

Chapter 1021

So under the bombardment of these media, in just two days it had occurred to someone to stay away from Tom, as they were afraid of being implicated by Tom.

Tom did not suffer from any emotional setbacks for this. Now he had entered a peaceful state, where it was like an old monk concentrating on his meditation. Tom was just waiting for the so-called Hannibal to come.

In fact, Tom had also heard of this Hannibal. He knew that Hannibal was Adam's favorite protege, and also the champion of the last Kungfu Cup. Hannibal had reached the Half-step God Becoming Level, and he was already a very powerful expert.

Looking around the world, such people were extremely rare. He could always be on the top of the food chain in one region, no matter where he went.

Besides, Hannibal's position in Country M was not low, where he was a lieutenant general and also in charge of the department of secret service. He was a powerful man in Country M, so to speak.

He was also very famous in the world.

So, after knowing that it was Hannibal who did it himself, the whole world's attention was cast here. At the same time, most people also thought that Tom must be unlucky this time. With Hannibal's strength, it was very easy to teach Tom a lesson.

Because of the warmup of this battle, in the past two days, many experts from all over the world flew over to see this battle with their own eyes.

It was extremely rare to watch a battle with Half-step God Becoming Level!

If they could see it with their own eyes, then their cultivation would be greatly enhanced.

Besides, this kind of thing was hard to come by. They had to travel all the way here.

"Where did this Tom come from? How dare he be presumptuous in Country M? He's not afraid of death!"

"Hehe, this Tom is the champion of the Kungfu Cup this year. He is also an expert. He thinks that if he won the champion of the Kungfu Cup, he will be invincible. He has got too carried away. He actually dares to come to Country M to show himself presumptuously. This is completely suicidal behavior."

"Just wait. With the help of the demon king Hannibal, Tom will probably lose in less than three minutes."

"Three minutes? Hehe, you overestimate Tom too much! In my opinion, he can't even hold on for a minute! Who is Hannibal? He is Adam's best protege, who has reached Half-level God Becoming Level. I heard that he is only a little far from reaching the God Becoming Level. There will be two God Becoming Level masters in Country M by then. This Tom is only 30 years old. Even if he started practicing in his mother's womb, he will definitely not reach the Half-step God Becoming Level by now!"

"From this point of view, this Tom will definitely die."

"This depends on whether Hannibal will kill Tom. If Hannibal really wants to kill Tom, then Tom will have no chance at all."

Voices speaking similar meanings had appeared everywhere, so to speak.

Therefore, most of the Strongs in the world had cast eyes on this, even though they had not arrived in Country M.

Finally, under everyone's expectations and attention, Hannibal finally came out. He went straight to Chinese street to look for Tom.

He was dressed in a military uniform from Country M. He was tall, burly, and strong. These together with his tough appearance made him look like a gun, full of strength and sharpness. It seemed that his momentum could pierce through the sky.

"Tom, get out of here!!!"

He stood in front of Tom's house and shouted directly. His voice turned into a huge sound wave, which spewed around.

The power it brought was like a bomb exploded, which made many Chinese people in the Chinese street pale with fear. Their hearts beat so fast that they could hardly breathe.

It was not for a show. According to Hannibal's level, a Half-step God Becoming Level expert, his momentum could simply be a disaster for ordinary people! If his main power was not directed at Tom, then the Chinese standing nearby would have fainted from fear.

This kind of mentality-aspect attack was not for fun.

Because Hannibal's appearance also announced that a shocking battle was about to begin.

So a lot of people came over to join in the fun. This was something they could never miss!

Moreover, there were also specialized experts in Innate Realm, who were carrying cameras and doing live broadcasts throughout the entire process.

However, after Hannibal finished shouting, Tom did not appear. It was quiet as if Tom was not here, and it seemed a little embarrassing.

Hannibal frowned slightly, sneered, and said again, "Tom, weren't you very arrogant a few days ago? Why don't ; you dare to come out now that I'm here? There's a saying in your H Country that describes your current behavior very well. Cowardly turtle

| you're a cowardly turtle, hahaha..."

As he spoke, he burst into laughter.

: His laughter, along with the live
: broadcast, spread all over the world.

After seeing this, many people thought that Tom must have been too scared to | come out.

; "Hahaha, I told you. This Tom must be a : coward. How could he dare to face
Hannibal? Hannibal could have him
, killed instantly!"

: "What a clown. He was so arrogant days ago. Now he looks like a coward turtle!"

"He was so arrogant before. I really thought he had the ability. I didn't expect him to be such trash. Trash. He really embarrasses the H Country. Ha ha ha..."

"I think he must have fled back to H Country by now."

And those Chinese, as well as people from H Country watching the live broadcast, now frowned and felt very ashamed. They didn't expect Tom got chickened out when the expert from Country M actually visited him, and he was so arrogant a few days ago.

This was not just a disgrace to Tom, but more a disgrace to H Country!

They could not help feeling dissatisfied with Tom's behavior and complained.

"Ahem! What's wrong with this Tom? A few days ago, wasn't he so confident that he said he would be waiting for a challenge from the expert in Country M? Now that the expert really came, he acted like a coward here. It's such a humiliation!"

"I'm really impressed. The whole world is going to laugh at us now!"

"This guy actually hid. He's just a coward. I was so proud of him a few days ago. I thought he was a man and dared to stretch his muscles in the Country M. Now he looks like a coward!"

"It's so annoying. I don't even want to watch this live broadcast."

When Hannibal heard these words, the smile on his face became even brighter. He was now sure that Tom was afraid of him and did not dare to come out.

In this way, Tom would lose his pride. This would also be a good chance for Country M to show its strength.

Chapter 1022

"Tom! Be a man! Come out!"

Hannibal's voice rose again and he shouted loudly, causing more harm to ordinary people.

Especially for the foreign citizen of H Country origin who opposed him, it was a devastating blow, which made many people collapse to the ground in fear. Some of them, who didn't have a good heart, fainted out of fear.

Many people were scared to wet their pants.

They were not bold. Facing a spiritual deterrent like Hannibal, they couldn't bear it.

Now they just wanted to get out of here quickly, but the pressure Hannibal put on them was great, making them weak, strengthless, and painful.

Seeing their reactions, Hannibal gave a disdainful sneer and despised them.

