The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3901 - 3905

base camp.

A secluded place.

Xiao Feng sat slumped on the ground, his eyes were empty, as if he was a body without a soul.

During this period, Levi Garrison also came to investigate, and personally helped him to remove the evil spirit, but at that time, neither teacher nor apprentice spoke.

Xiao Feng felt shameless, and Levi Garrison was speechless.

More precisely, for the time being, he has not considered how to deal with Xiao Feng.

Although the assassination of Xiao Feng was under the control of the inner demon, many of the previous incidents were done by Xiao Feng in a sober state.

Moreover, many people have tried their best to persuade them, but with little success, Xiao Feng even attacked each other with malicious words.

This is all Xiao Feng's fault, so there is no escaping the responsibility that he should bear.

Xiao Feng could naturally feel the change in Levi Garrison's attitude, but at the moment he didn't have the slightest resentment in his heart.

Levi Garrison didn't take his life, so it was beyond Xiao Feng's expectations, but it was more torturous to live like this.

Xiao Feng sighed again, recalling that scene, his regret couldn't be added in an instant.

“Gong Qianqiu is not a good woman, you’d better stay away, or she will kill her sooner or later.”

“Gong Qianqiu has entanglements with many men, Xiao Feng, hurry up and sober up!”

“With such a high vision of Gong Qianqiu, how could it be possible to see you?”

At first, the words of Xu Qingya and others echoed in his ears, but Xiao Feng still said aggressively that they were sowing discord.

Looking back now, it was precisely because she was with the Demon Suppression Division that Xu Qingya had a deep understanding of Gong Qianqiu, and everything was said by them.

“Phoenix Azure Dragon (Qinglong), they should also hate me very much, right?”

Xiao Feng muttered to himself.

It was precisely because he inadvertently leaked the location of Phoenix and others that they were captured by Duguxiao and dug up their roots.

Can you imagine how cruel this act is, and how unbearable the process must be?

So for a long time, Phoenix and others were in the shadow of being abused.

However, it was all his own fault.

“And then the base camp was hit hard by Duguxiao. In the final analysis, it was because I disclosed Levilia’s practice to Gong Qianqiu.”

“I was so fascinated by her back then that I couldn’t even see through such a simple play-by-play.”

“I’m so sluggish!”

At the beginning, Gong Qianqiu Ming said on the surface that he had no interest in Levilia’s exercises, but he told him that Levi Garrison had concealed the exercises.

This clearly means that he has thoroughly researched his own xinxing. When he hears such words, he will naturally go to Levilia to ask about the content of the exercises.

And the harem Qianqiu pretended to be injured again, to clear the suspicion of secretly cultivating the exercises, and at the same time make himself practice in order to avoid going into the devil.

Coupled with the fact that he was staring at Levilia and did not spread it, no one knew that the exercises had been leaked.

Then it was proved that Duguxiao also practiced the extreme swallowing part of the Levilia Gongfa, so that the cultivation base could be greatly increased in a short period of time.

The destruction in the base camp caused Phoenix and the others' regained confidence to be trampled again, and they almost collapsed.

"As long as the test was carried out at that time, it was possible to see whether she suffered serious internal injuries."

"It won't happen next."

"It's all my fault, ahhh!"

Xiao Feng slammed the ground hard, scolding himself that he was too obsessed at the time, and he didn't even have such a simple face to investigate.

"And the robbery of the gods was stolen. At that time, I led Gong Qianqiu to turn around in the base camp."

"Although I didn't go to Master's room at the time, with Gong Qianqiu's resourcefulness, I will definitely find an opportunity to search."

"That's Master's most handy weapon!"

Later, Gong Qianqiu used the divine robbery attack to successfully escape from the predicament, and if Levi Garrison had not shot in time, I am afraid that he would have died long ago.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3902

“If only I had been killed then, I wouldn’t have to be tortured for knowing the secret.”

Xiao Feng sighed again, his face even more depressed.

“Master clearly had the opportunity to nip the danger in the bud.”

“It’s also that I accidentally leaked Master’s plan, which allowed Gong Qianqiu to escape in time.”

“If there were no leak plans, the rest would not have happened either.”

Looking at the ruins of the base camp, there is still a strong smell of blood floating in the air.

Although he didn’t know the specific casualties of his own side, Xiao Feng also knew that it would definitely not be small, but all this could have been avoided.

It’s all because he leaked secrets again and again, making Gong Qianqiu’s plan succeed again and again.

Deng Deng Deng!

There were faint footsteps.

Xiao Feng looked up and saw Xu Qingya, Yufeng Tiansi and others doing restorative training in the distance.

Although they have lost their cultivation base, but with the panacea provided by Levi Garrison, they can barely act on their own at this moment.

