The Man Decree Chapter 821 – 840 (The Man like none Othere chapter 821 – 840)

Chapter 821 Antagonize

Colin looked upset as well, but not because his lackey lost. He was upset because he was embarrassed right in front of the ladies, and he quickly went into the fray in a last-ditch attempt to save his dignity.

Kristoff didn't lend a hand, nor did Kenneth. Both of them were looking at the man in black with concern.

Kai frowned as well. Even though the man in black was already showing a Top-Level Senior Grandmaster's level of strength, he knew the man in black was still holding back. The guy might look young, but he must already be a Martial Arts Grandmaster. He might be even more powerful than Hayden, Empyrean Sect's leader.

Demonic Cultivation raises a cultivator's strength quickly, just like they said it would. Or there's no way someone could be a Martial Arts Grandmaster at this age.

The man in black frowned. He wasn't scared of the martial artists from Shadow Estate, but if the fight went on, everyone would find out that he was a Demonic Cultivator.

"Goddmmmit! This is the first time I've been embarrassed like this! Men, kill this bstard and throw him into the sea!" Colin yelled angrily.

His lackeys quickly went into position, and their power levels started to rise. The man in black tried his best to keep his lethal intent in check, lest anyone find out about his real identity.

Just when the fight was about to begin, a young man in traditional clothes showed up, and a group of people in the same attire stood behind him.

There was a dragon embroidered on the left side of their clothes, so it was obvious that this group of people came from the Deragon family. "Trying to start a fight on the ship? Now that's just discourteous."

Godrick shot a look at Colin and the man in black before an invisible wave of pressure crashed over them.

Colin calmed down the moment Godrick showed up, and he waved at his lackeys, asking them to stop the fight. "Mr. Deragon, this guy injured one of my men. I think I am entitled to compensation at least," he told Godrick.

"I saw what really happened." Godrick looked at Colin, then he told the man in black, "You may leave now."

The man in black quickly left the scene. He felt nervous when Godrick showed up, worried that the man might see through him.

Colin was displeased by the fact that Godrick let the man in black go, and a frown formed on his forehead. "Mr. Deragon, someone has insulted us, and you let him go just like that? Do you expect us, the Shadow Estate, to take this humiliation lying down?"

"You crossed him just to flirt with a few ladies. If you think you're humiliated, feel free to take this matter to us." Godrick shot Colin a glare, and Colin felt a chill run down his spine.

Knowing that he couldn't get Godrick to side with him, Colin gritted his teeth and snorted. In the end, he and his men went back to their cabin, his desire to flirt long since ruined.

The Shadow Estate might be powerful, but not powerful enough to go up against the Deragons. The Deragon family was truly powerful, and they were big enough to snuff out any weaker entities.

After Colin went back to his cabin, Godrick looked at the ladies and told his men, "Get these ladies a room, and give them the card."

"Yes, sir."

Soon, the Deragons freed up a room and handed a card to Godrick.

“Ladies, you may come and see me if you need anything. My name is Godrick. If it’s fine with you, may we have some tea?” Godrick gave Josephine the key card.

“No, it is not fine with them.” Kai went and stood in front of Josephine before taking the key card from her. He then glanced at Godrick and left the place with the ladies without saying another word.

Chapter 822 What Do You Want

Godrick was caught by surprise, then he stared at Kai and started to frown. “Who is that man? Do I know him? Why do I feel like I’ve seen him before?” He wondered why he was feeling that way.

He had a feeling he had seen Kai the moment he saw him, but he couldn’t remember where he had seen Kai before.

Godrick might have come from a branch family, but he was still related to Kai. Kai’s mother was Godrick’s aunt, making him Godrick’s cousin.

However, there was no love between them. In fact, they were at each other’s throats, though Godrick didn’t know that just yet.

“Mr. Deragon.”

Kenneth and Kristoff went over and nodded at Godrick to greet him. They wouldn’t dare put up airs around Godrick, for he was a much more talented man than they both were.

Godrick nodded at them and waved his hand, telling everyone to leave the scene. He didn’t want any unexpected events happening while they were on their way to the island.

After Kai left with the ladies, he said jealously, “Well, I didn’t expect you girls to be so popular.”

Josephine giggled in amusement. “Why? Are you jealous?”

“I am not.” Kai shook his head.

"We're the only young ladies around. Everyone else is at least twenty years older than we are. It's only natural that we're popular." Lizbeth smiled.

What she said was true as among the hundred passengers on board the ferry, the ladies were the only young women around. It was little wonder that the men were so eager to help them out.

Renee said sweetly, "It's all because Josephine and Lizbeth are too pretty. That's why those men are so eager to show themselves off. I'd try to hit them up too if I was a guy."

"Oh, you really know how to make us happy, Renee." Lizbeth patted Renee's head, but then she remembered something, and her face fell.

"What's wrong, Lizbeth?" Kai asked curiously when he noticed the look on Lizbeth's face.

"It's nothing." Lizbeth shook her head. She was hit by a pang of sadness because she knew that Renee and Josephine might not come out of the trip alive.

Just when Kai was about to pry further, a few people got in their way. Kai turned around to see who it was, and it was none other than Sean and his men. Standing beside Sean was his brother, Sylvester.

"Surprise, motherf*cker. Are you happy to see us, Kai?" Sean sneered.

"What do you want, Sean?" Kai had actually noticed the Cooper siblings when they were still back at the hotel, so he wasn't surprised to see them on the ship.

Huh... Kai's too calm about this. Sean frowned. "You killed my brother. Shouldn't you be afraid of me?"

"On the contrary, I think you should be the one cowering in fear. If I can kill your brother, that means I can kill you too. If you want your family to be wiped out, you are always welcome to challenge me," Kai answered calmly.

Sean's face turned red with fury, and he pointed at Kai. "Don't be so sure of that, kid. Do you think we're afraid of you just because we didn't come looking for you? I'm telling you, I'll cut you down to pieces and make your women my plaything!"

Sean wasn't afraid in the slightest, for Sylvester was with him, and his fury mounted. However, just when Sean was about to attack Kai, Sylvester stopped him.

Chapter 823 Do Not Get In My Way

"Sylvester! He killed Xander. Now that he's right in front of us, why are you stopping me?" Sean couldn't understand why Sylvester was stopping him from taking revenge. It was the perfect chance as well.

"Did you forget what the Deragons said? Starting a fight on this ship means you're breaking the rules, but they can't do anything once we disembark. Who knows, maybe the Deragons will kill him for us. After all, bringing pretty ladies around with him in a place like this is just asking for trouble." Sylvester sneered at Kai.

This guy just embarrassed Godrick in front of everyone. The Deragons are famously arrogant. They will never leave this guy alive.

Sean finally calmed down after hearing that, and he scoffed at Kai. "Fine. I'll let you live for now, but I will make you beg for your life once we get to the island."

"F*ck off, mongrels. You're in my way. If you don't want to fight, then piss off." Kai shrugged their threats off and shoved Sean away before he and the ladies went to their room.

Sean glared at Kai and spat, "You might think you can insult us now, but you'll be paying for that." Then he looked at Sylvester. "Who are the Deragons anyway? Are they really powerful? I've never heard of them before. And what about the Shadow Estate? And the Thunderstorm Sect. I've never heard about them either."

Sylvester looked at his brother in displeasure. "You spend all your time partying, so of course, you know nothing about them. The Coopers would have fallen apart if it weren't for Xander. And I'll be staying in the ancestral land in the future. I can't come back frequently, so it's up to you now to support the family. You had better work for it," he scolded.

Sean took a step back and stopped talking.

The trip went by quickly, and everyone finally saw Dragon Island. Even before they disembarked, they could feel a freezing gale blowing at them, sending a chill down their spines.

It was summer, so there was no need for thick clothes, or so they thought. To their surprise, Dragon Island was covered in snow, the total opposite of what summer was supposed to look like.

When Kai saw the snow-covered island, he commented, "I see. So the legends are true."