In his opinion, all the people from H Country were trash, and they were born cowardly. Even a master like Tom could not escape such a law.

He thought that Tom was more daring because he dared to act wildly in Country M. For this reason, he specially prepared for a few days and adjusted his condition to the best before facing Tom, trying to beat Tom with destructive power.

Now it seemed that there was no need at all. Tom was a coward and didn't even have the courage to fight with him.

He took a step forward and said coldly, "You don't come out, do you? Then I'll force you out!"

After he finished speaking, he lifted his right foot and stomped heavily. Suddenly, there was a loud bang, as if an earthquake had occurred.

A huge crack immediately appeared on the ground in front of him and spread towards Tom's residence. He was trying to force Tom out in a domineering way.

In his opinion, Tom did not dare to fight him anymore and was not his match at all. Now he was planning to hit Tom in the most crushing way and showing off his power of Country M to the whole world.

However, with his stomp, the crack only spread for ten meters and then stopped.

It seemed as if there was a mysterious and more powerful force that stopped Hannibal's attack.

Then, over Hannibal's head, a bland voice came, "Hannibal, you are not my match. Go back and get your master Adam over."

It was Tom. Nobody knew when he appeared and stood on the roof above Hannibal's head.

No one noticed when he was there until they heard his voice. They suddenly came back to their senses. They looked up and saw Tom, standing there and wearing a long robe, looked like Wong Phoebe-hung, a famous figure in an action film, with his robe fluttering with the wind.

He looked like the people of H Country a lot.

Everyone was stunned.

What Tom looked like was amazing, especially for those foreign citizens of H Country origin who had seen H Country action films, they had a special feeling and sense of security.

Including many people from H Country who watched the live broadcast, they were conquered by this Tom.

When Hannibal saw Tom, his face immediately darkened. He snorted heavily and said, "You just put on airs!"

After saying that, he kicked up a piece of concrete under his feet and flew towards Tom at an extremely high speed.

These cement blocks were as big as the feet. At such a high speed, they were extremely powerful, not worse than the bullets. Once hit by them, Tom would definitely be injured.

All the masters of the Innate Realm felt the horror. If they were there, there would be no way to stop them. Once they were hit, they would be crippled even if they didn't die.

But for Tom, his expression did not change at all. He was completely calm. No one saw how he attacked, the concrete blocks that had flown in front of him were hit by a huge impact and exploded, none of the debris hit him. He looked particularly calm.

Hannibal immediately narrowed his eyes. No one could see it, but he saw it clearly. Tom had a coin in his hand. With a flick, the coin flew out and broke his concrete blocks.

His skills in using hidden weapons were quite terrifying.

Hannibal estimated that Tom's coin would not be less powerful than a rifle bullet within a short distance.

He was indeed a master.

"It seems that you really have practiced Kungfu. No wonder you are so bold and dare to come to my country to act wild." Hannibal sneered, then jumped up from the ground and landed on the eaves where Tom was, standing opposite Tom.

Everyone became excited and nervous when they saw that they faced each other.

Especially those who were the masters of the Innate Realm, they came for this battle. If they could personally see the battle between the two super Strongs, it would be an extremely exciting thing for them.

"They confront."

"I didn't expect Tom to come out. It seems that he does have some guts."

"Oh, so what if he has the guts? If he didn't come out, he can avoid being killed. Now that he came out, he will die."

"You don't know that. Tom is the champion of this Kungfu Cup. He is very powerful. Hannibal is the champion of the last Kungfu Cup. Their strength may be almost on a par."

"You only see the superficial. Hannibal is now a master of Half-step God Becoming Level. His master is Adam, the strongest in Country M. But Tom is just a little boy. How can he be Hannibal's match? If he can fight with Hannibal for more than a minute, he is considered to be powerful."

"In that case, Tom will definitely die."

"Definitely."

Almost everyone looked down on Tom, thinking that he was looking for death.

But at this moment, Tom shook his head at Hannibal and said, "You're too weak. Go back and call Adam over."

Hannibal had a temper. In his opinion, Tom was no match for him. As a general of the Country M, he had given Tom enough face to challenge Tom, but Tom dared to speak nonsense. It was unforgivable.

"You are getting yourself killed."
Hannibal was angry, and he snorted heavily. Finally, he couldn't help but attack Tom directly.

Chapter 1023

Hannibal nearly did his best to hit him. The power was extremely huge. In a wink, his fist was in front of Tom!

Moreover, Hannibal was aimed at Tom's chin. It was a fake uppercut, which was extremely powerful. Once Tom was hit, even if he was an expert in Half-step God Becoming Level, he would be hit to unconsciousness!

And if Tom's chin was weak, it would suddenly be fractured. His neck would also be broken in seconds.

Hannibal attacked him with a murderous move because he was really angry. Actually, he decided not to defeat him in a short time but make a fool of Tom. He had never enjoyed a fight to the full. In Country M, his strength was second only to Adam. The rest were all his defeated opponents.

He had rarely met a person who knew nothing about the potential dangers of society like Tom. He could play with Tom and torture him into a cripple.

But Tom just looked for death. He dared to be so arrogant in front of so many people. How could he endure this? So he decided to kill Tom directly!

Everyone there thought Tom would die when they saw Hannibal's powerful move.

"Tom must be dead! General Hannibal is serious to kill him!"

"Oh my god, Hannibal power is so scary. I guess Tom can't even take one move from Hannibal."

"Of course. How could this Chinese compare to General Hannibal..."

However, before they finished their discussion, Tom had easily dodged Hannibal's fist. His body was as light as dandelion and had been blown away when the wind caused by Hannibal's fist came.

Hannibal frowned slightly and was confused. It was obvious that he did not expect Tom could dodge his murderous punch.

However, he was experienced in combating others. He just snorted sneeringly, remained his original attitude, and continued to attack Tom fiercely.

Since he had already combat him, he would not stop and defeat Tom in an absolute crushing manner!

Seeing Hannibal's move, there was no expression on Tom's face as if Hannibal had just done something insignificant.

Facing Hannibal's attack, Tom just kept one of his hands at the back and kept moving gently at an extremely fast speed. His movements were always one step faster than Hannibal's. When Hannibal almost hit him, he dodged.

He looked especially handsome and skillful.

"You are too slow." As Tom dodged, he still had time to speak. He looked especially relaxed.

