

Chapter 1011

There was a huge estate on a high mountain in Country M. Luxurious and majestic as it was, people might mistaken it as some sort of historical sites at the first sight.

The estate covered the entire mountain, occupying land of several square kilometers. No other human habitation could be seen in the neighborhood.

This was like a castle and whoever owned it would undoubtedly be an honorable figure in this country.

In fact, it was indeed the case.

The place representing the highest power of Country M wasn't the white house, as many people thought. It was this estate, which was also known as the Cloud of God!

The person who lived there was just Adam, the only man who had reached the God Becoming Level in Country M.

In terms of the real authority, Adam was even superior to the president. Of course, this was only known to the senior level in Country M. To most ordinary people, the president had the supreme authority.

Adam was having a sunbath there. He was already 60 years old this year but was even stronger and more energetic than some young men because he had reached the peak of the first grade of respectfully, and asked, "Teacher, your power has become stronger. Did you make another breakthrough?"

Adam opened his eyes and replied calmly, "Not yet, but it's almost there. Hannibal, what is it you want to see me about?"

This white man, with a young look and named Hannibal, was one of Adam's apprentices, who was already 45 years old in an appearance of a man in his twenties. He would have participated in the previous Kungfu Cup if he was younger.

He was one of Adam's best apprentices who was in the half-step God Becoming Level.

the God Becoming Level. His appearance had no difference to a man in his thirties.

He was now topless, sunbathing by his swimming pool. Around him were many hot beauties.

Others might think that Adam was indulging in sexual pleasures, but this was actually one of his practicing methods. Due to his strong spirit blood and violent temper, he had to release himself every once in a while.

Today was the day when he should do it, so he had invited a lot of hot and beautiful women over.

A white man, who was also very tall, came over to Adam. He bowed Hannibal said, "Teacher, the information bureau has reported that a man from H Country has been making troubles recently. He had wounded lots of people and made provocations deliberately towards Country M. The police are no match for him. They can't even touch his fingers."

Adam raised his eyebrows slightly, "H Country?"

Hannibal nodded, "Yes."

Adam said in surprise, "Those from H Country have always been very timid, especially here in our country. They are all cowards, who seem to be born to be bullied. Why is there an arrogant man now? Who's he? Is he a superpower?"

Hannibal replied, "He must be a superpower who shouldn't be underestimated. I heard that he killed more than 100 people in Country M within only a week. The senior level has been alerted now. They've sent lots of experts to arrest him."

Adam didn't seem to be interested in the man from H Country. He nodded and said, "Sooner or later, this man will die in our country. Don't bother to worry about it. Let's talk about you, Hannibal, how's your practice? You have been stuck in the half-step God Becoming Level for many years. If you don't make any progress, Tom will always be undefeatable to you."

Hannibal raised his eyebrows upon hearing this. He asked in an obviously unconvinced tone, "Tom, champion of the last Kungfu Cup?"

"Yes, it's him." Adam nodded. Obvious hostility flashed in his eyes when he mentioned that man.

Hannibal was an acute observer, who caught Adam's gaze in an instant. He asked, "Teacher, is this Tom powerful? Even you are afraid of him?"

"Humph." Adam just sneered, "Of course not. He is as weak as an ant to me. However, he does have an extremely outstanding martial arts talent. It's said that it's only been three years since he stepped into the superpower realm for the first time. But now he is already in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm and may have even reached the half-step God Becoming Level if the rumors are true. He's made huge progress in such a short time."

Adam's words made Hannibal raise his eyebrows. His gaze looked like there were flames rising in his eyes. He was obviously showing a strong interest and hostility towards Tom.

Hannibal was a militant. Nothing could excite him more than meeting a powerful enemy. And it was even better if the enemy was a foreigner, so that he could torture him to death!

"Really? Three years to the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. That's interesting." The corners of Hannibal's mouth were turned up slightly. Excitement filled his eyes. He had already regarded Tom as his prey.

Adam was satisfied with Hannibal's fighting will. He nodded and said, "I heard that he had taken a trip in Eagle Country recently and got some advice from that old woman. His next destination should be here, in Country M. As the champion of the Kungfu Cup, he will come to me for advice. Humph, ants don't deserve my advice. Hannibal, teach him a lesson when he gets here. Make him a cripple and throw him back to H Country."

Hannibal's eyes brightened more when he heard this. He licked his lips and replied extremely excitedly, "Teacher, you can rest assured. I couldn't be more willing to do this. As the champion of the last Kungfu Cup, I will definitely take great care of the new champion. Heh."

Yes, Hannibal had won the last Kungfu Cup by a landslide. If he hadn't been too old now to participate again, Tom might have lose in this Kungfu Cup.

Adam nodded. He trusted Hannibal's power and took it for granted that Tom was no match for him. What he had never expected was that Tom had made great progress. He was no longer the man Adam used to know. He was now powerful enough to challenge Adam!

Hannibal wouldn't be able to make it through. It only took seconds for Tom to kill him.

Adam thought of Tom as a nobody who was just lucky enough to absorb the Great Momentum of H Country and outdid himself in the Kungfu Cup. He was definitely no match for Hannibal.

Chapter 1012

After a pause, Hannibal added, "Sir, you are at the first rank of God Becoming Level. When you break through to the second rank, will you be able to surpass the God of War in H Country?"

Adam snorted and said, "I don't need to get to the next level to beat Albert, I can break him now, but now that the sect world has invaded, I'm too lazy to talk to Albert. When I break through to the second rank God Becoming Level, it's time for Country M to be extremely powerful! At that time, little H Country, you don't have to take it seriously."

After hearing this, Hannibal's eyes lit up. Then, he told Adam a lot of things, thinking that as long as Adam broke through to the second rank, then Country M's status as the world's strongest country would be well deserved. Moreover, it could expand wantonly, increase sanctions against H Country, and invade other countries!

If Adam could break through to the third rank, and he could even unify the world! it was indeed possible!

And his next task was to concentrate on breaking through to the God Becoming Level.

If he could become a master of the God Becoming Level, then would have two strong God Becoming Level players in Country M, cooperating with's incomparable national strength. By then, no country in the world would be able to resist!

