

Chapter 881

It was easy to understand. Adam was a master of God Becoming Level from Country M. He was one the strongest masters in the world. If he wanted to kill them, no one present could escape from him!

Even the senior leaders of the countries could not escape.

Although they had a lot of bodyguards, it was easy for Adam to kill all of the bodyguards. They were as vulnerable as paper tigers in front of Adam.

So if Adam wanted to kill them, the senior leaders of the countries would be in danger.

What was the scariest was that Adam had killed a senior leader before. The senior leader didn't obey him and was directly killed by Adam on the spot!

Many senior leaders from different countries were here for the Kungfu Cup. If Adam wanted to kill them, they would really die.

And once they died, their country would definitely be greatly affected!

Tom was so smart that he immediately thought of the key.

Joseph, in particular, was now even tenser. He wasn't afraid of death, but his death would greatly impact his country. So he was nervous.

They were not careless. It had been agreed by all the countries that the masters of God Becoming Level could not go abroad without permission. Otherwise, it would be regarded as a provocation!

So Adam, who was from Country M, couldn't be in the H Country without informing them. In a sense, it was serious that he came to H Country!

He was just like God of War in H Country, who couldn't go to Country M without permission. If he did it and was found, he would be blamed!

Now, Adam went to H Country without permission. So the people of H Country were all nervous.

Immediately, Joseph frowned deeply and said in a deep voice, "Mr. Tesorang! What do you mean? You let Adam come to H Country without informing us and now he is here. What are you doing? Are you provoking H Country?"

The others also glared at Tesorang. They broke the rules of H Country. They were so bad. They didn't respect H Country and God of War!

In the past, they had conflicts in the international society. But now Adam came here without permission. No wonder people of H Country were so angry.

Tom also stared at Tesorang coldly. At the same time, he looked for the breath of Adam by his Spiritual Sense.

If Adam really wanted to attack them, he must stop him! Even if he was no match for Adam, he would stop him.

Tesorang found that H Country, which was weak internationally, was tough now. He waved his hands and said, "Don't be nervous. Mr. Adam came to H Country without hostility."

Barry widened his eyes and said in a deep voice, "It was not about whether he is hostile. He broke the international agreement! Mr. Tesorang, you are responsible!"

Barry sounded tough. Tesorang and others frowned slightly and were a little surprised. They didn't expect the senior leaders of H Country to be so tough.

walked out of the crowd.

He was dressed like a priest and looked different from the people in the era. But the clothes fitted him well. It seemed that he was born to wear them.

And most importantly, his breath was like that of 'god', as if he was Adam in the Bible.

As a master of God Becoming Level, he didn't emit a strong breath. He was gentle and was like a god.

Tom knew instantly that the handsome white man was Adam, who was the master of God Becoming Level from Country M!

No one else could see it, but Tom felt Tesorang was also distressed. Adam didn't tell him in advance before he came to H Country.

In fact, a master like Adam did not take him seriously and was not under his control.

"Well..."

Just as Tesorang was in a dilemma, they heard a voice.

"Hahaha, friends of H Country, why are you so timid? It's very disappointing."

Tom was the first to realize after hearing the voice. He immediately looked at him.

A tall and handsome young man his overwhelming breath, which was extremely vigorous. He had much more vigorous breath than the masters of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm. They were not at the same level!

And most importantly, there was no dust when Adam walked as if he was completely detached.

Adam had reached an unfathomable level.

Tom felt that Adam was more powerful than God of War!

Adam immediately attracted the attention of the audience.

Tom was tensed up and prepared. The senior leaders' bodyguards were shocked. They took out their pistols to target Adam. They were very nervous.

Pence and Amos were staring at Adam nervously. If anything happened, they would react immediately.

When Tesorang saw Adam, he immediately smiled ingratiatingly and strode towards Adam. He took the initiative to greet, "Mr. Adam, I didn't expect you to really be here. Why didn't you tell me before? I can drive you here, haha."

Tesorang was sophisticated. He deliberately said that he didn't know about Adam's arrival to show that he shouldn't take responsibility.

Adam smiled faintly. He did not show respect to Tesorang and nodded as a greeting.

Then he glanced at Joseph and the others. He was arrogant and did not take them seriously.

Soon, he stared at Tom...

Chapter 882

Tom felt unprecedented pressure when Adam stared at him.

It was as if the space around him was shackled, and even his brain went blank at this moment.

Even though he had known that Adam was at God Becoming Level and was stronger than him, he was a little surprised that Adam's glare could make him feel so much pressure!

He was no longer a master of Innate Major Perfection Realm like Rommel and Junichiro Nakai but had already broken through to half of the God Becoming Level, but he was still unable to withstand Adam's glare.

From this point of view, Adam's strength was far above him.

However, he also felt that Adam's realm should be higher than the God of War, but it still seemed to be a little lower than King of LT Organization's.

When Tom was in the LT Organization, he met the King of LT Organization once...No, it should be said that he didn't see Raoul's real face. However, he still felt King of LT Organization's extreme pressure in his palace, which seemed to be stronger than Adam's.

When the others saw that Adam had already focused on Tom, they immediately breathed a sigh of relief because Adam had put too much pressure on them.

As long as Adam acted rashly, they would probably shoot in reflex immediately.

However, once the gun was fired, the situation would be different.

Fortunately, Adam didn't seem to have any intention of attacking them. Instead, he just looked at Tom.

Instead, the top management in H Country didn't relax but become much more nervous.

If Adam was really going to attack Tom, it would be a disaster. It was known that Tom was the hope of H Country now. If something happened to him, it would be a huge loss for H Country.

However, they didn't know what to do in this case. They could only embattle and keep an eye on Adam. If Adam made any rash moves, they would consider taking action!

"Are you the number one master in H Country?"

Adam spoke in Chinese fluently without any accent, which was the same as what the natives in H Country said.

For a strong man at God Becoming Level, it was a piece of cake to learn another country's language, so it was not much of a novelty.

Faced with Adam's pressure, Tom did not feel nervous or panicked at all. He seemed very calm, even to speak freely. He said with a smile, "It seems that you know me very well."

When everyone saw that Tom was so calm and did not show even a trace of timidity in the face of Adam, they could not help but feel very respectful of Tom.

