

Chapter 816

Finally, the plane landed.

Tom breathed a sigh of relief, thinking that he could finally see the back of this annoying girl, Lexie.

Soon, Tom met Joseph and a few other dignitaries in laudable tolerant spirits.

One of them was a graceful middle-aged man with a square face. He looked similar to Joseph. Obviously, this middle-aged man was Lexie's father.

"Grandpa, dad, mom, I'm back."

Lexie walked over and greeted them with a smile.

"My hoyden, you've been outside for so long and now finally come home." A dignified woman said helplessly with a note of the complaint and rolled her eyes at Lexie. However, her eyes were full of dotage.

Needless to say, she was Lexie's mother.

After Tom got off the helicopter, he began to greet Joseph and others.

He stood up straight with a determined expression. Although he had never been in the army, he seemed to be a man of hot blood.

When he arrived at the Ross Family courtyard, Tom immediately felt a strong sense of nobility.

For a moment, Tom felt as if he was in a palace, surrounded by distinguished imperial relatives.

This aura of nobility was something that ordinary people did not possess. No matter how rich or highly skilled a person was, he couldn't exude such quality unless he had this status. This was the aura of a king.

In particular, Lexie's father was even more noble and extraordinary. Tom felt slightly that he shared the same quality of a rightful king.

Tom had never seen such an imposing aura before. Even Joseph didn't exude such aura.

Tom had seen Lexie's father on TV. His name was Barry and his official position was not low, but not high enough to be the top leader.

Based on the current situation, it was only a matter of time before he advanced to that position.

No wonder Lexie was so noble. Her family was in a high rack in Y City.

In ancient times, Lexie would be the future princess.

When Tom sized up Barry, Barry was also looking Tom up and down. He smiled faintly, seeming to appreciate Tom. Obviously, he knew Tom's reputation.

"This must be Tom. As expected, you are young but outstanding." Barry smiled and reached out his hand to shake Tom's hand. His words were especially steady and powerful, which actually made Tom feel flattered!

For a moment, he felt a little flustered and quickly went forward to shake hands with Barry.

However, he quickly dispelled his embarrassment and regained his composure. A smile appeared on his face and he said, "Sir, I felt flattered."

Tom found out that Barry was an ordinary person without any martial arts foundation. But his aura was not less powerful than a Major Perfection Realm master's!

For a moment, Tom even felt the pressure, which showed how powerful Barry's aura was.

Barry seemed approachable and immediately said, "Thank you for sending my daughter back. During this time, my daughter has brought a lot of trouble to you, Tom."

When Tom heard this, he felt strange, as if there was some secrets between him and Lexie.

But speaking of which, he and Lexie seemed to be having an affair.

Tom certainly couldn't show their affection in front of Barry. He said calmly, "This is what I should do."

But as soon as he finished speaking, Lexie said, "Dad, why are you thanking him? You don't even know how he bullied me in H City!"

After that, the atmosphere in the room immediately changed. Everyone looked at Tom with a strange look in their eyes.

Tom twitched his mouth and was about to explain, but didn't continue. Instead, he kept smiling. This was the best and the most candid response. Otherwise, they would misinterpret whatever he said.

After all, Lexie's status was distinguished.

However, he didn't expect the Ross Family to feel relieved about Lexie's going to H City alone.

Lexie's mother immediately glared at Lexie and said angrily, "What nonsense are you talking about? How could Tom bully you?"

Lexie wanted to talk back, but soon, she saw Tom's eyes. Although he didn't threaten her, she inexplicably felt afraid and stopped being willful.

She had a hunch that if she teased him at this time, Tom would really be angry with her and ignore her for the rest of his life.

Barry happened to see her whole reaction. A meaningful look appeared in his eyes.

Tom didn't pay much attention to that. Anyway, he had already sent Lexie back. His task was completed.

Then, under Barry's gracious invitation, Tom stayed there and had a meal.

Originally, Tom couldn't stay overnight at the Ross Family because of his status. But after dinner, Joseph and Barry still didn't talk to him about the Kungfu Cup. But it was getting late. So, Tom was going to find a hotel in Y City.

At this moment, Barry actually invited him to stay at home for the night.

Tom declined at first, but Barry insisted that he stay. He couldn't refuse Barry anymore and had to stay for the night.

Tom didn't think so much. After all, it was getting late, and their house was big and there were many rooms. It didn't cause them much trouble if he stayed here for a night.

However, others thought differently!

Ross Family was not an ordinary family. It was extremely difficult for many people to visit the Ross Family, let alone staying there overnight. Only a few of the rich men in the Y City had the privilege to visit them!

Now, not only did Tom visit the Ross Family, but he was invited by Barry to stay over for the night. This was not common.

So that night, the news went viral in that circle and caused heated discussions!

Lexie posted a photo and a sentence on her Moments. The photo was Tom's back when he was eating at home and the content was, "My first time to bring him home. I'm so nervous..."

Chapter 817

Fortunately, Tom didn't have Lexie as Facebook friend. Otherwise, if he saw her post, he would be very angry.

Although he was not afraid of those powerful and affluent second generation of Lexie's circle, he did not want to bear such an unreasonable disaster.

Besides, he was a married man. If Phoebe knew it, how would Phoebe and Amelia think of him? They would definitely think that he was a playboy and a scumbag.

At this moment, Tom noticed that Lexie looked over with some cunning, as if her conspiracy had succeeded.

It gave him a slightly ominous feeling, but he didn't think too much about it. Anyway, he had already brought Lexie back, and then Lexie would have nothing to do with him. And he thought that the superior would ask him to join the Kungfu Cup and take the Kungfu Cup champion back for H Country.

After Lexie posted on her Facebook, her friends immediately gave her a lot of likes and comments in less than a minute.

Everyone asked her who this person was. Even if they knew that this person was Tom, they couldn't help but ask curiously. All men were very uncomfortable. Lexie was the absolute goddess to them. If they married Lexie, not only would they have Lexie, but also their family would be prosperous.

Lexie did not respond to these comments. She continued to remain mysterious and found it interesting.

Just then, her mother, Melani, saw her post and immediately went over to ask her, "Hey! What's going on with you?"

Lexie pretended not to know and asked, "What?"

Melani pinched her and said, "Stop playing dumb. What happened to your post just now? Do you have an affair with Tom?"

"Don't say that. It's so indecent." Lexie was angry for a moment. She showed no affirmation or denial. As her mother, Melani immediately realized something was wrong and said seriously, "Lexie, tell me the truth. Do you really like Tom? It is said that he has a family!"

Lexie's eyes flashed with gloom and sadness, but it was quickly covered up by her. She said, "I do not. It's just a post. I didn't say anything."

Melani said seriously, "My girl, I don't care what you're thinking, but I tell you, you must not have any abnormal relationship with Tom. He has a family, and your father will never agree to it, are you clear?"