As for Tom, the so-called Kungfu Cup champion, the so-called genius, was not worth mentioning.

If Tom really dared to come and ask his teacher Adam for a fight, then he would do something to let Tom, the little guy, know what cruelty was!

Speaking of this, Hannibal asked again, "Sir, I heard that the secret realm this time is very dangerous. Besides the strong from all countries, even the strong from the sect world will participate!"

Adam nodded and said, "Yes, this time the secret realm is opened. There are indeed a lot of people participating. As the previous Kungfu Cup champion, you have already been there once and are no longer qualified, but by then, I will give you another chance. This mystic realm is very dangerous and full of great opportunities. I heard that in addition to many treasures, there is also a flower that has condensed the earth's crystal. You must pick it by then! You understand?"

After hearing this, Hannibal felt a surge of blood in his body. He straightened his back and said in a very serious manner, "Sir, don't worry. I will never let you down!"

Adam smiled and said, "Well, I believe in your ability."

After saying this, Adam stood up, hugged the two beauties in front of him, jumped into the pool and began to enjoy himself.

Two more days had passed. In these two days, Tom had taken away a lot of the territory of the underworld and rescued many of his suffering compatriots.

It could be said that during this period of time, he had done all the things that his compatriots of H Country could ever dreamed of, but did not dare to do, and did not have the ability to do.

For a moment, he became the God-like figure of many people from H Country.

Just like now, after he took away another underworld's territory, These oppressed compatriots knelt in front of him after being rescued.

"Thank you for saving us!"

There were hundreds of people kneeling down in front of him. The scene was not grand, but still very touching to Tom. He could see that these compatriots were genuinely grateful.

Tom said, "If you really appreciate me, you should unite and strengthen yourself in the future not only physically, but most importantly mentally. Only when you become strong can you have the ability to protect your dignity and resist the oppression of Country M, understand?"

When they heard that, they looked pensive and did not immediately understand. However, as long as they could think, it was a good start.

Next, Tom stayed. He planned to teach these compatriots some simple fighting skills. He was going to leave here after all, but it was not enough to save them at once. He had to give them skills, unity, and courage.

However, while he was still teaching, two young men suddenly rushed in from outside. They were out of breath, and their faces were full of panic.

After breaking in, he shouted loudly,
"Something bad happened..."

The sudden appearance of the two immediately attracted everyone's attention and they all looked over. An old man stood up and said, "Longevity, A Gen, why are you in such a panic? With Tom here, what are you afraid of?"

After hearing the words Tom, everyone subconsciously smiled, which was an absolute appreciation and admiration.

But the two young men were even more frightened. One of them said, "There are a lot of police outside. They...they are here to catch Tom!"

The other young man echoed, "Yes, yes! There are so many police officers here. They all have guns. They are serious. They want to arrest Tom and get him back to trial! Something bad happened, and Tom should run quickly!"

"What?!"

When everyone heard it, their faces immediately turned pale with panic and became extremely afraid.

To them, the police from Country M was much scarier than those gangsters, and they didn't dare to provoke them at all.

Because they could hold a gun, the police had a very high power of law enforcement. Once the opposites resisted, the police would shoot at once!

And worst of all, as immigrants, they didn't have guns and had nothing to fight against the police.

In their opinion, although Tom was powerful and could fight several times, he was just a human rather than superman. How could he fight these armed police?

The old man also panicked and said to Tom quickly, "Tom, the police are coming to arrest you. You should go! Don't let the police catch you, or your life will be over!"

The others also persuaded, "Yes, Tom, run!"

"It's too late..."

There were many compatriots from H Country here, all kind-hearted people. It was because of their kindness that they were bullied and even humiliated by the locals in foreign countries.

If it weren't for Tom's rescue and teaching them strong skills and spirit, they would have been in darkness for the rest of their lives, so they didn't want to see anything happen to Tom!

That would make them feel too guilty.

However, Tom did not panic at all. A sophisticated smile appeared on his face and he said to the two young men, "How many police officers have come?"

"Many, probably more than 200!!!"

Chapter 1013

The moment he finished his words, the sound of police cars honking came from outside. It seemed that a lot of police cars were coming. All the people of H Country here turned pale with fear. They were extremely nervous and scared.

To them, the police of Country M were immortal beings, and they would never dare to provoke them.

They only have hatred, anger, and a little idea of resistance to the underworld. But when faced with the police of Country M, they had no such idea at all. They were in awe of the police.

That was why this scene happened. Most of the people of H Country present hugged their heads and squatted down in fear even though they did not see the police but only hear the sound of these police cars. They were all trembling with fear and had no intention of escaping at all, let alone resisting.

"It's all over, it's all over... The police are here. We're going to die!!"

"What should I do now? The police have guns. They will shoot us at any time. Last month, I saw Mr. Stewart was shot dead by a policeman. He just accidentally put his hand in his pocket and didn't pull it out in time to be shot dead..."

"Yes, the police are scary. Let's surrender quickly, or they will really shoot!"

"Tom, you should also raise your hand and surrender. You must not resist. They are not joking..."

They had already squatted down and put their hands on their heads. There were even a lot of them lying on the ground in fear, afraid that they would be shot by the police.

To be honest, Tom's heart was deeply hurt when he saw this.

He used to think that after his rescue and teaching during this period of time, these compatriots, even if their abilities hadn't got improved, they should at least be much braver.

But for now, he was thinking too optimistically. This deep-seated fear and cowardice could not be changed in a short time.

However, at the same time, he was more determined to make a scene in Country M!

He wanted to tell his fellows with his actions that Country M had nothing to be afraid of. These tall and strong men from Country M were also vulnerable!

Most importantly, he wanted to prove to the world that they were not the cowardly people they had imagined decades ago. There were still many capable and courageous heroes in H

Country!

And he was going to be the hero of H Country.

Although he knew that his actions were full of danger, and at the same time he would receive a lot of controversies and even abuse, he did not regret it at all. It was worthwhile to make a contribution to H Country and his fellows!

Taking a deep breath, he smiled and said, "What are you afraid of? Can 200 police officers from Country M make you so scared?"

