

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1976

Chapter 1976

Nicole feels that if Clayton does not stop it, she is afraid that it will be difficult to end.

Clayton was stunned for a while, and looked at her seriously with dark eyes: "What's the matter, you don't want to watch it again?"

Nicole felt like a domineering mountain king.

Why is she bullying Clayton?

In this situation, it is really embarrassing to be able to cut out three bedrooms and one living room!

Nicole said calmly: "It's good to take off, and then take it off at night."

Clayton was silent and calmly buttoned the button again, and took a deep look at Nicole:

"Yes."

Anyway, he was very happy to do it.

In the evening, when aunty came back, She warmly went to say hello to Lil Chatty. Then, watching Nicole and Clayton, who were still calm, were watching a movie in the living room.

The atmosphere is just right.

When talking about Lil Chatty couldn't help it and started yawning, Clayton asked aunty to take the talk back to coax him to sleep.

He looked at Nicole enthusiastically, as if there were violent storms brewing in the darkness.

Nicole felt a little regretful. Because she felt that it was really difficult to go on tonight.

Clayton hugged her and whispered and kissed, but he didn't want to be happy, and he had to let Nicole undress him personally.

She took off the clothes tremblingly for two hours, and was already sweating...

She exhausted all night.

Nicole couldn't even lift her fingers. The next day she slept until noon.

She recovered a little, and she still wanted to go to the company, so don't go now.

The place next to it is empty.

His physical strength recovered much faster than hers.

always like this.

Nicole is still fresh and clean. Clayton has nothing to say about being considerate in this regard, otherwise she won't be able to sleep.

She came out after washing.

There is food on the table, but no one is in the kitchen.

The aunty who came downstairs greeted her with a smile: "Madam, you wake up, food should be ready, I'll serve it for you."

Nicole smiled and walked to the dining table, where there was only one breakfast for one person.

She paused: "Sir and talk about it?"

Auntie smiled, "Sir, there is something urgent in the company, I went to the company, I was afraid that I would stay and cry and disturb your rest, so I took her away, the husband said. Don't let anyone disturb you, say you worked hard yesterday."

Saying you worked hard yesterday...

When Auntie said this without changing her face, Nicole's face was flushed.

She breathed slightly, and took a deep breath to calm herself down.

"Yes, yes, there were too many friends who came yesterday, it was really hard..."

She found herself a step down, whether her aunty believed it or not. "I've never seen someone more considerate than Mr.Sloan. The president of a big company, he looks like a big star, but he doesn't have any air. This meal is all cooked by Mr. Sloan, and he also asked me to start stewing eat on time. It just happens that you can drink together."

Auntie's voice was kind, Nicole lowered her eyes, and the corners of her lips curved.

In fact, it wouldn't be a bad thing if she fell into it, right?

However, she still can't tell him her current mood, otherwise he will be proud.

Nicole has a good appetite. After breakfast, she plans to go shopping and go to the company in the afternoon.

As a result, Clayton's phone call came, as if he had pinpointed the time.

"Baby?" The voice followed the electric current into her ears. The tip of her heart seemed to be fluttered by a feather, and her heartbeat accelerated again.

Thinking about the chaos last night, Nicole really didn't want to recall.

There is only one sentence to comment on Clayton: "Fox spirit with human face and beast heart!"

Nicole didn't speak, Clayton waited for a few seconds before speaking, his voice was coaxing and soft: "Baby, I just bought you a necklace, what do you want? Don't go and look at it?"

Nicole pouted, with a little bit of duplicity: "Who cares?"

Her voice was low and soft, and at first glance, she was bullied too much.

Clayton coaxed patiently: "Take a look at the face? If you don't like it, just talk about it."

"Okay, where is it?" Nicole asked, standing up and walking towards the bedroom.

The man also knew how to coax her with a necklace, but if it didn't look good, she wouldn't want it.

You must firm up your own aesthetic taste online.

"On the apron on our top floor, the helicopter has just arrived, you can go up."

Nicole was stunned for a moment, then stopped. "You sent it by helicopter?"

What necklace, such a big battle?

"Well, I asked them to send it as soon as it was dawn. It's just right now. Don't you like the brand in France? I saw the collection model and it was very suitable for you, so I sent it directly."

Clayton said, "It's as simple as ordering a takeaway online."

Nicole paused, "There's only one collection in the world, isn't it going to be auctioned the day after tomorrow?"