The ferry docked at the pier, and Godrick announced through the PA system, "Passengers, the mountain you see before you is Mount Icedrake. You may disembark now if you wish to land here. We will go around the island in a while and disembark at the other pier. The choice is yours to make."

The ferry's spiral staircase descended, allowing the passengers to disembark. However, none of them left the ferry even after a while. Nobody wanted to land on an icy land. And since the whole place was covered in snow, there would be no herbs in a place like this, and all the martial artists came to the island to get their hands on the herbs and beasts, both of which the icy lands did not contain.

Since nobody was disembarking, the staff was about to pull the staircase back up, but then, Kai and the ladies appeared and went down the staircase, much to everyone's surprise.

Seeing this, the crowd broke out into a heated discussion.

"Is this guy mad? Not to mention he's taking the ladies with him? They might freeze to death here."

"They don't look like they're here on a treasure hunt. More like they're on a vacation. I mean, who in their right mind would take three women with them on a treasure hunt, right?"

"Ah, they won't freeze to death. They can huddle together and work out to warm themselves up. Get my drift?"

"Dang, that kid's one lucky b*stard to have three women at once."

The passengers were envious of Kai for leaving with the ladies.

After Kai and the ladies had disembarked, Kristoff and his men followed suit. Since Kristoff had taken his leave, Kenneth and Colin went with him as well.

The desire to disembark at this part of the island plummeted after the three young men took their leave. Although the crowd was worried about Kai and the ladies, they dared not take any action. After all, it was obvious that the men were after the ladies.

“What should we do now, Sylvester?” Sean asked Sylvester after he saw Kai disembark.

After some consideration, Sylvester gritted his teeth. “We’ll disembark as well.”

He had to avenge his brother, so they must follow Kai. He must kill Kai on the island if he wished to escape any punishment.

When Kai noticed the group of people following them, his face fell. The reason he chose to disembark at the snow-capped lands was that nobody else wanted to. Exploring alone would make it so much easier for Kai to claim the draconic essence.

If there were too many people around, it would make it hard for him to move around even if he had the map. He wouldn’t even take the map out in this case. If they knew he had the map of the island, they’d kill to get their hands on it.

Colin leered at Renee, and he was almost drooling. “Well, well, well, I didn’t think of you guys as a womanizer. But there are three of them, and there are three of us. This is perfect. We can have one each. I’m calling dibs on ponytail girl. She might still be developing, but she’s young. She’s mine, all right?”

Kenneth and Kristoff rolled their eyes. Is this guy here to flirt or hunt for treasure?

The reason Kristoff disembarked was that he wanted to get back at the ladies for embarrassing him back at the hotel. After all, pride was the most important thing for rich young lads like Kristoff.

Kenneth, however, wasn’t there for the women, nor did he have any dispute to settle. He only came because Kristoff did. He disliked Kristoff, and he wanted to compete with the guy at every possible chance.

Sylvester and the Coopers showed up at the same time as well. When Colin saw them, he frowned at Sylvester and Sean. "Hey, aren't you guys too old for younger women? Man, you think you have what it takes to woo a young lady?"

Sylvester and Sean were in their forties and fifties. Naturally, Colin saw them as middle-aged men. Why are they even trying to woo a younger lady at this age?

Sean wanted to teach Colin a lesson for insulting him. How dare a Grandmaster brat talk to me like that?

However, Sylvester held his brother back and smiled at Colin. "You misunderstood us, Mr. Zare. We aren't interested in those women. We have a beef to settle with Kai, and this is the perfect place to end things with him."

Colin pointed at Kai. "Is that the guy you're talking about?"

"Yes, that is correct." Sylvester nodded.

"Fine. As long as you stay away from the ladies. There's only enough for me and my friends," Colin agreed.

Sylvester smiled silently. The Coopers might be powerful, but he didn't want to cross the young men nonetheless. Besides, Sylvester came from a branch family, so if he really crossed the young men, he doubts his family would come to his defense.

Just as the Cooper siblings and their grunts were heading toward Kai, another passenger disembarked. It was none other than the man in black who injured Colin's lackey back on the ferry.

he saw the man in black, but he said nothing, for he knew the man was not to be trifled with. Even though he had asked his supposed friends to protect him, he knew neither Kenneth nor Kristoff would come to his aid. They were just friends in name only.

Kai noticed the man as well, and his face fell, then a frown furrowed his brows. Sh*t. Everyone here is powerful. This mission is getting harder by the minute.

However, all the man in black did was glance at them before going the other way. Evidently, he had no plans of walking with Kai and the others.

Someone announced through the PA system, "We will return in three days to pick you all up. If you cannot make it, then you shall be left behind on the island."

Godrick was still in his room on the highest point of the ferry, and he smirked at the passengers who disembarked. "Interesting. This group of passengers might spark something worth watching."

"Sir, do you think the one we're looking for might be among them?" Godrick's lackey was looking at Kai and the others as well. He said, "The older ones are out of the question, and the rich trio can't be him. Do you think it's the man in black? He looks like he has something to hide."

"There's no need to guess. We'll find out who he is in three days." Godrick narrowed his eyes. "I can't wait to meet my cousin. I wonder what he looks like."

The sound of a horn blared from the ferry, and it left the pier. After the ferry had left, Sean led his men and surrounded Kai. This time, Sylvester didn't stop him. Kai killed his brother, and Sylvester must avenge him.

Meanwhile, Kai remained as calm as a cucumber despite being surrounded. The ladies, however, were starting to get nervous, and they huddled around Kai.

"Hey, Kai. I bet you can't do anything now that you don't have anyone to protect you anymore, huh? We're in a remote place, and you're practically alone. Time to get my revenge."

Sean hurled a punch at Kai. As a Senior Grandmaster, Sean's punch alone was enough to create a small snowstorm, but that didn't faze Kai at all. Instead, Kai snorted, "Now that's one way to get yourself killed."

Just when Kai was about to punch him back, Renee leaped ahead instead. "You're not getting to Kai unless I say so!"

Renee closed in on Sean in a second, and that caught Sean by surprise. Since Colin wanted the ladies alive, Sean had to hold back. If he actually killed Renee, Colin might demand his head in return.

He reduced his strength by half, and the fighters finally collided. The collision produced a loud bang, and the shockwaves blew the snow around them up into the air, leaving nothing but the bare ground behind.

At the same time, Sean was sent flying backward from the impact. His insides were churning, and he coughed up blood from the injury he sustained.

“Sean!” Sylvester leaped up into the air and caught his brother, preventing him from crashing to the ground.

Everyone was dumbfounded to see Renee sending Sean flying with a single punch. Colin was excited, however, for he wasn’t scared of Renee’s overwhelming strength.

Chapter 826 Mind Your Words

Sean coughed violently, spewing up more blood as he did so. Sylvester quickly sent a sliver of his martial energy into Sean’s body and kept his injuries under control.

“Fck! I held back because you’re just a girl, but you went all out? I’m so going to kill you!” Sean was infuriated. A girl sent me flying with a single punch? That’s just humiliating! Just when Sean was about to fight Renee again, Colin came to defend her. “You should mind your words, you bstard! You’re a big man who just got beaten by a young lady! You’re weak, so just admit to it! Insult her again and I will tear your tongue out!” he roared darkly.

Sean was already livid, to begin with, and Colin’s insult stoked his rage. “Who the fck do you think you are? You’re just a puny Grandmaster! I can kill you with a single finger! What’s next, are you going to tell me that you’re from the Shadow Estate? Well, the joke’s on you cause I don’t even know what the fck kind of place is that! So buzz off!”

Sylvester didn’t expect Sean to insult Colin, and he frowned.

Colin felt murderous after receiving that kind of insult. He waved his hand down, and his lackeys came to back him up. The Coopers and the group from Shadow Estate were in a tense confrontation, and a battle was about to begin.

