

Chapter 911

Of course, the subtlety of the God Becoming Level was far beyond that.

This was just one of the aspects. If reaching the God Becoming Level, there would be more magic and wonders.

Tom even suspected that when people reached the real God Becoming Level, he might be conducted Telekinesis. Or he might absorb the cosmic waves, and understand all kinds of subtleties.

Otherwise, if those who reached the God Becoming Level had only made a progress in martial arts, they could not have such a high status in this world,

The most obvious was that if the God Becoming Level was only a martial achievement, then it was more impossible for the existence of Clan World.

Now it was the 21st century, not the feudal society, with the development of various high-techs.

If the Strong of the God Becoming Level didn't have other pursuits, it was impossible for them to not linger on the power in the mortal world.

Because after hearing Pence explain, Tom learned that the biggest difference between the Clan and the country was that the manipulation of power of the Clan's overlord was far less than the country. Moreover, since the Clan was powerful, there was no need for them to hide or develop silently.

Wouldn't it be better to establish a kingdom directly in the mortal world and become the top?

However, Tom was more curious about the Clan because he knew that there must be many Strongs there.

In particular, what were they thinking of and pursuing?

It was what attracted Tom the most.

In fact, Tom was not only a martial arts master but also a scientist in psychology and group systems. He even published an anonymous paper internationally, but he didn't tell anyone around him.

With his realm developed, he felt that a real Strong needed to dabble in more scenes, which was out of interest.

It could be said that any Strong who had reached the Innate Realm was not an ignoramus but a wise man.

Especially reaching the high stage of the Innate Realm, he was much smarter. Most of the experts had academic research.

Marlin and Thorn, for example, were agents of the Military Intelligence 3, in fact, and they had academic achievements.

Marlin was excellent in physics, and Thorn was doing well in biology no worse than some university professors.

As for Tom, his academic achievements were even higher. It was no exaggeration to say that as long as he wanted to study something, he could learn it quickly and soon became proficient.

Now he could vaguely feel that the main reason why these hidden sects were not interested in the power of the mortal world was that their pursuit of the limits of the human body, life, realm, and spiritual level.

It was likely that after the God Becoming Level, they would see the world more clearly and understand it better so that they could get rid of the low interest and pursue something higher in life.

Of course, this was just his guess. Maybe there was something he didn't know within the Clan.

In his meditation, he abandoned these distractions and concentrated his thoughts instantly. He began to accurately repair the wounds in his body. Although the wounds were subtle, as the saying went, a thousand miles of levees could be destroyed by ants, so he had to be careful.

So now he knew that a God Becoming Level expert like Albert must have a perfect body, with no scars.

So, Albert could live for a long time, and he might live to be 200 years old.

The night passed slowly under this circumstance.

For the next few days, Tom didn't go anywhere but stayed at home with his family.

He should have a good rest.

After making clear with Phoebe and Amelia, he actually relaxed a lot, at least without harem worries.

After resting at home for a week, Tom returned to the Military Intelligence 3 and began a new journey.

As the champion of this Kungfu Cup, Tom had the qualification to go to the Secret Realm, and he could also get the guidance of three masters of the God Becoming Level. This was a rare opportunity.

After going back to the Military Intelligence 3, Tom stayed for three days to guide the agents there. Because he was at a very high level now, with his guidance, the overall strength of the company quickly improved to a new level.

Not to mention those ordinary agents, even Thorn and Marlin and the others benefited greatly from Tom's guidance.

Finally, three days later, Tom set foot on the road to Y City.

The first person he went to see was the God of War, Albert.

When he saw Albert, he was lecturing at a university. Tom knew that he was here and did not disturb him immediately. Instead, he came to the classroom as one of his students to listen to Albert's lectures before the class.

Albert, wearing a white shirt and holding a kettle in his hand, looked like an ordinary university professor with a kind smile on his face. No one could imagine that such a gentle, elegant, and easy-going middle-aged man was actually a Stong of the God Becoming Level, who was on the top of mankind.

From Albert, Tom understood what the old saying "the lesser hermit lives in seclusion in the country, the greater hermit does so in the city" meant.

Moreover, Tom could feel that Albert's realm was obviously higher than that of when they first met.

Before, Tom was only the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, and he could not really feel Albert's power, but now he had reached half-step of the God Becoming Level and learned more about how powerful Albert was.

Albert smiled at Tom without any surprise. Obviously, he had known that Tom would come.

Tom smiled at him and sat down in the back row.

Albert was obviously very dignified and all the students respected him.

After he entered the classroom, the noisy classroom immediately quieted down.

"Class begin."

"Good morning, Professor Campbell!"

Albert nodded and said, "Today, I'm going to talk about a book by Schrodinger, "What is Life". What's your understanding of life?"

Hearing this, Tom knew that Albert was teaching him a lesson.

Tom had read Schrodinger's "What is life". It was an interesting book, known as the primer book of biology. At that time, many physicists, after reading this book, became interested in biology and dedicated themselves to it.

Chapter 912

After hearing Albert's words, these students in the classroom began to discuss and express their understanding of life.

In the classroom, Tom had a different feeling about the academic discussion.

Technically, he dropped out after primary school and then studied by himself.

Now that he had returned to the classroom after many years, there was a different feeling.

Besides, around him were all young college students like the rising sun. They had unlimited expectations and energy for society and life.

Their understanding of the world and life was still in its infancy.

They were innocent, and their world views were correct.

Over the years, Tom had met so many people which were different from them.

Tom suddenly understood why Albert arranged to meet him here. It was a special place, but it had to be said that he found this way suitable.

"How is it? What were your ideas?"

Albert asked with a smile, encouraging these students to express their views.

Although his eyes did not look at Tom on purpose, Tom was very clear that Albert was asking him for his opinion.

In fact, after Albert talked about the book "What is Life", Tom already knew what Albert meant.