Lexie immediately became impatient and said, "Well, well, you're annoying. I just posted a picture. Why did you say so much to me? Well, I will delete the post right now!"

As she spoke, she was about to delete it. Melani said, "Hey, girl, why are you so impatient? How can you talk to your mom like this? Okay, don't pout. I won't talk about it. But you have to bear in your mind that don't get too close to Tom, okay? It's not good for you."

Lexie nodded and said impatiently, "Got it. You can go out. I'm going to sleep."

Melani sighed. She had no choice but to leave Lexie's room.

After she left, Lexie came out of the quilt and was in a daze. After a while, she deleted her post and threw her phone away irritably.

After Melani came out of Lexie's room, she went back to her own room. Barry had taken a shower and come out. He said to her, "What's wrong? You quarreled with Lexie?"

Melani said, "Barry, do you think Lexie has changed a little this time?"

Barry said, "Why do you say so? I think she's quite normal. She's still as naughty as before, like you when you were young."

Melani grumbled in a flirtish manner, "That's not what I'm talking about!"

After a pause, Melani added, "Barry, don't you think that Lexie and Tom have something unusual?"

Hearing this, Barry immediately stopped and he became serious. As a senior leader with superior IQ and EQ, Barry had unique perspective. He naturally found that there was something abnormal between Lexie and Tom when she came back this time...

Of course, this abnormality was mainly shown by his daughter, Lexie.

He asked directly, "What evidence do you have?"

Melani said, "Take a look at Lexie's Facebook moments."

Barry immediately turned on his phone. Soon, he realized that it was nothing wrong with Lexie's Facebook moments. "She didn't post anything."

"Impossible!" Melani immediately grabbed the phone and looked at it. Soon, she realized that Lexie's post had been deleted. "Well, she deleted that post."

Barry was also a little curious and asked, "What did she post?"

So Melani told Barry about the post. After that, she said worriedly, "Barry, I suspect that Lexie likes Tom. It's not a good thing. Tom already has a family."

After Barry heard this, his face began to darken. After thinking for a while, he took out his cell phone and made a call.

After a while, he hung up the phone, sighed and said, "The intelligence agency told me that when Lexie was in H City a while ago, she asked Tom to pretend to be her boyfriend, and Tom had beaten Lucian up..."

It was easy for Barry to find out about this. After Melani heard this, she immediately became more worried and said, "Oh! It seems that the girl really has an abnormal relationship with Tom! What should we do? Tom has a family! And didn't Tom know that he should behave himself? He actually messed with our Ross Family. He thinks he is a master, so he don't need to take our Ross Family seriously. Barry, you shouldn't have made him stay overnight at our house. This is to set the wolf to keep the sheep. If their relationship is made public, our reputation will be ruined."

Melani was very anxious. As a mother, she regarded Lexie as her everything.

In contrast, Barry was much calmer. He said, "There's no need to worry. Let's observe them for a while, and make it clear. Then we'll find a way to deal with it."

Melani nodded and understood that they could only do so now. After all, the Kungfu Cup had already started, and Tom was the key person to take the championship. Even if Tom really seduced Lexie, they had to let it go now.

Chapter 818

On Tom's side, he meditated in his room without releasing his Spiritual Sense. Otherwise, he could hear everything in the manor.

So he didn't know that he had been misunderstood by Barry and Melani. Otherwise, he would feel both depressed and helpless.

But he wouldn't take it too seriously, because these were insignificant.

His current state had long been out of low interest, and these affairs and gossips would not arouse his interest.

He was pursuing the perfection of martial arts.

Of course, this did not mean that he was no longer in love. He was very responsible for Phoebe and Amelia.

But his vision and pursuit had slowly changed.

To him, Lexie was just a passer-by in his life.

Even the Ross Family failed to leave him in awe or fear.

The Ross Family was powerful, and it could even become the owner of H Country in the near future.

So what?

As long as he succeeded in breaking through the God Becoming Level, he would be a land immortal by then, and he would no longer be on the same level as ordinary people.

Just like God of War Albert, he was already above the country.

It might not be appropriate to say that. God of War was above all the masters of the country, but he had a sense of citizenship. Otherwise, he would not be willing to become the patron saint of H Country.

And once Tom broke through to the God Becoming Level, he would be on the same level as God of War.

At this level, other than nuclear weapons, no other means could pose a threat to him.

In a sense, even nuclear weapons could not threaten God Becoming Level experts, because nuclear weapons brought too much damage, which at least a million people became victims. No country was willing to do this.

Tom now entered a more mysterious state. He was motionless, like a statue meditating on the ground.

It was not until the next morning he opened his eyes.

He was more energetic than an ordinary person who had slept for ten hours.

Before the servant came to knock on the door, Tom opened the door and followed the servant downstairs to have breakfast with the Ross Family.

Any other young man of his age who had spent the night at Lexie's house was prone to be compliant and timid in front of Joseph and Barry.

But Tom was different. He had always been calm, neither servile nor haughty as if he was at home.

His demeanor impressed the Ross Family. They secretly nodded their heads and admired him very much. He was destined for big things.

Melani, in particular, had been secretly sizing Tom up ever since he came out of the room.

She had to admit that Tom was the most outstanding man she had ever seen. Apart from his terrifying strength, his temperament and demeanor were peculiar.

Apart from the rest, Tom was indeed worthy of Lexie. It was a pity that he was married, and it was destined that Lexie would never have anything to do with him.

It was the same as a princess in the royal family who could never marry a married man.

After breakfast, Joseph smiled and said, "Tom, did you sleep well last night?"

Tom put down the cutlery, nodded with a smile, and said, "Well, I did. There's a purple aura here that no other place has. Nothing bad can permeate here.

Living here is especially peaceful."

Lexie immediately said, "Don't flatter!"

Joseph immediately glared at her and said, "Girl, mind your language."

Lexie looked away with a different look. It had become her habit to play tricks on Tom.

Of course, Tom would not bother himself arguing with her, and he knew her character.

Tom was not trying to curry favor but to be honest. The Ross Family could be said to be the most prestigious family in H Country. Anyone would feel quiet living here. He even had a feeling that if he lived for a long time and was exposed to the royal nobility of the Ross Family, his cultivation would be further improved.

But it was unrealistic. The Ross Family was not an ordinary family. It was an honor for an outsider to come in for a night.

Barry immediately said, "Do you know Feng Shui (Chinese Geomancy)?"

Tom said calmly, "I know a little."

After exchanging the usual pleasantries, Joseph got down to a serious discussion. "Tom, I believe you guessed why I called you here this time."

Tom nodded with a serious expression.

Joseph continued, "This time the Kungfu Cup is very meaningful. The champion can get a chance to go to the mystic realm. Tom, do you know this?"

"I know."

"Well, almost all the young elites from all over the country have come here for the championship. People who had gone to secret realm enjoy many opportunities to advance to the top of the Kungfu Cup..."

