

Chapter 1041

That's right. Tom was like a huge prehistoric beast, smashing the men in front of him!

More than a dozen men who stood in his way were dashed by Tom as powerless, with no ability to resist at all.

Almost instantly, Tom had broken through.

Or it shouldn't be described as a breakthrough. Tom just ran out of the circle normally. The men in front of him were nothing.

And this scene, for others, was extremely shocking!

Not to mention Jax and those playboys, even Scott's eyes were wide open now. He felt the unprecedented fear, as if seeing a devil!

He had never seen such a scary person before. It was beyond his comprehension.

God Becoming Level!

The man from H Country must be a master of the God Becoming Level, on the same level as Adam. No wonder he dared to provoke Adam!

And himself, the nobody of the third phase of the Innate Realm, dared to provoke such a terrifying existence with arrogance. He felt that he had done the most wrong thing. This was looking for death, totally.

He had no time to think more, for with a sudden flash, Tom's figure was already in front of him. He grabbed his neck and lifted him up.

Scott had been running at high speed, as he was suddenly lifted up, his feet were kicking wildly in the air.

He was confronted with a pair of cold, teasing and murderous eyes. His whole body was trembling violently under an unprecedented horror and panic!

"You want to run?"

Tom's voice came. To him, it was the scariest devil's calling in the world. He had no intention of resisting at all, and quickly begged for mercy and said,

"Please, let me go. I don't want to die. I don't want to die..."

He was like prey in Tom's hands. That miserable look of pleading had shocked everyone in the room.

This time, everyone finally reacted!

The man from H Country was never a nobody, but a real demon, the Strong! It was beyond their understanding of human beings.

The rest of the thugs, looking at Tom now, only felt cold and shivering. The weapons in their hands fell to the ground.

However, they did not dare to run, because as Tom turned around and glared at them just now, they were numbed and completely lost the idea of escaping and resisting. Some with a weaker heart were even paralyzed by fear, lying on the ground and vomiting white bubbles.

How much pressure was this?

The rest of them also knelt down and begged for mercy one after another, hoping that Tom would be general to spare them.

This scene was another shock to Jax and the others.

They stayed there, not knowing what to say.

Tom held Scott in one hand and said, "You used to bully the people from H Country a lot."

"No, no, no... No, sir... Please let me go. I'm willing to do anything for you!"

Scott trembled and begged for mercy.

Tom just sneered. Would he let Scott go? The answer was no.

At this moment, Scott also felt the murderous intent of Tom. In despair, he gave a death struggle. Even if he was going to die, he would drag Tom to hell!

However, his efforts were no different from the ant's to Tom.

Tom did not dodge at all and allowed Scott to punch him in the chest. When Scott wanted to throw a second punch, he heard a crack. His tense body suddenly weakened, and his powerful Noticing the coldness in Tom's eyes, the crowd immediately decided to run away.

Although they didn't take other people's lives seriously, they were all afraid of death. The more cruel and violent people were, the more afraid they were of their own death.

They tried their best to escape, but could they run away from Tom? The answer was certainly no.

Tom snorted with disdain and chased after them.

He completely turned into a fierce wolf and rushed into the sheep, killing everywhere.

punch lost its strength in the air and collapsed.

Then Tom threw Scott out like a piece of trash forward Jax and the others, scaring them a lot. Especially Scott's widened eyes frightened several playboys to scream.

Scott was dead.

This thought rose in everyone's mind, especially for those subordinates, it was even more a thunderbolt.

They knew very well how powerful Scott was, but now, he died helplessly in the hands of the man from the H Country.

No, this is no longer a human, but a demon!

No, neither wolf and sheep were enough to describe the gap between them.

In half a minute, Tom slaughtered hundreds of men.

The ground was scattered with corpses, forming a mind-blowing scene. After he killed so many people, Tom wasn't even stained with any blood, nor did he sweat. Even his breathing was very steady. He patted his sleeves and walked over slowly, as if strolling after dinner.

However, for Jax and the rest of playboys, that was a devil's existence.

There were also others from H Country in the club staring at Tom in fear and awe.

Many people even knelt down and begged Tom not to kill them.

Seeing this, Tom sighed, "All of you can go now. Dignity should be fought by yourselves. You have the blood of H Country on you. Remember, we H Country's men are no worse than any other race."

Their eyes flashed with confusion.

Tom shook his head and said nothing more. He had done what he should have done.

Next, he glanced at Jax and said, "I'm disappointed in you."

Then he turned around and left.

Chapter 1042

Shocked, Zhon Faan felt Tom's eyes made him unprecedentedly ashamed!

His face was also burning hot. Thinking of what he had done, he was disappointed by himself.

Regretful, he even wanted to slap himself.

But he was also excited. It turned out that the real big shot was right beside him although he couldn't even figure out why his useless brother-in-law suddenly became so powerful in just a few years.

However, it didn't matter. Anyway, Tom was his brother-in-law!

He would have a much brighter future with Tom's support than with Scott's.

His friends, other rich boys finally came to their senses and asked Jax many questions.

"Jax, what's going on? Didn't you say your brother-in-law was a good-for-nothing?"

"Jax, your brother-in-law is awesome. He's not useless at all! He's so powerful!"

"Oh my god, your brother-in-law was so handsome. He's a great master!!!"

"Jax, could you please introduce me to him?"

"I must make friends with him!!!"

They were all flattering Jax excitedly.

Jax wanted to follow Tom and talked to him, but he had already disappeared.

He turned around and was shocked to see those bodies, and did not dare to stay here any longer.

And his friends were frightened and immediately run away.

But Jax couldn't find Tom. And he couldn't reach him by calls because Tom seemed to have blacklisted him, which made Jax disappointed and regretful. He now knew how powerful Tom was, but if Tom hated him, he could get nothing from him!

He quickly called his aunt Elizabeth and asked her about Tom. He finally knew how awesome Tom was in H Country. So he regretted what he had done even more.

