

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1981

Chapter 1981 Nicole opened her mouth, always unexpected. She softened her heart and hugged him again.

After Lumi finished changing her clothes, she came out and looked at the two people who were hugging sticky.

Immediately, Lumi and her assistant in the room were petrified.

Does it have to be so tortured?

Lumi regretted saying that those things were in the past, it was really unnecessary.

She can't wait to start all over again. "Do you still know this is my wedding?"

she couldn't help asking.

Nicole and Clayton separated and smiled.

"I know, it's not that I've never been married." After she finished speaking, she dragged Clayton out.

Clayton didn't change his face, nodded and followed.

Lumi pursed her lips and stared, hearing that Clayton was decisive and ruthless in the capital world, never showing mercy, just like a tool man without emotion.

But it's not right. The man who was holding Nicole coquettishly was the same person as the legend?

Incredible!

“Ms. Makinen, it’s almost time, we should pass...”

The assistant behind urged.

Lumi nodded, and quickly turned her attention to herself, letting the person behind her walk over gracefully with her skirt in hand.

When the music sounded, everyone was still congratulating the Carter and Makinen families on their happy event.

Although there are speculations on the inside, everyone’s face on the surface is in place.

Camden and Louisa greeted the guests with high spirits, and had a very good relationship with the Carter family.

When the two people from the Lindstrom family came, they just said hello indifferently and went to their seats to sit down.

The identity is embarrassing, but they are all people on the scene. No matter how embarrassed they are, they have to bite the bullet and come over to congratulate, otherwise the rumors of the three families’ discord come out and everyone will suffer.

Only Kai and Nicole came over from the Stanton family.

Kai and Julie went elsewhere in a blink of an eye.

Nicole and Clayton were joking together, and the atmosphere was so good that no one else could blend in.

After a while, someone came over and whispered a few words at Nicole.

Nicole paused, looked up, and saw Ian winked.

She sighed and nodded.

Clayton raised his eyebrows, “What’s wrong?”

Nicole said in a low voice, "Ian asked me to help stop some people, and don't let people who the bride doesn't like go over and make trouble."

She said and stood up.

Clayton frowned, "Who?"

"Her sister, Kirsi "

Nicole said, and went directly to the door.

Kirsi appeared here in a beautiful dress and was entangled with Lumi's mother Louisa.

The smile on Louisa's face obviously couldn't hold back, and she couldn't even pretend to be angry.

Although Kirsi is not very popular, she is also a person who is often on hot searches. Her appearance has attracted the attention of many people.

Nicole smiled and walked over.

I heard Kirsi explaining to Louisa: "I just said a word to my sister and left. She didn't answer my call. I just wanted to congratulate her. After all, my sisters have been for so many years...", the scene will be extremely ugly.

But Kirsi didn't wink so much.

Nicole stretched out her hand to hold Kirsi's arm and smiled: "Whether you are here to congratulate or to add to the block, you know what you should be here."

Kirsi's face stiffened, she did not expect Nicole will come.

Louisa let out a long sigh of relief, "Ms. Stanton, thank you very much."

"You're welcome, Auntie, go and entertain the guests. Leave it to me here."

Nicole smiled, unable to pick out any flaws in her attitude.

As soon as Louisa left, Kirsi couldn't say so many high-sounding words.

She can make others speechless, but she doesn't dare to deal with Nicole like this.

Falcon Entertainment is the property of Nicole's family, and she can make it impossible for her to get along.

Still somewhat apprehensive.

Nicole looked gentle and approachable on the surface, but at this time she smiled at Kirsi, but when there was no trace of a friendly smile in her eyes, Kirsi felt a little threatened.

She paused and took a deep breath: "Ms. Stanton, what do you mean?"

Nicole released her hand and looked at her with a smile: "I don't care whether you like Samuel or out of jealousy and don't want to make your sister happy. But today, my best friend is getting married .