Joseph began to explain in detail the importance of the Kungfu Cup champion to Tom.

In fact, Tom had heard of these things from Pence and General Watson. But he still felt different hearing it from Joseph.

From Joseph's point of view, he understood the passivity of H Country's international status.

Country M, in particular, brought much pressure on H Country. In recent years, its biological technology had developed rapidly, and many experts have emerged, constantly pressuring H Country. In addition, Country M had united with many powerful countries in the world and had been suppressing H Country internationally.

Now that H Country kept retreating, the situation was already very bad.

So now H Country was urgent to find another God Becoming Level expert.

And what shocked him the most was a news from Joseph!

God of War, Albert had a weakness in martial arts and would be on the wane over time. Originally, this secret was only known to a very few people, but now it was spread to few experts of many other countries.

Once that time came, God of War wouldn't be able to protect H Country, then H Country would inevitably be besieged!

Although there was another King of LT Organization in H Country, he was not from H Country. No one in H Country could command him. And most importantly, he was on the verge of senility and no one knew how long he could live.

If it weren't for the last time God of War had a fight with him on King's Landing Mountain, many people would have thought he was dead.

So to sum it up, now H Country was bound to win the Kungfu Cup champion.

And this important task fell on Tom.

Chapter 819

When Tom came to Y City this time, he was already ready to fight, but he did not expect that God of War's skills would be flawed and would enter the decline period after a period of time, and this decline period was not far away.

Another expert at God Becoming Level in H Country, King of LT Organization, was his master. Strictly speaking, he was not born in H Country. If the H Country was targeted internationally, the King of LT Organization might not do anything.

So in this way, the situation was very serious.

Originally, if it weren't for the high prize of the Kungfu Cup, H Country could have bought some time.

But in this situation, H Country could not delay any more.

Once the champion really fell into others' hands and the God Becoming Level experts appeared in other powerful countries, this kind of balance would be broken immediately.

This situation was not what H Country wanted to see.

Tom nodded and readily agreed. He did not refuse or ask for any subsidies.

Joseph and Barry were relieved to see that he had agreed so readily. At the same time, they appreciated Tom more and more. There were not many young people like him. Not only was talented, but he had such strength at such young age. What was more, they had the bigger picture inside. It was really not easy.

At this time, Barry even had an idea that if Tom didn't already have a family, he would be the perfect candidate to be his son-in-law.

Unfortunately, there were no ifs. Tom was indeed married.

Next, they discussed some details. They mainly wanted to know if he had the confidence. After all, not many people in H Country were able to meet the conditions to fight now.

Speaking of this, Tom asked, "Am I the only Kungfu Cup candidate who was the expert in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm of H Country?"

Tom had wanted to ask this question for a long time, but Pence and General Watson didn't know the answer.

After hearing this, Joseph and Barry both looked regretful and helpless. They sighed and said, "Actually, besides you, there is another person who qualifies. This person is also a top genius."

"Oh? Who is it?" When Tom heard this, he became curious. He was also a relatively famous person in H Country. Now, his status was not low, and he could know a lot of secrets, but he did not know that besides him, there was another person who was an expert in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm and was qualified to participate in the Kungfu Cup.

Joseph sighed and said, "This man is called Regis. He is as talented as you. He is only 35 years old this year, and five years ago, he broke through the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm."

When Tom heard this, he was even more shocked. This man entered the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm at the age of 30, which could be called a super genius. Although this was two years later than him, it was also great!

And Tom had never heard of such a brilliant genius?

It was incredible.

Tom immediately became interested and said, "Is there such a person? It's interesting. Where he is now? If he participates in the Kungfu Cup with me, the chances of winning the championship will be much higher with me and him in the top eight together."

Tom was not joking. If there was someone else who would be able to take some of the pressure from him, then his confidence would increase a lot.

After all, he would have to fight seven people alone in the top eight round.

This was too difficult. Even if he was now known as invincible among the people under the God Becoming Level, it was not a sure win.

However, hearing Tom's words, neither Joseph nor Barry spoke. They smiled bitterly.

Tom was not stupid. Seeing them like this, he immediately realized that something must be wrong with this Regis. It was likely that he was not qualified to join the Kungfu Cup.

He spoke out his doubt. "Is this Regis not Chinese?"

Indeed, if he was not Chinese, he would not be qualified to represent H Country, even if he was a hybrid.

The Kungfu Cup was a competition between countries, a competition between bloodlines.

"That's not the case." Joseph shook his head, denied this, and paused before he continued, "Regis is Chinese, but three years ago, because of some incident, he had some mental problems and is now locked in a special mental hospital."

Tom was really surprised to hear this. In his understanding, people who were in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm people had great wisdom and will, how could they be mentally ill?

It was many times more difficult to drive an expert in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm crazy than to kill him!

However, since Joseph said so, this must be true.

"That's a pity." Tom sighed and said. It meant that he was the only one in the Kungfu Cup this time.

Barry said at this moment, "Tom, I wonder if you are interested in meeting Regis?"

Tom thought for a moment and said, "How were the symptoms of his mental illness?"

"He became a monster of destruction, completely out of control, who killed anyone he saw." Joseph said, and then he briefly introduced the situation of Regis to Tom.

After listening to this, Tom also thought it was a pity. It turned out that this Regis was very normal and very loyal to the country.

Unfortunately, three years ago, he saw his family being slaughtered, so he went crazy and killed every person he saw. In the end, he was subdued by the God of War and thrown into a mental hospital.

Tom didn't say anything more. Anyway, he was ready to fight by himself. Even if he had to play against seven competitors in a row and had little confidence, he still had to do it. This was his mission.

At this point, Joseph said, "Tom, this matter is very important. We hope you don't have any psychological burden. Try to compete if you are confident. If you are not, what you should try to do is to protect yourself first."

When Tom heard this, he smiled and did not say anything, because he knew that once he stepped on the stage, there was no way to keep himself intact.

After a pause, Joseph added, "Tom, if you have any requests, you can tell us. If we can satisfy you, we will try our best."

Tom thought for a moment and said, "If something really happens to me in the Kungfu Cup, please protect my family. This is my only request."

Joseph took a deep breath, stared at Tom closely, stood up, saluted, and said extremely seriously, "You can rest assured. The country will not let your family be hurt!"

Tom smiled. "Then I don't have other requirements."

Chapter 820

Then, they discussed details before Tom was ready to leave.

When he was about to leave the manor, Lexie stopped him and said with a complicated look, "Tom, will you take part in the Kungfu Cup?"

Tom was not surprised that Lexie knew about this. So he nodded and said honestly, "Yes."

Lexie bit her lips staring intensely at him. After a while, she said, "Then you must be careful. You must be alive."

"I will." Tom nodded, waved at her, and then turned to leave.

But before he could go far, Lexie stopped him again.

"Tom!"

"Yes?"

Tom looked at her again in confusion.