...

Tom had left there and returned to H City.

He didn't take what had happened just now seriously at all.

But he had a hunch that Adam would come to him by tomorrow at the latest.

So he must rest well to get in form.

As expected, Adam heard that Tom had killed Scott half an hour later.

"How dare him! How dare him!!!"

Adam was furious. He smashed everything crazily and his eyes were burning, which scared everyone around him.

Not only his men but also many high ups of Country M and even Tesorang were there. Their faces turned pale in fear, and they quickly retreated, not daring to say anything, for fear that Adam would vent his anger on them.

Although they were high ups of Country M, actually the most respected person in Country M was Adam.

That was simply because that Adam was the most powerful man, the guardian and the totem of their country.

They had known Adam for a while, but they had never seen Adam so furious, which was terrifying because it seemed that God was being furious.

"Tom! Tom! Tom Howard!!"

Adam smashed almost half of the things and then he finally calmed down, gasping for air. In fact, as a great master, his physical strength was almost limitless. Let alone smashing things, even if he had traveled the whole country by foot, he would not be so breathless.

However, he was so irritated and furious that he lost his composure.

Everyone present could feel his anger at and hatred for Tom.

They could tell that Adam couldn't wait to kill him.

Well, even they hated Tom, the man of H Country!

Their country had never suffered such humiliation? Their motherland was the most powerful country, but now a man of H Country had killed many of their countrymen.

However, Tom was almost invulnerable. Even their army couldn't defeat him.

The only way to deal with Tom was to use nuclear weapons after knowing his position!

However, they couldn't afford the consequences, so they absolutely did not dare to do so.

So Adam was their last hope. He could kill Tom himself!

He'd better capture him alive and then torture him so as to avenge their countrymen!

A blonde ran to Adam, crying, "Lord Adam, please avenge my brother Scott! You must kill the man!"

She was Adam's mistress, and Scott was her brother. And that was why Adam was so angry. In Adam's opinion, Tom was not only provoking him, but was humiliating him!

He was Adam, the greatest master at First Rank of God Becoming Level, who enjoyed a great reputation all over the world. He had never been humiliated!

Even Albert, God of War, did not dare to offend him, but Tom, an ant, dared to humiliate him!

Tom must be killed!!!

He took a deep breath. His strength was so strong that he even created a huge airflow in the room. The paper and objects around him were flying.

This showed how powerful Adam was.

He calmed down, and his red eyes slowly returned to golden.

Everyone who knew him could tell that he was absolutely angry and had

Chapter 1043

The minute Adam's decree was issued, the martial artists of the Country and even the World were shocked and directed their attention to the coming battle.

Adam really took action.

That's to say, Adam answered Tom's challenge.

This was stunning. They finally realized the reason Tom went to Country M and caused such a chaos was that he wanted to challenge Adam.

But Tom hasn't reached God Becoming Level. Although he was called the near-to-God Becoming level strong, he was regarded Tom as his deadly enemy. He would have a life-and-death battle with Tom and would definitely defeat him! Even god could not stop him!!!

"Tell everyone I will personally fight Tom tomorrow. I promise I will trample Tom to death in front of the whole world!"

still an Innate Realm master.

In comparison, Adam was a real God Becoming Level master. As the strongest among the Country M, he had been in an unbeatable position for so many years in Country M or even the world.

It has been a long time since Adam's last fight. In most martial artists' opinions, Adam's opponents should at least be a God Becoming Level master.

But now a young Innate Realm master from H Country challenged Adam, which really shocked them.

Most of them actually thought that the God of War of H Country, Albert, had gotten Tom to irritate Adam and Albert and Tom would have a duel the next day, many of the strong were shocked. They wondered what happened and who was Tom.

Deep in a mountain in Country D, a bald, robust, bronze-skinned middle-aged man popped out of a big stone. There was an explosion, but he was not injured.

In front of him, there were hundreds of disciples kneeling. He asked, "Adam actually took action? Who is Tom? Why hasn't I heard of him?"

"Master, this Tom became famous in the past two years. He is..."

After hearing the disciple's introduction to Tom, there were himself would replace Tom to fight with Adam. Otherwise, Tom wouldn't be so arrogant to challenge Adam.

It made sense that the God of War of H Country wanted to challenge Adam. After all, Albert was a God Becoming Level master as Adam and there were so many conflicts between Country M and H Country waiting to resolve. It's not emotional that Albert would have a duel with Adam.

But now, Tom was the challenger?

Although Tom was quite famous nowadays, many strong artists who had years of retreat practice didn't hear of Tom's name.

So when the news spread that Adam shocks in this middle-aged man's eyes."Wow! A young near-to-God Becoming Level master dares to challenge Adam! Let's go. I must watch the battle in the scene."

The plot of this kind happened in many places of the world at the same time.

"I actually haven't heard of such a talented young man of H Country! He dares to challenge Adam with near-to-God Becoming Level strength! This battle is set to be a show!"

"I didn't expect there is such a powerful young man after my five years in seclusion? It's interesting... Arrange a flight for me. I want to go to Country M immediately!"

"Hahaha, Adam! You devil, now that someone finally dares to challenge you, I am looking forward to your defeat at the fight, which will undermine you. Hahaha..."

"Arrange a flight for me. I want to go to Country M immediately. I can't miss this battle!"

"I once heard that the rule of this world is that every thousand years, there will be a top genius. Most of the essence of the world is condensed in him. With this help, he would step into the Strongest World Realm and even the legendary Immortal Dao! I wonder if this Tom is that genius. Things become interesting..."

"If this young man is really a favorite of fate and I take away his good fortune, I might be able to step into the legendary Immortal Dao, hahaha..."

This battle to come had raised commotions. Many super masters who had many years of retreat practice became interested in it and set off to Country M to see the battle in the flesh.

It's been a few minutes when the news went to H Country. But the staff of the Military Intelligence 3 took half a minute to accept the news.