She originally planned to participate in the auction because she really liked it. But out of the businessman's psychology, if the auction price exceeds her psychological expectations, she will not accept it.

So whether you can get it or not, your mentality is flat.

Clayton gave a low smile: "Because you like it, you are the unique owner of that necklace."

His words were so satisfying to Nicole.

At that moment, Nicole almost blurted out all her thoughts from yesterday.

Make him happy too.

But she was full of that necklace, so she turned around and went to the door to get on the elevator and went directly to the top.

The helicopter was there, and the two escorts were still holding controlled guns.

The cold wind rustled the clothes, and the aura was completely different.

Seeing Nicole, the two escorts came down directly with the safe.

"Ms. Stanton?"

Nicole nodded.

The escort opened the safe in front of her.

A string of thin necklaces inlaid with pink diamonds appeared in front of her. As if glowing with expensive light.

Nicole has so many pieces of jewelry, any one she picks out is comparable to one.

But it was the first to make her so excited.

Exquisite indescribable, can completely touch the heart of any woman.

She reached out and touched it, then took it back.

The escort delivered the things, and if there was no extra, they turned around and went up the helicopter's suspension ladder.

Nicole went back with the necklace, quietly admired it for a few minutes, and decided not to go to work today.

Bringing this necklace to the company is a waste of money!

She deliberately changed into a long black slip dress that matched the necklace. Perfectly revealing her slender swan neck, and that delicate indescribable necklace.

In the end, she took a smug selfie and sent it to the four groups and Clayton's whatsapp respectively.

Group of four:

Yvette: "F*ck!"

Julie: "F*ck!"

Ian: "Please pay attention to civilized words, my God!"

...

Clayton is busy, two minutes have passed Only replied: "Perfect, only for you."

Nicole smiled and was elated.

If Clayton didn't even have this appreciative ability, she felt that they would not be able to get to where they are today.

In the final analysis, Clayton worked hard enough.

Chapter 1977

Nicole dressed up well. It is impossible not to go out for a walk.

So, She's accompanied by Luca. Then she went to Clayton's company.

By the way, She called Floyd and said that she would take the children back to dinner.

When Floyd heard this, he became energized and muttered: "I just said that you don't have to take her back, how convenient it is to stay with me!"

Nicole went directly to Clayton's company without saying hello, and Clayton didn't know that she would suddenly's arrival.

The assistant was surprised by her sudden visit, but he understood immediately after seeing the expensive pink diamond necklace around her neck.

"Madam, please wait a few minutes, the general manager of the business is conducting a cross-border video conference, it may take a while."

Nicole nodded sympathetically and took a seat beside him.

The assistant brought her favorite coffee, she thanked it and put it aside.

"Do your job, don't worry about me."

“Okay, ma’am.”

Clayton has no physical business here, and his employees are all over the world, so it does not exceed 100% here, but it occupies the most gold in the commercial street. the lot.

It seems to be his habit, after all, he has the ability and confidence to occupy the best location.

Clayton’s video conference has been on for a long time.

After five minutes. There was no movement inside, and she thought it was over.

The assistant was not around either, so she tentatively opened the door and went in.

As soon as the door opened.

Clayton sat on the sofa in front of the floor-to-ceiling window, with his back to the door, hunched slightly, looking at the computer screen in front of him.

An unfamiliar voice came from the computer.

Their conversation was so involved that no one realized Nicole’s intrusion.

“Mr. Sloan, Samuel has already begun to annex other forces. His sudden failure caught everyone by surprise. He was concerned about the oil in the Lindstrom family, and Samuel seemed to be unable to support it. He made good friends, the Ferguson family’s property was safe and sound, but they didn’t know a word about other people’s properties. I heard that the Lindstrom family had begged him several times, but Eric didn’t move. You said how did Lilitana appear so suddenly? The relationship between his sister and Eric, and the relationship between Eric’s sister and Lilitana, as for?”

Nicole stood there, her body froze slightly.

Clayton was silent for a moment, his voice was cold and unwavering: “Everything he does is smoke bombs. His ultimate goal is my arms base. As long as you guard it well, the rest will be fine.”

“But I I heard that the Falcon has already made a move against you? Although there is no next step, but you have to make a plan early.”

“I am afraid that he will not make another move after he has measured it. After all, it is not good for him. “

Clayton’s voice was extremely indifferent, and there was a bit of chill all over him.

It feels unfamiliar and cold.

