, he would definitely be injured, but it backfired.

The black player gave a sneer and easily dodged the punch. Then he did not stop at all and immediately launched a fierce counterattack!

At this moment, Jasper felt great pressure and his expression changed drastically, but he did not retreat as he had courage and passion. He still had the belief that he would win. Even if the other party was hiding his strength, so what? He still had absolute confidence that he could win this match!

"Humph, so what if you hide your strength? You're no match for me." Jasper tussled with the black player. He used all his strength and wanted to crush the black player!

However, after fighting, Jasper realized that the black player was even stronger than him!

And he was even more energetic.

This time, the pressure on Jasper was even greater.

The audience, who had great confidence in Jasper, was also stunned. It was obvious that they did not expect the black player to be so powerful that he could compete with Jasper.

Fortunately, according to the current situation, Jasper still had the upper hand.

After all, Jasper was much taller than the other party.

As long as Jasper's performance was normal, the black player was no match for him.

However, as soon as they thought about it, they heard a bang, accompanied by a moan of anguish.

Jasper got kicked in the middle by the black player. He staggered heavily for a few steps and almost fell down!

Moreover, there was an obvious bruise on Jasper's waist, and it looked like he was badly injured!

Moreover, there was a painful and shocked look on Jasper's face. He obviously didn't expect his opponent to be so fast. He also had no idea that the black player, who was only six feet tall, would be so powerful.

He could feel that his ribs were broken from the kick!

The pain made him lose a lot of strength!

"Hiss! What's going on? Jasper got kicked?!"

"This black player is so fast. He's much taller than Jasper, but he can even hit Jasper!"

"This is a little tricky. The kick hurt Jasper's waist."

"Damn it, this black player has been hiding his strength. It's a trap set by him. Damn it!"

"Jasper, cheer up!"

A lot of people started to worry.

They quickly cheered up Jasper again.

When Jasper heard these cheers, he gritted his teeth and attacked the black player again. He would not surrender!

As a warm-blooded young man, he would never surrender. Surrender meant humiliation to him!

Facing his attack, the black player smiled disdainfully and said, "You ask for it."

Then, instead of retreating this time, he tussled with Jasper and the fighting between them was fierce.

The sound of fighting spread throughout the venue, which made the audience's blood boil!

But Jasper was obviously not a match for the black contestant. He was beaten back step by step!

In a short while, he already had a lot of bruises on his body, but the black player was unscathed. Jasper never succeeded in hitting the black player in the face.

Those who was cheering for Jasper now clenched their fists and felt worried and nervous about Jasper.

Jasper was panting heavily. He had lost more than half his combat effectiveness and his physical strength had been depleted.

Originally, he had the belief that he would win, but now his determination began to waver. He underestimated the enemy. The black player in front of him was much more powerful than he had thought!

He was no match for this black player at all!

And most importantly, the black player was obviously not doing his best and was looking at him with disdain.

This greatly damaged his self-esteem.

He gasped and said, unwilling to admit defeat, "How could this be? Damn it, how could this be?"

At that moment, he even wanted to surrender.

But just then, he heard a voice, "Jasper, come on! Defeat him! You must defeat him! Let them see the spirit of our H Country's martial artists!"

Hearing this, Jasper trembled slightly.

He quickly looked at the audience and immediately saw many compatriots cheering him up. Looking at the hope in the eyes of so many compatriots, Jasper could not surrender, which was too shameful!

He clenched his fists, stood up straight again, and roared, "Come on! I can't be defeated!"

At this moment, he felt that he was the protagonist in the hot-blooded animation. No matter how much difficulty and frustration he faced and no matter how powerful the villains were, he couldn't admit defeat! Today, he fought for himself and for the honor of the H Country!

He felt his cells burning, a feeling he had never felt before. He was extremely excited and he even forgot the pain in his body. He rushed towards the black player again.

However, his bravery was stupid in the eyes of the black player.

"Stupid person of H Country!"

The black player said this disdainfully. Then, facing Jasper's attack, he easily dodged a punch. Then kicked Jasper in the knee. Suddenly, Jasper's knee was broken, and Jasper screamed miserably.

In an instant, so many of H Country's compatriots called out and they were heart-wrenching.