If Ian's wedding is ruined by your fly, I will never let you go."

She used the softest smile and said the harshest words.

Ian asked Nicole to stop people, which was the most correct. He knew Nicole's influence in this circle.

A small shrimp like Kirsi would not dare to be tough with her.

Kirsi's face changed a bit, and she took a deep breath. She took out a gift box from her bag and handed it over: "Since my sister doesn't want to see me, forget it. This is a little bit of my heart. I ask Ms. Stanton to pass it on on my behalf."

Nicole took it: "Sure."

Kirsi looked After taking a few glances at the entrance, he didn't stop, turned around and put on her sunglasses and left.

She has been a little difficult in the circle during this time. Samuel has not matched her since her divorce. Everyone thought that her backer had given up on her.

At this time, Samuel had already gone abroad and could not be contacted.

She bought a hot search for herself several times, but the response was mediocre, and it even aroused everyone's disgust.

She was not willing to succumb to those greasy old men, so she wanted to find some face from her family.

But after the confrontation with Lumi, the Makinen family even Camden stopped answering her calls.

Without her sister who loves her the most, she is really struggling.

However, Lumi could marry Ian in her second marriage, but it was really unfair that she ran into obstacles everywhere.

Nicole was relieved after watching her leave.

Samuel handed her gift to the waitress who was sorting the gifts.

"Put it with other gifts."

"Yes."

Nicole turned around and was about to go back, when a waiter suddenly ran over and said in a low voice: Ms. Stanton, Stanton's house is on fire, so please go back quickly."

Nicole stiffened and turned her head in shock.

She panicked for a moment.

Talking about the children and Floyd at home, if there is a fire, will they have an accident?

Just as she was about to run out, she suddenly remembered something, and gave him a wary look: "What my brother said? He should have called me. I'll go to my husband first."

She wouldn't easily believe a stranger's words.

Nicole has a long memory.

Just before I got in, the waiter continued to speak, nervous to the death: "Ms. Stanton, it's urgent, Floyd's car is waiting for you outside, and Ms. Nixon is also there. Let's inform Mr. Sloan for you."

Indeed, just now Kai After turning around, the person disappeared.

Julie is not there.

Did she hear about the accident?

Her cell phone has been muted, for fear of affecting the wedding.

Maybe she didn't hear it, and Kai couldn't find her, so she asked the waiter to come to her.

And as soon as she heard that Julie was there and the waiter said everything, she relaxed half of her vigilance.

At this time, the music started, the lights dimmed, and the bride had slowly entered the venue.

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1982

Chapter 1982 If you rush in now, it will definitely become the focus and steal the limelight.

Her dress had no pockets, and her mobile phone was with Clayton.

Nicole gritted her teeth secretly, unable to bear the confusion in her heart, and immediately glanced at the other waitress: "Please let me in and tell Clayton."

The waitress nodded quickly.

Nicole gritted her teeth and ran out with her skirt in hand. She opened the door of the hotel.

The car not far away really belonged to Kai, she ran over without hesitation.

She Just opened the rear door.

Instead of seeing the expected Kai and Julie, it was the man who wanted to tease her that day they met on the golf course.

Grinding?

The man glanced at her in amazement, and shook his head with a smile:

"Ms. Stanton, please meet me, it's really hard!"

Nicole suddenly felt relieved knowing that he had been deceived.

At least, Floyd said that the children are all right.

She lowered her eyes slightly, took a step back, and looked around, but there were no bodyguards around.

“Since you know that I don’t want to see you, then you should consciously get away.”

Nicole turned around and was about to run back.

However, Liliana sneered, clapped his hands, and suddenly revealed the person in the co-pilot behind him.

Julie learned that his mouth was tangled with tape and was controlled there. She looked at Nicole anxiously with red eyes, and wanted to say something.

Nicole’s heart sank fiercely, and her eyes looked at the man coldly.

“How dare you do it on my site?” It was her who moved!