"Mr. Zare, my brother did not mean that. He was just being impulsive. I apologize on his behalf, but please do not stop us from taking our revenge," Sylvester quickly apologized upon seeing that they were going to start an unnecessary battle.

"Apology? That's some useless sh*t! Tell him to grovel before me and I might consider letting him off!" Colin refused the apology, and the retort made Sylvester's face fall.

"Mr. Zare, I suggest that you step back from this. I know you and your men are powerful, but we from the Cooper family aren't easy prey either." Sylvester's eyes glinted coldly.

Sylvester's threat did not work on Colin, however. All it did was add fuel to Colin's flame of anger. "The Coopers? What the fck kinda family is that? If you want a fight, then you're getting a fight!" Colin waved his hand. "Take them down! Show them what we're made of!" Colin quickly retreated from the battlefield. When all was said and done, he was nothing but a Grandmaster. All his enemy had to do was release their aura, and he would be defeated in no time. Since the battle was imminent, Sylvester ordered, "Take care of Sean." Then, he released his aura, and the pressure of a Martial Arts Grandmaster spread across a hundred-meter radius, covering everyone who was within the area of effect. Colin's face fell when he felt the pressure Sylvester was generating. He had actually snuck out for the trip, so he didn't bring too many powerful fighters with him. This guy is a Martial Arts Grandmaster? Dmn! This is going to be a problem.

If we're serious about this fight, then I might actually be on the losing side. Cr*p. That's going to be embarrassing. Doubly so, since it's right in front of the lady I'm crushing for. Colin actually had a little crush on Renee after he saw her fight, or he wouldn't have come to her defense.

He looked to Kenneth and Kristoff for help. After all, they had Martial Arts Grandmasters among their men.

Meanwhile, Colin's men were doing all they could to fight Sylvester's pressure, but the tides weren't in their favor. When Kristoff saw the pleading look Colin was giving him, he gave one of his men a look.

The old man nodded, and his clothes billowed in the air, though there were no winds around, and then he released his aura.

When the old man's aura came in contact with Sylvester's, they canceled each other out.

Colin's men took the chance to regroup, and Sylvester frowned. He looked toward Kristoff and the old man.

Kristoff stepped up and told Colin and Sean, "Can you end this battle here? We're here to search for treasures, and if possible, we might get to meet a dragon as well. We don't have to fight right after we land on this island."

Colin took the chance to make his 'graceful' retreat. "Since you're the one asking, I shall let this matter slide. I'll kill them off otherwise."

Kai looked at Colin, and he almost laughed out loud. Man, this guy is funny.

Sylvester wanted to smack Colin for saying that, but since Kristoff was taking Colin's side, he couldn't force the battle to continue. After all, he wasn't powerful enough to fight two families at once. "Very well then. If that is what you wish, Mr. Shalvis." With that, Sylvester left.

"Sylvester!" Sean called out to him, wondering why his brother wasn't picking a bone with Kai.

"We're leaving!" Sylvester glared at him.

Left with no choice, Sean could only leave, though someone had to come to his aid. Before he left, he shot Kai a nasty glare. "You can't hide behind your women forever, Kai. Remember that."

After the Coopers had taken their leave, Colin spat at them. "You think you're all that, huh, a*sholes? You only got away because I snuck out and managed to bring only a limited number of fighters."

Hearing that, Kenneth and Kristoff finally understood why Colin's parents let him come to the island with only a few Senior Grandmasters as his bodyguard. So this guy snuck out. The Shadow Estate must be in chaos right now.

After Colin was done flinging his threats, he turned around and asked Renee, "Are you all right, lady?"

Renee looked at him and nodded.

"Well, now that all the unpleasanties are done for, let me introduce myself. I'm Colin." Colin smiled at her and extended his hand.

Renee did not shake his hand. She simply answered "Renee" in a quiet tone before she went back to Kai.

"We should go now." Kai and the ladies left. They only had three days, so they had no time to waste anymore.

Colin saw her off, and he started to smile dumbly. "Renee, huh? That's a nice name," he mumbled to himself.

Kristoff was surprised to see Colin looking like he was in love. "You can't have fallen for her, can you, Colin?"

Colin nodded honestly. "Yes, I have."

Kenneth was surprised as well. "Bruh, you've slept with countless women, and you've never fallen for any single one of them. But that girl caught your attention? She's not even fully developed yet."

Colin glared at Kenneth. "Don't you insult my girlfriend, Kenneth! She's my type."

Kenneth wasn't scared of Colin at all, and he roared with laughter. "You're thinking too highly of yourself, mate. 'Your girlfriend?' She probably doesn't even like you."

Kristoff patted Colin's shoulder. "We know you're just joking. After all, you're someone who never sees things through. I give you two days top before you start to lose your love for her."

Colin declared, "I won't lose interest! I will win Renee over!" With that, he led the others in pursuit of Kai's group.

They had barely taken two steps when Colin turned around to address Kenneth and Kristoff, "Both of you aren't allowed to mess around with Renee's friends, got it? If you want to enjoy the company of women, I'll send you a truckload after we're back."

Kenneth snorted and replied, "Cut it out! I never said I was going to play around with any woman. That's all in your imagination."

He did not alight from the boat to pursue women in the first place.

Kristoff, on the other hand, had been interested in hitting on the pretty Josephine.

Colin's point-blank warning had him smiling and saying dramatically, "All right. I will sacrifice myself for your happiness!"

"Kenneth, Kristoff, I'll treat both of you to drinks after this!" Colin announced before setting off in hasty pursuit.

Kenneth and Kristoff exchanged a tense glance before following Colin.

Meanwhile, Kai had led Josephine and the others deeper into the island. After checking that no one was following them, he took out his map and checked it. He confirmed their bearings and continued walking.

There was little trace of human activity on the island. Thick snow made it difficult to see into the distance. Additionally, the island was shrouded in dense spiritual energy.

Josephine took a deep breath with her eyes closed. She sighed, "The air on this island is amazing."

Kai smiled at the sight of Josephine's expression and commented, "Don't breathe with your nose. Try to use your body to absorb the surrounding air."

Josephine could sense the spiritual energy on the island thanks to the detoxification pill she had consumed earlier; this was how she perceived the exceptional freshness of the air in regions with high levels of spiritual energy.

“You don’t need to lecture us on that. Mr. Deragon taught us that trick a long time ago,” Lizbeth teased.

Josephine and Lizbeth had both eaten detoxification pills. Their bodies had undergone changes that allowed them to detect the presence of spiritual energy. They also studied cultivation methods and learned to absorb spiritual energy into their bodies, officially embarking on the path toward spiritual energy cultivation.

“That’s great. The spiritual energy here is strong, and we can take the opportunity to strengthen ourselves,” Kai said.

The pores on his body expanded and began absorbing the spiritual energy around him as though they were starved.

Kai was now in the Fourth Tier of the Transcendence Phase. Defeating a Second Level Martial Arts Grandmaster was peanuts for him. Armed with his magecraft, Kai could give a Level Three Martial Arts Grandmaster a run for his money.

I wonder when I’ll achieve Core Formation Phase. Even a Martial Arts Grandmaster at his peak would hardly frighten me then!

Kai had never longed for power and strength more than he did at that moment.

He knew that being invincible was the only way to save his mother and make the Deragons pay for their crimes. His heart ached when he thought of the torment his mother had experienced for over twenty years.

Just then, Colin and his men caught up to Kai’s group. Colin rasped, “Wait for me, Renee. Wait for me.”

Though Colin’s abilities were equivalent to that of a Grandmaster, his pampered upbringing had not prepared him for the biting cold on the island.

Kai frowned slightly at the sight of Colin's men. It'll be difficult to execute our plans if there are people following us around!

Josephine teased, "Renee, does he actually like you?"

Renee looked displeased with Colin's pursuit. She knew why they were on Dragon Island, and their group needed to act alone, or they would only invite trouble.

Colin neared their group and grinned. He uttered, "Renee, you ran away so quickly. It was so hard to catch up to you."