But Lexie didn't say anything. Instead, she stared at him for a while and shook her head to show that she had nothing to say.

Tom rolled his eyes and felt that Lexie was fooling him. But he didn't bother to say anything. After leaving the manor, he decided to head back to H City.

The Kungfu Cup was still going on. He had to go back to sign up for it.

The Kungfu Cup was extremely important. He must be well prepared and make no mistakes.

However, not long after he left the Ross Family, suddenly a jeep rushed straight to him at a very fast speed, without any intention of slowing down. The speed was at least 150 mph.

It could send Tom flying.

How could the driver drove so fast in downtown Y City?

Tom frowned. He could not tell that the jeep was rushing towards him on purpose, and it was going to kill him.

It was his second time in Y City. Besides the Ross Family, he didn't know anyone else and didn't have any enemies.

Tom quickly figured out what was going on. The man behind it must be Lexie's wooer.

He stood still without any intention of dodging. Passers-by thought he was too scared to react.

And the person in the car showed a disdainful sneer, "So he's the man Lexie likes. What a coward."

"Shall we kill him?"

"Hit him. Anyway, it's on our territory. Even if he's dead, it's not a big deal. Since he dares to touch Lexie, he should be prepared to be punished."

Just as the jeep was about to hit Tom,

Tom moved.

In fact, others didn't see his movements clearly. In their eyes, he seemed to have disappeared out of thin air.

When he appeared again, he was next to the jeep and stretched to kicked the high-speed car. The jeep actually slipped and hit the wall on the side. With a loud bang, it knocked over the wall!

Others were startled.

No one expected that the jeep would hit the wall when it almost hit Tom.

But Tom was still standing there, unscathed.

Fortunately, the jeep was bulletproof. Even though it hit the wall, people inside were still fine. They just jolted.

But they weren't seriously hurt.

Two minutes later, two people staggered down from the jeep. There was blood on their heads, which was a little scary.

They staggered over and glared at Tom, eyes filled with anger and confusion. They did not see how Tom disappeared. They almost hit Tom, but why did their car lose control?

Tom didn't leave. He just stood there, waiting for them.

Seeing their appearance, Tom was certain that they were from Y City's upper class.

"You dare to play tricks? You're doomed!"

"You'll suffer!"

When they walked to Tom, they pointed at Tom, cursing him. They were very arrogant and fearless.

They must have been done many bad things in Y City.

If their target was an ordinary person, he must have died on the spot.

Tom looked at them calmly and said, "You want to kill me?"

"It seems that you are not so stupid! That's right, I want to kill you! What's wrong?"

But the other man said, "Just take him back. Everyone is waiting!"

Then they began to attack Tom.

Although they had a car accident and their faces were covered with blood, they were not seriously injured. Now they had regained their strength.

Moreover, they were all martial artists of Extrinsic Peak. They were much stronger than ordinary people.

Unfortunately, their target was Tom and they didn't know how powerful Tom was.

Tom shook his head. Before their fists could touch his face, he had slapped them and knocked them down on the ground.

The slaps made them dizzy and more confused.

Tom did not give them a chance to get up. He kicked them and stepped on one of the men's chest, and asked condescendingly, "Who's behind you?"

"You..."

They were all stunned, their faces full of confusion. They did not expect Tom to be so capable of fighting that they couldn't fight back at all,

That was troublesome.

"Don't tell me?" Tom increased his strength and the man immediately cry out in pain, his face full of pain.

"You dare to attack me, but you don't know who I am?!"

They still didn't answer. Tom shook his head and tramped on the man harder.

Moreover, his eyes were filled with fierce.

"It seems that I have to teach you a lesson."

Then Tom began to increase his strength. The man felt unprecedented pain and that death's breath was enveloped him, which made him completely breathless. He was scared now.

"I tell you, I tell you..." He spoke with difficulty and did not dare to be arrogant anymore. He felt that if he did not answer him, Tom would really kill him.

The man next to him also felt Tom's overwhelming aura and was frightened.

"It was Lucian and his friends who asked us to attack you. If we can't kill you, we're asked to force you to attend the banquet. Otherwise, your family will suffer..."

Tom's eyes became even colder, and they could almost freeze the air around them!

Chapter 821

Tom had not heard of anyone threatening him with his family for a long time, and he had always hated it the most because his family had always been his soft underbelly. Nobody should poke the bear.

Now that Lucian and other rich guys threatened him with his family, to be honest, he was really angry.

At first, he didn't take Lucian seriously. After all, for him, Lucian was just a rich young man without any abilities, not on the same level as him, no matter how powerful his family was. Even in his opinion, Lucian was like a child. How could adults care about the naive actions of a child? Besides, he and Lexie had never had an affair.

But now, Lucian was so stupid to provoke him. He didn't mind teaching these stupid young men a lesson for their parents.

"Threatening me with my family? Very good, it's been a long time since anyone dared to threaten me with my family. You damn good." Tom said this with a smile on his face, but his smile was too scary and frightening.

Most obviously, the two young men were trembling with fear now, as if they had encountered the most terrifying thing in the world, and their bodies were constantly trembling.

Tom was not an ordinary martial artist.

He was the peerless expert only inferior to the God Becoming Level, and even a powerful man like Fausto, who had been the strongest for many years, was defeated by him. Not to mention these two rich men in front of him, and their family was not as powerful as Lucian's, or else they would not follow Lucian's instructions.

So when they faced Tom's murderous intention, their minds went blank. Their whole body was enveloped in immense fear and they quickly begged for mercy. "It has nothing to do with us. It's not us who threaten you with your family... It's Lucian's idea. It's them..."

"Really?" Tom suddenly revealed a bright smile, but this smile, in the eyes of the two young men, did not have any warmth, but was full of coldness and horror. They were too scared to speak clearly and just begged for mercy and cry.

They had never faced such terrible pressure before, which was beyond their endurance. And Tom had controlled his anger. If Tom didn't control, he could scare them into idiots, even brain death.

Tom didn't bother to argue with these two men and said directly, "Now take me to the banquet. I want to see what kind of people you are!"

"OK, please!"

They had no ability to resist Tom at all. Even if they were in great pain now, they did not dare to refuse at all. They quickly struggled to get up, drive their car, and take Tom there.

Now they had the greatest regret. If they had known that Tom was so powerful, they wouldn't dare to come to Tom.

Now that they had offended a terrible man like Tom, they would have a hard time.

The car accident just now had caused them serious injuries, and they were beaten up by Tom. Now it was even more painful.

So it was hard for them to drive, but they didn't make a sound at all. They drove carefully, not even daring to look at Tom behind them.

They could only communicate cautiously with their eyes to express their regret and fear for Tom.

However, they slowly regained their composure, although Tom's strength was terrifying. However, this time, Lucian and the others had specially arranged a grand banquet for Tom, and even invited some famous experts in Y City, so they believed that Tom could not escape this time!

Thinking of this, they slowly calmed down.