Liliana looked at Nicole with a smile, and said slowly, “I’ve seen Ms. Stanton’s temper before, she injured me and was admitted to the hospital at the first meeting. For the sake of beauty, it’s okay to be a little temperamental. I should have come over earlier to talk to you, but unfortunately someone kept me from investigating your identity, which delayed a little time. But it’s not too late, I know it now. “

It’s even more interesting after knowing that.

It’s just that, he didn’t say it.

Liliana looked at her with a smile, and there was a bit of gloom in his eyes:

“Please get in the car, I’ll take you to dinner?”

Liliana acted like he just wanted to find an interesting prey.

Nicole looked at him coldly, thinking about how long it would take for Luca and Clayton to come.

But in the next second, Liliana’s smile suddenly converged. He looked at her gloomily, and evoked a wicked smile: “Ms. Stanton, if a friend is not enough weight, then add another one?”

He said, and pressed the key in his hand, the trunk automatically Open.

In the next second, Nicole saw that Kai was tied there, struggling hard, but in vain...

She was furious.

Her eyes looked at Liliana indifferently. "What do you want to do?"

Liliana smiled, gentle on the surface, but actually threatening: "It's just a meal, Ms. Stanton wouldn't dare?"

Nicole was stiff, she could feel the blood all over her body. Started to solidify.

A cold air rose from the soles of her feet, and there was no way to fight back.

Liliana was just sitting lightly in the car, someone who could threaten her.

Seems like nothing is impossible.

Kai and Julie knew.

She couldn't just turn around and run away.

Otherwise, with the character of killing people without blinking an eye, and treating human life as a child's play, they will not care about these two lives.

She suppressed the chill in her heart, took a deep breath, and took a step forward.

Ahead is the abyss.

But she didn't have a chance to step back...

But the next second, a big hand behind her suddenly grabbed her wrist.

Hold her firmly behind you.

Her face changed, and she looked sideways in shock.

It was Clayton who was supposed to be at the banquet.

Clayton's brows were indifferent, but he didn't smile. Looking at the car, his aura did not diminish at all: "It's been a long time, it's not polite to invite my wife to dinner without my consent, isn't it?"

"The moment Liliana saw Clayton, his face suddenly became a little fearful.

The corners of his mouth twitched without a smile, and he looked at Clayton:

"Mr. Sloan, who I thought it was, it's been a long time since I hadn't seen him. I'll have to talk about cooperation next time!"

Clayton looked indifferent. There is a bit of sharpness hidden in the eyes: "The cooperation will be avoided, and we will have to take a detour here in the future."

His tone was sloppy, without the slightest fear, and even with a bit of warning. He took a deep breath, his eyes narrowed a little.

Clayton lifted his eyelids slightly, looked at him, and his voice was extremely indifferent: "If you haven't come down yet, wait for my people to ask you to come down?"

Gritting his teeth, he glanced at Nicole unwillingly.

Still bend over to get out of the car.

When he got out of the car, the two men who were hiding behind also followed.

Nicole's shocked expression changed. She didn't even see anyone behind her just now.

Hidden so well.

I can't imagine that if she really got into the car, then she wouldn't even have a chance to escape.

Liliana stood there, looked at Clayton and sneered: "Mr. Sloan, it's going to be a long time coming, you have to be careful."

His eyes fell on Nicole, he chuckled lightly, looked at him unscrupulously, and then With people swaggering away.

Nicole breathed a sigh of relief behind him. She was really nervous just now. She hurriedly ran over to untie the rope and tape on Julie's body.

Although Julie was embarrassed, she still didn't lose her mind: "There are Kais..."

When Nicole looked up, Clayton had already tied Kai.

As soon as Kai was free, he ran over and hugged Julie and burst into tears.

He's Really crying.

Julie was also confused. The originally very difficult scene, the tears in her eyes were suddenly held back. She could only look at Nicole, then patted Kai on the shoulder to comfort him.