Chapter 829 A Warning

"Why did you come after me?" Renee complained.

Colin stammered through his explanation, "I-I was worried that the Coopers would bully you, so I chased after you with some reinforcements. Plus, this island is dangerous. I wanted to protect you myself."

Renee replied curtly, "I don't need your protection. Kai, Josephine, and Lizbeth are more than enough. It's not like you can win anyone with your current abilities anyway."

Her scathing reply put Colin in an awkward position. Eventually, he muttered, "We have many skilled fighters in our family. I didn't bring them all along on this trip. Don't write me off because of my weak skills. I'm willing to risk my life to protect you."

His bold vow stunned Renee into silence. The young woman had never received such a heartfelt confession in her lifetime.

Noticing that her friend was at a loss for words after Colin's curveball of a confession, Josephine stepped forward and tugged on Renee's arm. She pulled Renee behind her and barked at Colin, "Don't even think about fooling Renee. Rich playboys like you are only good for your silver tongues."

Josephine then dragged Renee along as she turned and left. Lizbeth pointed a warning finger at Colin and hissed, "Don't you dare follow us."

The three ladies continued following Kai while Colin and his group trailed them from some distance. His stalking irked Josephine and Lizbeth to no end.

Kai tried to pacify them by saying, "Let them follow us. Just ignore him."

Kai had long dismissed Colin's presence as a threat despite his playboy behavior. In any case, the men Colin had brought with him were weak fighters, and if push came to shove, Kai knew he could defeat them easily.

They had been walking some time when a menacing howl pierced the silence.

The howl was so loud that the ground vibrated, causing a flurry of snow to fall from the trees.

Kai froze in surprise and sped in the direction of the howl, followed closely by Josephine and the others.

Colin jumped in surprise when he heard the howl. However, upon seeing Kai and his group heading toward the source of the howl, Colin plucked up his courage and led his men in pursuit.

Kai saw a massive white wolf after they had walked a short distance. The wolf had a snowy, white coat and was as big as an ox. Its eyes glowed eerily, and its hair bristled with hostility, looking like sharp, iron spikes.

A man dressed in a suit stood before the wolf. He glared at the beast, his body poised to strike at any moment.

The Cooper brothers were observing the man and the wolf from the side. Everyone else soon joined the fray, including Kenneth and Kristoff.

This was the first beast everyone had encountered since setting foot on the island. It looked unusually large, a consequence of absorbing the island's spiritual energy over the years. It was likely to be extremely intelligent as well.

The suit-clad man turned around slightly and noticed his spectators. He could not help but frown.

He had gone two rounds with the white wolf before this. Though he had not successfully killed the beast, he had the upper hand, and victory was merely a matter of time. Then, he would be able to kill the wolf and obtain its beast core.

Now that he had an audience, however, the suited man knew that it would be more difficult to escape with the beast core.

Kai stared at the humongous wolf and exclaimed in awe, "I never imagined there would be such a fierce white wolf in such a cold place. We might encounter more frightful creatures on our journey."

Kai did not know if he would find the rumored Ice Dragon and Flame Dragon on this island or if he even could defeat them and obtain the draconic essence. If a white wolf was already this strong, the two dragons were undoubtedly more powerful. The thought sent chills down Kai's spine.

Chapter 830 The White Wolf

Colin approached Kai. Like a know-it-all, Colin explained, "This white wolf must be as big as an ox thanks to the influence of giant dragons on this island. I heard that there are two dragons on this island that are covered in magical items. Any beasts living with these dragons on the island must have evolved to challenge their biological limits and become fearsome monsters."

He hoped that his knowledge would improve his relationship with Kai, which would considerably aid his pursuit of Renee.

Kai merely eyed Colin silently, dashing the latter's hopes.

Just then, the white wolf let out a growl and charged at its suit-clad opponent after observing the latter's momentary distraction.

The fur of the white wolf bristled, standing straight and sharp as a blade. It would surely draw blood if it made contact with human skin.

The white wolf leaped through the air, baring its fangs menacingly.

The suited man frowned and rolled out of the way, barely dodging the white wolf's attack.

He was a Martial Arts Grandmaster, and his struggle against the white wolf spoke volumes about the beast's ability.

Plus, the white wolf's high intelligence allowed it to identify an opportunity to strike when its opponent was distracted, causing the suit-clad man to fumble.

The suited man had barely regained his footing when the white wolf charged once more.

Startled, the man tensed all the muscles in his body and swung a fist at the wolf.

The fist landed smack on the abdomen of the white wolf, causing it to fly back from the impact.

The white wolf howled pitifully and landed in a heap at Kai's feet.

"Ah!" Frightened, Josephine and the girls stumbled backward.

Though they all knew martial arts, the size of the white wolf instilled fear in their beings.

Noticing Renee's fear, Colin assumed the role of a hero saving a damsel in distress. He pulled out the dagger at his belt and declared, "It's just a beast. I'll kill it!"

He stepped forward and was about to slash the beast.

A subordinate stopped him before he could approach the beast. "Mr. Zare, you must not approach the beast. It might swallow you whole."

After all, Colin was merely a Grandmaster, and it was entirely plausible for him to become beast chow.

The warning caused Colin to retract his steps and shrink in fear.

Meanwhile, Kai stared at the injured white wolf at his feet. The fur covering the wolf's abdomen had changed from white to black, and the ominous change was spreading rapidly.

Kai knew that this was caused by lethal intent entering the white wolf's body. The suit-clad man's fist had channeled his entire energy, which enabled lethal intent to enter the wolf's body.

Nearby, Kenneth and Kristoff similarly observed the change in the wolf. Their eyes widened in shock as they gasped, "Demonic Cultivation?"

Sylvester's guard immediately went up when he observed the change. Then, he glared at the suit-clad man warily.

The suit-clad man was about to step forward and end the wolf's life. He faltered when he noticed the audience's knowing stares. Realizing that they had uncovered his true identity, the suit-clad man froze in indecision.

"Damn it! He's a Demonic Cultivator. I freaking hate Demonic Cultivators!" Kenneth's temper flared, and he strode determinedly toward the suit-clad man.

Kristoff followed him, along with the fighters they had brought with them.

Every ancient family and clan member had been taught to kill Demonic Cultivators on sight. Consequently, Demonic Cultivators took extra precautions to conceal their identities.

Chapter 831 A Fair Share

Sighting his audience's rapid advance, the suit-clad man spared one longing glance at the white wolf before darting into the depths of the snowy forest.

"D*mn it! You're lucky you're a fast runner! I'd skin you alive if I got my hands on you!" Kenneth cursed.

Meanwhile, the wolf continued howling pitifully at Kai's feet. It sent Kai a pleading gaze as though begging for mercy.

Kai met the wolf's gaze, and he realized he sympathized with the creature.

Though the wolf was a beast, it evidently possessed some form of human intelligence, allowing it to understand human speech and make conscious decisions.

Kenneth approached Kai then and muttered, "The white wolf is huge. Its beast core must be incredibly precious."

He swung a blade in his hand, ready to send the creature to its end.

Gravely injured, the white wolf had no means of defending itself.

Just as Kai hesitated about saving the wolf, Kenneth's swinging blade was halted in its motion.

Kristoff had blocked Kenneth's attack, and he complained, "This white wolf doesn't belong to your family, Kenneth. Were you thinking of taking the beast core yourself?"

Kenneth fumed and retorted, "What do you want, Kristoff? The beast core belongs to whoever kills the white wolf first!"

"The white wolf is defenseless. Anyone can kill it with a simple stab. Based on your reasoning, the beast core is mine if I kill the white wolf now!"

Kristoff suddenly swung his sword at the white wolf while he responded to Kenneth's words.

"Kristoff! You despicable man!"

Kenneth hurriedly struck his blade toward Kristoff, forcing the latter to retract his weapon.

Their reinforcements assumed defensive stances behind the two men as though ready to fight.