What he did, however, stimulated Hannibal even more deeply and caused his face to turn red suddenly. He had been infuriated by him!

"You are courting death!!"

He moved even faster. To him, Tom's action was a great provocation and humiliation. He, the general of Country M and the strong at the Half-step God Becoming Level had never suffered such humiliation before!

However, no matter how hard he tried, he couldn't catch up with Tom.

Tom's action was fast and light, which made Hannibal extremely aggrieved.

And they were still in a busy city. He didn't dare to be reckless as there were many ordinary people.

After all, the damage caused by the battle between two experts at the Half-step God Becoming Level was extremely huge!

That's right. In just half a minute, they had already caused huge damage. Many houses nearby were seriously damaged by them and were about to collapse. The ground was also destroyed.

Even some innocent people were hurt.

Seeing these damages, Tom frowned slightly and said, "This is not the place to fight."

As soon as he finished, he retreated. He jumped hundreds of meters away in a few seconds.

Hannibal was shocked when he saw Tom's moves. Originally, he thought he would definitely suppress Tom, but after a fight just now, he found that he underestimated Tom.

Tom's action was terrifying. He almost couldn't catch up with Tom several times.

However, he believed that in terms of absolute power, Tom was definitely not his opponent!

Adam asked him to defeat Tom today. Otherwise, the whole of Country M would be humiliated by him.

To show his power, he had arranged so many TV stations in advance to broadcast the whole combat. He could never accept the fact that he would fail!

"Hmph, I'll see where you can escape!" Hannibal snorted coldly and began to jump from the ground. He sped towards Tom like a sharp arrow. He was too fast for ordinary people to see him.

A few seconds later, their figures disappeared from everyone's sight.

They left a mess on the ground, and everyone was staring at each other confusedly.

They obviously didn't expect Tom to be able to persevere from Hannibal's fierce attack! He could even escape!

Yes, in their opinion, Tom was afraid and escaped.

"I didn't expect Tom to be so powerful that he could survive General Hannibal's attack."

"Hmph, so what? Isn't he afraid to run away from General Hannibal now?"

"Cut the crap. Let's hurry up too. We must not miss this excellent battle!"

"Right. You are right. Hurry up."

Many of the experts in the Innate Realm had also come to their senses and quickly chased after them in the direction they had disappeared.

Was Tom running away?

That's impossible.

There were too many ordinary people in H City just now, and many of them were Chinese. If he tried his best to fight Hannibal, he would definitely hurt the innocent.

So, he had to choose a broad place and defeated Hannibal.

"Have you given up escaping?"

Hannibal, who was following closely behind him, saw Tom stop by a wide lake and said with a faint smile.

He thought that Tom must have nowhere to run when he met the lake, so he stopped.

Chapter 1024

Tom turned around and looked at him indifferently. "What's your relationship with Adam?"

Hannibal stared at Tom. Even if Tom escaped to the ends of the earth, he could find Tom.

At the same time, he was scrutinizing Tom and analyzing how powerful he was. After a short fight just now, Hannibal found that Tom was stronger than he thought for Tom was able to dodge many of his attacks.

However, that was all. Now that he had reached the lake, Tom had no place to retreat.

Moreover, he estimated that, specifically, Tom was skilled in his physical strength and could not be his opponent in terms of real hard power.

After confirming this point, he was not in a hurry, nor rush into attacking Tom. But he slowly waited for the media from the TV station to catch up.

He had to wait until the media caught up with him because he would be jubilant after beating Tom in a live broadcast witnessed by people all over the world. If he beat Tom in private, it would be meaningless.

Although Hannibal was a general with high status and power, he was very high-profile. It would be wonderful if he could prove his capability to the world and shock people around the world.

In particular, it was a pleasant thing to defeat Tom, the Kungfu Cup champion.

Tom clearly knew Hannibal's thoughts too. Tom smiled playfully and said, "Are you waiting for those media to come over and then get famous by defeating me?"

"Well, you're not stupid." Hannibal smiled, feeling that Tom was smart. Hannibal became excited and licked his lips and said, "In the past few years, I've been practicing with my master and haven't fought for a long time. Many people in the world have forgotten about me. Frankly, I want to thank you for giving me this opportunity to be famous! Hahaha..."

He smiled happily. He looked at Tom with disdain. He thought that Tom was just his prey and could pose no threat to him.

When noticing his expression, Tom also asked with a faint smile and shook his head. "Are you confident that you can beat me? If you are not my opponent and beaten by me, then you would feel embarrassed and ashamed."

As if he had just heard another big joke, Hannibal laughed loudly, full of arrogance and authority. The laughter scared all the birds and beasts by the lake.

After he finished laughing, he said to Tom, "Tom, do you think you're the only genius? Let me tell you this. I'm 43 years old this year, and I was 39 years old in the previous Kungfu Cup. When I won the Kungfu Cup championship for the first time, I was 35 years old. I've been winning the championship for two years in a row. I have reached the Half-step God Becoming Level, away from the real God Becoming Level, which is the last step. My teacher is Adam and I boast the rare martial arts talent in the world! Not only did I receive the best training from Mr. Adam, I also had the most advanced biotechnology assistance in the world in Country M. I was the most powerful under the God Becoming Level, but you, Tom, were just a row guy. How can you fight me?"

He calmly spoke fluent Chinese with some accent. He was confident and superior.

In his opinion, Tom was his prey, even his plaything. And he did not take Tom seriously.

After a pause, he continued, "Do you think you'll be invincible if you win the Kungfu Cup championship? Tom, you're too young and ignorant. Originally, as the Kungfu Cup champion of this year, you could be well treated by Country M if you come to Country M with a good attitude and ask for leave from Mr. Adam. But you are so haughty. How dare you come here arrogantly and even dream of challenging Adam?"

"H Country has a good saying. A frog in the well does not know the ocean. You sit on the bottom of the well and look up at the sky. Such an ignorant frog."

Tom stood with his hands behind his back. Hearing Hannibal's words, he was not angry at all. Instead, he smiled as if he was looking at a monkey. After Hannibal finished speaking, he said, "Are you done? It's my turn."

Hannibal narrowed his eyes slightly and found that Tom was not afraid, which made him very uncomfortable! In his opinion, the most correct reaction for Tom was to shiver. It was better for Tom to kneel down and beg for mercy and repentance from him!