Nicole frowned, Kai was too fragile!

It's really a delicate flower in the greenhouse, it can't stand the wind and rain!

If Floyd saw this, he would have to faint!

Clayton walked behind Nicole and asked her in a low voice, "Are you alright?"

Nicole nodded. Although her heart was relieved, the good mood of attending the wedding was ruined.

She didn't expect that Liliana would take the initiative to come to the door. What purpose could he find?

The two watched for a while, but Kai didn't mean to stop.

Clayton couldn't help suggesting: "Would you like to send the Kai to the hospital?"

Nicole: "He doesn't seem to be injured."

Clayton: "I'm frightened, go to the psychologist."

Nicole: "..."

Julie raised her head and waved her hand embarrassedly: "No need, I'll take him back to rest for a while."

Nicole nodded, just when the bodyguards were coming, they were sent back.

Clayton held her hand beside him, very tight, probably a little nervous.

Although it seemed that he had the upper hand just now, it did not mean that he would not be uneasy.

"Clayton, why do you seem to be afraid of you?" Nicole asked.

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1983

Chapter 1983 Clayton glanced at her and smiled: "This person is treacherous, he can do everything. He is not afraid, but he has not yet figured out how much power I have here. If he knows that I am inferior to him, he will definitely fight back, does the hyena know?"

Nicole nodded.

Clayton's eyes darkened a bit: "He is."

Nicole was silent for a while, not making a sound.

For a while.

Clayton thought Nicole was frightened, so he stretched out his hand to hug her and patted her on the shoulder: "It's okay, it's normal to be afraid. He can't touch your head when I'm here."

Nicole paused. After a second, she slowly said: "But he put his brains on his family, and he told me that Stanton's house was on fire. I couldn't worry about my father and talking about it and ran out, but Kai and Julie were caught by him. I got caught..."

Next time, I don't know who it will be?"

Nicole didn't know what to do if the people around her were implicated.

She can't take good care of everyone.

But very guilty.

Clayton was silent, his eyes fell behind her, and there was no one in the direction: "Then drive him out, he won't be able to reach here."

His voice was cold, as if speaking to her, It seems not.

Nicole's heart felt like a boulder had been smashed, and ripples appeared.

For some reason, she relied on Clayton more than ever.

Before she knew it, her heart also changed quietly.

For a while.

Only then did Nicole look up at him: "How did you know I came out?"

Clayton smiled, "Do you believe in intuition?"

"Believe."

Nicole also rolled her eyes, Clayton touched her head and sighed: "You can't miss the important moment of the second young master, but when you weren't there, I felt something was wrong. When I ran out, the waiter at the door told me that Stanton's house was on fire, and I realized that something was wrong."

It is so.

Still heartfelt.

If he hadn't been so vigilant, Nicole would have been taken away by Liliana by now.

The two returned to the hotel, greeted the waiter over there, and went straight home.

There is really no mood to continue to stay.

Ferguson Corporation.

Mitchell was dealing with the progress of cooperation with the Stanton Corporation.

Eric sat on the side smoking a cigarette, his eyebrows indifferent and alienated.

Soon.

He pushed open the door and entered.

“Brother-in-law, the beautiful woman I saw last time was Clayton’s woman. Why don’t I take her to South Africa? Let alone an arms base, I have as many bases as I want!”

The office was quite silent.

Mitchell’s face darkened, and he looked at Eric subconsciously.

Eric’s face was extremely indifferent, and the center of his eyebrows was as cold as ice at that moment.

He raised his eyes and looked at him coldly: “Who did you see?”

“The woman who hit me on the golf course, don’t think I don’t know. You deliberately prevented me from finding her, so she’s your ex-wife, she’s so beautiful!”

Liliana recklessly recalled the aura of that woman’s appearance, the more he thought about it, the more he felt unbearable.

Eric looked at him with icy eyes: “You’d better not touch her.”