Alarmed, Colin ran toward them and placated, "Kenneth, Kristoff, stop fighting. If the two of you injure yourselves over a wolf, we'll never be able to leave this island. That Demonic Cultivator won't let us off the hook, either."

His mention of the Demonic Cultivator did the trick. Kenneth and Kristoff swiftly brought their fight to an end after exchanging a punch.

If their families truly entered a fight, both parties would suffer unnecessary injuries and deaths, leaving a golden opportunity for the Demonic Cultivator to swoop in and steal the reward.

Kenneth eventually huffed, "I'm not scared of you, Kristoff. I don't want that Demonic Cultivator to take advantage of our distraction and obtain the beast core. We'll resume our fight once we leave Dragon Island."

"My pleasure," came Kristoff's firm agreement.

Colin added, "Kenneth, Kristoff, there will be plenty more beasts on this island. There's no need to fight over a white wolf. We can always split the beast core evenly. You know what? I'll even give up my share as a goodwill gesture."

Kenneth and Kristoff exchanged a glance and nodded tensely. "Fine!"

Just then, Sylvester stepped forward and piped up, "Mr. Carrall, Mr. Shalvis, the Cooper family arrived before all of you. Don't we deserve a share too?"

Kenneth took out his pent-up rage on Sylvester and roared, "Get lost! The Coopers are sh*t! You don't deserve a share with us!"

Humiliation washed over Sylvester after he was being told off by a young man like Kenneth. Still, he could only suppress his displeasure and rage. Even with reinforcements, Sylvester was too weak to defeat the members of the Thunderstorm Sect.

If he engaged Kenneth in a battle, Colin Zare of the Shadow Estate and even Kristoff of the Shalvis family might join the fight and worsen Sylvester's chances.

Chapter 832 An Enticing Exchange

The Coopers scarcely stood a chance under a combined attack by the three families.

Sylvester gritted out, "Fine. We're leaving."

He led his men away with a dark expression on his face.

Sylvester's embarrassing retreat had Sean complaining, "Sylvester, those fellows are too aggressive. At this rate, we won't be able to get anything worthwhile out of this island. We can't avenge Xander as well."

Sylvester remained stoically silent, his face a mask of deadly fury.

The silence dragged on for several minutes before he hissed, "Let's look for that Demonic Cultivator. If we work together, we don't need to fear those youngsters."

Sylvester had also noticed earlier that the Demonic Cultivator was a Martial Arts Grandmaster. The cultivator was undoubtedly lying low now that his true identity was exposed.

If we can track him down and propose an alliance, Kenneth and Kristoff will be no match for the power of two Martial Arts Grandmasters. We can easily take them down even if the Zare family joins the fray.

Sean stammered fearfully, "Sylvester, y-you're thinking of working w-with that Demonic Cultivator?"

If word got out about the Cooper family's cooperation with Demonic Cultivators, they would be cursed out for generations to come.

"This island is completely under the radar. No one will know what we've done. In any case, we can get rid of him after our partnership ends." Sylvester drew his finger across his throat, a deadly glint in his eyes.

On the other side, Kenneth and Kristoff had reached an agreement. They picked up their weapons and approached the white wolf, intending to kill it.

They raised their weapons just as Kai stopped them and asked, "Gentlemen, could you leave the wolf to me?"

"You want a share of the beast core too?" Kenneth asked in shock.

Shaking his head, Kai replied, "I don't want the beast core. I pity the wolf, and I want to spare its life."

His explanation sent Kenneth and Kristoff into fits of disbelieving laughter.

Kenneth sneered, "Who do you think you are? A heavenly savior? This white wolf is nothing but a beast. Why are you pitying it? I can sense a deadly aura from you, so I'm sure you must've killed fellow men in the past. Why are you expressing sympathy for a mere wolf if you can even bear to kill a fellow human?"

"Some people may be weaker than a wolf. As long as the two of you promise not to kill it, I can give you something in return."

Kai did not wish to resolve their situation with a physical fight. His present ability placed him at a disadvantage against the combined forces of the two families. Both the Carrall and Shalvis families had a Martial Arts Grandmaster each in their bevy of men, and Kristoff himself was a Top-Level Senior Grandmaster. Kai's odds of emerging victorious in the fight were not guaranteed.

Besides, Kai was more interested in conserving his energy to search for the draconic essence instead of fighting.

"What do you propose for exchange?" Kristoff asked, his interest piqued.

Kai pondered his question carefully. He knew both men came from affluent families, and average items would hardly pique their interest. Resultantly, Kai offered, "How about two detoxification pills? I'll trade two of those things for this wolf."

"Detoxification pill?" Kenneth and Kristoff were both stunned, their eyes widening in identical surprise.

Detoxification pills were a must for any martial artist seeking to enter the heavenly realm. Not everyone could enter this mysterious location, nor could any martial artist simply begin to practice spiritual energy cultivation.

The detoxification pill reconstructed one's body, opening up the possibility of sensing spiritual energy. If one successfully perceived spiritual energy, one could begin practicing cultivation methods to absorb spiritual energy into one's body. This was the most crucial step for any martial artist to embark on the cultivation of spiritual energy.

The creation of detoxification pills was not difficult, but there were fewer and fewer alchemy masters around, let alone those who knew how to craft the precious pills. Every wealthy family viewed these pills as a necessity, causing demand to outweigh supply, which turned the pill into an invaluable commodity.

Chapter 833 My Guarantee

Kristoff asked Kai excitedly, "Do you really have the detoxification pill? Show it to us! If it's the real deal, we can let you have the white wolf!"

Kai answered earnestly, "I don't have the pills now, but I guarantee I'll give them to you once we return."

"Are you messing with us right now?" Kenneth raged, swinging his blade toward Kai.

Colin immediately leaped in front of Renee after noticing her attempt to defend Kai. Colin pleaded, "Don't act rashly, Kenneth. Why don't you give him a chance to explain himself?"

Meanwhile, Kai vowed, "I promise I will give you the detoxification pills once we are back. You have my word. I'm the Lord of Medicine God Sect. Why would I lie to you?"

"The Lord of Medicine God Sect?"

They were stunned, unable to believe that someone as young as Kai could assume such a prestigious position.

Kenneth was the first to express his disbelief. "Can't you even tell a convincing lie? I know all about the Medicine God Sect. How can someone your age be the leader? I'm sure your lies only work on three-year-olds!"

"Kai wouldn't lie to anyone! He always makes good on his promises!" Renee shot back, glaring at Kenneth for good measure.

Kai had saved Renee's life, and she could not stand by and watch someone defame his character.

Renee's anger spurred Colin into action. He defended Kai by saying, "Kai doesn't look like a conman, Kenneth. Why don't you trust him this once? Let Shadow Estate be the guarantor of this deal. If Kai fails to produce the pills after our return, I'll get you two pills myself."

"Colin, you're blinded by feminine wiles. Why are you suddenly chummy enough to call him by his first name? Do you even know who he is? Do you have the confidence to be his guarantor?" Kenneth did not know whether to laugh or cry at Colin's behavior.

Colin continued begging, "That's not the point, Kenneth. It's just a white wolf. I'm sure its beast core isn't that valuable, and there must be loads more of these beasts on the island. Won't you have mercy this once?"

Kenneth eventually sighed and relented. "Fine. I'll trust this fellow for your sake. But I swear, I won't forgive him if he doesn't give us the detoxification pills when we go back."

"Thank you, Kenneth!" Relieved, Colin turned to Kristoff and asked, "What about you, Kristoff?"

"Since Kenneth has agreed, I have nothing more to say!" Kristoff shot Colin a wry smile before continuing, "But I'm telling you, Colin, don't get blinded by love. You're going to land yourself in trouble."

"I know, Kristoff. I'll be clear-minded about this. Thank you," came Colin's reply.

Kenneth and Kristoff led their men away, and Colin turned to Kai. "The white wolf is all yours, Kai."