Not only did Tom not beg for mercy, but he also dared to be so arrogant.

Drop dead!

Tom continued, "You know a lot about my culture in H Country, and you speak the language of H Country very well. Just now, when I saw your moves, it was obvious that you learned a lot of my Kungfu in H Country and combined it with your own moves. And you look down on H Country. In our H Country, this kind of behavior is called ingratitude."

When hearing these words, Hannibal became grim and furious as if he was about to kill someone!

Tom's words could be said to have greatly stimulated him.

Because Tom was right, Hannibal's martial arts really combined the essence of H Country Kungfu. In fact, Hannibal had been studying H Country's Kungfu all these years!

As he became stronger, Hannibal felt more and more that H Country's Kungfu was very extensive and profound, just like the calculus in mathematics. Ordinary people could not understand how extraordinary the kong fu was and they felt that it was showy, but to a certain extent, they could see its subtlety!

In fact, beside Hannibal, even his teacher, Adam deeply explored and learned H Country's Kungfu. Otherwise, Adam would not have such a strong strength!

But of course, they couldn't admit this fact!

In fact, Hanniba and his teacher secretly extracted some quintessential moves from H Country's Kungfu, gave them a new name and then announced that they were something they created.

Now that Tom said it, Hannibal was more angry than guilty and more and more wanted to kill Tom!

"Hmph, the H Country's Kungfu is nothing to me and Mr. Adam!" Hannibal said, "Only our fighting skills in Country M are the best martial arts in the world!"

Finally, by this time, the media from the TV stations behind finally arrived. Hannibal took this opportunity and pointed at Tom. "Today is your day of death!!"

After saying this, he attacked Tom again. In order to provoke Tom, he used the H Country's Kungfu.

Chapter 1025

"They're getting into a fight!"

"Look, General Hannibal is going to fight again..."

Many of the people who arrived saw Hannibal attack again and began to get excited. They took out their cameras and recorded the scene of Tom and Hannibal fighting.

They all believed Hannibal would win. They looked particularly relaxed and bet on the minutes that Hannibal could beat Tom.

Indeed, Hannibal had strong strength. If it was still in the Kungfu Cup, Tom was not necessarily Hannibal's opponent.

But Hannibal was far worse than Tom now. He couldn't hold a candle to Tom.

Although Tom was still at the Half-step God Becoming Level, his real strength was far beyond the ordinary half-step of the God Becoming Level. Even Asura, who was at the God Becoming Level, could not defeat Tom. They were just even.

Not to mention Hannibal.

However, he was not in a hurry to defeat Hannibal. One of his characteristics was that he was strong in learning. He was a real martial arts genius. Often, when he fought with his opponent, he could learn the essence of his opponent for a period of time.

Now he was learning Hannibal's martial arts.

Hannibal's cultivation was not as good as Tom's, but Hannibal had a better understanding of martial arts than ordinary martial artists. Moreover, Hannibal was Adam's disciple, and his martial arts was Adam's reflection. Tom could roughly peek into the martial arts of Adam through the study of Hannibal.

In the blink of an eye, they had made a hundred moves. Hannibal's speed kept increasing, and his moves were getting fiercer. On the surface, it seemed that Hannibal was the one making moves while Tom could only defend himself.

Only Hannibal knew that although he hit so hard and caused so much noise, he didn't deal any damage to Tom. Tom dodged all his attacks!

The depth of Tom's bodily movement and martial arts was shocking!

Under the God Becoming Level, Hannibal had never met such an opponent before. This time, he gradually put away his contempt and began to fear Tom.

"What's going on? It's been two minutes. Why hasn't General Hannibal defeated Tom?"

"Yes, something is wrong. Didn't you say that General Hannibal could kill this man in a second? Why hasn't he taken him down yet? Was general Hannibal not an opponent of this man?"

"Bullshit! That's absolutely impossible! General Hannibal is so powerful. How can this man be his opponent? See, General Hannibal is in the upper hand now. He is playing with this man."

"Yes, that must be true..."

However, as soon as they finished speaking, Tom retaliated. For the first time, he did not retreat. Instead, he took a step forward and punched Hannibal hard!

With a bang, Hannibal was overjoyed to see Tom fighting back against him. He used all his strength to hit Tom!

Hannibal had absolute confidence in his own strength, which was also a big advantage for his race.

Tom was thinner than him. He was looking for death to fight against Hannibal.

The next moment, he couldn't laugh. When their fists collided, Hannibal felt as if he had hit a meteorite from the sky. It was so powerful that Hannibal could not defend!

He spat out a mouthful of blood.

His body could not bear such a huge force at all. He staggered back a dozen steps and almost fell to the ground!

Moreover, the powerful force from the punch just now swept down his arm and body, causing his military uniform to be torn into pieces. Now that Hannibal was bare-chested, he looked totally beaten up. On the contrary, Tom seemed like nothing had happened and looked relaxed. He only took a small step back.

All of a sudden, the crowd fell silent. Everyone's eyes widened, and they looked at the scene in disbelief. They could not imagine why this happened.

General Hannibal lost the fight just now?

This ... was unbelievable!

Including Hannibal, his was also extremely shocking, even dumbfounded. He opened his mouth wide and couldn't react at all. Or rather, he couldn't believe that he had lost to Tom completely!

If he hadn't felt the pain in his arm now, he wouldn't have believed what had happened just now.

Tom did not pursue. He stood there without much movement. He was just like a javelin, standing on top of the world.

"What... I couldn't believe my eyes. Did General Hannibal actually lose the fight?"

"Damn it! Could someone pinch me, please? What happened just now must be my illusion! General Hannibal is at the God Becoming Level. He's Adam's favorite student! Did that man just defeated him?"

"It's fake. It must be fake. General Hannibal let him win!"

These native masters of Innate Realm in Country M expressed disbelief. They could not accept this. To them, Hannibal was their super master. Today, Hannibal came here to teach Tom a lesson and rebuilt the reputation of Country M!

Hannibal did not take Tom down, and he couldn't even touch Tom's clothes. Now Tom defeated him. This was a nightmare for them.

And worst of all, they were still doing live streaming. The fight was transmitted to the world through their cameras, and that martial artists around the world could see this scene.

"Damn! It's cool! Hannibal of Country M lost to Tom!"