Liliana shook his head and smiled grimly: “My sister has your child, do you still think about that woman?”

Pretty is pretty, but she has a bad temper. Besides, she is Clayton’s weakness, if you catch her...”

Eric threw the cigarette in his hand on the table in front of him, his voice harsh: “I Say it, don’t touch her!”

Seeing that Eric was really angry, he squinted his eyes, and then smiled: “Okay, don’t move, don’t move, I didn’t expect you to be a person who loves fragrance and treasures jade?”

Eric changed the topic: "If that's the case, when will you take my sister over? It's not a problem for their orphans and widows to live abroad. I think it's better as soon as possible, otherwise the children won't know their father."

Eric frowned coldly and did not speak.

It was Mitchell who thought about it and said, "The last expulsion situation was an order from the public security system. Besides, Ms. Angie's identity is special, I'm afraid it will not be so easy to get in."

Liliana chuckled: "It's not that simple? Then, just like me, change my identity, am I different now?"

Mitchell paused and looked at Eric deeply.

Eric's tone was indifferent: "No hurry, wait for the completion of the matter. The new company will be established soon. Aren't you eager to whitewash the money in your hand?"

Liliana's eyes lit up: "Is there any sign of this?"

"It's already in the process. When the project is launched, I will arrange for my own people to sell it. You can buy at a high price in the name of the buyer, and then sell it again, and your money will be clean."

Eric's voice was indifferent, as if to say this extremely simple thing.

Liliana smiled and breathed a sigh of relief: "I knew that these hundreds of billions of things are a piece of cake in your hands. Brother-in-law, don't worry, when my money is safely in the overseas account, I will let your sister and mommy out. I'll give birth to a big fat boy with your sister later, and we'll be a family, kiss and kiss!"

Eric's face was cold, there was no trace of warmth, he couldn't see it any mood.

It's just that the atmosphere in the entire office is condensed and weird.

Immediately, Liliana's eyes flashed: "But I'm still not at ease."

Eric lifted his eyelids and remained silent.

Liliana curled the corners of his lips and smiled slyly: "I'm not worried about you, is the partner you're looking for reliable? Don't turn around and trick me. Let's go, I'm going to find a friend to follow up with him Looking at it. I feel even more relieved, Mr. Ferguson, what do you think?"

Eric pursed his lips without expression: "Whatever you want."

He looked like he didn't care at all, which made Liliana completely relieved.

"Okay, I'll let him come over in a few days!" Liliana laughed loudly, then stood up, patted Eric on the shoulder, turned around and went out.

A long time.

The office was quiet silent.

Mitchell looked at Eric's face, and suddenly felt a little uncomfortable.

"Mr. Ferguson, what you mean, Miss and Madam, are still in his hands. Could it be that they were directly hidden by his people?" And the trace of Quinn. Otherwise, they wouldn't be such a jerk.

Their plans have been put on hold again and again, isn't it because they haven't found anyone?

Eric's face was cold, his eyes were as deep as a calm sea, and the seabed suppressed the monstrous waves.

His jaw line was taut, terribly cold.

"He can put people in the hands of the falcon, and there is no need to hide them at all. It can only be said that people are not in his hands, and he can't find them. He lied to us."

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1984

Chapter 1984 The atmosphere was stagnant for a moment.

Mitchell was a little shocked, "Liar to us? But we don't have any news yet. If we turn our face now, I'm afraid..."

Eric raised his hand and his eyes were cold: "How is the preparation at the Stanton family? The project is important, they must rely entirely on foreign forces, and the Stanton family's foreign industry is completely independent of the domestic Stanton Corporation, which is the best help for us."

"You have already discussed with Mr. Stanton, naturally It's no problem, but if he asks later..."

Mitchell hesitated.

"Let's be honest when you ask. As long as we can lock up the black money. We will have the weight, and then we will be able to plan the next step."