The black player did not let Jasper go because he had lost his combat effectiveness. Instead, he smiled grimly and gave Jasper a cruel blow.

Jasper could only protect his head and get hit.

"Surrender, surrender!"

Finally, someone called out and asked Jasper to surrender.

More and more people echoed, asking Jasper to surrender, but Jasper never chose to surrender. He even managed to stand up despite the pain.

The black player looked at Jasper with disdain and said, "Loser, as long as you surrender and admit that you are all trash, I can let you go."

Jasper was covered in bruises and was about to fall. He was covered in blood, but he didn't surrender. Instead, he gave the black player the middle finger and said, "Do you want me to surrender? Screw you. We H Country will never surrender. We would rather die than surrender! Ha ha ha..."

The black player flew into a rage and punched Jasper hard in the temple. "Then go to hell!"

With a loud bang, Jasper fell...

Chapter 857

After Jasper fell to the ground, he struggled to stand but soon stopped moving. He was still bleeding, down on the stage.

This scene had scared everyone there, and the exciting arena suddenly turned quiet.

All the martial artists of H Country were stunned at this moment. They were all staring blankly at Jasper and could feel a bang in their minds! Jasper was not able to move. Jasper was killed!

All the people thought like this in their minds.

Diana, Musa, and other people suddenly stood up with their faces full of shock and disbelief. Isabella even covered her mouth incredulously!

The others who had cheered up Jasper couldn't accept the accident. They were all in wide-eyed amazement. It was really hard to believe. Jasper had just behaved so bravely and confidently that everyone thought he was going to win, but now it was such a bad result that they could not accept!

Even Pence and General Watson clenched their fists with their faces being solemn and their teeth clenched. Jasper was a gifted expert in the Innate Realm, and he was only in his early thirties. Although he was not as miraculous as Tom, he was still a genius. As long as he had come through the baptism of the Kungfu Cup, it was conceivable that Jasper could also become the pillar of the H Country.

But now, he was beaten to death on the ring miserably!

Tom frowned deeply. There was no sharp expression on his face. But he cast an extremely cold and fierce gaze upon the ring.

Anyone who knew him would recognize that he was really angry!

Amos and Marlin, who were beside him, were now under great pressure brought by Tom. The air around them was inexplicably cold. They were extremely uncomfortable as their scalps tingled and necks felt cold.

As for the foreigners, they cheered for the black contestants!

"Excellent!"

"Wusman did a good job. He killed the weak man of H Country with one punch!"

"Hahaha, as I said, H Country's martial artists are not strong enough to be Wusman's opponent. But I didn't expect them to be so weak and lost to Wusman in such a short time."

"That's true! Wusman is only 1.6 meters tall, as small as a fly, while Jasper is 1.8 meters tall, at least a light heavyweight player. However, the truth is that Jasper is not Wusman's match."

"What a weak man!"

Faced with so many mocking words from foreign martial artists, all H Country martial artists clenched their fists and gritted their teeth, feeling furious!

But they could do nothing. Jasper was indeed inferior to Wusman and was killed by him.

Soon, someone looked at Tom.

At this time, only Tom could show H Country's strength and threaten them.

Under everyone's gaze, Tom slowly stood up and walked towards the ring.

Although he walked on foot, his speed was extremely fast. In a second, he was already on the ring. Then he squatted down and closed Jasper's eyes with hate. He closed his own eyes, sighed slightly, and said to him, "I will avenge your death."

The black man saw Tom's back but did not recognize him for a moment. He took two steps forward and shouted at Tom, "Where did you come from? Get down!"

However, when he stopped, he saw the man in front of him turn around and meet a pair of merciless eyes, full of murder. Suddenly, he was utterly shocked and could not feel anything around him!

Moreover, he staggered back, full of horror and fear, as if he had seen the scariest thing in the world. He fell to the ground and looked very embarrassed. When he heard Tom snort, he just fainted!

When the crowd saw this scene, they were stunned for a moment, then burst out with huge cheers and continuously shouted, "Tom!"

"Tom!"

"Tom!!"

As a result, the whole arena resounded with the powerful sound of 'Tom'.