They would never be so calm in such a situation. Adam was a strong man at God Becoming Level, and he was from Country M. If Adam really wanted to make an attack, Tom would not be able to resist.

It would be better if God of War was here, but the problem was that God of War was not. It could be said that Tom's life was in Adam's control.

Tom's performance was also praised by the top management of other countries. Although Tom was their rival, they had to admit that Tom was a really rare young man.

Adam also showed admiration to Tom. Although he looked so young apparently, he was actually not young anymore.

He and God of War Albert were strong men of the same era, and he was in his sixties this year. It was because he was too strong that he looked so young, just like a young man in his early twenties.

Adam added, "Young man from H Country, do you know that Johnson is gradually becoming fierce, full of pressure and killing intent. It was like a huge sword blade, which was against Tom's forehead!

Adam had already harmed Tom mentally. Tom felt that his mind was gradually being pierced by a sharp sword!

If he hadn't taken in the Great Momentum and his mental strength hadn't stabilized at half of the God Becoming Level, he would have lost his composure in the face of Adam's pressure!

Adam was really a maverick. He didn't care about the rules!

However, everything could be a my disciple?"

Adam said this in a very plain and natural tone, but what he said was not plain at all. Instead, it was full of threats and murderous intent.

Tom's eyebrows twitched. Joseph, Pence and others were even more nervous.

Johnson was Adam's disciple, and Johnson was killed by Tom just now. Now Adam's meaning was obvious, to get even with Tom!

The threat from a master at God Becoming Level was too scary.

After that, he took a step forward. He was originally very gentle, but now his temperament slowly changed, double-edged sword. This could also be a kind of training for Tom. After his Great Momentum condensed, he was worried that there was no master at God Becoming Level to train him!

So he took a step forward with a bright smile on his face and said, "Really? I really don't know."

When everyone saw Tom's slightly provocative action, they could not help but frown fiercely. Including the top managers of other countries, they did not expect Tom to be so bold!

It was known that Adam was a strong man at God Becoming Level.

And he had been very famous internationally all these years.

He was also one of the few superpowers in the world who stood at the peak of humanity.

No, Adam was no longer a human in a certain way, but a superman who transcended human!

Even the top managers of those countries had to be obedient when facing Adam, not daring to offend him at all, let alone provoke him back like Tom.

Therefore, in their eyes, Tom's behavior was no different from courting death!

Joseph and the others were also nervous for Tom. They subconsciously reminded Tom not to be so arrogant.

Adam was not the same as other masters of Innate Major Perfection Realm. He was a master at God Becoming Level. With Tom's current strength, he was not strong enough to fight with Adam!

However, it was inappropriate for them to say it out in such a situation, so they held back their words.

Adam was also stunned. Obviously, he did not expect Tom to be so bold either. In the face of his pressure, Tom wasn't timid but dared to provoke him.

Chapter 883

Adam's face darkened and he took another step forward. He stared at Tom and said threateningly, "You, are you provoking me?!"

Faced with Adam's anger, the rest of the people present became even more nervous and tense. They all wanted to apologize to him in Tom's stead and told Tom not to provoke him. Adam was an expert at the God Becoming Level!

However, Tom didn't seem to know how powerful Adam was. He still smiled and said, "It's up to you."

Adam's face turned even more gloomy, and he exuded a stormingly terrifying aura. All the audience's spiritual world began to be enveloped in the darkness, as if they were at the end of the world, making them shiver.

Even their thoughts began to stagnate!

Joseph and Barry also looked at Tom in surprise. They knew that he was a very outstanding young man, but they did not expect that he dared to be so arrogant in front of Adam!

For a moment, they did not know how to describe Tom. He was far more than arrogant!

Many people at the Kungfu Cup venue began to pay attention to them and became quiet for a moment.

However, it seemed that Tom still couldn't feel Adam's horror and looked at Adam with a smile.

For Tom's performance, although everyone thought that he was playing with fire, deep down, they admired Tom's courage.

In particular, Pence and the others, who were masters of Innate Realm, understood more than anyone that how difficult it was for a person to resist the pressure from the master at the God Becoming Level, but Tom made it.

Not to mention his ability, just his courage, not ordinary people could have.

So they understood more and more why Tom could achieve what he had today.

"How dare you! Do you really think I don't dare to punish you?!" Adam spoke as if he was a god to judge Tom.

He called himself Adam, the son of God, and treated himself like a god.

Now that Tom, a mortal, dared to disobey him and even provoke him, how could he not be angry?

The gap between the God Becoming Level and the Innate Realm was extremely huge. In the eyes of all the strong masters at the God Becoming Level, others were all mortals and nobody. Even if Tom was sort of at the God Becoming Level. As long as Tom wasn't, he was just a nobody.

Now, it was absolutely unacceptable for the arrogant Adam to be provoked and offended by him.

When Adam's momentum came crashing down like a raging wave, Tom felt a great pressure again. For a moment, his mind was a little out of control.

However, he still endured, using the pressure Adam gave him to continue to hone his will and his spirit.

Tom smiled again. "Really? Then what are you waiting for?"

This was no longer a provocation, but an offense and contempt!

Everyone was completely speechless about Tom's death.

Whether it was Joseph, Pence, Amos, or other H Country executives, they all held their breath and worried Tom.

Although Adam had violated the agreement to come to H Country without informing them, they couldn't blame Adam.

Now that Adam, as a God Becoming Level expert, really killed Tom, he had no choice but to bear.

And everyone who knew Adam knew that Adam was a very proud person. Tom had offended him in front of so many people, and it was poking a bear.

So Tom was in a very dangerous situation and was about to be killed by Adam at any time!

However, Tom did not know how big a mistake he had made. He was still smiling, which really made countless people shocked.

The atmosphere suddenly became strangely awkward.

Many foreign martial artists now were thrilled, hoping that Adam would kill Tom. In this way, H Country would be completely lost!

Junichiro Nakai and the others who were defeated by Tom were the most excited.

"Hahaha, Adam actually came to H Country. That's great! This fool is so arrogant. How dare he provoke Adam?

He's looking for death!"

"Tom is going to be doomed now. We all know Adam is famous for his irritability. Johnson is his disciple, and Tom must be dead this time!"

