The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3825 - 3828

With the rapid operation of the basic exercises, Levi Garrison's body and meridians were repeatedly quenched and strengthened.

If you observe carefully, you will find that at this moment, Levi Garrison's body has a faint golden luster.

After a few more days, Levi Garrison slowly opened his eyes.

Swish!

Those eyes were like two peerless divine weapons unsheathed, making people dare not look directly at them.

Levi Garrison stood up slowly, although there was no other movement, there was a terrifying aura in his gestures.

Steady as Mount Tai.

Levi Garrison just stopped there, like a towering mountain, giving people a feeling of thick and powerful.

"This power is really terrifying!"

Levi Garrison was overjoyed, and then he slowly threw a punch at the distant glacier towering into the clouds.

If there are outsiders present, there will definitely be a phenomenon that goes against common sense.

That is, Levi Garrison swings his fist at a very slow speed, but the power he carries is extremely terrifying.

It was as if the space where the trajectory of the fist wind whistled out seemed to be distorted in an instant.

There was also a piercing cracking sound in the void, as if the space was directly shattered after being extremely distorted.

boom!

After a while, the fist wind finally hit the glacier.

Boom!

After a while, the glacier suddenly collapsed, and a bottomless pit was smashed by the middle.

And with the pit as the center, it quickly shattered around, and the entire glacier collapsed in an instant and became a ruin.

The power of one punch is so terrifying!

“Two or three percent of the force actually has such power?”

Levi Garrison was also a little surprised, but more happy.

With this kind of combat power, even if it is the great power of Tiansi and the legendary world, what is there to fear?

It didn't take long for the three of Wen Lei to leave the customs one after another, and their strength also increased significantly.

Levi Garrison must be relieved that these helpers around him are more powerful, so he has more confidence.

“Let me tell you the good news. I have a lot of latest research results here, I hope it can be helpful to you.”

At this moment, good news came from the mind of God.

Levi Garrison and others immediately followed the Brain of God to the laboratory, only to know that the research results in the latter’s mouth were a new type of armor.

The surface of the armor is glowing with a dark red halo, and I don’t know what metal it is made of.

Although the armor looks as thin as a cicada’s wings, it contains amazing energy fluctuations.

“This is made by me using the aura of that super spiritual vein and the specialty spiritual stone. Do you want to try the strength?”

God’s Brain asked with a ho-ho laugh.

At the beginning of the period, Levi Garrison didn’t care too much. After all, a strong man of his level, no matter what kind of armor you wear.

It was all one punch.

“Try it, maybe I can give you some surprises?” God’s Brain was very curious about the combat armor’s practicality.

The power of Levi Garrison’s punch, God’s brain just saw very clearly.

This violent power is just used to test his latest invention!

“Okay, satisfy your curiosity.”

Levi Garrison is a little helpless, and he can only cooperate with this kind of science madman.

“But let’s go outside to test the effect, otherwise your experiment may be ruined.”

God's brain twitched at the corners of his mouth, and quickly ran out holding a battle armor.

It seems that he is really worried that Levi Garrison will throw a punch. This is a precious experiment that he regards as his life, and there is no room for failure!

Outside the laboratory, the Brain of God had already hung the armor on the remote glacier rock wall.

"Let's get started!" said God's Brain excitedly.

Levi Garrison slammed a punch at the armor for no reason.

Boom!

A small glacier was smashed to pieces again.

God Zhong hurriedly ran over to look for the battle suit. After a long time, he waved the battle armor in his hand, and his face was full of excitement.

Levi Garrison and others gathered around them one after another.

The crowd watched carefully.

It was found that the battle armor in the hands of God's Brain, although there were dense cracks, was completely stored.

"The strength of this battle suit is okay!"

Levi Garrison said with emotion.

He used 50-60% of his strength just now, but this battle suit actually resisted it?

The three of Wen Lei were also a little incredible. They could clearly feel how terrifying Levi Garrison's punch just now was.

"God's Brain, how many pieces of this armor do you have?" Levi Garrison asked.

The Brain of God smiled and said, "It has everything."

"Okay, pack them all and take them away!" Levi Garrison was not polite at all.

God's brain twitched at the corners of his mouth.

This thing was researched by myself, and it was still hot, so Levi Garrison took it to the pot.

Levi Garrison is very happy. With this armor, the defense of everyone in the base camp will be improved by another level.

Later, Levi Garrison also took a lot of other weapons researched by the Brain of God.

Although it is only a relatively traditional weapon, its power is far stronger than that of the Eternal Kingdom.

Of course, this also benefits from the super spiritual vein of Siberia.

Levi Garrison not only has greatly improved his cultivation, but his weapons and equipment are also full of rewards.

This made Levi Garrison feel particularly comfortable, because these things would be his trump card again.

the other side.

Because Tiansi was about to return, Gong Qianqiu also stopped all outward expansion actions.

The strength of the legendary world power has no reference, and Gong Qianqiu does not have enough confidence.

Although the upper limit of devouring has been raised through Sky Thunder Tempering, there is no super spiritual vein as an energy source.