Tom saw through their thoughts, but he didn't say anything. In fact, he didn't care at all.

To put it bluntly, he did not take it to heart because in H Country, except for God of War and King of LT Organization, the two powerful masters at God Becoming Level, nobody was a match for him.

By then, when he became the champion of the Kungfu Cup, he would have the opportunity to go to the mystic realm. Once he reached the God Becoming Level, he was supreme in H Country, and then there was no need to be afraid of anyone.

In fact, he did not need to pay attention to these stupid incompetent young men at all. He just needed to tell Joseph, and he believed that they would get out of his way and would never dare to provoke him again. But he didn't do it because there was no need. It was not his way of dealing with trouble.

Moreover, he was indeed angry. If he didn't teach these men a lesson, he wouldn't let it go!

They drove in a stable way and the destination was not far away. After twenty minutes, they had already arrived.

"Well, here we are..."

After parking the car, the two young men immediately said.

Their attitude had become respectful.

Tom saw a large manor in front of him, grand and magnificent. Although it was not as marvelous as the Ross Family's, it was not much worse, and it was very distant and quiet here. Even if he killed someone here, it wouldn't cause much attention.

After getting out of the car, standing in front of the manor, Tom also felt a sense of nobility. Obviously, there were a lot of rich and powerful people gathered inside.

Now Tom felt that he was back in the ancient times, challenging the imperial members alone.

He didn't think so much. He shook his head and strode straight over.

His appearance immediately caught the attention of many people in the manor.

The guard immediately found him and sent a message to the people inside.

"Mr. Watson, Tom is here."

In the manor, there were more than 200 people, particularly lively. Besides these rich young men, there were also many young and beautiful waiters and models.

In addition, there were a few martial artists who looked very powerful.

Lucian was tall and dressed so handsomely that when he received the message from the guard, he immediately revealed a meaningful smile, and the excitement and ferocity in his eyes flashed past.

He clapped his hands and talked to people present, "Hey, let me tell you a good news. Tom has come. Let's welcome him now."

What he said was very meaningful, and his focus was on Tom, full of intrigue.

When the others heard this, they smiled as if they had found some prey.

Chapter 822

"Ha ha, is he here now? It seems that they have done a good job. They brought Tom here so soon!"

"Tsk, tsk, that's interesting. I really want to see what the man looks like. He can even win Lexie's heart."

"I wonder if Lexie followed him to come? If Lexie followed him, it wouldn't be easy for us to teach this guy a lesson."

The smile on Lucian's face was still very bright, and hatred flashed across his eyes. He smiled and said, "How can Lexie participate in such an occasion? Tom is here alone."

After a pause, he added, "Everyone, when Tom arrives, you have to be forceful. Don't let this guy look down on us. We have to show Tom how powerful our young generation in Y City is!"

Lucian's words were inflammatory and many people agreed with him.

"Ha ha ha, of course. We're gonna have some fun with this guy."

"I wonder if he can walk out in a whole skin this time!"

"Since he's here, of course we can't let him walk out in a whole skin. What are you thinking?"

"Ha ha ha, that's true..."

There was a lively atmosphere in the whole manor. Everyone treated Tom as their prey and did not take Tom seriously, prepared to humiliate Tom when he arrived.

This time, they didn't take Tom seriously at all.

Because this was Y City, their territory. Here, even if Tom was killed, they wouldn't have any trouble!

They had investigated Tom. He was a very high level martial artist and seemed to have reached the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm.

But so what?

No matter how good Tom was in martial arts, he was just a bumpkin.

Even if Tom was good at fighting, could he beat everyone?

Besides, this time, they weren't as unprepared as they were in H City before. Not only did they recruit a few highly skilled people in the Innate Realm, but most importantly, there was also a super master in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm!

Besides, they had hot weapons.

With the weapons in hand, no matter how powerful Tom was, they could kill Tom just by a bullet.

So this was their reliance. As long as Tom dared to come to them alone, then Tom's fate was doomed. He was going to die!

At this moment, everyone looked at the door and waited for Tom to come.

Sure enough, under their gaze, Tom soon appeared.

Tom came in alone, empty-handed, slowly.

When all of them saw Tom, Tom also saw them.

Tom's eyes were so sharp that he had already seen 90% of the situation in the room in just a second.

His eyes immediately focused on the middle-aged man next to Lucian, who was a master in the Major Perfection Realm. He hid his aura, revealing only the aura of the third stage of the Innate Realm. But Tom could immediately feel that the opponent was a master in the Major Perfection Realm and his strength was not bad.

In addition, there were two masters of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm and five masters of the Innate Realm.

What's more, there were more than 20 special forces with extraordinary skills, which were also hidden among them. They were all armed. Once they attacked Tom, Tom would be under a lot of pressure.

It seemed that Lucian was well-prepared this time.

Any master in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm would turn around and run away in fear when he saw this situation.

Because this was not something that a master in the Major Perfection Realm could resist at all.

In that moment, even Tom felt the pressure.

Of course, this pressure was soon suppressed by him.

Although the masters here were very strong, for Tom, they were just so-so.

He could take this opportunity to cultivate. Anyway, he was going back to H City soon to participate in the Kungfu Cup.

Tom walked in. It was originally a noisy room, but now no one spoke and the atmosphere seemed a little strange.

Lucian was the first to react and clapped. "Tom, Tom, I really admire you. Knowing that treachery is planned today, you still dare to come over. It seems that you are very confident in yourself!"

After he clapped his hands, the others immediately began to mock Tom. They were all looking at Tom as if he was their prey. Some men who liked Lexie already hated Tom because of what happened these days.

Especially when they thought that Lexie might have had sex with Tom, their hatred for Tom became even stronger!

After all, Lexie was the goddess of all of them. Now that their goddess fell love in a martial artist from H City, all of them seemed to be humiliated.

Tom did not say anything, but continued to walk in. He took his eyes away from them and looked at Lucian with a playful smile. He said, "Lucian, last time in H City, for Lexie's sake, I spared your life. Do you really think I'm afraid of you?"

Tom's words were very calm, but the dignity and murderous air in his expression was very scary, which pressed heavily on Lucian like Mount Tai, making Lucian feel the pressure he had never felt before!

At this moment, Lucian's heart was about to stop beating, and his face was much paler.

When Tom saw him like this, he immediately sneered with disdain. It was the mockery in Tom's eyes that made Lucian come to his senses. Lucian was so embarrassed that he became angry. Lucian snorted heavily, straightened his back, and said loudly, "Tom! You lowly martial artist, how dare you touch Lexie? It's your greatest sin! If you keep hiding in that godforsaken H City, I'll let you go, but you're so arrogant and you came to Y City swaggering! Do you really think I, Lucian, can't do anything to you?!"

His voice was loud, but his momentum was not strong. He was obviously afraid of Tom.

And the people who knew Lucian all frowned slightly. They felt very dissatisfied that Lucian had lost his momentum at this time.