That was, after reaching the God Becoming Level, life forms would change a lot.

Otherwise, Albert wouldn't mention this book and talk about this topic.

Tom suddenly became very interested in this class.

Soon, some students began to stand up and express their views.

"Professor, I think life is made up of countless cells, and this is the most wonderful thing in the world!"

"Professor, I think life is consciousness because there is consciousness, there is life. Like tables, fans, windows, mud, they have no consciousness, so they are not life."

"Professor, I think life is the most wonderful thing in the world..."

Many people began to talk about their views on life.

Their understanding of life had many perspectives.

From the perspective of physics, some students believed that life was actually a product of quantum entanglement.

Some people believed that life was the inevitable result of natural development, and was currently known as carbon-based life.

Some people thought that life was actually something created by a higher level of civilization.

Wait...

As Tom listened to these students' opinions, although most of them were vague, their perspectives really gave him a new understanding.

In particular, a student mentioned that life was the production of consciousness, and the production of consciousness was very likely because in the micro world, the product of quantum entanglement, when the quantum constantly collapsed, consciousness would be born, which was the origin of life.

After all, life meant living things, living things were uncertain, and quantum entanglement was uncertain.

Albert nodded and said with a smile, "Not bad. You all are great."

Soon, a student asked Albert, "Professor, what do you think life is?"

Everyone's eyes were on Albert, waiting for his answer. Including Tom, he was staring at Albert as well, wanting to know Albert's understanding of life.

However, under everyone's gaze,

Albert made a surprising move. He pointed at Tom in the corner and asked with a smile, "Hey, what's your opinion?"

He was pointing at Tom.

Now, Tom, who was originally very low-key, became the focus of everyone present, and all the students looked at him.

"Hey, who is this person? I haven't seen him before."

"Me either. He shouldn't be in our class."

"And he doesn't look like a college student either. Is he a new teacher?"

"It shouldn't be. Why would a teacher come to the class?"

"I don't know. Maybe it's a student from another class. But he looks quite elegant and handsome."

"He's not handsome, but he has a unique class, charming."

"I feel that he's more attractive than the most handsome man in our college."

When these students' attentions were on him, a lot of people began to whisper, especially some female students. After they noticed Tom, their eyes were shining. They felt that Tom was not particularly handsome at first glance, but his class was very special and charming. The more they looked at him, the more handsome he was.

Tom was a little stunned. He didn't expect Albert to ask him, but he immediately stood up and said with a smile, "I think life is the beginning of civilization, the most wonderful existence of the universe..."

Tom began to express his understanding of life.

These students in the classroom thought that Tom's understanding was very superficial in the beginning.

But gradually, their impression of Tom kept changing, especially some of the views and arguments he mentioned in the middle shocked them and they didn't even understand!

They had never thought that the meaning of life was so deep.

Tom was talking about this topic for half an hour.

"Mr. Campbell, that's all. This is my understanding of life." Tom looked at Albert with a smile.

Albert applauded him, and the admiration in his eyes was so clear. He said, "Excellent. The essence of life is basically like this."

Tom was not proud at all. After all, he was a half God Becoming Level expert. If he didn't even know the meaning of life, then he was useless.

Soon, however, Albert raised another question and knocked him down.

"So, do you think life will die?"

Albert asked with a smile.

This question, at first glance, sounded very simple.

As we all knew, life would definitely die, otherwise, the world would have collapsed long ago.

Tom was about to blurt it out, but when the words came to his mouth, he suddenly withdrew and fell into deep thought.

"Will life die?"

If he hadn't reached the God Becoming Level, he wouldn't hesitate to say yes.

Because this was common sense, and life in the world would die eventually. In a sense, life was walking to death the moment it was born.

However, he found that things were not that simple.

Because life not only included flesh but the spirit. After the human body died, if the spirit could survive, then could it be considered as death?

Chapter 913

Tom was stumped by the unexpected question for a moment.

His silence surprised all the students in the class. They all expected him to answer it without hesitation. Life would die, because it was a very simple common sense.

Was is a common sense that people died?

If lives last forever, then earth would have collapsed by now.

After a long silence, Tom smiled bitterly. He shook his head and said, "I don't know."

Albert's eyes flashed with admiration when he heard the answer.

Yes, this answer sounded ridiculous to anyone. Even a first-year primary school kid wouldn't answer that, but Tom, as a half-step God Becoming Level with profound knowledge, couldn't answer it.

"What? You don't know? You're kidding me."

"That's right. Isn't this a problem? Life is doom to die. There is no eternal thing in this world. If life doesn't die, then what is the world like now?"

"Who is this guy? Is he kidding?"

"Yes, professor Campbell. Why would you ask such a question?"

For a moment, many students questioned Tom and thought that he was a fool, despite that he spoke like a dictionary just now. But he couldn't even answer such a simple question.

Albert gently knocked on the table on the podium. Immediately, they all quieted down and listened to Albert, "What don't you understand?" asked Albert.

Tom knew that Albert was giving him an explanation.

"Mr. Campbell, I don't understand. Besides the body and soul, is there another form of life, or is there really a soul? If there is, then what is the soul? If the body dies, where is the soul going?" Tom asked seriously. It was the question that had been bothering him the most in recent years.

He had been trying and exploring what the soul was and what the consciousness was.

When the other students heard Tom's question, many of them thought that he was talking like a metaphysician.

Of course, he wouldn't care what these people thought. He just wanted to get Albert's answer. He believed that with his cultivation, he must know it.

Albert thought for a while, then said with a smile, "Fellow, good question. First of all, there is indeed a soul in life."

Next, Albert began to explain the meaning of the soul. In his explanation, the soul was the intelligent form of life.

Tom was enlightened after hearing his words.

Then he asked, "Mr. Campbell, do you think life will decline?"