They couldn't understand Tom's words and thought that he was too arrogant. He would be in danger if he had an exaggerated opinion of his abilities.

The old man said anxiously, "Tom, you must not be impulsive. These police officers have guns on them, and they are especially unfriendly to us!! If you resist, they will really shoot you! Tom, although you are good at fighting, you are still a mortal. You will be killed!"

"Yes, Tom, don't be impulsive. Just surrender! We'll get a lawyer to bail you out. No matter how much money we spend, we'll bail you out. Don't do anything stupid!"

To be honest, when Tom heard their words, he was moved, helpless but sad.

He shook his head and said, "You are too timid. Since you chose to live in Country M, you can't be timid anymore! You are from H Country and your every movement represents H Country's image. The more cowardly and tolerant you are, the more presumptuous and oppressive they will be. By then, you will leave the whole world with the image of people of H Country as cowards."

After hearing Tom's words, they felt ashamed. They all lowered their heads and did not dare to have eye contact with Tom.

But someone said helplessly, "Tom, you don't understand. We want to fight and live with dignity. But we're too weak, and we can't compare with people from Country M physically. Who can we rely on? And it's hard for us to make a living in the foreign country..."

"Yes, Tom, there's nothing we can do..."

They all shook their heads and excused themselves.

But their replies made Tom even more disappointed. Even with his gentle and easy-going nature, he couldn't help but chide out, "That's enough! You are excusing your own cowardice and this is the most cowardly behavior! Who said that people from H Country are born weak? I will now show you that in your eyes these powerful Country M's people are nothing but ants in my eyes!"

After a pause, Tom narrowed his eyes again and said meaningfully, "Dignity is what you've earned for yourself. If you're not strong enough and even look down on yourself, then no one will respect you!!"

After saying that, Tom left them behind and strode towards the door.

Everyone was stunned by his movements. They felt Tom's figure slowly grew taller and grander.

At the same time, Tom's actions brought them a different feeling...

However, even so, they still didn't think that Tom, as a mortal, could fight against more than 200 polices of Country M. It was just like kick against the pricks...

Just then, a voice came from the door through the high power horn.

"All the people inside, listen to me! You are already surrounded by us. I advise you to put down your weapons and walk out with your hands folded around your heads, or we will arrest you!"

It was the voice of the police, cold and stern.

They immediately turned pale with fear.

But there was no panic on Tom's face. He gave a half-smile and walked out calmly...

Chapter 1014

They wanted to stop Tom, but Tom had already gone out.

They could only stay where they were and worry about him, thinking that Tom would pay the price for what he did. They just hoped that Tom would not resist. Otherwise, these policemen would shoot him to death!

No matter what, Tom was a mortal. How could he bear a bullet?

After Tom came out, he did see a lot of police cars parking outside. There were more than fifty of them, and there were more than 200 police officers in bulletproof vests.

After he came out, the police raised their guns neatly and aimed at Tom. As long as Tom made any rash moves, they would immediately pull the triggers and kill him!

If an ordinary person encountered such a situation, he would definitely tremble with fear.

Being pointed at by hundreds of guns could make people stressed out.

But for Tom, that was small fry to him. He glanced around and saw that these were just ordinary police officers. There were no innate experts, so they were not a threat to him at all.

Since it was not in the suburbs but the downtown area, a lot of citizens were also attracted to there, who gathered around to see what happened.

Tom even saw a TV station recording and live streaming.

This scene was spectacular, which made Tom very satisfied. It was not that he wanted to be in the limelight, but under such circumstances, he could create the effect of making a big fuss and then force Adam to come personally.

It could also erase the image of H Country's cowardice, killing two birds with one stone.

Those citizens thought they were going to catch some terrorists so that so many police officers were dispatched, but now they saw that only a man from H Country came out, and he still looked so ordinary. They were disappointed and even thought that the police had done something wrong.

"What's going on? Why is there an Asian? I thought it was to eliminate terrorists."

"Yes, it's a waste of police force to send so many police forces to catch an oriental!"

"And this oriental looks very much like those from H Country. As far as we M people are concerned, they are famous for being timid. Anyone can bully them. The man can easily be arrested with only two policemen."

"Ha, two policemen? You think too highly of him. I think one policeman is enough."

"Haha, that's true..."

These citizens began to discuss, but they did not take Tom seriously. In their words, they also revealed the extreme contempt for the people from H Country.

When Tom heard this, he was not angry, but the corners of his mouth rose, and his heart was a little more excited. He liked to do the face-slapping thing. He wanted to see if these people could still grin a smile later.

When the police saw Tom, a police officer immediately came out and stared at Tom unkindly. "Are you the criminal who killed everywhere in Country M during this period of time? Who gave you the courage!"

This police officer was very tall, with a big belly and a dignified face. At a glance, he knew that he was not a lowly official.

Tom said, "I'm just doing justice for heaven. You people who oppress my compatriots of H Country deserved it."

"How dare you!!"

The police officer was furious when he heard Tom's words. He picked up his gun and pointed it at Tom. "You demeaned people should obey the law when you come to our territory! You should live happily in the shadow. However, you dare to kill my people? You are impatient to live! Now I'm gonna count to three, you will be good and be our guest. Otherwise, I will shoot you immediately and send you to God!!"

Other police officers began to load the gun and aimed at Tom.

If it were anyone else, they would have wet their pants in fear. In fact, in their opinion, Tom should have been trembling with fear and kneeled down to beg for mercy.

However, Tom's reaction surprised them and made them furious.

Instead of surrendering, Tom made an indecent and disdainful gesture towards them and raised his middle finger.

That was undoubtedly a downright act of provocation for them.

The officer's mouth twitched and he ordered, "Shoot!!"

As his voice fell, immediately, the police shot at Tom at the same time. Bang bang bang! the gun spewed fire.

In this situation, everyone thought that Tom must be dead. After all, no matter how fast a person was, how could he be faster than a bullet?

Many of the compatriots of H Country inside, hearing the gunshots, also became desperate and painful. In their opinion, Tom must have been killed.