Tom really challenged Adam, and Adam answered!

They had the paper script of Adam's order in their hands. They even can clearly feel Adam's killing intention against Tom from the translated text.

"Well... it's too crazy! Tom really challenged Adam. Adam is a God Becoming Level super the strong! Even God of War, he might not be so assured that he can beat Adam!"

"Is this God of War's decree? Will it be God of War rather than Instructor come to the battle?"

Someone expressed his doubt. To them, the news that Tom was going to have a duel with Adam was too shocking for them. Even they had experienced many big events, they felt it incredible.

They thought they knew much about

Tom. But now it turned out that they knew little about him.

If someone told them half a year ago that Tom would challenge Adam, they would never believe it!

It was as if someone had told them that ants were going to challenge elephants one day. It was completely suicidal.

But it was obvious that they had to believe it.

"It's definitely not God of War's idea! This should be Tom's! Adam has always been hostile to H Country. Tom, as the champion of the Kungfu Cup this year, was going to receive Adam's instruction in Country M. But considering that Adam would definitely not give Tom proper guidance, so Tom unconventionally challenged Adam to get instruction. You know, the practice is the best tutor." Pence whispered.

Someone was shocked to say, "But Adam is a God Becoming Level master who has been unbeatable many years in the western world. Tom only reached Major Perfection Realm in Innate Realm. How could he fight with Adam. You know, there is a large gap between an Innate Realm master and a God Becoming Level master. This gap is much larger than the gap between a martial artist and an Innate Realm master."

"I don't know then. In my knowledge of Tom, he did so out of confidence."

Then, they looked at each other, exchanged their opinions, and came to the conclusion that they were going to Country M to witness a battle that hasn't been seen in a century.

In a short time, many people rushed to Country M.

Chapter 1044

In the courtyard of Y City.

Joseph said, "Brother Albert, Adam has accepted the challenge. Tom is in a perilous situation now."

Sitting opposite him, Albert frowned a little. A trace of worry flashed across his eyes but he then shook his head and said with a smile, "Tom must be very confident or he would've done this. We don't have to worry too much."

Joseph said, "Brother Albert, are you so sure about that guy named Tom? Has he broken through to the God Becoming Level? He has just turned 30 this year, which means according to the rules of heaven and earth, he can't reach the God Becoming Level, right?"

Most men who practiced martial artists would definitely be surprised at the mention of the rules of heaven and earth and regarded Joseph as a layman. Cultivation was ultimately a process to constantly train and strengthen oneself, which had nothing to do with the rules of heaven and earth. It was not TV dramas.

However, Albert did not laugh at him. He nodded seriously and said, "Theoretically, he can't. However, Tom is likely to be the chosen one of this era, so it's not impossible for him to reach the God Becoming Level before the age of 35."

Hearing this, Joseph's eyes widened in surprise. "What? The chosen one? Brother Albert, I thought you said that there is only one chosen one in every millennium, and the Invictus Shawn is the chosen one this millennium. How come Tom is the chosen one?"

Albert shook his head and answered, "It's just my guess. Judging from the speed of Tom's ascent, he may also be the chosen one."

"Since that's the case, we have to stop Tom from fighting Adam! If Tom is really the chosen one, it will be a huge loss for our country if he falls into Adam's hands!" Joseph said anxiously.

As the highest leader of H Country, he was hellbent on making the country stronger. Since Tom was the chosen one and carried a lot of H Country's national fortune, if Adam really did away with him, it would be a huge blow to H Country!

He would never accept such a thing.

Unexpectedly, Albert smiled and soothed, "If Tom gets killed by Adam, it will mean that he is not the chosen one because the chosen one couldn't be killed easily."

Joseph said nothing more even if he was still worried.

Albert patted him on the shoulder and said, "Don't worry. Tom is extraordinarily sophisticated, intelligent, and capable. He must be very secure in his decision. I guess that he probably has already defeated a God Becoming Level cultivator, so he has the confidence to challenge Adam. Perhaps he wants to use Adam as a stepping stone. As long as he can survive the fight with Adam, this battle will definitely help him immensely."

"I hope so." Joseph sighed.

In the house of the Scotts, Phoebe hung up the phone and sighed deeply.

She'd just talked with Tom on the phone and got to know about the fight.

Now she was no longer the silly girl she used to be who knew nothing. In fact, she had also started cultivation not long ago, slowly shifting her attention from the company to cultivation.

She had been making rapid progress and had reached the third stage of the Innate Realm.

But she kept a low profile and did not tell anyone including Tom.

The more she progressed, the more she felt that she was different. Ever since she'd broken through to the third stage of the Innate Realm, she'd been having strange dreams.

In those dreams, she was not Phoebe, but another person, and there was a voice echoing in her ear, asking her to go home...

Those dreams were too real and frightening. Every time she woke up, her heart was pounding and her face was ashen.

Inexplicably, she felt that what had happened in the dreams had really happened in reality. This thought scared her. She had a hunch that someone would come to find her sooner or later.

She'd wanted to talk to Tom about it for a long time, but she knew he was very busy now so she'd bit her words back every time she tried to start, for fear that she would bother him.

"I hope this is just a dream."

Phoebe shook her head and said wistfully.

She was very satisfied with her life now and really didn't want any change.

She came back to her senses soon. The fight between Tom and Adam worried her.

Time seemed to slow down on this day. Almost everyone in the world turned their eyes to the battle between Adam and Tom in Country M.

Finally, after a day and night of desperately waiting, this day finally came!

For Country M, this was not just a simple battle, but even a battle for dignity.

The fight was such a hit that even some ordinary people had heard of it. Discussions had never subsided.

As one of the fighters, Tom was meditating in his room, seemingly oblivious of the people gathering around his residence, among which were some great cultivators.

When the first ray of sunlight shone through his window into his room and touched on his face, he opened his eyes.

All of a sudden, a strong airflow came out of his body, as if all his pores had opened to release the turbid Qi in his body.