They were completely united. All the beliefs, all the worship, all the hope were tied to Tom alone. At this moment, Tom's Invincible Spiritual Momentum was even billowier and stronger!

He simply stood there but seemed to be the only true god between heaven and earth, making people involuntarily look at him with awe and belief!

Those foreign experts of the Major Perfection Realm were originally watching for fun. When they saw this scene, they suddenly felt shocked and frightened. They all felt that Tom's Invincible Spiritual Momentum still increased at a terrifying speed. It was absolute bad news for them!

"No!!" Black Mamba was the first to shout out and felt scared. He said, "Tom's momentum has not been affected. Instead, it was even stronger! If he continued to condense the power like this, it would be possible for him to break through to the God Becoming Level!"

Then he pointed at Solomon and cursed, "Solomon, look at what you've done! Tom is going to be even more powerful. If he really breaks through to the God Becoming Level, we will all have to die!"

Not only Black Mamba but also other experts of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm became serious. There was no relaxed or casual environment before.

Junichiro Nakai felt an even stronger sense of fear and panic. He had been beaten up by Tom before. By now, he had finally regained his full fighting strength.

But deep down in his heart, he was scared of Tom. Now that he saw Tom's Invincible Spiritual Momentum getting stronger and stronger, he was even more frightened!

This kind of thing had never happened since he stepped into the Major Perfection Realm. He had never been so afraid of a person, and now Tom was even going to become a nightmare in his heart!

He also glared at Solomon and complained, "Solomon, you're going to kill us this time! If Tom really broke through to the God Becoming Level, then we all have to die. We all have to die, you know?"

Even Johnson, who was on the same side as Solomon, now frowned deeply. He was also disgruntled with Solomon but couldn't say it due to his position.

Solomon frowned, but he was not afraid. Instead, he snorted and said, "How timid you are."

Then, he took a step forward and began to fight with Tom.

Chapter 858

He strode to the ring and stood opposite Tom. He stared coldly at Tom and shouted, "Tom, you actually attacked the martial artists on the ring. Are you going to violate the rules of the Kungfu Cup?"

He spoke in Chinese, and his voice was extremely loud, like a powerful loudspeaker. It exploded and a strong voice rushed towards Tom.

He was about to interrupt Tom to continue to condense Invincible Spiritual Momentum. In addition to the huge sound waves, he also issued an extremely fierce and strong kill intention, rushing towards Tom!

If it were anyone else, they would have been so scared that their hearts would pop out and their spirits would be affected. If people condensed Invincible Spiritual Momentum at this time, they must be backfired.

This was Solomon's plot. He waited for the time when Tom was condensing Invincible Spiritual Momentum again, and then he attacked Tom directly to destroy him.

Tom seemed to have expected him to show up. There was no surprise on his face, but he was a little solemn. He did not do any big movement, but he had his ears pressing tightly against his face.

In this way, he could isolate the attack of the sound wave.

As for the attack of the killing intention, Tom also shut down his consciousness and senses, making Solomon's killing intention fail...

Of course, Solomon was a top master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm after all, and he could erupt instantly. No matter how well Tom was on guard, he would be affected.

Tom's body trembled slightly, and there was blood deep in the corner of his mouth.

He was injured...

At the same time, so many people around them were affected by Solomon's shout. Now they covered their ears and showed painful expressions on their faces.

"How terrible! Tom is injured!"

Pence, who was in the audience stage, suddenly stood up with a serious expression.

And Black Mamba and the others finally showed happy expressions. Solomon obviously played a role in successfully making Tom suffer.

Other low-level martial artists of H Country did not understand why Tom was like this, but they also realized that Tom was injured and they immediately became nervous.

However, next, Tom simply wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and stared at Solomon with a sneer of disdain, "Do you think you, an ant, can stop me?"

As soon as he finished speaking, his originally stagnant Invincible Spiritual Momentum actually kept surging again, the momentum was so great that it was overwhelming, sweeping the entire room, making everyone hold their breath and feel a huge pressure.

Not only ordinary martial artists felt the pressure, but also the masters of the Innate Realm looked pale as if they were facing a formidable enemy. In front of Tom, they were several levels lower. At that moment, they felt that they were very weak.