Listening to Eric's words, Mitchell nodded, just looking at his In his eyes, it is indescribably complicated and profound.

If it weren't for the constraints, how could Eric, such a proud person, be in the company of such a person?

Show your love with a Little Donation. Click Here

Mitchell said, "Should we remind the Stanton family that Ms. Stanton is being targeted, it's not good..."

Eric closed his eyes, his thin lips pursed into a straight line: "No, let's talk to her. The less contact with her. The safer she will be, and the less Liliana will take her to heart."

Mitchell wanted to say something, but seeing that Eric had already made up his mind, the rest he said was nonsense.

It's just that he felt that if Nicole knew in advance to prepare, it might be safer.

But Eric's concerns are also justified. The fewer people know about this matter, the greater the hope of success.

After all, once the plan fails, Ingrid and Quinn will not be able to come back.

After what happened halfway through the wedding.

There are many more bodyguards in Nicole and Clayton's residence.

It was not convenient for them to live in the original apartment, so they returned to Stanton's house.

The happiest thing is to talk about the children.

Kai may have suffered a blow, and he had to come back with Julie.

Floyd disliked it.

Julie is also very helpless.

Kai is the purest member of the Stanton family. Even the second child, Nicole, has been plotted to escape death many times in order to protect the country's research results, but she has never been so frightened.

But Master Kai is completely different. He has never suffered such a humiliation since he was a child, especially after hearing the true identity of Liliana, he can't sit still.

He arranged more than a dozen bodyguards for himself and Julie. When he was the most prosperous in the entertainment industry, he had never been so high-profile.

It made Nicole shake her head every time she saw him.

Julie was making coffee, and said that the child has been able to run a few steps recently. Although she will fall over when she runs, she likes to stand and run.

She smelled the fragrance and ran to Julie's leg, staggeringly stretched out her little hand for a hug.

Julie looked at her with a smile:

"Wait a minute baby."

She put down what was in her hand and bent over to pick her up.

Talking about the child holding her face and taking a sip, she smiled and touched the saliva on her face, feeling a little embarrassed.

Julie knew that her heart would melt.

Kai walked in with a dejected look, and also stretched out his hand for a hug.

Julie smiled, ignoring his existence, hugged and talked about the child and went out.

Kai was very hurt: "I see, the doctors say I have post-traumatic sequelae, and I'm a patient, you don't comfort me!"

Julie: "Kai, you should tell us about learning and be brave!"

"Aren't you very brave at the time? When they attacked you, I rushed up first..."

Kai explained, his face still pale.

The other party took out their weapons, but Kai's bravery was used on her.

Julie smiled, reached out and stroked his messy hair, like petting a huge pet dog: "Yes, it's normal to be afraid, I don't mean to blame you, Kai but you can't make a fuss, Now even traveling is a problem, and I'll be going to work for one more day with you!"

She didn't feel helpless because of Kai's state, on the contrary, at that time, even if he ran away, she would not will blame him.

With the knife on his neck, he could choose to move the rescuer.

But he didn't.

His eyes were red when he rushed up, without the slightest hesitation.

conditional on her safety.

She was fine, but he was punched a few times, otherwise he wouldn't have been caught so quickly.

Fortunately, they all passed by without any danger.

But she didn't expect that Kai's sequelae would be so serious. He was almost better, but he couldn't get over it.

It is useless for Grant, Nicole and Clayton to take turns doing their inner work.

He would rather accompany Floyd and talk and play at home every day.

Kai paused, hugged her deeply and said, "One day is too little. You should take a year off, or half a year? A month?"

Julie looked at him without smiling: "I'll just resign."

"That's fine, you'll be responsible for spending money, and leave it to me!"

Kai agreed.

Julie had every reason to speculate whether Kai's state was faked?

Why is this purpose?

In the back garden.

Grant, Nicole and Clayton were playing cards with Floyd.