Gong Qianqiu can't improve his strength at all by swallowing scattered aura and the skills of ordinary powerhouses.

Because of this, Gong Qianqiu has been very low-key recently. After all, the Town Demon Division has always wanted to exterminate her!

Gong Qianqiu felt the pressure doubled, and knew that this was by no means a long-term solution.

What's more, it's not her character to sit still.

So Gong Qianqiu secretly formed a special team after thinking seriously.

This team, led by Master Bone, searches for energy sources all over the world for Gong Qianqiu to devour.

As for Duguxiao, he also has important tasks in his body. Gong Qianqiu asked him to lead the dead soldiers and specially attack some loose cultivators.

After returning from the captivity, Gong Qianqiu absorbed all their skills.

Although this method could not be significantly improved, but adhering to the idea that mosquito legs are also meat, Gong Qianqiu also refused to come.

"I still have to find the spiritual veins!"

Gong Qianqiu was full of emotion, and some missed the super spiritual veins of the two alien races.

Inside the base camp.

Since there are so many things that have happened recently, Phoenix and others urgently need to report to Levi Garrison.

What's more, Levi Garrison has not shown up for a long time, which has caused many speculations from the following people.

Coupled with the pressure of Qianqiu's sect covetousness, the base camp is headless, and some people are even panicked.

Today's base camp urgently needs Levi Garrison to preside over the overall situation.

However, Phoenix and others searched all over the base camp to no avail.

The most important thing is that even Zoey Lopez and Levilia didn't know where Levi Garrison was going.

"The boss is missing at this time, it's really terrible!"

"Yeah, the people below can't hold back anymore."

"Tian Si's return is imminent, and he will definitely target us. After all, the boss didn't have a good time with them."

Phoenix and the others frowned, and were a little powerless to complain about the status quo.

Xiao Feng also quickly found out about Levi Garrison's disappearance. At the beginning, he thought that Levi Garrison was deliberately hiding it from himself.

It turned out that no one else knew Levi Garrison's whereabouts, and the master seemed to have evaporated from the world.

However, at this moment, the communication tool suddenly vibrated.

Xiao Feng took it out and watched it, feeling a little dazed for a while.

"Xiao Feng, what are you doing? I miss you!"

Gong Qianqiu's words made Xiao Feng instantly elated.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3827

Although this sentence is very common among normal couples, Gong Qianqiu almost never said it on his own initiative.

Xiao Feng even felt a little airy, and a strong feeling of longing filled his heart instantly.

“Qianqiu, I miss you very much too! It’s like every three autumns if I don’t see you for one day.”

Xiao Feng said affectionately.

Gong Qianqiu held back his nausea and told Xiao Feng a few words of sincerity.

Then he turned the conversation and asked, “By the way, has Yufeng Tiansi explained the situation to Master?”

“The Shentian Superintendent has begun to remind me, but my current status is not good to enter the base camp directly.”

Gong Qianqiu pretended not to know things.

“Qianqiu really doesn’t know the situation.”

Xiao Feng was overjoyed, and felt indignant again for the previous suspicions of Phoenix and others.

“Qianqiu, I’m sorry, I’m useless, Yufeng Tiansi was kidnapped by Duguxiao again!”

Xiao Feng then repeated what happened before.

After Xiao Feng finished speaking, Gong Qianqiu asked inexplicably: “How is it possible? That’s near your base camp!”

“With Master’s strength, even if Qianqiu Sect obstructs it, and Duguxiao is stronger, it won’t help at all!”

In fact, this is the real purpose of Gong Qianqiu looking for Xiao Feng.

However, according to the report of the person in charge of the dead man who attacked the base camp, Levi Garrison was not seen when defending against their attack.

This made Gong Qianqiu quite puzzled. The importance of Yufeng Tiansi is self-evident, and Levi Garrison has no reason not to take action.

“Master is missing!”

Xiao Feng said with a sigh.

Gong Qianqiu hurriedly asked: “Missing? What are you joking about? Qianqiu is staring at him. How could the master play missing?”

“I’m surprised too! But the master is indeed missing.”

“Even the master and Levilia don’t know where the master is. If he is here today, Yufeng Tiansi will not be kidnapped.”

“Your suspicions have also been completely cleared. It’s really a wrong move, and the whole game is empty!”

Xiao Feng said in frustration.

Gong Qianqiu comforted: “That’s a pity! If my suspicions are cleared, I can go back to the base camp with you.”

“Master is also true, I won’t tell you where I go, aren’t you the apprentice that Master values most?”

“If you know Master’s whereabouts, Yufeng Tiansi is absolutely foolproof this time.”

“Xiao Feng, I didn’t mean to speak ill of Master, I just felt...”

Xiao Feng directly interrupted: "Qianqiu, you don't need to explain, I understand, you are injustice for me!"

Although Xiao Feng did not show any strangeness on the surface, his dissatisfaction with Levi Garrison increased by a further point.

And Gong Qianqiu is also for this purpose, she deliberately guides Xiao Feng in every detail.

Frozen three feet is not a day's cold, Gong Qianqiu believes that as long as enough emotions are accumulated.