Albert smiled and said, "Yes, no. It depends."

"Oh? May you elaborate it?" Tom's eyes lit up and asked with interest. In fact, he had vaguely known something about Albert's answer.

But for the students in the class, they were confused and did not understand what they were talking about, wondering why would professor Campbell say that.

In their minds, life was destined to decline. It was the same as the sun rose from the east every day and the water flew down.

However, they knew that professor Campbell was knowledgeable and his words was definitely not nonsense.

Unknowingly, they all felt that this class was special. It was different from the previous classes. Vaguely, it seemed that a new door was opened.

Albert continued, "Life has different forms. For some higher level life, the physical body is just a vessel. Even if the physical body is damaged, his soul and consciousness can still survive intact. Once life reaches this state, in a sense, life will not die."

Hearing this answer, Tom was deep in thought. In fact, he probably knew the answer but was amazed to hear it!

He knew that what Albert was talking about was the realm above the God Becoming Level. From the beginning of the God Becoming Level, the form of life had actually begun to change.

The other students, however, couldn't make it out at all.

Was it possible that a person's soul can be separated from his body?

Was this science or theology?

So they all thought that professor Campbell must be joking with them.

After a long silence, Tom said, "Then is life still the same as before in this state?"

For many students, Tom's question was completely incomprehensible, but it was not the case for Albert who immediately understood. He said with a smile, "This depends on how you define it. If you define life form, it's not the same life form as before, but if you define soul and consciousness, it doesn't change."

Tom understood that when it came to the second form of life, it was actually still a human being, which depended on what angle to understand it.

Next, Tom continued to ask some deeper questions, which completely dumbfounded the other students.

Seeing that they were discussing seriously, they began to doubt if this was the world they knew.

The two classes soon passed in the discussion between Tom and Albert.

It was not until the bell rang that Tom was still in his mind. Today he learnt a lot from Albert!

It solved his puzzlement that had been troubling him for a long time, and he had a deeper understanding of life, martial arts, the world, and even the universe!

Tom knew that this was a reward for winning the Kungfu Cup champion. A super strong man like Albert personally answered for him.

He stood up and bowed deeply to Albert on the podium. "Thank you, Mr. Campbell!" he said.

His gratitude to Albert came from the bottom of his heart.

Albert smiled and said, "You're welcome." He then walked out of the classroom.

Tom was also about to leave when a girl with a ponytail stopped him.

Chapter 914

"What's the matter?"

Tom smiled faintly.

The young girl with a ponytail in front of him was charming. She, who was only about twenty years old, showed a heroic spirit.

Her eyes shone. When she looked at Tom, her eyelashes trembled as if they could speak.

Moreover, her behaviors influenced the attention of all the boys in the class. He could tell at a glance that she was the belle in the class.

She did not reply, but looked at him curiously.

It was as if Tom was something strange.

He frowned slightly. He was not interested in such a college student at all. So he walked past her and left.

His actions stunned the girl for a moment. Obviously, she did not expect that Tom who was ordinary would ignore her. She was not only the belle in the class, but also the department beauty queen. So many boys tried their best to get close to her and talk to her.

How dare this ordinary guy ignore her?

It was interesting...

"You aren't a student in our class, are you?"

Seeing that Tom was leaving, the belle was a little angry. She thought he was ignoring her!

"Wait."

She called him again, but Tom ignored her and left the classroom directly.

Seeing that Tom left, the belle was obviously stunned. She did not expect that he would be so disrespectful to her. Since she went to college, it had been a long time since a man ignored her.

Two girls immediately walked up and asked strangely, "Who is this guy? We haven't seen him before. It seems that he isn't from our department."

Another girl also said, "He's definitely

At this time, she spoke with pleasant accent. And her mandarin was also very standard like the voice of the anchor.

Tom shook his head and said, "No."

The other boys looked at Tom with hostile eyes when they saw that the belle took the initiative to talk to him, as if Tom had become their rival in love.

Tom was a little speechless about the boredom of these college students, but he also understood that these students usually had nothing to do in school. At their age, they only thought about love.

He had already got what he wanted in this university, so he had no intention of staying.

not from our department. I've never seen such a person. Besides, he doesn't look like a college student. He seems to be older than us. He can't be an off-campus student, can he?"

"It's possible. Maybe he's here to hook up. Hook up our belle, hee hee."

The two girls joked.

Two other boys walked up and asked, "Stella, who is this guy? Is he your friend?"

When the boy said this, he looked calm, but he was actually nervous.

"He looks arrogant. How dare he come to our class? He is obsessive."

Although in college, students could choose their courses freely. But generally speaking, very few people do this. Moreover, Tom came in without saying anything and left without saying anything, which made him seem disrespectful.

Stella frowned slightly and said, "He's not my friend."

Those boys were inexplicably relieved to hear Stella say this. Although they all knew that it was impossible for them to be with her. Because she had a high vision and looked down on them. But it would be torture if they saw their goddess act like a man-chaser.

Stella snorted. She didn't think too much about it. After all, Tom was just a stranger to her. She didn't want to become the brainless female protagonist in the idol drama who was rebellious when she saw a boy ignoring her.

So she quickly forgot about Tom. After two classes, it was at noon. She went to the dining hall with classmates.

As soon as she arrived at the dining hall, she frowned.

Because she saw more than a dozen people in front of her. One of them, who had dressed himself up in a greasy face, always had an evil expression on the face, which made people want to hit him. So she was in a bad mood.

"Look, it's Gario. Stella, he is your No.1 suitor."

The girl, who was beside her, joked with her.

In fact, this Gario was very handsome and had a good figure. He was surrounded by a group of helpers, which was eye-catching. For girls, it was attractive.

However, Stella did not like this kind of second-generation rich person, especially when she knew some of his comments, she became even more disgusted.