They could not help but think of the last century, a superstar from H country performed in the Kungfu film "Fist of Fury". The last scene, the protagonist Chen Zhen was killed alive by many foreign guns.

How could a man beat a gun?

This was something from two different eras and could not be compared at all. In their opinion, Tom was Chen Zhen. He was of no ordinary talent, but there was no way to change his life against the fate, and he should be killed by the foreign gun in the end.

This was the sorrow of the nation and the sorrow of the times.

However, after they fired, they found that Tom's figure disappeared out of thin air. Their bullets fell into thin air and did not hit Tom.

This situation stunned them, and they couldn't react for a moment.

At the next moment, they could only feel a flash in front of their eyes. They could feel a gust of wind blowing on their faces. When they looked closely, they found that Tom was already in the face of the police officer and picked him up with one hand around his neck.

This huge change stunned all of them.

Because they had never thought that a person's speed could be so fast that he could even dodge a bullet. He was clearly more than 20 meters away just now. Why was he in front of them in a blink of an eye? This is completely unscientific!

The once insufferable police officer was now numb. He opened his eyes wide and met Tom's cold, playful eyes. He could only feel the goosebumps on his scalp.

An unprecedented fear swept through his heart. "You, you, you... Are you a human or a ghost..."

He struggled to ask such a question. In fact, this was also the confusion of everyone present.

for a long time because his neck was choked. He blushed and his feet were kicking in the air.

After all, he was big and tall, who weighed more than 150 kilograms, but now he was carried by Tom, who looked much thinner, in one hand. This scene would extremely impact ordinary people, which was like what happened in those science fiction movies.

The other policemen were no longer as relaxed and arrogant as before. They stared at Tom as if he was a major enemy. They held the gun tightly but they did not dare to shoot casually for fear of hurting their commander.

"Wow! Is he person a human or a

Chapter 1015

Indeed, they had never seen anyone move so fast like a ghost. Only in the blink of an eye, he was already in front of them.

For a moment, they even suspected that Tom was not a human, but a phantom. Only a phantom could have such a terrifying speed that even bullets could not hit it.

Tom lifted the fat policeman with only one hand and said tonelessly, "How dare an ant-like you threaten to arrest me?"

The fatty felt Tom's terrifying breath and intense killing intent, which made him shiver more. He couldn't breathe ghost? He had already appeared in front of the police officer, but I didn't even see his figure..."

"He is definitely a ghost."

"Could it be a mutant from a science fiction movie, like a superman?"

"It's too scary... It seems that the movie is real..."

Because of Tom's performance just now, the audience around did not despise him. Instead, they looked at Tom with fear and scare. Many people even thought that Tom was a ghost or a superman.

Tom did not react to the ordinary people around him. Actually, the noise was what he deliberately induced. The bigger the noise was, the faster Adam would come. To be honest, he no longer had much patience to stay in the Country M. Speaking of which, he had also left the H Country and Phoebe for a long time. Now he wanted to beat Adam, the stepping stone, as quickly as he could, and then return to his own country.

As for the Secret Realm, he was not really interested. Because he knew that with his current cultivation speed, even if he did not go there, shortly, he would be able to get a breakthrough to the God Becoming Level. It was only a matter of time.

The fatty suddenly became much more frightened. "You, you, you, let go of me quickly. You're attacking a police officer. You're going to be killed!"

"Really?" Not only was Tom not afraid, but he gave a sly smile and said, "I heard that the police in your country are all holding a candle to the devil. The local underground is bullying my compatriots but you won't save them. Your country is known as the most democratic and just country in the world. Is this what you call democracy and justice?"

Because Tom spoke in English, everyone could understand what he meant, especially his compatriots in the crowd. After hearing this, they all felt the same way and couldn't help but feel sad.

In the beginning, their ancestors, or themselves, had heard from some public intellectuals how good and great the Country M was. Without much consideration, they brought their family here and thought it was heaven. Unexpectedly, it was actually hell, hell for the people from the H Country.

They had wanted to go back to the H Country countless times, but everything was already out of control. They could not go back anymore. No matter how much they regretted it, they could only manage to stay here.

They hoped so much that someone would come to save them, but the disappointment and blows made them despair. They thought that it was an extravagant and impossible thing to happen.

Only now did Tom bring them a flash of light.

It turned out that there was someone from the H Country who was extremely powerful...

When the police officer heard Tom's words, his eyes flashed with guilt, but he did not admit it. Instead, he shook his head and said, "No... We don't... Anyone... Who comes to my... Country... is treated equally..."

It was especially difficult to speak when he was strangled by Tom, and he was about to suffocate at any moment.

The other police officers also explained, "Yes, this is a misunderstanding. We treat all citizens equally and there is no racial discrimination at all."

However, after they finished speaking, someone immediately jumped out to refute them.

"Bullshit! You never cared about us. Last month, my uncle was robbed and had called the police. None of you respond it."

"That's right. My brother was killed by a villain last year, and the criminal is not caught till now..."

"You are discriminating against us who come from the H Country. The Country M has never been heaven, but hell..."

Much more compatriots began to refute.

They made many policemen feel embarrassed, especially there were many tv stations were recording on the air, which made them even angrier. They pointed their guns at the people who were talking and threatened, "What are you talking about? Tarnish our image. Watch your mouth or I will arrest you."

After hearing the threats from the police, the people immediately did not dare to speak again. They all lowered their heads and were very scared.

When Tom saw this, the sneer on his face deepened. He didn't want to waste his time talking to the police. He looked directly at the tv cameras and began to speak. "Listen, all of you in the Country M. My name is Tom, from the H Country. I came here with only one purpose, to kill all the rubbish that oppressed my compatriots. Next, the dregs who dare to oppress and humiliate my compatriots, then wait for me to clean you up one by one."

After saying this, he swung his hand directly. The fat police officer, who weighed more than 150 kilograms, was thrown out by him. He slammed him into the trash can as if he was throwing a garbage bag. The fatty screamed miserably.

His action was enough to frighten everyone present.

Ever since the establishment of Country M, in their impression, there had never been a person from the H Country who dared to be so arrogant.