Colin was an extrovert through and through, and he had no qualms about calling Kai by his first name like Renee.

Still, his behavior earlier had left a good impression on Kai.

Colin had a silver tongue and seemed rather carefree, but he bore no ill will.

"Thank you," Kai conveyed his gratitude to Colin.

Colin sputtered, "There's no need for such pleasantries, Kai. Renee sees you as an older brother, and I shall do the same."

He snuck a glance in Renee's direction as he said this, causing Renee to blush in embarrassment and avert her gaze.

Josephine and Lizbeth saw Renee's expression and immediately knew that the inexperienced girl was dazed by Colin's wooing.

Frankly, they would not know what to do if someone was trying to woo them as doggedly as Colin was doing to Renee.

Kai squatted gradually and reached out his hand to rub the white wolf's blackening belly. He transferred some spiritual energy into the white wolf and expelled all the lethal intent in its body.

At that moment, it was as if the white wolf knew Kai was trying to heal it. Hence, it stayed still and let Kai rub his hand all over its body.

It didn't take long for the white wolf's belly to return to its snowy white state. Then, it started to stand back up again.

It shook off the snow on its body and stared at Kai gratefully.

The white wolf then raised its head and howled as if it was thanking Kai.

"All right. Now that you're healed, you should leave. Make sure you don't get spotted again," said Kai as he patted the white wolf's head.

To everyone's surprise, the white wolf whimpered and started to rub its head against Kai's legs.

"You want to stay?" Kai looked at the white wolf and asked softly.

The white wolf nodded in response.

"It seems like the white wolf can understand what you're saying!" Lizbeth exclaimed excitedly when she noticed how the white wolf understood Kai's words.

"Although it's friendly, it's so huge that it can still bite off a person's head easily!" Josephine was still scared of the white wolf, even though it didn't show any sign of violence.

Just like a housedog, it kept rubbing its head against Josephine's calf.

At first, Josephine was frightened. However, she reached out her hand to pat the white wolf after seeing how gentle and friendly it was. Its fur was so smooth to the touch, and she could even feel a surge of warmth in its body.

The more she touched the white wolf, the more she liked it. In the end, she felt all warm and fuzzy when she squatted and leaned her face tightly on its body.

The white wolf then whimpered softly and nudged Josephine gently with its head. Josephine immediately understood what it wanted.

Gently, Josephine opened her legs and got on top of the white wolf.

The white wolf then got up and started running around in the snow with Josephine on its back.

Josephine held on tightly to the white wolf as the wind kept blowing in her face. She was cheering excitedly while riding the white wolf.

Lizbeth and Renee started chasing after them upon seeing how much fun Josephine was having.

"Let me ride as well!" Lizbeth and Renee shouted.

Soon, Lizbeth and Renee took turns riding on the white wolf.

Kai couldn't help but laugh upon seeing that. The white wolf is too cunning! It's making the girls like it so that it could stay with us. It seems like it knows the girls are the ones in charge here.

After a few rounds of wolf-riding, the girls returned with the white wolf. When Josephine saw Kai, she quickly said, "Kai, we're keeping this white wolf. You can't chase it away!"

"Yes, you can't send it away. Otherwise, the three of us are going to leave with the white wolf," Lizbeth added.

“Please keep the white wolf, Kai! It’s so friendly,” Renee pleaded.

In response, Kai merely looked at the three of them helplessly. Well, how can I possibly say no now?

Kai then threw a glance at the white wolf and saw the satisfaction in its eyes. It definitely knows what it’s doing!

“All right, then. The white wolf stays!” Kai nodded.

The three girls were over the moon. With the white wolf around, we won’t get bored on the journey anymore! Besides, we can even ride on it when we get tired. How convenient is that!

Colin and his men then followed Kai and the others toward Dragon Island. Kai kept mum when he noticed Renee had stopped chasing Colin away after that.

Chapter 835 Alliance

Meanwhile, the suit-clad man was utterly annoyed after losing the beast core and being surrounded by Kenneth and Kristoff. I’m already on the verge of a breakthrough. If I can get some more beast cores, I can achieve Fourth Level Martial Arts Grandmaster. If I’m lucky enough to get my hands on the legendary draconic essence, I might even be able to reach the highest level of Martial Arts Grandmaster!

With that thought, the man’s eyes were instantly filled with eagerness. Apparently, all Demonic Cultivators were very obsessed with power because, after all, they did turn to black magic to strengthen themselves.

At that moment, a snow rat suddenly ran past the man in a suit. He quickly raised his hand and faced his palm toward the rat and shot a wave of lethal intent at it.

Crack!

Just like that, he tore the snow rat apart. He was unperturbed when the snow rat's blood splashed all over his suit in the process.

Then, a thumb-sized, crystal-clear beast core dropped out from the snow rat's brain.

Who would've thought even a tiny snow rat would have a beast core? It seems like Dragon Island is quite an incredible place, after all! The man picked up the beast core in astonishment.

The moment the man was about to keep the beast core, he saw Sylvester walking toward him with a group of men.

The man in a suit furrowed his brows before putting the beast core in his mouth. He then stood in a fighting stance as he looked at Sylvester with caution.

"Calm down, young man. We come in peace. How should we address you?" Sylvester quickly uttered when he saw the man preparing for a fight.

The man in a suit sized up the people approaching him cautiously. He was relieved when he realized they were just members of the Cooper family.

"What do you want from me?" the man queried without telling Sylvester who he was.

"Young man, I'm sure you know Thunderstorm Sect, the Shalvis family, and people from Shadow Estate had joined forces. They're preventing the others from getting any resources on Dragon Island. Besides, they didn't even count the Cooper family in when they shared the white wolf among themselves. Hence, we'd like to join forces with you. If we don't stand up against them, neither of us is going to get anything out of this. Furthermore, your life's in danger," Sylvester said without beating around the bush.

The man in a suit was taken aback before asking cautiously, "Are you sure you want to join forces with me? I'm a Demonic Cultivator."

As a matter of fact, the martial arts world would despise anyone who had anything to do with Demonic Cultivators.

“Well, why not? Who would know about our alliance on this secluded Dragon Island? All we have to do is split up and cut ties after getting off of this island,” Sylvester said casually.

The man in a suit frowned and pondered for a while before nodding. “Okay. I’ll work with you.”

“That’s great! Now, we don’t have to be afraid of those three families anymore!” Sylvester laughed aloud.

The man in a suit then gave half of the snow rat to Sylvester. “This is nutritious and it can replenish your energy. We can’t just not eat for three days on Dragon Island.”

With that, the man in a suit started biting into the snow rat. He didn’t seem to care one bit, although he had blood all over his mouth.

Upon seeing that, Sean almost puked in his mouth because he had never eaten something like that.

Sylvester flashed a smile at the man in a suit and started indulging in the snow rat as well.

While doing so, a hint of satisfaction flashed across Sylvester’s eyes because he was just using the man in a suit. Once we get off of this island, I’m going to get rid of you before anyone finds out the Cooper family had joined forces with a Demonic Cultivator. If the elders of the Cooper family find out about this, I’m doomed.

Chapter 836 Buttering Up

Although the man in a suit was strong, he was still too young to realize the sinister side of human nature.

After he was done eating the snow rat, the man in a suit continued walking. Sylvester and the rest followed closely behind. Since they had already joined forces, the man in a suit wasn’t too wary of the Cooper family anymore. Except for Sylvester, who is a Martial Arts

Grandmaster, the rest of the Coopers are just Senior Grandmasters. None of them is capable of taking me down.

“Sylvester, what is that man doing? Why does he look so suspicious? Will he play tricks on us now that we’ve joined forces with him? If that’s the case, we’d have to leave empty-handed!” Sean grumbled while staring at the man in a suit.

Sylvester waved his hand in dismissal and argued, “You know nothing! In fact, we could be in for a treat.”