She frowned, turned around, and said, "Unfortunately, we met this guy. Let's go out to eat."

Just as she was about to leave, Gario saw her. His eyes lit up and he said loudly, "Stella, my goddess, you're here. What a coincidence. I was just about to go to your dormitory to look for you!"

His voice was so loud that everyone in the dining room heard him and looked over.

When Stella heard what he said, her expression changed and she called out for bad luck in the heart. Why was this guy found out? It was not easy to sneak away.

However, she pretended not to hear and left faster.

But Gario wouldn't let her leave. He hurried over quickly and stopped her. A pair of eyes full of aggression flowed around her body, especially her figure and appearance. He was particularly drooling and swallowed in front of her, which made Stella feel disgusted.

"What's the matter?" She said coldly. She almost engraved the word disgust on her forehead.

Gario seemed to be used to her indifference. He did not feel sad or embarrassed at all. Instead, he smiled even more brightly and said with a playful smile, "Yes, of course. Stella, my goddess, I've been waiting for you so hard. Last time you said you were willing to be my girlfriend, you should promise me now, right?"

She said, "Sorry, I haven't decided yet. Give me more time."

"Hmm? I've given you enough time. Stella, don't tease me. You know my character." Gario said with a fake smile. His tone was full of threats.

Stella immediately felt great pressure. Just as she didn't know what to do, suddenly, her eyes went past Gario and saw a person in the corner. Her eyes lit up and she blurted out, "I already have a boyfriend..."

Chapter 915

As she said it, she caused a sensation!

Stella was the department belle. Many people at school admired her.

If all the pursuers lined up, they could go around the school.

And most importantly, she was a junior and there was not any news that she had a boyfriend. Thus she was the most popular and pure girl in her department. But she admitted that she had a boyfriend for herself. It was sensational news for the boys, especially for Gario!

Gario twitched his mouth and looked sad.

All the time, he thought Stella would be his girlfriend sooner or later. But now she had a boyfriend, which he couldn't accept!

In an instant, the people around him felt a chill from Gario, who looked bad.

"Are you kidding me?" Gario looked gloomy and terrifying.

Stella felt it and shivered. But she immediately shook her head and said directly, "Of course not! My boyfriend is very powerful."

She couldn't bear Gario's entanglement and wanted to take the opportunity to discourage him. It would be best if he gave up.

The others felt Gario's anger and couldn't help but worry about Stella's boyfriend.

Who had the guts to have a relationship with Stella? Did he want to die?

All the people in the department and the school knew that Gario liked Stella. And Gario was strong. He came to the school in his sophomore year and was the strongest one in less than a semester. No one could beat him on the campus.

And he had also declared in public that he liked Stella and anyone who courted her would be his enemy!

At first, a proud man didn't take his words seriously and continue to court

Stella. In the end, he was tragic. Even a powerful senior was severely beaten by him. Since then, no one dared to ignore him and court Stella.

In their mind, Stella was Gario's girl and no one could get close to her.

Suddenly, a man appeared as Stella's boyfriend. Gario must be furious!

Gario was so angry that he laughed. He twitched his mouth and smiled grimly, "Was he so powerful? Really? I would like to meet him. Who dared to ignore my words?"

Everyone who knew Gario knew that he was angry when he had the expression. He was furious.

Everyone knew that Stella's boyfriend would be beaten severely.

Stella was a little scared when she felt that Gario was angry. But she was disgusted and impatient. She hated him, who declared that she was his. He did not respect her at all!

She pointed directly at Tom, who was eating in the corner. She smiled happily, "Do you want to meet him? He's there."

As she pointed, everyone instantly looked at the corner where Tom was.

Soon, they saw an ordinary man, who was having a meal elegantly. He ignored them as if they had lived in different worlds and he hadn't felt them.

They were subconsciously stunned.

People who reached the Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm would be shocked when they felt how extraordinary he was. And they didn't dare to provoke him definitely.

However, they were ordinary college students and couldn't find that.

After they saw Tom clearly, they were all stunned and confused because they had never met him before.

"What? Is he Stella's boyfriend? He looks so ordinary. No!"

"Yes, and he's not handsome. He looked like a middle-aged man."

"Why does she like him? She was weird!"

"Hey, will it be her trick? She deliberately found him to stop Gario."

"It's possible. After all, she was picky. How would she like such a mediocre man?"

"No matter what, he will be beaten. Gario will definitely not let him go easily."

"Let's look. It's interesting..."

Everyone in the dining hall began to discuss fiercely. Many people don't believe that Tom was Stella's boyfriend. In their opinion, Tom was so ordinary. Their peers would only like handsome men or beautiful women.

Gario looked at Tom. After he found how ordinary Tom was, he mocked and said to Stella, "Stella, my goddess, did you find a security guard to be your boyfriend?"

Hearing his words, the other students couldn't help but laugh. Indeed, Tom looked a little like a security guard.

Stella frowned. She had no choice but to make use of Tom. But she felt disgusted with Gario's attitude now.

She rolled her eyes and smiled brightly. Instead of responding to Gario, she walked gracefully towards Tom and sat directly next to him. She held his arm intimately, which shocked everyone. She blushed. It was the first time she had been so close to a man and she even didn't know him. It was really a challenge for her.

But now, she had no choice but to do it.

She mustered up her courage and pouted to kiss him. Unexpectedly, Tom turned around at this time.

And he happened to kiss her...

Chapter 916

And it was mouth to mouth!

The moment their lips touched, Stella's eyes widened, filled with astonishment, panic, shyness, and disbelief!!!

Gosh! Her first kiss was taken away by a strange man.

Damn it! Why did this guy suddenly turn around!

At this moment, she was very regretful. She felt that she suffered a great deal. This was her first kiss. She planned to keep it to her prince charming in the future.

Not only her, but Tom was also stunned. What was going on?