Solomon, who had always been calm, finally lost his composure. His face suddenly changed and he shouted out in a daze, "That's impossible!"

Tom closed his eyes. He opened his arms and took a deep breath, as if he was sucking in the air of the whole room!

And his momentum was also increasing. His figure, in everyone's eyes, was becoming taller and bigger.

Pence, who was in the audience stage, muttered, "Tom, it's so scary that he can continue to condense his Invincible Spiritul Momentum in such a situation! The point is, he's only 29 years old. I've never seen such a miraculous thing!"

Marlin was also extremely shocked and said, "Tom, you are going to become a god. You reach the God Becoming Level before thirty years old, which is... beyond words..."

In the martial arts field, people who reached the God Becoming Level could be regarded as a god, an immortal of land.

Dharma was also a strong master of the God Becoming Level.

And Tom was now going to be this kind of god who stood proudly in the world!

The crowd on the other audience stages was also very amazed. Diana's eyes were filled with unprecedented admiration. She said excitedly, "Master is too powerful. He is too powerful! It's my lifelong blessing that I, Diana, can acknowledge him as my master!"

She was so excited that she was incoherent, but no one laughed at her. Even the people around her envied her very much.

For Isabella, her mood was even more complicated. She remembered the first time she met Tom. At that time, she looked down on Tom and disdained Tom. Now she knew how childish she was and how wrong she was!

If she could get a chance to go back, then when she first met Tom, she would do anything to pursue Tom!

However, there was no regret medicine in the world. She knew that it was impossible for her to be with Tom in her life, because the gap between herself and Tom was getting bigger and bigger, and Tom could not fall for her anymore. So the more she saw Tom's achievements, the more disappointed she became...

This was about to become a nuisance to her.

As for those foreign martial artists who were still gloating and mocking H Country, they were now all with heavy hearts, and their faces were extremely solemn and even fearful.

Tom looked too scary. He had completely crushed so many powerful people present on his own. He was so powerful!

Even the more than a dozen masters of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, who were renowned internationally and all were big shots, now were dwarfed by Tom's brilliant strength.

Solomon clenched his fists. He felt Tom's strength. This was the first time he had felt frightened.

Tom was going out of control!

He couldn't let Tom continue like this.

Solomon saw Tom condensed Invincible Spiritual Momentum unscrupulously and completely disregarded him, he felt angry. He began to be bold, snorted coldly, and then directly attacked Tom.

He attacked very suddenly, without any warning, and very fast. In just a blink of an eye, he was already in front of Tom. However, he kicked out silently, but very fast. Once he kicked Tom, Tom would definitely be injured!

After all, Solomon's kick used all his strength, and even an iron pillar would be kicked down!

"Fuck! This Solomon actually attacked Tom secretly!"

"How terrible!!"

"Solomon is too despicable. Tom is in danger now!"

Everyone was nervous.

Chapter 859

Solomon's speed was so fast, and it was impossible for Tom to escape judging by such a short distance.

In fact, Tom didn't want to avoid either.

So Solomon kicked Tom hard on his body. There was a loud bang.

And from the spot where Solomon engaged Tom, a huge sound wave broke out and spread out!

It spread throughout the site.

Under the ring, people who were closer to the ring were swept by this huge stormy wave. At that moment, many people couldn't even open their eyes.

This kick was so hefty that it made such a huge noise. Not to mention one person, even a tank would be kicked to bursting!

At this moment, everyone in the audience was sweating and worried about Tom. At this moment, their hearts seemed to stop beating.

For foreign martial artists, they were cheering, especially Johnson, who knew best how horrible Solomon was. Solomon was the product created by the most advanced biotechnology in Country M, and his strength was extremely terrifying. Even Johnson himself was definitely not Solomon's match.

Now that Tom was weak and got attacked by Solomon successfully, he didn't believe that Tom could be safe after taking such a hefty kick. At least Tom would be seriously injured!

Most importantly, Tom was still gathering Great Momentum. If he was attacked like this, he would definitely be attacked backed by the Great Momentum. By then, Tom would definitely be seriously injured, or even could never recover!

When Solomon saw that he had kicked Tom successfully, a smug smile appeared on his face, thinking that Tom was going to die this time.