"He's dead! Adam can kill Tom easily."

"Does he think that he is invincible by breaking through to the entry-level God Becoming Level? In front of Adam, he's nobody."

They were all gloating, thinking that Tom must be dead.

These days, Tom had been like a mountain on their chests, making them breathless. Now that Adam had appeared, he could finally help them deal with Tom.

As long as Tom died, they still had a great chance to win the Kungfu Cup championship!

At this moment, everyone was staring at Adam, waiting for Adam to make a move.

Adam suddenly smiled, reached out his hand, patted Tom on the shoulder, and said, "What a good young man. Not bad, not bad. You have good courage. I like you very much."

His face was completely devoid of the pressure and seriousness he had just shown. Instead, he was now like an elder who admired Tom with a bright smile on his face. This huge change immediately made everyone dumbfounded. No one expected that Adam, who was just about to punish Tom, had changed in a blink of an eye.

This was completely unreasonable!

For Tom, he was relieved.

Because he was right, he knew that although Adam was full of murderous intent on him, he would never do anything to him at the Kungfu Cup.

Although Adam was an expert at the God Becoming Level, he was not the only one in this world.

God of War was in H Country.

Most importantly, in addition to God of War, there was the powerful King of LT

Organization and his grandfather...

Chapter 884

Tom was no fool, and he was afraid of death, too. He dared to do this partly because of his rational analysis. What's more, the most important reason was that he was bold enough to take the risk!

Fortunately, his analysis was right.

But in fact, it was not appropriate to see his behavior as taking the risk. It was more of rational analysis.

No matter how dangerous it looked, he succeeded.

Under Adam's pressure, his spirit and will were also greatly honed.

But for others, there was also a piece of absolutely shocking news. Obviously, no one expected Adam to let Tom go.

Apart from letting go of him, Adam actually showed his appreciation for Tom. It was too shocking for them to believe.

Including Joseph and Pence, all were stunned and couldn't come back to their senses for a while. They just could not figure out that why Adam had changed so much. Did Adam and Tom know each other?

Was Adam's anger earlier before just a joke?

But soon, they overturned this conjecture, because it was simply impossible. Adam was a prominent master of the God Becoming Level in Country M. How could he have any connections with Tom?

As for Tesorang and other foreigners, they were even more confused about this. They could not understand why Adam would react like this.

Only Tom was clear about this. He smiled at Adam and said, "Thank you."

He was neither servile nor haughty, without any fear for Adam. The whole performance just now had made everyone remember him deeply.

Adam didn't say anything more. After he turned around, the smile and appreciative face immediately disappeared and he returned to sit aside Tesorang.

He looked at the arena as if he didn't care about what had happened just now, or as if nothing had ever happened.

"Mr. Adam, what happened just now?"

When Tesorang sat down, he asked in a low voice doubtfully.

Adam did not answer him immediately.
Instead, he glanced at Tom and then lowered his head to drink some wine.
Then he replied casually, "Other experts of God Becoming Level in the H Country are protecting him in secret.
I can't do anything to him here."

Tesorang actually had guessed this possibility, but when he heard Adam's acknowledgment, he still felt a little pitiful. Then he sighed, "That's such a pity."

Adam's eyes flickered and stopped talking. No one could guess what he was thinking.

The atmosphere was strangely tensed for a few seconds.

But then, the crowd burst out into a sensation.

Everyone was shocked.

"Damn it! No way! That expert of God Becoming Level in the Country M just didn't embarrass Tom and even showed appreciation for him? Our Tom is too awesome!"

"Tom is really awesome. He is indeed the greatest genius in H Country's history!"

"Hahaha, Tom is invincible!"

Many martial artists of the H Country now expressed their admirations for Tom.

Especially those people including Pence and Amos. Although they did not say anything, there were more respect and admiration judging from the way they look at Tom!

Because they were standing next to Tom at that moment and felt the huge pressure from Adam, which was as terrifying as heaven They were almost forced to kneel down irresistibly.

But Tom can not only bear it but also face Adam directly. How strong a psychological quality would it take to do that?

But for Junichiro Nakai and Black Mamba, it was simply bad news.

"What?!"

"Is it true? Lord Adam let Tom go? How could this..."

"That does not make sense! Lord Adam is an expert on God Becoming Level. Lord Adam can even kill Tom with one finger!"

"Hiss... Is this Tom really that strong?"

These Major Perfection experts in Innate Realm could not keep their composure any longer. They were all extremely surprised, even shocked.

But Tom, the one who experienced that himself, only smiled casually without any other expression on his face. He didn't seem to care much about what happened just now as if it was just a small thing to him.

It was exactly because of his calm that everyone present admired him even more.

It could be said that Tom almost stepped on Adam's dignity to achieve this.

Adam's expression became unnatural at this point, but he didn't do anything else. He could feel that someone of the God Becoming Level was noticing him. He knew that if he really attacked Tom, then this elite expert would also attack him.

And if that happened, he would definitely be at a disadvantage.

After all, H Country has more than one God Becoming Level expert!

However, in his mind, Tom had already become a dead man. As soon as the Kungfu Cup ended, he would manage to kill Tom.

It was not just because Tom had disrespected him just now, but more of the threat posed by his talent.

Such a young expert nearly God

Becoming Level was unheard of. Once Tom broke through to the God Becoming Level, it would be hard for him to kill Tom.

Of course, he would not show this murderous intent, so even Tom did not feel it.

This incident did not have much impact on the progress of the Kungfu Cup, and soon the Kungfu Cup began to restore a normal order.

Today, the competition of Tom had finished, and then it would be the ranking competition between the other masters of the Innate Realm.

There were 70 Innate Realm experts on the list in total, who will compete for the top 64 firstly, then the top 32, and the top 16. Finally, the last eight remainings will attend the championship together.

And the last remaining expert will be the champion of this Kungfu Cup.

It was acknowledged that this kind of competition system was unfair yet very exciting.

It was also the climax of the Kungfu Cup.

The last Kungfu Cup champion defeated all the other competitors in a row and showed great strength in the top eight to win the championship trophy!

But in this Kungfu Cup, Tom's dominance was much stronger than the previous champions.