"Yes, it seems that Country M is not so scary. They can't even beat Tom from H Country."

"Hannibal is Adam's favorite student and the champion of the previous two Kungfu Cups. He is an immensely famous person. Now he has lost to a man from H Country... Is H Country really going to rise?"

"Interesting. No wonder Tom has the guts to go to Country M. I thought he was crazy and stupid. Now it seems that he is capable!"

"I'm more looking forward to it now..."

At the same time, Adam, who was in the manor, was also paying attention to this fight. When he saw that his disciple lost to Tom, his smile faded away.

Chapter 1026

Others could not see it, but he could see that his disciple Hannibal was no match for Tom, and the gap between them was not small.

No wonder Tom dared to be so bold and made a scene in his territory!

And this also meant that Tom came here for him, and in this way, he could force him to take the initiative to find Tom.

To him, who had always been arrogant, this was simply an offense, a blasphemy!

This was something he absolutely couldn't stand.

"Damn it!"

Adam was very angry now. As soon as he exerted his strength, he crushed the glass in his hand.

Next to him, there were a few other disciples who were all masters of the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm. Originally, they watched the live broadcast very easily and thought that Hannibal defeating Tom was just a matter of time.

But now it seemed that this was not the case at all. Hannibal actually failed in the fighting, and the gap between him and Tom was not small...

In their minds, the senior disciple Hannibal was an absolutely strong expert. In the future, he would inherit the mantle of teacher Adam, and this Tom was just an unknown little person. How could he be Hannibal's opponent?

But now that the truth was self-evident, and they had to believe it.

"What... the senior disciple actually lost the fight?"

"What's the deal of this person from the H Country? Is he a God Becoming Level expert?"

"It must be a God Becoming Level expert. Only a God Becoming Level expert can defeat a senior brother."

They were all discussing and were shocked.

Adam was annoyed and scolded them directly. "That's enough!"

When Adam scolded them like this, they immediately shivered. Seeing Adam's fierce look, none of them dared to speak. At the same time, they realized in their hearts that this person from the H Country was probably really coming for Adam.

At the same time, in H Country, many of the senior officials of the Military Intelligence 3 were also watching the live broadcast. They were very nervous. When they saw Tom force Hannibal back with a punch and that the gap between their strengths was obvious. They immediately relaxed.

"Great!" Pence exclaimed, his face full of joy and excitement.

Thorn also said, "Hah hah, I told you. Tom is not a reckless person. Since he decided to do such a thing, he must be confident about it. Now it seems that this Hannibal is not Tom's opponent at all, hah hah hah..."

Marlin also said with great pleasure, "Isn't that right? This Hannibal won two Kungfu Cup championships only because of his mentor Adam. He was so cocky. Over the years, our agents in H Country had been bullied by him for a long time. Now it seems that Tom has taught him a lesson. This feeling is good hah hah!"

"Tom is the lucky star of our H Country. He was so good as to beat Hannibal. he brought glory to the H Country! Who dares to look down on the Strong of we H Country in the future? Who dares to look down on we Military Intelligence 3?!"

"Of course. Tom is a rare super genius. I have a feeling that in the future, under Tom's leadership, our H Country will definitely be able to go to greater glory!"

Other senior officials were also so extremely excited that their faces were blushed. They felt especially proud and were full of hope for the future.

In addition, there were many other martial artists who were watching the live broadcast. Seeing this scene, they were extremely shocked. They couldn't accept it all of a sudden that Hannibal actually lost.

It was known to all that Hannibal was not an ordinary person, but the Strong with absolute power. He was much more powerful than Solomon, Johnson, Romero, and others before.

And most importantly, Hannibal had not been defeated for a long time, and now Tom had broken his record of being undefeated.

"You are no match for me. Go back and ask your mentor Adam to come over."

Tom did not continue to attack him, but stood aloof in front of him and looked down at him. He looked at Hannibal contemptuously as if Hannibal was just an ant.

It was Tom's attitude that greatly angered Hannibal and twisted his expression.

Although he was forced back by Tom's punch just now, he was not injured and still had full combat power.

He was an extremely arrogant and confident Strong. He had not failed for more than ten years. In his mind, except for his mentor Adam, he did not take anyone seriously. He didn't even take the Strong at God Becoming Level from other countries seriously. He thought that he would definitely break through to the God Becoming Level in a few more years, and by then, he would be a super expert, experts like Albert of the H Country and her Majesty of Eagle Country would not be his opponent!

However, now that Tom appeared, the punch just now gave him a big slap in the face. It was hard for him to accept this for the moment, and even his expression began to distort!

So in an instant, he lost his mind, and his pupils turned red. He exuded an overwhelming aura, which made him look especially terrifying!

He was angry, completely angry. The energy within his blood of the whole body boiled in an instant. Even then, the muscles of his body swelled up a lot, as if they had been injected with some certain enhancer.

The masters of the Innate Realm behind could feel his terrifying aura at that moment, as if they were facing a volcanic eruption, which made them feel genuine fear and could not help but take a few steps back.

"This... This aura is so powerful, so scary!"

"Yes, why do I feel that Hannibal has become a demon god? This aura is too scary!"

"Did you notice that his form seems to have changed? I have a feeling that this is the real Hannibal. He's angry. He's absolutely angry. He was taking this seriously!!!"

"It must be. I told you. How could general Hannibal not be Tom's opponent? General Hannibal just now was not fighting in his true form. Now that general Hannibal is serious and wants to show his real strength, Tom is going down. Hah hah hah..."

"Let's wait for it. This person from the H Country must be dead!!!"

They were all particularly excited, and at the same time, they all agreed that Tom would be dead for sure.

Hannibal stood up now. He was now about ten centimeters taller. Originally, he was about two meters tall, but now he looked even more terrifying, like a humanoid monster!

He twisted his neck and made a cracking sound. He looked at Tom with a ferocious smile, as if he was looking at his prey, and a metallic voice came out of his mouth. "Tom, good for you. You've succeeded in irritating me."

Chapter 1027

He looked quite scary now, and his ferocious aura was much stronger than before.

Tom immediately realized that Hannibal had used a secret technique to stimulate his whole body's Qi and blood in an instant. In this way, he could improve his strength in a short time.

It was similar to doping, but Hannibal's method was much more effective and advanced than it, while the side effects would be even stronger.