However, before his smile could last long, he felt something was wrong.

Tom only took a few steps back. Apart from that, Tom showed no discomfort, and he did not even vomit blood or scream.

Tom then looked up at Solomon and gave him a sly smile, which showed absolutely no sign of injury. This was the smile one gave when one successfully carried out his scheme!

"No!" Solomon's heart beat dramatically when he saw Tom's smile!

Subconsciously, Solomon thought of retreating.

But he couldn't figure out why Tom was not injured when he kicked Tom with his best kick just now. It was completely beyond the reason of science!

However, at this moment, Tom said, "You hit first. Now I can beat you to death with ease."

After saying this, Tom moved in an instant.

Tom didn't move without warning. Instead, Tom greeted Solomon in advance.

Moreover, from him, a huge wave of momentum erupted, like a landslide and tsunami, sweeping the entire venue. What was more, the wave went to suppress Solomon!

Solomon's pupils shrank in an instant. Without any hesitation, he stepped back and wanted to jump off the ring.

Although he did not know why Tom took his kick and showed no injury, what he could be sure of was that he was definitely not Tom's match in a one-to-one fight.

"You want to run? No way." Tom's voice sounded faintly around Solomon's ears. For Solomon, it was like a death spell from the Death, and his heart even got tightened by this!

After all, Solomon was a war machine created by Country M with technologies gathered across the country. His will was stronger than that of iron. Even in extreme danger, he had never been so afraid.

But now, being confronted with Tom, who had not even hit him yet, he was already trembling with fear. If it was on daily occasions, he would not have believed that this would happen.

Now, Solomon had an idea in his mind, that is, this man from H Country was too scary to be measured by Innate Realm and the Major Perfection Realm. Tom had reached half the level of God Becoming Level, with only one step away from the God Becoming Level!

Such a super strong person was not something Solomon could compete with at all, so Solomon only had one idea right now. That was to do everything he could to escape as far as possible, or else he would really be killed by Tom.

His idea was good, but could Tom really let him escape?

The answer was obviously no.

It was a lot to say, but only in the blink of an eye, Tom had already reached his back. Tom banged with his one palm. Before Tom's banging reached Solomon, a sweep of tremendous momentum was brought by, thundering. It was as if the air could not bear the power of Tom's banging and was about to be compressed and flattened.

At this moment, Solomon got gooseflesh all around his body. He felt the power of Tom's banging. He also understood that he was not as fast as Tom. He could not avoid it. The only way was to resist.

So at the critical moment, Solomon made the right decision. He turned around quickly, shouted, and then put his hands up in front of him. He had to use all his strength to withstand Tom's banging.

Seeing this, the corners of Tom's lips were up slightly and he smiled disdainfully.

"You want to fight? Your strength is too weak."

Before Tom finished his sentence, his palm had already hit Solomon on the arm. All people could hear was a loud bang, which sounded like a heavy slap hitting on a big drum, making a huge noise!

With the sound of fracturing and cracking, Solomon, who weighed more than 200 Jin, was slapped away by Tom with one bang. Solomon fell on the ring and hit several foreign martial artists.

The whole audiences were silent.

Everyone was stunned and did not expect this to happen.

Especially Johnson and others. Anyone who knew Solomon was completely stunned at this moment!

Solomon, who was the strongest person among the God Becoming Level of Country M. Even on the international ranking for experts, he also ranked as the top expert. Now he couldn't even take one bang from Tom?

Most importantly, Solomon attacked Tom first with one kick.

Even though they knew that Tom was very strong and was the strongest of them all, they never thought that Tom had reached such a level!

This showed that Tom was no longer at the same level as them.

Now that they saw Tom looking calm and indifferent, they felt their scalps tingling.

For such a Tom, could they really match him even when they united together in the top eight competition?

Chapter 860

Solomon was the most shocked one.

He felt Tom's palm was like a mountain pressing him. He couldn't protect himself at all.

But it was not a real mountain, just Tom's palm. That meant that Tom's power had completely surpassed his and Tom was on another level.

How could Solomon not be shocked after feeling that?

And the most terrifying thing was Tom had broken his arms just by his palm. Now Solomon was sweating from the pain.