After all, this fat police officer was not a Mr. Nobody, but a senior officer of the police. But he was thrown into the trash can like this. This scene, for all citizens in Country M, was a great shock.

them. And now, Tom's appearance could be said to have greatly overturned their understanding, making them unable to react for a while.

Moreover, several TV stations were live streaming, and Tom's words were immediately spread all over the world.

In an instant, it spread like wildfire. Originally, these TV stations did not have too many viewers. In just a few minutes, the ratings were constantly broken!

All of a sudden, it almost radiated to the whole country. They all saw Tom's words just now and were furious. They thought that Tom was too arrogant. To them, it was an absolutely unforgivable

Chapter 1016

Indeed, to them, they had never seen such a thing before. They were all scared out of their wits.

For a moment, the scene was silent, and no one knew what to say.

Because none of them had encountered what Tom had just said.

Although they had made so many movies and so many superheroes and supervillains, in their bones, they all thought that their country was the most powerful, and no foreigner dared to be presumptuous in their country!

In particular, the people of the Eastern countries were more despised by violation and blasphemy!!!

So for a moment, in every part of the land, in front of the TV, there was an angry roar.

"This guy is too arrogant! He must be arrested!!!"

"It's better to kill that thug with our own hands and let him know that our country is the most powerful and greatest country in the world. A reckless man can never desecrate it!!!"

"You'd better not let me know who he is, or I will punish him on behalf of God!"

"Damn it, a lowly guy dares to be so arrogant. This guy wants to get him killed! The oriental is trash in my eyes, luxurious manor, Hannibal hurriedly walked in. His eyes were spitting fire, and he gritted his teeth and rushed in, saying, "Teacher! This Tom is really crossing the line!!!"

Adam was playing with a few beautiful women. When he heard Hannibal's words, he immediately frowned and said unhappily. "What happened that made you so angry? Didn't I tell you to keep your mind in check? Even if the sky falls, you have to keep calm. Look at you. Have you forgotten what I said?!"

Facing Adam's scolding, Hannibal felt a little guilty, but immediately he thought of Tom in the video and he couldn't help but get angry again. He took the tablet in his hand to Adam and said, "Teacher, you'd better watch this a coward's spokesperson. This guy is looking for death!!"

"Hmph, how can he dare to say such wild words? Is he going to be the guardian god of all people from H Country? Well, from now on, I will bully one of his countrymen every day. I want to see if he has the ability to trouble me!"

"But he's going to be executed soon, hahaha..."

Many arrogant people were angry and ironic. They looked down on the orientals from the bottom of their hearts. They all agreed that this view was deeply rooted.

At the same time, in Adam's tall and video first!"

Adam was intrigued by Hannibal. He quickly looked over and saw the video playing on the tablet. His pupils contracted sharply, and his face darkened and became furious at the speed visible to the naked eye!

"What the hell!!!" He let out a roar, and the chair under his feet was shattered by his shock. A powerful aura erupted from his body. All the blondes around were scared to death and trembled.

He stood up abruptly, his eyes fixed on Tom in the video, and he could spit out fire!

"Tom Howard!!!" He said the word almost through his teeth.

He had never been so angry before. Ever since he entered the God Becoming Level, he had been able to control his emotions very well, but now, he could not control his emotions any longer!

Because Tom's words just now had greatly provoked him and stimulated him!

Moreover, he could see that Tom was running towards him, provoking him, and even humiliating him.

He was a powerful figure of God Becoming Level. Even the President of Country M had to be polite in front of him. He was an immortal, and Tom was just an expert of Innate Realm. In his eyes, he was like an ant. Now he dared to go to his territory and provoke him like that. No matter how amiable he was, he had to lose his temper. Not to mention, he had a bad temper and was extremely irritable. At this moment, he had a strong murderous intent to kill Tom.

His murderous intent was almost solidified into reality. Even Hannibal was shocked and felt uncomfortable all over.

Hannibal's heart moved: the so-called Tom was already a dead man!

Yes, he had never seen anyone who could still be alive after provoking Adam, not a single one.

Adam's murderous intent lasted for and extreme approach, and no ordinary man would use it.

But Tom was bound to die.

How could Adam's majesty be offended by an expert of Innate Realm?

He was waiting for Adam's next instructions. And soon, he heard Adam saying, "Next, you do it yourself. Kill Tom directly with no mercy! Besides, the means must be cruel, must be rough! When the time comes, I will arrange a grand live broadcast for you, so that the whole world can see your heroic demeanor, and at the same time, let the whole world see that Country M is the most powerful country in the world!"

more than a minute before he slowly restrained himself. His eyes were already cold and he said, "This Tom is coming for me! How dare he! It must be that old ghost Albert's order to use the pressure I gave him to improve his behavior and break through to the God Becoming Level! According to his status as the Kungfu Cup champion, as long as he didn't humiliate me directly, I couldn't kill him... Albert, you old ghost, did take good care of him! However, he overestimated the strength of Tom and underestimated my temper!"

When Hannibal heard this, he also understood that Tom did this on purpose to provoke Adam, trying to use Adam's pressure to stimulate himself to break through to the God Becoming Level. This was a very risky

Hannibal was overjoyed and knelt down on one knee. "I will not disappoint you !!!"

Chapter 1017

Tom gave them a wry smile in the face of their anger.

The other sturdy police officer in front of him seemed to have been irritated by him as well. He said angrily, "You are actually committing a crime. You..."

"Noisy."

Tom only snorted slightly. Then, his body started to move as if he made a tornado without any external forces. He moved so fast that the air around him flowed quickly!

At the same time, Tom was about to pounce on that sturdy police officer.

Before the officer could react, Tom had kicked him. Tom did that so easily that it looked as if he were kicking a ball. The officer was kicked away and fell with his head down. And then he knocked over a lot of officers behind him, like a bowl hitting a group of pins in a bowling game.

Bang, bang, bang. A lot of police officers were knocked down.

In this case, the police all thought Tom was too arrogant and unruly. They had never been insulted like this, so they all shouted with great rage that they would shoot Tom to death.

So many of them immediately took out their guns and aimed at Tom simultaneously.

killed a policeman only with one punch and one kick. Sometimes, he could even kill more in a row without a single move.