Sylvester knew the man in a suit was after the legendary dragon. If we can find the dragon, then draconic essence will be ours! In that case, this trip is going to be fruitful!

Most of the people on Dragon Island were actually after beast cores and herbs instead of draconic essence. After all, it was just a myth. One would count himself extremely lucky to even bump into a dragon.

As Sylvester and Sean were talking, the man in a suit whipped out a compass-like object from his pocket. He then mumbled something and infused the compass with lethal intent.

After that, the needle on the compass started spinning frantically before stopping gradually. The moment the needle stopped spinning, the compass emitted a cloud of black smoke toward the direction the needle was pointing at. Almost instantaneously, the smoke disappeared.

As soon as the man in a suit saw that, he grinned and ran in that particular direction.

Seeing that, Sylvester waved his hand and instructed the others, “Let’s follow him!”

Meanwhile, Kai, Josephine, and the others were referring to a map while heading toward the location where they could possibly find Ice Dragon.

Since the white wolf was with them, the three girls didn't feel bored at all. When they got tired from walking, they'd just ride the white wolf. Perhaps because of the white wolf's stench, they didn't encounter any wildlife along their journey.

"Renee, are you cold? I can give you my clothes!"

"Renee, are you hungry? My subordinates brought chocolates along! They can replenish your energy!"

Along the way, Josephine and Lizbeth were full of envy because Colin was very caring toward Renee.

"Colin, I'd love to have some chocolates as well. Aren't you going to share with us?" Lizbeth asked jokingly.

In fact, Josephine and Lizbeth just kept teasing Colin along the journey. In response, Colin took the opportunity to butter both of them up. If I can get Josephine and Lizbeth to like me, it'd be easier for me to get Renee to fall for me.

"Of course, Lizbeth! You guys can have some as well!" Colin then ordered his subordinates to distribute the chocolates.

Colin knew Dragon Island was going to be tough. That was why he got his subordinates to bring plenty of snacks to keep Josephine and Lizbeth happy.

After traveling for some distance, it got a lot colder, and most of them were shivering at that point. If they had known, they would've worn thicker clothes.

Josephine and the girls were hugging the white wolf tightly to keep themselves warm. Colin, on the other hand, was chilled to the bone even after putting on an extra few pieces of his subordinates' clothes.

A while after that, Kai started walking faster when his spiritual sense picked something up. The others picked up their pace as well to keep up with him.

After running for a distance, they came across a calm and deep pond stretching for over two to three thousand square meters. The rays of sunlight were reflected on the surface of the pond.

Chapter 837 The Appearance Of Ice Dragon

The water was so dark it looked like it was heavily contaminated. At the same time, it was also exuding waves of frosty energy.

“How is the pond not frozen, albeit this freezing weather?” Lizbeth uttered curiously while staring at the dark pond.

“Look! There’s someone in the pond!” Renee shouted in shock.

Kai and the rest instantly turned toward the center of the pond and saw a large, bulging rock. The rock was about four to five square meters in size. On top of the rock, there was a shadow of a man sitting with his legs crossed.

“Isn’t that the Demonic Cultivator? What is he doing here? Could it be there’s really a dragon here?” Colin recognized the man and voiced out in puzzlement.

Indeed, the man in a suit was sitting on the rock. At that moment, waves of black mist were seen rising from the surface of the pond. The man was sucking the black mist into his body.

Colin was utterly shocked because he had never seen something quite like that. Why does that look so demonic?

As for Kai, he couldn’t help but furrowed his brows. It seems like Demonic Cultivator suspects that Ice Dragon is here in this pond as well. That’s why he’s absorbing all the frosty energy to lure Ice Dragon out!

As the man in a suit was absorbing the frosty energy in the pond, ripples started to appear on the previously calm surface. Within seconds, waves were slamming against the rock the man was sitting on. It was as if the pond was showing its discontent.

Despite the turn of events, the man in a suit was unperturbed. He kept his eyes shut and sat still while the black mist surrounding his body thickened.

While everything was happening, Sylvester and the rest of the Cooper family were hiding behind a rock nearby. They stayed hidden, even though they had spotted Kai and the others when they arrived.

At that moment, neither Kenneth nor Kristoff was with Kai. In fact, only the people from Shadow Estate were accompanying him. Hence, Sylvester was confident in killing Kai if he were to attack. However, he didn't do that.

The priority now is to lure Ice Dragon out and take its draconic essence. If I take revenge and fight Kai now, I would have to exhaust my martial energy. I'd be too weak by the time Ice Dragon actually shows up! Sylvester opted to wait and see what would happen next.

Suddenly, a loud roar of a dragon was heard from under the pond. What happened next was as if the water in the pond had started boiling.

When the man in a suit heard the dragon's roar, he opened his eyes abruptly and slowly stood up.

When he got up, a huge wave rose from the surface of the pond. Immediately, a solemn expression flashed across the man's face.

Whoosh!

After a loud splashing sound, a dragon's head appeared from the surface of the pond, and it was making its way toward the man in a suit with its mouth wide open.

Everyone gasped in shock when they saw that. Even Kai couldn't help but widen his eyes in bafflement because he never thought there would really be a dragon there.

As for the man, he frowned and stomped his foot on the rock abruptly. With that, he jumped as high as several tens of feet off the ground to avoid Ice Dragon's attack.

However, Ice Dragon didn't seem like he was going to let the man off the hook. It leaped out of the water entirely and chased after the man with its mouth opened.

Right then, everyone finally saw what Ice Dragon actually looked like. Its body was made up of translucent ice cubes, and it was sixty meters long. There was something shiny on its head, presumably the draconic essence.

After seeing what the dragon looked like, Kai knew it wasn't a real dragon. That's not a real dragon! Instead, this is something created by some sort of arcane array or spiritual tool! It's like how I can create fireballs with Dragonslayer Sword by using my spiritual energy. Those are all illusions.

Chapter 838 Stand To Benefit

Obviously, Ice Dragon wasn't a real dragon because it was made up of ice blocks.

Inside its head, however, the sparkling red item was as real as it could be. It was the draconic essence, and it could be the thing controlling Ice Dragon.

Kai stared at Ice Dragon intently while it was chasing after the man in a suit.

As the man reached a height of tens of feet off the ground, it seemed like he'd reached his limit. Right then, he started falling back to earth and toward Ice Dragon's jaws.

His expression turned pale in the face of danger. With a flick of his hand, a frosty whip sword appeared in his palm. He then took a deep breath and aimed his whip sword at the dragon's head as he was falling down.

Gush!

When Ice Dragon saw the man trying to launch an attack, it suddenly spat out a spurt of dark liquid. The liquid was from the pond itself. After that, the air at the scene instantly got colder.

Although the dark liquid was aimed at him, the man in a suit didn't flinch. Instead, he'd even flashed a smile.

He fell through the liquid and stretched out his arm to point his sword straight at Ice Dragon's head. It was obvious that he was aiming at the draconic essence.

Clang!

Sparks flew as soon as a clash between metals was heard. Not only was Ice Dragon unharmed, but the impact of the clash left the man in a suit feeling numb all over.

The man then made use of the momentum from the clash to launch himself back up into the air again. This time around, however, his expression had turned solemn. Ice Dragon's body is too strong, and there's no way I can injure it. It can easily heal itself even after I've landed a blow on its head. After all, it's made up of ice blocks!

Indeed, the ice on Ice Dragon would just freeze up again in such a freezing environment.

Because the man in a suit was already exhausted, it didn't take long for him to fall back to the ground again. As he was falling, he planned to launch another similar attack.

This time, however, Ice Dragon didn't spit dark liquid at him anymore. Instead, it suddenly twisted its body and swung its tail at him.

Ice Dragon's tail swished toward the man rapidly which frightened him when he saw that. Since he was in mid-air and couldn't shy away, he had no choice but to raise his sword to block Ice Dragon's tail.

Thump!