Solomon was a 5S-level master, almost as invincible as those who had reached Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. But Tom's one move almost knocked him out.

So how could he continue to fight against Tom?

To be honest, Solomon had never thought that Tom would be so powerful that even though he had been secretly attacked, he was still unscathed.

Now, he was really scared and intimidated.

Solomon, who was on the ground, noticed that Tom was walking slowly towards him with intense killing intent, which made him really panicked.

He abandoned his dignity and just hoped he would not be killed, so he immediately stood up and ran away without saying anything.

But how could Tom let him go? Tom snorted and then chased after Solomon.

They were both very fast, but in fact, Solomon didn't run far away before Tom caught up with him.

Then he heard Tom's voice, "Do you know why I waited patiently for you to strike me first? Because in that case, I could kill you within the rules."

Solomon's blood froze. He had never been so scared, nor had he been in such despair.

He looked at Johnson and others in front of him and called for help, "Help me! You stop him together! He's a demon!"

Johnson and others heard Solomon's shout, but they did not dare to do anything, because they were also intimidated by Tom. Now Tom was really scary, like an invincible devil.

When Solomon's saw their reactions, his heart sank. He realized that he was doomed.

"Ah!!!"

He let out a sharp cry that could almost pierce the sky. It was his reluctance and his eagerness for life.

He turned around abruptly and shouted at Tom, "Tom, you can't kill me! We're not on the ring. You can't..."

However, before he could finish, Tom slapped him on his forehead and a 'crack' sound came. As if a water bag had been punctured, Solomon's huge body collapsed.

He fell to the ground with a painful expression, his eyes filled with despair and regret. If he had known he would be killed, he shouldn't have struck Tom arrogantly, so he wouldn't have lost his life!

Then, his eyes, mouth, nose, and ears began to bleed. He died.

This scene happened to be captured by the camera and was shown on the big screen.

There was only deadly silence.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

At this moment, they thought Tom was a god.

He intimidated so many masters from all over the world and defended his country's dignity all by himself. No one had done that in the history of H Country except for Tom.

And those foreign martial artists were devastated and intimidated to the extreme!

Even Solomon was killed by him easily, so who else could defeat Tom?

Tom turned his eyes to glance at Johnson and others. With a meaningful smile on his face, he said calmly, "If any of you still want to die, you can challenge me."

No one dared to respond to him. Even though he had killed Solomon, no one dared to reprimand him.

It was because Tom was too overwhelming and terrifying.

Besides, it was Solomon's fault. He deserved it.

At this moment, their fear and reverence for Tom were to the extreme.

Tom gave them a disdainful smile. Then he slowly walked onto the ring, took Jasper's body off, and handed it to others. Then he slowly walked to the spectators.

No one dared to speak. Everyone watched Tom until Tom said again, "Kungfu Cup, continue."

Only then did the Kungfu Cup restarted.

"Hiss..."

Black Mamba looked at Solomon's body in front of him and felt his heart sank. He gasped and couldn't help but say, "Tom is even stronger. Even Solomon was defeated by him so easily. Who can be a match for Tom? How could H Country have such a monster? It's incredible. Incredible."

Black Mamba was doubtful and reluctant to believe the truth. He thought that a monster like Tom should not exist!

Junichiro Nakai took his eyes away from Tom, and the fear in his eyes deepened. He swallowed and said, "Tom has got Invincible Spiritual Momentum. He was on a higher level than the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm and is a half-step away from God Becoming Level. As long as there is a chance, he can reach the God Becoming Level... Once he breaks through, then all of us fighting against him together can't defeat him!"

Johnson sighed deeply. "As far as I know, Tom is only 29 years old this year... 29 years old! How young is he!

But he has just half a step away from the God Becoming Level! If he wins the champion of the Kungfu Cup and then has the qualification to go to the Secret Realm, he will definitely be able to reach the God Becoming Level! Then he will be the first one who reaches the God Becoming Level under the age of 30 since the existence of mankind!"

Another master of Major Perfection Realm of Innate realm said, "He's almost a god. Once he reaches the God Becoming Level, he'll be the real god! Then not a current master of God Becoming Level in the world can be his match. His name will forever be remembered..."