“They were all killed by me. If I hadn’t made an assertion to tell Gong Qianqiu that time, Duguxiao wouldn’t have captured him so quickly.”

Xiao Feng hurriedly lowered his head, wishing he could find a crack to burrow in.

At the beginning, after Xu Qingya was captured, she identified Gong Qianqiu in person as the leader of Qianqiu Sect.

If he believed them, the base camp would definitely be able to implement preventive measures earlier.

It can even take the initiative to attack and destroy Qianqiu Sect first.

In this way, there will be no fierce battle today, and those elites in the base camp will not need to sacrifice.

“It’s all my fault, it’s all my fault!”

“I’m an asshole!”

“I’ve let so many brothers lose their lives.”

Xiao Feng clenched his fists tightly, his fingernails were already deeply embedded in the flesh without knowing it, the blood slowly flowed out along the fingers, and he didn’t feel the slightest pain.

Of course, these are not the most let Xiao Feng collapse.

The most unbearable thing for Xiao Feng was the assassination of Levi Garrison.

Recalling that in the past, Levi Garrison took care of himself meticulously, and in terms of cultivation, he taught himself even more than his relatives.

But in exchange, it was a backstab!

Although Xiao Feng also knew that he was attracted by the evil spirit at that time, if he was not addicted to the beauty of Gong Qianqiu, how would he give the other party the opportunity to use the evil spirit?

Fortunately, Levi Garrison was aware of it in advance, otherwise the assassination might have been successful. Wouldn't it be a bigger mistake then?

Zoey Lopez's increasingly haggard face, Levilia frowning at a young age, Azure Dragon (Qinglong) Zhuque and others are uneasy, etc...

A lot of pictures rushed into Xiao Feng's mind as if he had gone crazy, and he felt dizzy, and even the world was spinning.

The whole person is on the verge of collapse.

"It's all my fault!"

"As a wicked person like me, how can I continue to live in the world?"

"The big mistake has been made, and only one death can make up for it."

Thinking of this, Xiao Feng quickly pulled out a dagger in his arms and stabbed it at the heart.

He decided to end this sinful life on his own.

Bang!

Dang!

Just as the dagger was about to pierce the flesh, Xiao Feng felt the force on his wrist, and then his entire arm was extremely numb.

The dagger also fell to the ground.

"Master... Master?"

Xiao Feng looked up and saw Levi Garrison's back in the distance.

"Why don't you let me die?"

Xiao Feng almost roared and asked.

“Death is an act of cowardice. Now that you know that you have made a big mistake, you should personally solve the real culprit.”

Levi Garrison’s voice transmission exploded in his mind.

This sentence made Xiao Feng instantly feel empowered.

It’s not wrong, her sin is very true, but Gong Qianqiu is the initiator. Now she is still at large, and she must end this evil relationship by herself.

“But why is she doing this to me?”

Xiao Feng was puzzled.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3903

“She’s already my woman, why is she doing this to me?”

Thinking back to the love of fish and water that night, Xiao Feng was really puzzled.

If you don’t have any feelings for yourself, why did Gong Qianqiu give it all to himself?

“Before killing her, this must be figured out.”

Xiao Feng made up his mind.

At the same time, Levi Garrison also began to arrange the next tasks.

“There is a message from God’s brain, and in addition to a few divine veins and a holy vein, you will go to practice in batches, and I will personally guide you.”

“Wen Lei, Nan Yan, you and Jinye lead the students to stay at the base camp, and beware of Qianqiu’s counterattack.”

“If the Kunlun Ruins are attacked, don’t fight head-on, and hide in the safe house as soon as possible.”

Wen Lei and others felt the pressure doubled. After all, for the real powerhouses in Kunlun Ruins, their cultivation realm was not enough.

But they also knew that Levi Garrison was helpless to make such an arrangement.

With the continuous improvement of Levi Garrison’s strength, the divine veins mean nothing to him, and the degree of improvement is minimal.

The holy vein must have a significant effect, and this time to discover the holy vein, Levi Garrison must leave the base camp.

“Brother, you can rest assured to improve your strength, and the security of the base camp will be handed over to us.”

Zhou Nanyan said in a deep voice.

Levi Garrison also seemed to sense the unease in her heart, and then comforted: “Don’t worry, I will return to the base camp from time to time to check the situation.”

“And I have also increased the strength of the safe house and the peripheral defense formation. Even if a powerhouse of the level of the Three Holy Sons attacks, they will not be able to break through the defensive barrier in a short time.”

“You have plenty of time to hide in the safe house.”

“I see!”

Wen Lei and the others let out a breath. It turned out that Levi Garrison had already left behind.

With no worries, Levi Garrison began to take people to practice, and by the way, he also came to the holy vein to temper the body, and the realm of strength was improved again.