Then, the great cultivators around the house heard his bones cracking as he stood up. It sounded like a massive machine was coming to life as its mighty power woke up.

Tom looked very austere now with deep eyes and pure temperament. It seemed that he was not a modern man, but an ancient man in modern clothes.

There seemed to be traces of time on his body.

So, when he stepped out of the room and appeared in front of everybody, everyone had an illusion.

In their eyes, Tom was really a man from an ancient time, who had traveled thousands of years to the modern time.

Chapter 1045

"Is this... Tom? Why do I feel he has lived for thousands of years?"

"What? I thought I was the only one who felt that way."

"Isn't it said he's only thirty? His face looked like an old man's. Look at his eyes. They're profound."

"It seems that we all underestimated Tom. Maybe he can really defeat Adam."

"That's impossible! Adam is the most powerful man in Country M and the great demon king who has ruled the western world for a long time, while Tom is just a newbie. He is the younger generation. How can he be Adam's opponent?"

"Anyway, I'm increasingly looking forward to this battle..."

Many people started a heated discussion the moment Tom came out. Their eyes were fixed on Tom and they wanted to take a good look at him. This popping-out super-strong man dared to challenge Adam. Apart from everything else, his courage has made him exceed lots of people!

Regardless of the final result, the name Tom would be imprinted in their minds.

In their view, it would take great courage for an expert of Innate Realm to challenge that of God Becoming Level.

Tom felt many of the strong hid in the crowd, including some experts at Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm, as well as a few masters at Half-step God Becoming Level.

However, these masters of Half-step God Becoming Level were already relatively old, with their energy going weakening. If they could not reach the God Becoming Level in a short period, their strength would keep regressing until they became ordinary martial artists and meet their last day.

Under the gaze of so many people, Tom did not feel nervous or panicked at all. There was a faint smile on his face, like a gentle spring breeze, and joy leaped onto his face. His happiness at the moment could reach everyone present.

It was as if he was going on a spring outing, not a fight with Adam!

His performance shocked countless people. In their opinion, even if Tom was really confident, he would definitely be very cautious and nervous facing such a big devil as Adam!

But Tom didn't, and they could feel that Tom was not pretending to be, but really happy.

Tom was indeed joyful but not disguised. He has already gathered himself up to the best state, which was slightly stronger the time he was facing Asura.

Therefore, he had full confidence in this battle. Even if he couldn't defeat Adam, at least he would never lose to Adam.

He took a step and walked toward a direction.

That was where Adam was.

In fact, Adam did not make any announcements about a fighting field, but for a master at Tom's level, he was able to sense it.

His spiritual level has been far beyond what ordinary people could understand.

It was almost about quantum entanglement.

This was a profound and more profound state.

As Tom moved forward, all of the Strong on H City followed Tom.

On a high building were standing two men, one wearing white clothes, the other was in yellow. They stood on the edge. The city was blowing a rank typhoon. If it were an ordinary person standing on such a high floor, they would certainly be blown down. If they fell down, they would certainly become pieces.

However, the two of them did not move at all. Blowing on them, the typhoon only lifted the edge of their clothes, without shaking their bodies at all. They were like statues there.

"The guy named Tom is not simple. I didn't expect that such a master could be cultivated in the secular world. It's interesting."

"Indeed. It is fair to say that there are too many annoyances in the world. People in the world focus on technological development but neglect self-cultivation. Moreover, their cultivation methods are all extremely backward and barbaric, far inferior to ours. But Tom from the secular world is a hard-won genius for his level."

If Xander was here, he would be shocked. The two people were not some ordinary people, but big shots on the List of Immortals!

The man in white was the Chosen one ranking the second, Emmett!

The man in yellow was the Chosen one ranking the third, Alistair!

The two of them can be very famous in the entire Clan World. They could even match the Invictus Shawn.

However, it was inconceivable that they actually appeared here and became interested in Tom.

It should be noted that they were not ordinary geniuses, but top geniuses in the world!

They have locked themselves up for many years, and there was no news about them for a long time.

It was said that they went to lock themselves up to adjust themselves to the best state and to participate in the opening of Secret Realm.

This time, the opening of the Secret Realm was delayed by a full ten years. They heard that there would be both great horror and opportunity in the Secret Realm. Many recluse geniuses were ready to take advantage of this Secret Realm to seize opportunities to break through.

Alistair in yellow said, "I heard that Tom is the champion of the Kungfu Cup in the secular world. He also wants to look for opportunities in the Secret Realm. Maybe we will meet him sometime. I'm a little looking forward to it. It's been too long since I've seen a worthy opponent in the secular world. I hope Tom won't let me down."

Emmett in white said, "Hehe, you might overestimate him who may not even defeat Adam. Let's wait and see."

Alistair said, "Oh? Do you think Tom cannot rival Adam?"

Emmett said faintly, "Adam is the strongest among those at First Rank of God Becoming Level. This Tom is only at the God Becoming Level. It's difficult for him to defeat Adam."

"That's hard to say. If he was really a Chosen One, then Adam is definitely not his match." Alistair wore a sweet smile and narrowed his eyes, looking very friendly. But deep in his eyes, there was a strong coldness and murderous intent when he looked at Tom, which could not be seen by someone without sharp eyes.

Emmett said disdainfully, "Chosen One? Do you think geniuses at our level are so common?"

Then Emmett suddenly stopped talking, because he suddenly saw Tom, who was walking, suddenly turned around and looked at him, as if he had heard what he was saying just now.

Chapter 1046

Emmett was obviously surprised. He didn't expect that he would still be found by Tom standing so far away. Moreover, Tom looked at him playfully, and it seemed that Tom heard what he was saying.

But Emmett knew that Tom couldn't hear him at such a distance.

However, that look in Tom's eyes really annoyed him.