The four of them were talking and laughing, and the laughter came over, and Butler was watering the flowers behind, and he also echoed a few words.

The sun was very good, not arrogant or impetuous.

Floyd's flushed face was in good luck, and he groaned three times in a row, his mouth closed with joy.

Nicole counted cards in his heart, but no matter how he counted it, he felt that it was wrong.

Grant and Clayton casually chatted about the company's affairs, which was irrelevant.

Only Nicole and Floyd were concentrating on playing cards.

Clayton was sitting on her opponent's house. She should not have lost so badly, but now she has begun to doubt her life!

Just when Nicole didn't want to play anymore, Clayton's cell phone rang.

Clayton glanced at it, picked it up without any hesitation, and didn't hide it deliberately:
"Hello?"

Suddenly Clayton felt depress.

Nicole glanced at him. Clayton didn't lift his eyelids. He didn't know what the other party said. It was a foreigner, he answered a few times and hung up.

Then he continued to joke with Floyd sideways as if nothing had happened.

Floyd regarded him as his own son, and wanted to join forces with him to deal with Nicole and Grant.

Grant glanced at Nicole helplessly.

Nicole twitched the corners of her mouth, expressing her dissatisfaction.

Next second, Grant's cell phone also rang.

He looked at the number with a dignified expression for a moment, then walked into the distance and picked it up.

Not knowing what he heard, his eyes turned to this side unconsciously.

It seems to be looking at Clayton.

His face changed several times, slightly shocked.

The Divorced Billionaire Heiress Chapter 1985

Chapter 1985 Nicole subconsciously glanced back, just happened to meet Grant Sight.

In the next second, Grant looked away.

It didn't seem to stop deliberately.

He hung up the phone. He came over, his expression didn't change. He just sat in his place and put down the phone.

Floyd waved his hand: "Come on, another round!"

He was rarely happy!

Grant refused, "Dad, Aida said that she has something to do temporarily and has no time to pick up Levi. Let him eat at school."

Floyd was stunned: "How about that? Where is the nutrition in the school? I haven't seen it recently. The news says that all the ingredients used are bad? Are you greedy or a stepfather, let your son suffer this kind of crime!"

Show your love with a Little Donation. Click Here

Grant calmly lowered his head and sorted out the cards: "I won't go anyway."

Pushing the card, he glared at him angrily: "I'll go."

After saying that, he yelled at Butler to prepare the car, and he wanted to go to the school to pick up Levi in person.

Three missing one and Can't play anymore.

Clayton glanced at Grant meaningfully, and Grant glanced at Nicole lightly:

"The money you lose is mine, your husband won it anyway."

Nicole's eyes widened: "Brother, I Lost a lot too!"

Grant raised his eyebrows, "No way, your sister-in-law has been very strict recently."

Nicole: "..."

She stood up and ran away without saying a word.

Is this big brother still her big brother?

Clayton lowered his head and smiled, sorting out the cards slowly.

"Big brother has something to say?"

Grant gave him a deep look: "Your arms base in South Africa was bombed, don't you know?"

Clayton smiled, "I know, the one just now the phone has already notified me."

Grant pursed his lips and narrowed his eyes.

Such a big thing is enough to cause a sensation, but he actually looks like he doesn't care, and he still intends to continue playing?

He didn't understand a bit.

"Is this your plan?"

Clayton shook his head: "No, it is estimated that it was done by Liliana. It just blew up an arsenal. There was no ammunition in it, it was all empty shells, and there were few casualties."

This shows that Liliana I am still afraid, I just want to give Clayton a warning and scare him.

Let him not be so arrogant!

Grant stared at him motionless: "So suddenly, is he planning to make the next move? Or, he didn't expect it to be a trivial arsenal..."

Finally.

Clayton raised his eyes and looked at Grant with dark eyes, with a faint and warm smile on the corner of his mouth.

The movements of finishing cards are gentle and clean, and the shirt is slightly rolled up, revealing a cold white wrist, and the blue blood vessels are clearly visible.