Tom laughed again and continued to walk forward. He said to Lucian jokingly, "It seems that you are afraid of me. You can't even talk clearly."

"You!!"

Lucian became even angrier. He was indeed a little afraid of Tom and was very angry at his own performance.

Now that he saw Tom walking step by step, Lucian felt even more pressure than when he was in H City.

Chapter 823

Lucian could not bear the pressure from Tom at all. He continued to step back with cold sweat breaking out on his forehead.

He was very ashamed of his incompetence but couldn't care too much. He said directly to the martial artist beside him, "Grand Master Wu, what are you waiting for?"

As soon as he finished speaking, the man named Grand Master Wu stood up. He was only a little over 1.7 meters. He looked quite thin but had an aura of power that was even stronger than Tom.

"Kid, do you really think that you are the strongest in the world and no one can defeat you?" Grand Master Wu said. His voice was especially coarse and hoarse, which did not match his image.

Because of Grand Master Wu's help, Lucian immediately felt much more relaxed. He felt relieved and could finally breathe easily.

Tom ignored Grand Master Wu but continued to walk towards Lucian. He was still calm and indifferent. Obviously, he didn't put Grand Master Wu in his eyes.

So in an instant, Lucian felt the overwhelming pressure again, which made him completely unable to breathe!

Moreover, what made Lucian's heart beat faster was the threatening smile on Tom's face. In Lucian's eyes, it was a smile from the god of death that made him so scared. He cried out subconsciously, "Grand Master Wu, save me!"

It was at this moment that Tom began to attack him fiercely. He jumped directly in front of Lucian in a few steps, then splayed his fingers and grabbed Lucian.

At this moment, Lucian felt his eyes were blocked in his spiritual world. Tom's palm was like a big mountain covering his face, obstructing the vision towards the world.

And he was totally suppressed. Once Tom's hand dropped, he would be the monkey king under Buddha's five-finger mountain, being suppressed for five hundred years!

Now, Lucian really realized Tom's horror. It was not someone who had just stepped into the Innate Realm could compete with!

He didn't even have the courage to run away in front of Tom.

"Hmph!"

But at this moment, Grand Master Wu was angry. He snorted heavily and sneeringly, like thunder, which exploded in the crowd. Then, he also began to attack Tom fiercely!

"How dare a little brat be so arrogant?!"

Grand Master Wu's move once again relieved Lucian's pressure a lot.

He got a chance to catch his breath.

"Grand Master Wu began to tackle him. Tom can't escape this time!"

"Hmph, just a little boy! He thought he was invincible after taking countless elixirs to the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm. In Y City, he's not in the position to be arrogant!"

"Grand Master Wu is a famous expert of the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm in Y City. Tom is going to be unlucky this time."

"Of course. Grand Master Wu has been famous in his power for a long time. Even if the guy was lucky enough to reach the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, he was definitely no match for Grand Master Wu."

"I bet that Tom will be beaten down by Grand Master Wu in less than five minutes."

Everyone had absolute confidence in Grand Master Wu because they were all from Y City and had heard the legend of Grand Master Wu since they were young. He was a real strong man.

This time, Grand Master Wu was invited here on purpose to catch Tom.

Tom didn't dodge Grand Master Wu's attack. It seemed that he didn't recognize what had happened, or he didn't take Wu seriously and continued to threaten Lucian.

And his speed was obviously a little faster than Grand Master Wu's. Before Wu could hit him, he had already caught Lucian. He covered Lucian's face directly with his right hand and pressed him against the wall. With a thud, Lucian's back of the head shook the wall!

Lucian immediately let out a shrill scream. Although he was also a master of the Innate Realm, he was only at the first stage. Now Tom hit the back of his head against the wall, making him dizzy and sparkled with pain.

"You court death!!" Grand Master Wu was furious and looked at him with extreme anger. He did not expect that Tom would be so bold to hit Lucian directly with such large strength. Lucian was going to have a concussion this time!

Lucian's father was his friend, so he had to protect Lucian well. But now, Tom just injured Lucian in front of him. How could he forgive him? He became angry and directly attacked Tom with full power.

The playboys there were right. He was indeed a strong veteran. It had been 20 years since he stepped into the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, but he had not broken through in the past 20 years.

In Y City, he was also one of the best experts. Many people in the circle had heard of his legendary stories, and more or less, had received his guidance.

In the eyes of many people, he was the absolute strength of Y City. In terms of strength, he might be under the Little Martial God.

Tom, on the other hand, was just a newcomer who had just appeared in recent two years in a small place of H City. How could he compare with Grand Master Wu?

As soon as Tom pressed Lucian against the wall, Grand Master Wu's murdering attack had already arrived.

Tom also felt a lot of pressure. Grand Master Wu was very strong and had surpassed Junichiro Nakai. No wonder he was so confident.

Such a strong man, no matter where he went, must be a leader who was respected by thousands of people. As long as he didn't meet a brilliant genius, Wu would not be defeated.

But it was such a coincidence that Tom was that brilliant genius!

Tom did not dodge Grand Master Wu's horrible attack. He just fought directly with full strength, punched temporarily, and got entangled with Grand Master Wu.

When Wu saw that Tom didn't dodge, he smiled ruthlessly. It would be fine if Tom dodged. Because Lucian was in the middle, he didn't dare to do his best, but Tom didn't dodge. Tom was an idiot if he fought with him directly!

After a while, Tom was already entangled with Grand Master Wu. They moved at a fast speed that their fists and feet became a shadow. No one could see their specific movements but could only hear the clash of fists and feet, making all the people's blood spurt!

They fought all over the manor for a minute but had a tacit understanding of not breaking things here. So there were only broken tiles in the manor.

Just then, someone said through their shadows, "Is this the so-called strongest power in Y City? Just so so."

As soon as he finished, everyone heard a loud bang, followed by a scream. Then, a figure flew out, slammed into the ceiling, and fell to the ground, shaking the chandeliers from side to side.

Soon, they looked closely and saw that the person who fell was the dying Grand Master Wu, covered in blood.

Chapter 824

The crowd suddenly became eerily silent, and everyone was stunned. They were speechless with their eyes widened.

Only the chandeliers on the ceiling were shaking left and right, looking particularly strange.

In their mind, Grand Master Wu was undefeatable. And now, he was so defeated that their beliefs were completely overturned. They could not react at all.

Grand Master Wu was the one who broke the silence. His voice sounded painful. "What are you waiting for? Go together. Get him..."

When everyone heard his words, they finally came to their senses and swallowed the saliva heavily. At the same time, they all looked at Tom.

They heard Grand Master Wu's words clearly, but they did not dare to take the plunge because they were afraid.

Tom, who had already fought with Grand Master Wu, had no scars on his body. Even his clothes were intact. At most, his face was ruddy and he was just sweating a little.

It looked as if he had just done some exercise.