In the next few days, everything was calm, and the tension of the base camp members was relieved a little.

Just when Levi Garrison was about to take the third group of people to leave, the Zhenmo Division found the exact location of the 'Tianmen'.

Since Tian Si and the Cang Qiong faction powerhouses fled, Zhen Mosi once again bowed his head to Levi Garrison.

In addition, Tiansi had sent the approximate location coordinates before, and after a carpet search, the effort finally paid off.

"Jinye, you take them to the Divine Vein Tempering Body Improvement, you also know the exercises, wait for me to teach them!"

Levi Garrison said solemnly: "Since Tianmen has been found, I must go and investigate it myself, otherwise I will not be at ease."

Levi Garrison didn't know how deep the water in Kunlun Ruins was before, but now he just went to investigate, so he knew.

"Don't worry, Teacher Ye, you are guaranteed to complete the task." Ning Jinye said confidently.

Since the super-spiritual quenching, Ning Jinye's strength has increased rapidly, and now he can be completely independent.

After Levi Garrison made the arrangements, he went to investigate according to the location information provided by the Town Magic Division.

Without a word, Levi Garrison finally came to a nearby location.

"Isn't this the last desert I tracked down last time?"

Levi Garrison looked around and felt a little familiar, but it was far from the location he tracked last time.

"Mr. Ye, it's not far ahead. We wanted to go in and investigate, but we were all blown away by an invisible force."

"I really don't dare to get close."

The elite of the town magic division said cautiously.

Levi Garrison looked in the direction of his finger, and there was still a desert in front of him, with a sand dune in the center.

However, no matter how stormy the dune is, the surrounding area is quiet.

It is as if there is some invisible force around the dunes that isolates the wind and sand from the outside world.

“Something weird!”

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3904

Seeing the lingering lingering fears of the Zhen Mosi elite, Levi Garrison didn't force it, and said solemnly, “You guys stay away later.”

“As ordered!”

The elite of the Town Demon Division quickly withdrew without any hesitation, and soon they were hundreds of meters away.

Levi Garrison is a little funny, it's just a sand dune, and it's so fearful as a tiger, as for it?

“I didn't find the weirdness here before. Could it be that this situation happened by accident?”

Levi Garrison was a little puzzled. He had also searched extensively in the desert last time, but he did not find such a strange sight.

Otherwise, come and check it out.

Levi Garrison rushed out, and soon came to a few feet in front of the strange dune.

“It really is the energy fluctuation formed by the formation.”

After careful observation, Levi Garrison found that there were faint power fluctuations circulating around the dunes.

Moreover, the layers of fluctuations are very regular, as if the carefully designed energy shield, it is precisely because of its existence that the storm cannot move the hills.

“I want to see how powerful this formation is?”

Levi Garrison continued to move forward, and there was nothing unusual at the beginning of the period, until within half a meter of the shield, there was a clear sense of power obstruction.

The energy fluctuations that were looming just now suddenly brightened, showing seven colors under the sunlight, dazzling.

And the closer you get, the stronger the sense of obstruction.

“It’s no wonder that the people of Zhen Mosi were so frightened. If they weren’t strong enough, I’m afraid they would have been blown away by this force at this moment and suffered serious internal injuries.”

Levi Garrison continued to move forward, the golden charm bloomed on his body, and he collided violently with the blocking force.

“This power is very strong!”

Levi Garrison was a little surprised, this confrontation force was probably equivalent to the strongest blow of the Fire Cloud Evil God.

“If you are not strong enough to forcibly enter the formation, you will be blocked by the power of the formation, and you will even be seriously injured and die.”

“It seems that this is the reason why ordinary people cannot enter the Kunlun Ruins.”

“This formation is equivalent to the power threshold for entering the Kunlun Ruins.”

Thinking of this, Levi Garrison suddenly exerted his strength, and the sense of obstruction disappeared immediately.

However, when Levi Garrison entered the inside of the shield of power of the formation, the scene in front of him changed dramatically.

Where else is there any sand in the sky?

There was no gust of wind.

In front of him is a huge mountain range, with lush vegetation covering the mountains and plains, and strangely, there is not a trace of beast roars and insects.

The surrounding is quiet, and the quietness makes people feel hairy, as if this is a vacuum, and there is no sound transmission.

“anyone there?”

Levi Garrison tried it out, and the voice spread far away.

He turned his head and looked around, Levi Garrison was stunned for a moment, and there was also a lush green behind him, and the elite of the Suppression Magic Division was nowhere to be seen.

“It seems that this formation can not only isolate ordinary people, but also play a role in confusing the audience.”

Levi Garrison knew the magic of ancient formations. Once, Zhuge’s military commander could trap thousands of soldiers from Soochow with a stone forest.