Not the one who sweetly coaxed her.

The contrast is too big, but Nicole doesn’t think it’s weird, who doesn’t have a mask yet?

As long as the one facing her is good, she is not unacceptable.

Just realizing that Clayton hasn’t finished the meeting yet, and is in a dilemma, planning to quit.

The assistant at the door couldn’t find Nicole, and was in a hurry.

He pushed open the door and came in: “Mr. Sloan, Mrs. she...”

Interrupted Clayton’s thoughts.

His eyes turned coldly, and the coldness on his face had not yet faded.

He saw Nicole standing there sluggishly and the embarrassed assistant.

“Mr. Sloan, I’m sorry...”

Clayton lowered his eyes and nodded, the indifference on his face faded, and Nicole’s familiar warmth appeared in his eyes.

“Just a moment, I’ll be free soon.”

He didn’t end the conversation immediately, but instead let Nicole wait for him here calmly.

No panic to hide.

Nicole let out a sigh of relief and sat directly on the sofa on the side, waiting calmly.

When the assistant saw this, he honestly backed out.

Clayton sat there with his back still facing her direction: "Recently, pay attention to rioters going there to attack, strengthen the protection of mercenaries, and do not allow strangers to enter the internal research base. Also, our weapons cannot be sold, I will strengthen the strict inspection of customer identities."

Clayton replied, and then hung up the video call. He lowered his head for a moment, then stood up, tidied up his cuffs, and walked over: "I thought you would go to Ian and the others to gather, why did you come to such a boring place?"

Looking down at her, he bent slightly, as if to bring her into his arms. As soon as he lowered his head, he could kiss her forehead.

Seeing the dazzling and delicate necklace on her neck, he smiled warmly, and stroked the necklace lightly with his fingertips: "It seems that this gift is very agreeable?"

When he said this, Nicole proudly raised her chin.

Then He put his hands around her neck, this angle is just enough for him to fully appreciate the necklace he bought!

With water in her eyes, she said with a smile: "Not bad, gifts from Mr. Sloan are always irresistible!"

Clayton raised his eyebrows, "Then I haven't seen you take out the jewelry I gave you before... .."

Nicole paused, her eyes flashed: "This is an encouragement to you, and you have to make persistent efforts to give gifts in the future!"

The jewelry in the past was only precious, how could she put an antique emerald necklace and those priceless diamonds? Do you hang it around your neck every day?

Just thinking about it is suffocating.

Might as well make her happy with these stylish but bright limited editions!

Clayton nodded calmly, stretched out his hand and poked her on the forehead: "Don't worry, I accept the encouragement."

After saying that, he lowered his head and kissed her forehead, and then his eyes were dark and restrained.

"Have you slept well?"

Nicole restrained her smile, her bright facial features showed a bit of squeamish anger, and she gritted her teeth:

"It's so good!"

What a pot that cannot be opened!

Clayton also knew that he had gone too far, so he touched her hair, and his voice was hoarse: "Tell me that Lil Chatty is taking a nap inside, do you want to call her up to play with you?"

Nicole was stunned, and immediately pushed him away and stood up, "She didn't bother you, you came to the company and left her to be taken care of by auntie..."

"That's not good, it will disturb you, not to mention that it is not the first time she has come to the company. Speaking of her talent in business, I think my father is right, and it is right to nurture her since she was a child!"

Nicole twitched the corners of her mouth, rolled her eyes at him, reached the door of the lounge, and opened the door carefully.

Said that the children were sleeping soundly inside, and their white and tender faces were radiant.

It really looks better.

She smiled and looked back at him: "When she wakes up, let's take her to my dad together. I'm going to the company in the afternoon, and you are busy here. Why don't my dad teach her to study!"

Clayton Nodding solemnly: "You are right!"

Chapter 1978

I am waiting to say that when Lil Chatty wakes up, the assistant has brought in some desserts coffee.

Clayton finished some of the more urgent matters and pushed the rest to the afternoon.

"Baby, you heard it just now. A strange man who wants money and not his life. You can't go in and out of public places casually during this time, unless you have enough bodyguards."

Nicole nodded, she didn't take herself People who make fun of their lives. "I know, I won't go anywhere except Ian's wedding and company in the near future."

Ian's wedding is a must.

Clayton nodded.

After hesitating for a moment, he said, "Has Eric approached you recently?"

Nicole shook her head calmly: "No, but has he approached my brother, I don't know, what's wrong?"