No one dared to look at him like this for a long time. Before Tom, there was only one man who dared to look at him like this. That was the Invictus Shawn, who had been superior to him for so many years!

the Invictus Shawn was known as the chosen one of this era. He was the proudest man in the world. Emmett had fought with the Invictus Shawn countless times, but he was not the Invictus Shawn's opponent. He knew the Invictus Shawn was far better than himself.

But how dare Tom look at him like that?

He was furious, and his eyes narrowed. Even thousands of meters away, his killing intent was still unstoppable. Tom could see his killing intent come like thousands of sharp blades!

Emmett was super master, and his cultivation was only a little less than the Invictus Shawn's. His real strength had surpassed ordinary masters of God Becoming Level.

Even Adam might not be his opponent.

Therefore, his fierce killing intent was terrifying and could scare even a master of Major Perfection Realm of Innate Realm to death.

Although these people around Tom didn't look Emmett in the eye, they still felt a great deal of horror, as if the surrounding air had frozen. They were terrified, and a chill ran down their spines.

"What's going on? Why do I feel a horrible killing intent? The air around me is freezing."

"Is Adam here already?"

"My God, this killing intent is too fierce.

My heart stopped in fear just now!"

"Who is it?"

"It must be against Tom..."

They were all masters of Innate Realm. Sensing this terrifying killing intent, they all retreated. Their faces turned pale with fear, and they had to keep a distance from Tom.

Sure enough, after they left Tom, they immediately felt much better. They realized that this killing intent was targeting Tom.

They also saw that Tom was fine. Tom's face had not changed at all. There was still a faint smile on his face as if he had not been affected at all.

He was indeed not affected. Emmett's killing intent was, to say the least, terrifying and just like the will of heaven. Normally, the target would be excluded by the whole world.

However, Emmett was not a master of God Becoming Level, and his killing intent did not pose much threat to Tom. Tom could take it easy.

Tom saw Emmett's face clearly, and he realized that Emmett must be one of the super masters on the List of Immortals, but Tom didn't know exactly who he was. After all, Tom had never seen anyone.

The moment he saw Emmett, he could feel the horror aura around Emmett's body. Moreover, he sensed that Emmett was not a God Becoming Level, but a Half-step God Becoming Level like him.

It was just that Emmett's real strength had greatly surpassed ordinary masters of God Becoming Level.

That was interesting.

When he saw Emmett, he had the feeling of seeing his own kind. A super genius like he was.

He also noticed Alistair next to Emmett, and he sensed that Alistair was not a kind man. Alistair was a super master whose strength was almost the same as Emmett's.

These were the two great masters from the Clan World.

Tom soon realized this.

That was interesting, too.

He had a premonition that he would sooner or later fight these two super masters.

It seemed that he had underestimated the world before. There were plenty of geniuses in the world.

But that was the reason why all of this was interesting; otherwise, it would be boring if he was invincible.

Soon, he put on a faint smile and did not continue to look at Emmett. His goal today was not these two super masters but Adam.

No matter what, he was going to beat Adam today.

When Tom withdrew his gaze, Alistair said, "It seems that we still underestimated Tom. We stand here, and he found us. It's interesting. It's just so interesting."

Emmett also looked away. He nodded, raised his lips, and gave a meaningful smile as if Tom had become one of his prey. He said, "It's quite interesting. I'm looking forward to seeing him in Secret Realm."

Alistair smiled, "Emmett, judging from your tone, you seem to have the confidence of defeating Tom. If you're not his opponent, you'll embarrass us."

Emmett snorted, glanced coldly at Alistair, and said, "Alistair, you don't have to provoke me. If I'm not his match, then you'll only be killed by him."

Alistair shrugged and said, "I don't care. If he defeats you, I'll make friends with him. But I'm looking forward to it. I wonder if Tom will fight the Invictus Shawn? If so, it'll be a great fight."

As he spoke, his eyes turned red, as if there were two flames suddenly appeared, looking extremely weird.

Emmett said disdainfully. "He? Fight the Invictus Shawn? Nonsense."

...

On Tom's side, he walked all the way leisurely. He looked like going on a picnic or a trip instead of fighting. The team behind him grew bigger.

He seemed to be carrying endless Great Momentum to a calm lake.

Early in the morning, there were already a lot of people gathered here.

Most of the people here were from Country M. Higher-ups, the Strong, and even the army were waiting for Tom to come here.

The atmosphere was extremely solemn.

When Tom appeared, the voices in the room disappeared, and all of them looked at Tom.

Tom saw a blonde white man sitting on an island in the lake. It was Adam.

When Tom's eyes were fixed on him, Adam suddenly opened his eyes.

Chapter 1047

The moment Adam opened his eyes, everyone present felt their brains going blank. It was as if a pair of huge eyes had suddenly appeared in the sky, overlooking them!

This was an extremely terrifying feeling. For them, it was like the gods have known all their actions and secrets. Adam instantly has known everything.

Everyone felt panicked and stepped back, not daring to look straight into Adam's eyes.

At that moment, Adam seemed to have turned into the will of gods. The moment he opened his eyes, a color of gold flashed in his eyes, as if the thunder and lightning were jumping and flashing in his eyes.

It seemed that he was no longer a mortal, but a god!

Even Tom felt a great pressure at the moment he met the killing intention in Adam's eyes. His smooth breathing turned quick and uneven, and he even felt slightly flustered.

Tom was as powerful as a super strong master of the God Becoming Level. Although he was still at Half-step God Becoming Level, his real strength could already match those of the God Becoming Level.

However, he was still frightened by Adam's eyesight just now.

But it was only 0.05 seconds until he regained his composure.

For him, it was just a quick shock before he immediately calmed down.

Now he was thousands of meters away from Adam, but he could feel Adam's terrifying aura and Adam's strong killing intent on him!

It's fair to say that Adam as the strongest person in Country M as well as the Great Satan in the western world, was very powerful. He was even stronger than Asura.

If it were someone else, he would have been scared out of his wits facing such a terrifying person. But to Tom, all he had was true joy and excitement!