After he came out of the classroom, he didn't leave immediately. Instead, he wandered around the campus for a while, then went to Albert's dormitory, and continued to talk to Albert for a while, mainly asking about the sects.

After learning what he wanted to know, he came out. It was just time for dinner. He was a little hungry, so he decided to eat in the canteen.

He was still immersed in the communication with Albert, digesting the shocking information, so he ignored the surrounding environment for a moment.

After all, this was in college, and no one was a threat to him, so he could be so relaxed.

It was only when a woman suddenly sat next to him and grabbed his arm that he came to his senses and subconsciously turned his head, so the dramatic scene happened!

He immediately felt his mouth kiss warm lips.

Immediately, he came back to his senses and saw a face as beautiful as a flower. He opened his eyes wide, reacted, pushed the other party away, and said, "What are you doing?!"

Tom's tone was very angry. Nowadays, college students were really ridiculous. They just met once and she kissed him like this. How inappropriate!

For Stella, she regretted it herself. Her first kiss was taken away by this guy, but this guy was not excited at all and even pushed her away. She was so angry!

"Why are you so fierce? It's you who turned your face suddenly. Otherwise, how would I kiss you!" After that, Stella wailed again. "This is my first kiss. You actually took it away!"

First kiss?

Hearing these two words, Tom was a little surprised.

Tom was sitting in a corner, and there was no one around for three meters, and they didn't speak too loudly just now, so no one heard what they said. They just saw that Stella was really kissing Tom. They were all stunned and shocked.

They were all in disbelief. Stella actually kissed this man who looked like a security guard. This was too shocking!

It showed that this man was really Stella's boyfriend!

At this moment, many boys were heartbroken. Their goddess actually kissed another man in front of them, which was a heavy blow to them.

Especially for Gario, he didn't believe that Stella would have a boyfriend. It wasn't that he didn't believe in Stella, but that he had absolute confidence in himself.

No one in the entire university dared to oppose him.

But now, Tom's appearance made him lose face completely and look extremely embarrassed!

He clenched his fists tightly and made a cracking sound. His eyes were about to burst into flames, and his body trembled slightly.

As for the classmates who came with Stella, their eyes were wide open now. What happened? Stella actually kissed this guy. She sacrificed too much! They all knew that this man was not Stella's boyfriend at all. He was just a stranger.

"Damn it! What did I see? Goddess Stella actually kissed that man?"

"My heart is breaking..."

"Jesus, who can tell me that this is not true! This must be an illusion, a dream!"

"Humph, this guy is dead. He dares to kiss Stella in front of Gario. He is doomed!"

"Ha ha ha, yep, this guy is dead. Who didn't know that Stella was the woman Gario liked? This guy is dead..."

They were howling at first, but immediately, they saw Gario's anger and all gloated.

They all thought that Tom was going to die and would end badly. After all, Gario was a super expert. Even the boxers outside the school were no match for Gario.

Tom quickly sensed the situation around him. Combined with the way these people looked at him and the murderous intent of Gario, he immediately realized that Stella was using him as a shield.

This made him quite depressed.

Was he born to be like a shield?

In the past, when he was a matrilocal husband, there were women who used him as a shield. But now, he had half reached the God Becoming Level, and he was so low-key in the college, but he was still used as a shield. He was helpless.

"Why does every woman use me as a shield? Alas." Tom sighed helplessly.

When Stella heard his words, she felt disdainful, thinking that he was bluffing. He looked so ordinary. How could many women use him as a shield? If she hadn't had no choice, she wouldn't have used him as a shield.

"Hey, you took away my first kiss just now. You have to be responsible. From now on, you have to be my boyfriend for the whole day!" Stella said.

Tom was not interested in the emotional problems among these college students. He stood up and said,

"Psycho."

When Stella heard his words, she was furious again. This guy was so hateful that he even called her psycho. She was regarded as the goddess in the college. Many boys were trying to curry favor with her!

Seeing that Tom was really leaving, Stella was a little anxious. She had even sacrificed her first kiss. If she didn't get some interest back, she would be in a big loss!

In a hurry, she grabbed Tom's hand and said, "Hey, stop!"

"What?" Tom frowned.

Stella stomped her feet in anger and said, "You have to be responsible for me!"

Tom ignored her.

This time, Stella was even more anxious. If she couldn't get rid of Gario this time, it would be even harder to get rid of him in the future. In a hurry, she went forward and hugged Tom from behind. "Don't be angry. I said I would only love you for the rest of my life! Besides, I already have your baby..."

Chapter 917

Stella didn't finish her sentence, but what she meant was already obvious!

Everyone would think that Stella was pregnant with Tom's child, which was another super explosive news for all of them!

They were instantly shocked, which was even more subversive than Stella had just admitted that she had a boyfriend.

After all, it wasn't ridiculous to have a boyfriend in college.

It was normal.

However, if she was pregnant before marriage, it was really rare, especially for a beautiful woman like Stella, which would bring a more shocking impact.

At this moment, Tom heard the heartbreaking voices of many boys present.

To be honest, he was also frightened by Stella's words. Was this woman crazy? How could she even say such a thing? Or was it because he was old school and couldn't keep up with the pace of the young people nowadays? Could she say such a thing so easily? Did she not care about her reputation?!

Stella was actually shy now. Her face was already flushed. In fact, Tom really misunderstood her. It was not that she didn't care about her reputation, but that she had no choice. She decided to go all out. Gario had caused her great trouble that she would have nightmares several times.

In order to get rid of Gario, she had to do this.

And strangely enough, she knew that Gario was the most powerful man in the whole university.

Normally, an ordinary man like Tom was definitely not Gario's match. However, when she saw Tom, she had an indescribable intuition. She felt that Tom was not some ordinary man and should be able to help her get rid of Gario's entanglement.