It could be seen that Hannibal was desperate to defeat him, even if he had to overdraw his potential.

Unfortunately, Hannibal still underestimated him.

Facing Hannibal's fierce attack, Tom did not dodge. Tom showed no mercy, because through the battle just now, Tom had almost figured out Hannibal's routine. He had no need to continue playing with Hannibal, so he made it quicker.

Thus, confronted with Hannibal's attack, he was not afraid. Instead, he smiled. "Good!"

He moved forward, taking his left foot out first. It seemed that the whole space dragged behind him. He was even faster than Hannibal!

As Hannibal saw that he was not retreating, the grim smile on his face became more hideous, thinking that Tom was looking for death.

He raised his fist, which was third bigger than Tom's. It looked like a mortar and hit hard towards Tom's head. Once it was hit, even if Tom's head was made of steel, it would blow his brains out!

But how could Tom be hit by him?

However, Tom did not dodge. He continued to confront Hannibal. There was no fuss, just boxing with him.

It seemed that Tom was much smaller and thinner than Hannibal. They were not on the same level at all. In principle, he had no chance of winning, but the fact was that Tom was not losing to Hannibal at all. He had also turned into a man-shaped murder weapon, as hard as iron, entangled with Hannibal.

Bang bang bang...

In just a minute, they threw a thousand punches, accelerating their speed almost to the extreme.

And their power was extremely great. Under their fierce battle, the whole earth could feel the vibration. Their bodies contained enormous energy!

The power was transmitted to the ground by vibration.

That was a complete shock to those masters of Innate Realm gathered to watch. Although far away, they could clearly feel that Tom and Hannibal were powerful.

"This man from H Country is so horrible! How could he match General Hannibal in his ultimate form? When did such an unassailable young man appear in H Country?"

"Is this power comparable to a God Becoming Level master?"

"It's so horrible. If we were hit accidentally, we'll die on the spot!"

"It turns out that humans can cultivate to this extent. It's so enviable!"

"We are nobodies compared to these two freaks..."

They were all deeply moved by the power of Tom and Hannibal, especially Tom, whose performance gradually overturned their understanding. They used to think that Tom was a clown who could not stir up any trouble in the Country M. As General Hannibal threw an attack, he would kill Tom in a few seconds.

But now it seemed that they underestimated Tom's strength.

Even in the ultimate form, Hannibal could not get rid of Tom. It was so scary...

Not only were they shocked, but also the people watching the live streaming all over the world.

But soon, something even more shocking happened.

Here came Tom's voice in the tone of slight impatience from the battle circle. "Is that all you have? It's too disappointing. Let's end it."

The voice was not very loud, but they could hear it clearly. Before they could figure out what was going on, they heard a loud bang, accompanied by the sound of broken bones, and Hannibal's shrill scream.

The battle in full swing suddenly stopped. A tall figure flew over from afar, then fell heavily in front of them and spat out a large mouthful of blood.

This sudden scene scared them. They all retroceded over ten meters, with their hearts thumping in fear.

Then they looked closely and found that the person was Hannibal!

There was a hole in Hannibal's chest.

His face was also pale, without a trace of blood, and his expression was full of pain. Spitting out blood, he had been seriously injured and couldn't even get up.

"This, this, this..."

After seeing this scene, the crowd gaped at him with numbness.

They soon realized that Hannibal had been defeated, and even his chest had been sunken. This serious injury would be fatal for an ordinary person!

Even they would have to die. Only a super master like Hannibal could hold on for so long with an inhuman life force.

Then, they heard footsteps and a voice came over, "Your Kungfu hasn't been finished yet. This time, for the sake of your master Adam, I'll spare your life. Go back and tell your master that if he wants to take revenge on me, I'll be ready anytime."

It was Tom. He was unharmed. At most, his clothes were covered in dust and blood, but the blood belonged to Hannibal, not himself.

Besides that, there was nothing else but a little sweat on Tom's forehead!

They looked at Tom and felt unreal. It was like a dream. Tom had won completely. He was not hurt at all! Isn't that incredible?!

Soon, they realized one thing. Could it be that Tom was not the Major Perfection Realm of the Innate Realm, but had already broken through to the God Becoming Level?

When they thought of this, they looked at Tom with extreme fear and numbness.

Chapter 1028

Tom did not leave immediately. Suddenly, he seemed to have thought of something and walked slowly towards the Innate Realm master who was holding the camera.

Right now, the Inborn Realm master's mind exploded with panic and fear, and his feet were swinging wildly.

In an instant, his face turned pale with big drops of cold sweats falling. Now he was really scared.

He really wanted to run away, but his feet seemed to be nailed to the ground, unable to move.

It should be noted that he was a master of the Innate Realm at the third stage of the Innate Realm. He was a genius in his circle. Before, no matter what powerful opponents he met, he could remain calm and has never been so scared.

Now he felt extremely frightened even that was only Tom's stare. His fear was from the bottom of his heart, his soul and his genes, which was totally out of his control.

"No, no, no, don't kill me..."

When he saw Tom walking towards him, he was so scared as to beg desperately. His voice was trembling while sobbing.

He was still carrying a camera and giving a global broadcast, so his trembling voice and his fear were transmitted through the line to the world, to all audience of the broadcast.

Many people really sensed his fear. Looking at Tom who was approaching on the screen, they also felt the suppressing fear, as if Tom would come out of the TV to kill them.

Some timid audience even turned off the TV and had no courage to continue watching.

Even some bolder and calmer audiences cannot help but tremble with fear, when they knew Tom could never walk out of the TV. Some even wrapped themselves in a quilt with only eyes peeking at the TV.

Tom soon walked to the camera. He looked unconcerned, but his eyes were sharp and deep. It was as if he could see every audience through the camera, which was frightening.

"I'm Tom from H Country. Let me make one last statement. Anyone who dares to bully my compatriots will be the next one facing my sickle. Welcome anyone with guts coming to me. I will stay on H City for another three days."

After saying this, he left gracefully.

Everyone present did not feel relieved until they saw Tom's figure totally disappearing from their sight. They then gasped for air like just leaving the gate of hell.

It was not because they were timid, but the pressure Tom had put on them was too much. It was as if they were facing the King of the Death, with their hearts always being gripped fiercely.