None of these policemen was his match. They had no strength to fight back and were thrown by Tom onto the ground one by one like a pile of garbage.

All kinds of screams and groans were heard clearly.

It took Tom less than a minute to knock them down. This stunned all people from Country M. They were completely dumbfounded.

Tom clapped his hands as if he had just finished something insignificant. He However, although they had been trained, they wouldn't be a threat to Tom as they were all ordinary people. In Tom's eyes, they moved even more slowly than a snail did.

Tom then got himself prepared and rushed to attack those police officers like a wolf about to attack the sheep.

Bang bang bang...

The sounds of the punches reached everyone present. Meanwhile, it was shot by the cameras of all major television stations, so people across the country and even the world witnessed their fight.

Everyone witnessed Tom's ghostly speed and his terrifying strength. He did not even sweat with his clothes still tidied up as before.

"Who said he was going to arrest me and punish me? Come here."

Tom stood with his hands behind his back in front of the crowd of 200 police officers. He looked at them indifferently.

This was extremely shocking and unbelievable for everyone!

They had never thought it. They had never seen such a thing before.

For a long time, they couldn't come back to their senses. They suspected that they were hallucinating.

Even those who watched the live show stay, but that Tom's eyes were fixed on them.

This made them feel as if they were being stared at by the Death. Their feet seemed to be nailed into the ground, and they were unable to move at all.

The extreme fear made their legs tremble violently, as well as their whole bodies.

"No, no, no, don't kill me..."

They began to beg for mercy, and their voice of despair and fear reached the whole world. At this moment, everyone remembered Tom's face!

Tom walked slowly to the camera and said to it, "I will continue to stay in Country M for a week. I live in on TV were now dumbfounded.

Someone gulped and exclaimed, "Devil. He must be a devil..."

After saying that, he went mad and ran away.

As he ran, he called loudly, "Devil, devil!"

And this person was like a domino and suddenly made others break down and run away as well. Their faces were full of great terror, as if it were the end of the world.

After a while, the venue was almost empty, and only a few photographers with cameras were standing there.

It was not that they had the guts to Chinatown. Anyone who feels dissatisfied or unhappy with me can come to me. I will be welcoming."

After saying it, Tom turned around and left. Behind him, a huge crack appeared on the ground. It seemed that even the ground could not bear his weight and cracked all around.

Everyone looked at his back and did not dare to say a word for a long time!

Even those who watched the live on TV were pale with fear when they met Tom's eyes, as if they had been grabbed by the heart, and they even had difficulty breathing!

Those who had just threatened to teach Tom a lesson were all pale and Phoebe's younger brother, Logan, rushed to Phoebe with a tablet in his hand and said excitedly.

Just then, Phoebe was greeting a guest who just arrived. When she heard her brother's words, she was stunned and said, "What is it?"

"Look at it!" Logan was so excited that he took the tablet to Phoebe and clicked on the video.

After finishing the video, Phoebe lifted her lips. Her expression revealed that she was proud of Tom and also missed him very much.

Just as the other guests in the room saw the new arrival, they were immediately shocked.

speechless because of terror. They could not gather any courage to belittle Tom anymore.

At this moment, everyone in Country M remembered Tom.

Not only the people in Country M but also many people around the world were impressed by Tom after watching that live broadcast.

For a moment, Tom was being discussed all over the world.

The video soon reached H Country and Phoebe.

"Sister! Look, my brother-in-law was so powerful. He went straight to Country M alone and challenged more than 200 policemen. He was so cool!"

They had thought little of Phoebe and her family at first, but now they all changed the attitudes, especially to Phoebe.

Amelia, Isabella and Lexie's also saw this video later.

In the Military Intelligence 3, Pence and other senior managers cried in excitement after seeing this video. They praised Tom and admired him even more.

Within almost two hours, everyone who knew Tom knew about it.

Suddenly, something occurred to Pence. His expression suddenly changed and he said, "God! The reason why Tom became so high-profile was that he was plotting against Adam!"

Chapter 1018

When the others heard his words, they did not react for a moment. Thorn asked, "Director, what are you talking about? What does Tom want to do with Adam?"

Pence looked anxious and said in a deep voice, "Don't you see? Tom is the champion of this Kungfu Cup, and he could be guided by Adam. With his status, Tom is a junior in front of Adam. But now that Tom was so arrogant in Country M and said such things in the live broadcast, he was provoking and even trampling Adam! With Adam's temper, how could he stand it? He would definitely teach Tom a lesson!"

They were not stupid. When they heard Pence's words, they immediately understood and the expression on their faces changed.

Marlin said nervously, "So Tom is in danger! Adam is the strongest in Country M, a master at the God Becoming Level, while Tom is just in the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. The gap between the two is too big. They're not at the same level at all! If Adam attacked Tom, Tom would never survive!"

Another senior executive also said, "Yes, Adam is too scary. Even at the God Becoming Level, he is one of the strongest masters. Tom can't be his match... Alas, Tom has always been calm, but how could he do such an irrational thing! If something really happened to Tom, it would be a huge loss for H Country!"

"Director Pence, what should we do? We have to stop this from happening!"

The other top executives of Military Intelligence 3 were anxious after understanding this. In their minds, Tom was no longer an ordinary master of the Innate Realm. He was the future of the Military Intelligence 3, and also the future of H Country. In the future, he was a super genius who would reach the God Becoming Level!

They would rather sacrifice themselves than see Tom be in danger. Moreover, Tom congealed part of the National Fortune of H Country. If Tom really died in Country M, it would be a huge loss for the whole of H Country. It was something they could not accept!

Pence frowned deeply now. He couldn't figure out why Tom, who was so steady, would do such a reckless thing.

No matter how talented Tom was, he couldn't be Adam's match!

Could it be that Tom had another purpose?

But no matter what, Tom was in Country M, Adam's territory. After Tom said that, with Adam's character, he would definitely not let Tom go!

In fact, he also knew the inside story. In the Kungfu Cup, Adam once came to the scene. He wanted to kill Tom, but for some reason, Adam didn't do it.