All he wanted now was to fight Adam.

He was in a Glazed State. and he was utterly pure and had no distraction. Only in this state can he play to his full strength.

He and Adam looked at each other. He didn't have the same kind of earth-shattering aura as Adam, which shocked all the thousands of masters present. He now seemed particularly low-key, as gentle as water.

It was after five seconds that most of the people present caught on and began to discuss.

"Oh my god, is this Adam? He is indeed the strongest master in Country M! Just now the look in his eyes was quite scary!"

"Yes, yes, just now my mind went completely blank and I am at my wits' end! He can affect us with just a look when we are so far away from Adam. If we stand in front of him, I'm afraid we will be scared to death by his look!"

"So Horrible! Adam is the Great Satan of the whole western world, and I finally know his super strength today. He is a master at the God Becoming Level, with almighty power!"

"Look at Tom, motionless. He must be scared out of his wits too, and never be more regretting! He's just at the Half-step God Becoming Level and hasn't really reached the God Becoming Level yet. How dare he challenge Adam like this? He's risking his neck!"

"That's right. He is a fool, a madman! He thought he is a great genius. Such an arrogant idiot dares to challenge Adam? When Adam rode the whirlwind, this guy probably wasn't born yet."

"I'm sure this guy is doomed! It's been a long time since Adam quit. This time, he's going to kill Tom."

"Of course. Everyone knew that Adam treats his disciples well. Just two days ago, Tom paralyzed Hannibal, Adam's disciple. Adam definitely will kill Tom."

"It's not easy for H Country to cultivate a genius, but it's a pity that he is going to be killed by Adam. Ha ha ha..."

A lot of people were talking about it. But none of them thought Tom would win. They thought he must be doomed this time.

Although they thought Tom was going to lose when he fought Hannibal, they didn't think that Tom could survive in Adam's hands.

After all, Hannibal was one of the disciples of Adam and he hadn't reached the God Becoming Level. Hannibal was no match to Adam.

To put it bluntly, even if Tom could defeat three Hannibal at the same time, they thought Tom had no chance of winning when fighting Adam.

They were betting on how long it will take Tom to lose. Most people thought he won't even last for three seconds. He came here purely to die.

Tom heard all of the voices, but none of which disturbed him at all.

Now that he was in a Glazed State without any distractions, he couldn't be affected by these external voices.

To everyone's attention, Tom walked towards Adam composedly.

Just as he reached the shore and was about to jump onto the water and to cross the river to the island where Adam was, he suddenly heard an excited and trembling voice, "Tom! You must win!"

It was said in the language of H

Country, not any foreign language.

Hearing this voice, Tom immediately stopped. He turned around and saw a young face. It was a man from H Country, an ordinary martial artist of the Master Realm.

He was wearing a Tai Chi suit, clenching his fists. He looked at Tom with admiration and excitement, cheering Tom up.

Tom's poker face finally wore a smile. He nodded at the man and said smilingly, "Okay, I'll win."

The young man did not expect Tom to notice him. Facing Tom's gentle smile, he felt extremely nervous and blissful, with his face instantly blushing.

Then, there were others cheering for Tom.

"Tom, you must win! We are all behind you!"

"Yes, Tom, don't worry! We all believe you'll win..."

"Come on, Tom..."

All of a sudden, there were more cheering sound, which brought Tom warmness.

Chapter 1048

Tom smiled gently and nodded, "Don't worry, I won't let you down."

His smile was like a Spring breeze, which made many of his fellow countrymen rest assured. They also developed trust in him, thinking that he was not lying, and they were much calmer for a moment.

His coming battle with Adam was much more serious than that between him and Hannibal, so there were countless people coming to watch the battle. Moreover, most of them were experts, some of whom were in the Major Perfection Realm in the Innate Realm, Half-step God Becoming Level experts. And even some of the senior

God Becoming Level experts hiding amidst the crowd.

This was the most high-profile battle that Tom ever had!

Countless people kept close watch on his every move. The pressure was so great that it even affected him, as if the air around him had become sticky.

He knew the pressure came from too many people around, especially those experts in Country M who deeply loathed him.

If it were someone else, even someone at Xander's level, he would definitely be hindered by this situation, and even feel too nervous to show his strength!

However, this was a piece of cake for Tom who has entered in the Glazed State. For an instant, he refreshed himself and returned to the purest state again, looking at Adam with absolute peaceful gaze.

He then took his first step under the spotlight.

He walked from the land to the lake. Even when standing on the water surface, he was very stable, as if he was a virtual thing as light as a feather, stepping on the lake.

This scene astonished many people, which was beyond the knowledge of numerous people. Even if a person was extremely strong, he or she could not go against the gravity of physics, right?

Even a very light item placed on the water surface could quickly go down, not to mention a person who weighed more than a hundred kilograms.

But Tom didn't. He walked gracefully on the water surface. Only the soles of his shoes were immersed into the water. With every step he took, there were ripples spreading. That was all!

"Is... that true? Tom was actually walking on the lake?"

"How is that possible? How did he do it?"

"I heard that the masters of the fourth stage of Innate Realm can walk on the lake. They need to sustain the body weight by rotating their toes and generating great thrust! But the water could be knee-deep. Look at Tom, the water actually only reached his shoes. How can that be possible? Is Tom an immortal?"

"Yes, it's against the basic physics, isn't it? Does gravity fail in him?"

"Or is Tom already the Strong at the God Becoming Level?"

"No way. Tom is only thirty years old, too young to reach the God Becoming Level. I've heard an old senior who said the rule of this world is to limit humans to reach the God Becoming Level before the age of thirty-five! For a genius to reach the God Becoming Level, it must take him more than thirty-five years! So this Tom can't be a God Becoming Level expert!"

"Then how did he do it?"

"I think he must have done a trick to the lake..."

A lot of people started to talk about it. Further shocked by Tom's performance, some even attempted to walk on the lake to see if Tom had done something to the lake.