It was a wonderful feeling, completely without any basis, but Stella did think

He had been obsessive-compulsive. In his opinion, Stella was a precious treasure but was tarnished by others.

At this moment, he had a strong murderous intent on Tom and stared at him.

He was so powerful that everyone around him was frightened and couldn't help but tremble.

The aura Gario was showing now was too terrifying. To those college students, he was just like the devil. Some timid ones were now shaking their legs in fear.

"How scary... Is this Gario's real strength? How do I feel like he's a demon?"

so. It was a strange woman's sixth sense.

Suddenly, after Gario heard this, he was on the verge of exploding and cursed out loud, "Fuck you! Fuck!!!"

His expression was extremely ferocious now, with a murderous look in his eyes. Stella was the woman he liked. He had always considered Stella as his personal belongings, and sooner or later he would have her.

But now, not only was Stella chased away by another man but what he couldn't accept the most was that Stella was pregnant with this man's child!

Ah!!!

"It's too strong. I can't stop shaking now. This guy is dead. Gario is really angry!"

"God, I can't move my feet anymore..."

The college students were all frightened. They took a few steps back and kept their distance for fear of offending Gario.

Tom was very speechless and ignored Stella, because he didn't bother to get involved in this kind of romantic grudge between college students.

But immediately, he sensed Gario's murderous intent, especially the evil aura emanating from his body, which attracted his attention.

"Well?" Tom was stunned for a moment and immediately looked at Gario. He happened to meet Gario's eyes and saw some strange red in Gario's pupils. It looked like blood, but it was not.

As a primary expert of God Becoming Level, Tom had experienced countless battles throughout his life. He could tell at a glance that there was something wrong with Gario.

The aura that Gario was showing now was something he had never seen before, a strange and evil aura.

"What's going on?" Tom could not help but wonder.

Suddenly, a flash of inspiration flashed through his mind. He thought of something and smiled meaningfully. "Is this the dharma of the Clan?"

That was the guess that popped up in Tom's mind. After all, he had seen a lot of martial arts, but he had never seen any evil martial arts. This was a relatively new field, so he associated it with the Clan.

In fact, just now, he had asked Albert in his dormitory about the Clan. Who were they?

Albert gave him an answer. According to him, those people's thoughts and ideas were old schools and they could not accept modern changes, especially for the form of a sovereign state.

On the other hand, these people were very powerful. They were very focused and dedicated their whole life to studying the limits of the human body and exploring the direction of life. They did not conform to the mainstream idea of exploring advanced technology.

According to Albert, the people of the Clan were very strong, and for modern people, there were also biases against their personalities and world views.

Tom asked another crucial question, "How many people of the Clan there were in a sovereign society?"

Albert gave a positive answer.

It was very easy to understand. Even in the Clan, there were a few who yearned for the sovereign state society, just like the people in the sovereign state society, some yearned for the Clan.

In fact, in recent years, the infiltration between the Clan and the sovereign states had become more serious.

Therefore, in the sovereign state society, there were many of them, but they were generally very low-key and did not dare to cause too much trouble. Otherwise, they would be punished.

At this point, Tom understood.

Now it seemed that Gario in front of him was probably a member of the Clan, and his strength was not bad. Tom just didn't know what level he was in the Clan.

For a moment, Tom was more interested in Gario.

Chapter 918

Gario was extremely angry. He couldn't resist the urge to tear Tom in half!

Only by doing so could he vent his anger.

However, Tom was not frightened at all. He smiled teasingly, which made Gario even angrier. He thought that Tom was provoking him and did not take him seriously.

"You fucking..."

Gario finally lost his temper. He was bad-tempered. So he strode straight to Tom sullenly.

At the same time, the evil and threatening look in his eyes was threatening Tom. Gario deemed Tom as a dead man. No one could save Tom, even God!

In fact, it was not the first time for him to kill someone. He had killed several college guys who made him unhappy. These were very clever murders, leaving totally no trace. Even the people of the whole nation could not find him.

That was true, he was a member of the Clan!

He had superior fighting strength. Though he could only be considered as an ordinary person in the Clan, he could be ranked as the top killer that had no equality among the whole nation. Over time, he became extremely arrogant, disrespecting the whole nation.

Stella had become his personal belongings. How dare Tom, the trash, dared to touch her. In his opinion, Tom had already committed a capital offense.

However, he was not in a hurry to kill Tom. He wanted to use the most miserable method in the world to torture him and let him die in endless pain.

He got increasingly ruthless with strong killing intent. The aura emanating from him became even more terrifying.

Tom felt that the entire body of Gario was emitting a sinister black aura that was spreading across most of the canteen and was starting to surround him.

This made Tom calm down and start to plan to kill Gario. Of course, he would not reveal his intention as obvious as Gario, and he would not kill Gario in a hurry.

Strictly speaking, Gario was the second member he had met from the Clans.

He wanted to know more about the Clans and how they worked through Gario.

Because he had a feeling that there would have irritants between the Clans and the Sovereign states sooner or later.

As a member of the Sovereign state, he had to do wait.

"Fine!"

Gario didn't know that Tom was planning to kill him, and he also didn't know it was who he had got troubled with. With a ferocious and intimidating expression on his face, he stared at Tom, then looked at Stella, cursing fiercely, "You refused me because you have a lover! Stella, you disappointed me. I'm angry!"

"And you..." Gario pointed at Tom and smiled. It was an extremely ferocious and threatening expression that could make children cry immediately. Even adults would be frightened by his angry gaze.

"How dare you touch my woman? So, I have to..." he paused and then mouthed, "Kill you."

He also made a slicing gesture with his hand by his neck.

Stella got nervous, protected in front of Tom, and said, "Gario! Please stop! I've told you before that I don't like you. I'll never be your personal belongings. It was you hounding me without shame! I have a boyfriend, so please stop pestering me! Otherwise, you will only make me hate you even more!"