Only when Tom went completely out of sight, they chilled out. The master of Innate Realm shouldering the camera, in particular, was short of breath. They muttered to themselves, "I was scared to death. The big devil finally left..."

He was still on the live broadcast, and his voice could clearly be heard all over the world.

Tom's image became more terrifying and majestic!

Even those watching the live broadcast in front of the TV were relieved as if they were also facing Tom.

Only after a short pause did everyone come to themselves. They were smart enough to quickly figure out that Tom's words were not for them, but for the higher-ups of Country M, or Adam, the strongest master in it!

It should be noted that Country M was the most powerful country. Many people were keeping their distance from Country M. Even if they were great masters, they shall behave themselves.

Although in many movies and TV shows, there were scenes of super protagonists flexing their muscles aggressively in Country M, no one in real life dared to do this unless they didn't want to live!

Even if someone seeking a quick death would not be able to cause trouble, let alone challenge Adam directly.

However, Tom made it today.

It's fair to say that Tom made the first step following his defeat of Hannibal. Now, he declared war on Adam directly. This was extremely crazy.

Even if he lost to Adam, his name would be borne in minds, especially in those of Country M's!

Bang!!

In an extremely luxurious and majestic manor in Country M, sounded a huge roar, accompanied by the sound of things being smashed.

It was Adam. He was furious and roaring.

After Tom said that, he couldn't help but burst out of rage.

He knew clearly that Tom was provoking him... No, this was no longer a provocation, but a humiliation!!!

He was being humiliated and declared war in front of so many people! This was something unseen in decades.

If this person was Albert, his old rival, he would forget it.

However, this person was Tom, a young brat. In the first half of the year, he was still a nobody that Adam would never look up to. At that time, he could strangle Tom to death at will.

Since that day, he has been wanting to kill Tom. If he hadn't met a mysterious master of the God Becoming Level threatening him, he would have already assassinated Tom!

Even if he didn't succeed in the assassination, he didn't take Tom seriously. In his opinion, no matter how talented Tom was, he was just a nobody, not on the same level as him.

As long as he wanted, he could crush Tom to death at any time.

In fact, he had the same idea. As the Kungfu Cup champion, Tom, according to the rules, should go to the beautiful country to ask him for advice and find him to get the key to the Secret Realm. When the time came, he would do it again, creating an opportunity to destroy Tom.

Even if the total H Country became angry, he wouldn't be afraid. Even if it was Albert, he wouldn't care.

However, he never thought that this brat would be so bold. When he arrived in Country M, he did not respectfully ask him for advice. He also dared to be presumptuous in Country M and declare war on him. This was a capital offense!

Now Adam's eyes were ablaze and a sentence popped out of his teeth,

"Tom, I want you to die! God can't save you!!"

Chapter 1029

Hannibal was no match for Tom and lost to Tom.

It was a complete defeat, and the strength gap between the two was very wide!

This news, like a tsunami, spread around the world in an instant. The first people to know were those glued to the TV watching the game.

Soon, even those who didn't watch the live telecast knew about it!

To them, this was extremely shocking and incredible.

In particular, those old hand at martial artists all knew how horrible and powerful Hannibal was. He was once called the strongest among those who hadn't reached the God Becoming Level. He was famous all over the world, and the Strong from many countries were punished by Hannibal.

They had thought he was certain to win the battle, and the three Tom was no match for Hannibal in any way.

However, the result was much beyond their expectations.

Tom not only won, but also won very resoundingly. He didn't give Hannibal any chance. That huge gap between the two made them wonder if Tom had broken through to the God Becoming Level!

Because only a master at the God Becoming Level could defeat Hannibal like this.

However, this news was a huge blow to them. Everything about Tom was no longer a secret. Since Tom appeared in the Kungfu Cup, the Strong around the world had paid attention to this young man from H Country, and they knew that he was only 30 years old this year.

He was in the prime of his life. If people could break through to the Innate Realm when they were thirty years old, they would be considered a genius.

However, Tom had already broken through to the God Becoming Level at the age of 30. He was extremely talented.

It meant that Tom was no longer a human. They could not help but think that Tom was not a human, but a descendant of god!

In H Country, the Military Intelligence 3, all the people who were watching the live telecast jumped up and were extremely excited.

"Ha ha ha, I told you that Tom would definitely win. It's a nice victory. Even Hannibal is no match for Tom!"

"Cool, it's so cool! This Hannibal has caused our H Country a lot of trouble over the years. Finally someone taught him a lesson, ha ha ha!"

"That right! He's already unleashed his potential and used his tramp card, but he's still no match for Tom and be defeated. Ha ha, Tom is awesome."

"I think the whole Country M is howling now. Don't they claim to be the number one power in the world and despise people from other countries? What about now? Even their general Hannibal was defeated by our H Country's strong martial artist! They cannot be arrogant anymore!"

"That's for sure. And after Tom won the Kungfu Cup championship, many people even compared Tom to Hannibal. They said that Tom was far inferior to Hannibal. Now, their words are proven wrong."

Everyone in the Military Intelligence 3 was cheering.

They felt proud of Tom.

At the same time, in the Military Intelligence 1 and the Military Intelligence 2, those who had a grudge against Tom, were now all bitter and afraid, not daring to have any more grudges against Tom.

In a chic courtyard in Y City, there were two people playing chess. One of the old people was watching the live telecast with a tablet PC.

When he saw Tom defeated Hannibal easily, he jumped up in excitement. "Good, good! Tom really didn't disappoint me. It's a nice victory!"

He was Joseph, and sitting opposite him was Albert, God of War of H Country.

After the excitement, Joseph saw Albert so calm. He said, "Hey, aren't you happy? Tom won and defeated Hannibal."

Albert sipped his tea with a smile on his face and said, "I've already said that Hannibal is no match for Tom."

"Well, Tom's victory over Hannibal has really won honor for H Country. Now, people all over the world are amazed. No one dares to look down on us in the future! Brother Albert, I think Tom is a qualified successor to you. You'll be able to retire soon!" Joseph smiled brightly and was exceptionally happy.

Albert nodded calmly, but there was not much joy in his eyes. Instead, there was some worry in his eyes.

Joseph quickly caught his fleeting worry and asked, "Brother Albert, what happened?"

Albert sighed slightly and said, "There may not be many days of peace left."