As long as there were no accidents, Tom would definitely be the champion this time.

Then, the Kungfu Cup went on for another two days, and Tom also took part in two more matches. There was no suspense at all. He defeated his opponents in an absolute crushing manner.

And he even defeated them before they had the time to surrender.

Finally, three days of competition had passed, and on the last day, the championship had come!

Chapter 885

"Everyone is looking forward to it! The Kungfu Cup, which has attracted the attention of the whole world, has finally come to the eighth-final. It is also the last competition of the campaign. Today, we could know who the real champion is!"

"Finally, this day has come. All the world's martial artists are focused on the H Country Kungfu Cup! Who has the last laugh and can win the final championship? Is he the only H Country martial artist Tom, or Junichiro Nakai from the Red Sun State, or..."

"The Kungfu Cup held in this year is the most exciting one in a century!"

"Today, the Kungfu Cup will witness the most intense collision!"

"According to reliable sources, Tom, the H Country martial artist, is one of the most powerful competitors to win the championship!"

"Tom has reached the semi-level of the God Becoming Level. Unless something unexpected happens, this year's champion belongs to H Country!"

There were heated discussions about today's championships on forums only accessible to martial artists.

Tom was absolutely the strongest competitor of the Kungfu Cup this year. Even the world's largest bookmaker was optimistic about Tom. He thought that it is more than 90 percent sure that Tom is the champion, so the odds for Tom were the lowest.

In addition, there was also information about other people. Besides Tom, the second favorite was Rommel. After he combated two more rounds, someone could recognize him. He was the super-assassin who disappeared two years ago.

After nirvana, he came back. There was also great hope for him to win the championship.

It could be said that today, all the martial artists in the world began to be fevered. A lot of martial artists had completed the formalities several days ago and flew over to H Country to watch this grand competition on the spot!

On all the mainstream media, there was comprehensive information about Tom and the other seven experts of Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm.

It was really a carnival of martial artists.

Tom got up very early. When he walked out of the room, he could see a lot of people standing at his door, wanted to cheer him up.

"Look, Tom comes out!"

As soon as he came out, he immediately attracted everyone's attention. All the people got close to surround him.

When Tom saw them, he smiled bitterly. To him, he was really not used to this kind of high-profile.

Clearly, it was Tom who was going to play today. But these people were more excited and nervous than him. There were even a lot of people with dark circles. It was obvious that they didn't sleep well last night.

"You don't have to be so exaggerated, do you?" Tom smiled bitterly in his heart.

Someone immediately shouted, "Tom, you must cheer up! We all have faith in you!"

"Yes, Tom, you have to show our H Country's power!"

"Tom, come on, beat those opponents to the ground! Show our H Country's power! Come on!"

"Trust Tom. You can surely beat these guys to pieces!"

"Tom, I love you. I want to give birth to a child for you!"

Seeing the enthusiasm of his fellow countrymen, Tom was quite helpless but touched. At this moment, he felt that he was not alone. Behind him, there were many people fighting side by side with him.

He smiled and raised his hand to press down. When everyone saw his action, they immediately quieted down and showed great respect and admiration for him.

"Thank you for your concern. I won't disappoint you today. I will take the champion of the Kung Fu Cup and make H Country proud." Tom said calmly with strength.

He didn't say loudly but was full of power, making everyone here relieved.

"Tom is mighty and domineering!"

"Trust Tom!!"

At this moment, Pence and the others came out. They smiled at Tom, greeted him, and said, "Tom, the glory of H Country is on your shoulder."

Tom nodded and said, "Don't worry, I will defend the glory of our country."

Then, Tom slowly walked to the Kungfu Cup scene surrounded by the crowd.

He was the first one in the crowd, followed by thousands of people behind him. At this moment, Tom had become the leader of H Country.

Because there was still a while before the final was officially held, Tom and the others were going to have breakfast in the early morning.

When they reached the entrance of the dining hall, they immediately saw a large group of people from the other side of the road. They were just Rommel, Junichiro Nakai, and other people.

The huge group also came for breakfast to replenish their energy and prepare for the following championship match!

At this moment, Tom and the group looked at each other.

Suddenly, time began to stop as if there was lightning in the air.

Tom saw them and smiled peacefully. Although the group had many people, every one of them was no match for Tom.

But for Rommel and the others, there was still a lot of pressure when they face Tom.

Moreover, the thousands of foreign martial artists behind them also felt an invisible pressure after seeing Tom.

Tom was clearly alone, but he completely crushed them in momentum. What a powerful person!

Stopped for a second, Tom took his eyes away from them and strode into the dining hall.

Many of the H Country martial artists behind them felt a great sense of security because Tom led the way. Especially when he felt that these foreign martial artists, who were once insufferable and extremely arrogant before, were obviously dispirited if met Tom, they were even more excited and proud. They had never been treated like this before.

The corporeity of people in H Country was originally weaker than foreigners. For thousands of years, they had been oppressed by foreigners. How could they be so arrogant now?

So they all held their heads high and followed Tom into the dining hall. However, these foreign martial artists did not dare to jump the queue like before. They had to wait honestly until so many H Country martial artists entered the dining hall.

"Damn it! These damn Chinese are too arrogant!"

"I'm so angry. We have never been treated like this!"

"It's all Tom's fault! Why would a backward nation like H Country cultivate such a terrifying existence as Tom?"

"Hmph, so what if Tom is strong? The championship final is coming soon. When the seven big 5S-level superpowers attack him, he will no doubt die!"

"Yes, we'll just wait for Tom's death. As soon as he dies, these Chinese people will wither!"

Chapter 886

When they faced Tom just now, they didn't even dare to speak. Now, when Tom and others went into the dining hall, they dared to say it. They all spoke angrily and said a lot of bad things about Tom.

When Rommel and Junichiro Nakai saw this, their faces pulled longer than ever.

Previously, in international competitions, they were the only ones who crushed the H Country in imposing manner, and the H Country had no choice but to complain behind their backs.

But now they became incompetent whiners. This was not good for them, because it indicated that H Country was on the way to rise!

They looked at each other and saw the seriousness and determination in each other's eyes. They only had one goal, which was to beat Tom to death in the next match.