Clayton paused After a while, his face became solemn: "It's nothing, Mr. Ferguson's family is in the hands of Falcon, I'm afraid he will be confused for a while, what can he do?"

Nicole frowned slightly: "Isn't it in the hands of Falcon?"

Clayton was silent for a few seconds: "It's hard to say, Falcon's people are also looking for them."

Nicole paused.

In such a dangerous place, Quinn and Ingrid, two women, do not know whether they will encounter any danger.

She didn't want to let them go wrong.

It's just that she is powerless about these things.

"Do you just want an arms base?" Nicole asked.

Clayton pursed his lips and looked at her, "It's strange to be a man. He makes dirty money, but he wants to clean up his money. He has been restless after annexing the power of Caleb in Southeast Asia. There is a lot of black money abroad, but it cannot be washed away. Only by expanding his power step by step can there be opportunities for money laundering. But the bigger the power and the more money, the more difficult it will be to launder money, so he set his sights on the arms base, only the first Besides, he is well-known in South Africa and has close contacts with some terrorists. Arms and money are what he wants most. My research base in South Africa was originally just a middleman, but it grew bigger and bigger, naturally I was targeted."

He spread his hands, quite helpless. He is an investor. When he invested in arms, it was just a whim, and he was not so interested in getting himself into the mud.

But now that it is getting bigger and bigger, it is difficult to withdraw.

"So as soon as the arms project of Mediania came out last time, I knew it was a good opportunity.

As long as the power of the Z side joins, I can slowly get out of their battle.

You know, no matter which side of the terrorist organization, They are all afraid of the normal armed forces in the world.

Especially Mediana.

Therefore, when the Z side inspection project is completed, even if I am asked to surrender, I am willing, at least it will not fall into the hands of others and become trouble. "

Clayton said everything in his heart.

In fact, nothing more than that, the arms base is in the hands of Clayton, which can be regarded as a hot potato.

But if Mediana party joins, it becomes a sweet pastry.

To temper those forces, there is nothing to worry about.

Nicole pondered for a while, then laughed: "So that's the case, you already planned it? There must be your reasons for the Stanton Corporation to get this project, but you're right, it's really troublesome."

Clayton picked. He raised his eyebrows and looked at the time. It was time to tell Lil Chatty that it was time to make milk powder.

He turned to go to the warm water. He opened his mouth and said, "When it comes to the relationship, it can't be all because of me, because the eldest brother has the confidence.

And I just mentioned that compared with the face of the arms research base and Mr. Ferguson, how to choose in the end depends on The meaning of the above."

Nicole twitched the corners of her mouth, how do people choose?

Hehe...

cunning!

Clayton moved smoothly and repeated many times while speaking. His voice is warm, but every word has no warmth: "But if I can use these external things in exchange for your interests, I am willing to do it. After all, there is no real fairness in the market, and whoever wins will have to weigh the interests of all parties. Interests and relationships."

Nicole looked at him with both hands, squinting. She always felt that Clayton was an extremely tolerant and kind person.

That's because she never touched the boundaries of his career.

The career lines of the two of them barely intersected, and even if they did, Clayton secretly avoided the risk of a possible collision, or voluntarily gave up their positions.

But now, at this moment, she heard Clayton's words.

Clayton seemed to be protecting one of his own people.

It's not about how many affections and relationships, interests and importance are being measured.

If it was someone else, he would have a completely different attitude or way of dealing with it.

He will not cede his vested interests to anyone.

Except for his own people.

This kind of person is especially decisive and fierce in the shopping mall, and there is almost no time for the car to roll over.

She doesn't like to deal with this kind of people in the mall.

But...

Nicole lowered her eyes and thought.

If Clayton was not such a person, he would not be decisive, he would not be calm and self-sufficient, and he would not strive for his own vested interests.

He wouldn't be the Clayton he is today.

The merchant's resources did not pave the way for him, and every step he took was harder than anyone else.

What right does she have to criticize his way of doing things?

Kindness and tolerance, that is what the Buddha should do.

Nicole lowered her head and chuckled, shaking her head. She really thinks too much. Perhaps, she is also protecting her own people like Clayton?

Clayton turned his head and glanced at her. But soon realized that he was talking too much.

He pursed his lips, and his face became tense for a moment: "Do you think that what I said is wrong?"

Nicole shook her head and smiled: "No, I think you are right, but One thing, I'm going to dismantle you!"