But the moment they stepped on it, their feet were immediately submerged. Some stubborn people who kept trying even fell into the lake, badly awkward.

Now, they came to believe that Tom did not do any trick, but truly stepped on the water. They'd never seen such an operation.

A few of the H Country compatriots present were especially excited to witness this scene, thinking that Tom would be more likely to win!

The audience of Country M, however, was quite unhappy. Seeing Tom being in the limelight here, they all cast evil spells on Tom.

Adam stood up. When he saw what Tom was capable of, he narrowed his eyes slightly, a hint of malice quickly flashing by. He was obviously very unhappy. He snorted heavily, though not loud, but it was penetrating enough to reach all the people. It was like a sullen thunder from the sky, full of stern and horrifying energy.

Adam then stepped forward, making a great sound, as if the whole ground had undergone a violent vibration.

Almost instantly, it seemed that an invisible force was spreading quickly from his feet to Tom. Every step he took caused a stir like a thunder, and the water splashed everywhere.

In an instant, it came to Tom, and seemed to blow Tom up like a powerful torpedo.

But it won't hurt Tom. He didn't expect to kill Tom in just one shot. He was intended to embarrass Tom.

Many people fixed their wide eyes on the scene, being afraid of missing anything.

As for Adam's counterattack, Tom only gently smiled, feeling no panic or nervous at all. He only faintly stepped out of his left foot to kick the invisible power from Adam to the right. This huge force, like a football, was easily kicked away by him and transferred to the right side, where happened to stand a lot of spectators from Country M.

Two seconds later, there was a loud bang, like an explosion as violent as a super large torpedo, causing a huge splash of water. It rolled up huge water waves rampaging towards the audience seat, causing many people to be drenched.

They were very awkward, giving rise to a burst of ridicule.

Some of the audience at the lower levels were even injured by this force.

Adam became even more angry!

How dare Tom to go against him like this. Damn it!

Given this, Adam stopped attacking Tom. Now he could see that Tom was a tough guy to fight.

However, the moment Tom appeared, he was bound to die!

He stared at Tom, clearly revealing his killing intent towards him.

Under everyone's witness, Tom walked a distance through the lake to a small island and stood in front of Adam.

Suddenly, the noisy scene became silent. Everyone stared pop-eyed, being afraid that they would miss any wonderful moment.

Chapter 1049

In this world, there were very few Strongs of God Becoming Level, let alone battles among them.

The reason why the God Becoming Level got the name "God Becoming" was in that it means one on the way to becoming a god, kind of demigod.

The Strong in this realm, in a strict sense, was not a human being, but a more powerful existence that transcended human beings.

Adam, a genuine master of God Becoming Level and the super Strong of First Rank Summit, was famous and respected in the whole world. He was the most powerful man in Country M, known as the Great Satan in the western world. Since his debut, he had killed many masters and earned a great reputation.

Tom, a super-genius from H Country, had not reached the God Becoming Level yet. But he dared to challenge Adam, which definitely triggered many debates.

In particular, Tom represented H Country. These days, he had stirred up trouble in Country M. It could be said that this was not a simple battle between two Strongs but a competition between two countries.

If Tom could defeat Adam, H Country's international status would definitely raise.

However, everyone felt that it was almost impossible for him to beat Adam, virtually impossible. And Tom would be lucky if he could survive this battle.

Finally, when they were confronting each other, Adam began to speak.

"Tom, I have to admit that I underestimated you. I didn't expect you to progress so fast. In just half a year, you dare to stand in front of me."

Adam's voice was extremely sexy and beautiful, sounded like a fairy which was fascinating.

He was tall, with blonde hair, and looked like that Adam in the bible, a god from heaven.

In contrast, Tom seemed much more mediocre.

Tom, in casual clothes, looked like an ordinary passerby.

In particular, Tom was shorter than Adam, so the difference between them was more obvious.

Facing Adam's pressure, Tom smiled at and said, "Adam, you didn't expect me to come to you. You wanted to kill me in the Kungfu Cup. You, the most powerful person in Country M, the First Rank Summit of the God Becoming Level, wanted to kill a Major Perfection Realm master of Innate Realm. You are narrow-minded. You are petty, compared with God of War in H Country. You are just a sneaky person."

Hearing Tom's words, Adam got angry and his pupils shrank. The murderous intent, which just was hidden, in his eyes suddenly burst out.

"As a younger person, how dare you speak ill of me? You are close to death now!"

Adam was angry and was about to attack Tom. He was agile, and his words seemed to have magic power, exerting mental pressure on his enemy.

Tom dodged lightly, like a feather without any weight that looked especially light.

Adam didn't hit Tom with one stroke.

There was more violence and fear in his eyes. Tom was flexible. With such a sudden move, he even failed to touch Tom.

Logically speaking, Tom was only on the Half-step God Becoming Level, and that he should not be that agile.

Was this damn man from H Country really the chosen one of this era?

Thinking of this possibility, he became more agitated and jealous.

He had lots of honors in his life. Since his debut, he was almost invincible, but he wasn't the chosen one. How could this damn man of H Country be the chosen one?

However, soon, the corners of his mouth lifted up as an idea struck his mind. Since Tom was a super-genius, and perhaps the chosen one. If he killed Tom, he might be able to take away this fortune.

By then, he would have broken through the realm and reached the Second Rank God Becoming Level.

After Tom dodged lightly, Adam did not attack immediately. Tom smiled and said, "I'm right. You are a despicable person that, as a Strong of God Becoming Level, chose a sneak attack. Unfortunately, you are not strong enough to hurt me with the sneak attack."

Although Tom's voice was not loud, it was penetrating. So the present could hear it with some bewitching effect. Many people had the same idea after hearing this. Yes, Adam, as a Strong of the God Becoming Level, attacked Tom sneakily. What a shameless man!

Adam sensed their emotional changes and they looked at him with a strange look. The corners of his mouth twitched violently. He hated Tom more.