It showed that Tom's strength was far above Grand Master Wu's.

How could they have the courage to go up against such a powerful master?

When Tom saw everyone's reaction, he curled up the corners of his lips slightly, revealing a disdainful smile, and said, "How dare you people to trap me?"

Tom's words made them very angry, but no one dared to refute him, and no one even dared to speak, completely devoid of the arrogance.

The reason was that Tom showed more strength than they had expected. And now, Tom's confidence and aura completely suppressed them, not daring them to act rashly.

Lucian finally stood up straight again. He covered the back of his head and found that there was a lot of blood. He felt dizzy.

At the same time, his body was wobbling uncontrollably.

Although Tom only bumped into him once just now, it did hurt Lucian very much.

His eyes were bloodshot. He gritted his teeth and pointed at Tom. "Damn it, damn it! Tom, you scumbag, what qualifies you to compete for Lexie with me? You boorish bastard. How dare you beat me like this? I'm going to kill you, I'll kill you!"

He was particularly ferocious, looking very scared. After taking a deep breath, he roared again, "Go get him!"

Kill him! I want you to kill him!"

After hearing Lucian's order, the rest masters and armed bodyguards did not dare to retreat anymore. They looked at each other and began to attack.

"Let's go!"

"Kill him!"

"Avenge Mr. Watson and Grand Master Wu!"

"Let's go together. Even if he is a god, he must die!"

They shouted and began to move. They came out and surrounded Tom. They all looked at Tom as an enemy. Especially those who were in the Innate Realm, their eyes were even sharper and more vigorous.

They actually thought they didn't have to do anything this time. After all, Grand Master Wu was here.

But now, they had to do it.

Although Tom had just defeated Grand Master Wu, they were still confident of winning Tom if they fought together.

Tom did not take the initiative to make a move but still looked at them with a cold gaze, waiting for them to get ready. It was obvious that he did not take these people seriously. How could they not see it? For a moment, the anger in their heart became even more intense.

Finally, when they got ready, a master of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm spoke and fired the first shot. "Go!"

Led by him, they started to attack Tom.

Behind him, the rest masters immediately began to join in without any hesitation. And they weren't unarmed. They all had weapons like sabers, spears, staffs, and sticks in their hands against Tom. They didn't believe that Tom could still escape in this situation.

Let alone there were more than 20 professional retired special soldiers around. They could kill Tom with a bullet.

There was only one target for tonight's move, which was to kill Tom.

Tom watched their attack with indifference. When they all arrived in front of him, he finally moved and began to speak. "A snake is always a snake. It can never be compared to a dragon for a lifetime. You have no idea who you are messing with."

After he finished speaking, Tom's figure disappeared from its original position and began to counterattack these masters.

He was extremely fast, and his movements were bold and powerful.

"Damn!"

The master of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm saw Tom in front of him in a blink. He suddenly felt a sense of great danger.

It seemed that he was not facing a person, but a fierce tyrannosaurus rex, giving him an incomparable feeling.

However, with many years of combat experience, he did not retreat. Instead, he clenched the large saber with his hand and used all of his strength. He stabbed Tom's head heavily, "Go to hell!"

However, before his saber hit Tom, Tom punched him in the chest with a loud sound. His huge body was pierced directly by Tom's punch. Tom's strength was so great that it penetrated from his chest to back, causing the clothes behind to explode in an instant.

And there was a fist mark that protruded from his back.

It turned out that it was the power of Tom's punch that directly pierced his body and sent him flying out.

By the time he fell, he had no ability to move at all, but he did not faint. Instead, his expression was full of pain and intense fear.

Just now, he thought he was not facing a person, but a monster!

With one punch, the master was pushed back, and Tom did not stop. He took advantage of the victory and smiled at the rest masters, showing his white teeth. It was originally a brilliant smile, but to them, it was extremely frightened.

"Now, it's your turn."

After his words, Tom then began to strike. He brought down one master with one punch, without any sloppiness.

These masters of the Innate Realm enjoyed a great reputation in Y City. But now they were like a piece of dirt, and could not even take Tom's one punch.

In less than ten seconds, he disabled these masters, and they completely lost the ability to resist.

Next, he looked up at the remaining twenty more armed bodyguards.

The bodyguards were frightened out of their wits by Tom's eyes. They started shooting at Tom in a reflex.

It wasn't the first time Tom had faced firearms, but it was the first time he had faced so many professional bodyguards at once. It had to be said that he was still a little stressed.

But he could handle it. Although he couldn't be faster than a bullet, he was much faster than the person who fired.

So before the first shot was fired, he disappeared from his spot. He appeared in front of the bodyguards the next moment and slapped down them one by one.

In less than ten seconds, he also knocked down those bodyguards.

This time, all of them were knocked down except those playboys who were already trembling with fear.

Chapter 825

All of a sudden, it turned silent. Everyone was dumbstruck, and their minds were blanks.

They had been foolproof for the ambush tonight, thinking that they could handle Tom. They could do whatever they wanted to Tom if he dared to show up.

But they never expected that Tom's strength was so terrifying and beyond their imagination.

He defeated a powerful man like Grand Master Wu in less than a minute, and he subdued so many of the remaining martial artists. He even defeated more than twenty retired special forces with guns in no time.

They panicked and were tremulous.

It was as if they had encountered the scariest man in the world. Well, the most powerful person they had ever met was Grand Master Wu. They had once thought that Grand Master Wu was the most powerful person in Y City besides God of War and Little Martial God, but...

Their blood froze, and they were trembling.

Tom clapped his hands, looking extremely relaxed as if he just did a trivial thing. He got no injuries, and his clothes were neat.

It was impossible to tell that he had had a big fight. Or rather, the fight just now was not a threat to him at all.

How scary was Tom?

They could no longer imagine.

"How dare you set up a trap for me? Do you think that I don't dare to do anything to you because you are a group of scions?" Tom said with a half-smile. Whoever under his gaze felt unprecedented fear. They quickly lowered their heads and did not dare to face Tom, and their heartbeats hastened.

When Tom saw their reaction, he sneered disdainfully. How dared these playboys oppose him? They were just reckless.

As the first person under the God Becoming Level, Tom was not afraid of these scions. No matter it was his personal strength or his status, he was not worse than these men.

He worked for the country, and he was the King of Southern State of the LT Organization.

As Tom walked towards them, they were even more scared, and their knees were weak.

Under his great pressure, someone finally couldn't bear it. He fell to his knees and blurted, "It's none of my business. Lucian asked us to come over!"

With a lead, the others followed suit and knelt.

Although they were arrogant and pretentious, they did not have any guts. If they met a big shot that they could not afford to offend, they revealed their true colors in no time.

Tom continued to walk over. He was never a merciful person. It was his character to fight back.

He could not tolerate the fact that these guys plot against his family. If he didn't teach them a profound lesson, they wouldn't bear it in their minds!