Clayton: "What?"

Nicole smiled, "It's impossible to give up your arms base, after all, so many forces are eyeing them, you handed it over to Mediania, causing dissatisfaction from all parties, you will give it to yourself also you will kill yourself. Mr. Sloan, you wouldn't do that, would you?"

Clayton smiled calmly, his eyebrows warm and clear: "Of course, I'm just a suggestion, if the time is right, I won't be stingy, just temporarily.I won't be so impulsive."

He shook the bottle and handed it to her with a smile. "I'm going to wake up and tell her, will you feed her?"

Nicole nodded.

As long as Clayton can stay by his side, why should he interfere with how sharp his wrists are?

Anyway, there will be opportunities in the future.

Talk about Lil Chatty waking up reluctantly. But with Daddy and Mommy by her side, she had no reason to cry. She could only roll away obediently before she got up lazily.

Arrived at Stanton's house.

Floyd didn't even eat lunch, so he just sat in the living room and waited for them.

As a result, the three of them came too late, which made Floyd's atmosphere so bad!

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1979

Chapter 1979

Nicole patiently explained the problem of children taking a nap.

Then she showed Floyd her new necklace.

Floyd put on his glasses and squinted for a while.

"Don't you have a lot of these necklaces in your safe?"

Nicole explained patiently: "Same color, different styles."

Floyd couldn't understand the girl's obsession with jewelry details.

However, he still responded a few words before calling Clayton over: "Ian gets married next week, will you accompany Lil N?"

Everyone tacitly understands that there is a dangerous element now, and they can't be careless.

Nicole got into the kitchen, said hello to Mr. Anderson, and then came out with a snack.

Clayton took out a tissue for her and wiped it clean.

Nicole lowered her head and ate seriously, but after a while, the bowl was filled with vegetables.

Clayton sees which one she likes to eat, and always chooses which one she likes.

Seeing Floyd burst into flames.

He couldn't help it, put down his chopsticks and said: "Nutrition should be balanced, don't be picky eaters, eat more of what she doesn't like, and don't get used to her bad habits."

Clayton paused and nodded.

Nicole blinked, and couldn't help but say, "Dad, I eat nutritious meals every day, just this one, there will be no uneven nutrition!"

Floyd snorted coldly.

Seeing how Clayton spoiled her so much, can she honestly eat nutritious meals?

It's really hard to eat a meal!

It didn't take long for Floyd to put down his chopsticks.

Nicole and Clayton also ate almost.

It was just that when Nicole drank the water, he didn't notice that the water was very hot, so he took a sip and spit it out.

The two looked at her nervously.

Floyd's face changed: "What's the matter, call an ambulance, no no no, get the car ready, and go to the hospital!"

Clayton also went over nervously and hugged Nicole.

Nicole slowed down and stuck out her tongue: "It's nothing, it's just hot."

Floyd and Clayton were still very nervous.

Nicole smiled and said, "I feel so much better seeing you all so nervous and worried about me!"

Clayton silently got up and took a glass of cold water.

Floyd: "..."

Is this girl stupid?

.....

After a few days.

It was Ian's wedding day.

Nicole had already prepared a gift, and what she had prepared was an equity transfer contract.

At the beginning, Ian failed to gain a firm foothold in the Carter Corporation, and was forced to step back. It was Nicole who won his opponent, which was equivalent to part of the equity nominally in Nicole's hands, but she did not monopolize it.

Now that Ian is on his own, Nicole handing over his nominal equity can be considered a complete return to him.

There is also a pair of Patek Philippe couple watches, which are extremely valuable.

Clayton prepared an antique ornament. Except for being expensive, it has no other characteristics. It is the most suitable gift.

It is said that Ian's marriage will not be too small in scale.

But for the wedding of the Carter family and the Makinen family, they also took into account the reputation of the Makinen family.

The matter between Lumi and Samuel was so noisy that there were scandals.

At this time, if there is a special case, the Lindstrom family's face will not be able to hold back. After all, the Makinen family and the Lindstrom family have not completely turned their face.

So their wedding was just to entertain guests in the largest hotel, inviting relatives and friends to gather together.

It's like telling everyone.

Although it was in the hotel, there were a lot of people coming.

Nicole, Yvette and Julie went one by one, and had seen many acquaintances.

But it's too tiring to go to greet each other now, they took a bit of a slack and plan to go see today's protagonist.