Country M and H Country were not in a good relationship. Tom's behavior was equivalent to putting his own head on Adam's knife!

Another senior executive with glasses said in a deep voice, "Something's wrong. Tom is not a reckless person. He is very stable and mature. He must have his reasons for doing this! I think it's possible that Tom's strength has reached a very terrifying level. Was the reason why he did this to challenge Adam?"

Hearing his words, everyone was in a trance. Was Tom really that strong?

After all, Adam was a strong master at the God Becoming Level, known as the strongest in Country M. Even God of War of H Country was not sure that he could defeat Adam.

What about Tom? He was young. The most important thing was that Tom had only been in the Innate Realm for a few years. How could he be that fast?

No matter how well they knew about Tom's talent, they still felt it magical and unscientific that Tom had the ability to challenge Adam.

To them, the God Becoming Level was not an ordinary realm, but a god-like existence, the prime of a country!

No matter how amazing Tom was, he was young.

"That's impossible. How old is Tom? Even if he's a supernatural being, he can't improve himself so fast... Is it God of War's advice?"

Soon, someone raised an objection.

"Yeah, it must be God of War's idea."

"Anyway, Tom's behavior is still too dangerous!"

They all began to talk about it fiercely. They really couldn't keep calm about Tom's crazy behavior.

After they quarreled for a while, Pence said, "I'll call Tom and ask him what's going on."

Hearing Pence's words, they came to their senses. It was useless for them to discuss so much. Just call Tom and ask him directly.

Soon, Tom's phone was dialed and Tom's voice came through the speaker. "Director Pence, what's the matter?"

When they heard Tom's calm voice, it meant that nothing serious had happened to him, so they were relieved.

Pence asked quickly, "Tom, are you in Country M now?"

"Yes."

"Was it you who was broadcasting live? You're openly provoking Country M." Pence's voice was a little nervous.

Tom smiled and said, "What? Do you think I did something wrong?"

Pence said quickly, "No, I didn't mean that... But... Tom, wouldn't it be a little presumptuous for you to do this? After all, Adam is in Country M, a powerful master at the God Becoming Level!"

Tom was smart. How could he not recognize Pence's concerns? He smiled and said, "I was targeting him."

"Emm..."

Pence didn't know how to answer Tom's words for a moment.

After a while, he said, "Tom, may I ask if this is what God of War asked you to do?"

"No."

Pence's heart was in his mouth, and then he asked, "Is God of War in Country M?"

Tom smiled and said, "Director Pence, I know what you're worried about. Don't worry. I'll be fine. Adam may not be my opponent. Well, I won't talk to you for a while. I think there's a challenger coming to me. I'll deal with him."

After saying this, Tom hung up the phone. Pence and the others were stunned.

It took them a while to realize that Tom was really going to challenge Adam!

This was too crazy!

Chapter 1019

So they were all stunned for a while before accepting the fact.

When he realized it, Pence said, "It seems that Tom must be confident. We should believe him."

Although Pence said so, he still looked worried. Even he couldn't convince himself, and the others all looked anxious.

Joseph soon got the news. He immediately called God of War, Albert. "Hey, buddy, did you see what Tom did in Country M?"

Albert said, "I see. This guy is amazing."

Joseph said anxiously, "That's Adam, a master on the same level as you. Tom is only 30 years old. How could he be Adam's opponent?"

Albert said mysteriously, "It's hard to say."

"Buddy, what do you mean? You mean, Tom can really beat Adam? Is he already at God Becoming Level?!" Joseph exclaimed.

Even though Joseph knew that Tom was talented in martial arts, he still couldn't imagine that Tom could fight Adam.

As the leader of H Country, he knew very well how strong Adam was. It was because of Adam's existence and Country M's science and technology that Country M possess today's status!

Even God of War, Albert, could not beat Adam.

Tom, on the other hand, was only a 30-year-old man who had just entered the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm not long ago. But now he was going to challenge Adam. It was impossible for him to make such a fast improvement.

So he thought was that Tom was looking for death and he had to stop Tom.

After all, Tom was a super genius rarely seen in H Country for thousands of years. There was a part of H Country's fate congealing in his body. If he died so early in, then it would be a huge loss for H Country!

That was something Joseph could not accept.

However, Albert said, "Tom has congealed the fate of H Country, and his strength has improved tremendously. He is probably confident to make such a decision. Besides, he is just challenging Adam. As long as he does not die in Adam's hands, he will achieve a lot."

Joseph said quickly, "What if he died in Adam's hands?"

Albert remained silent for a moment and said, "Then that's his choice."

"You..." Joseph was speechless and didn't know what to say.

After a pause, Albert comforted Joseph for a few words to reassure him, but how could Joseph rest assured? But he knew what Albert meant. Albert would just let Tom do it.

Joseph was silent, and he had no choice but to accept this fact, because if Albert, God of War of H Country, rushed into Country M, the nature would be completely different, and it might even start a war between the two countries.

And the consequences were too serious for him to bear.

So in the end, Joseph could only sigh heavily and acquiesce to this fact.

Next, he called Tom to persuade him to go back and not to act rashly, but Tom rejected his proposal, showed Joseph his confidence, and told him not to worry.

At this point, Joseph sighed and hung up the phone.

Besides Joseph, many people who knew Tom gave Tom a call.

After all, what Tom did today was too shocking for them.

Tom hung up the phone and felt warm. Although he had been away from H Country for a long time, there were still many people who cared about him.

In particular, Phoebe and Amelia's trust in him made him happier.

He clenched his fists, and a great sense of confidence and ambition arose in his heart. He carried the hopes of many people, and congealed more than half of H Country's fate. He could not be defeated by Adam! This time, he was going to break through himself by the chance of fighting Adam!

Now, he was not alone because he carried the expectations of H Country.

Moreover, he had a strong premonition that the world was in the quiet before a storm, and a great war would break out sooner or later! And this war would directly affect the pattern of the future world!

As his strength was improved, he could feel this premonition stronger and stronger.

Although now he couldn't figure out why there would be a war, he had to work hard to improve himself during this rare quiet period.

In the next great war, he must have enough strength to protect his family, friends, and even the country!