Only when Tom was killed did they have the chance to fight for the championship, or else they would be crushed to death by Tom.

If they didn't kill Tom, Tom would kill them once they got on the stage.

Tom didn't eat too much, just half full.

Then he did not rest, but returned to the auditorium and sat next to Joseph.

Joseph smiled and said, "How was it? Did you rest well last night?"

Tom smiled and nodded, "Pretty well."

"How confident are you in today's competition?" Joseph asked. He had a smile on his face, but there was still caution and nervousness in his eyes. After all, this Kungfu Cup champion was of great significance to H Country.

"100 percent." Tom said concisely.

Feeling Tom's confidence, Joseph obviously breathed a sigh of relief. He patted Tom on the shoulder and said, "Good job. H Country is blessed to have a talent like you."

Tom just smiled and said nothing.

The rest of the H Country executives also greeted Tom, and they put their hopes on Tom.

Faced with their encouragement, Tom was neither humble nor haughty. He showed his confidence appropriately, but he did not appear arrogant.

Not long after, more and more people entered the Kungfu Cup arena.

The Kungfu Cup arena was a huge stadium that could accommodate 100,000 people, which was very large.

An hour before the championship, all the seats on the arena were full. There were even tens of thousands of people who didn't have seats. Even if they had to stand all the way, they were willing to buy tickets to watch the competition.

It was really the first time Tom had seen so many people. There was no need to be nervous, but he still felt excited.

After all, it was really big and impressive. Even the most popular concert of international superstars could not be compared to this!

Tom looked around. There were almost 200,000 people at the arena. It was grand and magnificent.

And the people present were not ordinary people. They were all martial artists.

There were also senior officials from all over the world who were here to watch the match.

Tom took a deep breath and calmed down himself. Then he returned to normal.

Even the accelerated heart rate returned to normal.

Not to mention him, even the onlookers could not help but be excited and even nervous under this kind of situation.

After all, this was a huge occasion.

Seeing this, Thorn took a deep breath and said, "There are so many people here! There are almost 200,000 people here. It's amazing!"

"Yes!" Marlin also nodded, "I remember in the previous Kungfu Cup, there were far fewer spectators than now. If there was a riot here, the consequences would be terrible."

Pence shook his head and said, "There can't be a riot. These spectators are all qualified martial artists. Besides, with the God Becoming Level masters present, they won't riot... But this scale is really scary!"

" I, as a bystander, has felt great pressure seeing so many people. I don't know how much pressure Tom is under!"

"Needless to say, it must be extremely huge. Tom is one of the most likely champions this time. Almost everyone in the world is focused on him. He is definitely under great pressure. If it were me, I couldn't go on stage at all. I would have been scared out of my wits!"

Amos's words were a little exaggerated. After all, as a master of the Innate Realm, it was impossible for him to be scared out of his wits, but under the attention of hundreds of thousands of viewers, the pressure was surely unprecedented and would affect the performance of him.

After they finished talking, they couldn't help but look at Tom, who was in the front. However, they found that there was no nervous expression on Tom's face at all. Instead, he looked very relaxed. He looked calm, and there was no sign of nervousness.

They admired Tom to the extreme, and only such a person could reach such a high level at such a young age.

Compared to Tom, Rommel and Junichiro Nakai felt a lot of pressure.

However, they were Major Perfection Realm experts in the Innate Realm, and they could suppress their nervousness.

"There are so many people. The eyes of the whole world are on us. No matter what, we have to kill Tom, or else, the seven of us will be ashamed to death!" Black Mamba said through gritted teeth.

His words were approved by others.

At this moment, their goal was the same, which was to kill Tom at any expenses.

Otherwise, they would become Tom's stepping stones and be laughed at by the whole world for the rest of their lives.

This was something they couldn't accept.

In order to kill Tom, they had been discussing carefully for the past two days. There were several ways of fighting that they could unite and kill Tom.

Their plan was perfect. They didn't believe that, with the total strength of the seven masters of the Major

Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, they couldn't beat Tom together.

If that was the case, they would lose all their dignity!

Time was running out.

Time seemed to be pass more slowly at this moment, especially for those who cared about this match. It was a kind of torture.

It was getting closer to the beginning of the match.

One minute left.

On the big screen in the center of the stage, the countdown began.

59...

58...

57...

and finally, 1...

With a bang, a lot of fireworks began to rise around the entire Kungfu Cup arena, and the scene was extremely grand and magnificent!

And immediately, in the center of the stage, a host landed from the air and began to announce in an impassioned voice, "From now on, the last match of the Kungfu Cup officially begins!!"

Chapter 887

The arena for the championship was both huge and firm.

It was essentially different from the traditional combat arena.

With an area of 10,000 square meters, this arena was a huge place with a length of 100 meters and a width of 100 meters!

Most importantly, the arena was not the type for traditional combat where the ground was made of cement or composite materials. Instead, it was made of steel half a meter thick.

That was an extremely huge project. Even if a big truck drove on it, it could support the weight. Now it was used as a championship arena, which proved how powerful the masters in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm were.

Even so, the organizers knew that even the ground made of refined steel would probably not be able to withstand the ravages of the eight masters in the Major Perfection Realm.

Therefore, the most important thing was to take complete safety measures to protect so many audience present. The audience couldn't be hurt. After all, this was a competition among the masters in the Major Perfection Realm. Even a little accidental injury would be a devastating blow to ordinary martial artists.

After all the preparations were made, the much-anticipated championship officially began.

Soon after the host announced the start of the competition, the first person came to the arena.

The person was Junichiro Nakai, the super strong man whom Tom had easily defeated. He did not walk up the stairs to the arena, but he jumped up directly from his seat, more than 30 meters away, like a huge spring. Then he stepped on the middle railing with the tip of his foot and landed on the arena with incomparable elegance.

When he stepped onto the arena like this, countless people on the spot applauded and cheered for him, especially the martial artists from the Red Sun State below the arena. They were excited and flushed, shouting cheers!

The originally excited atmosphere was ignited at this moment. The audience became all excited!

Junichiro Nakai's strength was indeed very good. He was the top master in the Major Perfection Realm, and he also ranked high on the international masters ranking list.

In particular, he was only 39 years old this year. It was a golden age.