Clayton wanted to follow Nicole closely, but there were too many people who came to toast, so Mr. Carter took him to socialize again.

He could only ask Luca and the others to take good care of Nicole and not run outside alone.

When Clayton didn't follow, Nicole became more free.

The bodyguards here are layer after layer, if you really want to do something, unless your brain is flooded.

Yvette, wearing a small dress, asked about the room directly, and went up to it.

They knocked on the door and heard the sound inside before everyone entered.

Ian was changing his clothes with a smile on his face. It looked like something was different.

The indomitable romance in his eyebrows has diminished, and he has become a little more mature and stable.

Looking at the push door and entering, he smiled: "I knew you would come."

Julie smiled and looked at him: "Ian, congratulations!"

"Thank you."

Ian's eyes moved to Nicole's face, he sighed: "If I get married, you won't be the only one in my life, you have to take good care of yourself!"

You said each sentence to Nicole.

Nicole paused for a second: "It's the same as saying that you will be finished tomorrow, of course we will take care of ourselves, you can rest assured!"

The atmosphere is not so rigid.

Ian lowered his head and smiled, looking at the three of them: "If you guys come to grab the marriage, then my reputation will be famous far and wide!"

Yvette pierced him: "No, it's notorious, It will also implicate us!"

Everyone laughed.

Ian was wearing a neat suit and three-dimensionally handsome features.

Yvette saw that there was no one else in the room, then coughed and asked him, "Why didn't I know you and Ms. Makinen's were so close? Didn't you always despise their two sisters for being hypocritical and brainless?"

How long has she been divorced, did you all before her divorce..."

Yvette spoke without restraint, but every sentence asked the key point.

In the end, she added another sentence: "Is it because she is pregnant that she has to get married?"

Ian smiled helplessly and shrugged.

I know there are many speculations from the outside world, but Ian can't do anything about it.

"Yes, you are all right. It was the time before her divorce. She was pregnant and I had to marry her."

The atmosphere became quiet.

Even Julie and Nicole were speechless there.

On the hangers next to them were all the dresses they were going to change, and there were even the words "Happy" posted on the wall.

But behind the happy word, there may be many contributing reasons.

No one could have imagined.

Ian smiled, sat there, and rubbed his hands:

"Don't look at me with such pitiful eyes, I'm married and have a child, isn't it a double happiness?"

Yvette: "Are you a double blow?"

Ian's smile subsided a bit: "You are my best friends, I will tell the truth. Although every step is beyond my expectations, I do not reject this result. You must know that I am so mixed up. For many years, I have never fallen for a woman. As for Lumi, all I can say is that I may not have feelings for her, but the time has come."

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1980

Chapter 1980

Ian's voice was calm, and his expression was also a slight smile.

There is no dissatisfaction or resistance.

Nicole frowned slightly: "Then Lumi is willing?"

Ian paused and nodded: "She is also willing, we talked frankly about whether to keep the child or not to get married. We are very interested in marriage. Looking forward to it, I am willing to give it a try, but I just skip the step of falling in love and get married directly, it may not look good, but we know it."

Nicole raised her eyebrows, it sounded like Ian was dizzy.

In this circle, there are many people who want to marry Ian, but he chose Lumi.

The reputation of the wind review is not very good, and it is still not long after the divorce.

There must be many rumors. But they can decide together, indicating that they are mentally prepared.

No matter what, I can only congratulate you.

Julie nodded: "Lumi is not bad. We have met before. Since you have decided, then congratulations."

Nicole also nodded: "Congratulations."

"Marriage is a siege. People inside want to go out, and people outside want to come in. It doesn't matter if you haven't been married, Lumi has already been married once, and she doesn't have a long memory. What are you planning?"

Nicole tutted. Look at her: "Yvette..."

Yvette raised her hand and surrendered: "ok, when I said nonsense, I congratulate you too!"

They joked and laughed for a while.

They heard someone talking and laughing outside and pushed the door in.

It was Lumi and several assistants.

Lumi was wearing a white wedding dress, and her whole body was bright and dazzling.

Looking at a few people in the room, she smiled: "Am I disturbing you?"

Nicole smiled, stood up and hugged her gently: "Why, you are the most beautiful bride today. You are the protagonist wherever you go!"

Julie also went over to hug and say Hi!

Yvette and Lumi didn't know each other very well, so they just shook hands lightly.

