

The Mans Decree Chapter 731

Chapter 731 Bath

The Empyrean Sect wasn't far away from Mapleton at all. However, the path they needed to travel on was a mountain trail, so they had to slow their pace.

It wasn't until noon that they arrived at Empyrean Sect.

At that moment, hundreds of young ladies had gathered in front of the Empyrean Sect gates. None of them were the sect's members, though many were the sect's believers. The rest were villagers from nearby. It was a cramp sight with so many young ladies gathering there.

Jared was a little puzzled. Why are there so many ladies gathering in front of the Empyrean Sect? There are so many people here that we can't get in.

At that moment, a Senior Grandmaster shouted from the observation tower, "Everyone, we are back! Please make way!"

The Senior Grandmaster used his elixir field to shout louder than a loudspeaker. Those ladies promptly turned around and stood to the side when they saw the entourage.

A lot of women began to scream when they saw Carlos in red.

Carlos, on the other hand, smiled happily at seeing so many women.

Is Carlos really that popular with the ladies? Jared was bewildered. I know he's pretty handsome, but he's not some superstar. Why are there so many ladies going crazy over him?

Lyanna looked out of the carriage when she heard the ladies screaming.

All the ladies outside stared at her with envy as they wished they were the person sitting in the carriage.

When the entourage arrived at the gate, the Senior Grandmaster who shouted earlier spoke again. "Today is Mr. Xuereb's wedding day, thus we're opening the gates to allow you all to take a bath in our pool! The water in the pool came from our mountain's spring water. It can nourish your body, improve your mental and physical health. Most importantly, it can help you stay beautiful. However, all of you are only allowed to stay in the pool. If you ignore our rules and run around the place, don't blame us when we show no mercy."

Just as he finished speaking, the hundreds of ladies screamed and rushed through the gates.

The moment Jared stepped into Empyrean Sect, he could feel the surrounding spiritual energy becoming very thick. It made all the hair on his body stood up before he tried to breathe in as much spiritual energy as possible. Why is the spiritual energy here so thick? Is it because of the spirit spring?

He could barely hold back his desire to get a taste of that spring water.

However, he knew he would get found out if he ran around the place at that moment. He decided to check out the spirit spring during the wedding because everyone would be paying attention to the ceremony.

Soon, they arrived at a hall inside. The hall was more than a thousand square meters big. It was heavily decorated as well. As it wasn't wedding time yet, everyone was currently resting in the hall.

Carlos spoke to Weston for a while before leaving. Seeing that, Jared seized the opportunity to leave too.

"Everything's ready, Mr. Xuereb. All those ladies are still taking their baths," the Senior Grandmaster who shouted earlier whispered into Carlos' ear when he walked out of the hall.

"Good!" Carlos smiled. "Once I absorbed their negative energy, Lyanna's aptitude to bewitch will finally help me become powerful enough to even win against my father."

He slowly made his way to the summit behind the hall when he finished.

Jared sneaked out of the hall and also headed to the back by following the traces of spiritual energy.

At that moment, on the summit behind the hall, a huge natural spring pool appeared. Above that was a spring with an area of only a few dozen square meters that constantly poured water outward. The water that emerged from it was stored in the spring pool.

Chapter 732 Exciting Scene

More than a hundred young ladies took off their clothes and bathed in the spring pool. Some still wore swimsuits while others went fully naked. Jared was hiding behind a rock on the summit when he saw that magnificent scene. He was staring at them so hard that his eyes were about to pop out.

Drip!

He swiftly lowered his head and noticed his nose was bleeding. A drop of blood had hit the ground.

“Da*mit!” He quickly tried to stop the bleeding.

Even an energy cultivator like him had a hard time controlling his excitement when he saw that.

However, Carlos, who was standing not far from the spring pool, had no reaction whatsoever as he stared at the naked young ladies.

It reinforced Jared’s theory that Carlos was definitely no longer a man.

Carlos slowly sat down and draw weird symbols with both of his hands in the air. Soon, a small vortex appeared in the air. Those ladies in the pool didn't notice anything as they continued to play with each other.

Seconds later, a white mist began to rise from those ladies' heads. It looked like steam rising from hot water.

Those white mists were swiftly sucked into the vortex. Jared knew those were those ladies' negative energy, not normal steam.

As their negative energy continued to be sucked away, those ladies began to look pale. Their bodies started to shiver from a mysterious cold feeling.

However, they continued to stay in the pool because they wanted the water to make them look beautiful.

Jared shook his head resignedly. These ladies are going to die.

Still, it wasn't time for him to show up yet as Carlos would notice him.

Thankfully, just as those ladies were about to keel over and die from negative energy depletion, the Senior Grandmaster who shouted loudly earlier showed up.

"All right, everyone. Time's up. Please leave now. Mr. Xuereb has prepared gifts for you all," he announced.

When those ladies heard there were presents for them, they instantly got off from the pool, dressed up, and left with the Senior Grandmaster. They didn't know that they just lost more than ten years of their lives staying in the pool.

Once they all left, Carlos opened his mouth and swallowed the vortex in the air. "Ahh, there is so much negative energy! This will push my power to another level. I'll finally be able to reach the Martial Arts Grandmaster level and surpass my father after I absorbed Lyanna's negative energy."

He stood up and laughed excitedly.

Unbeknownst to him, Jared was hiding behind a rock not far from him. Although Jared wasn't really interested in him. It was the spirit spring that he was after.

After Carlos left, Jared hurriedly arrived at the source of the spring, which was so deep that the bottom couldn't be seen, and stretched his hand into it.

The moment he made contact, the spiritual energy erupted toward his body like a volatile volcano. He devoured the spiritual energy ravenously.

"There must be something inside..." When he touched the spring water, he knew the water itself didn't have spiritual energy. It came from whatever was within the source of the spring. He didn't know what it was, but it was definitely a magical item if it could release such a massive amount of spiritual energy.

Without any hesitation, he took off his clothes and dove right into it.

The deeper he went, the thicker the spiritual energy became. The surrounding also became darker as he dove deeper.

He could feel the pressure increasing as well. If not for his tough body, he would've been squashed into mush.