And breaking through the God Becoming Level was what he had to do. Otherwise, if he didn't reach the God Becoming Level, he would be no different from an ant in the upcoming war. He might not even be able to protect himself, let alone the people around him.

He clenched his fists and his eyes were incomparably firm. Then he took a deep breath and quickly calmed himself down into a state of meditation.

At the same time, an angry roar was heard from the high-rise building in Country M.

"What the hell! You pigs, you trash, you're all trash!! How dare you let a man from H Country be so presumptuous in our country? You couldn't even catch him! You were completely defeated by him. It has been broadcasted to the whole world! The whole world is laughing at us! You deserve to die!!"

Bang! In the conference room, a burly officer with a face full of anger slapped the table heavily. He hit it hard, breaking the table into pieces. It was very scary. He scared the top management below so hard that they looked pale and didn't dare to speak.

The officer standing in front of them was a big shot in Country M.

They had never seen this officer so angry, as if he was going to set fire to the entire conference room.

"You bunch of trash. With so many police officers, you can't even catch this man from H Country. Wasserman, how dare you sit here!"

The black police officer was the head of the police. His face was covered in sweat, and he was ashamed. He quickly straightened his back and said, "Please give me a chance to redeem myself! I promise to arrest this thug!"

Wasserman hated Tom too. If it weren't for Tom, he wouldn't have been so embarrassed.

The officer stared at him coldly and said, "Well, since you've been with me for so many years, I'll give you one last chance. If you still can't catch this guy, get out of here!"

However, just as the black police officer was about to answer, the door of the conference room was pushed open and a man came in. It was Hannibal.

Chapter 1020

"No need. You're ordinary people. You can't defeat that man from H Country no matter how many of you go."

Hannibal walked in and said coldly, his voice scornful.

When these people in the conference room saw him, their faces changed, showing fear and awe. They obviously knew him.

The officer who had been scolding frowned and asked Hannibal, "Do you mean we should stand by and let this man do whatever he wants in our country?!"

Hannibal sat down unhurriedly without replying immediately and crossed his legs. Looking at the projection of Tom's portrait, he said quietly, "I'll take him down myself."

Everyone was shocked. They were all well aware of how capable Hannibal was. As a general, he was giving that man from H Country too much credit by dealing with him personally.

Astonished, that officer said, "General Hannibal, are you kidding me? Is it necessary for you to do it yourself?"

Others were also surprised.

Hannibal answered in an unruffled voice, "Of course. He's a super ultra-capable man and deliberately came to our country to mess with us. None of you is his rival. I have to deal with him myself."

His words shocked the crowd again. They had underestimated Tom by taking him merely as a normal ultra-capable man.

After a pause, Hannibal added, "This man is a super genius from H Country. He came to our country with ulterior motives. You'll live stream how I defeat him on a global platform and ask the mainstream media to write reports about it. You know what they should write."

After a moment of silence, the officer asked tentatively, "I mean no offense, but is this what Mr. Adam wants?"

Hannibal cast him a bleak glance, which gave him the shudders!

Then Hannibal said, "Sure. This is an opportunity to show the world the strength of our country. Well, that's it. You do what I said."

Hannibal rose to his feet after finishing speaking. Instead of walking through the door, he went straight to the window and opened it. Then, to everyone's great surprise, he jumped out of it!

Those people were dazed for a second and then instantly rushed to the window after gathering their senses. They saw Hannibal falling in the air and soon land steadily on the ground.

"God..."

"We're on the twentieth floor!"

"Even a chunk of iron could be smashed flat!"

"General Hannibal is really hardcore..."

"In that case, isn't Mr. Adam even more powerful?"

"That man from H Country will definitely be killed by General Hannibal!"

After Hannibal showcased his agility, they feared and venerated him even more. They did not dare to disobey him in the slightest way and tried their best to carry out his orders.

At the same time, they were also very confident in him, believing that Tom was doomed this time.

Two days passed quickly.

In the past two days, the media in Country M had been bustling around writing countless articles to discredit Tom, which also inevitably made him more famous in the world.

They pictured Tom as a villain, who should be annihilated by a superhero.

Tom sensed the vibe. It was effortless for him to tell that Adam was behind this hackneyed plot.

The logic was that they caused hype first and when the time came, Adam would defeat him completely. In this way, Country M would be able to restore its ruined reputation and make a big splash at the same time.

Tom wasn't bothered by this little trick at all.

During the past two days, more and more people had turned to him because they worshiped him and wanted to learn some self-defense skills from him.

Tom had accepted all of them. Able as he was now, giving those ordinary people instructions was as easy as pie.

Although he couldn't help them break through to the Innate Realm in a short period of time, they would be able to defend themselves against several ordinary people after two or three months and stayed safe in Country M.

Moreover, Tom didn't only make them stronger, but also taught them the philosophy of martial arts which was like seeds sown in their minds. If it was the right person, the seeds would germinate and grow into trees when the time came. It was not impossible that some of them would reach the Innate Realm one day.

Therefore, what he did was meaningful.

After he'd reached his current realm, he'd gradually realized that individual power was limited. If he could help the people around him and made them powerful too, he could not only prove his worth but also made real power.

Here, he received the respect and admiration of countless compatriots as their spiritual support. He somehow felt that it stood him in good stead.

It also gradually dawned on him why most men of the God Becoming Level were guardians of countries admired by thousands of people. It was a kind of belief.

Just like in the Clan World, a man of the God Becoming Level would start a sect, which made perfect sense.

In the blink of an eye, three more days passed. In these three days, Tom had been the front-page news, the darling of the media.

Naturally, he became the center of attention.

If he took part in a competition of fighting now, the tickets would definitely be sold out!

Finally, on the fourth day, new news came that Country M would send a very powerful man to teach this arrogant and rebellious Tom a lesson, and the fight was scheduled for the day after tomorrow.

This news ignited excitement in many people. They were all looking forward to this day!

But on Tom's side, his supporters all looked worried and distressed, thinking that Tom might be finished this time.

Because according to the reports, this man named Hannibal was a general who was so powerful that Tom stood no chance of winning.