He wants to calculate others, no one can see through.

"Brother, I promised Mr. Jenson that I would give it to him safely. As for the arsenal, the place is dead. If Liliana wants it, leave it to him. Anyway, things and people have already been transferred. The world is so big, how could he find it? "

His voice was cold, with a bit of casual emphasis. When he raised his hands and gestures, the cloud and the rain had taken shape.

Grant's eyes were slightly suffocated, and his appearance was dark and gloomy.

After a long time, he smiled lightly, and his voice was low and cold, : "Mr. Jenson just got the news, so I just wanted to ask if I need help."

Clayton twitched the corner of his mouth, "I started the transfer half a month ago. I have the intention to hand it over to the government, including the technical staff of my research base. They are the most cutting-edge scientific research talents in the world, and they are hard to come by. But...I want to ask Mr. Jenson for a small favor."

Clayton smiled lightly, and there was a little bit of a deal hidden in his words.

Grant pursed his lips and looked at him.

Clayton paused: "Kai's worries are right. It's all dangerous, I'm going to make a game and let him get out. Otherwise, I really can't let Nicole go out with peace of mind, and Big Brother doesn't want to worry about it all day, right?"

Grant's face softened slightly, "What do you want to do ? "

Clayton looked at him seriously and smiled.

As long as the interests come to one place, everyone's hearts will come together.

The business of the Stanton family is big, and it has nothing to do with the closeness of the top.

But Clayton didn't mind, he was willing to explain his own affairs to him patiently, even if they didn't need their help, he could reassure the people of the Stanton family.

He can protect Nicole, and even the entire Stanton family.

Floyd went to pick up Levi back to the old mansion for dinner, and only heard from Levi on the way that Aida was on a business trip today and asked him to follow Grant back to the old mansion for dinner.

That said, it was all planned.

It's not an ad-hoc decision at all.

He was played by his eldest son!

Floyd was so angry that he dared to help him on purpose!

It's one more than one ability!

He held Levi's little hand, and it wasn't too angry, but the more he thought about it, the less happy he became.

As soon as they entered, Kai came out of the kitchen wearing an apron and looked at them with a smile: "Dad is back, and the angry kid is back, ready to eat. Uncle cooks it himself!"

Floyd gave him a disgusting look, "It's really not doing the right thing."

Kai: "..."

Levi liked Kai very much, ran over and hugged his leg and raised his head, embarrassedly reaching out for a hug.

Kai raised her hand and gently kissed him on the face: "Okay, uncle cooks first, and said that my sister is playing games with Tigger, you go!"

Levi nodded embarrassedly, and then ran away Find and talk.

Kai looked at him seriously:

"Dad, please give me a little face in front of the children in the future, otherwise what will happen to my prestige?"

Floyd rolled his eyes: "Go, go, hurry up and call those few over for dinner, Otherwise, you will starve to death!"

As soon as Kai heard it, the fire was not aimed at him. He happily hummed a song and turned back to the kitchen.

Nicole changed clothes and went downstairs. Upstairs. She watched Clayton and Grant finished talking, and was walking here leisurely.

She lay on the window sill and glanced at it, shook her head:

"It's really handsome the more you look!"

Julie passed by, and when she heard these words, she hurried over: "Who is it?"

"Of course it's Big Brother. "

She touched her nose under cover.

Julie's eyes: You pretend, you pretend!

Halfway through the meal, everyone heard the movement of a car outside.

Mr. Anderson glanced at the surveillance camera and snorted: "Chairman, he is from the Lindstrom family."

Floyd frowned, "We have never had anything to do with the Lindstrom family. What are they doing here?"

Grant paused for a second and looked towards Clayton, then looked back as if nothing had happened.

Nicole noticed this and immediately understood.

It was to be trapped in Samuel, South Africa.

She looked up at Clayton: "Is it here to find you?"