Stella warned him seriously.

Everyone was worried about her, especially her classmates. They thought that Stella was so crazy that she dared to say those aggressive words to Gario.

Gario was famous for his ferocity. Wasn't Stella being afraid?

Gario grimed when he heard this. He laughed in anger. "Oh, God! You said you hate me? Stella, you're the first woman who dared to say that, and the first woman who dared to humiliate me! Good job, good job! It makes me even more interested in you! I'll give you a good treat."

He no longer tried to hide his extremely evil smile, which made people shudder.

Stella was hugely scared. Suddenly, she regretted what she had done. Was it too risky for her to do this? Besides, it would get the strange man in trouble.

Gario tilted his head and took two more steps forward. He stood in front of Tom, his eyes were like sharp swords piercing Tom fiercely and attacking him mentally. If Tom was a normal person, he would be scared to pee, collapse, and kneel down to beg for mercy.

This trick worked every time.

But strangely, Tom did not panic at all when facing his mental attack. He did not even blink. He just looked at Gario with a playful look.

This stunned Gario for a moment. He thought he was hallucinating. He felt strange that his mental attack didn't work at this time.

But soon he realized that it wasn't him, but the guy in front of him, who failed. Tom was not an ordinary person. He had been well trained. "Oh, I misjudged you. You're a fighting master. No wonder you're so bold. Bold enough to entice my woman! Well, good job! Since that was the case, I'm happier when torturing you."

He laughed so crazily that he was frightening and terrifying.

Other people took a few more steps back to make room for Gario and Tom.

Stella was frightened again by Gario. She bit her lip and said loudly, "Gario, I tell you the truth! This man is not my boyfriend. He was just a straw man I found. He has nothing to do with me. Don't hurt him!"

Tom was a little surprised by her words. He didn't expect her to care about him. Did she have a guilty conscience now?

Stella happened to look into Tom's eyes, saying "I'm sorry, I troubled you."

Tom waved his hand, indicating that it was okay.

But Gario didn't believe it at all. "What a pair of lovers! You're dying and you're begging for your lover. In that case, I'll satisfy you..."

After that, he attacked Tom.

Chapter 919

He spared no efforts to strike down Tom in one go.

Even on campus, he was unscrupulous. As long as he didn't kill Tom right away, nothing would happen.

His aim was to cripple Tom first, then detain him. He would drag Tom to another place, and let him perish in extreme torture!

He was used to doing that.

When the others saw his move, they all held their breath and thought that Tom must be dead. After all, Gario was very strong.

Stella also screamed nervously,

"Gario..."

In a blink of an eye, Gario appeared in front of Tom. He reached out his hand and was about to scratch Tom's face.

His hand was like an eagle claw, and his five fingers were like iron pliers. Even a brick had to be scratched by him.

He could already imagine Tom's face being scratched by him and then screaming for mercy.

However, what happened next surprised him. Tom was not afraid at all. He simply took two steps back and dodged his inevitable attack.

"What?"

Gario was surprised. Obviously, he didn't expect that Tom could escape.

"You are really something! I won't spare you anymore!" Gario sneered grimly. His expression was ferocious and terrifying.

Stella panicked and became anxious. "Gario! What are you doing? Stop it! Or I'll call the police!"

Gario sneered and said, "Call the police? Do you think the police are a threat to me? No woman I've ever taken a fancy to has ever escaped from me!"

Stella was shocked by his glare. There was a fear she had never felt before as if she had met a devil.

Then, Gario continued to attack Tom.

He mainly used his five fingers to catch Tom, and he was getting faster!

Tom did not fight back from the beginning to the end. It seemed that he was powerless. It was only a matter of time before he lost.

Therefore, Stella got even more anxious. If Tom was injured because of her, she would feel sorry.

Tom still didn't make any attacks. He just dodged Gario very casually. It wasn't that he was afraid of Gario. Gario was at most the first stage of the Innate Realm. To him, Gario was no different from an ant. He mainly noticed that Gario's moves were different from any he had encountered before.

Gario's attack was terrifying. Moreover, his move was with a kind of devouring. Tom could clearly feel that his blood and Qi seemed to be devoured by Du when Du was close to him.

He had never seen this technique before.

It was also because of this that Tom became interested.

Gario did not take Tom down after a long time. He was more anxious, violent, and ferocious.

"Fuck! I won't play with you anymore. Go to die!"

Du great called out and then moved even faster towards Tom. At this moment, the entire canteen could feel the evil in him, and they couldn't help but shudder.

They didn't know why Gario terrified people so much, but they just thought that Gario was scary.

Especially this time, Gario grabbed a hole in the pillar with his hand and pulled down a large part of the wall. Everyone was shocked and quickly retreated.

Stella was so anxious that she was about to cry. She thought that Tom definitely couldn't beat Gario!

In a hurry, she shouted, "Gario! Stop fighting. I promise to be your girlfriend!"

When Gario heard this, the sneer on his face became stronger and his heart became angrier. It seemed that Stella really liked this guy, so she would sacrifice herself!

So he was even more aggressive against Tom. "Don't fucking dodge if you've got the guts!!!"

Two minutes later, Gario didn't even touch Tom, which made him a little angry and scolded.

Tom nodded and said, "As you wish."

He stopped retreating and never dodged Gario's attack.

Gario saw that Tom was finally not dodging, and his face suddenly showed ecstasy and a grim smile. He thought that Tom was so stupid and that such a clumsy provocation could succeed.

"Then you're dead..."

After he finished speaking, he put his hands in front of Tom and grabbed him!

At this moment, Tom seemed to confront Gario casually.

Gario was about to laugh out loud when this stupid man dared to confront him. Didn't he know that his fingers were as hard as iron?

He had imagined that Tom's right hand was broken by him and screamed.