He wished he could skin Tom alive right away.

But he suppressed this anger because he knew that he chose to fight with Tom today and made such a big fuss. If he couldn't take down Tom easily, everything would be meaningless.

He had to get this battle to the level of two countries so that the fight could conform to his identity of the Strong of God Becoming Level.

He burst into laughter.

As if he had heard a joke, his voice was extremely loud and full of strength.

The sound from his mouth contained a huge amount of energy, distorting the space, as if a bomb had exploded on the surface of a lake.

When it seeped into the lake, it caused waves on the surface, which looked amazing.

When the sound reached people's ears, it hurt many people's eardrums.

All the living things around them, insects, birds, and beasts, were trembling with fear and disappeared completely. This horrible aura was incomparable.

But for Tom, it did not affect him at all. He didn't even change his smile.

Then, he heard Adam coming words.

After laughing, Adam stared at Tom and said, "As a practitioner from H Country, how dare you slander me like this? Boy, you don't have to pretend. You dare to stand in front of me today, you must be authorized by the God of War of H Country. I know that H Country has been developing fast these years. Do you really think you can exceed our country? Don't bite off more than you can chew!"

With his words, a lot of people suddenly realized that Tom was just a master of Innate Realm. Even if he had reached the Half-step God Becoming Level, he was a master of Half-step God Becoming Level. How dare he clamor in front of Adam, who was on the God Becoming Level?

He must be supported by the God of War of H Country.

Chapter 1050

Then, Adam shouted in the direction of H Country before Tom could manage a word, "Albert, I know you're here. Come out! All these years, you've been trying to challenge me. I ignored you so you sent your subordinate to provoke me? I'll show you respect if you man up and fight with me! Or I'll kill this audacious guy!"

As Adam said this, everyone followed his gaze as though Albert was really there.

They were excited. Albert, the God of War of H Country, was also a legend. He was known as the guardian of H Country whose cultivation was sublime!

Back then when H Country had been targeted by several other countries, it was Albert who had helped the country through the crisis. Without him, H Country would have no longer existed.

It could be said that Albert made an indispensable contribution to the rise of H Country.

Moreover, Albert was also called Great Satan, which was exactly Adam's equal in the eastern world. There had been debates about which one of them was more powerful.

However, to everyone's disappointment, the two of them had never fought.

It was a great pity for those who had been looking forward to witnessing the fight between the two legendary men.

Adam's words dropped a bombshell, making it seem that Albert had really appeared and was likely to fight Adam.

Albert was a damn sight more celebrated than Tom. If he could fight Adam, things would be much more thrilling than watching Tom being slaughtered.

Indeed, in their opinion, Tom was not in Adam's league.

No matter how jaw-droppingly Tom had fought and despite the fact that he appeared to be a formidable rival to Adam, they didn't think Tom could defeat Adam. They thought that Adam hadn't taken Tom seriously because his real opponent was Albert.

It was also believed that Tom, who had just reached the Half-step God Becoming Level, had the balls to raise hell in Country M alone because the God of War of H Country had asked him to do so.

Tom frowned slightly. He hadn't expected Adam to be so shameless.

Albert wasn't here at all. If he was here, Tom could sense his presence. There was no one where Adam had been looking at just now. He was just bluffing.

Tom was clever enough to know that

Adam was trying to ennoble himself and justify this battle so that he could save himself from being criticized for bullying the weak.

He had to admit that Adam had a good brain. He'd quickly turned the tables and gained the upper hand in public opinion.

However, it was just an underhand trick.

Tom said to him, "Adam, are you trying to fool the whole world? I know you're arrogant, but not to that extreme. Stop acting. Mr. Campbell isn't here. He's far away in H Country. There's no one in the direction you're facing."

The crowds were taken aback, wondering whether Albert was here or not.

They gazed intently but saw no one in that direction.

Adam ignored him and continued, "Albert, you disappoint me so much. Since you wouldn't come out, I'll beat this guy to a pulp now. Don't blame me for not forewarning you!"

Adam was a better actor than those professionals and fooled many people.

But Tom didn't buy it at all. He huffed a laugh and raised his voice. "Adam, spare me you acting. No matter how wonderful your performance is, it will not change the fact that you will be defeated by me!"

As he spoke, he gave off an increasingly intimidating aura which was like tides getting higher and higher. He'd been low-key and mediocre but suddenly became extraordinary and eye-catching.

He had been so ordinary just now that he'd looked more like a puppet, a pawn than a rival to Adam.

But now, everyone realized that Tom wasn't that simple.

Adam's face darkened a little, but he didn't say anything. He looked at Tom quietly. His eyes were like radars that were analyzing Tom by observing him.

Tom continued, "Half a year ago, on the Kungfu Cup, you tried to kill me. At that moment, I made up my mind to challenge you and defeat you one day!"

"Adam, over the years, you have commanded your men to kill numerous H Country's heroes! If you think it's a secret, you're wrong. You don't deserve to be killed by Mr. Campbell, because you're no match for him! I, a thirty-year-old man on the Half-step God Becoming Level, is enough to end your life!"

"I know you've been waiting to do away with me after knowing that I won the Kungfu Cup and would come to Country M to receive your guidance according to the convention. Because you saw my potential and my threat to you, you couldn't wait to kill me before I get stronger. Adam, you're too despicable to be called a legend. You're in no way comparable to Mr. Campbell."

Tom's voice was firm. His words were very forceful and shocking.

Some people wavered and switched sides.

All the people present were smart great cultivators who were able to judge for themselves. They had more or less heard of some of Adam's dirty tricks. On the contrary, H Country had been upfront and honest all these years and no dirt had been dug up on Tom.

Therefore, they believed in Tom both emotionally and rationally.

Adam's face darkened even more due to his words. He worked to assume composure but the slight twitch of the corners of his mouth betrayed him.

He looked daggers at Tom. If his glare was tangible, Tom would have been torn into pieces.