After he was easily defeated by Tom that day, although he was depressed for a while, he immediately began to cheer up. Instead of falling behind, his skill became more refined!

Now his spirit and energy were more concentrated and animated, and his strength was much stronger than when he first faced Tom.

On the arena, he did not hide his aura, but let it out as much as he could!

Bang.

The audience could feel the terrifying aura from him! They could only feel the darkness in front of them, as if they were being pressed over by a big mountain, and they could hardly breathe!

When Black Mamba and the other masters felt Junichiro Nakai's momentum, they all frowned, some fear flashed in their eyes, and they said in a deep voice, "Junichiro Nakai's strength has been improved! His momentum is much stronger than it was last time he participated in the Kungfu Cup. It seems that after losing to Tom, he was not depressed, but more motivated by his desire to win."

Others nodded in agreement with this statement and became more afraid of Junichiro Nakai.

Pence, Amos and the others in the audience also felt Junichiro Nakai's progress, and Pence said with a serious expression, "No! Junichiro Nakai has advanced rapidly. His strength has reached the peak of the Innate Realm.

Tom is in trouble now."

Marlin waved his hand and said, "I don't think so. Tom has reached the God Becoming Level half. Even if Junichiro Nakai's strength has been improved, he is definitely not Tom's opponent."

Amos looked at him and said in a deep voice, "But you forgot that in this championship, Tom's opponent was not only Junichiro Nakai, but also six other masters in the Major Perfection Realm! Even if Tom has already reached the God Becoming Level half, he is not really at the God Becoming Level after all. There is still danger."

When the others heard this, they also began to show a solemn expression, of provocation and indifference, but Tom did not react to his eyes. He still sat steadily in the audience, his face calm, as if he had completely ignored Junichiro Nakai.

Tom's performance, however, angered Junichiro Nakai even more and made him grit his teeth even more. Junichiro Nakai snorted heavily. When Tom came to the arena, he would definitely beat Tom hard so that Tom could not survive!

Soon, a second person appeared.

He was a master in the Major Perfection Realm named Levski. He was extremely tall, almost two meters tall, and he was extremely strong. His arms were even thicker than ordinary because what Amos said was true.

Junichiro Nakai felt the shock of everyone present, and he was somewhat proud of himself. Ever since he was defeated by Tom, he had been dormant for so long that he could finally fully display his strength today! He clenched his fists and swore that he must take revenge and kill Tom!

His current strength was at least half stronger than it was when he first faced Tom. Plus, he had taken drugs in advance and overdrawn his full potential. And there were other six masters in the Major Perfection Realm. He didn't believe that Tom could still beat them this time.

He was deliberately looking at Tom, full people's thighs!

He was like a polar bear or a beast. Just standing there, he could give people a mountain of pressure.

His came to the arena in a different way from Junichiro Nakai. He also jumped up from the audience, but his movements and posture were abnormally light, as if he had no weight and he was just a huge ball of cotton!

Because he was more than 50 meters away from the arena, he stepped on the heads of several spectators on the way to the arena. However, his huge body did not hurt the heads of these spectators. Instead, those who were stepped on could not feel that they were stepped on.

From this, it could be seen how terrifying his flying skill was.

Soon, he landed on the arena lightly, but the place where he stood, made of fine steel, was left deep footprints!

Everyone who saw this scene narrowed their eyes and became even more afraid of Levski.

Chapter 888

After Levski entered the field, a smile appeared on his face. He nodded at Junichiro Nakai as a greeting. Then he turned to look at Tom and made a thumbs-down gesture at Tom. He looked arrogant and disdainful. He even said loudly to Tom, "Tom, you good-for-nothing! You're doomed today!"

The crowd suddenly quieted down. Obviously, many people did not expect that Levski, who was not a very famous master of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, would dare to provoke Tom. He was risking his neck.

At this moment, everyone's eyes were fixed on Tom. They wanted to see how Tom would react.

Tom remained calm to Levski's provocation. Instead, he drank his tea leisurely and ignored Levski.

He did not respond. Logically speaking, his behavior meant that he was showing the white feather.

However, Tom did not make people think that he was showing the white feather. Instead, he wore a disdainful and contempt look on his face.

Sure enough, Levski also felt Tom's disdain and contempt for him. He put away his originally arrogant and evil expression, and twitched his lips.

He had intended to take advantage of this opportunity today to ridicule Tom, which could not only affect Tom's mentality, but also made him stand out.

But he never expected Tom to ignore him like this, which made him very angry.

He gave himself an out. He snorted heavily, and said, "You're really starting to be afraid, ha ha ha."

However, his laughter did not seem domineering. On the contrary, his laughter made it seem that he was scared, which made many people laugh at him. In particular, the martial artists from H Country all ridiculed him.

"Lol. Even this bastard had the nerve to mock Tom, but Tom ignored him."

"Right. He's just a nobody and I've never heard of him. Tom probably doesn't know his name. Of course Tom just ignored him."

"He was provoking Tom, but humiliating himself. Ha ha ha..."

Levski's face darkened when he heard the mockery.

He hated Tom even more. When he and Junichiro Nakai looked at each other, they saw the anger and determination in each other's eyes. They must kill Tom by all means.

Next, it was Black Mamba's turn. He came out in a completely different way. He did not jump directly from the audience, but stepped out of his seat.

At first glance, he seemed to be weak and wasn't as impressive as Junichiro Nakai and Levski.

However, after he walked more than ten meters, his every step on the ground would send out a thud sound!

The ground shook more and more with each step he took.

Bang!

Bang, bang!

Bang, bang, bang!

The noise was so loud that it was like an earthquake, which made many people present, who thought Black Mamba was weak, shocked.

To them, Black Mamba was no longer a human being, but like a thousand-ton giant.

When he reached the arena, the ground shook as much as it could!

Black Mamba walked up to the ring and spread his arms. Off the stage, someone immediately began to shout.

"Black Mamba!"

"Black Mamba!"

"Black Mamba!!"

He caused cheers, and a large number of people began to shout his name. Everyone's blood boiled.

Black Mamba did not release his momentum like Junichiro Nakai, but the way he entered the field just now made people feel that he was as strong as Junichiro Nakai was.