After Joseph heard this, the excitement and joy on his face disappeared in an instant. He sighed and said, "Yes, there are not many days of peace left. I hope our H Country will be safe."

The atmosphere suddenly became a little solemn.

At the same time, people who knew

Tom were watching the live telecast. They saw Tom defeat Hannibal and heard what Tom said, feeling very excited and cheerful!

Although they were respected in H Country, they were nobody in the Country M, which was the most powerful country in the past hundred years. They all had a wish in their hearts that they could revitalize H Country and let the whole world see the demeanor of H Country's people!

But this was too difficult for them to do. Today, Tom helped them realize this dream, so they respected and admired Tom even more.

But for Country M, that was a different story.

For a few minutes, no one spoke, as if they were enchanted and time stopped.

Each of them had a stiff expression. It was obvious that they could not accept the fact. Hannibal was their general and their hero! How could he be defeated by a man from H Country? And how could he lose so completely?

Some martial artists even cried out directly. This was hard for them to accept!

It was like a slap in the face, hitting them all so hard that they were buzzing.

But for people from H Country, it was a carnival. When Tom returned to the H

City, he was immediately surrounded.
People shouted loudly, "Long live Tom, long live Tom..."

Chapter 1030

Tom looked at this scene and felt their emotions. He couldn't help but smile and feel happy.

It meant that what he did was meaningful. His appearance liberated these foreign citizens of H Country's origin and improved their lives.

However, this was not enough. Teach others to fish and they would fish for a lifetime. The key was to change their mentality, change their humility and change their fear of Country M in their bones. Only when their mentality became stronger would they be respected.

So when he came back, he gestured them to be quiet. Then he talked to them sincerely. After they heard it, they were really deep in thought and inspired.

Tom saw once again that what he did began to take effect, which was a good phenomenon.

Then Tom took a shower, changed into a new set of clothes, and sat in meditation.

He turned on his phone and found that many people had called him and sent him messages to congratulate him.

This made him feel very warm and smiled unconsciously.

It wasn't that he didn't do anything. He called them one by one or sent them text messages because of their concern.

After all these, he noticed a text message that caught his attention. It was his mother-in-law who sent it to him, "Tom, are you still in Country M? Your cousin Jax is going to Country M. If you're free, please welcome him. We will be worried if he is in Country M alone."

Cousin Jax?

Tom was stunned when he saw this message. Why didn't he remember when he had a cousin named Jax?

However, since his mother-in-law had said so and he happened to be in Country M, he had to call her back.

So he called his mother-in-law. After a while, the call went through and his mother-in-law's voice came.

"Hello, mom, what can I do for you?"

Her mother-in-law said, "Why didn't you call me back until now? Did something happen in Country M? Let me tell you, staying in Country M is different from staying in H Country because you are a stranger there. If something happens there, don't be a hero. Don't offend the locals, okay?"

When Tom heard this, he felt a little strange. What was going on? He had just spoken to Phoebe on the phone. Phoebe had already known that he was in Country M and that he had defeated Hannibal. Didn't his mother-in-law know about this?

So he said, "Mom, don't worry about that. I won't be bullied in Country M. Besides, with my ability, even if I cause trouble, people in Country M can't do anything to me..."

However, before he could finish his sentence, his mother-in-law interrupted him seriously, "You must not have such an idea! Mom went to Country M early years. It was a very scary country. They all had guns. You must not provoke the locals. Don't think that you know Kungfu and you will be invincible. They all have guns. A bullet can kill you, you know!"

Tom smiled bitterly. His mother-in-law really underestimated him as usual, but he didn't want to explain anything. There was no point in explaining it. Anyway, he wouldn't stay in Country M for long. After he defeated Adam, he would return home immediately.

So he said directly, "Mom, who is cousin Jax that you mentioned? When did Phoebe have a cousin named Jax?"

Her mother-in-law said over there, "Oh, he used to live abroad and returned this year, so you don't know him. But he's a top student, studying abroad... Well, I won't talk to you so much. He is going to Country M soon. You're also in Country M. If it's convenient for you, go to the airport and pick up your cousin. You can also take this opportunity to meet each other."

Did she ask him to pick up the cousin at the airport? To be honest, Tom didn't really want to do this kind of thing. It wasn't that he was stingy, but that he was going to fight Adam right away. This was a top priority. He was originally prepared to make a retreat during this period of time and adjust his condition to the best.

So he said, "Mom, I've been a little busy lately and need to make a retreat. How about I don't go to meet the cousin? When I return home, then..."

His mother-in-law interrupted him and said unhappily, "What are you talking about? What can you do in Country M? I've already asked Phoebe. You're very free now! Besides, your cousin is a top student, and he has connections in Country M. You should go to know him. It would be good for you in Country M if you could join your cousin's circle. Okay, that's settled. I'll send you your cousin's number later. You call him and talk to him, okay?"

After that, his mother-in-law hung up the phone without waiting for his answer.

There was no chance for him to refuse.

Tom could only smile bitterly. His mother-in-law was really rude to him.

However, hearing his mother-in-law say this, he was also a little curious about this so-called top student.

With his knowledge of Country M, it was difficult for a person from H Country to develop in Country M. It was even more difficult to have connections.

According to his mother-in-law, this cousin seemed to be quite popular in Country M.

If that was the case, then this cousin would have known him. After all, he was now the most famous man in Country M. It could be said that the whole Country M was talking about him!

After thinking about it, Tom agreed. After all, he didn't get hurt in the battle with Hannibal. As long as he had a good rest, he could adjust to his best condition.

If he could relax, it would be helpful to him.

So he made the decisions. He took out the phone and called this cousin.

The call was not answered immediately, but it took a while before someone answered, and the other party was quite noisy.

"Hey, who are you?"

A man's voice came from inside. It sounded a little ruffian, a little different from the image of a top student described by his mother-in-law's mouth.

However, Tom did not pay attention to these details. Soon, he said, "I'm Tom, your cousin's husband, and you..."

Before he could finish his sentence, the other party interrupted and said, "Are you the one who married into my cousin's family? Haha, I've always been interested in you!"

When Tom heard this teasing words, he frowned and was a little unhappy.

But out of respect for his mother-in-law, he did not lose his temper. Instead, he said, "Have you arrived in Country M?"

The other party did not answer immediately, but seemed to be talking to the person next to him. After a while, he said, "What did you just say?"