The assistant smiled and said, "The bride is going to put on makeup, sit here."

Ian smiled and walked behind Lumi, "You've worked hard, I'll go to the front to toast first."

Lumi nodded with a smile nod.

The harmony between the two seems to have come together because of love.

Ian turned around and looked at them: "How about you?"

Yvette stood up immediately: "I'm going too, my mother should be here soon, I have to pick her up early."

Ian nodded.

Just as Nicole was about to go out, she heard Lumi laugh and leave her:

"Nicole, can you help me with my makeup?"

Nicole paused, then nodded.

She and Lumi knew each other very well. She married Ian, and their contacts in the future would only become closer.

Julie also found an excuse to go out.

In the room.

Lumi asked her assistant to prepare the other dresses, and she would change them later. She chose makeup first.

When only Nicole and her were left, Lumi looked at her and smiled.

"Do you think it's unbelievable?"

Nicole nodded, but shook his head again.

"I thought you two were a bit tricky at first, but I didn't expect it to be so fast."

Lumi rubbed her lower abdomen: "Of course it's because of the child. It was the accident that happened to me. Ian and I didn't plan to hide it. It doesn't sound good to say it out loud, but when we live behind closed doors, we'll be happy."

Seeing her bad attitude, Nicole almost laughed. "Ian has a good reputation, so aren't you afraid to be like Samuel?"

Lumi smiled and shook her head, "Ian is different from Samuel, he is single-minded..."

Nicole twitched the corners of his mouth. "Do you mean that Ian knows the same person I know?"

Ian's girlfriends can all form a 100-member chorus.

Lumi paused and looked at her meaningfully: "Because the only person he has always liked is you."

Nicole froze and fell silent.

The atmosphere was stagnant for a moment.

She and Ian can only be friends and cannot go further.

They can be friends for a long time, but they will never be in love for a long time.

She is very clear, so she has always been measured.

Lumi stretched out her hand and shook Nicole's hand: "But from now on, he will always like me, I believe in him."

Nicole paused, "I have nothing with him..."

"I know that if you had any thoughts about him, he would not be so willing to get married now, so I am very grateful to you. I don't mind that you will always be friends, that's what I want to say." Lumi was very calm to say what was in her heart.

It was never a secret that Ian liked Nicole.

It's just that his liking is not precious because of the girlfriends who come and go around him.

But Lumi understood that the existence of those girlfriends was a curtain to hide his affection, so he couldn't see or understand.

Nicole smiled and nodded.

Lumi was a rare person who was confused and the most sober.

She was so specific that the initial embarrassment disappeared.

It feels more pleasing to see her.

The assistant had already finished arranging her clothes, and Lumi's makeup had also been chosen.

She smiled with anticipation on her face: "I deliberately chose today, Samuel will not come out to make trouble, I hope to get married today!"

Nicole twitched the corners of her mouth.

Get married?

What is this to expect?

Her phone rang, it was Clayton.

She Paused. She immediately walked aside with a smile to answer the phone: "Hello, Mr. Sloan?"

There was a moment of silence on the phone.

"Why do you call me?"

Clayton asked, with a bit of silence in his voice.

Nicole paused, then looked around to see that no one was there, and Lumi didn't pay attention to her either.

She then coughed in relief:

"Husband..."

Clayton's voice was filled with a warm smile: "Baby, I've only missed you after being separated for such a short time, do you want to take pity on you? Me, hurry back to me?"

Nicole couldn't control the upward curvature of the corner of her mouth: "Okay, I miss you too, I'll go out now."

After speaking, she turned to leave.

Seeing Lumi getting goosebumps all over the place. She smiled lightly, forget it, just look at it.

She has her own husband, so she won't pay attention to other people's husbands.

She Opened the door. Just looking at Clayton standing tall and straight, with a smile in his eyes, his eyes light and light, his hands are open.

Nicole smiled, and fluttered in his arms like a bird. She deeply felt that she was definitely poisoned by Clayton.

Since the undressing incident, she couldn't help but want to get close to him, kiss him and hold him high. The more of these, the better.

But she didn't want to be too obvious, so as not to make him cock his tail proudly.

So she got out of his arms, tidied up her clothes, and looked at him arrogantly: "You think I'm too strict, I also need a private space!"

Clayton smiled and turned the man Hold tight, her chin is against his forehead, and her tone is lightly stroked like a feather: "Then what should I do? I really don't want to leave you for a second!"