A formation is a world, and if it is not for an expert to guide the maze, I am afraid that it will be trapped in the formation.

“Since you have come in, we must investigate.”

Levi Garrison continued to move forward, and soon saw two bronze doors standing at the bottom of the mountain.

There are dragons and phoenixes carved on the bronze giant gate, especially in the middle are written with three big characters in ancient seals: Kunlun Ruins.

“Could it be that behind this door is the so-called Kunlun Ruins World?”

For the first time in history, Levi Garrison felt a little uneasy. This will be a brand new world. Should you enter it?

Pushing this door open will also herald unknown dangers.

Although he has defeated the three saints and others this time, it is still unknown how many strong people there are in Kunlun Ruins.

“Since you have found out where Tianmen is, it is not too late to wait for your strength to improve before entering.”

After making up his mind, Levi Garrison rushed out in the opposite direction.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 3905

Levi Garrison stepped back several dozen feet in a row, and then he felt the resistance.

And he can clearly feel that this force is several times stronger than when it came in.

“Is it easy to come in and hard to leave?”

Levi Garrison released his strength to fight against it, and sure enough, the strength expended also increased several times before it was enough to break through the barrier.

Boom!

The sound of energy banging constantly came from the void.

Levi Garrison felt that he had broken through dozens of strength obstacles, and his body finally became very relaxed.

Swish!

Levi Garrison finally retreated, and the surrounding environment changed again, still an endless desert.

“It’s amazing!”

Levi Garrison was full of emotion, and at the same time, he also had a rough guess.

To enter the Kunlun Ruins, the powerhouses of the secular world must reach the threshold strength, but once they enter it, they cannot immediately retreat.

Unless you want your own cultivation realm to far exceed the threshold strength, you will not be able to come and go freely.

Of course, this also explains why Tiansi and Xuanming disappeared for so many years before returning to the mundane world.

I am afraid that the two of them only reached the minimum strength standard to enter the Tianmen at that time, and it is impossible to figure it out immediately.

After years of practice, it can be considered that the strength requirements are met. After all, the strength when it comes out is several times stronger than that when it goes in.

“Mr. Ye, why did you disappear just now?”

the people asked.

They saw Levi Garrison approaching the sand dunes just now, but they disappeared in place in an instant, which made him panic.

Levi Garrison did not explain too much, and said solemnly: “Mark this seat clearly, I have important arrangements.”

“Don’t worry, Mr. Ye, I have already marked it from multiple detection tools. When other people want to come, they can just follow the markings to find them.”

Levi Garrison nodded with satisfaction. Although he didn’t enter the bronze door to investigate just now, he just needed to determine this position.

At that time, confidants will be arranged to hide and monitor nearby. As long as someone comes out of this area, a warning signal will be sent to the base camp members immediately.

In this way, it is possible to evacuate in advance, so that the Taixu Shenzong or the Sky Sect powerhouses can rush into the air and ensure the safety of their own personnel to the greatest extent.

Of course, this is in the case of going out to quench the body.

“I will kill Kunlun Ruins after all the members have improved their strength.”

“Gong Qianqiu, wait for Lao Tzu and let you live for a few more days.”

Levi Garrison said coldly in his heart.

In the Taixu Shenzong.

After five days of recuperation, the three saints and others recovered from their internal injuries.

In particular, Gong Qianqiu secretly runs the Devouring Cultivation Technique. Since the concentration of spiritual energy in the Kunlun Ruins is far beyond that of the mundane world, her cultivation is more advanced.

The three saints also adjusted their mentality and began to introduce other saints to Gong Qianqiu.

“This is the Fourth Holy Son. He is good at poison art. Like the poison of Shenmue before, it can’t get into his eyes at all.”

The three saints introduced to a middle-aged man who looked like he was withered.

“Four Holy Sons are good.”

Gong Qianqiu greeted respectfully.

The Fourth Holy Son hummed, and began to fiddle with the surrounding bottles, apparently preparing poison.

“Let’s go, the Fourth Holy Son is addicted to the configuration of poison, let’s not disturb him.”

The Three Holy Sons greeted everyone to leave.

When they were about to go out, the hoarse voice of the Four Saints came: “Remember to remind them to take Bingqing Dan, otherwise the seven orifices will bleed and die in half an hour.”

“it is good!”

While talking, the three saints had already taken out a small porcelain bottle and distributed the purple pills to Gong Qianqiu and others.

Gong Qianqiu didn’t think much about it, he took the pill directly, and his head that was still cloudy just now became a lot more awake.

After leaving this seemingly dilapidated wooden house.

The three saints said slowly: “The four saints refine poison all year round, and the toxins left in the wooden house are enough to poison the masters to death.”

“What is the use of the Bing Qing Dan just now?”