So when he walked to the first person that knelt. Tom grabbed that man's hair and lifted him with one hand. "I heard you're going to screw with my family?"

The man was in great pain when Tom lifted him like this, but he did not dare to cry out for fear of provoking Tom, the God of Death. That was right. They now regarded Tom as the incarnation of God of Death.

He could only endure the pain and shook his head, saying, "No, it wasn't my idea. It's none of my business. Sir, please let me go. I won't do this again..."

Facing the enormous pressure of Tom, the man was scared out of his wits and trembled violently.

Tom looked down on such a coward and said disdainfully, "I haven't done anything yet, and you're so scared. You're really embarrassing your family."

He was ashamed upon hearing Tom's words, but he had no anger or hatred. All he had were infinite fear and regret. He would never have dared to provoke Tom if he had known how powerful Tom was.

"Sir, please, let me go. I don't want to die..." He cried.

Tom was quite speechless. He hadn't even done anything yet, and the guy even shed tears. This man was too cowardly.

But Tom was a principled person. He said that he would be equal, so he kept his words. He would not let this guy off just because this guy was fearful.

So Tom pinched his neck and threw him away casually. This guy flew away like a ball and crashed into the wall. He broke his bones, and he screamed as he fell. He sounded like a pig that was going to be killed.

When the others saw this, they were even more afraid.

Someone even couldn't help but turn around and run.

But he couldn't run away from Tom.

Tom just sneered. He kicked up a chair next to him without looking at it. The chair flew towards the man who had run away and smashed at his back. The man fell to the ground with a bang.

The man let out a shrill scream, and a mouthful of blood gushed out.

"Who dares to run will die."

As Tom finished speaking, a few other people who were ready to run away felt a chill down their spines and trembled violently. They did not dare to move.

At the same time, they felt Tom's gaze on them meaningfully, and they felt suffocating. Large drops of cold sweat appeared on their foreheads as if they were facing death. They had never experienced such fear since they were born.

They were even more frightened when Tom started to walk towards them. They knelt and begged for mercy, "Tom, we shouldn't have done this.

Please let us go. We don't want to die..."

The others all felt sad when they saw this. They were the scions in Y City, and now they had no dignity at all since Tom had taught them such a lesson. They would lose face if what happened here was exposed.

At this point, they were no longer thinking about their dignity. They only had one thought: to survive.

"Who put forward the idea of threatening me with my family? I'll let whoever tells me first off."

Tom walked up to them and said condescendingly.

Chapter 826

When they heard it, they shook violently. They could tell that Tom had murderous look!

They had a strong premonition that once Tom knew who proposed, he would kill him!

They were unfamiliar with killing. Although they were usually arrogant even in Y City, they had never killed anyone.

If they were killed, it would be different.

At this moment, they were unprecedentedly regretful and fearful!

"You don't want to betray your companions? You are so righteous, and I will kill you." Tom sounded like a demon. They heard him and had goosebumps in fear.

Tom did not give them time to react and grabbed a young man in front of him, who was about 1.9 meters tall.

He was young and was in his early twenties. He might often play basketball, so he had good physical quality among ordinary people. He was handsome. A boy like him was popular and might have several girlfriends.

But he was so scared in front of Tom. He was pale and was trembling. He couldn't say a complete sentence and cried for mercy, "Please let me go. It's not me... Woo..."

He was crying. If his girlfriends saw him, they would be shocked. It was unbelievable. In their impression, he was fearless and manly.

Tom grabbed his neck and lifted him in half so that his toes could touch the ground. He said faintly, "Tell me who it is."

"I'll tell you!" He was pressured by Tom and couldn't hold on. He immediately pointed at the two men and said, "It's them! They proposed it. It's none of my business!"

When the two men were pointed, they trembled violently and their faces turned pale instantly. Their sweat flowed down their foreheads.

They subconsciously wanted to run away. But soon they found that they could not run at all as if their legs had been rooted to the ground!

Tom stared at them. His eyes were like the eyes of the Death for them.

Tom smiled playfully, "So it's you. Good job."

They felt that Tom wanted to kill. How could they stand? They were so scared and knelt down to beg for mercy. They hoped that Tom wouldn't kill them.

But would Tom let them go? No.

When Tom heard that they threatened him with his family, he had decided to teach them a lesson and let them know how angry he was!

And the people of Y City would know from them that they couldn't easily provoke him!

Tom quickly walked up to them, "You know what? What I hate most is that someone threatens me with my family. You made me disgusted. Good job."

They were so scared to hear his words. Even though their foreheads were bleeding, they kept kowtowing to beg for mercy.

Tom kicked them on the shoulder. There were two clicks and their shoulders were instantly broken. They were kicked out like two balls and screamed miserably.

Their scream sounded so terrifying that the rest of the people present were scared. When they looked at Tom, they were even more afraid and regretful. Why did they provoke him?

They had been arrogant for so many years that they thought they could do anything they wanted. But today they met someone they couldn't provoke!

Seeing that Tom was about to go over, they screamed in fear, "You can't kill us! We're the members of the prince party. If you kill us, you won't be able to leave Y City!"

"If you dare to kill us, our families won't let you go!"

Tom sneered, "How dare you threaten me when you're dying? It seems that you really don't take my words seriously. I wanted to teach you a profound lesson but not to kill you. But you dare to threaten me. I am very angry."

Just as Tom was about to kill them, they heard an exclamation from outside the door, "Tom, it is said that live and let live. Let them go."

Tom was not surprised by the exclamation. He raised his eyebrows slightly and looked at the middle-aged man. He was in a demoiselle coat and walked in.

He looked like a farmer. He had dark skin and a slightly bent waist.

Tom saw the man, he felt something and breathed more quickly.

No one else could tell how scary the man was, but Tom knew that he was not simple at a glance!

In his spiritual strength, the farmer was like a huge hoe with a heavy breath. When Tom saw him, it was as if he saw a large piece of land!

Moreover, the farmer had endless energy, which was no less than Fausto!

Tom was surprised.

In fact, he felt that a master of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm was approaching here just now. It was the farmer.

But he did not expect him to be so strong. The farmer was at the same level as Fausto!

Before Fausto was defeated by him, he was known as the best man of God Becoming Level!

Now a man who was as strong as Fausto appeared. How could Tom not be surprised?

When Grand Master Wu, who was still pretending to be dead, saw the farmer, he was surprised and excited. He blurted out, "Little Martial God! Little Martial God is coming to save us!"

The other people heard "Little Martial God" and were stunned slightly. And then they were excited.

Little Martial God was well-known in Y

City. He was much better than Grand Master Wu!

Many martial artists from the prince party knew Little Martial God as well as his story. He almost reached the God Becoming Level. But he was unlucky and was just at Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm.

But it was no doubt that he was strong.

When they heard Little Martial God, they knew how strong he was!

Tom narrowed his eyes slightly. It was surprising but it was not beyond his expectation.