In other words, Black Mamba's strength had improved during this period of time.

The way he progressed was not the same as Junichiro Nakai. It was under the great pressure of Tom that he achieved his full potential, broke through and made progress again.

And he could feel that once he could defeat Tom today, even if he couldn't win the championship, his strength would be greatly improved. After some time, it was not impossible for him to reach the God Becoming Level.

So, no matter what, he was going to beat Tom today.

In a sense, Tom was a good anxiety to him. Only by defeating Tom could he feel relieved.

This time, Black Mamba did not provoke Tom. He just looked deeply at Tom, and in his eyes, there was a strong desire of fighting.

Next, there were three other masters of the Innate Realm entering the field. Although they were weaker than Junichiro Nakai, Black Mamba and Levski in terms of momentum, they should not be overlooked.

The six people stood in six different positions.

When these six guys stood in the ring, the power that came out of them was overwhelming.

After all, these were the six masters of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm.

"Next up is the king of assassins, Rommel!"

As soon as the host finished speaking, the spotlights began to focus on Rommel in the audience.

He was too handsome and looked very young. When his appearance appeared on the big screen, many people cheered. Especially for those female martial artists, Rommel was charming.

Rommel had an extremely handsome smile on his face.

His smile was so charming that it made him look like a superstar instead of a strong martial artist.

"Rommel!"

"Rommel!"

"Rommel!"

More and more people began to cheer. It could be said that everyone was shouting Rommel's name except the martial artists of H Country, turning this competition into a Rommel's concert.

Under such great attention, Rommel began to step onto the stage.

The way he came out was different from the people who came out before him. He only took a step forward. Every time he showed up again, he was ten yards away.

Because his speed was too fast, he seemed to be teleporting. In the blink of an eye, he was already on the stage.

Moreover, he closed his eyes and opened his arms, as if he was enjoying the scene. He took a deep breath and shouted out, "Ah, I like this feeling. Championship, here I come!"

Then, he stood in another position. He formed an encirclement with six other masters of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. Their momentum was overwhelming.

Soon, they looked at Tom at the same time with the greatest hostility.

It looked like the seven warriors were trying to kill a dragon.

And Tom was the dragon.

Chapter 889

Faced with the obvious hostility, even from dozens of meters away, they were able to condense into substance. It was like seven huge sharp blades, viciously stabbing at Tom.

Speaking of hostility, it was actually a mental attack

It would bring great harm to the other party's spirit!

Even a Major Perfection Realm master in the same level of Innate Realm would be hurt by such a fierce attack.

Not to mention Tom, even the people sitting next to him were shocked.

Some martial artists who were not in such a high state were so frightened that their faces turned pale. Their bodies trembled out of control. The chairs under their seats were crushed by their own uncontrolled power, and they fell to the ground.

It could be said that the people next to Tom were all frightened.

Even masters like Pence and Amos broke their chairs, but they reacted quickly and did not fall to the ground immediately. They managed to maintain their post and avoiding embarrassment.

In addition, many of the higher-ups from H Country, who were a little further away, were also terrified. Fortunately, Little Martial God reacted quickly and stood in front of them in time to resist these spiritual attacks.

But Little Martial God's face turned pale. It was conceivable that the pressure he received was extremely great.

But Tom remained calm as if nothing happened. Not only did he not lose control, but also he didn't move.

He looked just like he always did.

He drank his tea gracefully, seemingly unaffected by these mental storms.

It seemed that he didn't take those seven Major Perfection Realm masters in the Innate Realm seriously.

Noticing his reaction, everyone in the room could not help but admire. Such a Tom just looks too powerful and secure. Especially for all the Chinese martial artists, he was a complete linchpin.

Finally, after a brief jaw-dropping moment, the host began to come back to his senses and loudly announced, "Next, let's give a warm applause to the martial artist from H Country, and the seeded player of this year's Kungfu Cup with the greatest reputation, Tom!!!"

His words were extremely passionate and provocative, causing all the cells in the room to come alive at this moment, and the blood to rush to the top of their heads. Immediately, the atmosphere in the room became more exciting.

Tom was finally going to enter the field.

Ever since the beginning of the Kungfu Cup, the name "Tom" had been heard by everyone. From the beginning, he had become the top contender of this year's Kungfu Cup, without any dispute!

If the Kungfu Cup was a one-on-one match according to normal fighting rules, Tom would be the undisputed champion, no one could be his opponent, and he left the others far behind!

But because the Kungfu Cup was an international competition and a confrontation between countries, so it was not a one-on-one match, but a game between the top eight. The reason why such a system was set was because it was a collision between countries.

In the past, when the Kungfu Cup reached the top eight, it was all a competition between three or two countries.

And now, there was the shocking event of Tom single-handedly defeating seven masters of the Realm of Innate Realm, the martial artists of four powerful nations. Such a phenomenon had never occurred before!

And that was exactly why this edition of the Kungfu Cup was bound to go down in history.

And whether Tom won or lost, his name was the one that would be remembered by the world.

But before the competition really started, no one knew who would be the winner.

After the host announced, Tom stood up. His appearance was different from everyone else in front of him.

He did not show his strength, but slowly walked to the stage like an ordinary person.

He had a faint smile on his face, looking very easy and relaxed, without a trace of nervousness or cheerfulness, giving the impression that he was just taking a walk after a meal.

Everyone did not expect that Tom, as the strongest person this time, would come out in such a way, which was just too unbecoming of him. They all thought that he must have come out in a very shocking, subversive and terrifying way, bringing about a shocking and earth-shaking movement.

However, they soon found out that although Tom was walking very casually, the eyes of the whole crowd were still focused on him, and he didn't look ordinary.

Instead, every step he took had a unique charm, as if it contained the mystery in the world, with an inexplicable sense of beauty.

As he walked like this, he clearly did not leak out a trace of his powerful aura, but the kind of rhythm and aura that he walked with was unparalleled.

Even when he walked more than ten meters, he gave the impression up that he was no longer a man, but a heavenly intention!

He looked like he had merged with the heaven!

"Tom is..."

Pence felt Tom's change. He opened his mouth wide and wanted to say something, but he couldn't say it, because he didn't know what to say about Tom at this time.