Then Xiao Feng can do some extraordinary actions.

"Okay, don't feel wronged, maybe Master has something to hide!"

"Since Yufeng Tiansi has been captured again, I have to continue to search for the whereabouts of Qianqiu Jiao, and everything will be fine when Tiansi returns."

Gong Qianqiu was very helpless and continued: "Once the problem is clarified, I will go to the base camp with you to see the master."

"It's just that I don't know where Master has gone? When will he be back? Only when he sits in the base camp can he be more confident."

"It's really good, I also hope that this day will come soon."

Xiao Feng was overjoyed, and this was the first time Gong Qianqiu took the initiative to say that he wanted to go back to the base camp with him.

But Xiao Feng was so excited.

"As for the master, as long as I have his movements, I will tell you."

Hearing Xiao Feng's answer, the corner of Gong Qianqiu's mouth rose slightly.

After chatting a few more words with Xiao Feng, Gong Qianqiu "reluctantly" disconnected the communication device.

Mass grave.

Inside the Qianqiu Church General Altar.

Gong Qianqiu's eyes were slightly condensed, and his thoughts were turning rapidly.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3828

Levi Garrison's whereabouts is a mystery, even Zoey Lopez and Levilia don't know, which is a bit strange.

"What on earth did Levi Garrison do to make it so mysterious?"

"Is it to improve your strength?"

Gong Qianqiu was busy and threw this thought out of the sky.

In her opinion, no one can compare to herself in terms of improving her strength in a short period of time.

Of course, Levilia is possible, because she herself devours the spiritual root and the spiritual bone, which is better than the root bone that she created in the later stage.

But Levilia is in the base camp, and according to the reports of the dead, Levilia's strength is not as terrifying as imagined.

Taking 10,000 steps back, even if Levilia has decided to take the path of extreme devouring, there are no super spiritual veins around the world.

There is not enough energy supply of spiritual veins, and it is also difficult for a clever woman to cook without rice.

Absolutely can't catch up with yourself.

“Levi Garrison should find a way to deal with me.”

“Since the way of ascension from themselves does not work, there is only another way left.”

“Destroy the energy source and stop me from continuing to devour.”

Thinking of this possibility, Gong Qianqiu sneered.

Even if he did not continue to swallow, Levi Garrison would not pose a threat at all.

Now the only thing that can attract Gong Qianqiu’s attention is Tiansi.

More precisely, the mighty ones who follow Tiansi.

Only by deeply understanding their roots can Gong Qianqiu have a better plan for the next step.

Judging from the current information, the legendary world is called Kunlun Ruins.

There are also many sects in the Kunlun Ruins, but the great powers there do not have any substantive achievements for reference.

Nei Ying in Zhen Mo Si also heard from the side that when Tian Si first entered the Kunlun Ruins, his cultivation base was only at the bottom.

“At that time, the strength of Tiansi was the only one in the town of magic, much stronger than Yufeng Tiansi.”

“But there is absolutely no Duguxiao as powerful as he is today.”

“In this comparison, even if you enter the Kunlun Ruins, you must at least be at the mid-to-high level of combat power, right?”

Thinking of this, Gong Qianqiu yearned for the Kunlun Ruins even more.

the other side.

Duguxiao also got the exact message that his father will return in three days.

This made Duguxiao excited.

Before the time of Tiansi's return was determined, Qianqiu Jiao was panicked for a while.

Duguxiao also doubled the pressure. After all, he was definitely number two when he slaughtered the major factions of the Demon Squad.

After Tiansi returns, he must also be an important target.

Therefore, Duguxiao was almost cautious and fearful in the process of performing tasks outside.

"I finally have the confidence."

Duguxiao couldn't help laughing.

At the same time, the biological father Xuan Ming also sent a lot of key information.

In particular, he introduced some Kunlun Ruins and his own situation.

Xuan Ming has now joined an evil sect in Kunlun Ruins called Taixu Shenzong.

The Taixu Shenzong majored in swordsmanship, and its overall strength was much stronger than that of the Qiongzong faction that Tiansi joined.

It's just that Taixu Shenzong lacks a real divine sword.

Otherwise, with the strength of the top powerhouses in the sect, the status of the Taixu Shenzong in the Kunlun Ruins can definitely be raised to a higher level.

You must know that in the real sword cultivator sect, a peerless weapon can make the peak powerhouse even more powerful, and the combat effectiveness soars.

This is also where the Taixu Shenzong has always been brooding.

For this reason, the disciples in the sect searched for divine swords everywhere, in order to achieve a stable status in the sect.

Of course, the Taixu Shenzong in the Kunlun Ruins can be regarded as a middle-level great sect.

It's just that Xuan Ming couldn't get in touch with the true core high-level executives of the Taixu Shenzong due to his strength.

However, after years of hard work and painstaking management, Xuan Ming has also gained a certain position in the Taixu Shenzong.

It is precisely because of this that Xuan Ming's return this time has only a few strong people in the sect to follow.

It's just that Xuan Ming's next words made Duguxiao's heart shudder.