But the next moment, when his Eagle Claws crossed with Tom's fingers, he felt a great power!

Then, his fingers seemed to have fallen into a high-speed machine, completely devoid of the ability to resist, and he heard a few clicks.

His five fingers were easily broken by Tom.

"Ah!!!!!"

He let out an unprecedented shrill scream.

Everyone heard it could feel it and could not help but get goosebumps.

Especially when they saw Gario's finger, in a bizarre shape, completely brutally bent off by Tom, they felt their right hands go cold.

After Tom figured out his tricks, he wouldn't talk nonsense with him and just crippled him.

He was 100 % certain that Gario came from the sect, and his skills and character were extremely evil. It is also a scourge to the people to let him stay here.

What is the point of keeping such a person if not to scrap him?

Everyone's eyes widened, and they all felt unbelievable.

They couldn't accept the fact for a moment. What was going on? The invincible Gario was actually beaten by this nobody?

So the huge canteen became strangely quiet.

All of them stared at Tom in shock.

Especially Stella, her expression was even more complex...

Chapter 920

"You. You. You..."

Stella pointed at Tom with her eyes widely opened. She felt shocked and unbelievable.

Tom's performance just now shocked her.

Because she knew very well how powerful Gario was. Even the masters who run the martial arts schools were no match for Gario. Otherwise, Gario would not have been so reckless on campus.

Gario just easily gouged a piece of the wall out of the pillar, it was no different from the Eagle Claw Kungfu in movies.

However, facing such a strong enemy, Tom defeated Gario so easily and even broke Gario's fingers...

She didn't know what to say about Tom.

At first, she thought that Tom was just a good student from another school, an ordinary person, and at most familiar with professor Campbell.

She couldn't help but choose to use Tom, but she never expected that Tom was really the Strong.

She felt that she had picked up a stone on the side of the road, which turned out to be a super precious gem. It was so subversive and ridiculous.

Tom smiled and asked, "Why do you seem surprised?"

Stella finally came back to her senses, but she still looked at Tom in shock. She asked, "Who the hell are you?"

Tom did not answer her question. Instead, he began to focus on Gario.

Gario's right hand was crippled. Now he felt a piercing pain. Also, he was both shocked and frightened.

Because only he himself knew how powerful Tom was. He was the first stage of the Innate Realm, but his strength was comparable to the second stage of the Innate Realm in the whole nation.

However, the strength that Tom displayed was completely beyond the second stage of the Innate Realm.

Now he looked up and saw Tom walking towards him with a meaningful smile. He suddenly felt a little scared.

"You, you, you, who the hell are you?!" Gario asked the same question as Stella.

At the same time, he quickly stood up, his eyes wandering, looking for an opportunity to escape. After the fight just now, he had confirmed that he was not Tom's opponent.

Tom walked up to him and admired him for being so calm.

"How long have you been hiding in the whole nation?" Tom didn't talk nonsense to him, so he came straight to the point.

When Gario heard his words, his expression was even more frightened than before, along with unbelievable.

The guy in front of him actually knew that he was from the Clan?!

Didn't it say that most people in the whole nation didn't know about the existence of the Clan?

At this moment, he felt the majesty and playfulness in Tom's eyes. He was really scared.

Without any hesitation, he turned around and ran, and ran towards the window.

His action scared everyone present again. What was going on with Gario? Was he going to jump off a building to escape? You know, he was on the fourth floor!

He would die or be crippled if he jumped from here!

Gario really thought about this. It would be fine if he lost to Tom, but Tom actually knew that he was from the Clan, so the results were completely different.

He had to escape, for people in the Clan had done a lot of bad things to the people in the whole nation. Once he was captured by the people in the whole nation, he couldn't end well.

Tom's eyes flickered at his reaction. He was a little surprised but wanted to kill him even more.

Gario was in such a hurry to escape, which meant that he was guilty, afraid, and had done a lot of bad things to the people in the whole nation.

How could he let such a person escape?

"Hmph, you want to escape?"

Tom snorted and rushed straight at Gario.

He didn't make any big moves, as if he was just walking. In the blink of an eye, he caught up with Gario, directly behind him, grabbed Gario's neck, and pulled him back.

When Gario was grabbed by the neck, he was even more horrified and regretful at the same time. He wouldn't have dared to attack Tom if he had known that Tom was so powerful!

"Go to hell!"

Gario didn't care so much anymore. He suddenly took a dagger and stabbed Tom in the chest.

His movements were already very fast, and even the masters of the second stage of the Innate Realm could not escape under such circumstances.

But for a big devil like Tom, it was no different from slow motion.

Tom easily and casually grabbed his dagger, then snatched it and thrust it directly into Gario's thigh.

He even twisted it.

Gario let out a scream like killing a pig under Tom's attack!

Then he staggered and fell, panting heavily. His face was pale, with cold sweat covering his forehead. His eyes were filled with fear and panic as he looked at Tom.

He felt Tom's strength. It was too scary. He was no different from a child in front of Tom.

Such a strong person must have a high status in the whole nation.

He was so regretful. Why was he so unlucky to meet such a level of the Strong?!

He would not have shown off just now if he had known.

For others, this change was too fast, and Tom even directly stabbed the dagger into Gario's leg. The blood flowed down, scaring many people.

Those timid girls were even scared to tears. They covered their eyes and didn't dare to look.

Stella stood there in a daze, her completely unable to think. What was going on and why did it become like this?

Even the jealousy between rival lovers couldn't have to develop like this, right?

In fact, not only she, but everyone had the same idea. To these college students, they had never witnessed such a situation.

Gario struggled to catch his breath. Now that he knew that he couldn't escape at all, he looked up at Tom and begged, "Don't kill me. Don't kill me, please..."

Tom looked down at him, "I'll give you the last chance. How long have you been the spy?"