This had exceeded his knowledge reserve. He had never seen anyone like Tom.

Amos was also extremely shocked. At this moment, Tom had really become an intention in his eyes, even if he could see Tom clearly.

But he always felt that Tom was illusory and mysterious.

Once he closed his eyes, he could no longer feel Tom's presence.

The others were also extremely shocked. They all found that Tom was different, but they couldn't describe it, and they did not know what had happened to Tom.

At this moment, a voice rang in their ears.

"It was Heaven and Man in One."

When they looked along with the voice, they saw the Little Martial God with a face full of gravity and admiration, his gaze coalescing deeply on Tom's body. He took a deep breath and said, "Tom has reached the realm of Heaven and Man in One! In this championship match, he will definitely win. These seven masters of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, combined, are no match for him."

"Heaven and Man in One!?"

Pence was immediately shocked and blurted out, "Heaven and Man in One? Isn't that a realm that can only be reached when people reach the God Becoming Level?"

Little Martial God's eyes were deep, and he said, "Tom has reached the spirit realm of Heaven and Man in One.
It's only a matter of time before he breaks through to the God Becoming Level, and it won't be too long."

Chapter 890

The God Becoming Level...

This was what all martial artists dreamed of.

There were hundreds of millions of martial artists in the world, but few people could reach the God Becoming Level.

There were less than ten in the world.

Moreover, each of these experts was a genius with great luck and had experienced countless difficulties.

Most importantly, they were not young anymore. The youngest expert at the God Becoming Level was now 50 years old.

However, Tom was only under thirty.

It was really shocking for them that he was not even 30 and was about to reach the God Becoming Level!

When they faced Tom, they really felt powerless and no longer had the thoughts to catch up with him. Tom was still human, but he was no longer on the same level as them.

Fortunately, Tom was from H Country and their fellow, otherwise, they would be doomed!

So the people who should be worried and panicked now were masters from the powerful countries with hostile relations with H Country. When Tom really reached the God Becoming Level, he must avenge!

Just as Tom had walked more than 20 meters and was about to step onto the ring, a voice suddenly sounded.

"Tom, you must win!!!"

It was a very pleasant and clear voice, a woman's voice, and her tone was trembling.

Soon, everyone present looked at the woman and saw a pretty face full of affections and nervousness. She clenched her fair fist and looked straight at Tom to cheer for him.

And from her expression and eyes, they could tell that she loved Tom!

The camera soon captured this woman, making her face clear in front of martial artists all over the world, whose beauty and class shocked many people.

Everyone could tell that this woman was either from a rich or powerful family. She must be a super big shot.

And the guess was right. She was Lexie. Technically, she was the princess of H Country.

She was sitting next to Joseph and Barry, and many of the people present realized that the woman who cheered for Tom was not an ordinary woman.

Joseph and Barry were a little embarrassed in the face of this situation. They coughed. Barry said to

Lexie in a low voice, "Lexie, behave yourself."

Lexie shook her head and ignored her father. It was not until she saw Tom turn around and smile at her that she breathed a sigh of relief and was suddenly satisfied. Then she looked at Barry and said seriously and firmly, "Dad, I love Tom. I want to marry him."

Barry was about to drink tea when he heard Lexie, and he immediately spat it out, making him lose his composure.

However, this sentence was heard by many higher-ups nearby, and they all had strange expressions, but they quickly moved their eyes away and pretended not to hear it, but their attention was on Lexie and Barry.

"What nonsense are you talking about?" Barry scolded in a low voice!

Regardless of Lexie had a high status, it was inappropriate to say such words on such an occasion. Even Tom was a married man. How could Lexie destroy his marriage? What a mess!

But Lexie shook her head and said seriously, "I'm not talking nonsense. I'm serious!"

"You!" Barry was so angry that his daughter had never given him some peaceful time. He wanted to say something. At this time, Joseph coughed and said, "Okay, stop talking. Concentrate on Tom."

"Yes, dad." Barry nodded. It was a family matter and it was not appropriate to talk about it outside.

When he returned, he would teach Lexie a lesson.

After Lexie cheered Tom up, others also began to react and cheered him.

There were waves of sound that swept through the entire venue, bringing the atmosphere to a peak.

Tom still walked unhurriedly, not nervous at all. Apart from that, his calmness had already surpassed the top seven experts' at Major Perfection Realm.

And they were on stage and found Tom being calm. They looked gloomy.

They were very confident in this competition because, during this period of time, the seven of them put aside their prejudices and suspicions and shared their martial arts experience. In a short period of time, they could improve each other's strength and set several plans of joint operations to kill Tom together!

They killed Tom first, and then the seven of them competed fairly.

But now that Tom had reached the Heaven and Man in One state, their chances of winning were even lower!

Finally, Tom stepped on the stage and faced the seven experts with the help of everyone's attention and great momentum.

The moment he stood on the stage, the noisy audience quieted down at this moment. Everyone held their breath and did not dare to make a sound, afraid that they would ruin this important moment.

The main thing was that these eight people on the ring had put too much pressure on them.

The host took a deep breath and announced loudly, "Now it's the final of 33rd Kungfu Cup championship!"

The final started, and from that moment on, the eight people could attack.

However, none of them moved.

The seven masters of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm had now tensed their nerves to the extreme and looked straight at Tom, looking very solemn and fearful.

But for Tom, it was a different story.

Tom stood with his hands behind his back, wearing a long robe that fluttered in the wind. He slowly walked to the center of the ring, smiling faintly, "I'll give you a chance to surrender. Then I can spare you from death."

Tom said calmly, and his voice was not loud, nor was there any intention of killing, as if he was just talking about what he wanted to eat today.

However, with the current scene, his words were extremely overbearing, which made all the H Country martial artists present, including those who watched the live broadcast on TV, thrilled after hearing him. All the cells in their bodies were active. They clenched their fists tightly, and their face was bloodshot.

H Country hadn't been so proud all these years.

Tom, as the youngest candidate of this Kungfu Cup, shouted the most domineering words. To the whole country people, they felt proud and their anger could be vented finally!!

However, they still did not dare to shout out the joy in their hearts, because they did not dare to disturb

Tom on the stage. At this moment, Tom was the real protagonist, the soul of their H Country.