After a muffled thump sounded, the man in a suit flew backward and crashed onto the shore. The man's face contorted in a grimace of pain as he tried to use all his willpower to stand up once again.

Everyone, including Kai and Sylvester, was gasping at the sight of that. Did Ice Dragon just take out the man in a suit with a swing of its tail? The man is a Martial Arts Grandmaster! It seems like the dragon is extremely powerful!

While looking at Ice Dragon, Kai reached out his hand to reveal Dragonslayer Sword. I have to do all I can and tread lightly.

Sean got anxious when he saw Kai drawing his weapon. "Sylvester, Kai is going to act now! We can't let him take away the draconic essence..."

"No one moves..." Sylvester stopped Sean from rushing out.

Sylvester preferred to stay put because he knew it would take a lot for Kai to defeat Ice Dragon. I'm just going to let Kai and Ice Dragon tire themselves out. Then, I shall step in and reap the benefits.

When the man in a suit saw Kai preparing to attack Ice Dragon, he narrowed his eyes and started chanting a spell.

As he was chanting, the surface of the pond began to rumble once again.

It seemed like the man in a suit didn't want Kai to fight Ice Dragon.

While the water was splashing aggressively, clouds and clouds of black mist were seen rushing into the man's body.

Chapter 839 Seize The Opportunity

Ice Dragon was agitated when it saw the clouds of black mist heading the man in a suit's way.

Very quickly, the black mist on top of the man's head started to form into a humongous fist. With a stomp of his foot, he dashed toward Ice Dragon rapidly.

Ice Dragon showed no weakness at all. After roaring majestically twice, it widened its mouth and rushed toward the man as well.

Two of them crashed against each other and got into an intense fight. Everyone on the shore instinctively stumbled backward to avoid getting caught in the middle of the chaos.

However, Kai remained rooted on the spot with his brows furrowed. I've underestimated the Demonic Cultivator's strength. His magecraft is incredible, and he has been hiding it well.

Right then, Kenneth and Kristoff arrived at the scene alongside their men. All of them were astounded by the fight they were witnessing.

Bang!

A long bang was heard. Ice Dragon and the man in a suit were seen backing away from each other. By the look of it, the man had definitely gotten the worst of it because he was sent flying across the air.

The man had landed heavily on the ground. His face was drained of all colors, and he kept coughing out blood.

As for Ice Dragon, it had suffered badly as well. Upon the collision, it dropped back into the water.

Gradually, the surface of the pond became calm again. Everyone was looking at the man in a suit solemnly.

"Sylvester, what now? That guy is no match for Ice Dragon, and it seems like he's done for. What are we going to do now?" Sean got worried when he saw how badly injured the man in a suit was. There's no way he can escape now since Kenneth and Kristoff are here. They will surely end his life since he's a Demonic Cultivator.

Sylvester kept mum while his face contorted endlessly. He didn't know how bad the man's injury was. At the same time, he didn't dare to step forward.

Colin smirked slightly when he saw the man in a suit on the ground while coughing out blood. I can finally take my revenge! Since the man in a suit had humiliated him on the cruise ship earlier on, Colin was going to seize the opportunity to kick the man when he was down.

Colin waved his hand to gesture to his subordinates to follow him. They had the man surrounded.

The man's expression changed dramatically when he saw Colin and the others closing in on him. He must be here to take revenge!

Besides, the members of the Shalvis family and people from Thunderstorm Sect were also staring at the man in a suit with murderous intent. If I don't do something now, there's no way I can escape.

"Haha! Aren't you tough? Now that you've fallen into my hands, I'll ensure you meet a fate worse than death!" Colin had satisfaction written all over his face when he glared at the man in a suit.

Unfortunately, the man was too badly injured at that point. Hence, there was nothing he could do besides staring at Colin with his angry eyes.

Colin was even more delighted when he saw the man not fighting back. He then raised his foot and stomped on the man's face forcefully.

Colin's act had utterly infuriated the man in a suit. I won't take it anymore! I'm a Martial Arts Grandmaster! How could I get humiliated by a puny Grandmaster like him?

Suddenly, the man in a suit was seen searching for something while running his hands all over his body. Colin immediately retreated cowardly because he thought the man was searching for a weapon.

Upon a closer look, Colin couldn't help but laugh when he saw the man in a suit whipping out a puppet doll.

"What the f*ck? Aren't you a little old to play with dolls?" Colin mocked.

Colin's subordinates laughed aloud as well.

The man in a suit paid no attention to Colin's mockery. He bit his own tongue and spat a mouthful of blood onto the doll.

Since he was already heavily injured before that, the man in a suit got even weaker after spitting that mouthful of blood. His face turned pale, and he was on the verge of losing consciousness.

Chapter 840 Cursed Child

After getting spat a mouthful of blood, the doll was immediately surrounded by a cloud of black mist. A menacing look then appeared on the doll's face before turning itself into a child with two fangs.

That scene was enough to get Colin and his subordinates to pee in their pants. Although they were all martial artists, they had never seen something like that. Hence, all of them started to back away hastily.

"Are you backing away?" Kai froze for a second when he saw the terrifyingly hideous child. He then quickly regained his composure and shouted at Colin, "The cursed child is poisonous! Get out of there!"

Upon hearing that, Colin and the others scrambled away.

However, one of Colin's subordinates didn't get away in time. A black figure was seen flashing across the man. Suddenly, the cursed child appeared on the man's shoulders and sank its fangs into the man's body.

Colin's subordinate instantly let out an agonized scream.

The fangs were releasing negative energy into the man's body. In a blink of an eye, the body of the man from the Zare family turned black. His eyes were wide open, revealing a sinister and horrifying expression.

Slowly, the man stopped breathing and fell stiffly to the ground. After that, the cursed child quickly moved to the next target.

Seeing that, Colin, Kenneth, and even Kristoff were stumped.

Sylvester, who was hiding in the dark, was also utterly frightened. He never thought the Demonic Cultivator would still be so strong, albeit heavily injured. The more he thought about it, the deeper the fear set in. And I thought I could kill him before I leave the island. I'd most probably be dead before I could hurt him.

Right then, Kai leaped into the air and dashed toward the cursed child.

Thump!

With a hard kick, Kai sent the cursed child flying.

The cursed child landed right next to the man in a suit, hardly breathing.

The cursed child and Demonic Cultivator were linked to each other. Hence, he was even nearer to death when he summoned the cursed child despite being incredibly weak himself.

However, it seemed like the man in a suit knew he was going to die, regardless. That was why he summoned the cursed child, despite the risks.

Colin's face was filled with terror when he asked Kai, "W... What is that?"

Kai frowned and explained, "That's a cursed child. Every Demonic Cultivator has one. However, it is something only a Martial Arts Grandmaster could do. Judging by how big that guy's cursed child was, I guess he's at least a Fourth Level Martial Arts Grandmaster." If he wasn't injured by Ice Dragon in the first place, I bet none of them could've taken him on.

The man in a suit got up slowly and opened his mouth. The cursed child suddenly transformed into a cloud of black mist and went into the man's body. With that, a new puppet appeared in the man's hands.

The man in a suit kept the puppet in his pocket and gradually backed away.

He then gazed in the direction where Sylvester and the others were hiding.

“Is this what you meant when you formed an alliance with me? Are you guys just going to stand by and watch?” the man in a suit fumed.

Upon seeing that, Kai used his spiritual sense and saw where Sylvester and the others were hiding. I was so focused on the man in a suit that I didn’t even notice there were people hiding there.

Sylvester knew he couldn’t keep hiding anymore, so he stepped forward with his men.

The man in a suit just kept glaring at Sylvester.

“What nonsense are you talking about? The Cooper family is a prominent family! Why would we work together with a Demonic Cultivator like you? Stop slandering me!” Sylvester had no interest in working with the man in a suit anymore since he had been badly injured.

The man in a suit was deeply infuriated upon hearing those words. “Fine! How dare you call yourself a prominent family when you go back on your words? You’re pathetic!”
